MEDIA INFORMATION

Credentials for NAU home basketball games are issued to the working media only and should be requested at least two days in advance of the game.

All credential requests can be made by emailing Stayson.lsobe@nau.edu.

Media credentials are issued on a priority basis with daily newspapers, originating radio stations and television crews receiving first priority.

If time constraints do not allow for credentials to be mailed, they will be available on game day at Will Call, located at the front entrance of the Walkup Skydome.

During the week, all player interviews must be coordinated through the athletics communications office (928) 523-6330.

Players will not be available for interviews on game days prior to tip-off.

The Northern Arizona postgame locker room is closed to the media. Requested players will be brought to the designated media interview room after a cool down period. Head Coach Shane Burcar will conduct postgame media interviews after he completes his radio responsibilities.

NAU basketball practices are generally open to the general public. Media wishing to attend should contact the athletics communications office in advance to confirm. Practices on the road are generally closed. However, interviews may be conducted by scheduling them ahead of time by contacting Associate AD/Communications Stayson Isobe at the email and phone numbers listed above.

Only accredited photographers on assignment will be issued credentials. Only coaches, players and staff are allowed on the sidelines, in front of the team benches and the scorer's table. Space for photographers is limited and will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Media covering NAU basketball are seated courtside in the Walkup Skydome or the Rolle Activity Center.

Admission to the game and to the courtside seats is allowed only to those with working credentials.

Primary seating for media is on the west side of the floor, facing the team benches. Courtside seating is for working media only.

2019-20 NAU MEN'S HOOPS

'JACKS BEGIN CRITICAL HOMESTAND WITH NORTHERN COLORADO

NAU hosts Northern Colorado on Thursday at 6 p.m. MST in the Walkup Skydome to begin a crucial homestand with a month to play until the Big Sky Tournament in Boise, Idaho.

Thursday's meeting with the Bears will be streamed on Pluto TV Channel 539 and can be heard on the Lumberjack Radio Network with the Voice of the Lumberjacks Mitch Strohman and Kade Gilliss on the call.

The Lumberjacks currently hold the fifth spot in the Big Sky standings with four weeks remaining in the regular season after splitting their road trip at Idaho State and Weber State last week. NAU is 13-9 overall and 7-6 in conference play, and enters the week one win ahead of three teams for the fifth and final bye in the conference tournament.

This week's homestand versus Northern Colorado and Southern Utah on Saturday is critical for NAU with both teams directly ahead of the 'Jacks in the standings. Last month, the Lumberjacks went on the road to both the Bears and Thunderbirds and picked up a pair of wins which jump started a five-game winning streak.

Sophomore Cameron Shelton leads the Lumberjacks with 14.1 points and ranks second with 6.3 rebounds per game. He is one of five Lumberjack starters averaging 9.0 points per game or more.

Senior Brooks DeBisschop is second on the team with 11.9 points per game, including a team-high 14.3 points per game in conference play. DeBisschop is third in the conference with 7.7 rebounds per game.

NAU VS. NORTHERN COLORADO ALL-TIME

NAU and Northern Colorado will meet for the 33rd time on Thursday. NAU rallied for a 64-58 victory against Northern Colorado on Jan. 18 in Greeley. NAU held Northern Colorado to just four points in the last six minutes of the game as the Lumberjacks overcame a 10-point deficit and closed on a 20-4 run.

Northern Colorado leads the all-time series 19-13 although the Lumberjacks have won the last two meetings going back to last season.

The 'Jacks are 8-5 all-time versus the Bears at home compared to 5-14 against Northern Colorado away from Flagstaff.

LAST TIME OUT

NAU nearly overcame a 19-point deficit last Saturday at Weber State before falling 76-70. The Lumberjacks got within four in the final minute and were led by junior Bernie Andre's career-high 24 points.

The Lumberjacks trailed 50-31 with less than 12 minutes left, and methodically cut their deficit to as little as four on three occasions in the last minute.

Junior Cameron Shelton nearly posted a triple-double finishing with 13 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists. Senior Brooks DeBisschop also totaled 13 points and seven rebounds.

GREELEY, Colo. (January 18, 2020) – Down 10 with 5:50 to play, the Northern Arizona men's basketball team went to work to complete their first conference road trip sweep in nearly six years. The Lumberjacks held Northern Colorado to just four points in the final six minutes of the game to rally for a 64-58 victory in the Bank of Colorado Arena on Saturday.

After the Bears' Jonah Radebaugh drilled a jumper to make it a 54-44 game — capping a 15-4 Northern Colorado run — the Lumberjacks forced the Bears to miss two of their final 11 shots of the game. During this span, NAU went 7-for-8 and made all four attempts at the charity stripe to erase a double-digit deficit for the second consecutive game.

Junior Cameron Satterwhite led the Lumberjacks with 16 points, eight of which came during NAU's 20-4 closing run. Satterwhite completed two three-point plays and hit a jumper and finished the game 6-for-11 shooting from the field

DeBisschop, who recorded his third double-double of the season with 13 points and 11 rebounds, started the NAU's run with a basket before Satterwhite's first and-1 cut the lead in half in a minute of game play. DeBisschop tied the game at 58-58 with 1:33 left and after another stop on the defensive end, sophomore Cameron Shelton drove the paint and finished at the rim to put NAU ahead, 60-58, with 49.3 seconds remaining.

Junior Bernie Andre and Shelton each converted a pair of free throws follow-

Junior Bernie Andre and Shelton each converted a pair of free throws following Shelton's go-ahead basket to provide the final margin on the scoreboard. In all, Northern Colorado came up empty on five consecutive possessions to end the game

"The thing we did at the end of the game was we got stops," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "Bernie Andre got a rebound and knocked down free throws and then Cameron Shelton gets a rebound and knocks down his free throws. We're up two and I told our guys we were one stop away from shooting two free throws to ice it and that's exactly what happened. This is a great group of guys to be around right now."

Shelton recorded 10 points and eight rebounds, while sophomore Luke Avdalovic scored eight points. Senior Chris Bowling and Andre combined for all 13 of NAU's bench points in a 13-5 bench advantage for the 'Jacks with Andre also totaling nine rebounds.

NAU shot 42.1 percent and limited Northern Colorado to just 33.8 percent shooting. The Lumberjacks also won the rebounding battle, 44-35, and held significant advantages in the paint (36-22) and off turnovers (12-5) in handing the Bears their first home loss in eight games this season.

Bears their first home loss in eight games this season.

The first half was a close one with neither team gaining a significant advantage. NAU led for the final 10 and a half minutes going into the locker room and led by as much seven at 30-23 with 2:40 left in the half following consecutive threes by Bowling and DeBisschon.

threes by Bowling and DeBisschop.

NAU wound up taking a 32-28 lead into halftime and continued to lead until the 12 minute mark of the second half when Northern Colorado moved in front, 41-40. Northern Colorado used an 8-0 run in 90 seconds to take a seven-point lead before DeBisschop and Avdalovic answered with buckets to trim the deficit to 47-44. The Bears scored the next seven points before the 'Jacks started their final rally.

NAU shot 41.7 percent for the game, but Weber State shot 48.3 percent.

DEBISSCHOP CLIMBING THE CHART

NAU senior Brooks DeBisschop moved into the Lumberjacks' top 10 career rebounding list on Feb. 1 versus Idaho following a season-high 14 rebounds.

DeBisschop now boasts 632 career rebounds and is 52 rebounds away from passing Kyle Landry for seventh-most all-time.

CLOSE IS FAMILIAR

Removing NAU's season-opener at No. 21/17 Arizona and the Lumberjacks' two non-Division I games, NAU has played just three games this season that has not been decided by single-digits.

Sixteen of NAU's last 19 games have been decided by eight points or fewer with NAU going 10-6 in those games.

Eleven of the Lumberjacks' 13 Big Sky games have been decided by seven points or less. NAU's margin of victory in conference games is 5.7 and its losses have been by an average of 6.2 points.

BIG SKY ROAD TRIP SWEEP

NAU's road sweep of Southern Utah (75-72) on Jan. 16 and Northern Colorado (64-58) on Jan. 18 was the program's first sweep of a conference road trip in nearly six years.

CARDIAC 'JACKS

NAU won three straight games after trailing by double-digits from Jan. 16-25. NAU trailed Southern Utah by 12 before rallying for a 75-72 victory before erasing a 10-point deficit to Northern Colorado on its way to winning 64-58. A week later, the Lumberjacks battled back from a 15-point deficit to defeat Portland State, 84-82.

Prior to that, NAU had gone 97 games since the 'Jacks overcame a double-digit deficit.

The Lumberjacks' last victory when trailing by double-digits was Dec. 17, 2016 at UTEP. NAU trailed by 12 and won 76-74.

GET THE BALL TO BROOKS

Senior Brooks DeBisschop leads the team in scoring with 14.3 points per game in conference play. His .587 field goal percentage in league games leads the league.

DeBisschop has scored in double-figures in 11 straight games, marking his first double-digit scoring stretch of more than three games in his career.

In his 100th career game on Jan. 11 versus Idaho State, DeBisschop scored a career-high 20 points, which has since been matched.

WINNING VS. WEBER STATE

NAU's first conference win, 72-64, over Weber State on Jan. 4 was the program's first over the Wildcats in nearly five years. The Lumberjacks last defeated the Wildcats on Feb. 14, 2015. Furthermore, NAU last bested Weber State at home on Feb. 28, 2008 snapping a 10-game losing streak in Flagstaff.

Prior to the victory, NAU had been 2-20 versus Weber State in the last 11 years going back to the 2008-09 season.

THE DOME IS OUR HOME

NAU plays the majority of its home games in the Walkup Skydome and owns a combined mark of 49-53 over the last nine seasons.

BIG SKY OPENERS

The Lumberjacks' 79-72 loss to Montana on Dec. 28 was their sixth consecutive defeat in their conference opener. NAU is 8-12 in Big Sky openers going back to the 2000-01 season.

NAU last opened the conference schedule with a victory on Jan. 2, 2014 during the 2013-14 season when the 'Jacks defeated Montana, 73-65, in Missoula.

SATTERWHITE SETTLING IN

After redshirting the 2018-19 season as a transfer, and suffering an injury, junior Cameron Satterwhite has found his rhythm as the season has progressed, particularly in conference play where he is averaging 10.5 points per game.

The Loyola Chicago transfer, who played on the Rambles' Final Four team in 2018, has scored in double-figures in 10 of the last 16 games, including a career-high 19 points at Idaho State on Feb. 6.

Satterwhite made his first two career collegiate starts ever, including his two seasons at Loyola Chicago, on NAU's road trip to Montana and Montana State on Dec. 28 and 30.

BACK-TO-BACK ROAD WINS

With NAU's recent wins at Utah Valley and UC Riverside, the Lumberjacks posted back-to-back non-conference road wins for the first time since the 2010-11 season when they won three straight at Kennesaw State, Pepperdine and Bakersfield from Nov. 22-30, 2010.

Prior to their current run, the 'Jacks last won consecutive road games was March 18 and 21, 2015 in the first two rounds of the CIT at Grand Canyon and Sacramento State.

SHELTON = DOUBLE-FIGURE POINTS

NAU sophomore guard Cameron Shelton has posted double-figure points in 19 of the Lumberjacks' 22 games in 2019-20.

Shelton, NAU's leading scorer with 14.1 per game, only registered 12 double-digit scoring games during his freshman season.

BIG MAN CAN DISH IT

Senior Brooks DeBisschop not only leads the team, and ranks third in the Big Sky, in rebounds with 7.7 per game, but he also is second on the team and 13th in the Big Sky in assists with 2.7 per game.

Over his last six games, DeBisschop is averaging 4.2 assists per game.

DeBisschop, one of the best passing big men in the country, has doubled his assist average (1.3) from last season.

CUMMARD RECEIVES HOLIDAY GIFT

The holidays came a little early for sophomore David Cummard on Dec. 20 when he was awarded a scholarship by interim head coach Shane Burcar.

Cummard previously spent his first semester at NAU, after transferrring from Murray State College in Tishomingo, Okla., as a walk-on.

Cummard played for interim head coach Shane Burcar at Mesa High School and was part of Mesa's 2016 State Championship team.

NAU PLAYS IN PRESCOTT FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2011

NAU's win versus Omaha on Dec. 8 marked the first time that the Lumberjacks played a game in Prescott Valley since Nov. 30, 2011, when they dropped an 87-52 decision vs. BYU.

BEEN A WHILE SINCE THIS TYPE OF START

The Lumberjacks' 3-1 start to the 2019-20 campaign was their best start through the first four games of the season since 2007-08.

NAU posted wins vs. Adams State, Missouri-Kansas City and Mississippi Valley State and lost to Arizona to open 2007-08.

NAU's 6-3 non-conference record was the program's best since the Lumberjacks' took a 9-4 record into conference play during the 2010-11 season. That squad was 7-2 through nine games.

THREE STRAIGHT HOME WINS

The Lumberjacks posted three straight home wins in their first three home contests before suffering an 85-66 loss to UC Davis on Dec. 4.

NAU had not posted three straight home wins since it won eight straight during the 2014-15 campaign.

JUST SIX TURNOVERS KEYS WIN OVER SOUTH DAKOTA

The 'Jacks committed only six turnovers in their 76-72 victory over South Dakota on Nov. 30.

Only one of those turnovers came in the second half of the win, which saw the 'Jacks out-score South Dakota 43-40 and rally from an eight-point deficit.

The six miscues marked the fewest for NAU since committing only five vs. Sacramento State on Jan. 17, 2019.

BURCAR POSTS FIRST NCAA D-I WIN

NAU's 76-72 victory over South Dakota on Nov. 30 marked the first NCAA Division I victory for head coach Shane Burcar.

SHARING THE BALL

The Lumberjacks posted 20 or more assists in back-to-back games with 26 vs. SAGU AIC and 20 vs. Benedictine Mesa.

The last time NAU had recorded 20 helpers prior to the recent run was at UTEP on Dec. 17, 2016 - a span of 84 games.

RECORDS GALORE IN HOME OPENER

NAU lit up the Rolle Activity Center in its home opening 105-32 victory over SAGU AIC on Nov. 15.

Below is a look at some of the highlights from the win:

- 9 points allowed in first half (fewest allowed in a half in program history breaking previous of 10 which was set 43 years ago during the 1975-76 campaign against Idaho State and before the invention of the shot clock.
- 68 points scored in first half set a new standard for the most points ever scored by the 'Jacks in a half, eclipsing the 63 posted against Adams State (Colo.) in 1984-85.
- 73 margin of victory shattered the previous high water mark for the program of 55 set against Western New Mexico in 1968-69.
- 105 points scored marked the most for NAU since notching 113 vs. Southwestern College (Calif.) in 2009-10.
- 17 three-pointers made the highest single-game total since 2001.

- 8 three-pointers made by Luke Avdalovic which tied for the sixth-highest single-game total in NAU history (eight times by seven players).
- 1 First collegiate win for NAU head coach Shane Burcar

BURCAR NOTCHES FIRST COLLEGIATE WIN

NAU head coach Shane Burcar picked up his first win as a collegiate head coach with the Lumberjacks' 105-32 victory over SAGU AIC on Nov. 15.

Burcar is the 26th head coach in the history of NAU basketball.

LUMBERJACKS IN HOME OPENERS SINCE 2003-04

NAU captured a win in its home opener in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2014 (Fresno State) and 2015 (San Diego Christian) with its win over SAGU AIC on Nov. 15.

The Lumberjacks defeated Jacksonville by a 97-82 count in the 2018-19 home opener as Bernie Andre scored 20 to lead a total of five NAU players who finished in double figures in the victory,

The 'Jacks have a 14-3 record in home openers since the 2003-04 season.

THREE-POINT STREAK

NAU has connected on at least one 3-pointer in 213 consecutive games.

The last time NAU did not make a 3-pointer was on Nov. 29, 2013, versus CSU Bakersfield.

The Lumberjacks finished that game 0-for-11 from beyond the arc.

SHELTON SHINES IN OPENING LOSS AT ARIZONA

Sophomore guard Cameron Shelton posted a career-high 17 points and added seven rebounds in the Lumberjacks season-opening loss at Arizona on Nov. 6.

Shelton scored the eighth-most points ever by an NAU freshman last season with 239 - he also is the top returner from last season in assists after handing out 76 helpers as a rookie.

ISAIAH LEWIS RISES IN COLLEGIATE DEBUT

Freshman guard Isaiah Lewis wasn't intimidated by the bright lights and sellout crowd facing him in his first-ever collegiate game - much less the nationally ranked opponent - as he dropped home 13 points on 6-of-11 shooting in the season-opening loss at No. 21/17 Arizona on Nov. 6.

Lewis also added six rebounds and exhibited a solid midrange offensive game while totaling double-figure points for the first time as a collegiate player.

LUMBERJACKS IN SEASON OPENERS

NAU dropped to 1-5 in season openers over the last six seasons following its 91-52 loss at Arizona on Nov. 6

Since 2000, the 'Jacks are 6-13 in season opening games.

LOOKING BACK AT LAST SEASON

Northern Arizona finished the 2018-19 season at 10-21 overall and 8-12 in Big Sky action. The eight conference wins, which tied for eighth-best in the league standings, were four-times the total from the previous season.

BURCAR TAKES OVER THE TOP SEAT

NAU will be led this season by interim head coach Shane Burcar, who replaces current Arizona Associate head coach Jack Murphy, who served as the Lumberjacks' boss for seven seasons.

Burcar spent last season as an assistant on the NAU staff and spent the previous 12 seasons as the head coach at Mesa High School, leading the Jackrabbits to a 237-103 record during that span, including the 2016 Arizona Class 6A State Championship.

Burcar was honored on six different occasions as the region's coach of the year. His teams qualified for the Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) State Playoffs in 10 of his 12 seasons at Mesa and captured seven region titles.

WHAT'S BACK

The Lumberjacks returns 72.1 percent of their scoring from last season five of the team's top six scorers.

Overall, NAU welcomes back a total of seven letterwinners and a pair of redshirts while also adding a total of six newcomers to the 2019-20 roster.

Among the top returners for the 'Jacks include reigning Big Sky Newcomer of the Year, Andre, who led the 'Jacks in both scoring and rebounding, as well as sophomore Luke Avdalovic, who ranked fifth nationally in three-point percentage, hitting at a 49.3 percent clip.

Andre pulled down 263 rebounds during his sophomore campaign, which ranked as the 10th-highest single-season total in Lumberjack history.

PRESEASON TUNE-UP

The Lumberjacks lit up Embry-Riddle with 18 three-pointers and led by as many as 42 points in a 109-75 exhibition victory on Oct. 28 in Flagstaff.

Bernie Andre posted a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds, while five other NAU players finished with double-figure points. Chris Bowling led all players with 16 points and was 5-of-9 from beyond the three-point arc.

NEW FACES ON THE BENCH

The Lumberjacks will feature a brand new look on the bench this season with head coach Shane Burcar adding some fresh and some familiar faces to the NAU staff.

Tyler Ojanen was named as an assistant coach and arrives at NAU after serving for one year as the Assistant Athletic Director of Men's Basketball at Saint Mary's College.

Prior to his administrative role at St. Mary's, Ojanen was an assistant coach on the men's basketball staff at San Jose State for three seasons (2014-17).

Justin McLean joins as an assistant coach following a fouryear stint at Arizona State (2016-19) as a video coordinator under head coaches Herb Sendek and Bobby Hurley, after serving as a graduate manager for the Sun Devils from 2013-15.

Prior to his tenure with Arizona State, McLean was a student manager for four seasons under Steve Lavin and Norm Roberts during a time when the Red Storm produced a pair of Big East Rookies of the Year.

A former NAU standout and graduate assistant coach, Gaellan Bewernick, was elevated to a full-time assistant coach role on Shane Burcar's staff.

Bewernick served as a graduate assistant coach on NAU's staff for the past two seasons (2017-19). During his time as a graduate assistant coach, he helped with on-court situations as well as player development.

A two-year team captain, he helped the Lumberjacks to a record-setting season for wins as a senior, as well as the program's first-ever post-season win in the College Insider Tournament (2015) and currently is ranked among the program's top-five leaders in games played (129), minutes (3,329) and finished as the program's sixth-leading rebounder (704).

Andrew Ludwig will handle all basketball operations duties for the Lumberjacks including practice preparation, travel planning and overall logistics.

He brings three years of previous experience in collegiate sports operations after serving as the assistant director of football operation at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater (2017-19) and as the director of football operations at Arizona Christian University (2016-17).

NAU SLOTTED EIGHTH IN BIG SKY PRESEASON POLLS

The Northern Arizona men's basketball team was ranked at No. 8 in both the Big Sky Preseason Coaches and Media Polls.

The Lumberjacks garnered 35 points in the coaches' rankings and 150 from the media.

Eastern Washington topped the Big Sky Coaches Preseason Rankings with 96 points and eight first-place votes. The Eagles were followed by Montana (87 pts/8), Weber State (86) and Southern Utah (71).

The Grizzlies led the media rankings with 354 points and 13 first-place votes. Weber State checked in at No. 2 with 354 points and 12 first-place mentions. Eastern Washington (330/9) and Northern Colorado (275/2) rounded out the top four spots.

The Big Sky All-Preseason Team included the Big Sky All-Preseason Team with Weber State's Jerrick Harding headlining as the most valuable player. Harding was joined on the all-preseason squad by Sayeed Pridgett (Montana), Harald Frey (Montana State), Holland Woods (Portland State), Mason Peatling (Eastern Washington) and Jacob Davison (Eastern Washington).

LUMBERJACKS ADD FOUR IN 2020 RECRUITING CLASS

Joining the Lumberjacks for the 2020-21 season are Dayton Harris (Guard/Mesa, Ariz./Skyline HS), Carter Mahaney (Guard/Moraga, Calif./Campolindo HS) and Wynton Brown (Forward/Bellflower, Calif./St. John Bosco HS).

The final member of the recruiting class is Carson Towt (Forward/Gilbert, Ariz./Gilbert HS), who is expected to join the 'Jacks this coming January.

"All four of these players come from winning cultures, programs and great families," Burcar said. "They are committed like the rest of our basketball family to compete for and win Big Sky Championships. All four of them will continue to help us make a positive impact on our community here at Northern Arizona University."

Harris, is a highly-touted 6-2 point guard within the Arizona prep ranks out of Skyline High School in Mesa, Ariz., where he has lettered in each of his initial three seasons. He helped lead the Coyotes to a 19-8 finish as a junior while averaging 14.9 points, 6.4 assists, 5.3 rebounds and 3.5 steals.

Entering his senior season, Harris has seen action in 79 games and has posted averages of 9.9 points, 3.8 assists, 3.4 rebounds and 2.2 steals per game while being coached by James Campiotti.

"We are excited that Dayton wanted to stay home and represent the State of Arizona," Burcar said. "He is a tremendous passer, playmaker and teammate. He has helped build the Skyline program into a title contender and he has a great high school coach in James Capriotti. Dayton's commitment to the classroom and the court is what we want our program to stand for. We are lucky to have him join us next season."

Mahaney is a 6-2 guard that hails from Campolindo High School in Moraga, Calif., and helped guide the Cougars to their first-ever CIF State Championship in 2019. During the state-title winning season, which saw Campolindo finish 27-7 overall, Mahaney recorded an average of 13.2 points, 3.8 assists, 4.4 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game.

Over the first his three seasons at Campolindo, Mahaney has posted an average of 10.2 points over 94 career contests. His head coach with the Cougars is Steven Dyer and Mahaney has lettered each of his previous three seasons at July - an event that featured NBA talent. the varsity level.

"Carter is a winner," Burcar said. "He has won at every level he has played at. His knowledge, passion and commitment to the game and team is hard to find. His ability to play in ball-screen situations and make others better is beyond his years."

Brown is a 6-8 versatile forward from perennial state contender St. John Bosco High School in Bellflower, Calif., that brings an energetic defensive presence to the floor and can guard players at multiple positions. He saw action in 19 games during his junior season with the Braves and helped lead them to the 2019 Trinity League Championship and advance to the CIF State Basketball Championship.

"Wynton is a college-ready athlete," Burcar said. "His ability to move his feet and guard multiple positions, run the floor and block shots, gives him the chance to be a special player. He also plays in what is possibly the best conference in the state of California and brings the attitude that he expects to win every game he plays."

Rounding out the 2020 NAU signing class is Towt, a physical 6-8 power forward from Gilbert High School in Gilbert, Ariz. He helped to lead the Tigers to the 2019 Arizona 5A State Championship, the school's first title since 2003. During the championship run as a senior, Towt averaged a double-double with 10.7 points and 11.2 rebounds per game.

He was honored as the San Tan Region 5A Player of the Year and was an honorable mention All-Arizona choice by the Arizona Republic. Towt initially enrolled at Cal Baptist University and will join the Lumberjacks following the completion of the current fall semester.

"Carson is a true tough man and a great competitor," Burcar said. "His grit, toughness and physicality will help our program the moment he steps on campus. He has been coached by one of the best in the state of Arizona in Jay Caserio and he expects to win and accepts nothing less."

BERNIE ANDRE TRAINS WITH HAITIAN NATIONAL TEAM

Junior Bernie Andre spent some time this summer training with the Haitian National Team in hopes to earn an invitation to the squad as it prepares to return to international competition.

Andre made his mark during the National Team workouts and is expected to be invited next summer when training picks back up.

In addition, Andre also competed in the Miami Pro Am last

DEBISSCHOP HONORED AS ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA

Brooks DeBisschop was selected as a member of the 2018-19 Google Cloud Academic All-American Third Team.

In the classroom, DeBisschop boasts a 3.96 grade point average while majoring in finance.

DeBisschop has received only one grade below an "A" in his academic career. He is a two-time Academic All-Big Sky choice and a back-to-back recipient of NAU's Golden Eagle Scholar Athlete Award.

The forward is just the third player in the history of the NAU Basketball program to receive the honor and the first since 2006 - joining Kelly Golob (2006) and Jeff Altman (1985).

GAME 1 - NOV. 6, 2019 - TUCSON, ARIZ. #21/17 ARIZONA 91, NAU 52

TUCSON, Ariz. (November 6, 2019) – Sophomore Cameron Shelton posted a career-best 17 points along with seven rebounds, but the Northern Arizona University men's basketball team came up on the short end of a 91-52 decision at No. 21/17 University of Arizona on Wednesday night in the season opener for both teams at the McKale Center.

The game marked the first game for NAU head coach Shane Burcar, who took over the reigns this season after serving as an assistant coach for the Lumberjacks last year.

"I am proud of our guys, there is no reason for us to have our heads down," Burcar said. "We came out and played well early, but the game got away from us in the backend of the first half. It was a great first game for us against a nationally-ranked opponent."

The Lumberjacks matched the Wildcats intensity in the early going as they stayed within a possession of Arizona until the 9:34 mark of the first half, when trailing 14-11. Arizona then posted its first of two big runs to close out the opening half with a 15-3 spurt that widened its lead to 29-14 with 7:16 remaining before the break.

Another 11-0 flurry over a nearly four-minute stretch late in the first half pushed the lead past 20 and sent the Lumberjacks into the locker room facing a 44-22 deficit. The Wildcats held NAU without a point for a total of 4:01 during the run.

The Wildcats utilized three shots from beyond the arc in the opening to up the margin to 67-35 midway through the second half and were aided by NAU failing to connect on a field goal for a span of over four minutes.

Shelton paced the 'Jacks with 17 points and seven rebounds while freshman Isaiah Lewis notched 13 points and six rebounds while shooting 6-of-11 from the field in his first-ever collegiate action. Senior Brooks DeBisschop pulled down eight rebounds and handed out three assists.

"It was a good first game and a good introduction to college basketball," Lewis said. "There was great energy from the team overall but we have to get better all around. We have to get back in the lab and come out better for the next one."

Turnovers plagued the Lumberjacks in the loss as they finished with 19 miscues and saw Arizona win the points off turnovers battle 29-4. The Wildcats also outscored NAU in the paint 42-14 and used it transition game for a 29-1 edge on the fast break.

Arizona saw a total of four players finish with double-figure points, including Zeke Nnaji who was a nuisance for the 'Jacks all game totaling a game-high 20 points, while making 9-of-12 shots from the field. Stone Gettings notched 13 while Josh Green and Dylan Smith each added 10.

GAME 2 - NOV. 15, 2019 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. NAU 105, SAGU AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE 32

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (November 15, 2019) – The Northern Arizona University men's basketball saw a total of four players register double-figure points as it rolled to a 105-32 victory over SAGU American Indian College on Friday night in its home opener at the Rolle Activity Center.

The Lumberjacks (1-1) controlled the game from the opening tip as they limited the Warriors to just nine points in the initial 20 minutes – breaking the previous school record for fewest points allowed in a half of 10 - which was set 43 years ago during the 1975-76 campaign against Idaho State.

NAU rang up 68 on its end in the first half – which also set a new standard for the most points ever scored by the 'Jacks in a half, eclipsing the 63 posted against Adams State (Colo.) in 1984-85.

In addition, the 73-point margin of victory shattered the previous high water mark for the program of 55 set against Western New Mexico in 1968-69. The 105-point total marked the most for NAU since notching 113 vs. Southwestern College (Calif.) in 2009-10.

The Lumberjacks finished the contest with 17 makes from three-point range – their highest single-game connections from deep in nearly two decades.

The game also marked the first-ever collegiate victory for Lumberjacks' head coach Shane Burgar

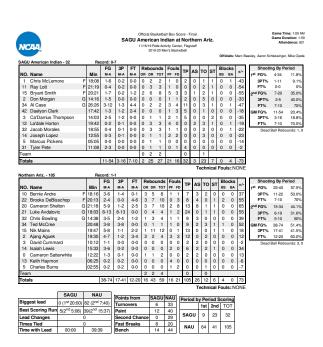

NAU wasted no time in setting the tone for the night as it raced out to a 28-4 lead over the first 6:30 minutes of action. Seven of the Lumberjacks first eight makes from the field came from distance during the stretch – including five by sophomore sharpshooter Luke Avdalovic, who finished with a career and game-high 24 points on 8-of-13 connections from deep.

The dominance continued in the second half as the Lumberjacks held SAGU AIC scoreless for the opening 6:46 during a 12-0 run and went on to outscore the Warriors 41-23 in the final 20 minutes

Joining Avdalovic in double-digits for the 'Jacks was sophomore Cameron Shelton, who finished just two assists shy of a triple-double with 13 points, 10 rebounds and eight helpers. Nik Mains tabbed the first double-double of his career with 13 points and 12 rebounds. Freshman Ajang Aguek registered 12 points in his first collegiate action.

Senior Brooks DeBisschop added 10 boards and eight points in the win.

GAME 3 - NOV. 20, 2019 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. NAU 93, BENEDICTINE MESA 56

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (November 20, 2019) – The Northern Arizona University had a total of five players finish with double-figure points as it won its second-straight home game with a 93-56 victory over Benedictine Mesa on Wednesday evening at the Rolle Activity Center.

The Lumberjacks (2-1) shot a solid 55.1 percent (38-of-69) from the field in the win over the Redhawks and connected on eight nine three-point shots. NAU won the battle in the paint 50-30 and converted 18 Benedictine Mesa turnovers into a 20 points.

NAU controlled the game for the majority of the contest as it only trailed for a total of 72 seconds. The Lumberjacks broke the game open with a 16-2 run to close out the first half to claim a 20-point advantage at 52-32 entering the break.

"I like how we shared the ball again, we had 20 assists and 11 turnovers," NAU head coach Shane Burcar said. "The other thing I liked about our performance tonight is truthfully they were making shots early and we battled and we kept doing what we believed in and the guys adjusted really well as the game went on and we ended up holding them below a 39 percent clip from the field."

The 'Jacks went on to outscore the Redhawks 41-24 in the second half to close out the 37-point victory.

Sophomore Luke Avdalovic paced the 'Jacks with a game-high 16 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field. Fellow sophomore Cameron Shelton chipped in 14 points, seven rebounds and three assists. Junior Bernie Andre tabbed 11 points and pulled down nine boards, while sophomore Nik Mains added 10 points and four steals.

Benedictine Mesa was led in defeat by Tre Carolina and Austin Denham, who each finished with 12 points.

With the victory, the Lumberjacks posted back-to-back victories at home for the first time since the 2016-17 campaign.

GAME 4 - NOV. 30, 2019 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. NAU 76, SOUTH DAKOTA 72

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (November 30, 2019) – The Northern Arizona University men's basketball team closed out the game with a 7-0 run over the final 74 seconds of regulation to post its third consecutive victory with a 76-72 win over South Dakota on Saturday afternoon at the Rolle Activity Center.

The decisive spurt opened with a three-pointer by sophomore Luke Avdalovic, which tied the game at 72-72 with 1:12 left. The Lumberjack defense then forced the first of back-to-back turnovers by the Coyotes, before Cameron Shelton knocked down a pair of free throws to give NAU a two-point edge at 74-72.

Shelton then sealed the victory with a steal on the next South Dakota possession and the 'Jacks added two more free throws for the final margin.

"We showed poise and confidence down the stretch and that was tremendous to see," NAU head coach Shane Burcar said. "After we got down in the second half, we kept within ourselves and stayed confident. The guys performed well at crunch time to get a win."

South Dakota did not make a single field goal for the final 3:45 of regulation.

"We just came together as a group and said to each other that it is all about getting stops," NAU junior Bernie Andre said. "We knew they were a great three-point shooting team and we emphasized that at practice and put it into play on the court today."

Overall the contest featured five ties and eight lead changes – six of those lead changes came during the final 20 minutes of action. The Lumberjacks held the lead for all but 8:24 of game time.

The win improves the 'Jacks to a perfect 3-0 at home and marks the first time they have posted three straight victories on their home floor since the 2014-15 season. NAU now sits at 3-1 overall, while South Dakota slips to 6-2 following the loss.

The Lumberjacks took control early as it opened a 15-point lead at the 9:42 mark of the first half after three free throws by Avdalovic made the score 24-9.

South Dakota pushed back with an 11-4 spurt to close out the half and entered the break only trailing by one at 33-32.

The Coyotes opened the second half with a three-pointer on their initial possession to claim the lead for just the second time at 35-33. It didn't last long as the 'Jacks ripped off an 11-0 burst to open a 47-39 bulge with just over 15 minutes remaining.

South Dakota regained a 58-57 lead on a layup by Ty Chisom at 7:34 of the second half and went on outscore the 'Jacks 12-5 over the next four minutes to open up its largest advantage of the game at 70-62 with 3:45 left.

NAU would go on to outscore the Coyotes 14-2 the rest of the way to secure the win.

A total of four players finished with double-figure scoring efforts for the 'Jacks, led by Andre and Avdalovic – who each finished with a team-high 17 points. Andre added nine rebounds and Avdalovic drilled four treys and was a perfect 5-for-5 from the free throw line. Brooks DeBisschop chipped in 13 points and nine rebounds – which allowed him to surpass 500 boards for his career. Shelton rounded out the scoring leaders with 10.

Stanley Umude paced the Coyotes in defeat with a game-high 18 points and added 14 rebounds for the double-double. Chisom and Cody Kelly added 17 each.

NAU finished the game with only six turnovers, while forcing South Dakota into 14 miscues.

The victory also marked the first for NAU head coach Shane Burcar against an NCAA Division I opponent.

GAME 5 - DEC. 4, 2019 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. UC DAVIS 85, NAU 66

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (December 4, 2019) – The Northern Arizona University men's basketball team were outscored by 19 points in the final 20 minutes of regulation and dropped its first home game of the season by an 85-66 margin vs. UC Davis on Wednesday evening at the Rolle Activity Center.

The loss snapped a three-game winning streak for the Lumberjacks and moves their overall record to 3-2. UC Davis improves to 3-7 following the victory.

NAU stayed close for the majority of the contest, but a 13-4 run by the Aggies to open the second half broke open a game that was deadlocked 36-36 heading into halftime.

"I was disappointed with our performance in the second half," NAU head coach Shane Burcar said. "We came away from this game with a lot of things to work on. We need to focus on making ourselves better and getting ready to face Omaha on Sunday."

UC Davis was led throughout by senior Joe Mooney, who recorded a career-high 35 points on 12-of-16 shooting from the field and a perfect 6-fo-6 clip from the charity stripe. He was one of three players in double-figures for the Aggies, joined by Stefan Gonzalez (17) and Kennedy Koehler (10).

The Lumberjacks were led in defeat by sophomore Luke Avdalovic, who finished with a teamhigh 17 points. Fellow sophomore Cameron Shelton notched his fifth consecutive double-digit scoring effort with 11 and junior Bernie Andre chipped in 10.

The game was a tale of two halves for the Lumberjacks, who shot 37 percent in the second half, while UC Davis hit on 70.8 percent from the field over the final 20 minutes. This following an opening half of action which saw NAU lead by as many as four and trail by no more than eight.

The 'Jacks opened the contest by racing out to an early 8-4 advantage, but it was short lived as UC Davis scored 12 of the next 16 points to open a 20-12 bulge that was keyed by a 10-0 run.

NAU answered immediately with three consecutive three-pointers, two by Avdalovic, to reclaim the lead at 21-20 at the 9:20 mark of the first half. Unfortunately for the 'Jacks, that would be the last time they would hold the lead despite bringing momentum into the break following a buzzer-beating trey by senior Chris Bowling that deadlocked the game at 36-36.

The Aggies controlled the second half from the outset as they outscored the Lumberjacks 7-0 over the opening 2:47 before posting their first double-digit lead of the contest at 54-42 on a three-pointer by Gonzalez with just over 12 minutes remaining.

The Lumberjacks would get no closer than within eight points the rest of the way in a game that featured a total of eight ties and four lead changes.

GAME 6 - DEC. 8, 2019 - PRESCOTT VALLEY, ARIZ. Nau 73, Omaha 65

PRESCOTT VALLEY, Ariz. (December 8, 2019) – The Northern Arizona University men's basketball team ripped off a 35-10 run in the opening half before fending off a furious rally by Omaha en route to a 73-65 win on Sunday afternoon at the Toyota Findlay Center.

The Lumberjacks led for all but 6:46 of the action thanks to their first-half explosion, which saw them connect on 55.9 percent of their shot attempts in the opening 20 minutes.

With the score deadlocked at 10-10 with 10:06 left in the first half, freshman Ajang Aguek drilled a three pointer to give the 'Jacks their first lead of the game and opened the floodgates as NAU kept building on the margin before eventually taking a 45-20 advantage into the break.

"It was kind of a seesaw at first with both teams kind of struggling to score until Ajang (Aguek) hit the three pointer in the left corner and then we went on a nice little run," NAU head coach Shane Burcar said. "We just wanted to come out and play each possession tough, but to Omaha's credit they got hot in the second half."

The Lumberjacks used defense to create offense during the first-half spurt as they forced Omaha into eight turnovers in the initial 20 minutes and did not allow an offensive rebound until nearly 15 minutes into the contest.

"We definitely stepped up defensively, especially in the first half," NAU sophomore guard Cameron Shelton said. "We talked all week about how we had to improve our performance on the defensive end and I am really proud of how we responded as a team."

Omaha battled back in the second half by scoring the first 11 points and went on to outscore the 'Jacks 17-2 in the first five minutes to trim the lead to 47-37. The Mavericks would get as close as within six points at 63-57 with 7:22 left, but NAU would hang on for the win with a final push that saw it outscore Omaha by two points over the remainder of the game.

The Lumberjacks had a total of four players post double-figure points, led by Shelton who finished with a game-high 20 for his sixth-consecutive game with double-digit scoring totals. Junior Ted McCree notched 17, while shooting 5-of-9 from the field and 3-of-5 from beyond the arc

Junior Bernie Andre and sophomore Cameron Satterwhite each chipped in 10.

Matt Pile paced the Mavericks in defeat with 18 points and 13 rebounds. Zach Thornhill registered 14 and KJ Robinson added 10.

For the game, the Lumberjacks made 47.5 percent (28-of-59) of their shots from the field, while Omaha managed a 42.6 percent (29-of-68) clip.

NAU's reserves contributed 40 points in the victory and the 'Jacks turned 12 offensive rebounds into 17 seocnd-chance points.

The game marked the first time that the Lumberjacks have played a game in Prescott Valley since Nov. 30, 2011 when they faced BYU at the Findlay Toyota Center.

GAME 7 - DEC. 14, 2019 - OREM, UTAH NAU 79, UTAH VALLEY 73

OREM, Utah (December 14, 2019) – The Northern Arizona men's basketball team received a balanced scoring effort across their lineup on Saturday night in picking up a 79-73 road victory over Utah Valley in the UCCU Center. All five of the Lumberjacks' starters scored in double-figures and NAU had seven players in all score at least eight points to earn its first true road win of the season and improve to 5-2 overall.

Senior Chris Bowling paced the 'Jacks with a season-high 16 points in an efficient shooting performance as he shot 4-for-7 overall, 3-for-5 from behind the arc and 5-for-6 at the charity stripe. He also recorded a career-best three blocks.

Senior Ted McCree posted his second consecutive double-digit scoring game with 13 points – 11 coming in the second half in which NAU outscored Utah Valley, 52-47, after going into halftime with a one-point lead. Sophomore Cameron Shelton extended his double-digit scoring streak to seven games to start the season with 12 points and a game-high seven assists.

The Lumberjacks' frontcourt duo of senior Brooks DeBisschop and sophomore Nik Mains each chipped in 10 points. DeBisschop hauled down a season-high 11 rebounds to record his first double-double of the season and added a career-high tying four steals, while Mains registered six boards.

"Utah Valley is a great team, but we had five players with 10 points or more," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "When we go on the road, we expect to win basketball games. We don't expect to keep it close and our expectation is to win the game."

NAU outshot Utah Valley, 46.7 percent to 43.1 percent, and the Lumberjacks took advantage of a plus-eight margin in the turnover column. NAU turned 19 Utah Valley turnovers into 19 points, resulting in a plus-15 margin in points off turnovers, which helped NAU offset a 41-30 disadvantage on the glass.

After Mains put in the game's first basket on the opening possession of the game, NAU misfired on its next five attempts from the field and also turned the ball over four times as Utah Valley opened up an 11-4 lead five minutes into the game. Although NAU went six minutes without a field goal, Bowling's first of three treys managed to tie the score at 15-15 with 9:40 left in the first half.

Junior Cameron Satterwhite, who was one of two Lumberjack reserves along with freshman Isaiah Lewis with eight points, knocked down a triple to snap a 24-24 tie and provided the Lumberjacks' final points heading into halftime. Behind Satterwhite's team-best seven points in the first half, NAU took a narrow 27-26 lead into the locker room.

The two teams traded runs in the second half beginning with a 7-0 NAU run sparked by a McCree three. DeBisschop followed with consecutive layups to give the 'Jacks a 43-36 lead with 13:38 remaining in the game. However, Utah Valley answered with a 7-0 run itself to tie the score at 43-43 less than three minutes later and the game remained tied at 61-61 with four minutes left.

NAU posted the last run, breaking open the 11th and final tie, scoring nine of the next 11 points beginning with a Bowling layup in transition. By the time Mains drilled a corner three with 1:21 left, NAU led 70-63. The 'Jacks iced the game by making 9-of-12 at the free throw line in the final minute – with Bowling accounting for five of those free throws.

McCree's 11 points in the second half was just one of four double-figure scoring efforts by the 'Jacks after halftime. DeBisschop, Shelton and Bowling each scored 10 points in NAU's highest scoring half since the third game of the season versus Benedictine Mesa.

GAME 8 - DEC. 19, 2019 - RIVERSIDE, CALIF. NAU 63, UC RIVERSIDE 56

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (December 19, 2019) – The Northern Arizona University men's basketball team held off UC Riverside in a tight defensive game that saw the Lumberjacks pick up a 63-56 win at the SRC Arena on Thursday night. NAU scored 19 points off of 15 UC Riverside turnovers with 12 of them coming in the first half to raise the 'Jacks to 6-2 overall for the season.

Three Lumberjacks scored in double-digits as the squad shot for 41.2 percent on the night, nailing six three-pointers in the contest. Despite eight lead changes throughout the game NAU picked up the defensive effort when it counted most late.

Sophomore Cameron Shelton led the way for the Lumberjacks scoring 15 points that was complimented by eight rebounds and three assists. This was the eighth straight game that Shelton scored double-digits. Senior Ted McCree started the game off hot with four-straight made baskets and ended the night with 14 total points. It was also the third consecutive game in which McCree had a double-digit scoring effort.

The Lumberjack front court pair of sophomore Nik Mains and senior Brooks DeBisschop raked in 11 rebounds and contributed 21 points towards the NAU victory. Mains nailed four three-pointers to account for his 12 total points scored, while DeBisschop grabbed seven rehounds

"We have done some good things from the standpoint that we are off to a good start," said interim head coach Shane Buracr. "We work hard daily and that is all that we can control."

NAU held the lead for nearly 32 minutes into the game and committed only 11 turnovers compared to the Highlanders' 15. The 'Jacks recorded eight steals throughout the game and were led by a pair of underclassmen in sophomore Cameron Satterwhite and freshman Isaiah Lewis each of whom picked off two steals.

Mains drilled the first three of the game to go along with McCree's first two made baskets to put the 'Jacks up 7-3 early in the first half at the 17:25 mark. NAU would drop the lead with just 5:31 left in the first after UC Riverside senior Dikymbe Martin drained a three. It would be a back and forth contest leading up to the half with the Lumberjacks heading to the locker room down 24-23.

NAU quickly regained the lead less than a minute into the second half after Satterwhite converted a layup to put the score at 25-24. Both sides would hold on to narrow leads until things got tied up at the 10:05 mark after Shelton was fouled on a made layup to put the game at 40.40

Shelton swished his shot from the line and from that point forward the Highlanders would not regain the lead again before the sound of the final buzzer. UC Riverside would keep things close never falling behind more than six points until NAU went on a 10-0 run that started at the 2:40 point after Shelton was fouled again and successfully made both shots from the charity

NAU's defense sealed the victory for the 'Jacks late as they forced the Highlanders to convert only one of their final nine three-point attempts. The Highlanders fouled the 'Jacks two more times in an attempt to get the ball back late but Satterwhite and McCree had ice in their veins as neither missed to end the game at 63-56 in favor of NAU.

"We have one more non-conference game," concluded Burcar. "We are going to take care of business on Saturday against Pepperdine. Then we have 20 Big Sky games and then hopefully two-to-three more in Boise to earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament."

GAME 9 - DEC. 21, 2019 - MALIBU, CALIF. Pepperdine 75, NAU 73

MALIBU, Calif. (December 21, 2019) – Pepperdine stole victory away from the Northern Arizona men's basketball team's grasp with a pair of free throws with 6.8 seconds left to emerge with a 75-73 victory on Sunday inside the Firestone Fieldhouse. The Waves finished the game on an 11-2 run to snap the Lumberjacks' three-game winning streak. NAU will take a 6-3 record – its best non-conference record in nine years – into conference play beginning next week.

Sophomore Cameron Shelton, who finished with a team-high 18 points, put the 'Jacks up, 71-64, with 3:33 remaining in the game before the Waves scored the next nine points to take a 73-71 advantage with under a minute left. Senior Brooks DeBisschop followed with a layup with 31.3 seconds left to tie the game once again.

After a Pepperdine timeout, the Waves' Colbey Ross, who scored a game-high 27 points, drew a timeout with 6.8 seconds on the clock. Ross knocked down both free throws and senior Ted McCree's game-winning three-point attempt was just off the mark before the buzzer.

"We could not get a stop and they went on a scoring run," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "It's a tough loss to take. There's no shame in losing to Pepperdine, but when you have a lead like that (71-64), it's tough. We had a couple of bad offensive possessions too, but if we get a stop there, we'd be in pretty good shape."

Shelton also tallied seven rebounds and seven assists along with his game-high 18 points as he extended his season-opening double-digit scoring streak to nine games. McCree was not far behind with a season-high tying 17 points on five treys, which was also a season-best. DeBisschop and junior Cameron Shelton chipped in 11 and 10 points respectively.

The Waves shot 50.0 percent for the game, including an efficient 55.0 percent in the second half, to erase a 42-37 Lumberjack halftime lead. After shooting 57.1 percent in the first half, the 'Jacks shot 34.5 percent in the second half to finish at 45.6 percent overall.

In addition to NAU's second half shooting struggles at times, Pepperdine – the nation's leading free throw shooting team – got to the line and converted 13-of-15 attempts in the second half

Still, NAU led for almost the entirety of the second half and withstood a couple of Pepperdine pushes to put the Lumberjacks in position to claim only their second all-time win in Malibu. After Pepperdine got within a single point, 57-56, with 11 minutes left, McCree hit three triples in the next five minutes to extend NAU's lead back out to 69-62.

With its lead at 71-64, NAU turned the ball over on three straight possessions, allowing Pepperdine to take its first edge of the second half with a 9-0 run, setting up the final minute of action.

"The message (to the team) was to keep their head up and let it hurt," Burcar said. "For true competitors, this will hurt, and that's a good thing. At the end of the day, we know we have to get back to work in Montana and get ready for those games."

McCree sparked NAU early with eight points in the first three minutes and change as the Lumberjacks took the initial advantage, 10-8. The Waves settled in though and led by as much as six, 25-19, before a 7-0 Lumberjack run with field goals by freshman Isaiah Lewis, sophomore Nik Mains and Satterwhite.

Shelton then scored seven points during a nine-point surge by the 'Jacks to give them their largest lead of the game, 37-29, with three minutes to go before the half. He added one more bucket right before halftime to send NAU into the break with a 42-37 advantage.

NAU outrebounded Pepperdine, 28-27, and the Lumberjacks' reserves – led by Satterwhite and another seven points by junior Bernie Andre – outscored the Waves' bench by a 25-14 margin. NAU nearly swept the specialty stats with edges in points in the paint (26-22), second chance points (8-2) and fast break points (13-9).

GAME 10 - DEC. 28, 2019 - MISSOULA, MONT. Montana 79, Nau 72

MISSOULA, Mont. (December 28, 2019) – A blistering start staked the Northern Arizona men's basketball team to a halftime lead, but the Lumberjacks could not close out their conference opener as Montana staved off NAU, 79-72, Saturday night in Dahlberg Arena. The 'Jacks led the Grizzlies for more than 22 minutes before the two-time defending Big Sky champions took the lead for good with 9:21 to play.

"If we would've made our layups in the first half, maybe we're up a little more," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We did better in the second half with our layups, but we have to get stops too. It's a tough loss and we have to figure out how to play better defense for 40 minutes."

NAU (6-4, 0-1 Big Sky) had five players score in double-figures led by sophomore Cameron Shelton's 17 points. Shelton also posted a team-high nine boards, coming up a rebound shy of his second double-double of the season.

The Lumberjacks appeared poised to snap a nine-game skid to the Grizzlies, and capture their first win in Missoula since 2014, after shooting 7-of-14 from behind the arc in the first half. Sophomore Luke Avdalovic and senior Ted McCree connected on two triples each on their way to eight points apiece to guide NAU to a 34-28 halftime advantage.

However, NAU made just one of five attempts from long distance after the intermission while Montana shot 58.1 percent during a 51-point second half showing. Montana shot 50 percent overall – compared to 42.4 percent by NAU – and outscored NAU in the paint, 46-24, to offset a plus-15 point margin for the Lumberjacks behind the arc.

Both teams struggled to find their shots early with NAU missing its first seven attempts and Montana its first four. The teams went nearly four minutes before the game's first points, but NAU built an 18-10 advantage on a 11-0 run, including threes by senior Chris Bowling, McCree and Avdalovic with 9:24 left in the first half.

Sophomore Nik Mains gave the 'Jacks their largest lead of the opening half, 26-16, with less than five minutes before the intermission and the Lumberjacks settled for a six-point halftime edge despite only shooting 35.7 percent from the field. NAU was aided by a 14-2 points off turnovers margin in the first half despite the teams turning it over nine teams each.

Montana came out strong in the second half, taking its first lead, 39-38, of the half at the 16:05 mark. NAU quickly responded with a 12-4 run capped by an Avdalovic trey to push the Lumberjacks' lead out to 50-42 with 13:38 remaining. The Grizzlies had the answer though, surging ahead 56-55 with 9:21 on the clock.

The Grizzlies wound up going on a 20-5 run after the Avdalovic three and led by as much as nine, 71-62, with four minutes to play. Junior Cameron Satterwhite split a pair at the line – one possession after completing an and-1 – to bring NAU within 71-68 at the 2:10 mark, but the Lumberjacks never got closer.

Behind Shelton's 17 points, McCree notched 15 in his fifth consecutive double-digit scoring game. Avdalovic scored 13 points off the bench and Mains chipped in 11. Satterwhite, in his first career start as a Lumberjack, rounded out NAU's double-figure scorers with 10.

"We are so close and we've had a couple of games like (tonight)," Burcar said. "Bottom line is we have to get better for Monday."

GAME 11 - DEC. 30, 2019 - BOZEMAN, MONT. MONTANA STATE 63, NAU 61

BOZEMAN, Mont. (December 30, 2019) – The Northern Arizona men's basketball team lost a close battle to Montana State on Monday night at Worthington Arena in its second conference matchup of the season, with the Bobcats edging the Lumberjacks, 63-61. The 'Jacks closed out their five-game road trip with two wins and three losses.

"We did a lot of really good things and we battled back," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We have been really close to winning these last three games. That being said it was a quiet locker room after this one that's for sure."

NAU (6-5, 0-2 Big Sky) was led by junior forward Bernie Andre as he racked up 17 points and also recorded six rebounds. Thirteen of Andre's 17 points came in the second half as he was 4-for-7 shooting, with two of his makes coming from beyond the three-point line.

Sophomore Cameron Satterwhite started off the first half strong leading both squads with 10 points. Satterwhite was 4-for-6 from the field with two shots drained from behind the three-point line. Redshirt freshman Keith Haymon also nailed two crucial three-point shots in the first half to help keep the 'Jacks within a possession at halftime with a score of 30-28 in Montana State's favor.

NAU doubled the number of three-point baskets as the 'Jacks converted eight threes as opposed to Montana State's four. Both teams were fairly even in shooting as the Lumberjacks shot for 40 percent (24-for-60), with the Bobcats having the slight advantage at 41.5 percent (17-for-41).

In his return from injury after having sat out Saturday's conference opener against Montana senior Brooks DeBisschop snatched up four rebounds for the Lumberjacks in the first half. DeBisschop would end the night with six rebounds and eight points.

Sophomore Cameron Shelton grabbed six rebounds off the board in the second half to lead NAU with eight throughout the game, while also leading the 'Jacks with five total assists. Shelton scored a season low of just seven points, making it the first time this season he has not scored in double-digits.

After trailing at the half, the Lumberjacks battled back to tie the game, 55-55, at the 3:09 mark after a second-chance three-point jumper by redshirt sophomore Luke Avdalovic. Both teams traded turnovers on ensuing possessions, which helped set up a three-point play for the Bobcats to make the score, 58-55.

In an attempt to regain possession of the ball with just a minute left, NAU fouled Montana State, but the Bobcats answered as they converted one of two free throw shots putting the game at 59-55. Andre answered with a quick three with 50 seconds left to bring the Lumberjacks within one

NAU would foul Montana State two more times late in the game, with the Bobcats answering again making all four free throw attempts. A late three by Shelton as time expired proved to be too little too late as the Lumberjacks suffered their third straight loss and fifth on the season.

A pivotal factor in the game was that MSU lined up at the charity stripe 28 times by the end of the game making 25 (89.3 percent). The 'Jacks only saw the free throw line 10 times and made just half of their attempts.

"At 0-2 in conference we have to understand that we have got 18 more games," Burcar said. "This is the fun part where we get to grind. I enjoy a challenge and I think because of that grind we will be successful. Our locker room was quiet in a good way. We will be fine and we are looking forward to getting back home."

GAME 12 - JAN. 4, 2020 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. NAU 72, WEBER STATE 64

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (January 4, 2020) – It is a new year, and Saturday's 72-64 victory over Weber State was just the latest example that this is not your same old Northern Arizona men's basketball team. The Lumberjacks pulled away late from the Wildcats – picked in the top three of the preseason league polls – to earn their first win over the perennial conference contenders in five years in their Walkup Skydome opener.

The victory was NAU's first against Weber State since Feb. 14, 2015. The Lumberjacks also snapped a 10-game losing streak to the Wildcats on their home floor, notching their first win in the all-time series since Feb. 28, 2008.

"The game went back and forth and (Weber State) scored the first seven points of the second half," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "Our guys didn't flinch and I don't think we could've played any better in the last two and a half minutes to execute and finish out a ball game. I'm really happy for this university and this team."

The Lumberjacks (7-5, 1-2 Big Sky) had their offense clicking all game, finishing their conference home opener shooting 57.1 percent overall. NAU also shot 56.3 percent from long distance in addition to outrebounding Weber State by a 31-21 margin.

Four players led by junior Brooks DeBisschop's career-high 18 points scored in double-figures. DeBisschop was a perfect 8-for-8 from the floor in just 24 minutes off the bench. Junior Cameron Satterwhite also posted his best game as a Lumberjack, registering a career-high 15 points on 6-for-11 shooting. Satterwhite nailed three of NAU's nine treys, including one with 3:55 remaining to swing the score in the Lumberjacks' favor for good.

Sophomores Nik Mains (13) and Cameron Shelton (11) also reach double-digits in the scoring column as NAU claimed its first conference win of the season. Shelton also totaled team-highs of eight rebounds and seven assists. Mains' 13 points matched a season-high.

After losing second half leads at Pepperdine and Montana in the last two weeks, NAU did not let a hot start and a halftime lead slip versus Weber State. The Lumberjacks got out to a 6-0 lead and led by as much as 12 at 26-14 on a three-pointer by senior Ted McCree with 7:45 left in the first half before seeing their eventual halftime advantage sliced in half to 36-30. Mains led the Lumberjacks with 11 points at the intermission.

After leading the entirety of the first half, NAU fell behind immediately with a quick 7-0 Weber State burst that gave the Wildcats their first lead, 37-36, less than two minutes into the second half. As quick as Weber State took the lead, NAU settled back in and led 54-49 following a Satterwhite triple just under the midway point of the half.

The Wildcats once again answered with a 10-2 run to take a 59-56 advantage before Shelton tied it for the fifth time with a three of his own. After Weber State followed with a bucket on the next possession, Satterwhite drained yet another trey to exchange the lead for the final time with 4:41 to go at 62-61.

All in all, NAU closed out the game with a 13-3 run starting with Satterwhite's triple by knocking down four of its last five shots and all four free throws in the last five minutes.

"We've talked a lot about getting a lead and keeping it versus letting up and letting the other team back in the game," DeBisschop said. "It comes down to toughness and grit and coming together as a unit and not accepting a loss."

GAME 13 - JAN. 9, 2020 - SACRAMENTO, CALIF. SACRAMENTO STATE 64, NAU 57

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (January 9, 2020) – The Northern Arizona men's basketball team nearly erased a 20-point halftime deficit, getting as close as five late in the second half, before falling short in a 64-57 loss to Sacramento State on Thursday. The Lumberjacks fell to 7-6 overall and 1-3 in conference play despite forging a late comeback effort.

"This is an opportunity for us to learn," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "In the second half, I'm happy with the guys because we battled. There's been games in my career when you're getting beat in the second half and you battle, it can turn around a season. Not that we have to turn around our season, but it'll be a quick turnaround for Saturday and we need to learn from this."

The Hornets put their imprint on the game in the first half, shooting 65.4 percent and outscoring the Lumberjacks in points off turnovers (13-4), points in the paint (24-16) and second chance points (9-2) before halftime. They outrebounded the 'Jacks, 19-6, and took advantage of a slow NAU start offensively with the Lumberjacks shooting only 38.5 percent from the floor.

The second half was a different story with NAU shooting 44.8 percent after halftime compared to only 32.1 percent for Sacramento State. The Lumberjacks also turned around the rebounding battle, 21-17, in the second half in putting together a rally.

Trailing 55-42 with eight minutes remaining in the game, sophomore Luke Avdalovic started an 8-0 run with a three-pointer. Sophomore Cameron Shelton followed with an and-1 and proceeded to make two more at the line to bring NAU within 55-50 with five minutes to go.

Sacramento State finally snapped a near five-minute scoring drought – and six-minute drought without a field goal – with a basket to stop NAU's run with 3:51 left. Senior Brooks DeBisschop, who led the Lumberjacks with 15 points, answered with a jumper to make it a 57-52 game with 2:53 remaining but the 'Jacks never got closer.

DeBisschop was 7-for-14 from the field and he grabbed a team-high tying five rebounds. Junior Cameron Satterwhite matched DeBisschop's five rebounds and was second on the team with 12 points. Shelton was the third Lumberjack in double-figure scoring with 10 points.

Sacramento State shot 48.1 percent while NAU converted at a 41.8 percent clip for the game. The Hornets still managed to hold the rebounding advantage, 36-27, and made the most of extra opportunities with a 19-8 edge in points off turnovers and 15-6 advantage in second chance points.

The Hornets never trailed in the game after jumping out to a 10-2 lead. Satterwhite threw down a dunk in transition to bring the Lumberjacks within 14-11 with 10:30 before halftime, only for the Hornets to go on a 9-0 run to take a 12-point advantage. After senior Ted McCree and sophomore Nik Mains put in consecutive baskets to close the Sacramento State lead to 23-15, the Hornets closed the half on an 18-6 run to take a 41-21 lead into halftime.

GAME 14 - JAN. 11, 2020 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. IDAHO STATE 71, NAU 67

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (January 11, 2020) – For the second straight game, the Northern Arizona men's basketball team nearly rallied from a significant deficit only to come up just shy. Trailing by as much as 18 with 6:25 remaining in the game, the Lumberjacks eventually fell 71-67 to Idaho State in the Walkup Skydome.

Consecutive three-pointers by sophomore Luke Avdalovic chopped the NAU deficit to 70-67 with 28.1 seconds left in a frantic sequence. The Lumberjacks then had a near steal at midcourt before being forced to foul with 4.8 seconds on the clock. The Bengals missed the front end of a one-and-one, but corralled the offensive rebound.

With a second opportunity to make it a two-possession game, Idaho State hit one of the two ensuing free throws to provide the final margin.

"We have to figure out how not to get into a hole," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "Idaho State made plays and we didn't. We're figuring things out right now. We're going to work our way out of this."

Senior Brooks DeBisschop, playing in his 100th career game on Saturday, posted his team-leading second double-double of the season. DeBisschop reset his career-high for the second time in three games, scoring a game-high 20 points to go along with 10 rebounds. He also recorded two steals and a block.

NAU (7-7 overall, 1-4 Big Sky) shot 50 percent in the second half after shooting just 38.7 percent in the first. The Lumberjacks shot 44.4 percent for the game, but the Bengals shot 48.1 percent overall. Idaho State also narrowly outrebounded NAU, 37-34, despite DeBisschop's game-high 10 boards off the glass.

Junior Cameron Satterwhite, who scored 13 points, hit a three on NAU's first possession to put the Lumberjacks ahead, 3-2, but that was NAU's only lead of the game. Idaho State followed with a 14-4 run to open up a nine-point lead and led by as much as 12, 29-17, with 3:39 remaining in the first half.

Senior Ted McCree started a 7-0 Lumberjack run with a layup and Satterwhite connected on another triple to cap the run to make it a 29-24 game with two minutes left before halftime. The five-point Idaho State margin held at the break with the Bengals leading 31-26 going into the locker rooms.

The 'Jacks trailed by just four at 47-43 following a DeBisschop bucket with 11 minutes to play, but the Bengals' lead ballooned in a hurry. Idaho State blitzed NAU with four of its seven threes in a four and a half minute span to take a 62-44 lead with 6:25 to play after a 15-1 run.

The deficit still sat at 16 with 3:37 to go before junior Bernie Andre ignited a 9-0 run with a three that cut the Bengals' lead to 68-61 with 1:13 left. After Idaho State hit a pair of free throws with just under a minute remaining, Avdalovic hit the first of two consecutive threes to bring NAU within 70-64 with 37.1 seconds remaining.

Satterwhite intercepted Idaho State's pass on the very next possession and found Avdalovic for another three right in front of the NAU bench. But Idaho State wound up surviving NAU's furious rally to hand the Lumberjacks' their fourth conference loss, which have all been by seven points or fewer.

McCree (12) and Avdalovic (11) rounded out NAU's four double-digit scorers. The two shooters combined for five of NAU's eight three-pointers on the afternoon.

GAME 15 - JAN. 16, 2020 - CEDAR CITY, UTAH NAU 75, SOUTHERN UTAH 72

CEDAR CITY, Utah (January 16, 2020) – Thursday night's tilt between the Northern Arizona men's basketball team and Southern Utah was yet another close one, but the 75-72 victory went in favor of the Lumberjacks in the America First Event Center behind a season-high 19 points from junior Bernie Andre. NAU improved to 8-7 overall and 4-2 in conference play with the victory, its first on the road this season in league play.

"We went into the locker room and told ourselves, 'let's stick to what we do,'" said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We had to grind our teeth a little harder to keep our man in front of us. I give credit to our guys. We were in a hostile environment and we battled. We talk about being tough and tonight it was obvious to the eye that our guys were tough and battled together."

The Lumberjacks trailed at halftime, 45-36, with the Thunderbirds shooting 59.3 percent in the first half. But NAU's offense turned around with the Lumberjacks shooting 58.3 percent in the second half, while their defense locked down on the Thunderbirds' Cameron Oluyitan. After Oluyitan, Southern Utah's second-leading scorer, scored 22 points in the first half, NAU kept him completely out of the scoring column in the second half.

"We talk about being truly tough and one of the things with being truly tough is responding to adversity," said sophomore Cameron Shelton. "They came out and hit big shots and we stuck to our principles, and our game plan, and picked up the intensity defensive. We got big stops in the second half and that ultimately led us to victory."

Although Southern Utah still shot 54.3 percent for the game, besting NAU's mark of 44.6 percent, the Lumberjacks won a critical area in the game – turnovers. NAU turned the ball over just eight times to the 17 by Southern Utah, which resulted in NAU outscoring Southern Utah, 19-8, in points off miscues.

NAU equaled its season-high of 12 steals with Shelton setting a new career-high with four thefts. Junior Cameron Satterwhite totaled three steals and senior Chris Bowling had two off the bench.

Andre's season-high scoring output came on 6-for-11 shooting, including a career-best 4-for-5 showing from long distance. Shelton bounced back from his lowest scoring game of the season last Saturday to match Andre's 19 points in his best offensive game in over a month. Shelton was a career-best 8-for-11 at the charity stripe.

Sophomore Luke Avdalovic was the driving force behind NAU's 8-1 game-opening run with six points in the first four minutes of the game. The Lumberjacks' early advantage was erased by a 14-0 Thunderbird run that put NAU behind, 19-10, with nine minutes left in the first half.

NAU got back to 21-20 on a layup by senior Brooks DeBisschop, who scored 12 points in the game, to cap a 7-0 run, but four Southern Utah triples in the final 2:21 of the first half propelled the Thunderbirds to their nine-point halftime lead.

The Lumberjacks evened the score at 53-53, courtesy of a trey by Andre, with 12:55 to play on the heels of an 11-2 NAU run. NAU finally took the lead, for good, three minutes later on another layup by DeBisschop and Satterwhite's thunderous dunk in transition made it a 62-57 game with 8:07 remaining.

Southern Utah got within a single point on four occasions the rest of the game, but NAU answered with a score on the very next possession each time. Southern Utah had an opportunity for a game-tying three at the buzzer, but it was off the mark to seal NAU's first win in Cedar City in four years.

"We have to continue to get better," Burcar said. "We talked today about effort and execution and I was impressed with our guys. The next thing is these games have to be won by eight to 10 points and as we continue to build it will be by doing what winning teams do."

Nine of NAU's 12 steals were recorded after halftime as the Lumberjacks forced 11 total Thunderbird turnovers in the second half resulting in a plus-eight point margin off turnovers. NAU outscored Southern Utah by 12 in the second half altogether.

GAME 16 - JAN. 18, 2020 - GREELEY, COLO. NAU 64, NORTHERN COLORADO 58

GREELEY, Colo. (January 18, 2020) – Down 10 with 5:50 to play, the Northern Arizona men's basketball team went to work to complete their first conference road trip sweep in nearly six years. The Lumberjacks held Northern Colorado to just four points in the final six minutes of the game to rally for a 64-58 victory in the Bank of Colorado Arena on Saturday.

"We were down 10 with five minutes left and we weren't worried at all," said senior Brooks DeBisschop. "We knew we had to chip away at it one possession at a time, get stops and hit shots and it worked out for us today."

After the Bears' Jonah Radebaugh drilled a jumper to make it a 54-44 game – capping a 15-4 Northern Colorado run – the Lumberjacks forced the Bears to miss two of their final 11 shots of the game. During this span, NAU went 7-for-8 and made all four attempts at the charity stripe to erase a double-digit deficit for the second consecutive game.

With the win, the Lumberjacks posted a perfect week on the road for the first time in conference play since they defeated Idaho State and Weber State on Feb. 27 and March 1, 2014. NAU improved to 9-7 overall and 3-4 in conference heading into a home stretch of four consecutive games in Flagstaff.

Junior Cameron Satterwhite led the Lumberjacks with 16 points, eight of which came during NAU's 20-4 closing run. Satterwhite completed two three-point plays and hit a jumper and finished the game 6-for-11 shooting from the field.

DeBisschop, who recorded his third double-double of the season with 13 points and 11 rebounds, started the NAU's run with a basket before Satterwhite's first and-1 cut the lead in half in a minute of game play. DeBisschop tied the game at 58-58 with 1:33 left and after another stop on the defensive end, sophomore Cameron Shelton drove the paint and finished at the rim to put NAU ahead, 60-58, with 49.3 seconds remaining.

Junior Bernie Andre and Shelton each converted a pair of free throws following Shelton's go-ahead basket to provide the final margin on the scoreboard. In all, Northern Colorado came up empty on five consecutive possessions to end the game.

"The thing we did at the end of the game was we got stops," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "Bernie Andre got a rebound and knocked down free throws and then Cameron Shelton gets a rebound and knocks down his free throws. We're up two and I told our guys we were one stop away from shooting two free throws to ice it and that's exactly what happened. This is a great group of guys to be around right now."

Shelton recorded 10 points and eight rebounds, while sophomore Luke Avdalovic scored eight points. Senior Chris Bowling and Andre combined for all 13 of NAU's bench points in a 13-5 bench advantage for the 'Jacks with Andre also totaling nine rebounds.

NAU shot 42.1 percent and limited Northern Colorado to just 33.8 percent shooting. The Lumberjacks also won the rebounding battle, 44-35, and held significant advantages in the paint (36-22) and off turnovers (12-5) in handing the Bears their first home loss in eight games this season

The first half was a close one with neither team gaining a significant advantage. NAU led for the final 10 and a half minutes going into the locker room and led by as much seven at 30-23 with 2:40 left in the half following consecutive threes by Bowling and DeBisschop.

NAU wound up taking a 32-28 lead into halftime and continued to lead until the 12 minute mark of the second half when Northern Colorado moved in front, 41-40. Northern Colorado used an 8-0 run in 90 seconds to take a seven-point lead before DeBisschop and Avdalovic answered with buckets to trim the deficit to 47-44. The Bears scored the next seven points before the 'Jacks started their final rally.

GAME 17 - JAN. 25, 2020 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. NAU 84, PORTLAND STATE 82

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (January 25, 2020) – The Northern Arizona men's basketball team (10-7, 4-4 Big Sky) defeated Big Sky Conference rival Portland State in a thrilling second half comeback win, 84-82, on Saturday evening at the J. Lawrence Walkup Skydome.

A packed crowd of 1,624 fans helped spark a comeback win that saw four Lumberjacks finish with double-digits in scoring. Junior forward Bernie Andre recorded a double-double (20 points, 15 rebounds) and redshirt sophomore guard Luke Avdalvoic set a new career-high in points (25).

"It was a frustrating start," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We did not panic despite being down early. We stayed the course and were composed. The way we pushed at the end of the first half was a huge difference maker."

The 'Jacks shot 36 percent (10-for-25) on three-point attempts throughout the evening. Avdalovic nailed seven three-pointers as he led the Blue & Gold in scoring with 25 points. Avdalovic's performance was just short of his personal best of eight made threes set earlier this season versus SAGU American Indian College.

"This was a game that we knew the type of style they would have," said Avdalovic. "It was high pressure up and down offense that would try to get off a quick shot. We did not want to feed into that too much; Coach had confidence that our shooters could make it if we were open. I trust my teammates to find me and they were able to throughout the game."

"Luke should start every game that he plays here from here on out," said Burcar. "He really should because of his shooting; our guys kept finding him when he was hot."

Andre scored 20 points, raked in 15 rebounds and recorded three steals to propel NAU to a late victory. Eleven of Andre's 15 rebounds came in the second half as he recorded season highs in scoring and rebounds.

"I'm so happy for the young man," added Burcar. "He was able to keep working and not get down. There is a lot of season left and we look forward to him continuing to be the Bernie Andre we all know."

NAU headed into halftime down 45-37 after a hot start from the Vikings. The Lumberjacks trailed by as many as 15 points as late as 3:55 left in the first half. By essentially cutting that lead in half by halftime, the 'Jacks put themselves in position to mount a comeback.

Throughout the second half NAU fought an uphill battle as they tried to shorten the lead. With 12:53 left in the game senior forward Brooks DeBisschop tied the game at 56-56 with a dunk and in the final nine and a half minutes, the Lumberjacks outscored the Vikings, 27-19.

At the 2:18 mark, DeBisschop made two free throw baskets to tie the game up at 79-79. After a pair of scoreless back and forth possessions, Andre pulled in an offensive rebound and put it back up for a layup to help NAU take the lead. 81-79.

DeBisschop split a pair of free throws with 6.4 seconds left to make it a two-point game, 84-82, and Portland State's Holland Woods missed a running layup right before the buzzer to allow NAU to prevail.

Shelton and DeBisschop capped off the double-digit scorers for NAU as they finished with 14 and 11 points, respectively. Shelton also dished out seven assists to lead the 'Jacks in that category'.

Sal Nuhu led the Vikings in scoring and rebounds with 18 points and 15 boards. Four Portland State players also scored in the double-digits.

GAME 18 - JAN. 27, 2020 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. NAU 69, SACRAMENTO STATE 54

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (January 27, 2020) – The Northern Arizona University men's basketball team shot 51.2 percent (21-for-41) from the field during the Lumberjacks' Monday night victory over Big Sky Conference rival Sacramento State, 69-54, at the Walkup Skydome.

The Lumberjacks' win propelled them to a game over .500 in conference play as NAU (11-7, 5-4 Big Sky) nears the halfway point of the conference season. Northern Arizona is now in the midst of a four-game winning streak and had three Lumberjacks score in double-figures led by senior forward Brooks DeBisschop and junior forward Bernie Andre, who both scored 15 points. Sophomore guard Luke Avdalovic finished with 14 points and led the 'Jacks with two steals.

NAU also shot 50 percent (7-of-14) from behind the three-point line led by Andre, who drilled three deep shots throughout the evening. Northern Arizona outrebounded Sacramento State 33-to-27 as Andre was the top contributor in that category as well raking in seven rebounds.

"As we keep going through the season we still have to get better," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We have to get better; we did a couple of different things in the post. It was a great team effort as far as guarding (Joshua) Patton and closing them off in three-point shooting."

DeBisschop recorded six rebounds and two blocks six rebounds and tied sophomore guard Cameron Shelton for the team-high in assists with six. DeBisschop's six assists set a new career-high.

The Hornets had the Lumberjacks' number early in the game as they jumped to a lead that was as large as seven points at 20-13 with 11:25 left in the first half. Sacramento State's control was sustained until the closing moments of the first half.

Senior forward Chris Bowling nailed a crucial three to bring NAU within two points of the Hornets lead and following a missed jumper by Sacramento State's Joshua Patton, Andre pulled in a rebound that led to a DeBisshop layup to tie it all up at 25-25 with 5:49 left in the half.

Sacramento State attempted to hold its lead, but the Lumberjacks' late first half offensive surge ended with a three-point basket by junior guard Cameron Satterwhite to give the 'Jacks a 37-29 lead into halftime.

An aggressive start offensively in the second half put NAU in position to close out its fourth straight win. The Lumberjacks' lead grew to as much as 22 points before it was all said and done. Avdalovic led NAU in scoring in the second as shot a perfect 3-for-3 from the floor and scored eight of his 14 points. The Lumberjacks were 10-for-19 in shooting during the second half, while also holding the Hornets to an 8-for-23 showing.

"I have hung our hat on playing different styles," Burcar said. "To have scored 84 points on Saturday and come in and score in the sixties and hold them to somewhere in the fifties, that is something I think we can do."

GAME 19 - FEB. 1, 2020 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. Nau 77. Idaho 72

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (February 1, 2020) – Sophomore Cameron Shelton attacked Idaho again and again and wound up with a career-high 29 points in leading the Northern Arizona men's basket-ball team to a 77-72 victory on Saturday in the Rolle Activity Center. The Lumberjacks' notched their fifth straight win marking their first five-game winning streak in nearly 10 years in their continued ascent up the Big Sky standings.

NAU's five-game winning streak is its first since the program won seven straight from Nov. 16-Dec. 8, 2010. While that streak included two wins over non-Division I teams, NAU's last winning streak of five games or more against Division I teams occurred at the end of the 2007-08 season.

"Take nothing away from the University of Idaho; they're trying to win games too," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "They're a good team. I thought our guys did a really good job of being prepared mentally. We played tough throughout the game. We're midway through conference, and I don't care what conference you're in. You have to figure out how to win games and that's what we did today."

Behind Shelton's career-best game, NAU improved to 12-7 overall and 6-4 in conference play. With Saturday's slate around the Big Sky yet to be completed, NAU could be less than a game out of first place in the conference standings by the end of the evening.

Shelton set new career-highs in field goals made and free throws made with his 9-for-15 showing from the field and 10-of-13 output at the free throw line. He also grabbed seven rebounds and held a team-high plus-15 while on the court.

Shelton was not the only Lumberjack that produced an eye-popping stat line as senior Brooks DeBisschop recorded his fourth double-double of the season with 12 points and a season-high 14 rebounds in addition to a team-leading five assists. DeBisschop moved into the top 10 all-time in career rebounds and finished the game ninth in Lumberjack history with a running count of 611 career boards.

Although NAU led for more than 33 minutes in the game, the 'Jacks led by double-digits for a mere 21 seconds as the Vandals found ways to keep it close behind 26 points from Trevon Allen.

NAU struggled to find its stroke from behind the arc as the Lumberjacks shot just 25 percent (5-for-20) on three-point attempts. Yet NAU shot 46 percent for the game and made a living at the free throw line where it set new season-highs for free throws made and attempted (26-for-38). The 'Jacks made 15 more free throws than the Vandals and had 22 more attempts at the Shelton opened the game's scoring with a three-point play, spurring an early Lumberjack advantage. However, the 'Jacks could not break loose in a tightly contested first half that featured seven ties and four lead changes.

With five minutes left in the first half, NAU finally gained some separation with a three by junior Bernie Andre starting a 9-2 run that snapped a 32-32 tie. The run gave NAU a 41-34 lead, but Allen closed the half with consecutive baskets to bring Idaho within three, 41-38, at the half.

After trailing by as much as eight through the first 12 minutes of the second half, the Vandals got within a possession at 56-54 with 7:52 remaining. The Lumberjacks proceeded to go on an 8-0 run with a three by Shelton forcing a Vandal timeout with six minutes left with NAU's lead up to a game-high 64-54.

Idaho had one more run closing once again to two at 67-65 with 2:09 left only for Shelton to score the next four points. Two free throws by junior Cameron Satterwhite – who scored 12 points himself – put NAU up 75-67 with 19 seconds left allowing the Lumberjacks to hang on.

Sophomore Luke Avdalovic was the fourth Lumberjack in double-figures with 10 points. Idaho shot 43.5 percent overall and NAU outrebounded Idaho, 39-33, marking the fourth game in its current win streak in which the 'Jacks held the rebounding advantage.

GAME 20 - FEB. 3, 2020 - FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. EASTERN WASHINGTON 77, NAU 66

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (February 3, 2020) – First-place Eastern Washington put an end to the Northern Arizona men's basketball team's five-game winning streak on Monday, 77-66, in the Walkup Skydome despite a career-high tying 20 points from senior Brooks DeBisschop. With the loss, NAU falls to 12-8 overall and 6-5 in conference play.

"Eastern Washington is a really good basketball team and there's a reason they're in first-place," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We were hoping to limit their three-point shooting tonight and we obviously didn't do that. It's obvious we have to get tougher and a little smarter. We were up 20-15 and we took some bad shots and that's uncharacteristic for us. It's nothing to lose to much sleep about, but we have to get better tomorrow and get ready for our next game."

DeBisschop led the 'Jacks with a stellar all-around stat line of 20 points, seven rebounds, six assists, four steals and a block. In addition to scoring, he tied career-highs in assists and steals while knocking down a career-best three triples.

Junior Bernie Andre came off the bench to score 14 points and grab six boards and sophomore Cameron Shelton tallied his second double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

NAU went into halftime trailing by just four, 34-30, but Eastern Washington came out by scoring 15 of the first 19 points to increase its advantage to 48-35 just three minutes into the second half. The Lumberjacks were never able to recover as they trailed by at least eight points the remainder of the game.

"To be down 34-30 (at halftime), I thought we were in a good spot because we hadn't played very well," Burcar said. "They came out and went on a run. Credit to them they made shots and we didn't make shots to start the (second) half and you have to get off to a good start."

Facing the nation's fifth-highest scoring offense, the Lumberjacks held the Eagles slightly below their season average of 82.2 points per game. However, Eastern Washington made 14 three-pointers – five more than its season average – compared to just six by NAU.

NAU made its first six shots from the field, but only led 14-10 following sophomore Nik Mains' second three-pointer five minutes into the contest. The 'Jacks continued to lead 20-15 at the 9:26 mark of the first half on a layup by Andre before NAU missed its next six shots.

By the time DeBisschop snapped a drought of more than five minutes without a field goal, the Lumberjacks found themselves trailing 27-23 with the Eagles having gone on a 12-3 run. With Eastern Washington's lead up to a first-half high of nine at 34-25, NAU strung together a small run to close the half with a DeBisschop three-pointer and a Shelton jumper to cut the deficit to 34-30.

Despite the momentum, NAU could not close the gap in the second half as the Lumberjacks played from behind for the final 27 minutes of the game. The Eagles' second half opening run proved to be crucial, although the Lumberjacks did trim their game-high 15-point deficit down to eight, 59-51, with 8:50 to play.

The 'Jacks got within eight points on three more occasions before the final horn.

Eastern Washington shot 43.5 percent and outrebounded NAU, 38-34. Using 12 offensive rebounds, the Eagles outscored the Lumberjacks, 15-8, in second chance points.

NAU shot 41.1 percent, but only made 11-of-29 (37.9 percent) after halftime. NAU did tie a season-high with 12 steals with DeBisschop and Shelton combining for seven of them.

The Eagles had four starters in double-figures with Mason Peatling (14 points, 14 rebounds) and Kim Aiken Jr. (15 points, 10 rebounds) recording double-doubles.

GAME 21 - FEB. 6, 2020 - POCATELLO, IDAHO Nau 88, Idaho State 87 (OT)

POCATELLO, Idaho (February 6, 2020) – Sophomore Cameron Shelton sent Thursday's game in Reed Gym into overtime and junior Cameron Satterwhite calmly sank the game-winner with 55.6 seconds left in the extra session as the Northern Arizona men's basketball team edged Idaho State. 88-87.

The Lumberjacks overcame a seven-point deficit, then saw their own 13-point lead evaporate before prevailing on the front end of their week's road trip. Shelton paced all players with 24 points to lead NAU (13-8, 7-5 Big Sky) past Idaho State in yet another nail-biter for the Lumberiacks.

"We were down for the majority of the last minute of the game, but we fought back and that gave us a lot of confidence," Shelton said. "We feel like we didn't play a good game, but we felt if we got a second shot at it, we couldn't blow it."

No two points were bigger for Shelton than his last two of regulation. With Idaho State leading by a pair, junior Bernie Andre pulled down the rebound off the Bengals' missed free throw with 7.5 seconds left, which would have given the home team a three-point lead. Andre hit Shelton on the outlet and Shelton took it coast-to-coast for the game-tying basket with 1.4 seconds left.

Shelton's layup sent the game into overtime tied at 80-80, where Idaho State led 85-84 before Andre intercepted a Bengal pass and once again found Shelton on the fast break. Shelton moved NAU in front, 86-85, with 1:33 left, only for Idaho State to score on its ensuing possession. That set up Satterwhite's eventual game-winner from just inside the arc with under a minute left, putting the Lumberjacks ahead, 88-87.

Idaho State misfired on its next possession and following an NAU miss, the Bengals threw the ball out of the bounds with 6.6 seconds remaining. NAU managed to dribble out the clock, avoiding an Idaho State foul, and sealing the victory in its first overtime game of the season.

"I'm feeling really good; I'm really happy for our guys," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "We were up 13 and before you know it we were down and there were three or four times when you though the game was over for most people. But I knew our guys would battle. We've been talking about toughness and they were pretty tough tonight to pull out the win."

NAU had four players with 15 points or more led by Shelton's 24. Andre tied a season-high with 20 points and Satterwhite scored a career-high 19 points. Senior Brooks DeBisschop rounded out the Lumberjacks' high scorers with 15.

In addition to his game-winner, Satterwhite also tallied a career-high eight rebounds to lead all players. Andre and DeBisschop each pulled down seven boards as the teams were tied on the glass, 31-31.

Both teams were exceptional offensively with the Lumberjacks shooting 54.5 percent for the game. The Bengals shot 49.2 percent.

Idaho State broke an early 6-6 tie with a 9-2 run to take its largest lead of the game, 15-8, seven and a half minutes into the evening. NAU trailed for the next seven minutes until DeBisschop put the Lumberjacks ahead, 27-26, with five minutes to play in the first half.

The Bengals brought it even at 30-30, but a Satterwhite trey started a 7-0 NAU run before the Lumberjacks settled for a 38-35 advantage going into halftime.

Satterwhite and Andre combined for all nine points in a second-half opening 9-1 run that opened up the Lumberjack advantage to 47-36. After the Bengals closed the gap to five, 51-46, the 'Jacks used an 8-0 run capped by a layup by sophomore Luke Avdalovic to snag their largest lead of the game, 59-46, with 13:25 left in regulation.

Idaho State immediately responded with a 16-1 run to surge in front, 62-60, three minutes later. The lead exchanged hands five times all the way until the final minute when Idaho State was clinging to a 79-76 lead with 19 seconds remaining. Andre was fouled and sank both free-bies to make it a one-point game at 79-78.

The Lumberjacks then fouled the Bengals' Austin Smellie with 7.5 seconds on the clock. Smellie only made one-of-two though before Shelton drove the length of the court for the equalizer at the end of regulation.

GAME 22 - FEB. 8, 2020 - OGDEN, UTAH WEBER STATE 76, NAU 70

OGDEN, Utah (February 8, 2020) – The Northern Arizona men's basketball team forged a furious late rally, but a slow start to the second half proved too much to overcome in a 76-70 loss to Weber State on Saturday in the Dee Events Center. Junior Bernie Andre recorded a career-high 24 points in the loss as NAU fell to 13-9 overall and 7-6 in conference play.

"We cannot put ourselves in this situation," said interim head coach Shane Burcar. "I didn't like our shot selection and we could've shared the ball a little better and that's a direct reflection of 24 (first half) points. With our ability and skill that can't happen. We were chasing in the second half and credit to our guys, they didn't given in and that's not who we are."

Andre tied Weber State's Jerrick Harding for game-high honors with 24 points in his second consecutive 20-point outing. Andre shot 10-for-13 from the field and tied a career-high with four three-pointers on seven attempts. He also recorded eight rebounds.

Sophomore Cameron Shelton posted his third double-double and came up three assists shy of a triple-double with 13 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists to go with three steals and two blocks. Senior Brooks DeBisschop also chipped in 13 points along with seven boards and two blocks.

After NAU shot 31 percent in the first half, the Lumberjacks' offense picked up in the second half as they shot 51.6 percent. Facing their largest deficit of the game, 50-31 with 11:51 remaining, the 'Jacks made 13 of their final 22 field goal attempts (59.1 percent) in a near-comeback effort.

Weber State shot 48.3 percent for the game and held off NAU by shooting 57.7 percent after halftime. The Wildcats held the slight rebounding advantage, 34-33, and were plus-eight (36-28) in points in the paint

Andre scored the first two baskets of the game as NAU got out to a 5-0 lead as Weber State misfired on its first six attempts from the deck. The Wildcats quickly found their footing and made their next five shots as they moved ahead 10-9 with 14:14 left in the first half, and they led the remainder of the game.

A three by sophomore Luke Avdalovic brought NAU within 16-14 five minutes later, but Weber State proceeded to go on a 14-5 run to stretch its advantage out to 30-19 with 2:11 remaining before the half. The 'Jacks scored the final five points of the half to eventually go into the locker room trailing 30-24.

While the Lumberjacks were within striking range to start the second half, the Wildcats opened the second half with a 7-0 run. The 'Jacks trimmed the deficit to nine at the 14:29 mark before the Wildcats erupted for a 10-0 surge that put the Lumberjacks in the 19-point hole at 50-31.

NAU made a series of runs to close the gap, first getting to 57-49 with seven minutes to play following a Shelton three-pointer. The Lumberjacks hung around for the next six minutes until junior Cameron Satterwhite cut the eight-point deficit in half with a four-point play. Satterwhite connected on a deep three and was fouled with his ensuing free throw slicing the Weber State lead to just 69-65 with 55.7 seconds remaining.

The Lumberjacks got within four twice more, the last with 8.5 seconds after an Avdalovic triple in transition made it 74-70. Unfortunately, Weber State made 7-of-8 at the free throw line in the final minute to help the Wildcats avenge a 72-64 loss to the 'Jacks in Flagstaff last month.
