COACHING STAFF

Paco Labrador
Fifth Season

Head Coach
Hiram '95

Paco Labrador enters his fifth season as the head coach of the Navy volleyball team in the fall of 2022. He has compiled a 57-36 overall record in his four seasons at Navy and has posted a 512-107 record in his 19 seasons as a head coach. He is tied for 10th place among active head coaches and tied for 17th all-time across all NCAA divisions with a career winning percentage of .827.

Navy advanced to the semifinal round of the Patriot League Tournament in 2021. It was the third time in Labrador's three non-COVID impacted seasons as the head coach in which the Mids made at least the semifinal round of the tournament. The Mids additionally became the first Navy team to win a set from a nationally-ranked team when they did so against No. 23 Michigan, were the lone Patriot League team to register a sweep of eventual league-champion Colgate and won two matches at Army including the program's second road sweep of the Black Knights.

His first season at the helm of the program was one for Navy's record book. The 2018 Mids tied the program record for the most wins in a Division I season with a 23-9 mark, shared the regular season title in the Patriot League for the second time with a 13-3 record, advanced to the championship match of the Patriot League Tournament for the fourth time and won the event for the first time. The victory in the league tournament final propelled Navy into the NCAA Tournament for the first time as a Division I program.

Despite the loss of more than half of the 2018 starting lineup, six of the 12 letter winners and the school's Division I career record holders in assists, blocks and digs, Navy posted a 17-12 overall record in 2019 and tied for third place in the Patriot League regular season with a record of 11-5. The Mids also advanced to the semifinal round of the league tournament.

Labrador arrived at Navy in the summer of 2019 after guiding Wittenberg (NCAA Division III) to the 2011 NCAA Championship, two additional trips to the national championship match (2015, 2017) and a 455-71 record over his 15 seasons at the school.

Included among Wittenberg's successes over his last decade and a half at the school were the Tigers winning at least 25 matches in 14 seasons with a minimum of 30 victories coming in seven years, compiling a 162-2 record (98.8%) in the North Coast Athletic Conference's regular season and posting a 35-1 record (97.2%) in winning 14 NCAC Tournaments. Wittenberg also appeared in 15 NCAA Tournaments, was ranked among the top-10 teams in the final national ranking 13 times and attained a ranking of no lower than third on six occasions. This span includes the Tigers being the nation's top-ranked team in 2011 and the No. 2 team in the country in both 2015 and '17.

Labrador was tabbed as the 2011 American Volleyball Coaches Association Division III National Coach of the Year, received a pair of AVCA Great Lakes Region Division III Coach-of-the-Year accolades and was an eight-time recipient of the NCAC Coach-of-the-Year laurel.

His Wittenberg players earned 32 All-America awards, 38 all-region honors, 10 NCAC Player-of-the-Year nods, 61 all-conference certificates, one NCAA Elite 90 Award and five College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-America accolades. He was announced as a 2022 inductee into Wittenberg's Athletics Hall of Honor.

A 1995 graduate of Hiram College (Hiram, Ohio) with bachelor degrees in both psychology and exercise / sport science, Labrador began his coaching career as a student assistant coach for the school's women's volleyball team. He also founded Hiram's men's club volleyball team while attending the school. He then served as a volunteer coach at Miami (Ohio) for two years (1995 and '96 seasons) while he worked toward and attained a Master of Science in Sports Studies at the school. Labrador would go on to be a volunteer assistant coach with the Maryland women's team during the 1997-98 academic year before returning to Miami University in August 1999 as a full-time member of the program's coaching staff. He would remain at the Oxford, Ohio, school for four seasons until accepting the head coach position at Wittenberg in May 2003.

Labrador was inducted into the Miami (Ohio) Cradle of Coaches Association, which honors graduates of the school who went on to attain coaching success (Ara Parseghian, Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and John Harbaugh are among the other honored coaches), in 2016.

Paco and his wife, Jill, are the parents of two daughters, Olivia and Isabel.

COACHING STAFF

Taylor van der Biezen
Second Season

Assistant Coach
Wittenberg '18

Taylor van der Biezen enters her second season as a member of the Navy coaching staff in the fall of 2022 and first as a full-time assistant to head coach Paco Labrador. She served as the team's volunteer assistant coach during the 2021 campaign that ended with the Mids advancing to the semifinal round of the Patriot League Tournament.

The native of Ashburn, Va., attended Briar Woods High School where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team and a member of the National Honor Society and the Spanish Honor Society. Van der Biezen went on to attend Marist where she totaled 2,758 career assists (fifth at Marist) and 111 aces (eighth at Marist), was a two-time team MVP and served as a captain of the Red Foxes as a senior. A three-time academic all-conference honoree and a four-year member of the Dean's List, she graduated with honors in 2019 after she earned a degree in finance, minored in Spanish and attained a paralegal certificate.

She would serve as a graduate assistant coach with the Bryant women's team for the 2019 fall and 2021 spring seasons, while also being the head coach of the school's men's club team in the spring of 2020. Van der Biezen also attained a Master of Business Administration degree while at Bryant.

Josie Andres
First Season

Assistant Coach
Ohio Northern '19

Josie Andres begins her first season as a member of the Navy coaching staff in the fall of 2022.

Andres arrives at Navy after a two-year stint as a member of the coaching staff at Otterbein. The Cardinals compiled an overall record of 43-9 and national (NCAA DIII) rankings of 13th and 15th, respectively, in her two seasons at the school. In addition to being an assistant coach for the Cardinals, she also served as an interim head coach for the team during stretches of the 2020-21 season which ended with Otterbein posting an 18-3 record, placing second in the Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) regular season and winning the conference tournament. Last season, the Cardinals compiled a 25-6 overall record, again reached the title game of the OAC tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16 round of the NCAA Tournament.

The native of Sunman, Ind., began her collegiate career at Mount St. Joseph's where she played during the 2015 and '16 seasons. She then transferred to Ohio Northern for the next two years and served as the team captain in 2018. The outside hitter appeared in 55 matches as the Polar Bears posted an overall record of 51-14, shared a pair of OAC regular season titles, won the conference tournament crown as a senior and played in both the 2017 (Sweet 16) and 2018 (first round) NCAA Tournaments.

Andres earned an undergraduate degree in sport management from Ohio Northern in 2019 and an MBA from Otterbein in 2022.

Kristen Dickmann Invitational

The 2021 season marked the 10th year in which Navy's fall tournament was played in honor of Kristen Dickmann. A staple of Navy's schedule since the beginning of the program, the tournament was named the Kristen Dickmann Invitational starting with the 2010 campaign.

The Kennet Square, Pa., native attended Unionville High School where she earned four letters as a member of the school's volleyball team and served as the captain of the team during her senior season. In addition to garnering all-league accolades in the sport as a junior, Dickmann also earned all-league, all-area and all-state laurels as a senior.

Kristen was one of only two freshmen to make the final roster for the volleyball team in 2007. She appeared in 10 matches as a defensive specialist, but saw her role grow larger during the spring season to where she was considered the front runner to be Navy's starting libero that fall.

One of the team's highlights from that spring season was a match against Juniata — coached by future Navy head coach Larry Bock — which featured Kristen playing against her sister, Cassie, then a junior for the Lady Eagles. After Kristen provided Navy with the pre-match player-by-player scouting report on Juniata, Cassie was overheard imploring her teammates during the match to, "Stop tipping to my sister! She knows where you are hitting!"

A lover of math who selected physics as her major, her career goal was to fly the C-2 Greyhound plane which is used to delivery mail for the Navy because, as she put it, "Everyone likes to get mail." The only military criticisms of Kristen during her freshman year were for "smiling too much."

Kristen unexpectedly passed away in her dorm room in Bancroft Hall in May 2008, three weeks after turning 19 years old.

Following are some memories of Kristen from her teammates:

Mike Schwob (then Navy head coach)

"Even though she was just a freshman, we put her out in front with many of our recruits this year. She was so upbeat about volleyball and the Naval Academy. We trusted her to be in the position of being the face of Navy volleyball."

"I never saw a day when Kristen was not smiling. Even with all of the difficulties of plebe year at the Naval Academy, she always found something to smile about. That says a lot about her personality."

Aimee Burns

"Kristen always gave words of encouragement to everyone. Even if you felt as if you had just played the worst game ever, she found something good in the match and it helped picked us up. I took her words to heart and it meant a lot. Even though she didn't play much this year, her encouragement was a major contribution to the team."

Lindi Conner

"Kristen would always play to us about how she was not nervous about things, like grades, but she worked very hard at everything she did and that helped her perform at a high level. She always seemed so happy and so free."

Jessie Sims

"From the first day, Kristen never seemed nervous about being a plebe at Navy or on the team. Even though she didn't see that much playing time this fall, she never complained about anything and was a really important part of the team. I think she took more volleyballs to the face than anyone because she would dive on the ground constantly in an effort to make a play."

Aubrey Manes

"I was Kristen's host when she was a recruit and I remember liking her from the beginning for her wit, all the while noting her sense of confidence in life that she radiated."

Jenny Rudewicz

"Kristen always lit up the room with her smile and she always had a story to tell. No matter how bad your day was she could always cheer you up with a funny story. She was always so positive and so smart, always caring about everyone. She loved life and lived every day to its fullest. The world has lost a little bit of sunshine. I will miss her."

2022 NAVY VOLLEYBALL

WESLEY A. BROWN FIELD HOUSE

The Wesley A. Brown Field House will once again be the primary practice and playing facility for the Navy volleyball team.

Named after the late Lt. Cmdr. Wesley A. Brown, USN, the first African American midshipman to graduate from the USNA (in 1949), the 140,000 square foot facility that cost $52 million to build includes three regulation sized basketball courts, a 200-meter indoor track with banked curves and a retractable synthetic surface that allows field teams to practice indoors.

Additionally, the facility that opened in the spring of 2008 boasts a state-of-the-art video board that spans nearly 16x21 feet. A Taraflex court was installed in time for the 2021 season.

Features of Wesley A. Brown Field House:

- Home of Navy volleyball, indoor track & field and wrestling.
- The 140,000-square-foot facility includes weight training and sports medicine facilities, eight locker rooms, and equipment storage facilities.
- Seating for over 750 spectators during volleyball matches and wrestling duals.
- Located along the Severn River on the Academy grounds.

PATRIOT LEAGUE

Now in its fourth decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men's and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola Maryland and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2021-22 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

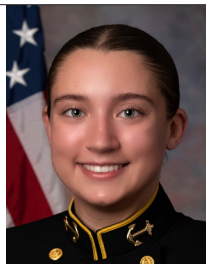

- ★ The League's 96 percent graduation success rate (GSR) is the second-best mark in the nation, finishing in the top three each year since the rating has been released in 2013. All 10 member schools were at 91 percent or higher, each exceeding the record-high national GSR of 89 percent. In addition, the League's 86 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) places it as the national leader for the ninth-consecutive year.
- ★ 14 student-athletes earned CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition including first-team accolades for Loyola Maryland's Elli Kluegel (Women's At-Large, Lacrosse), Navy's Sean Casey (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country) and Matt Nocita (Men's Soccer). Second-team honorees include Fordham's Ryan Greenhagen (Football), Georgetown's Ahmad Wilson (Football), Loyola Maryland's Paige Sim (Women's Soccer) and Aidan Olmstead (Men's At-Large, Lacrosse), and Navy's Ashwin Briggs (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country) and Chloe Dawson (Women's Soccer). Third-team honorees include Boston University's Emily Gant (Softball), Lehigh's Seth Slavin (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country), Navy's Brett Brady (Men's Track & Field/Cross Country), Derrick Thompson (Men's At-Large, Tennis) and Maddie Warrender (Women's Track & Field/Cross Country).
- ★ 38 Patriot League student-athletes received CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.
- ★ There were 3,502 student-athletes named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2021-22. The total marked the fifth-consecutive year the League has topped 3,000 honorees.
- ★ Loyola Maryland's Elli Kluegel (Women's Lacrosse) and Aidan Olmstead (Men's Lacrosse) were named the Patriot League Female and Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year honorees, respectively. Both were repeat honorees.
- ★ Lehigh's Kara Bonner (Women's Cross Country/Track & Field) and Loyola Maryland's Jake Fowler (Men's Cross Country) were named the League's 2021-22 Sportsmanship Award winners for demonstrating fairness, equality and excellence in academics and athletics.
- ★ Navy's Sydney Harrington (Women's Swimming & Diving) and Victoria Tran (Women's Soccer) was the League's nominee for the 2021-22 NCAA Woman of the Year award, honoring the academic achievements, athletics excellence, community service and leadership of graduating female college athletes.

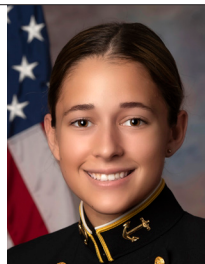

- ★ Four Patriot League student-athletes were recognized among the 2021-22 Senior CLASS Award winners and finalists. Navy's Christian Policelli (Baseball) was the 2022 Senior CLASS Award winner in baseball. Lehigh's Tommy Schelling (Men's Lacrosse) received Senior CLASS Award First Team honors, with Loyola Maryland's Aidan Olmstead (Men's Lacrosse) making the second-team in men's lacrosse. Navy's Matt Nocita (Men's Soccer) claimed Senior CLASS Award Second Team honors in men's soccer.
- ★ Twenty-eight Patriot Leaguers were All-America selections during the 2021-22 athletic year with first-team status for Army West Point's Brendan Nichtern (Men's Lacrosse), Boston University's Roy Meyer (Men's Lacrosse), Fordham's Nick Zakelj (Football), Holy Cross's Jacob Dobbs (Football) and Loyola Maryland's Katie Detwiler (Women's Lacrosse).
- ★ Lehigh's Adam Retzbach was selected in the 14th round (407th overall) of the 2022 Major League Baseball (MLB) Draft by the Baltimore Orioles. Two Patriot League student-athletes were selected in the 2022 Major League Soccer (MLS) Super Draft, including Navy's Matt Nocita, who was selected in the 1st round (7th overall) by the New York Red Bulls, and Loyola Maryland's Justin Ingram, who was taken in the second round (48th overall) by Inter Miami. Three Patriot League men's lacrosse student-athletes were selected in the 2022 Premier Lacrosse League (PLL) College Draft, including Army West Point's Brendan Nichtern (2nd Rd., 9th overall) and Loyola Maryland's Ryan McNulty (3rd Rd., 17th overall) and Kevin Lindley (4th Rd., 32nd overall).
- ★ Navy collected its eighth-consecutive Patriot League Presidents' Cup following the 2021-22 academic year. The Mids broke Bucknell's previous record of seven-straight titles. Army West Point finished atop the men's standings, while Navy topped the women's standings.
- ★ Navy's Hannah Montau (Women's Diving) qualified for the NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving for the fourth time in her career. Navy's Caleb Mauldin (Men's Swimming) was invited to the NCAA Men's Swimming and Diving Championship.
- ★ The Patriot League continues to lead the 32 NCAA Division I conferences in both Academic Progress Rate (APR) and retention trends by conference. In the latest release of data by the NCAA, the League is second in eligibility trends by conference. The League had 165 of its 195 teams score at or above the national average multi-year APR of 984. Seventy-one squads earned a perfect score of 1,000.
