STANLEY E. STUBBS

Head Coach • 10-31-1 Overall, 4-25 SWAC (1st Season)

Stanley E. Stubbs was announced as the new Head Baseball Coach at Mississippi Valley State on July 28, 2021.

Coach Stanley Stubbs is no stranger to baseball. He has over 20 years' experience as a head coach or assistant head coach at the collegiate level. Stubbs is currently owner of Pro Prospects Inc. and an associate scout with the Baltimore Orioles.

Stubbs' coaching career began at Jackson State University where they won the 1995 SWAC Championship. He was the Associate Director of Athletics / Head baseball Coach at Rust College and has also worked for Texas College (NAIA) of the Red River Athletic Conference. Prior to that, he was the assistant coach at Savannah State University (MEAC) and other schools in the (SIAC) Southern Intercollegiate Conference including, Le Moyne Owen College, Benedict College, Paine College, and Albany State University. Stubbs also acquired three SIAC Conference championships while at Paine College & Albany State University respectively. He was also the first coach in SIAC history to win back to back championships at two different institutions (Paine College/Albany State). Stubbs was also selected Coach of the Year in baseball at both Paine College and Albany State.

In 2021, Coach Stubbs took Rust College baseball to a level never before seen in program history as he helped the Bearcats make its first ever appearance in the Black College Nines HBCU Baseball Poll where they debuted at #5 before ending the season ranked at #9. Prior to Stubbs' arrival, the Blue and White had never appeared in any national polls over the team's 46-year existence. Stubbs saw Rust College Baseball rank 7th in the NAIA for steals per game (2.77) and 18th regarding total steals (86) while earning a #4 seed in the inaugural Black College World Series held at Riverwalk Stadium in Montgomery, Alabama. The Blue and White finished with its most wins in a season (13) since the 2003 campaign when RC secured a 17-16 record while competing in the NCAA's Division III.

As a professional, he has experiences as an associate scout with the Atlanta Braves, the 2003 World Series Champion Florida Marlins, the Washington Nationals, and currently the Baltimore Orioles. Stubbs reputation precedes him as a passionate coach that takes pride in his work as a coach/mentor. Stanley has very strong Christian values and morals which include molding young men on how to be successful in life. He works hard to develop (FCA) Fellowship of Christian Athletes Programs on college campuses.

He is a man with a vision who is determined to make an impact in student-athletes lives while working to increase graduation rates. Stubbs received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Lane College and a Master's in Education from Jackson State University.

Mississippi Valley State University

About Mississippi Valley State University

The institution, which opened in 1950, was created by the Mississippi Legislature as Mississippi Vocational College. The legislation to form the institution was signed into law by Governor Thomas L. Bailey on April 5, 1946. On February 10, 1950, Governor Fielding L. Wright served as the main speaker at the opening ceremony.[5]

The legislature anticipated that legal segregation of public education was in danger because there were increasing challenges to it through legal suits (in 1954 it was declared unconstitutional in the United States Supreme Court's decision in Brown v. Board of Education). It created this institution in the hopes that it would attract African-American applicants who might otherwise apply to Mississippi's premier whites-only institutions: the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, and the University of Southern Mississippi.

State leaders hoped that founding separate institutions of higher learning for Mississippi's black population would reduce the pressure to integrate the state's premier universities. To attract the support of those who opposed any government action to provide higher education to blacks, those proposing creation of M.V.C. used the term "vocational" to imply that the institution's main purpose would be to train blacks to take on blue-collar jobs.

The site selection committee appointed by the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning had originally selected as a site the former Greenwood Army Air Base, which had many facilities ready for use and thus would have been a very cost-effective choice. The Greenwood Commonwealth celebrated the choice. However, residents of Carroll County, Mississippi objected to having the institution located near their properties.

After further study, the committee selected a site in Itta Bena. Whites of that town also objected to having a black institution nearby, so the final site chosen was away from the downtown area, and on land that was not good for cultivation.

In 1964, Mississippi Vocational College was renamed Mississippi Valley State College. In February 1969, a nonviolent student boycott, which included eight hundred students, male and female, was organized to protest President James Herbert White's administration. The students demanded required courses in black history, more library purchases of works by black writers, remedial courses in English and Math, scheduling of prominent black speakers, and fewer curfew restrictions.

In the early 1970s, civil rights leaders continued to protest the inequalities in higher education opportunities offered to whites and blacks in Mississippi. In an effort to defuse some of the criticism, Gov. Bill Waller proposed changing the names of three black institutions from "colleges" to "universities". Thus, in 1974, the institution was renamed again, as Mississippi Valley State University.

Following President White, Dr. Ernest A. Boykins, Jr. took office in July 1971. Dr. Joe L. Boyer became MVSU's third president in January 1982 and was followed by Dr. William W. Sutton in July 1988. Dr. Lester C. Newman became the fifth president of MVSU on July 1, 1998. Dr. Donna H. Oliver became MVSU's sixth president and first female president on January 1, 2009. On November 6, 2013, Dr. William Bynum took office as MVSU's seventh president.

In May 2017, Bynum departed MVSU to become president of Jackson State University. Dr. Jerryl Briggs, who served as executive vice president and chief operating officer in Bynum's administration, was named interim president of the university shortly afterwards. On October 19, 2017, Briggs was officially named as the university's eighth president.

In a 1997 article in Innovative Higher Education, the journalist Dale Thorn describes MVSU's successful attempt to avoid a merger with another institution and to remain a separate entity.

In 1998, the university renamed many of the buildings on campus, except for those named for white supremacist politicians Walter Sillers, Jr., Fielding Wright, and J. H. White
