Quick Hitters

- Indiana enters the the NCAA Tournament with plenty of momentum after a run to the Big Ten Tournament Final last weekend as the event's No. 8 seed. The Hoosiers defeated No. 9 seed Purdue, No. 1 seed Northwestern and No. 4 seed Nebraska in its tournament run.
- The Big Ten Tournament's title game was a tough, but close one as the Hoosiers fell to No. 2 seed Michigan, 3-1.
- Indiana's trip to Columbia marks back-to-back years in the NCAA Tournament. It is also the second consecutive season where the Hoosiers compiled 40-plus wins and a trip to the Big Ten Championship.
- Since the start of April, Indiana has logged a 17-7 record.
- The Hoosiers' opening opponent in the tournament, Washington, will make for a future Big Ten conference matchup as the Huskies join the Big Ten next season. Indiana started the season off with a win over another future west coast Big Ten school in Oregon.

Last Time Out

- In the Big Ten Tournament's opening game, Indiana took care of No. 9 seed Purdue, jumping out to a 6-0 lead in the first two innings. Junior Brianna Copeland had a dominant day in the circle, pitching a complete game in the 6-3 win while logging nine strikeouts.
- Next, Indiana defeated No. 1 seed and Big Ten regular season champ Northwestern, 4-3. Freshman Alex Cooper tied the game in the top of the fourth, 1-1, on a home run to center field before the Hoosiers had two bases-loaded walks to go up 3-1 in the fifth. Indiana would hold on to the lead the remainder of the way to win 4-3.
- After trailing 3-0 for much of the game, Indiana won its semifinal over Nebraska in dramatic fashion. In the top of the seventh inning, Cooper hit a solo home run to tie the game at 3-3. In the eighth inning, Indiana rallied to drop six runs and take a 9-3 lead. Nebraska would get two more in the bottom half, but it wouldn't matter as Indiana won the game, 9-5.

Scouting the Opponents

- The Columbia Regional is loaded with high-level teams alongside the Hoosiers. Missouri is the No. 7 overall national seed in the entire tournament after a 43-15 season and a run to the SEC Championship game before falling to Florida, 6-1.
- Missouri went 5-3 in SEC weekend series play, logging series wins over Auburn, LSU, Florida, Mississippi State and South Carolina.
- Washington went 31-13 in the 2024 campaign with a 13-10 mark in conference play. The Huskies notably took two of three games at No. 14 UCLA and No. 20 California while also logging wins over No. 22 Oregon and No. 7 Stanford. Washington fell in its opening game of the PAC-12 tournament against No. 18 Arizona.
- Omaha was 41-13 this season and went 14-4 in Summit League play before winning the Summit League Tournament.

Regional Notes

- Friday's matchup vs. Washington will be the fourth ever meeting between the two teams and first since 2017.
- Indiana has not played Missouri since 2001 and is 3-1 all time versus Omaha.

BIG-TIME BATS

• Arguably the most impressive part of Indiana's team is its plethora of options to drive in runs up and down the lineup.

• From the top to the bottom, Indiana boasts some impressive bats.

• The Hoosiers have recently changed the order a bit, starting with two All-Americans at leadoff and second in the order in Bri Copeland and Taylor Minnick. Copeland is hitting .332 with 18 extra base hits, including eight home runs while compiling 36 RBI. Minnick is second on the team in batting average (.360) while leading the team in RBI (53) with ten home runs.

• Junior Sarah Stone and sophomore Avery Parker have taken on the No. 3 and 4 spot in the lineup, respectively. Stone owns a .308 batting average, eight home runs and 44 RBI. Parker is hitting .302 with a team-high 13 home runs and has logged 43 RBI.

• In the fifth spot is freshman Aly VanBrandt who is hitting a team-high .370 at the plate. In the sixth spot has been Cora Bassett. The senior has hit eight doubles and nine home runs along with a triple to accumulate 26 RBI.

• The lineup is typically anchored by some combination of Cassidy Kettleman (.256) or Aaliyah Andrews (.370) along with Alex Cooper (.283) and Brooke Benson (.307).

• Cooper and Benson provide some pop to the bottom of the lineup and they help keep momentum rolling over to the top of the order. Benson has 12 doubles and six home runs with 27 RBI while Cooper has hit five doubles, seven home runs to chart 35 RBI.

• Andrews had a really good Big Ten Tournament, going 6-for-12 at the plate with one double and five RBI.

READY TO RUN

• The Hoosiers always look to be aggressive on the basepaths, already swiping 107 stolen bases so far this season, which leads the Big Ten and ranks tenth nationally.

• Seven Hoosiers have at least ten or more stolen bases this year: Aly VanBrandt (12), Bri Copeland (18), Brooke Benson (13), Cora Bassett (13), Alex Cooper (11), Cassidy Kettleman (12) and Aaliyah Andrews (10).

CONTROL IN THE CIRCLE

• Indiana's attack in the circle is led by two aces in junior Brianna Copeland and sophomore Sophie Kleiman. Each have the ability to be effective while going the distance in many games.

• Copeland owns a 20-11 record with a 2.81 ERA. She has logged a career-high 170 strikeouts this season and is holding opposing hitters to a .214 batting average.

• In a win at Michigan State (April 7) earlier this season, she threw a career-high 12 strikeouts in the game.

• Kleiman has experienced a breakout sophomore season, going 14-4 in the circle with a 2.54 ERA to go along with 83 strikeouts. Opposing batters are hitting just .243 against Kleiman, as well.

• In a win over Central Michigan this season (Feb. 23), Kleiman threw her first career no-hitter.

• Cooper has also seen some time in the circle, making eight appearances, including a start against Michigan on March 31st.

FAB FRESHMEN

• Indiana boasts a five-woman freshmen class for 2024.

• The class features Alex Cooper, Ella Carter, Savannah Oden, Tristian Thompson and Aly VanBrandt.

• Cooper and Oden are in-state kids, hailing from Mooresville and Nashville, Ind.

• Carter is from New York City, Thompson from Waco, Texas. and VanBrandt is an Ottawa Lake, Mich. native.

• VanBrandt was named 2023 Michigan Miss Softball after her senior season.

FRESHMEN IMPACT

• Indiana has gotten high-level production from its freshman class

this season, particularly from Alex Cooper and Aly VanBrandt.

• Cooper has started every game for Indiana, playing routinely at third base while pitching in the circle some, too.

• Her excellent defense at third earned her a spot on the Big Ten's All-Defensive Team. As the season has gone on, her bat has become more and more lethal.

• She is hitting .283 from the plate with seven home runs, including a walk-off grand slam to beat Notre Dame (April 16) and a game-tying home run against Nebraska in the Big Ten Tournament semifinals.

• Aly VanBrandt quickly emerged as the team's second baseman at the start of the season and has not looked back.

• She not only provides great defense at second, but she has elite speed and leads the team in batting average as a lefty slapper, hitting .370 at the plate with 16 RBI. Moreover, she has charted 12 steals in her freshman campaign.

CONFERENCE HONORS

• The Hoosiers earned plenty of recognition in the All-Conference awards both for the regular season and in the All-Tournament selections.

• Junior Sarah Stone was named All-Big Ten First Team for the first time in her career after previously earning Second Team honors in 2023.

• Junior Taylor Minnick and freshman Aly VanBrandt were named All-Big Ten Second Team. This is Minnick's second all-conference honor, after being named to the First Team last year.

• VanBrandt was also named to the All-Freshman Team alongside teammate Alex Cooper. Cooper additionally earned a spot on the Big Ten's All-Defensive team.

• To round out the regular season awards, senior Brooke Benson earned Sportasmanship Award honors.

• For the All-Tournament Team, VanBrandt, Cooper, Benson all made it as well as junior Brianna Copeland and senior Aaliyah Andrews.

• Indiana's five selections for the All-Tournament team was the most of any Big Ten team.

ROSTER BALANCE

• Indiana's 2024 roster features a nice mixture of young talent and a strong veteran presence. Of the 16 on the active roster, there is a strong balance to each class.

• The group is spearheaded by three senior leaders in Cora Bassett, Aaliyah Andrews and Brooke Benson.

• The junior class has four members in Sarah Stone, Bri Copeland, Kinsey Mitchell and Taylor Minnick.

• The sophomore class holds four players in Chloe Geijer, Avery Parker, Cassidy Kettleman and Sophie Kleiman.

• The freshmen are Aly VanBrandt, Ella Carter, Tristian Thompson, Savannah Oden and Alex Cooper.

51 YEARS

• Indiana Softball is celebrating 51 years as a varsity sport this season. In fall 2022, the program hosted a celebration, inviting alumni to celebrate 50 years of Indiana Softball and its storied history and bright future of the program.

STAYING WARM

• The season started in Clearwater, Fla. with the NFCA Leadoff Classic. The Hoosiers went back to the Sunshine State for a road contest at FAU and a tournament hosted by the University of Florida.

• Sandwiched between those, Indiana played in the Troy Invitational this weekend, from Feb. 16-18, against host Troy, Gardner-Webb and Florida A&M.

• In the last weekend of February, Indiana went west for the Hillenbrand Invitational in Tucson, Ariz. facing Arizona, Central Michigan, Drake and Marshall.

SHONDA STANTON

Head Coach • 7th Year as Indiana Head Coach

26th Year as Collegiate Head Coach

INDIANA

Stanton is entering her seventh season as Indiana's head coach in 2024.

2023 proved to be a historic year for the Indiana Softball program in Coach Stanton's sixth season. The Hoosiers posted a 44-18 record while going 18-5 in Big Ten play, 14-4 at home and 16-5 on the road. It was Indiana's first 40+ win season since 1994.

Indiana won six of their eight Big Ten series, including sweeps of No. 22 Maryland, Purdue, Ohio State, Rutgers, Michigan and Michigan State. The strong regular season earned the team a second-place finish in the Big Ten regular season standings. From March 5 to April 7, the team won 23 consecutive games, the longest win streak in program history. In the Big Ten Tournament, Indiana defeated No. 7 seed Penn State, 5-4, on a walk-off home run in the ninth inning from Sarah Stone. In the semifinals, Indiana beat No. 3 seed Minnesota, 5-3. The Hoosiers fell just short in the final to No. 1 seed Northwestern, 2-1. Indiana earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament as the No. 2 in the Knoxville Regional. It was Indiana's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2011. The Hoosiers defeated No. 3 seed Louisville twice before falling to No. 1 seed Tennessee in the regional final.

The Hoosiers collected a number of awards after their fantastic 2023 season. Taryn Kern won Big Ten Player of the Year and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. Kern and Taylor Minnick were named All-Big Ten First Team. Cora Bassett, Avery Parker and Sarah Stone were honored on the conference's Second Team. Parker, Kern and Kettleman were named to the Big Ten's All-Freshman Team. Kern, Minnick and Brianna Copeland were named NFCA First Team All-Region. Parker was named to the NFCA's Second Team while Bassett and Stone landed on the Third Team. Kern was a top-three finalist for TUCC/NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year. She also was named a First Team All-American and Freshman Team All-American by D1Softball. The NFCA named Kern a Second Team All-American while Copeland and Minnick were recognized as Third Team All-Americans. The entire Indiana coaching staff was named the ATEC/NFCA Midwest Region Staff of the Year.

In Indiana's 2022 season, the Hoosiers went 27-22 including an 11-3 record in neutral site games. The Hoosiers also swept their series against Rutgers and Purdue and No. 23 Ohio State, 17-5, on March 25 in Columbus. Cora Bassett earned First Team All-Big Ten honors while Taylor Minnick and Heather Johnson were named to the Big Ten's All-Freshman Team. Minnick was also named to the Big Ten's Second Team and Grayson Radcliffe earned NFCA All-Region Second Team.

In the 2021 season the Hoosiers won or split nine of their 12 Big Ten series. They finished fifth in the Big Ten standings and were one game out of fourth. Gabbi Jenkins set the career record for stolen bases with 96 and Emily Goodin finished with 583 career strikeouts, rankings fourth best in program history. Jenkins and Grace Lorusung earned All-Big Ten First Team honors and Goodin and Grayson Radcliffe earned Second Team honors. Four Hoosiers (Jenkins, Goodin, Radcliffe and Bella Norton) earned NFCA All-Region honors. In the classroom the team had a 3.69 GPA, 12 Academic All-Big Ten selections and Jenkins and Radcliffe earned CoSIDA First Team All-District honors.

In her third year at Indiana, Stanton guided the Hoosiers to an overall record of 12-9 over 21 games prior to the premature cancellation of the rest of the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic in spring 2020. Indiana won nine of their last 12 ballgames on the season and earned an initial NCAA RPI ranking of 52 prior to the season's cancellation.

Emily Goodin picked up a conference weekly award for IU winning Big Ten Co-Pitcher of the Week after tossing her second career no-hitter against Bucknell on Feb. 21. She was the senior ace of the staff going 10-7, held a 1.76 ERA, registered 111 strikeouts and became the sixth IU pitcher to record multiple no-hitters.

In her second campaign at the helm of the Hoosiers, Stanton built upon the success of her inaugural season as the Hoosiers opened the year with a 14-0 mark, the best start in IU program history. Thanks to the hot start, Indiana earned a spot in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll, the first ranking for the team since 1996. IU would spend six straight weeks ranked, picking up wins against two top-10 teams in No. 6 Georgia (Feb. 10) and at No. 10 LSU (March 1), the first time that has been done at Indiana. IU's final record of 36-21 was the best for the Hoosiers since the 2011 season, while the team's non-conference record (26-8) was the best since 1986. The team impressed on the basepaths, setting the single-season IU record with 141, which is also good for the third-most by a Big Ten team in history.

For the second year in a row, pitcher Tara Trainer earned First Team NFCA All-Midwest Region honors as well as All-Big Ten accolades after leaving IU as one of the most decorated pitchers in Indiana history. This season, Trainer posted career-best numbers with a 1.82 ERA, 231 strikeouts and a 26-11 record. Trainer graduates second all-time in strikeouts (803), appearances (170) and games started (130). In addition, she is third in career wins (68) and innings pitched (742.0) and fourth in shutouts (19). Trainer became just the fourth Hoosier to be drafted in the National Pro Fastpitch league when she was selected 21st overall by the Aussie Peppers on April 15.

Sophomore Maddie Westmoreland also earned All-Region honors for the second year in a row, as well as becoming the first Hoosier since 1997-98 to be named First Team All-Big Ten in two straight years. Joining Westmoreland and Trainer on the All-Big Ten list was sophomore shortstop Grayson Radcliffe. Indiana placed 11 on the Academic All-Big Ten list.

In her first season in Bloomington in 2018, Stanton led the Hoosiers to a 26-30 overall mark, including a 17-6 conference record, the most Big Ten wins in a single season since 2011. Indiana finished third in the conference, clinching a first-round bye in the Big Ten Tournament. The Hoosiers swept five teams on their way to the third-place finish - No. 18 Ohio State, Michigan State, Maryland, Penn State and Purdue - the most conference sweeps since 2011. After defeating Illinois in the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinals, Indiana advanced to the tournament semifinal for the first time since 2006.

Stanton tallied her 600th career victory at Michigan State on March 31 with a 5-1 victory against the Spartans. Another 2018 highlight was the Hoosiers collecting 112 stolen bases, the third-most in program history and the most since the 1987 season.

For their efforts in 2018, three Hoosiers earned NFCA All-Midwest Region - Tara Trainer (First Team), Gabbi Jenkins (Third Team) and Maddie Westmoreland (Third Team). In addition, Trainer and Westmoreland were also named First Team All-Big Ten, while Jenkins and Rebecca Blitz earned Second Team honors. Blitz also earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team as the conference's top centerfielder. Westmoreland and Taylor Lambert were named to the conference's All-Freshman squad. Off the field, 12 were honored with Academic All-Big Ten accolades and 11 earned NFCA All-America Scholar Athletes.

MARSHALL

- 2017 Conference USA Coaching Staff of the Year
- Career record: 560-430-2 (18 seasons)
- Two NCAA Tournament Appearances

During her tenure, Stanton guided the Thundering Herd to two NCAA Tournament appearances, five conference championship games and led the team to two Mid-American Conference championships (2003 and 2005), a Conference USA regular season championship (2017) and Conference USA Tournament title (2013). In addition, the Thundering Herd posted 12 seasons with 30 or more wins during Stanton's time in Huntington.

Under Stanton's guidance, Marshall was known for its speed as her teams ranked in the top 10 in stolen bases more than any other program since Stanton took over in 2000, including every year from 2009-17. For the third time since 2000, the Thundering Herd led the nation in stolen bases in 2017 with 162 on the year. Marshall saw two win the Golden Shoe Award for leading the nation in stolen bases under Stanton - current Indiana graduate student manager Morgan Zerkle in 2015 and Elia D'Orazio in 2017. Six finished their Marshall careers with 100 or more stolen bases under Stanton, led by Zerkle's program record-setting 160 swiped bags.

This past season, Stanton guided Marshall's return to the NCAA Tournament as the Thundering Herd earned an at-large bid and posted a program-record 42-12 mark. During the season, Marshall posted a 17-game winning streak in 2017 and a 20-4 conference record leading to Stanton and her staff of Kendall Fearn and Chanda Bell being picked as the Conference USA Coaching Staff of the Year. In addition, Marshall saw Zerkle win C-USA Player of the Year honors and Jordan Dixon win C-USA Pitcher of the Year. Both Zerkle and Dixon also earned NFCA All-American accolades.

In addition to the team's impressive base-stealing numbers, the team finished with a batting average of .300 or better for the third straight season as Marshall climbed as high as No. 23 in the national rankings.

Stanton recorded her 500th career win on March 23, 2016 in an 8-3 victory against UTEP.

In 2013, Marshall's Conference USA Tournament title led to the Herd's first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament in Lexington, Ky. Marshall picked up its first NCAA tournament win, 3-1, over Notre Dame on May 18.

Under Stanton's tutelage, Marshall saw 76 all-conference selections, nine conference Player, Pitcher or Freshman of the Year accolades, 34 NFCA All-Region picks and a four-time All-American in Rachel Folden. Zerkle was named to the Top 50 Watch List for USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year and played for the USA Softball National Team this past summer. In addition, Zerkle was the seventh player under Stanton's guidance to reach the National Pro Fastpitch League.

OTHER COLLEGIATE COACHING EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Marshall, Stanton served as the head coach at IUPUI in 1998-99, where she led the Jaguars to a 27-25 mark in their first season as a Division I team. After graduating college, Stanton served as a graduate assistant for Ashland University, where she received her Master's of Education in Sports Science. During her time, the softball program set a school record for victories in a season (53), won a second consecutive Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) title and earned a second straight NCAA Division II playoff berth. In the 1997-98 season, the Eagles finished 53-6, won the conference championship and hosted its regional tournament. That season, the entire coaching staff was selected as the coaching staff of the year in the GLIAC. All in all, Ashland compiled a 94-23 record en route to successive bids to the NCAA National Tournament.

NATIONAL PRO FASTPITCH

Stanton spent the 2007 and 2008 summers coaching the Akron Racers of the National Pro Fastpitch league. Stanton guided the Racers to a regular season second place finish in 2007 with a 26-17 overall record. Stanton managed the Racers leading hitter Norrelle Dickson to a .387 batting average, a league best. Additionally, Akron's second baseman, Veronica Wootsen snagged the 2007 Nokona Gold Glove Offensive Player of the Year Award.

PLAYING CAREER

Stanton (maiden name Spagnola) was a four-year starter at UNC Greensboro and led the team to back-to-back Big South Conference championships. In addition, Stanton scored 66 runs during her senior campaign in 1995, good for eighth in the nation and most all-time in a single season at UNC. She sits third in UNC history in career runs scored (143) and ninth in stolen bases (41). Off the field, Stanton earned her Bachelor of Arts in History at UNC and helped start the Spartan Heroes program at UNC, which worked to increase community service initiatives.

Stanton played in the Women's ASA Fastpitch Summerball for the Chet Smith Lady All-Stars in Columbus, Ohio, and the Buckeye Slammers in Akron, Ohio, from 1994-96. Both teams were Class "A" National Qualifiers and the Slammers captured the Class "B" National Championship in 1994.

PERSONAL

In October of 2016, Stanton was inducted into the North Olmstead High School Hall of Fame where she was a three-sport athlete and an 11-time letter award winner.

A member of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-America Committee, Stanton has also served on the NFCA Head Coaches Council and was a voter in the NFCA Top-25. Stanton, who was named the Judy Sweet Award winner as a graduate of the NCAA Women Coaches Academy, served on the Coaches Council for the Alliance of Women Coaches. As an NFCA featured speaker and clinician, Stanton shot an instructional video series with Championship Productions.
