JERRY RICE

NFL Hall Of Fame (2010) | CFB Hall of Fame (2006) | BCF Hall of Fame (2010) | SWAC Hall of Fame (2005)

The San Francisco 49ers used their first round draft pick in 1985 on wide receiver Jerry Rice from little known Mississippi Valley State. It did not take long for that decision to pay huge dividends.

Rice gave a glimpse of what was to come when he averaged 18.9 yards per catch on 49 receptions for 927 yards and 3 TDs as a rookie. He also rushed six times and scored one touchdown on the ground.

In 1986, Rice recorded a season that began perhaps the finest stretch by any receiver in NFL history. That year, he caught 86 passes for a league-leading 1,570 yards. He also led the NFL in touchdown catches with 15. It marked the first of 11 straight 1,000-yard seasons for Rice who also recorded double-digit receiving touchdown totals in nine of the next 10 seasons.

The following year, Rice set the NFL record for touchdown receptions in a season with 22. His first of four seasons with 100 catches came in 1990 when he had an even 100 receptions to lead the NFL in that category. It marked the first of two receiving titles for Rice.

He led the NFL in receiving yards six times including a NFL record 1,848 yards in 1995. Rice also led the NFL in touchdown receptions six times.

No wide receiver in NFL history played more than Rice's 20 seasons. By the time he retired after finishing his career with Oakland and Seattle, he was the most prolific wide receiver in NFL history with staggering career totals.

He owns virtually every significant receiving mark. Some of the more notable career records include receptions (1,549); receiving yards (22,895 yards); most 1,000-yard receiving seasons (14); total touchdowns (208); and combined net yards (23,546).

Rice has a hold on multiple NFL playoff and Super Bowl records. He played in eight conference championships and four Super Bowls. He earned three Super Bowl rings with the 49ers and was named the Most Valuable Player of San Francisco's Super Bowl XXIII win over the Cincinnati Bengals.

Rice, who was named first-team All-Pro 11 consecutive seasons and voted to 13 Pro Bowls, is also a member of the NFL's All-Decade Teams of the 1980s and 1990s and NFL's 75th Anniversary Team.

DAVID "DEACON" JONES

NFL Hall Of Fame (1980) | BCF Hall of Fame (2010) | SWAC Hall of Fame (1994)

David "Deacon" Jones played defensive end for South Carolina State University and Mississippi Valley State University from 1958 to 1960. Blessed with speed, agility, and quickness, the "Deacon" became one of the finest pass rushers in the business. Yet had it not been for the chance observation of two Rams scouts viewing films of an opponent, he might never have had a chance to play pro football. When the scouts noted that the 6-4, 272-pound tackle was outrunning the backs they were scouting, they recommended Jones as a sleeper pick. He went on to unanimous all-league honors six straight years from 1965 through 1970 and was selected to eight Pro

Bowls. Jones was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

WILLIE "SATELLITE" TOTTEN

CFB Hall of Fame (2005) | BCF Hall of Fame (2014) | SWAC Hall of Fame (2000)

In the late summer of 1984, under the sweltering summer sun, Mississippi Valley

State head coach Archie Cooley made a suggestion to his young quarterback, Willie Totten that he start calling plays at the line. At the time he thought his coach's no huddle offense was crazy, but the only thing that would turn out to be crazy would be MVSU's passing offense led by Totten and his favorite target, Jerry Rice. With 139 career touchdown passes, "The Satellite" became Division I-AA's (FCS) all-time leader and ranked second in career passing yards (13,240) and single-season passing yards (5,093 in 1984). He twice led the nation in passing efficiency. Five times in Totten's career he passed for more than 530 yards in a single game, including a 599-yard performance in 1984 against Prairie View. Totten earned first-team All-America status in 1984 after leading the nation and setting the all-time single-season touchdown passes mark (56) for all divisions.

Following a brief professional career in the Canadian and Arena Football Leagues, Totten earned his master's degree from Grambling before becoming the head football coach at his alma mater in 2001.

VINCENT DANCY

Head Coach (5th Season)

8-38 Overall, 6-26 SWAC

Vincent Dancy took over the helm of Mississippi Valley State University's football program January 2018. He is 17th head football coach to lead the Delta Devils. Prior to assuming his new role, he served as MVSU football's defensive coordinator since Feb. 2015 before being appointed to the interim head coach role in November 2017.

"I remain committed to building a championship program for the players, alumni, faculty, staff and fans of Mississippi Valley State University," said Dancy. "We have recruited quite a few football athletes from the state of Mississippi and the surrounding corridors of the state. My staff and I are filling the gaps in those areas that we were missing as it relates to player personnel, and meeting with our alumni chapters and community stakeholders to reconnect and assist us in restoring our brand from the glory days of Delta Devil football."

Under Dancy's tutelage, several Delta Devils have earned recognition on the gridiron. Jerry Garner, a Spring 2021 Preseason All-SWAC Defensive Lineman, was recognized in the fall of 2020 as a first team member of the Phil Steetle & draftscout.com FCS Preseason All-Conference Team along with teammate defensive lineman Eric Powell (Coaling, CA) receiving second team honors.

Spring 2020 saw Valley senior defensive lineman Bryant Jones (Riverside, CA) being offered an invitation to The Los Angeles Rams rookie minicamp. Jones played four seasons for the Delta Devils, beginning in 2015. In his college career he registered 164 tackles, 21 for loss and three sacks. Jones was listed on the Rams' active roster as a defensive tackle for the 2020 NFL season.

SWAC All-Conference linebacker Tracy Thompkins (Miami, FL) led Mississippi Valley State defense recording 107 tackles, 12.5 tackles for a loss, three forced fumbles and pass breakups, two fumble recovery, one sack and an interception in 2019. The senior from Miami, Florida led the SWAC in three categories; tackles (9.7), forced fumbles (.30), and solo tackles (6.1). He was third in fumbles recovered and fourth in tackles for a loss. Amongst the NCAA FCS Thompkins was sixth in solo tackles and 15th in the nation in total tackles. He was a finalist for The C Spire Conerly Trophy awarded to the most outstanding college football player in the state of Mississippi.

In 2018, through his first nine games, Booker Chambers (Greenwood, MS) averaged 8.6 yards per carry and ran for three touchdowns and 265 yards. He also caught 41 passes for 554 yards and four touchdowns, and averaged 23 yards per punt return and 25.3 yards on kickoff, with two punt returns for touchdowns. Chambers earned a spot on the All-SWAC First Team as a return specialist and earned Second Team honors as a receiver to end his career at the Valley. Chambers, the former SWAC Freshman of the Year, was also a finalist for The C Spire Conerly Trophy Award in 2018.

Delta Devils wide receiver Quinn McElfresh (Brainerd, MN) finished his senior season in 2018 with 31 receptions for 246 yards and two touchdowns – bringing his MVSU career total to 88 receptions, 1,135 total yards, and seven touchdowns. The former SWAC Newcomer of the Year and All-SWAC Conference wide receiver, McElfresh completed his Valley career by accepting invitations to The FCS National Bowl and the 2019 SPIRAL Tropical Bowl.

In 2014, Dancy was the defensive coordinator for Paine College in Augusta, Georgia. The Lions defense finished 9th in Division II National Ranking in pass defense, in the school's first year of football in 50 years.

Prior to his one year stint at Paine, Dancy spent four years at Jackson State University, 2009-2013, coaching the outside linebackers as a graduate assistant before he became the fulltime safeties coach. In 2012 Jackson State's secondary led the conference in takeaways with 10 INTs. They were also ranked #1 in total defense several years.

Dancy graduated from Jackson State, where he was also a standout student-athlete. A four year letterman in football, Dancy was an All-SWAC performer at linebacker and safety.

Dancy, obtain his bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 2006. He earned a master's in 2008 from West Alabama in Livingston, Alabama, in Counseling and Psychology and as graduate assistant (Jackson State) he earned a second master's in Physical Education.

He is a native of Shuqualak, Mississippi and the son of Mississippi Valley State University alumnus Willie Dancy '74 and Evelyn Murray.

About Mississippi Valley State University

The institution, which opened in 1950, was created by the Mississippi Legislature as Mississippi Vocational College. The legislation to form the institution was signed into law by Governor Thomas L. Bailey on April 5, 1946. On February 10, 1950, Governor Fielding L. Wright served as the main speaker at the opening ceremony.[5]

The legislature anticipated that legal segregation of public education was in danger because there were increasing challenges to it through legal suits (in 1954 it was declared unconstitutional in the United States Supreme Court's decision in Brown v. Board of Education). It created this institution in the hopes that it would attract African-American applicants who might otherwise apply to Mississippi's premier whites-only institutions: the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, and the University of Southern Mississippi.

State leaders hoped that founding separate institutions of higher learning for Mississippi's black population would reduce the pressure to integrate the state's premier universities. To attract the support of those who opposed any government action to provide higher education to blacks, those proposing creation of M.V.C. used the term "vocational" to imply that the institution's main purpose would be to train blacks to take on blue-collar jobs.

The site selection committee appointed by the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning had originally selected as a site the former Greenwood Army Air Base, which had many facilities ready for use and thus would have been a very cost-effective choice. The Greenwood Commonwealth celebrated the choice. However, residents of Carroll County, Mississippi objected to having the institution located near their properties.

After further study, the committee selected a site in Itta Bena. Whites of that town also objected to having a black institution nearby, so the final site chosen was away from the downtown area, and on land that was not good for cultivation.

In 1964, Mississippi Vocational College was renamed Mississippi Valley State College. In February 1969, a nonviolent student boycott, which included eight hundred students, male and female, was organized to protest President James Herbert White's administration. The students demanded required courses in black history, more library purchases of works by black writers, remedial courses in English and Math, scheduling of prominent black speakers, and fewer curfew restrictions.

In the early 1970s, civil rights leaders continued to protest the inequalities in higher education opportunities offered to whites and blacks in Mississippi. In an effort to defuse some of the criticism, Gov. Bill Waller proposed changing the names of three black institutions from "colleges" to "universities". Thus, in 1974, the institution was renamed again, as Mississippi Valley State University.

Following President White, Dr. Ernest A. Boykins, Jr. took office in July 1971. Dr. Joe L. Boyer became MVSU's third president in January 1982 and was followed by Dr. William W. Sutton in July 1988. Dr. Lester C. Newman became the fifth president of MVSU on July 1, 1998. Dr. Donna H. Oliver became MVSU's sixth president and first female president on January 1, 2009. On November 6, 2013, Dr. William Bynum took office as MVSU's seventh president.

In May 2017, Bynum departed MVSU to become president of Jackson State University. Dr. Jerryl Briggs, who served as executive vice president and chief operating officer in Bynum's administration, was named interim president of the university shortly afterwards. On October 19, 2017, Briggs was officially named as the university's eighth president.

In a 1997 article in Innovative Higher Education, the journalist Dale Thorn describes MVSU's successful attempt to avoid a merger with another institution and to remain a separate entity.

In 1998, the university renamed many of the buildings on campus, except for those named for white supremacist politicians Walter Sillers, Jr., Fielding Wright, and J. H. White
