SOUTHERN HEAD COACH CARLOS FUNCHESS

Coach Carlos Funchess is entering his third season as the leader of the Southern University Women's Basketball program.

In his first year as Head Coach of the Lady Jags, Coach Funchess lead SU to the 2018-19 SWAC Regular Season Championship, 2019 SWAC Tournament Champions (first since 2010) and a 2019 NCAA Tournament appearance finishing the season 20-13 (14-4). He was named the 2019 SWAC Coach of the Year as well as receiving the 2019 Spalding Maggie Dixon NCAA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year, by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

During the previous 14 seasons, Funchess served as assistant coach under former head coach Sandy Pugh at Southern University, where he worked exclusively with developing the Jaguars post players, including All-SWAC performers Frederika Lewis, Freda Allen, Jasmine Jefferson and Briana Green.

Since his arrival to Baton Rouge in 2005, Coach Funchess has been instrumental in guiding the women's basketball program at Southern University to five SWAC Regular Season Championships and three SWAC Tournament Titles.

Funchess is also known as a tireless recruiter, canvassing much of the Southeast and Texas for hidden talent which has helped Southern become a perennial SWAC title contender. In 2018 Coach Funchess led the Jaguars to its second straight SWAC Regular season title and SWAC Tournament Title and was named SWAC Coach of the Year and 2019 Spalding Maggie Dixon NCAA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year, by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

A native of Magee, Miss., Funchess is a former two-time All-Southland Conference performer and the 1991 co-Player of the Year at then-Northeast Louisiana University (ULM) and received national recognition after his senior season when he won the 1991 College Slam Dunk Contest on ESPN. Funchess was selected in the Continental Basketball Association draft in the third round by Oklahoma City, U.S. Basketball League in Atlanta, and the World Basketball League in Saskatchewan. For the next three years, Funchess played for the Miami Heat, Global Basketball Association, U.S. Basketball League in Atlanta, Continental Basketball League in Sioux Falls, and played some overseas in Venezuela. In 2007, Funchess was inducted into the ULM Sports Hall of Fame.

Before starring at Northeast Louisiana, Funchess played his prep basketball at Magee, Miss., High before going to Copiah-Lincoln Community college. In 1992, Funchess received a bachelor's degree in Health and Human Performance from Louisiana-Monroe.

He is married to the former Sondia Mills of Monroe and has two daughters, Tynee and Chelsea.

COACHES CORNER

GAME 6

"Tonight I didn't think we came out with a lot of energy for some reason. We had a really good practice on yesterday and I thought we were ready to go. After a sluggish first half we picked up our defensive intensity the second half and that helped us to get the win said Carlos Funchess, SU Head Coach. We will go back watch the game and make the necessary adjustments it take to get better."

GAME 14

"I knew tonight's contest was going to be a battle. Anytime you go on the road in the conference it is always going to be tough. They did a great job of running their offense and knocking down contested shots. I was really proud of the way our team worked together to get the win today said Carlos Funchess, SU Head Coach. During the fourth quarter our veteran players really stepped up their game on both ends of the court. We will enjoy the win today and get ready for our next game on Monday."

GAME 15

"We started a little slow offensively but I thought our defense was solid most of the game. In the third quarter we knocked down a few shots and really got going offensively, said Carlos Funchess, SU Head Coach. I think our pressure defense really wore their guards down and made it tough for them to score. Our kids put forth a tremendous effort and we are happy to get these two wins on the road."
