NEWS & NOTES

The Last Outing | Florida A&M picked up its second win in Southwestern Athletic Conference play in an 84-78 decision over Grambling State (Jan. 10).

- The Rattlers shot a season's best 54.5 percent from the floor, with four players in double-digits.
- Maleaha Bell notched her first double-double of the season on a career-high 10 points and 10 rebounds.
- FAMU is 2-0 when outscoring its opponents in the paint; it held a 38-26 advantage against Grambling and recorded a 42-26 edge in the category versus Bethune-Cookman (Jan. 3).
- Dylan Horton left Al Lawson Center with a career-high 32 points; it is the second-best scoring performance in the SWAC this season.

SWAC Recognition | Dylan Horton became the first Rattler to garner Southwestern Athletic Conference Player of the Week accolades this season, and she recently earned the recognition for the second time after career numbers against Southern and Grambling.

Horton recorded back-to-back career scoring nights with 25 and 32 points, respectively, while also averaging 7.0 rebounds, 3.5 assists, and 2.0 steals.

For those keeping count, Horton has two weekly awards under her belt and Maleaha Bell has also been named the SWAC Impact Player of the Week.

Rattlers Strike | FAMU's journey through the Southwestern Athletic Conference began with a nail-biting 70-68 win over its in-state rival Bethune-Cookman. Maleaha Bell propelled her team to its first success of the season with .7 seconds on the clock.

- Bell finished the evening with a career-high 10 points.
- The success captured Shalon Pillow's first career win as a head coach.

FLORIDA A&M BASKETBALL (2021-22)

NEWS & NOTES

Bell Garners Impact Honors | After banking the game-winning buzzer-beater at Bethune-Cookman, Maleaha Bell was also named the SWAC Women's Basketball Impact Player of the Week. It was her first career honor and the Rattlers' second weekly accolade of the year.

Harris For Three | Anisja Harris is proving to be one of the best 3-pointer shooters in the SWAC this season. She averages a conference-best 2.2 treys per game and has hit at least two in 10 appearances on the year. The Columbus, Ohio, native notched a career-high four 3-pointers versus Texas A&M International (Dec. 11).

Harris & Horton | Anisja Harris and Dylan Horton have recorded double-digit points in each of the Rattlers' last six games.

Harris
at Coastal Carolina (Dec. 18) | 14 points
vs. College of Charleston (Dec. 19) | 12 points (with 10 rebounds; the Rattlers' first double-double of the year)
vs. North Florida (Dec. 30) | 11 points
at Bethune-Cookman (Jan. 3) | 21 points
vs. Southern (Jan. 8) | 17 points
vs. Grambling State (Jan. 10) | 24 points (career-high)

Horton
at Coastal Carolina (Dec. 18) | 16 points
vs. College of Charleston (Dec. 19) | 15 points
vs. North Florida (Dec. 30) | 13 points
at Bethune-Cookman (Jan. 3) | 22 points
vs. Southern (Jan. 8) | 25 points
vs. Grambling State (Jan. 10) | 32 points (career-high)

Horton has surpassed double figures in all but one game during the 2020-21 campaign (at Dayton, Nov. 30).

Veteran Status | Dylan Horton is having quite a fantastic debut season at FAMU. The Los Angeles native transferred into the program ahead of the 2021-22 season and has six-times her point total from her first two seasons at Virginia combined (38 to 235). She currently leads the Rattlers with 16.8 PPG (ranking second in the Southwestern Athletic Conference) and has finished in double-figures 12 games this season, crowned by a career-high 32 points versus Grambling State (Jan. 10).

Tale of Two Halves | The Rattlers have been outscored, 521-334, in the first half but close the gap to 500-443 in the second. They are most productive in the third quarter, where they total 225 points. The second quarter captures their lowest production at 158.

New Team, New Coach | The Rattlers are under the direction of first-year head coach Shalon Pillow, who arrived in Tallahassee in May of 2020, carrying along 15-plus years of coaching and skill development experience. Prior to FAMU, she served as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State, where she helped the team to five straight postseason appearances.

The Return(ers) | The Rattlers' 2021-22 roster features several new faces; however, Staysha Allen, Caylan Jones, and Mikyah Mack return veteran experience.

#22 Staysha Allen | F | 6-2 | Jr. | Dawson, Ga.
2019-20: Appeared in 24 games during the year ... recorded a season-high 13 points versus Trinity Baptist ... contributed eight rebounds at South Carolina State ... finished the season with 65 points, 69 rebounds (25 offensive), and 11 blocks

#25 Caylan Jones | G | 5-9 | Jr. | Tallahassee, Fla.
2019-20: Played in 23 games ... notched a season-high six points at Norfolk State ... finished 10-for-17 at the free-throw line

#12 Mikyah Mack | F | 6-1 | Jr. | Ocean Springs, Miss.
2019-20: Appeared in 23 games with one start ... finished the season with 46 points and 49 rebounds ... recorded a season-high nine boards at South Carolina State

HEAD COACH SHALON PILLOW

Shalon Pillow was named the head women's basketball coach of Florida A&M University on May 28, 2020.

Pillow comes to Tallahassee with over 15 years of coaching and skill development experience after serving as an assistant women's basketball coach at Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU) under Hall of Fame Coach Rick Insell.

A native of Addyston, Ohio, Pillow played a key role in helping lead MTSU to five straight postseason appearances during her tenure. Pillow is an elite coach of post players and focuses on skill development and fundamentals. Additionally, she understands what it takes to play at a high level and develop talent to its fullest potential.

Most recently during her tenure at MTSU, Pillow aided in developing standout Alex Johnson into one of the most productive post players in program history. Johnson was a three-time All-Conference USA selection and the 2015-16 C-USA Freshman of the Year. Johnson flourished under Pillow's tutelage and capped her illustrious career among the Top 10 in nine different all-time categories, including scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage.

Pillow was also instrumental in the development of Gabby Lyon, 2016-2017 C-USA Sixth Player of the Year and forward Jordan Majors, who turned in a career year in 2018-19 as she produced five of her six double-figure scoring games and more than doubled her career scoring and rebounding totals.

Pillow helped guide the Lady Raiders to 24 wins and the WNIT quarterfinals during her first season in 2014-15 when she worked with Cheyenne Parker, who was the No. 5 overall pick of the WNBA Chicago Sky in April, 2015.

Prior to MTSU, Pillow spent five seasons at the University of Kentucky where the Wildcats posted a 137-39 record during her tenure. The team also made five NCAA tournament appearances, three Elite Eight appearances and was SEC regular-season champions in 2012.

Pillow's tireless and consistent work ethic blended in perfectly with the UK Hoops staff. She coached and mentored the Wildcat post players, which included forward Victoria Dunlap, UK's first SEC Player of the Year and first State Farm/WBCA All-American since 1983. The Wildcats won a program-best 28 wins, were second in the SEC and reached the NCAA Elite Eight.

In her second year, Pillow once again helped lead the Cats to an impressive season as UK advanced to its second straight NCAA Tournament and finished ranked in the Top 25 of the AP polls. The Wildcats finished second in the SEC race with a school-record-tying 11 league wins. Dunlap was again named SEC Player of the Year by the AP and she ended her illustrious career ranked No. 2 in career scoring and rebounding.

Pillow came to Kentucky after one season as an assistant coach at Hofstra University in Long Island, N.Y., and three seasons at the University of South Florida (USF) in Tampa.

Prior to her coaching stints at Hofstra and USF, Pillow was Camp Director and Event Operator for the Ohio Girls Basketball Report (OGBR), where she was responsible for directing the largest 8-10th grade summer camp in the Midwest. She also directed the Top 64 Showcase, and handled pre- and post-camp evaluations.

Pillow, a 6-foot-3 center, was a four-year letterwinner (1998-2002) at Tennessee under legendary coach Pat Summitt. She played in 108 career games and helped the Lady Vols advance to four NCAA Tournaments, including two Final Four appearances and four SEC Championships with a record of 125-12. She graduated from UT in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in general psychology and a minor in communications.

Following graduation, Pillow played for the Tennessee Fury of the National Women's Basketball League during its inaugural season, and appeared in 20 games. She also served as an assistant coach with the varsity team at Taylor High School in North Bend, Ohio, from 2003-04 and worked the Lady Vols' summer camps from 1998-2001.

She was a highly-decorated player coming out of Taylor High School, earning Nike and Parade Magazine All-America honors after averaging 22.4 points, 11.2 rebounds, 4.1 blocks and 3.0 steals per game as a senior. She also was tabbed by USA Today as one of the top 20 scholastic players in America and was a finalist for the Naismith High School Player of the Year Award.
