UNSURPASSED BEAUTY...

Surrounded by pines and aspens and sitting at the base of the 12,633-foot San Francisco Peaks, Flagstaff is in the middle of the Coconino National Forest, the largest contiguous stand of ponderosa pines in the world, at an elevation of 7,000 feet above sea level. Flagstaff is surrounded by incredible scenery, including the Grand Canyon National Park, Lake Powell, the Sedona red rocks, Monument Valley, Sunset Crater and Oak Creek Canyon.

As the pictures on the covers of this guide and the following five pages will show, Flagstaff and northern Arizona offer a diverse landscape, four distinctive seasons, unmatched beauty and an exciting array of recreational possibilities.

MEDIA INFORMATION/ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT DIRECTORY

Media Relations Office

The media relations office is located on the east concourse of the J. Lawrence Walkup Skydome. The phone number is (928) 523-6792 or 6330, and the fax number is 6793.

Interviews

All player interviews MUST be coordinated through the media relations office at least one day in advance. NO interviews or photo shoots will be conducted the day of a match prior to first serve. Out-of-town media should contact media relations to arrange phone interviews. Players will be available for interviews following practice and, if prior arrangements have been made, before practice. The NAU locker room and training room are closed to media.

Head coach Craig Choate and his staff are generally available for interviews after practice. To set up personal and phone interviews at other times, contact the media relations office at 928-523-6330 to set up the session. To confirm practice times each day, contact media relations.

Practice

Daily workouts are generally closed to the public due to space constraints, but media members are allowed upon confirmation of practice times with the media relations office. Generally, practice starts at 2 p.m. in Rolle Activity Center, though the schedule could change without prior notice.

Media Pass List

In lieu of credentials, working media will be placed on a media list that will be at the ticket table near the northwest entrance to Rolle Activity Center. Media members assigned to work a match must provide their names to the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance.

Photography/Videography

For safety, photographers and videographers are not permitted inside the sponsorship tables surrounding the court unless prior permission has been obtained from the media relations office. Due to space constraints, only those on assignment are placed on the pass list. Please provide names at least 24 hours in advance.

Media Services

Box scores for each game will be issued during the match, with a final box at the conclusion. Prior to first serve, a match program with team rosters will be issued to working media.

Postmatch

The NAU locker room is closed on the road and in Rolle Activity Center. At home, post-match interviews will be held courtside with requested players and coaches from both teams. A member of the media relations office will collect requests immediately following the conclusion of the match.

Mountain Standard Time

Arizona does not recognize Daylight Savings Time. As a result, Flagstaff time coincides with the Pacific time zone through Nov. 1. The rest of the season, Flagstaff is compatible with the Mountain time zone (Eastern time minus two hours).

Lumberjacks Online

Releases, statistics, rosters and breaking news are available on the athletics web site, www.nauathletics.com. All information is available for immediate use, including photos. The Big Sky Conference web site is www.bigskyconf.com.

Internet Video Streaming

Most NAU home matches and all home and away Big Sky matches are available for viewing on the web through www.bigskytv.org. There is a charge for viewing, and various packages can be purchased. Visit the site for further information.

Lumberjacks by E-mail

The media relations office is always compiling a media directory to send out weekly advance releases, event stories and statistics in lieu of a fax. Media members interested in this service should e-mail Steve.Shaff@nau.edu. Game notes will be available on the website prior to that week's matches. Call Steve Shaff at 928-523-6792 for more information.

NAU TV Services

NAU TV Services covers Lumberjack sports on Flagstaff cable channels 4 & 59 and Universityhouse (ch. 9411) on the Dish Network, while distributing to regional outlet FSN Arizona and national digital cable channel Fox College Sports. In 2007-08, they produced 30 plus events.

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY

Northern Arizona University provides an outstanding undergraduate residential education strengthened by important research, graduate and professional programs and a responsive distance learning network delivering programs throughout Arizona.

Undergraduate education that provides knowledge of the world and an ability to appreciate change, diversity and life itself is NAU's underlying core strength.

Faculty and staff members are committed to the residential campus concept and to the students but also are prepared to deliver education throughout Arizona and the world either online or in new campus structures.

Northern Arizona University has a student population of more than 20,000 at its main campus in Flagstaff and at sites across the state.

NAU was established in 1899 as the Northern Arizona Normal School. A close, personal interest in the development of each student as an individual has long been a trademark of the Mountain Campus. This educational experience is enhanced by an atmosphere that celebrates the diversity of opinions and cultures.

The undergraduate programs at NAU cover a diverse range of disciplines, from liberal arts and the sciences to professional and career-related fields.

As NAU looks to the future, it continues to develop innovative ways to provide citizens with greater access to education and strives to strengthen its teaching and service partnerships to meet the needs of a changing Arizona.

NAU CHECKLIST

- 95 percent of alumni report they are either employed or in advanced study, and 80 percent of those employed report they are working in an area directly related to their major.
- The overall student-athlete grade-point average is higher than 3.0.
- More than half of Arizona's teachers have received instruction at NAU.
- NAU graduates' acceptance rate to medical, dental, and veterinary school is higher than the national average.

Flagstaff, with a population of about 57,000, is rich in cultural diversity. Located at the base of the majestic San Francisco Peaks, Flagstaff is 140 miles north of Phoenix at the intersection of Interstate 17 and Interstate 40.

With its elevation of 7,000 feet and four-season climate, Flagstaff is ideal for year-round outdoor activities. Nearby attractions include the Grand Canyon, Lowell Observatory, Oak Creek Canyon, Sedona, Monument Valley, Sunset Crater, Meteor Crater, and Arizona Snowbowl.

-William A. Franke, one of Arizona's most prominent business leaders, has made a $25 million contribution to Northern Arizona University's College of Business, the largest donation in the university's history.

-The university has created a new College of Health and Human Services to help the university respond to the need for more health-care professionals in the state and enhance the university's participation in the developing academic medical complex in downtown Phoenix.

-The Arizona Cardinals conduct training camp at NAU, which Sports Illustrated has called among the top five training camps in the NFL.

-NAU's graduate physical therapy program ranks among the best in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Academics in the athletics department have taken on a new meaning at Northern Arizona University. The academic services are under the direction of academic services coordinator Pam Lowie and offer numerous programs to help the student-athletes throughout their academic careers.

The results have been impressive. During the spring semester of 2008, NAU student-athletes achieved a cumulative grade-point average of 3.13, the 19th semester with a cumulative GPA above 3.0 in the last 10 years (20 semesters).

During the 2007-08 academic year, the Lumberjacks garnered a school-record 178 Golden Eagle Awards and 43 student-athletes took part in spring commencement ceremonies on the NAU campus and were commissioned degrees as part of the Class of 2008.

MISSION

Northern Arizona University's Athletic Academic Services department strives to provide quality academic services that will enhance the student-athletes' total educational experience and encourage graduation within four years.

Lumberjack Academics has the following programs in place for student-athletes:

PROACTIVE MENTORING

Each year approximately 30-50 first year student-athletes will be selected to participate in NAU's ProActive Mentor program which targets students who Lumberjack Academics believes may benefit from academic mentoring. Student-athletes are selected based on incoming GPA's/ test scores and coaches recommendations. Student-athletes are expected to attend a weekly meeting with their assigned academic graduate assistant as well as with their respective coach, and to report on their progress in each class.

STUDY HALL

First year student-athletes (including transfer student-athletes) are required to complete 6-8 hours of study time beginning with the second week of classes through Reading Week. The 6-8 hours consist of scheduled times a monitor will be available and may also include tutoring by the Learning Assistance Centers, organized study groups facilitated by tutors, graduate assistants or faculty from the academic colleges and other academic-related activities that are approved by the Athletics Academic Department Staff.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

All first year freshman student-athletes are assigned to an academic advisor at the Gateway Student Success Center (GSSC). After the student-athletes' first year, they will be assigned to a college advisor if they have declared a major while those who are undecided will remain assigned to a GSSC advisor. Student-athletes must declare a major before entering their 5th semester. Academic Coordinators are available for pre-advisement to make sure all NCAA/NAU policies and procedures are being followed.

TUTORING SERVICES

Tutoring services for all student-athletes are provided through the North and South Learning Assistance Centers. Student-athletes are given the option to utilize the master schedule which allows them to schedule set tutoring appointments for twice a week per subject throughout the academic semester. Student-athletes may also take advantage of the drop in services and make appointments on an as-needed basis.

EARLY ENROLLMENT

Student-athletes are afforded the opportunity to participate in priority registration which enables the student-athletes to accommodate practice schedules while continuing to make progress towards graduation. The student-athletes are grouped with seniors and honor students for registration. In order to utilize priority registration, student-athletes must have all holds cleared from their account and meet with their academic advisor for advisement and activation.

PROGRESS REPORTS

All student-athletes will have progress reports completed once a semester. Student-athletes who receive a "D" or "F" on a progress report will be required to complete an Action Plan with the faculty for the course in which the "D" or "F" was received.

ACADEMIC AWARDS & RECOGNITION

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR'S HONOR ROLL

Student-athletes on a current roster who achieve a 3.5 cumulative GPA qualify for the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. The student-athletes will be recognized at the designated spring Men's Basketball game.

GOLDEN EAGLE SCHOLAR ATHLETES

Student-athletes who have achieved a 3.0 Cum GPA are honored at the Golden Eagle Scholar Athlete Banquet in the spring. Student-athletes are presented a plaque to recognize their achievement.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE SCHOLAR ATHLETES

Student-athletes who have completed at least one term at the University, achieved a 3.2 Cumulative GPA and competed in 50% of the team's athletic competitions are eligible for the Big Sky Conference Scholar Athlete Award.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

EPS 199-CHAMPS LIFE SKILLS COURSE FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

EPS 199 is a course designed by a partnership between Lumberjack Athletics and NAU's Department of Educational Psychology within the College of Education. The course will assist student-athletes with career, personal and academic development, provide diversity education and provide NCAA education regarding eligibility, rules & regulations. All freshmen student-athletes are required to take the course during their first year of enrollment at NAU. It is offered in the fall and spring semesters.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE (SAAC)

The student-athlete advisory committee (SAAC) is a committee made up of student-athletes assembled to provide insight on the student-athlete experience. The SAAC also offers input on the rules, regulations and policies that affect student-athletes' lives on NCAA member institution campuses.

NAU SAAC MISSION

"The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) discusses student-athlete issues, plans community service projects, serves as a collective voice for Lumberjack Athletics, and assists with the development of new programs and policies for NAU Athletics."

OPPORTUNITIES

- Have the privilege to be a voice for your sport
- Be part of the development of policies and procedures of the Athletic Department
- Coordinate events within the department and throughout the community
- Communicate with other members to help enhance the student-athlete experience here at NAU
- Get to know other student-athletes
- Gain skills that will help your professional development

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

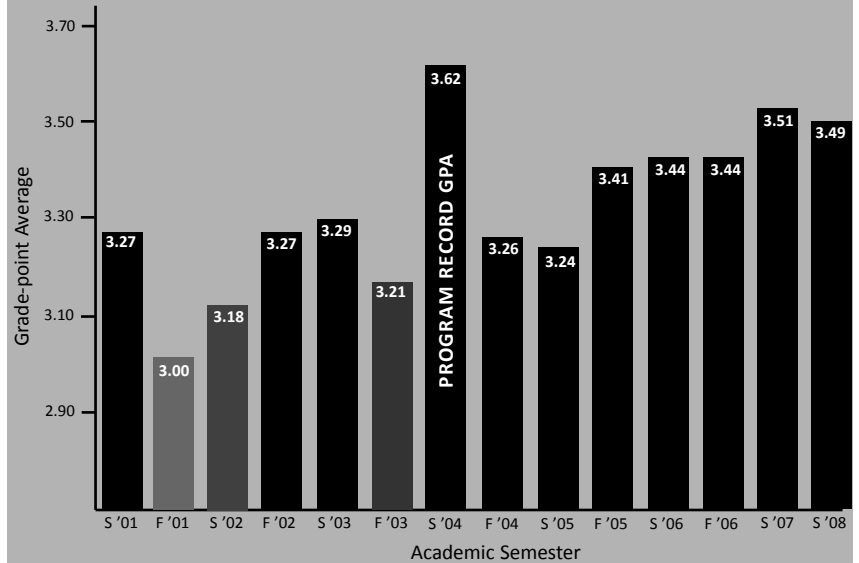

NAU Athletics consistently provides opportunities for student-athletes to get ready for their career. The Gateway Student Success Center is a great resource for career services here on campus. In addition, it provides resume writing workshops, interview skills workshops, career fairs, and general career guidance.

The department has brought speakers on campus to discuss careers and continuously provides support for student-athletes and their career goals.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

All NAU student-athletes are required to do at least 10 hours of community service each year. The department offers opportunities for community service and each team takes an initiative to reach out to the community in its own way.

Dr. John D. Haeger, President of Northern Arizona University

John D. Haeger leads Northern Arizona University in its commitment to undergraduate education—a commitment enhanced by the university's ongoing efforts in research, graduate education and distance learning.

Dr. Haeger has been NAU president since November 2001 after joining the university to serve as NAU provost in June 2000.

During his term as president, Dr. Haeger has guided the university to new heights in student enrollment. He also has ushered the university into its largest building boom since the 22-year term of former NAU President J. Lawrence Walkup.

Further, he has fully endorsed a national effort to increase institutional accountability, explaining that NAU must perform on a level that demonstrates its significance to students and to society.

Among university achievements under his leadership:

- * Tuition guarantee. Dr. Haeger instituted a "block tuition" plan that guarantees first-time, full-time freshmen and transfer students the same tuition rate for eight semesters.
- * 'Finish in Four' guarantee. NAU promises to provide students the advisement help and courses necessary to obtain their degree within four years.
- * Expansion of nursing and the health professions. The university has placed emphasis on graduating more students in nursing and developing or expanding programs in occupational therapy, athletic training and physicians assistant.

* Commitment to research. President Haeger has instituted NAU's first office of Vice President for Research. In Yuma, ground has been broken on a 12,225-square-foot building that will provide research four-year degree opportunities.

* High Country Conference Center. Dr. Haeger initiated a joint partnership to build a 42,000-square-foot conference center and an adjoining hotel and parking structure. Consultants have estimated the economic benefit to northern Arizona to be about $7 million annually.

* Largest gift in university history. The College of Business Administration was able to acquire the largest gift in university history, a $25 million donation from prominent business leader William Franke. The college was renamed The W.A. Franke College of Business.

* Arizona Cardinals partnership. The Cardinals agreed to continue their training camp in Flagstaff. About $2 million will be added to the northern Arizona economy as a result.

* Yuma branch campus. NAU received approval from the Arizona Board of Regents to designate NAU-Yuma as a branch campus. The designation allows NAU to build programming and resources at its Arizona Western College site.

* 'Going green.' The university is home to one of the three greenest buildings in the world after receiving a "Platinum" rating for its Applied Research and Development building. It also earned "Gold" ratings for buildings that house Engineering and Business.

Dr. Haeger is a member Arizona Board of Education, the Governor's P-20 Council and the board of directors of the Translational Genomics Research Institute. He is former chair of the United Way of Northern Arizona board, serves as commissioner for the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, and is past chair of the Council of Presidents of the Big Sky Conference.

Dr. Wayne Sjoberg, Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Wayne Sjoberg (shoo-berg) is in his 11th year as the faculty athletics representative at NAU. In his role as faculty representative, Sjoberg works closely with athletic department personnel on issues related to academic integrity, rules compliance, and student-athlete welfare.

A professor of psychology in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences until his retirement in May of 2006, Sjoberg has been associated with NAU for more than 30 years.

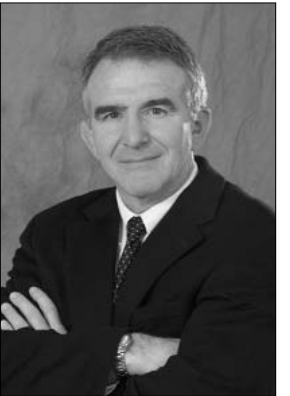

A longtime NAU booster and athletics fan, he has been involved with youth sports for many years, including Little League baseball, girls softball and youth soccer. He is a certified soccer referee.

In his spare time, he enjoys outdoor activities such as tennis, hiking, running and cross-country skiing.

A native of Hutchinson, Kan., Sjoberg earned his bachelor's degree from Kansas State and his master's from Oklahoma State. He also obtained his Ph.D. in psychology from Oklahoma State in 1967.

His wife, Cynthia, owns bachelor's and master's degrees from NAU and currently works in the NAU North Learning Assistance Center. The couple has two daughters, Sara (33), a 1998 NAU graduate, and Gretchen (30).

Jim Fallis, Athletics Director

Jim Fallis was named the Director of Athletics at Northern Arizona University in May, 2004, and the department has had success across the board under his leadership.

Under his direction, the 300-plus Lumberjack student-athletes have maintained 3.00 or better cumulative mark in all eight semesters. Eleven of the 15 squads posted a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA last year led by the volleyball team which posted a department-best 3.42 in 2007-08.

A school-record one hundred seventy-eight student-athletes were recognized at the 30th Annual Golden Eagle Awards for significant contributions to the Lumberjack athletics program while maintaining a minimum of a 3.0 GPA. He also established the Athletic Director's Honor Roll to recognize student-athletes with a 3.5 or better GPA, recognizing more than 70 recipients last spring. Outside the classroom, the department staff and student-athletes contributed 4,000-plus community service hours in Flagstaff and around the state of Arizona each of the last two years.

NAU has ranked among the top 100 athletic department in the United States Sports Academy Directors Cup standings twice under Fallis, while winning 14 Big Sky Conference titles and recording 12 Top-40 national finishes and six individual national titles. NAU won the Big Sky Conference Men's All-Sports title for the second consecutive season.

In 2007-08, the Lumberjacks ranked 98th overall in the United States Sports Academy Directors Cup standings aided by two top-10 national finishes in cross country and a 42nd-place national finish at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. The Lumberjacks posted two top-40 national finishes in 2006-07 behind a pair of national championships by sophomore standout Lopez Lomong. NAU won the Big Sky title in men's track and field, the regular season title in men's basketball and produced four All-Americans who earned a combined 10 All-America honors. The Lumberjacks won the Big Sky Conference Men's All-Sports title for the first time since 2003-04.

In 2005-06, the Lumberjacks had one of the most successful seasons in recent history, finishing 90th in the United States Sports Academy Directors Cup standings aided by a 10th-place national finish by women's indoor track and field and a 12th-place showing at the NCAA Women's Cross Country championships. The NAU women's sports programs captured the 2005-06 Big Sky Conference Women's All-Sports Trophy for the first time since 2000. The campaign was highlighted by six Big Sky Championships including titles in cross country, as well as indoor and outdoor women's track and field. The men's basketball team won the conference regular season title, while the women captured the Big Sky Conference tournament title to advance to its first NCAA Tournament in school history. NAU finished second in golf and third in regular-season women's basketball, soccer and tennis. NAU highlighted the campaign by winning the 2005-06 Sterling Savings Bank Presidents Cup, which is unique to collegiate athletics in that it reinforces the Big Sky Conference's dedication to the academic side of being student-athletes.

NAU coaches garnered five Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year awards, eight student-athletes were honored as 2006 ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America District 8 selections and senior men's basketball player Kelly Golob became the first Lumberjack to earn NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship honors since 2000.

Fallis has also overseen the installation of a state-of-the-art scoreboard and message-center in the Walkup Skydome. The Skydome also welcomed the installation of a removable REALGRASS™ Matrix system during the Spring of 2008, the first removable REALGRASS™ system to be installed in the United States. It marked the first accomplishment by the President's Task Force on Athletics Facilities.

NAU recently signed a five-year apparel agreement with Adidas to outfit all 15 intercollegiate teams with practice and game gear. The deal replaced NIKE as the official team outfitter, a three-year contract originally developed by Fallis.

Prior to NAU, Fallis served as athletics director at the University of Northern Colorado since 1993. Academic and athletic successes as well as fiscal responsibility were hallmarks of Fallis' tenure at Northern Colorado. Northern Colorado teams won 31 conference championships in his 10 years. Academically, UNC produced 13 NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients in his 11-year tenure.

Fallis continued to develop UNC Athletics into one of the most successful Division II programs in the nation. He also coordinated the successful completion of the largest fundraising project in UNC athletic history, the $3.5 million Nottingham Field. He also assisted in the construction management of the 6,500-seat stadium. Fallis also oversaw the $400,000 addition of an eight-lane all-weather track, a $400,000 renovation to Jackson Baseball Field, the addition of a million dollar wrestling room to Butler-Hancock as well as new women's basketball and volleyball locker rooms and a conversion from tartan to wood flooring. In addition, the department built a computer technology room for use by student-athletes.

In 1994, Fallis created the UNC Athletic Hall of Fame to pay tribute to the outstanding student-athletes, coaches and contributors that have been a big part of the Bears' history for the past century. Fallis was committed to developing a UNC Athletic program that adhered to the principals of gender equity and stressed the academic performance of its student-athletes. During his tenure, Fallis added women's golf and women's softball to the UNC varsity sport lineup, and had consistently worked to enhance the scholarship opportunities available in the Bears' nine women's sports. Fallis created an environment in which academic performance was valued and rewarded, as witnessed by the fact that nearly 33 percent of UNC student-athletes had a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25 or better in 2001-02.

UNC won two Division II National Championships in football (1996, 1997) under his direction. At the time he left, athletics had over $8 million in endowments and $600,000 in reserves. Prior to UNC, Fallis spent seven years as athletic director at Lake Superior State University. Under his leadership, LSSU won NCAA Division I Hockey Championships in 1988 and 1992.

Fallis, 55, has been actively involved in the administration of intercollegiate athletics at the national level. Presently, he serves on the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup Committee and represents the Big Sky on the Division I Championship cabinet. He was also selected by Arizona Gov. Janet Napolitano to serve on the Governor's Council on Health, Physical Fitness and Sport for the state of Arizona and is a member of the Route 66 Rotary club in Flagstaff. A 1974 graduate of LSSU, Fallis served as the Lakers' wrestling coach from 1974 until his appointment as interim athletic director in 1986. Fallis had an outstanding wrestling career of his own.

A four-time NAIA All-America grappler for the Lakers, he won both the NCAA Division III and NAIA national championships in 1974. A member of three Hall of Fames, he was named to the Lake Superior State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. A native of Durand, Mich., Fallis earned his masters degree from Northern Michigan in 1977. He and his wife, Anna, are the parents of two grown children and two grandchildren.

The Northern Arizona University Lumberjack volleyball team makes its home in the Joseph C. Rolle Activity Center, located on the south side of campus. In 2008, the facility celebrates its 20th season as the everyday home for NAU volleyball.

The facility offers four complete volleyball courts, which the Lumberjacks use for their practices. For home matches, Rolle is set up with one court in the center surrounded on two sides by bleachers and sponsorship tents, with the bleachers seating up to 1,066 fans.

The turnaround of the NAU program has coincided with the team's dominance at home. Since 1995, NAU has posted a solid 106-51 (.675) record at home, which is the fourth-best record in the Big Sky Conference over the last 11 seasons. NAU set a record in 1999 by posting 11 home wins and set the arena record in 2000 by winning 90.9 percent of its home dates (10-1), then tying the mark in 2001. In 2008, the program will have 14 home dates including two home tournaments.

The facility will be the home for the Fiesta Bowl, a tournament returning for its 16th year which will take place on September 12-13. Prior to the Fiesta Bowl, NAU will host its own invitational on August 29-30.

The facility has shown to be fan-friendly, as the Lumberjacks have rated among the nation's top-60 in home attendance for the last several years (out of more than 320 Division I programs).

After 15 seasons in now-raised Lumberjack Gym, the volleyball team moved into its new digs for the 1989 season. The squad was 12-11 in its first two seasons in the facility but has posted a 133-59 (.693) mark in 17 seasons since, including a 54-18 (.750) record against non-conference opponents and a team-record streak of six straight seasons with at least 10 home wins (1996-2001).

Non-league opponents due to come to Rolle in 2008 are Akron, Rutgers and Binghamton for the NAU Invitational, and Hampton, Navy and Duquesne for the Fiesta Bowl. In recent seasons, NAU has defeated Arizona State, Arkansas-Little Rock, Eastern Washington, Memphis, Houston, Oregon State, Radford and Sacramento State in the seasons those schools ended up in the NCAAs, winning 72 percent of the games played in those matches (39 of 54).

While serving as the volleyball headquarters, Rolle is also used by the NAU men's and women's basketball teams as a practice facility and home arena for early-season games when the NAU football team is still competing and using the J. Lawrence Walkup Skydome. Rolle is used for open recreation and intramurals, and it houses the NAU men's volleyball club team.

The arena has also served as the training-camp home for the Phoenix Suns of the NBA and the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury has used the facility during its preseason training camp.

The gym was dedicated in the name of Dr. Joseph C. Rolle for his contributions as both an administrator and professor at NAU. He and his wife, Marie, annually give the Rolle Award to the most valuable player on both the NAU men's and women's basketball teams.

FIESTA BOWL

For the 16th time in 18 years, Northern Arizona University will hold its annual Fiesta Bowl Volleyball Tournament, considered one of the nation's premier early-season collegiate events. This year's event will take place Friday and Saturday, Sept. 12 and 13, in the Joseph C. Rolle Activity Center, which celebrates its 20th season as the home facility for the Lumberjack volleyball program.

This year, NAU welcomes Duquesne (Atlantic 10), Navy (Patriot League) and Hampton (Mid-Eastern).

NAU has compiled a 36-10 (.783) record in its own event and has won nine team titles. Some top programs have participated - Oregon State, Radford, San Diego State, Arkansas-Little Rock, Memphis, Houston, West Virginia and Santa Clara - and all earned national postseason appearances during the seasons in which they visited Flagstaff.

SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2008 Northern Arizona volleyball program ushers in a new era under first-year head coach Craig Choate, who also welcomes nine newcomers among the active roster of 15. Choate is no stranger to taking the reins and brings in 17 years of head coaching experience including 14 at San Jose State.

The Lumberjacks are coming off their first Big Sky Tournament appearance in three years, but must deal with losing All-Big Sky First Team selection Kim Babcock to graduation. Just four members of this year's roster have seen action in a match at NAU, and one of those, fifth-year senior Kailee Savage, was injured for nearly all of the 2007 season.

Of the five healthy returning players, four are seniors. "I talked to the returners about how change can be a tough thing," said Choate. "You're used to doing things a certain way and someone comes in and changes how you do things. Some of our success will depend on how they buy into it."

Senior Brittany Stowers was an All-Big Sky honorable mention selection in 2007, and was also the 2006 Big Sky Newcomer of the Year.

The most proven player on the squad is senior libero Brittany Stowers, a 2007 Big Sky honorable mention selection. Stowers led the team and the conference in digs as a junior, and currently leads NAU in the all-time record books in career digs per game at 4.69.

"The natural leader is Brittany," says Choate. "It's tough to be a libero and be a leader but I've had one do it in the past and it can happen again."

Stowers and the other returners will be looking to form a cohesive unit with a team made up of eight freshmen and one junior transfer.

"I do expect the newcomers to have to make an immediate impact," said Choate. "Sheer numbers are going to dictate that they'll play a role this year, and probably a very important role. The hardest place to be a freshman is on the outside, which is the area we'll really need them. But confidence is the big thing, and I think some of them have that coming in."

With so many factors unknown heading into the season, Choate realizes he can't predict any outcomes, but hopes the team will give it everything they're capable of.

"I always tell everybody that one of the hardest things is to reach your potential," he said. "Let's get as good as we can be, play as hard as we can play and have fun in the process. I can't tell you how many we're going to win. But I can deal with whatever the results are if we play hard and play smart. It's hugely important that we don't just play- that we play smart. That will be a difference in several matches for sure."

Looking at the student-athletes by position, here is how the 2008 team breaks down.

SETTER

With the loss of four-year starting setter Kelly Verboom to graduation and no other setters on the roster from last year, Choate has brought in junior transfer Janalee Mays-Robinson to step into the role immediately. She comes to NAU from Golden West Community College where she ranked first in the state in assists as a sophomore and second as a freshman. Last year she was named to the all-tournament team at the state finals where her team finished as runners-up.

"Janalee comes from Golden West College which has won 18 state championships and is a massive powerhouse," said Choate. "Her coach, Rick McLaughlin, is someone I have ties to and trust. We're lucky to have her coming in as our setter."

Freshman Sam Hodgkins could play at setter or outside hitter for the Lumberjacks, and freshman Shanlie Kaululaau will also contribute at the setter position.

Out of Kahuku High School in Laie, Hawaii, Kaululaau helped her team to a second-place conference finish and fifth-place state finish as a senior, and was named Team MVP.

MIDDLE BLOCKER

Senior Emily Osiadacz saw limited action in her first two seasons at NAU, but stepped into a bigger role last year, playing in 26 matches with 20 starts and ranking first on the team and fourth in the Big Sky with a hitting percentage of .312.

"It looks like Emily was improving a lot last year and had some nice numbers," said Choate. "We'll look for her to continue that improvement in the middle."

Choate plans to try senior Alex Fell at the middle blocker position after experimenting with the move during the spring season. Fell played at outside hitter for the past three years, and has put up consistent numbers on offense and defense.

"I have experimented moving Alex to the middle, but if we need her more on the outside we'll put her back on the outside," said Choate. "Wherever she plays we look for her to be a solid contributor."

The lone sophomore on the team, Chelsea Cheeley, also returns to the position. Cheeley played in all but one match last year and had 11 starts as a freshman, knocking down 1.58 kills per game to rank fifth on the team and recording 26 total blocks.

"Chelsea was thrown in the fire as a freshman, but as she matures we expect her level of play to continue to improve," said Choate. "Hopefully she can rise to the challenge again this year."

Redshirt freshman Hannah Sadler was sidelined last year with a knee injury, but is now healthy and will vie for a spot on the court this year.

Coming in at the middle blocker position are freshmen Ashley Ames, Katie Bailey and Kiersten McNairy.

As a senior at Capital High School in Helena, Mont., Ames became just the third-ever female at the school to achieve a "Triple Crown," earning all-state honors in volleyball, basketball and softball.

Bailey, at 6-0, averaged 3.1 kills per game along with 1.2 blocks per game as a senior at Chaffey High School in Ontario, Calif., and was a two-time MVP of her Club West volleyball team.

McNairy, out of Lakeridge High School in Lake Oswego, Ore., was named first team all-league as a senior, and helped her team reach the playoffs in her junior and senior seasons.

OUTSIDE HITTER

With limited numbers of returning outside hitters, the Lumberjacks will need newcomers to step in and make an immediate impact. Although Fell returns for her senior season, she may move to the middle blocking position.

Savage, who played in only three matches last year before sitting out the rest of the season due to injury, returns for a fifth year, but her status for the beginning of the season is still unknown. She started all 26 matches in 2006 and ranked second on the team with 340 kills (3.43 per game). She was also one of NAU's leaders on defense having recorded 245 digs that year which ranked second only to Stowers.

Senior Roni Greenwood had shoulder surgery in the offseason and will not be able to play this year.

Senior Alex Fell started in 17 matches last year and ranked fourth on the team with 1.67 digs per game.

Four freshmen will be vying for spots at the outside hitter position, as Hodgkins, Sara Bowden, Kobi Christensen and Lexi Sullivan all join the team.

Bowden, at 6-0 and from Corona del Sol High School in Tempe, earned numerous honors as a senior including 5A Division I all-state, 5A East Valley Tribune all-state, all-city and first team all-region. She led her team with 487 kills and earned MVP honors.

At 6-0, Christensen helped lead her Kelowna Secondary team to a top-five finish in British Columbia in AAAA senior girls' volleyball last season.

Hodgkins, a 6-0 right side hitter and setter out of Mountain Pointe High School in Phoenix, was named first team all-state as well as the 5A1 Central Player of the Year as a senior. She averaged 3.5 kills per game in leading her team to a 38-9 overall record.

At 6-0, Sullivan was the 2007 East Valley Player of the Year out of Mountain View High School in Mesa, Ariz., after averaging 3.7 kills per game and 2.2 digs per game. She was a first team all-state selection by both The Arizona Republic and the East Valley Tribune, and was a two-time team MVP.

LIBERO

After earning All-Big Sky honorable mention honors last year and the 2006 Big Sky Newcomer of the Year Award prior to that, Stowers returns as the leader of the team despite being a back row player. She has been named to four all-tournament teams in her short career at NAU, including earning Outstanding Libero honors at the 2007 Fiesta Bowl. Her career digs per game average of 4.69 currently ranks first all-time in the program.

"Brittany reminds me of several old liberos that I've had (at San Jose State)," said Choate. "Liberos have to be feisty, and she is. She's a good competitor from what I can tell. I have a feeling I'm never going to have to ask her why she didn't go for that ball, because she'll go for that ball. I like that we'll have her on the floor."

The Lumberjacks will host two home tournaments and play a third in Green Bay, Wis., before beginning this year's Big Sky slate.

SCHEDULE

The 2008 schedule has the Lumberjacks once again hosting two home tournaments, and traveling to Green Bay, Wis., for a third.

The season begins officially on Aug. 29 as NAU will play host to the Hilton Garden Inn Invitational. Akron is the Lumberjacks' first opponent, followed on Aug. 30 by Rutgers and Binghamton. "Akron has everybody back and we're starting with a team that hasn't been a cohesive unit yet," said Choate. "It will be an interesting first match."

Rivalries abound in the opening tournament, as assistant coach John Napier is an Akron alum as well as former assistant coach, and Choate's former assistant coach at New Mexico State, Glenn Kiriya, is the head coach at Binghamton.

NAU will head north to Green Bay on Sept. 5 to face Fresno State, Drake and host Green Bay in a two-day tournament. "I like being on the road," said Choate. "When you're on the road, the athletes tend to focus more because there's not as much going on. Plus I think part of the package is to take them places they've never been."

The non-conference portion of the schedule will conclude with the return of the Fiesta Bowl to Flagstaff for a 16th year on Sept. 12-13, featuring teams from Hampton, Duquesne and Navy. Duquesne is returning for its second-straight year in the Fiesta Bowl, and was the runner-up to NAU last year.

NAU opens its Big Sky Conference schedule on the road at Montana State and Montana on Sept. 19 and 20. The Lumberjacks' conference schedule is well balanced with no more than three matches in a row on the road or at home.

Should the Lumberjacks advance to the Big Sky Tournament, it will be held this year at a predetermined site for the second time as Portland State will play host after taking the regular season title in 2007. But last year's tournament host, Sacramento State, ended up winning the tournament to advance to its sixth straight NCAA Tournament. NAU earned the sixth and final berth in last year's tournament, but prior to that had not appeared in two conference tournaments after previously earning a berth for 10 straight years.

COACHING STAFF

CRAIG CHOATE
Head Coach - First Season
BYU - 1978
Career Record 273-256

With 17 years of experience as a head coach, Craig Choate joins the Northern Arizona volleyball program for his first year as head coach. Choate was most recently an assistant coach for the men's volleyball team at Pepperdine University, and prior to that was the head women's coach at San Jose State University for 14 years.

Choate compiled a record of 244-191 in his time at San Jose State including five 20-win seasons, and left as the school's all-time leader in victories. His teams made three NCAA Tournament appearances and advanced to the second round with a win over Santa Clara in 2001. That squad became the first SJSU women's team to be nationally ranked in over a decade.

Choate's 1999 team finished with a record of 25-6, and Choate was named the Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year that season. During his time at San Jose State, the Spartans defeated seven teams ranked in the Top 25.

His San Jose State squads finished second in the WAC regular season three times and advanced to the championship match of the WAC Tournament in 2001 and 2003. In 1994, the Spartans won 23 matches and finished second at the National Invitational Volleyball Championship.

Two of Choate's student-athletes at San Jose State were named All-American honorable mention, and he also trained seven all-region athletes and 25 all-conference selections. On the academic side, 21 of Choate's student-athletes were named Academic All-WAC.

Choate had the opportunity to spend a few days in Flagstaff in August of 2006, when his SJSU team went 3-0 at NAU's Hilton Garden Inn Invitational to take the tournament title.

Prior to his long stint at SJSU, Choate was the head women's coach at New Mexico State for three years, from 1990-92. His other coaching experience includes another year as an assistant men's coach at Pepperdine back in 1990 as well as assistant coaching positions with the BYU and Cal Poly women's programs.

As a player, Choate won silver medals at the 1999, 2002, 2003 and 2004 USA Open Volleyball Championships in Atlanta. He participated in the 1981 USVBA senior men's division open championships and received All-American honors. He played club volleyball as a student at Brigham Young University.

Choate was an assistant coach at the Olympic Festival in 1994 and 1995. He holds memberships in the AVCA (American Volleyball Coaches Association), the USAV and has a CAP III (Coaching Accreditation Program) coaching certification.

Choate, a native of Los Angeles, graduated from BYU in 1978 with a degree in physical education. He also earned a master's degree in physical education in 1982 and a second undergraduate degree in history in 1984, both from BYU.

JOHN NAPIER
Assistant Coach - Fifth Season
Akron - 2002

John Napier, who joined the Northern Arizona volleyball program full-time as an assistant coach in 2007, now returns for his second year. No stranger to NAU volleyball, Napier served as a volunteer assistant coach for three years prior to his full-time assistant position.

Napier has been around the sport of volleyball for the past 18 years. Some highlights of his playing career include two years on the professional beach tour where he still holds the distinction of being one of two players from Ohio to place in the top 20 of any professional beach tournament.

Napier also has an extensive indoor playing career for the Air Force and All Armed Forces teams. His eight-year playing career for the Air Force team includes several appearances on the All-Star team as well as six gold medals at the Armed Forces Championships. He also played on the 35-and over team that placed second in the nation at the USAV Nationals in 2001.

His coaching career spans from the early 1990s to the present. Previous Division I coaching includes seven years as the first assistant at the University of Akron in Ohio. While at Akron, he also served for three years as the co-director and coach of the Akron Canton Elite (A.C.E.) Junior Olympic volleyball club. He was the head coach of the 17s team while there. Other head coaching experience includes four years as the men's club team coach at Los Angeles Air Force Base and as a player/coach for the All Air Force team in 2003.

In 2002, Napier graduated from The University of Akron with a master's degree in education with an emphasis in sports science/coaching. His bachelor's degree in business organizational communication also is from Akron.

The Akron, Ohio, native has more than 18 years serving in the Air Force and Air Force Reserves. In 2007, Napier was deployed in the Global War on Terror during Operation Noble Eagle. He was recently promoted to the rank of major and performs his reserve duties at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base in Tucson, Ariz.

COACHING STAFF

MEGAN GREENE
Assistant Coach - Fourth Season
Northern Arizona - 2002

Former NAU standout Megan Greene returns to the coaching staff for her fourth season as an assistant coach with the program. Greene was a middle blocker for NAU from 1998-2001, and was a member of the 1999 squad that earned NAU's first-ever berth in the NCAA Tournament after winning the Big Sky Championship as the number four seed.

Greene was named a Strength & Conditioning Athlete of the Year after her senior season, and finished her career with 776 digs which ranked 10th all-time in the record books and is the most digs ever by a middle blocker.

In her junior year, NAU tied for first in the Big Sky during the regular season. She earned honorable mention All-Big Sky in 2001, and was also a team captain and NAU's MVP. Greene recorded 14 double-doubles in her career, and was a four-time NAU Golden Eagle Scholar Athlete and a three-time Academic All-Big Sky honoree.

After graduating from NAU with a bachelor's degree in elementary education, Greene stayed in the Flagstaff area for half a year working in the field at Killip Elementary School as a STARS Instructor and a Homework Club Tutor, and as a substitute teacher for various grades throughout the Flagstaff Unified School District.

In August of 2003 Greene took a job as a fourth-grade teacher at Frias Elementary School in Las Vegas, Nev., where she spent two years. While in Las Vegas, Greene spent time coaching the Nevada Juniors volleyball club, working with a team of 18 and under girls in 2003-04, and a team of 15 and under girls in 2004-05.

ZACH MARGOLIS
Strength & Conditioning Coach
Northern Arizona - 2008

Interim assistant strength and conditioning coach Zach Margolis in his first full season working with the volleyball program as well as other NAU athletic teams.

Margolis recently graduated from Northern Arizona magna cum laude in May of 2008 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science.

Margolis was an undergraduate volunteer with the strength and conditioning department from the fall of 2005 until the winter of 2007 when he became the interim assistant.

In the summer of 2005, Margolis was a strength and conditioning intern with the Chicago Bulls.

For over a year, Margolis became very familiar with one of NAU's teams as he was a practice player with women's basketball, assisting in the team's daily workouts and in preparation for games.

In the summer of 2008, Margolis earned his certification with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and he is also certified in CPR through the American Heart Association.

Pet Peeves: Littering.

Why I chose NAU: The university offers my program of study (speech pathology) and I love the girls here.

Two things I want to do in my lifetime: Travel the world, and complete a master's degree and possibly a Ph.D.

What I like about Flagstaff: The people here are always so friendly.

What I like about Coach Choate: He doesn't accept mediocre play, and he strives for excellence and brings out the competitiveness in all his players.

Favorite sport to watch at NAU besides volleyball: Football.

My favorite pre-match ritual is: Visualization, then warming up to upbeat music.

My favorite season is, and why: Summer because the weather is usually nice, and we get a break.

Three words that best describe me: determined, upbeat and caring.

Another talent of mine (outside volleyball): Piano.

The most influential person in my life and why: My mom because she's very determined and positive in everything she does, and always puts others ahead of herself.

Academic Notes: Three-time Big Sky All-Academic honoree ... Four-time Golden Eagle Award recipient ... Graduated in May 2008 with a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies with an emphasis in speech science technologies ... Currently pursuing a master's in clinical speech pathology.

Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Doug Fullerton, the fifth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, will enter his 14th year at the helm. Fullerton took over the Big Sky on July 1, 1995, replacing longtime commissioner Ron Stephenson. Stephenson served the league for 14 years. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81 while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

The Big Sky Conference enters its 46th year of athletic competition in 2008-09. The Big Sky is an NCAA Division I member in all sports, with member institutions classified in the Football Championship Subdivision (formally I-AA). The Big Sky returned to a nine-team format in 2006 with the addition of Northern Colorado.

The current lineup includes Eastern Washington, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Weber State. The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the Football Championship Subdivision.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members – Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back at eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

With the addition of Northern Colorado, the Big Sky spreads across eight states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountain Front. The Big Sky is represented along the entire west coast with schools in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and now Colorado.

Of the eight western-most states in the contiguous United States only one, Nevada, is not represented in the Big Sky.

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by the late A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled "The Big Sky." Jack Hollowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., the legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a "Welcome to Big Sky Country" sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought "Big Sky" would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 14 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis. In addition, there are also championships in football, and women's volleyball, golf and soccer.

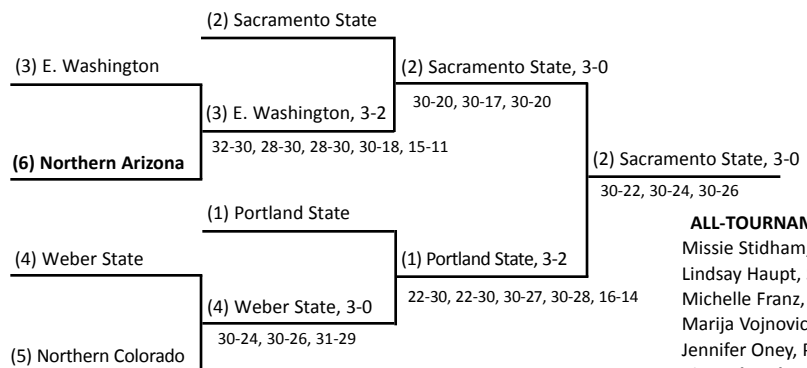

The 2008-09 season will mark the 21st year that the Big Sky Conference will sponsor championships in women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the

SEASON IN REVIEW

Back to the Big Sky Tournament

NAU's postseason chances came down to its final match of the regular season, and with a 3-0 sweep of Northern Colorado by scores of 30-26, 31-29 and 30-21, NAU earned its first postseason berth since 2004-05. The sixth-seeded Lumberjacks took third-seeded Eastern Washington to five games in the quarterfinals and ultimately lost 15-11 in the final game. NAU's overall record of 12-15 was its best since 2003, and its Big Sky record of 7-9 also matches the most total wins since that year.

Fiesta Bowl Tournament Champs!

The Lumberjacks earned the team title at the 2007 Fiesta Bowl with a perfect 3-0 record, defeating High Point and Louisiana-Lafayette 3-0 and also beating Duquesne 3-1. The Fiesta Bowl title was the first for NAU in its own tournament since 2001. Kim Babcock and Kelly Verboom were named to the All-Tournament Team with Babcock also earning the MVP title, and Brittany Stowers earned the Most Valuable Libero award.

Two Weekend Sweeps

With a quick, three-game win at Montana State on Oct. 20 after defeating Montana 3-1 on Oct. 18, NAU earned its first weekend road sweep in Big Sky Conference play since 2001. Earlier in the season at home vs. Weber State and Idaho State, NAU earned two 3-0 victories to record its first weekend sweep since 2002.

Getting it Done in the Classroom

Eight of the 14 players on the Lumberjack roster last season earned NAU Golden Eagle Scholar Athlete Awards for their achievements in the classroom. The award honors those student-athletes who maintain a 3.0 grade-point-average or above. In addition, three of those same student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Sky honors for maintaining at least a 3.2 GPA.

Runner-Up at Hilton Garden Inn Tournament

NAU finished as runners-up at its own Hilton Garden Inn/NAU Invitational, the first tournament of the season, defeating UC Davis 3-2, Albany 3-1 and losing only to nationally-ranked New Mexico State. Kim Babcock and Brittany Stowers were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Babcock Records Historic Season

Senior outside hitter Kim Babcock had one of the most impressive seasons ever by a Lumberjack. She finished the season ranked first in NCAA Division I in kills per game at 5.63, and was ranked second for seven weeks beginning October 2. Her 1,186 career kills rank fifth all-time at NAU, and her 18 double-doubles for the season tied for fourth all-time.

Babcock led the Big Sky in kills per game (5.63) as well as points per game (6.35), and earned the Big Sky Player of the Week Award three times. She was also named to All-Tournament Teams at all three of NAU's non-conference tournaments, including earning the MVP Award at NAU's Fiesta Bowl. She then earned All-Tournament Team honors again at the Big Sky Tournament, after being named to the All-Big Sky First Team for the regular season.

Digging up Records

Libero Brittany Stowers tallied 484 digs for the season to set a new all-time record at NAU for single season digs. Stowers finished the season with the longest streak in the Big Sky of matches with 10 or more digs, having accomplished the feat in all 27 matches for the season. She was one of two liberos honored in the postseason awards, getting named All-Big Sky Honorable Mention. Stowers finished the season ranked first in the Big Sky in digs per game at 4.99.

2007-08 NAU ATHLETICS REVIEW

* The Northern Arizona University men's and women's cross country teams both garnered top 10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championships in Terre Haute, Ind. The NAU men finished fourth, while the women were seventh overall. NAU joined Oregon as the only two schools to place both its men's and women's teams among the top 10 in the nation. NAU's team success marked the second time in school history both teams finished among the nation's top 10 programs, joining the 2002 squad that placed seventh in the men's race and 10th in the women's race.

* Six school records were set, 39 All-WAC awards were received, and two special awards were earned by the Northern Arizona swimming and diving team that placed second of eight teams at the 2008 Western Athletic Conference Championships.

* The NAU men's basketball team made its 18th Big Sky Championship appearance, advancing to the championship game for the third consecutive season. NAU lost to Portland State but finished the season with a school-record tying 21 wins.

* NAU women's tennis team earned its third straight trip to the Big Sky Championships with a 15-8 overall record and a 7-1 mark in conference play, the best finishes for the women since 2002. NAU totaled six players with double-digit wins in singles play while maintaining single digit loss records for the first time since 1997.

* Student-athletes, coaches and athletic department staff combined to volunteer more than 4,100 hours over the last academic year, assisting organizations like Flagstaff Junior Academy, the Humane Society and the Toys for Tots. In all, the department participated with more than 20 different organizations and/or events.

* Junior Lopez Lomong, sophomore David McNeill and freshman Ilsa Paulson all earned All-America honors on the basis on their top 30 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championships. Lomong, who finished fourth in 2006, was third overall to pace the men. McNeill finished 10th overall. NAU and Oregon were the only two schools to place two men in the top 10. Ilsa Paulson was the top finisher for the women, crossing the line 21st overall.

* Senior Kim Babcock finished the 2007 volleyball season ranked first in NCAA Division I in kills per game at 5.63. Babcock, an All-Big Sky First Team selection, is the first NAU volleyball player to ever rank higher than 13th in any category.

* Senior diver Natalie Hughes earned NAU's first ever gold medal for diving at the 2008 WAC Championships, placing first on the 3-meter event. Hughes went on to earn the honor of WAC Diver of the Year, while Coach Nikki Huffman earned the honor of co-WAC Diving Coach of the Year.

* Senior goalkeeper Elizabeth Winkeblech opened the 2007 season with a Big Sky Conference and NAU record 513 consecutive scoreless minutes. Winkeblech, an All-Big Sky first team selection, finished the year ranked 10th in Division I Women's Soccer in save percentage (.877) and 30th in goals against average (.691).

* Northern Arizona golfer Sophia Choi captured the Big Sky Conference Player of the Year Award, becoming the first player in league history to win the honor three times. Choi made the All-Conference team four consecutive seasons, becoming just the third player in league history to accomplish the feat.

* Senior men's basketball player Kyle Landry became the 22nd player in school history to reach the 1,000 career point milestone and seventh to record 600 career rebounds. He finished his career as one of only four players in school history to record 1,200 points and grab 650 rebounds.

* McNeill earned two All-America honors during the track and field season, finishing eighth in the 3,000-meters at the NCAA Indoor Championships and fourth in the 5,000-meters at the NCAA Outdoor Championship. Teammate Lesley van Miert took ninth in the women's event at the outdoor meet.

* Golden Eagle Distributors, Inc. honored a school-record 178 Northern Arizona University (NAU) students for their scholastic and athletic accomplishments at the 30th annual Golden Eagle Awards. The Golden Eagle Awards recognize NAU athletes who have made significant contributions to the Lumberjack athletics program while maintaining a minimum of a 3.0 grade point average.

* Forty-three Northern Arizona University student-athletes and department student assistants participated in spring commencement ceremonies on the NAU campus and were commissioned degrees as part of the Class of 2008.

NAU VOLLEYBALL HISTORY

So, what is the history of Northern Arizona volleyball? We're glad you asked. Going back to the old AIAW days, NAU has been a player in women's intercollegiate athletics for 33 years now, and in volleyball, the program has been competitive. But in recent years the Lumberjacks have risen to levels above and beyond what could have been expected, based on the program's humble beginnings. Following is a brief anthology.

1974-81: Formative Years

The NAU volleyball program was given varsity status in 1974 and began as a member of the AIAW Intermountain Conference. The program posted a respectable 19-17 record in its first two seasons, headed by Joyce Gedde. The program's first win came at Colorado State and picked up its first winning campaign in its second year, carding a 13-11 mark.

The team would be up and down during the next four seasons under Becky Brown Bennett. The Lumberjacks posted their second and final winning season of the 1970s in Bennett's second year (13-11 in 1977). After Bennett, NAU brought in former Nevada-Reno head coach Kaprice Bray, who would play the role of transitional coach while NAU made a jump to NCAA Division I.

Bray came aboard in 1980 and started building respectability. The program closed its AIAW affiliation in 1981 with a 12-11 record, keyed by a 7-0 start.

1982-86: Independence Days

The Lumberjacks made the leap from the AIAW into NCAA Division I and showed that they belonged with the "big girls." What happened would be two of the most successful seasons in the history of the program in the first two seasons of Division I affiliation.

Bray led the team to its first 20-win season in 1982, as the Lumberjacks opened 7-2-1 to post a 21-16-2 record. In Bray's final season, she led the Lumberjacks to a 19-10 record, the program's best season in terms of winning percentage. The team opened 12-2, which included a then-record eight-match win streak and a still-intact record of 21 straight games won.

1987-90: Reaching the Sky

An invitation was extended to NAU from the Mountain West Athletic Conference during the 1985-86 school year. The move would lend legitimacy to NAU as a Division I entity, and former Idaho assistant Steve Hellmann was tabbed to lead the Lumberjacks into a new era.

The program transitioned from the Mountain West into the Big Sky Conference, but the program learned hard lessons. NAU topped with an 8-8 league record and a 12-13 overall mark in 1988, including a win over intrastate rival Arizona State.

Peggy Poremba and Debbie Orr ended their careers during this stretch, and both are still on the NAU career top-10 lists for kills and total blocks. This period also started the record-setting career of Ruth Parsons, the most recent spiker to adorn the NAU Athletics Hall of Fame. As a freshman in 1987, Parsons was the first NAU player to earn a national statistical ranking when she finished 17th in Division I in digs.

As one of the true underdog stories, the 1999 NAU team became the lowest seed (No. 4) to win the Big Sky Conference Championship tournament, rallying from a 2-1 deficit in games to win the title and earn the program's first trip to the NCAA Championship tournament.

1991-92: The Turnaround

The program's sixth head coach, Kim Hudson, came to NAU after leading West Texas State to the 1990 Division II national title. While her stay at NAU was brief, she lifted the program to a new level.

The 1991 squad exceeded all expectations by rolling to an 11-0 start en route to a 26-8 record, a second-place Big Sky finish and a trip to the NIVC tournament, the program's first national postseason. Thirty school records were set or tied - including wins, conference wins and consecutive wins. Parsons closed her NAU Hall of Fame career by being the first Lumberjack with 4,000 career assists. The two seasons under Hudson resulted in the program's first trips to the conference tournament. The 1992 season marked the end of a Hall of Fame career, as Angel Leath became the first Lumberjack to record 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in three seasons.

1993-96: The New Foundation

Just before the 1993 season, Kelley Sliva was named the seventh head coach in team history and was charged with establishing a new foundation.

NAU battled to stay in the middle of the Big Sky while Sliva looked to improve the quality of student-athlete in the program. A record-setting class of Tami Burchard, Jenny Treglown and Susan Brondell joined the program in 1994, and that group would be the nucleus of future success.

The team made a postseason splash in 1996. Entering the tournament as the No. 6 seed, NAU pulled off the biggest upset in postseason history by beating Eastern Washington in the first round. That was the start of something big, especially as the 1994 class matured into the 1997 senior corps.

1997-Present: New Heights

The volleyball team ascended into the league's elite over a five-year stretch (1997-2001), all seasons with at least 16 overall wins. The 1997 squad, led by that recruiting class of 1994 (and league co-MVP Treglown), became the first team to play three league-tournament matches and battled host Sacramento State in a draining final match.

That letdown from a tough-luck 1998 served as motivation in 1999, as Tiwi Bond and Maggie Barrera helped NAU defy odds by winning the Big Sky tournament as a No. 4 seed and earning the program's first trip to the NCAA Championship. NAU made its NCAA debut against North Carolina, and although the Tar Heels swept the NCAA rookies, the experience showed that the Lumberjacks had arrived nationally.

The 2000 campaign took NAU to a new level that no other prior team achieved. Thanks to a 12-1 close to the regular season, NAU rallied from an 0-3 hole to earn a share of its first regular-season title.

After nine years with Sliva at the helm, NAU is going through a youth movement in its program, and went in a new direction when Michelle Hansen was hired in 2002 to lead the NAU program, already established as a western power ... with the challenge of taking the next step. Chris Campbell took over the program in 2004 as the acting head coach, and was named the head coach by the close of the season.

Campbell led the squad to its 10th consecutive Big Sky Tournament appearance in 2004, but the team did not advance to the postseason in 2005 or 2006. The 'Jacks returned to the tournament after their best season in a number of years in 2007 (12-15), and senior Kim Babcock recorded one of the most impressive seasons in NAU history, which included being ranked first in NCAA Division I in kills per game.

The team enters yet another new era in 2008 under the guidance of first-year head coach Craig Choate, who brings 17 years of head coaching experience. Three talented athletes graduated after 2007, and NAU will be looking to a strong group of seniors as well as a wealth of newcomers with high expectations in 2008.

NAU Athletics Hall of Fame Volleyball Players

ANGEL LEATH,
1990-92
Inducted 1999
 Set the NAU all-time kills mark in just three seasons (1,172 kills) ... Led the 1991 team to a 26-8 record just a year after a 9-

 22 campaign, becoming the 1st
 Lumberjack with 500 kills and 400 digs in a single season ...
 Charter member of the NAU
 "Double Millennium Club" for achieving 1,000 kills AND 1,000 digs in a career.

DEBBIE ORR,
1986-89
Inducted 1998
 Was the first Lumberjack to record 1,000
 career kills ...
 When she finished in 1989, she owned NAU records for career kills (1,129), solo blocks (118), block assists

 (209) and total blocks (327) ...
 Owns two of the eight triple-doubles in team history and is still the only Lumberjack to record a triple-double in Rolle Activity Center.

RUTH PARSONS,
1987-91
Inducted 2000
 The first
 NAU setter to record 4,000
 career assists ...
 Ended her career as the all-time leader in assists (4,011), digs (1,199) and double-doubles (56) ... Only Lumberjack to record 4,000 assists, 1,000 digs and 100 aces in a career ... Part of the Big Sky Conference All-Decade Team, recognizing the best players in the league's first 10 years.

Rob Schwartz
Coordinator

The strength and conditioning facilities at Northern Arizona University are among the best in the West. The 6,500-square-foot facility has been utilized by the likes of Olympians Pablo Morales, Summer Sanders, Jenny Thompson and Wes Barnett, as well as a host of foreign athletes and teams preparing for a variety of international competitions. The German bobsled team trained in the facility prior to winning a gold medal at the 2002 Salt Lake Olympics.

Strength and conditioning coach Rob Schwartz is beginning his third full year with the program. Schwartz brings eight years of full-time experience into the position along with a philosophy of turning out the most physically and mentally prepared student-athletes in the country.

The NAU weight room is located in the Walkup Skydome. It features 30 tons of free weights, 10 Olympic training platforms with modernized sport-specific training and high-tech motion analysis cameras. In the summer of 2005, the weightroom received a facelift with new platforms and interior paint, as well as a complete enclosure of the complex.

The student-athletes work to improve themselves under a philosophy based on performance enhancement and safe participation. Schwartz teaches free weight training utilizing Olympic movements and plyometrics to prevent injury and produce the best athlete in the competitive arena.

The Northern Arizona University athletics department takes pride in the community service and outreach projects of its student-athletes. The most prominent department-wide service project is the annual Red Ribbon Week, in which student-athletes visit area schools to promote drug abuse prevention and awareness.

The Lumberjack volleyball program goes above and beyond, putting on clinics and skills camps for youngsters across northern Arizona as well as volunteering with Toys for Tots. In 2007-08, all members of the volleyball team contributed at least 10 hours of community service, and finished the year with 166 hours as a team.

Student-athletes are always willing to take a moment for a fan. Also, student-athletes get involved with area youth with "Be a Student Athlete for a Day," when local youth spend a day "shadowing" an NAU student-athlete, experiencing a day in the life. There are a myriad of ways that Lumberjacks reach out to be a part of their community, and the NAU volleyball program is active every step of the way.
