PUTTING ON FOR HER CITY

- Hometown hero Melyia Grayson is averaging close to a double-double after the first two games of her sophomore season. Grayson is second on the squad with 11.8 PPG and leads the Lady Eagles in rebounding with 8.8 RPG.
- Grayson recorded her first double-double of the season, and second of her career at Alabama, scoring 12, while pulling down 10 rebounds.
- Grayson was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman team and Co-Freshman after a wonderful freshman campaign. The Hattiesburg native was named Freshman Of The Week on two separate occasions during last season, becoming the first USM player to take home a weekly award since 2019.
- She joins Kendra Reed as the only other Lady Eagle to capture Freshman of the Year honors.

MCNELIS STRONG

- Head coach Joye Lee-McNelis is facing her second fight with lung cancer after her doctors discovered her cancer had returned earlier this year. McNelis was originally diagnosed back in 2017 and was in remission.
- "When you face storms, you have to be able to fight," McNelis said of the diagnosis.
- On Oct. 28, Coach received great news from her PET scan. Coach McNelis is using Tagrisso for treatment and everything remains stable.

SUPER SENIORS

- Southern Miss is led by four seniors, with three going into their fourth season with the Black and Gold.
- Daishai Almond, Kelsey Jones and Destiny Smith have all been with the Lady Eagles since their freshman season and bring a combined 212 games played to the table, while Fess Hawkins joined the squad last season and provides much needed depth to the post position.

SOPHOMORE STEP

- Brikayla Gray, Melyia Grayson and Rose Warren have all made strides in their first off-season with the Lady Eagles.
- Grayson is second with 11.8 PPG, while Gray is third in scoring through the first three games at 8.5 PPG and Warren posted a career-high 14 points against ULM.

GROSS' GROWTH

- Graduate student Lauren Gross has improved her game in a lot of ways since transferring from North Florida after her freshman season.
- The Southaven native knocked down three 3's in the season opener after hitting just four a season ago in ten games.
- Gross dishing out a career-high five assists without turning the ball over in the contest against Samford last weekend.

FRESH FOUR

- The Lady Eagles signed four freshman in the 2021 recruiting cycle bringing in two players from Texas and two players for Florida.
- Asia Broughton and Asjha Leake are both powerful forwards from the LoneStar State that give McNelis options off the bench with the 4 and 5 position, while Morgan Dillard and Emma Wallhoff both join from the Sunshine State to provide depth at the guard position.

DOMINATE

- Transfer Domonique Davis has made her presence with the Lady Eagles felt immediately as she became the first USM player to take home C-USA Player of the Week honors since 2019 this week.
- Davis currently ranks third in the C-USA in scoring at 17.5 PPG. The DeRidder, La. native dropped a conference-leading 29 points on Saturday to secure a win over Samford. She went four-of-five from beyond the arc, including a perfect 3-of-3 in the fourth quarter.
- Davis has now scored 20 or more in back-to-back games as she dropped a then career high 20 points against ULM, while setting new career best in rebounds (7) and assists (6) against the Warhawks.
- Through the first three games, Davis has been the leading scorer and assist giver in three contests.

ATTACK THE RIM

- Southern Miss has scored nearly 55% of their points inside the paint through three games.
- Southern Miss scored half of their 72 against William Carey in the paint, while finding 44 of their points against ULM from the lane.
- Against the Crimson Tide on Wednesday, the Lady Eagles scored 36 of their 54 points in the paint.
- The Samford game marked the first time this season that at least half of the Lady Eagles scoring was done outside the lane.

WEAVER'S WILLPOWER

- Arkansas transfer Macy Weaver has battled through a series of different injuries since arriving on campus this summer.
- Still dealing with a calf injury, and knowing the team was struggling for depth ahead of the Samford matchup, Weaver went to head coach Joye Lee-McNelis prior to the game to let her know she would be available even though her strained calf was still a problem.
- Weaver was instrumental in the win, as she went 3-of-4 from the field in 15 minutes of action to help secure the win last Saturday.

CAN'T OUTWORK BG

- Sophomore Brikayla Gray is the definition of a gym rat for the Lady Eagles.
- Kayla dishing out a career-best five assists without a turnover against Samford.
- Gray currently leads all of Conference USA with a 6.00 assist/turnover ratio. The next closest student-athlete is at 3.00.
