2018 Navy Sprint Football at a Glance...

Season in Review

Sprint football finished the year 7-1 overall and 4-0 in the CSFL – South Division. Navy (South Champion) posted a 24-10 victory over rival Army West Point (North Champion) to claim the Collegiate Sprint Football League title in the second annual CSFL Championship game, played at Torne Valley Sports Complex in Hillburn, N.Y.

The Navy sprint football team had 15 different players earn accolades, including seven players named First Team All-CSFL and five named to the second team.

On offense, running back Caleb Champion, offensive lineman Jim Kenneally, and Dane Livengood ('19) were selected to the first team. Defensive lineman Nick Scalise, linebacker Dean Rye ('19), defensive back Grant Hooper, and punter George Skinner ('19) were first-team defensive selections.

Quarterback Braydan Chmiel, defensive lineman Shawn Kluchinsky ('19), defensive lineman Gavin O'Donnell ('19), linebacker Troy Monroe, and defensive back Miles Whitlow ('19) were all selected to the second team. In addition, offensive lineman Reid Kaplan ('19), linebacker Mason Hooten ('19), and linebacker Sheppard Wilson ('19) earned honorable mention accolades.

Sprint opened the season with a 45-7 road victory over Franklin Pierce. For his efforts in the game, kicker Jared Swenson was named Special Teams Player of the Week. Swenson scored nine points, converting six PATs, while adding a field goal.

Despite dropping a 17-14 decision to Army West Point in the annual Star Series Game presented by USAA, linebacker Dean Rye was selected as CSFL Defensive Player of the Week. Rye led the Navy defense against the Black Knights, boasting a game-high 17 tackles, including a game-best 10 solo stops.

Navy rolled over Mansfield in the CSFL-South Division opener, posting a 55-6 victory. Linebacker Troy Monroe and kicker Jared Swenson were selected at the Defensive and Special Teams Players of the Week, respectively. Monroe recorded four tackles, including three solo stops, posting a team-high 3.0 tackles for loss, including a team-best 2.0 sacks. In addition, he forced two fumbles, while also recovering a fumble. Swenson, who picked up his second CSFL honor of the season, scored 17 points. He was a perfect 7-for-7 on extra point attempts, while knocking in a pair of field goals (29 yards, 48 yards).

Navy used a strong second quarter to post a 45-14 victory on the road against Caldwell. Swenson earned his third CSFL Special Teams Player of the Week accolade of the season. Swenson finished the game against Caldwell with nine points, connecting on six extra point opportunities and converting a field goal (41 yards) opportunity.

For the second consecutive week, Navy used a strong second half performance to post a 31-0 victory over Chestnut Hill at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to secure an opportunity for the CSFL South Division Championship. The Midshipmen's defense held the Griffins scoreless and did not allow a first down in the second half, holding the visitors to 31 yards of total offense in the final two quarters.

For the second straight season, Navy played Penn for the CSFL South title. With a chance to go to the CSFL Championship on the line, the Midshipmen posted a 20-9 victory over the Quakers. Quarterback Braydan Chmiel was named the CSFL Offensive Player of the Week. Chmiel finished the game 9-for-14 for 130 yards in the air with a touchdown, while also rushing for 136 yards on 16 carries with a score.

Sprint closed out the regular season with a 38-7 road win against Post. Navy's offense outgained Post, 422-to-250, including a 243-to-93 advantage in the run game. Running back Caleb Champion went over 100 yards in the game, netting 105 rushing yards with a touchdown.

Navy posted a 24-10 victory over rival Army West Point to claim the Collegiate Sprint Football League title in the second annual CSFL Championship game, played at Torne Valley Sports Complex in Hillburn, N.Y. In the game, Navy outgained Army West Point, 361-287, including a 289-16 advantage on the ground. Defensively, the Midshipmen tallied 53 total tackles, including 5.0 tackles for loss, and 3.0 sacks. The defense broke up 12 passes, recorded an interception, and blocked a punt.

Captains

This season, Navy will be led by a pair of senior captains – Troy Monroe and J.T. Thompson. Monroe, a 2018 Second Team All-CSFL selection, will serve as the defensive captain, while Thompson will be the offensive representative.

Navy Sprint Football: The Tradition Continues

Coaching Staff

Major Jason Dewald, USMC

Head Coach // Baldwin Wallace (2007)

Second Season // 7-1 (.875)

Major Jason Dewald, USMC was appointed head coach of the Navy sprint football program during the summer of 2018. Dewald became the 31st head coach in the program's history and took over for Major Jeff Polson, USMC.

"My family and I are excited to join the United States Naval Academy," Dewald said of his appointment. "I would like to thank both the Navy and the Marine Corps for this opportunity. I am honored to be a part of the Navy Sprint Football family and to continue the great tradition that the program was built upon."

In his first season with the sprint football team, Dewald directed the team to the 2018 Collegiate Sprint Football League Championship against rival Army West Point. The Midshipmen avenged a 17-14 loss to the Black Knights early in the season to claim the 2018 Championship. The Mids finished the year 7-1 overall, including a perfect 4-0 mark in the CSFL-South Division. The Navy offense amassed 2,714 yards of total offense, including 1,601 rushing yards and 1,113 passing yards with 17 rushing TDs and an additional 14 passing touchdowns. The Mids outscored opponents 272-70, averaging a 34.00-8.75 victory.

At the conclusion of the season, Navy placed 15 student-athletes on the All-CSFL Team with seven earning first-team distinction. Five were named to the second team, while three earned honorable mention accolades.

Dewald, a native of Mansfield, Ohio, graduated from Baldwin Wallace University in Berea, Ohio in 2007 receiving his bachelor's degree in history. In 2008, he received a commission in the United States Marine Corps. Following completion of The Basic School and Field Artillery Officer Basic Course in 2010, he was assigned to 2D Battalion, 10th Marines Regiment, 2D Marine Division in Camp Lejeune, N.C. where he served as a Guns Platoon Commander for Battery G. From 2011 to 2012, Dewald served as Fire Support Team Leader, Kilo Company, 3rd Battalion, 6th Marines and deployed in support of Operation Enduring Freedom to Marjah, Afghanistan. The following two years (2012-13), he served as the Battalion Assistant Operations Officer, Headquarters Battery Commander, and Assistant Fire Support Coordinator for 3rd Battalion, 10th Marines at Camp Lejeune.

In 2013, Dewald reported to 2D Marine Raider Battalion, Marine Special Operations Command (MARSOC) where he served as the Headquarters and Service Company Commander and Assistant Operations Officer from May 2013 to December 2015. He also attended Expeditionary Warfare School Blended Seminar in Quantico, Virginia during his time in MARSOC.

Dewald received orders in December 2015 to 1st Battalion, 12th Marines Regiment in Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii and severed as the 2D Battalion, 3rd Marines Fire Support Officer and Battery Commander for Battery A until May 2018.

Dewald is a graduate of Martial Arts Instructor Course, Joint Fire Observer Course, Survival Evasion Resistance and Escape (SERE) Full Spectrum Level C Course, SERE 245C Joint Services Program Course, Fire Support Coordination Course and the Expedition Warfare School.

His personal awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal and Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

Dewald played two years of football at Baldwin Wallace on the offensive line. After suffering an injury, he was selected to be a student coach for the junior varsity team for two seasons, serving as the offensive line and co-offensive coordinator for the JV team. During his time as a student coach, the junior varsity team went 13-3.
