UND Turns Its Focus to Miss. Valley State and UAPB

North Dakota soccer heads to the Midwest to face to S Pacific Northwest to face two Southwestern Athletic Conference opponents. The journey in the Midwest begins with a visit to Mississippi Valley State to face the Devilettes on Friday, Sept. 16 at 6 p.m. (CT). The Fighting Hawks continue their travels as they head to Arkansas Pine Bluffs to face the Lady Lions on Sunday, Sept. 18 at 11 a.m. (CT). Fans can also follow the action live via Twitter (@UNDSoccer) or via live stats.

Next Up

North Dakota will start the conference season on the road. They remain in the Midwest as they head to Nebraska to face the Omaha Mavericks on Friday, Sept. 23 at 6 p.m. (CT). The Fighting Hawks then fly to Colorado to take on the Denver Pioneers on Sunday, Sept. 25 at 1 p.m. (CT).

Kicking Off

- The Fighting Hawks currently have a record of 2-4-2 as they head to face two members of the SWAC.
- North Dakota has managed to score six goals in the eight contests while posting 80 shots and 30 on goal. They average ten shots per game.
- The points leaders for the Fighting Hawks are Irene Jirasevijinda, Bailey McNitt and Hannah Olson with three each.
- The Fighting Hawks have added some freshmen to the lineup. Three freshmen have played in all eight games with two starting all eight. Sarah McCracken and Amelia Loeffler are the two who have started all eight games, and they have both scored one goal for the green and white in their debut season.
- The Fighting Hawks have been led in the net by Madi Livingston. She has started all eight games and played 692 minutes. She currently has 41 saves this season to give her a .764 save percentage.
- Bailey McNitt leads the team with three assists this season. She has played in all eight games with five starts. She currently has played 452 minutes for the Hawks.

THE DEVILETTES

• Mississippi Valley State is currently 0-3-0 on the season. They season started with a 10-0 loss to Southern Utah at home. Since then the Devilettes have had their game against Little Rock postponed and the game against Southern Mississippi canceled. They resumed play at Middle Tennessee where they fell 3-0. Their third loss came to Louisiana-Monroe (4-0).

• The Devilettes have recorded 11 shots throughout the three contests they have played this season. They have yet to score a goal on their opponents.

• The Devilettes and Fighting Hawks have not faced each other in their respective histories. This will mark the first face-off between the two opponents.

• MVSU's Rachel Aka-Ety and Cambree Catalano currently sit tied for the most shots taken with three each. Bailee Washington follows closely behind with two shots taken.

• Head Coach Frank Davies is in his third season at the helm for the Devilettes. He is considered to be the most decorated soccer coach in the SWAC as he leads the conference with five divisional titles and is tied for second with two conference tournament championships.

PLAYER(S) TO WATCH

• #20 - Rachel Aka-Ety (Junior, Forward): Aka-Ety was recently named SWAC Player of the Week for her work on the defensive end. She helped stop two goals against Louisiana-Monroe.

THE LADY LIONS

• UAPB is currently 3-5-0 on the season. The season began with a 1-0 win against Arkansas State. The streak continued as they beat Central Baptist College 3-0. Their first loss was to Tarleton State (6-0) before suffering another loss to Little Rock (4-0). They beat Lyons College 3-0 before losing to North Alabama (5-0), Oral Roberts (2-0) and Tulsa (7-0).

• The Lady Lions have scored seven goals in the eight contests they have played. They have totaled 113 shots to average 14.1 per game.

• The Lady Lions and Fighting Hawks have not faced each other in their respective histories. This will mark the first face-off between the two opponents.

• UAPB's Natalie Freeman leads the team with six points. She has scored three goals for the Lady Lions. She has taken 19 shots with ten on goal.

• Head Coach Erik Solberg enters his third season at the helm. In his first season, he led the team to their first conference tournament since 2018.

PLAYER(S) TO WATCH

• #7 - Natalie Freeman (Sophomore, Forward): Freeman was chosen as the SWAC Preseason Player of the Year. She finished tied for second in the conference in goals (10), third in shots on goal (25), sixth in shots average (2.16), tied for second in the league in points (23), and eighth in assists (3). Freeman led the SWAC with the highest number of goals scored in a single game (4).
