No. 7/8 Montana State Runs Past No. 15/17 NAU

BOZEMAN, Mont. – No. 7/8 Montana State moved the ball strategically as it defeated No. 15/17 Northern Arizona 36-7 at Bobcat Stadium. The Bobcats (4-2, 2-0 Big Sky) led from the beginning and never relinquished the lead as they beat the Lumberjacks to remain undefeated at home.

“Montana State had a good plan and they were able to execute it very well,” said head coach Jerome Souers. “It’s tough to play here and we knew that going in. We learned some things today that we need to correct as we move forward.”

The Lumberjacks (3-2, 1-1 Big Sky) were able to hold Montana State’s DeNarius McGhee to zero passing yards in the first quarter, but the senior All-American was able to improve his play as the game went on, leading the Bobcats to their second straight Big Sky victory.

The Bobcats were able to get on the scoreboard with 9:51 to go in the first quarter after Shawn Johnson rushed for 27 yards to the end zone. Montana State went on to record three field goals in the second quarter to take a 16-0 lead into halftime.

The third quarter saw both teams move the ball up the field. The Bobcats recorded a nine-yard rushing touchdown (McGhee), followed by a 12-yard rushing touchdown (Cody Kirk) to take a 29-0 lead over the Lumberjacks.

Austin Hasquet came up big for NAU when he intercepted McGhee’s pass midway through the third quarter and returned it for NAU’s fourth pick-six of the season. It was the first interception thrown this season by McGhee.

The touchdown only stunned the Bobcats for a short period of time as Johnson scored on a 100-yard kickoff return to extend Montana State’s lead to 36-7 with 6:29 left in the third quarter.

Neither team was able to score in the fourth quarter as the Bobcats earned the victory at home in front of a record-setting 21,027 fans.

Kyren Poe completed 24-of-44 passes for 168 yards. Senior running back Zach Bauman was held to 26 rushing yards. Sophomore Alex Holmes was the lead receiver for NAU as he collected 70 yards on nine catches.

The athletics communications office is located in the press box on west side of the Walkup Skydome. The phone number is (928) 523-6792 while the fax number is 523-6793.

INTERVIEW POLICY

Head coach Jerome Souers is available every day after practice. Individual players may be requested at this time also. Special requests for availability may be made to the athletics communications office.

All player interviews must be coordinated through the athletics communications office at least one day in advance. No interviews or photo shoots will be conducted on Friday. Out-of-town media should contact the athletics communications office to make arrangements for phone interviews. Players are also available for interviews after practice, and, if prior arrangements have been made, before practice. The NAU locker room and training room are closed.

PRACTICE

Daily workouts are open to both the public and the media unless otherwise noted. Media planning to attend practice should notify the athletics communications office in advance to confirm start times and to arrange interviews. The Lumberjacks are tentatively planning to practice at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each game week.

CREDENTIALS

The football press box, located on the west side of the Skydome, has a limited capacity. Credentials will be issued only to working media on a first-come, first-serve basis, with priority given to daily newspapers and originating radio and television crews. The press box is closed to those not involved in game coverage.

Credentials may be requested for the season or on a per-game basis. All requests should be submitted to the athletics communications office no later than Thursday at noon for each home game. Requests on official letterhead may be faxed to (928) 523-6793. Credentials may be picked up at Will Call. No credentials will be mailed unless the request is made at least two weeks in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers are not permitted between the 25-yard lines. All media on the sidelines must wear their credentials at all times. Due to space limits, credentials will be issued only to photographers on assignment.

Packets including game notes, flip cards and game programs will be issued before each game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Regular services on game day include play-by-play, quarterly and final statistics, as well as defensive statistics. A light pregame meal will be available one hour prior to kickoff.

The NAU locker room is closed to all media. At home, postgame interviews will be held in the media room at field level on the east side of the Skydome. NAU head coach Jerome Souers will begin the session followed by requested Lumberjack players. Interview requests will be collected midway through the fourth quarter by a member of the athletics communications staff. Visiting coaches and players will be invited to the interview room as deadlines allow.

MOUNTAIN STANDARD TIME

Arizona does not move its clock ahead in the spring or back in the fall. As a result, Flagstaff time coincides with the Pacific time zone through Nov. 1. The rest of the season, NAU is compatible with the Mountain time zone.

LUMBERJACKS ONLINE

Releases, statistics, rosters and breaking news are available at the athletics web site, located at www.nauathletics.com. The Big Sky Conference web site is located at www.bigskyconf.com. Big Sky TV will webcast all NAU home games and all conference games during the season.

THE SCORE

The Score is a monthly show produced by NAU Television Services that highlights Lumberjack athletics and recreational activities on the Mountain campus. It airs weekly on FOX Sports Arizona, Fox College Sports and Flagstaff cable channels 4 and 104 in HD.

Each Wednesday during the 2015 football season, the Big Sky Conference will hold a conference call with the 13 league coaches. All media is encouraged to take advantage of having a set time to speak with the coaches each week. The call will begin at 10 a.m. Mountain, 9 a.m. Pacific. Each coach will be available for eight minutes. To take part in the call, please contact Jon Oglesby at 801.392.1978 or by e-mail at joglesby@bigskyconference.org. Oglesby will provide you with the call-in number and password.

18TH SEASON • OREGON '83

- Head coach Jerome Souers enters his 18th season with Northern Arizona University.
- In Souers' 17th season with the Lumberjacks, he earned career win No. 100 on November 8, 2014 in a 23-21 defeat over UC Davis at home. Souers became the second coach in Big Sky history to amass 100 victories while coaching in the league.
- Souers, the longest tenured football coach in the history of NAU Football, became the 15th active FCS coach to win 100 games at his current institution.
- During his 17-year tenure, Souers has coached 159 student-athletes to all-conference honors a combined 256 times with 55 first-team selections and 78 All-American accolades.
- In the classroom, the football program has produced the Golden Eagle Scholar Athlete of the Year eight times (Blair Boynton, Eric Damko, Steve Gomez, Mark Gould, Paul Ernster, Jeff Wheeler, Jake Hess and Austin Hasquet). Overall, the program has earned 153 Big Sky All-Academic honors over the last 17 seasons with seven Academic All-Americans.
- In 2014, the 'Jacks finished with a 7-5 overall record, including a nine-game regular season home win streak dating back to the start of the 2013 season. NAU went 5-3 in league play. The Lumberjacks' four-game win streak saw NAU defeat No. 2 Eastern Washington in a thrilling last second 28-27 victory in front of 9,699 fans. The win over the Eagles was the first in the Walkup Skydome over a team ranked higher than ninth. NAU's largest crowd of the season saw 11,545 fans pile in the Walkup Skydome as the 'Jacks took down Cal Poly 38-35 in another down to the wire win. Two players received All-American honors and 15 players earned a sum of 17 All-Big Sky accolades in 2015. Off the field, Austin Hasquet became NAU's first National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, and the first football player to be a two-time First Team Academic All-American.
- With 102 career victories, Souers is ranked second on the all-time Big Sky list.
- Selected the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year in 1999.
- In 2003 while under Souers, NAU won its first Big Sky Conference title since 1978.
- Souers also served at Montana for 12 years and as an assistant at Western Washington and Portland State.
- Souers was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award in 2006.

* Freshman

Here We Stand

- NAU is sixth in the FCS in passing yards per completion and 22nd in passing offense at 271.5 yards per game.
- NAU is fifth in the Big Sky in scoring offense at 25.5 points per game. The 'Jacks are tied for ninth in the conference in scoring defense at 33.2 points per game.
- NAU ranks second in the league in pass efficiency (178.7), while MSU is third (175.1).
- When it comes to kicking, MSU's Luke Daly has made all 17 PATs, while NAU's Ryan Hawkins is right behind him with a perfect 12.

Look at Me Now

- Ryan Hawkins ranks first in the nation in field goal percentage (1.000) and ninth in field goals per game (1.5).
- Case Cookus ranks first in the nation in yards per pass attempt, second in passing efficiency (194.1), and third in yards per pass completion (17.75).
- Emmanuel Butler ranks second in the FCS in receiving touchdowns (7), fourth in receiving yards (515), fifth in receiving yards per game (128.8) and yards per reception (28.6), and ninth in scoring (10.5).

Montana State Connections

Running Backs Coach Jimmy Beal

- Beal played collegiately at Montana State from 2002-04 before joining David Reeves' team at Rocky Mountain College. He was named the most valuable player and most valuable running back in 2006.
- Graduated from Montana State with a degree in art education and minor in coaching in 2006.

Yes It's True

NAU has played 10 true freshmen this season. The only rookie to earn a start so far this season is cornerback Maurice Davison. He started at Montana on Sept. 26 finishing with a season-high eight tackles.

No But's About It

Emmanuel Butler was named Co-Big Sky ROOT Sports Offensive Player of the Week announced on Sept. 7, sharing the honor with EWU's Cooper Kupp. Butler had a career night from start to finish as NAU defeated No. 24 Stephen F. Austin 34-28 on the road. It took two minutes for Butler to make his first catch of the game and it came in thrilling fashion, as he rolled right past the SFA defense and into the end zone with a 57-yard touchdown catch. Twenty seconds into the second quarter, Butler's second catch was a 47-yard touchdown, turning his first-two catches into scores. By halftime, Butler had three catches for 106 yards and two touchdowns. Butler didn't score in the third, but made up for it in the fourth with a 36-yard touchdown catch from wide receiver Alex Holmes on the switch. Butler finished 30 yards shy of breaking the 36-year old school record for single game receiving yards (245). His 216 yards was a new career high, almost totaling his yards from a year ago. Butler averaged 15 more yards per catch than any other receiver in the league in the opening week and did so with half the amount of catches.

Butler has already eclipsed his total yards from a year ago with 515 yards through four games.

What's Cookin'?

Greyshirt quarterback Case Cookus was named the STATS LLC FCS Freshman of the Week for Week 1, after leading the Lumberjacks to a 34-28 road win over then-Top 25 Stephen F. Austin. Cookus completed 13 of 18 passes for 267 yards and two touchdowns. His touchdown passes of 57 and 47 yards – both to Co-Big Sky Offensive Player of the Week Emmanuel Butler - helped NAU defeat its first FCS opponent in a season opener since 2003. Cookus also tallied 10 carries for 41 yards, including a one-yard scoring run in the third quarter.

Walking Up the Charts

Senior Dejzon Walker currently ranks 17th on the NAU career receiving yards chart with 1,318. The next step is No. 16 held by Ken Fraser with 1,345 yards.

Home Opener

- The 'Jacks are 77-22-2 all-time in home openers.
- NAU has won its home opener dating all the way back to 1993.

Season Opener Splash

- Saturday, Sept. 5 marked the first time NAU played an FCS opponent in its season opener since 2003.
- The 34-28 win at No. 24 Stephen F. Austin gave NAU its first victory over an FCS team in its season opener since Aug. 30, 2001.
- It was also the first win over an FCS team on the road in its season opener since Sept. 5, 1998 in a 9-0 victory over Cal Poly.

Non-Conference Wrap Up

NAU finished 2015 non-conference play, 2-1. In the past five seasons, NAU has gone 9-6 (not including postseason games).

Texas Two-Step

NAU's game at Stephen F. Austin was the second straight year the Lumberjacks have played in the Lone Star State. The 'Jacks have now gone 2-0 in Texas in the past two seasons. In 2014, NAU played at Abilene Christian, defeating the Wildcats 27-21. It was also the second straight victory over a Southland Conference team (ACU). NAU's biggest win over an SLC opponent was in the 2003 FCS Playoffs when the Lumberjacks defeated No. 1 McNeese State in the first round.

ROOTed

Northern Arizona entered 2015 4-0 all-time when playing on ROOT Sports. The Lumberjacks went 2-0 last season on ROOT with wins on the road at Portland State and at home versus then-No. 2 Eastern Washington. The Lumberjacks fell to Montana on the road 23-14 on Sept. 26 to inherit its first loss on ROOT.

Against the Pac-12

NAU is played its 15th game against a Pac-12 Conference opponent in the last 15 seasons (Oregon State in 2001, Arizona in 2002, 2004, 2005, 2007, 2009, 2011, 2013, 2015 and Arizona State in 2003, 2006, 2008, 2010 and 2012). NAU last beat a NCAA FBS or I-A opponent on Sept. 8, 2012 when it defeated UNLV 17-14 with a game-winning field goal. The Lumberjacks are 8-50 all-time in match-ups against FBS/I-A opponents since 1957.

Family Matters

NAU has been known to have siblings on its roster and this year is no difference with offensive lineman Eric Rodriguez (older brother) and snapper Andy Rodriguez (younger brother) on the roster for the second straight year. An addition to the family is offensive line coach Tim Davis, coaching his son, offensive lineman Nick Davis. Both Davis' are in their first year with the program.

Redshirt freshmen linebacker Jake Casteel went up against his father - Jeff Casteel - the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for Arizona. The elder Casteel has been with the Wildcats for four seasons, while Jake is in his second year with the Lumberjack program.

R-E-S-P-E-C-T

NAU has received special permission from the NCAA to have two stickers on their helmet this season. The first is a 100-Year seal celebrating the many players and coaches that have come through the Lumberjack program. The second is an "MD49" sticker in honor of Michael DeGroot. DeGroot passed away this summer in a tragic hunting accident while on family vacation in Alaska. The tight end would have been a senior on the Lumberjack squad this season.

Catch Us on the Big Screen

All of NAU's home games will be shown on FOX Sports AZ and its affiliates. Road games for NAU at Stephen F. Austin (ESPN3), Arizona (Pac-12), Montana (ROOT SPORTS) will also be aired.

Just in CASE You Missed It

Greyshirt freshman Case Cookus made his collegiate debut on Sept. 5 at SFA after being named NAU's starting quarterback for its season opener. Cookus was the first freshman to start in the season opener since Travis Brown started for the 'Jacks on Aug. 29, 1996 versus Western New Mexico. NAU won that game 75-0. Cookus finished his debut 13 for 18 with a pair of thrown touchdowns to Emmanuel Butler and an 11-yard rushing touchdown. His accuracy of 72.2 percent helped him finish with 267 passing yards.

Lucky No. 7

Senior safety Eddie Horn - NAU's leading tackler from a year ago - returns for the 'Jacks after recording 88 tackles. His 88 tackles was the ninth most in a single season since 1995. Horn's single game high of 18 tackles last season against South Dakota was the most by a Lumberjack since 2000. In NAU's first game of 2015, Horn finished second on the team with eight tackles; all solo. He's currently second on the team with 25.

#ReturnOfTheArge

Senior tight end RJ Rickert returns for his last season after redshirting last year due to an injury. Rickert, a 2015 Big Sky Preseason All-Conference honoree was NAU's top tight end his junior season. In 2013, Rickert earned All-Big Sky First Team honors and was a College Sports Madness All-America accolades.

Walk This Way

Redshirt wide receiver Dejzon Walker returns for his senior year after sitting out 2014. Walker enters 2015 ranked No. 18 on the NAU career receiving yards chart with 1,194. Off the field, Walker is a nominee for the 2015 Allstate American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team®, the most esteemed off the field honor in college football. Walker has completed over 100 hours of community service since his arrival at NAU.

Hawk' All-In

Senior placekicker/punter Ryan Hawkins is all in for the 2015 season. In 2014, Hawkins recorded his first collegiate punt leading to three Big Sky Player of the Week honors and a national POW honor. This season, Hawkins is prepared to handle both duties if he's called upon.

Hawkins is a perfect 12-for-12 when it comes to PATs making it 24 straight dating back to last season. He's also connected on all six field goal attempts.

Preseason Jackollades

Four Northern Arizona seniors were selected to the Big Sky Pre-season All-Conference Team, announced by the league office. Leading the way were fullback Nick Butier and tight end RJ Rickert; both preseason picks for the second straight year. Cornerback Marcus Alford and punter Ryan Hawkins were also honored with their first Big Sky preseason distinction.

Big Sky Prediction

NAU was picked to finish fifth, sixth in the Big Sky in the coaches' and the media football preseason polls. In the coaches' poll it was a tight race for the top two spots. Montana State and Eastern Washington both had six first-place votes with the Bobcats getting the one-point edge in total points 134 to 133. Montana had one first-place vote for third with 121 points. Cal Poly came in fourth with 111 points, followed by NAU in fifth with 95 points. The media poll had Eastern Washington and Montana State with 17 first place votes each, but the Eagles came out on top with 553 points. The Bobcats received 541 votes for second place. Montana and Idaho State were tied for the third spot with five first-place votes apiece and 446 total points. Cal Poly claimed fifth place with one first-place vote and 433 points, while the Lumberjacks were ranked sixth with one first-place vote and 399 points.

Celebrating 100 Years

NAU Athletics will celebrate 100 years of Lumberjack Football all season long. The first year of NAU Football was 1915, resulting in 127 All-Americans, 61 Hall of Fame honorees, 82 professional players, seven postseason appearances, eight conference championships, and 2,165 all-time letterwinners.

Clarence Moore Inducted into 2015 NAU Athletics Hall of Fame

Clarence Moore, NAU's all-time leader in receiving yards, was inducted into the NAU Athletics Hall of Fame on Sept. 11. Moore, a two-time First Team All-Big Sky selection (2002 and 2003), stands alone in NAU Football history in career receiving yards with 3,042, making him the only player in the history of Lumberjack Football to eclipse the 3,000 yard mark in that statistic. Moore's 3,042 yards not only rank 11th in Big Sky Conference history, it makes him one of 13 players ever in the Big Sky to amass 3,000 or more career receiving yards.

- Led NAU in receiving yards in 2001, 2002, and 2003
- Led NAU in all-purpose yards in 2002
- 10th NAU Career All-Purpose Yards (3,190)
- 11th NAU Career Points Scored (180)
- 1st NAU Career Receptions (28)
- 6th NAU Career Yards Per Reception (16.7)
- 3rd NAU Career Receptions (182)
- 1st NAU Career Receiving Yards (3,042)
- 2nd NAU Season Touchdown Receptions (12)
- 8th NAU Season Yards Per Reception (18.8)

- T-9th NAU Season Receptions (63)
- 1st NAU Season Receiving Yards (1,184)
- T-1st NAU Career Games Played

Moore put together one of the best pass catching seasons in NAU Football history in 2003, helping the Lumberjacks to the Big Sky Conference Championship, the Division 1-AA Playoffs and a First Round playoff win at No. 1 McNeese State. Moore's pass receiving skills and accomplishments as a NAU Lumberjack, propelled him into a three-year run in the NFL. In 2004, Moore was drafted in the sixth round by the Baltimore Ravens. Moore is the 11th football player in the last 10 years to be inducted into the HOF. The football program had two players inducted in 2008 and 2009, but had zero in 2013.

Jersey Retirement for Rex Mirich

NAU Athletics and National Football Foundation Hall of Famer Rex Mirich will have his jersey retired on Oct. 2. Accomplishing the rare feat of being a two-time NAIA All-America first-team selection at two different positions, Mirich was honored as a defensive guard in 1962 and repeated the honor as an offensive tackle the following season. He was a four-year letterman and team captain senior season. Mirich aided the squad to a 20-15-4 overall mark while in Flagstaff, and he was a key cog in a defense that limited opponents to 109.1 yards per game over a six-game span. Mirich was chosen by the Minnesota Vikings in the 16th round of the 1963 NFL Draft and the Oakland Raiders in the 20th round of the 1963 AFL Draft. He played on the defensive line for the Raiders, the Denver Broncos and the Boston Patriots for a total of seven seasons. He was inducted into the NAU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006. Mirich is the second Lumberjack to have his jersey retired by the university. All-American and Walter Payton Award winner Archie Amerson had his jersey retired by NAU in 2014.
