Women's Swimming Head Coach John Morrison

16th Season (North Carolina '93)

2007, '08, '10, '12, '15, '16, '19 Patriot League Coach of the Year (W. Swimming)

2012, '14, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19 ECAC Coach of the Year (W. Swimming)

John Morrison is entering his 16th year as the head coach of the Navy women's swimming program, as well as his 20th year of being associated with the team, in the fall of 2019.

Morrison has guided the Mids to an overall record of 138-36 in his 15 seasons, which includes a 61-2 record in regular season meets against Patriot League foes. He has been tabbed as the Patriot League Coach of the Year seven times and has been named the ECAC Coach of the Year on seven occasions.

Over the last 13 years, Navy has posted an overall record of 122-26 — which includes two undefeated seasons and a 53-1 record against Patriot League opponents — with 10 first-place and three second-place finishes at the Patriot League Championship.

Navy has compiled a 45-11 record over the last five seasons — with those losses coming to LSU, Georgia Tech, North Carolina (five) and Penn State (four) — defeated Army West Point for the 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th-straight years, respectively and won five Patriot League titles. The Mids have won 65 of the 90 swimming events contested at the last five Patriot League meets to help them run their streak of consecutive league crowns won to eight in a row.

Navy's current run of success began in 2015 with the Mids posting a 7-3 record during the regular season before winning 13 swimming events at the Patriot League Championship. That was followed by the Mids winning all but one of their 11 dual meets in a season that was capped by their claiming 14 swimming event titles to again earn the 2016 league crown. The team proceeded to notch a 9-2 record during the 2016-17 campaign and again won 14 swimming events at the league championship. Navy posted a 9-2 record during the 2017-18 regular season and won 10 swimming events at the league championship, then tallied a 10-3 record and won 14 events to win the 2019 league title.

The Mids also put together a number of other memorable seasons during Morrison's initial eight seasons. Navy earned Patriot League team titles in 2007, '10, '12, '13 and '14, with the Mids tallying double-digit victory totals in six seasons and undefeated campaigns in both 2008-09 and 2010-11.

In addition to success on the Patriot League level, the Mids also placed first at the 2012, '14, '17, '18 and '19 ECAC Championships, with second-place finishes coming in 2015 and '16.

Individually, a Navy swimmer has earned at least a share of 12 league swimmer-of-the-year accolades during Morrison's 15 years, while the Mids have won a league-best 151 swimming event titles at the Patriot League Championship — the remainder of the league has won 122 event titles — under his guidance.

The program also has made strides at national events during Morrison's tenure. Navy swimmers are regular participants in U.S. Swimming meets such as the USA Short Course National Championship, ConocoPhillips National Championship and the World Championship Trials. The 2008 season saw Thuy-Mi Dinh become the first women's swimmer in league history to attain an 'A' cut qualifying time for the NCAA Championship, then she and Tara Chapmon advanced to the national meet in both 2009 and '10. Laura Gorinski competed in a trio of individual events at the NCAA Championship when she did so in the 2012 edition of the meet. Lauren Barber then became the first freshman women's swimmer in school and league history to qualify for the NCAA Division I Championship when she was invited to compete at the 2016 edition of the national meet. Barber would also compete in three events at the 2018 and '19 NCAA Championship. It was at her final

"We want our swimmers and divers to attain success both in the pool and in the classroom. Continuing to have success during our regular season, at the Patriot League Championship and striving to be competitive at the NCAA Championship will always be key foundations of our program, as is having both individuals and the team garner academic recognition. But we as coaches are here to do more than that.

"Developing a person away from the pool and fostering a sense of family within the team are also very important to us. The U.S. Naval Academy is known for producing great leaders, and we want the women's swimming and diving program to reflect that, as well. Additionally, being a member of our program should be a fun and enjoyable experience. We want the relationships and memories developed as a member of our team to last a lifetime." – John Morrison championship when she became the first Navy and Patriot League Division I swimmer to earn Honorable Mention All-America accolades.

The Mids also have been well represented at the U.S. Olympic Team Trials during the Morrison era. Most recently, Barber, Ellen Bradford, Dinh, Kenzie Margroum and Charlotte Meyer all qualified for the 2016 selection meet, while a trio of Mids took to the pool at the 2012 event.

In addition to the team's success in the water, the program under Morrison has been regularly recognized as an Academic All-America Team by the College Swimming Coaches Association of America and has accounted for 179 placings on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll over the last 15 seasons. These recipients include Kelly Zahalka, Gorinski and Bradford, all of whom have not only been selected as the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year for their sport, but also earned Academic All-America accolades.

Morrison's hiring in 2004 returned him to The Yard where he served as an assistant coach to Dick Purdy for four seasons beginning in the fall of 1993. The Purdy-Morrison duo coached the Mids to a 33-14 record and to league titles during each of its four years together.

After leaving Navy following the 1996-97 school year, Morrison served as a volunteer assistant men's coach at Tennessee during the 1997-98 season in which the Volunteers placed fourth at the NCAA Championship, followed by one year as an assistant at Rutgers. After serving as the head coach and aquatics director at the Ocean County YMCA in his hometown of Toms River, N.J., for two years starting in 1999, he was named as the head swimming coach at Lehigh in 2001. Morrison coached the program to a combined 31-27 record during his three seasons there, a period highlighted by the men's team winning the 2002 Patriot League title.

A successful athlete in his own right, Morrison earned four letters in swimming and in golf while a student-athlete at Toms River High School and was selected as a member of the school's inaugural Hall of Fame class in the spring of 2004. He would go on to earn four letters in swimming at North Carolina, helping the Tar Heels win a pair of Atlantic Coast Conference titles in the process.

Morrison would enter the coaching ranks in 1991 as an assistant swimming coach at Washington & Lee where he helped coach four NCAA Division III All-Americans. He also assisted with the school's 1992 water polo team that won the Division III Eastern Championship and served as the interim golf coach.

Men's Swimming Head Coach Bill Roberts

17th Season (Springfield College '92)

2004, '05, '09, '11, '12, '14, '15, '16, '18, '19 Patriot League Coach of the Year (M. Swimming)

2009, '10, '11, '12, '14, '15, '16, '18, '19 ECAC Coach of the Year (M. Swimming)

Bill Roberts enters his 17th season as the head coach of the Navy men's swimming team and his 20th year as part of the program's coaching staff in the fall of 2019.

Roberts has led the Mids to the Patriot League title in each of his 16 seasons on The Yard. Navy has tallied 188 swimming event crowns at the meet over this time, with the remainder of the league winning a combined 99 event titles. He has been tabbed as the league's coach of the year 10 times.

In addition to the team's success at the Patriot League Championship, Navy also has won 10 ECAC Championship crowns in the last 11 seasons. Roberts has been named as the ECAC Coach of the Year following all nine of those team titles.

Navy also has been successful during the regular season under Roberts. The Mids have posted double figure win totals in 10 of his 16 seasons, have compiled an overall record of 169-57 and are 59-1 against Patriot League competition. Seventeen of Navy's 23 losses over the last seven seasons (61-26 in all, 26-1 against league foes) have come to nationally-ranked foes such as North Carolina, Virginia and Penn State, with three defeats coming to Princeton, two to Columbia and one to LSU.

Navy has posted a regular season record of 41-10 over the last four seasons, which includes a 16-0 record against league foes. The 2016 season saw the Mids compile a 12-1 record, with that lone loss coming to North Carolina, while the Tar Heels, Penn State and Columbia accounted for the only setbacks during a 9-3 season in 2017. Navy then posted a 9-3 record in 2018, with the losses coming to North Carolina, Princeton (151.5-148.5) and Columbia (151-149). The Mids tallied an 11-3 record during the 2018-19 campaign, with one of those losses being a four-point setback at Princeton.

Additional memorable campaigns for the Mids under Roberts include 2012 when Navy defeated both Penn State and Virginia before becoming the first team in league history to win all 18 swimming events at the league championship, and 2011 when Navy became the first team to defeat Princeton in the two-decade existence of DeNunzio Pool.

With the success of the overall program, Navy also has consistently qualified individual athletes for national meets under Roberts. The program returned to the NCAA Championship Meet for the first time in nearly a decade during his inaugural season of 2004, with four swimmers competing in a combined six individual events at the national meet — which included Noah White's 'A' cut time in the 50 free — and earning Honorable Mention All-America certificates in a pair of relay events.

Navy again sent multiple swimmers to the 2009 NCAA Championship, with both Adam Meyer and Erik Hunter competing in a trio of events. Meyer would join the illustrious list of Navy swimmers to have garnered All-America accolades when he received Honorable Mention All-America honors that year. He then duplicated his efforts in 2010 to become the first Navy swimmer in 40 years to garner multiple All-America accolades in a career. Meyer's brother, Mark, joined Justin Vagts in competing at the 2011 NCAA Championship.

Included among the program's seven competitors at the 2014 NCAA Championship was Tom Duvall, who advanced to the championship final in the 500 free that year to bring another All-America accolade back to The Yard. Duvall also competed in three events at the 2016 meet, which made him just the second Navy swimmer in over three decades to have qualified for multiple NCAA Championships.

"The goal of our program is to provide an outstanding environment that allows every team member to reach their academic, athletic, and overall personal potential. We desire to be thought of as the premier service academy for those who want to: 1). Serve their country, 2). Receive an outstanding education, and 3). Compete at a high collegiate level in swimming and diving. Additionally, we expect to compete annually for a conference team championship while also sending individual athletes to NCAA, U.S. Swimming and Olympic Trial meets."

– Bill Roberts

Most recently, Marlin Brutkiewicz closed his four-year career by swimming in three events at the 2017 NCAA Championship.

Additionally during the Roberts era, Navy swimmers have annually taken part in national meets such as the World Championship Trials, the World Military Games, the ConocoPhillips National Championship, the USA Swimming Spring Championship and Arena Grand Prix meets.

Mids also are regular competitors at the U.S. Olympic Trials. Navy qualified six swimmers for the 2016 edition of the meet after having qualified 13 for the 2012 trials and three for the 2008 meet.

Success has also been achieved by the men's swimming and diving team in the classroom under Roberts. Mids have 218 earned Patriot League Academic Honor Roll accolades over the last 16 years, and the team as a whole has been recognized multiple times as an Academic All-America Team by the College Swimming Coaches Association of America. In 2017, Ryan Bailey was tabbed as the Patriot League Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year, earned a second Academic All-America nod and garnered an NCAA Post Graduate Scholarship. Also, Zach Piedt, a 2019 graduate, was named the league's scholar-athlete of the year for his sport in each of his final two seasons.

Roberts first arrived at Navy during the summer of 1997 when he joined Lee Lawrence's coaching staff as an assistant coach. In three seasons together the Lawrence-Roberts duo guided Navy to a 27-10 record, including an 18-9 mark in the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League. Roberts coached Navy's 200 freestyle relay team that won the 1999 EISL title, and helped develop sprinter Clint Cornell to a 2000 Olympic Trials appearance and to the 2001 EISL 50-yard freestyle title.

A 1992 graduate of Springfield College, where he was a four-year letterwinner and served as team captain for two seasons, Roberts began his coaching career upon graduation as the head coach of the women's team at Wells College in his hometown of Aurora, N.Y. After two seasons at Wells, he served as a graduate assistant coach at East Carolina, where he also earned a master's degree in athletic administration. In the summer of 1996, he joined the Villanova program for one year before coming to the Naval Academy.

Roberts left Navy in 2000 to become the head coach at Colgate, during which time his men's and women's teams combined to post a three-year record of 39-36.

Roberts and his wife, Nicole, have three sons — Will, a junior on the Michigan swimming team and high school-aged Nick and Jackson.

Diving Coach Rich MacDonald

Seventh Season (Rhode Island '97)

2014, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19 Patriot League Coach of the Year (M&W Diving)

Rich MacDonald begins his seventh season as Navy's men's and women's diving coach in the fall of 2019.

The six-time Patriot League Coach of the Year has guided his Mids to 17 event titles at the Patriot League Championship in his short time on The Yard. The remainder of the league has combined to win seven boards during the MacDonald era.

MacDonald guided his team to one of the best seasons in program history during the 2018-19 season as the Mids swept all four boards at the Patriot League Championship. Additionally, Meghan Gerdes and Hannah Montau advanced to the NCAA Championship meet. It was the first time a Patriot League team sent a pair of divers to the women's Division I championship. Bradley Buchter and Jake Hedrick also qualified for the men's national championship. It was the first time since 1996 and the fourth time in Navy history in which two Mids competed at the men's meet. Also, Buchter earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in the one-meter event. He became the first Mid to earn the accolade since 1996.

The 2018 season saw his charges combine to win three boards, claim 10 berths in the championship final over the course of the four events and score three Mids on each board. Buchter would be named the league's men's diver of the year after he swept the two springboard events and Gerdes won the three-meter board on the women's side of the competition. Buchter, Gerdes, Nate Belch, Patrick Carter and Hedrick all competed at the NCAA Zone A Diving Championship. Buchter would go on to compete at the NCAA Championship in both springboard events.

The 2018 season followed another memorable 2017 Patriot League Championship as the Mids accounted for eight berths in a championship final of an event. This included Buchter sweeping both boards to be tabbed as the league's diver of the year. Buchter, Belch, Nash Nickerson and Madison Keiser all advanced to the 2017 NCAA Zone 'A' Championship, with Buchter also qualifying for the NCAA Championship in each of his three events.

MacDonald's inaugural 2013-14 season was a successful one as his nine divers entered into the Patriot League Championship combined to score points in 17 of their 18 events and compiled 12 berths in the championship finals of the four events. Individually, Wil Mayo won both boards to be tabbed as the Patriot League Men's Diver of the Year, while MacDonald himself was selected as the league's diving coach of the year. Additionally, Mayo, Ben Freedman and D.J. Principato qualified for the NCAA Zone 'A' Championship.

That success continued in his second season as his six divers scored points in all 18 of their respective events, which led to MacDonald again being named as the league's coach of the year. Individually, Belch won both boards at the Patriot League Championship to be tabbed as the league's diver of the year, Joe Esposito was the runner-up on the three meter, Julie Jesse won the league's one-meter board and Amanda Zerphy placed second on the three meter. Additionally, each of those four divers competed at the 2015 NCAA Zone 'A' Diving Championship.

Navy's divers had another successful season in 2015-16. On the men's side, freshman Joe Kaszubowski was tabbed as the diver of the year in the league after winning the three meter and finishing in second place on the one meter, with Belch claiming the one-meter title and placing second on the three meter. Jesse was selected as the women's diver of the year in the league after she won the three-meter board and placed third in the one-meter competition. Kaszubowski (three events), Jesse (two events), Belch (two events) and Love (two events) all competed at the NCAA Zone 'A' Diving Championship, with Kaszubowski advancing to the NCAA Championship in the platform diving event.

MacDonald arrived at Navy in the summer of 2013 after having served as the head diving coach at Virginia for the previous four seasons. One of his divers advanced to the NCAA Championship in each of his last two seasons. Briggly Imbriglia placed 13th on the platform at the 2012 national championship while J.B. Kolod placed 12th on the three meter — the highest finish in an event by a Virginia diver at the meet in school history — in 2013. The two are the lone Virginia divers to have earned NCAA All-America recognition.

Additionally, a minimum of three Virginia divers qualified for the NCAA Zone Championship meet in each of his four years, with all nine of his divers advancing to the 2013 event. Virginia swept the men's and women's Atlantic Coast Conference swimming and diving team titles and recorded a combined seven top-20 showings in the final team standings at the respective NCAA Championship meets during MacDonald's four-year stint.

A 1997 graduate of Rhode Island, MacDonald began serving as the diving coach at his alma mater immediately upon his graduating from the school. He would coach a pair of conference champions and three NCAA Zone Championship meet qualifiers in his three seasons at Rhode Island.

MacDonald then became the first full-time diving coach in East Carolina history when he accepted the position in 2000. He guided at least one diver to the NCAA Zone Championship meet in all but one of his nine seasons at the school. Additionally, MacDonald's divers broke every school diving record during his stint at the school, he saw eight of his divers final in multiple events at the conference championship and he coached Christie Icenhower to the 2005 Conference USA Freshman Diver-of-the-Year award.

In addition to his 19 years of coaching on the collegiate level, MacDonald has also spent considerable time coaching on the club level. This includes six years at the Fort Washington Swim Club in his hometown of Fort Washington, Pa., nine years at the Emerald City Dive Club in Greenville, N.C., and four years as the founder, owner and head coach of the Wahoo Diving Club in Charlottesville, Va.

MacDonald is currently serving on the NCAA Diving Rules Committee.

MacDonald and his wife, Christie, are the parents of son Bryan, who will turn five in early 2020, and daughter Madison, who will celebrate her third birthday on Christmas Day.

Women's Swimming Assoc. Head Coach

Rob Lias
14th Season
(Mount Union '00)

Rob Lias returns for his 14th season as the associate head coach with the Navy women's swimming program in the fall of 2019.

A full-time member of the coaching staff, Lias has been an integral part of Navy's regular season and postseason success over the years. The Mids have compiled a 122-26 regular season record during Lias' time on The Yard, while winning 10 Patriot League title and placing second at the meet on three occasions in his 13 years.

Lias himself was selected as a 2012 Honorable Mention Assistant Coach of the Year by CollegeSwimming.com.

Additionally, Lias served as the stroke coach for 2008 and '16 U.S. Olympic Trials competitor and three-time NCAA Championship qualifier Thuy-Mi Dinh.

Lias, who serves as Navy's recruiting coordinator and designs the team's dryland and strength program, came to Navy after two seasons as a graduate assistant coach for the men's and women's programs at Auburn. After the men's team won the NCAA championship during his initial 2004-05 season, both teams claimed national titles during his final year at the school.

He began his coaching career during the summer of 2002 when he served as a volunteer assistant coach at New Paltz High School. After one season on the prep level, he moved on to the collegiate ranks as an assistant at Mount Union College.

A 2000 graduate of Mount Union, Lias was a four-year letterwinner for the Raiders and served as the team captain during his senior year. He earned his way onto All-Ohio Athletic Conference teams 13 times during his career, won a pair of individual event conference titles (1999 in the 100 and 200 breaststroke events) and was named as the team MVP during his junior and senior years.

In addition to his coaching experience, Lias also has run technique based swimming camps across the country through Total Immersion Swimming, Inc.

Lias and his wife, Courtney, have sons, Cameron, who will turn seven in October, and Grady, who will turn five in December.

Men's Swimming Assistant Coach

Mark Liscinsky
Seventh Season
(American '04)

Mark Liscinsky begins his seventh season as an assistant coach with the Navy men's swimming team in the fall of 2019.

The Mids have won both the Patriot League and ECAC championship meets during his each of his seven years on The Yard, while also compiling a 61-26 record during the regular season.

Liscinsky spent the previous seven seasons as the head assistant coach for the American men's and women's teams. Serving as the sprint group coach for the overall program, his swimmers set seven school records — men: 50 free, 100 back; women: 50 free, 100 free, 100 breast, 200 medley relay, 400 medley relay — and won four event titles at the Patriot League Championship.

In addition to his work at American, Liscinsky also served as the head coach of the Washington Golf and Country Club team for six summers (2007-12). His teams won a trio of (Washington, D.C.) Country Club Swim & Dive Association titles — 2009 (undefeated record, first title in 50 years), 2010 (undefeated record) and 2012 — and placed second once over his final four seasons.

A 2004 graduate of American himself, Liscinsky was a highly decorated swimmer in his own right. He set school records in five events — four of which remain American records — and was tabbed as the Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Year in 2000 and as the Patriot League Swimmer of the Year in 2002 and 2003. Liscinsky totaled 10 CAA Championship meet event titles (five individual event, five relay event) as a freshman and sophomore before adding 12 Patriot League Championship meet titles (six individual event, six relay event) as a junior and senior. A versatile swimmer, he won titles in five different individual events (100/200 back, 200/400 IM, 200 free) and in five different relay events (200/400/800 free, 200/400 medley). Additionally, despite competing in the Patriot League for only two seasons, his 12 combined titles at the meet ranked fourth in league history at the end of his career and, more than a decade later, still ranks sixth all time.

Liscinsky was named to the Patriot League Silver Anniversary Team in the summer of 2015. The squad recognized the top-25 athletes from the sport's 25-year history of the league.

On the national stage, Liscinsky competed in the NCAA Championship Meet as a senior, was a finalist in multiple events at the U.S. Senior Nationals, qualified for three U.S. Olympic Team Trials and was a member of the U.S. team that took part in the 2003 World University Games.

Liscinsky and wife, Kate, are the parents of Sam, age eight, and Maggie, who will celebrate her sixth birthday in November.

NAAA Major Award Winners

Each year during the Prizes and Awards presentation held during Commissioning Week, the Naval Academy Athletic Association announces the recipients of its major awards for that year. These awards are the highest form of recognition the NAAA can bestow upon a student-athlete. The list of past winners includes some of the most memorable and decorated Midshipmen in Navy athletic history. Following are the members of the swimming and diving programs who have garnered these prestigious awards over the years.

LEJEUNE HALL

Opened in 1982 at a cost of $13.5 million, Lejeune Hall was the first building at the Naval Academy to be named for a Marine Corps officer. Although the building is completely modern in conception and materials, its regularly placed columns and raised roof area compliment the traditional turn of the century French Renaissance style campus with its vocabulary of granite walls and mansard roofs. The facility provides the U.S. Naval Academy with one of the world's finest facilities for all competitive swimming, diving and water polo events in intercollegiate, U.S. Swimming and Diving and Olympic categories.

LT. GEN. JOHN ARCHER LEJEUNE, USMC

Navy's swimming and wrestling complex is named after the 13th Commandant of the Marine Corps, Lieutenant General John Archer Lejeune, a member of the Naval Academy Class of 1888. He served more than 45 years in uniform, fought in World War I and completed nearly three terms as Commandant of the Marine Corps until retirement in 1929.

POOL

The large pool is 25 meters-by-50 meters with an eight-foot depth. A movable bulkhead enables the team to train at any distance. The bulkhead may be moved to the end of the pool and hoisted out of the water to storage in the ceiling for 50 meter competition. The pool provides 23 25-meter short course lanes or 10 50-meter long course lanes.

Deep water, wide lanes and the latest gutter technology available makes the Lejeune Pool one of the fastest competitive facilities in existence.

2012 RENOVATION

The pool underwent a nearly $11 million renovation in the fall of 2012. Included among the list of upgrades to the facility were: installed a Daktronics 10mm video board display and swim / dive scoring system; replaced pool filtration, circulation, and chlorination systems; replaced all tile in the pools and on pool decks; replaced HVAC system; repainted the walls; replaced the movable bulkhead in the lap pool and replaced the glazed glass in both skylights.

DIVING

The diving well also saw extensive renovations to it take place in the summer of 2009 season as the building's original diving tower was torn down and replaced by a new one. The over $1 million project featured new 1 and 3-meter springboard areas, as well as the construction of new 5, 7.5 and 10-meter platform areas. Over 100-yards of concrete form the new cantilevered tower, with glass handrails connecting walkways to each of the diving sections. The diving pool is 60-feet-by-52-feet with depths varying from 14-17 feet. There is a powerful bubbler system under each level and a trampoline-dry land board port-a-pit apparatus located on the pool deck to assist in training. In addition, the diving wall has three underwater observation windows.

SEATING

The gallery around the pool seats 1,000 spectators in comfortable armchair seats. The spectator galleries are in close proximity to the swimming and diving pools which provides for exciting competition.

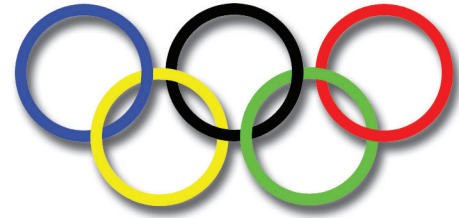

LIGHTING

Swimming and diving pools are illuminated with bright overhead lights that provide 100-foot candle power at water surface. Two large sky-lights supplement lighting and add to the aesthetic beauty of Lejeune Hall. The diving wall has three underwater observation windows and underwater speakers.

COMPETITOR'S FACILITIES

Facilities for athletes include separate entrance, locker rooms, showers, three saunas, large classroom, team locker rooms and a fully-equipped first aid/training room.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP MEETS

Lejeune Hall will play host to the 2020 Patriot League swimming & diving championship. It will be the league-best 12th time the event has been held in the venue. The facility also has played host to the ECAC Championship in 2012, '14, '16, '17 and '19 and will again in 2020.

OLYMPIANS AND LEJEUNE HALL

In addition to serving as the home facility for the U.S. Naval Academy swimming and water polo teams, Lejeune Hall also has been the host site for many other prominent aquatic competitions over its quarter-century history. Even a snapshot of Olympians, world champions and world record holders who have taken to the waters of the building is an impressive one.

- Four-time Olympic Gold Medalist Greg Louganis and two-time Olympic medalist Kelly McCormick established Lejeune Hall diving records that still stand today. The entire U.S. Diving team also competed in meets in Lejeune Hall prior to the 1988 and 1992 Olympic Games.
- Michael Phelps twice broke the American record in the 200 fly while competing in Lejeune Hall.
- Both Liz Pelton (three-time World Champion) and Katie Hoff (2004 & '08 Olympian, '05 & '07 World Champion) established new American records in Lejeune Hall. Pelton first broke the 200 back record in the facility, with Hoff setting new national standards in the 500 free, 1000 free, 1650 free and 400 IM events.
- Like Phelps, Kate Ziegler (2007 World Champion, 2008 & '12 Olympian), Allison Schmitt (2008, '12 & '16 Olympian) and Brad Schumacher (1996 Olympic Gold Medalist in swimming and '04 Olympian with water polo team) also have made frequent – and memorable – visits to The Yard.

Patriot League

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola Maryland and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2018-19 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

- ★ 91 Patriot League teams (46.7 percent of League teams) earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR), with 80 squads earning perfect scores.
- ★ The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in Public Recognition Awards, and also placing second behind only the Ivy League for the highest percentage of teams earning the honor at 46.7 percent.
- ★ The League's 96 percent graduation success rate (GSR) is the second-best mark in the nation, finishing in the top-two in each year since the rating has been released in 2013. All 10 member schools were at 90 percent or higher, each exceeding the record-high national GSR of 88 percent. In addition the League's 84 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) places it as the national leader for the sixth-consecutive year.
- ★ 12 student-athletes earned Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition, including first-team accolades for Army West Point's Lynne Mooradian (Women's Track & Field), Benjamin Petrella (Men's Track & Field), Bucknell's Jeff Gottesman (Baseball), Lafayette's Andrew Chuma and Trent Crossan (Football) and Navy's Sydney Fortson (Women's Soccer), Zach Piedt (Swimming), Stefano Pineda (Track & Field) and Anne Richter (Women's Lacrosse). Second-team honorees include Army West Point's Anthony Giachin (Baseball) and Navy's Patricia Mattingly (Volleyball) with third-team recipient Conor Gaffney of Lehigh (Men's Lacrosse).
- ★ 41 Patriot League student-athletes received Google Cloud/CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.
- ★ There were a Patriot League record 3,123 student-athletes named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2018-19, besting the previous record, set in 2017-18, by 112 members.
- ★ Lehigh's Sam Benchehib (Men's Tennis) and Navy's Anne Richter (Women's Lacrosse) were named the League's Sportsmanship Award winners.
- ★ Loyola Maryland's Pat Spencer (Men's Lacrosse) became the second Patriot League student-athlete to win the Tewaaron Award (nation's top men's lacrosse player). He was also a finalist in 2017 and 2018. He joins Colgate's Peter Baum (2012) as the only Patriot League Tewaaron Award winner
- ★ Navy won the Patriot League Presidents' Cup for the sixth-straight time and seventh in the last eight years. Army West Point won the men's standings with a record 77 points, while Boston University topped the women's standings.
- ★ Navy and Loyola Maryland both qualified for the 2019 NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championships, marking the second time in as many years the League received two bids to the tournament. The Mids and Greyhounds both won their first-round matchups.
- ★ Five Patriot League student-athletes were members of the Senior CLASS Award teams; men's lacrosse - Johnny Surdick (Army West Point, 1st team), Craig Chick (Lehigh, 1st), Pat Spencer (Loyola Maryland, 2nd) and Jacob Stover (Loyola Maryland, 2nd) and men's soccer - Mark Forrest (Lehigh, 1st).
- ★ The Patriot League had five student-athletes selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with Lehigh's Levi Stoudt (97th overall) and Navy's Noah Song (137th overall) being selected on the second day. The 2019 draft marks the first time that two Patriot Leaguers were selected in the top-200.
- ★ Eight Patriot Leaguers were selected in the Major League Lacrosse (MLL) Draft, with four in the top-20, including Loyola Maryland's Pat Spencer, Navy's Grayson Torain, Lehigh's Craig Chick and Army West Point's Johnny Surdick. Three League student-athletes were picked in the inaugural Premier Lacrosse League (PLL) Draft, with Spencer taken with the first-overall selection. Loyola Maryland's Taylor VanThof and Lindsey Ehrhardt were picked in the 2019 Women's Professional Lacrosse League (WPLL) First-Year Player Draft and Lehigh forward Mark Forrest was taken in the Major League Soccer (MLS) SuperDraft.
