SETTING THE STAGE

- INSIDE THE GAME: Navy (3-1, 0-0 Patriot League) will look to bounce back after dropping its first game of the season when the Mids make their first trip to High Point (2-1, 0-0 Atlantic 10) to battle the Panthers. Navy and High Point will square off at Vert Stadium with faceoff slated for 11:00 am. Joe Amplo owns a 21-12 record in his four seasons at the helm of the Navy program, while the Panthers are under the direction of Jon Torpey who is in his 12th season. Saturday's contest marks just the second meeting (High Point, 1-0) in a series that began last February.
- FOLLOW THE ACTION: Saturday's contest will be streamed on ESPN+ (subscription based) with Wendell Epps and Mike Guerriere on the call. Live stats will also be available on NavySports.com(.) There will be no radio coverage for Saturday's game.

NAVY QUICK HITS

- RETURN TO THE TAR HEEL STATE: While Saturday's contest marks Navy's first trip to High Point, it will be the 25th time in its 116-year and over 1,200-game history that Navy will play a game in the state of North Carolina. Navy has played at Duke 10 times and at North Carolina 14 times. The last time the Mids played a game in North Carolina was coincidentally on the same day (Feb. 25) in 2011 when they fell short in a 10-8 loss to #12 North Carolina.
- DEFENSE MAKES STATEMENT EARLY: Navy's defense has given up a combined 3 goals in the opening quarter of its 4 games this season and 7 total in the first half. The Mids have held their foes scoreless for at least the first 10 minutes of all 4 contests with the earliest goal scored at the 4:57 mark of the first quarter by Hofstra. Mount St. Mary's scored it's first goal at the 3:18 mark, Manhattan scored at 2:56, while Queens did not score its first goal until 10:55 in the third quarter.
- THE RACE TO 100: Co-captain Patrick Skalniak (Sr / M) is looking to become just the 37th player in program history to reach the 100-point career scoring milestone. Skalniak heads into the Manhattan contest with 90-career points, having produced 51 goals and 39 assists. Among the list of Navy's 100-point scorers, 16 players have added their names to the list in the last 25 years, including Christian Daniel (122) in 2021, Greyson Torain (132) in 2019 and Ryan Wade (119) in 2019. More than 40 years after graduating, Jeff Long remains the Mids' all-time leading scorer with 233 points (84-149).
- HAT TRICKS ABOUND: Navy has had 2 players record hat tricks in 3 of its 4 contests this season - Patrick Skalniak (5) and Henry Tolker (3) vs. Mount St. Mary's, Carter Ash (3) and Jeff Lachenmeyer (3) vs. Queens and Tolker (5) and Xavier Arline (3) against Hofstra. For the first time this season, no Navy player scored more than a goal in its game against Manhattan.
- GOALKEEPER SHUFFLE: Navy has utilized at least 2 goalkeepers in each of its 4 games this season. Pat Ryan (Sr), who started all 15 contests a year ago, has split time with freshman Dan Daly. Ryan has started 3 of the 4 contests where he has made 24 saves (77.4 sv%) and allowed 7 goals (GAA). Daly, meanwhile, has played in all 4 games, including a start against Queens, and has produced 18 saves (50.0 sv%) and given up 18 goals (9.49 GAA).

A CLOSER LOOK AT NAVY'S SCHEDULE

- Three of Navy's opponents this season are among the nation's top 20 teams according to this week's installment of the USILA Coaches Poll. Additionally, 2023 opponents Villanova, Lehigh, Boston U. and Manhattan are receiving votes in the USILA Poll.

Rk	Team	Record	Pts.	Prev.
5	Loyola	2-0	322 (1)	12
17	Johns Hopkins	2-2	109	9
19	Army	1-1	77	RV

- Loyola and Army are the only Patriot League team ranked in BOTH the USILA Poll and the Inside Lacrosse Media Poll. However, both Boston U. and Lehigh are receiving votes in both polls.
- Since the start of the 2004 season, Navy has played 111 of its 267 games against teams ranked in the top 25, posting a 44-67 record.
- Navy' 12-11 overtime victory over #6 Army on April 23, 2022 marked the highest-ranked team it has beaten since dealing #3 Yale a 13-10 loss in the opening round of the 2016 NCAA Tournament.
- With wins over #15 Loyola (4.17.21) and #10 Army (4.24.21), it marked the first time Navy had won consecutive games against nationally-ranked opponents since 2009 when the Mids needed triple overtime to beat #17 Colgate (9-8) in the Patriot League Tournament Semifinals before taking the title with a 9-8 win over #15 Bucknell in Lewisburg. Meanwhile, it's the first time it has beaten 2 top-15 opponents in consecutive games since 2005 when Navy claimed a 9-8 win over #6 Maryland and defeated #4 Army (12-9) a week later.
- In games against unranked foes since 2004, Navy is 112-44 (71.8).

SCOUTING HIGH POINT

- Head coach Jon Torpey is in his 12th season at High Point after being selected as the program's first head coach in 2010. The Panthers' first season of competition was 2012.
- Torpey has guided the Panthers to a pair of SoCon Tournament titles (2015, '21).
- High Point lost its opener at Duke (20-8) on Feb. 7, but has since picked up wins over Detroit Mercy (17-2) and VMI (17-11).
- While the Panthers lost leading scorer Asher Nolting (34-47=81) to graduation, they do return 4 of their top 5 scorers from last year's squad. Brayden Mayea (Jr), Jack VanOverbeke (Jr), Jack Sawyer (R-Jr) and Michael Ippolito (Gr) combine for a strong corps of attackmen who have once again produced for High Point. VanOverbeke (19-10=29 in 2022) leads the way in 2023 with 11 points on 9 goals and 2 assists, while Ippolito (17-2=19 in 2022) has produced 10 points on 7 goals and 3 assists. Mayea was the team's second-leading scorer a year ago with a team-high 40 goals to go along with 9 assists and this spring has contributed 9 points on 6 goals and 3 assists. Sawyer (13-10-23 in 2022), meanwhile, has turned in 6 points on 4 goals and 2 assists this spring.
- Seven different players took at least 1 faceoff for the Panthers a year ago, however, Collin Hoben (Sr) returns as their main threat. Last season, he won 103 of 211 (48.8) draws. He is 36 of 59 (61.0) in his 3 games this season and leads the team with 18 ground balls. Luca Accardo (Fr) is 8 for 16 (50.0) this spring, as well.
- Parker Green (Sr) returns in goal for High Point after posting a 12.40 goals-against average and 47.6 save percentage last season. Heading into the weekend he has a 50.0 save percentage and an 11.49 GAA.

NAVY VS. HIGH POINT - THE SERIES

- Last year's game played on Feb. 26 at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis marked the inaugural meeting in the series.
- While Saturday's contest marks Navy's first trip to High Point, it will also be the Mids' first trip to the state of North Carolina since Feb. 25, 2011, when Navy dropped a 10-8 decision to #12 North Carolina in Chapel Hill

- This season, Navy has had multiple players post hat tricks in 3 of its 4 contests. Patrick Skalniak (Sr / M) and Henry Tolker (So / A) scored 5 and 3 goals, respectively, against Mount St. Mary's in the opener, Carter Ash (So / A) and Jeff Lachenmeyer (Fr / A) recorded their first-collegiate hat tricks with 3 goals apiece against Queens and at Hofstra, Tolker turned in a career-high 5 goals while Xavier Arline (Jr / A) posted his first-career hat trick with 3 goals.
- A year ago Tolker became the first Navy freshman to record 5 hat tricks in a season since 1987 when Mike Herger pitched 7 hat tricks - UMBC (3), Delaware (5), Penn (3), Princeton (6), Army (4), Johns Hopkins (3) and Brown (6).
- Tolker is the first Navy freshman to record hat tricks in three-consecutive games (Hofstra, Manhattan, High Point) since 2003 when All-American Ian Dingman accomplished it (4 vs. UMass, 3 vs. Rutgers, 4 vs. Stony Brook).
- Tolker is the first Navy player (any class) with three-consecutive hat tricks in a season since Christian Daniel recorded 5 goals against UMBC, 3 vs. Maryland and 4 vs. Bucknell during the 2019 season.

SKALNIAK, BONITZ GARNER PRESEASON ACCOLADES

- Co-captain Patrick Skalniak (Sr / M) and Jackson Bonitz (D / Jr) have been named Preseason Third-Team All-Americans by both USA Lacrosse Magazine and Inside Lacrosse. Additionally, Skalniak was named to the initial Tewaaraton Award Watch List which was released on Feb. 10.
- Skalniak is a two-time First-Team All-Patriot League midfielder, who earnd 2022 All-America honors from USA Lacrosse Magazine (3rd Team), Inside Lacrosse (HM) and the USILA (HM). He led the Mids last spring with 48 points on a team-best 28 goals and 20 assists. He closed out the season as one of just 5 midfielders in the program's 115-year history to reach 40 points in a single season with his 48 points tying Ryan Wade (2019) as the third most by a Navy midfielder. Additionally, Skalniak joined forces with Dane Swanson (Jr) and Max Hewitt (Jr) to become the first midfield trio in school history to each reach 30 points.
- Bonitz is a two-time All-Patriot League defenseman (2022 1st Team, 2021 2nd Team), who concluded the 2022 campaign by receiving All-America recognition from USA Lacrosse Magazine (3rd Team), Inside Lacrosse (HM) and the USILA (HM). Last year, he was the cornerstone to an exceptionally young defensive unit as the lone returning starter among the defense. The Mids finished the season ranked #12 nationally and #2 in the Patriot League in scoring defense, allowing 10.13 goals per game. Bonitz led the team with 18 caused turnovers which tied for the 10th most in program history.

STREAKS

- The following players have started at least 15-consecutive games heading into the High Point contest.

Gms.	Player	Streak Started
20	Dane Swanson (1 Fr / 15 So / 4 Jr)	2021
19	Kyle Fairbanks (15 Jr / 4 Sr)	2022
19	Nick LiCalzi (15 So / 4 Jr)	2022
17	Max Hewitt (13 So / 4 Jr)	2022

- Dane Swanson (Jr / M) has started every game (24) in which he has appeared. After breaking his foot in the 2021 opener against Mount St. Mary's, he missed more than a month (2 gms) rehabbing. His consecutive games with a start streak stands at 20.
- Jackson Bonitz (Jr / D) has started every game (27) in which he has appeared. He started the first 15 games of his career before missing the March 13, 2022 game against Colgate due to injury. He returned to the starting lineup at Johns Hopkins last spring and has started each of the last 12 contests.
- Patrick Skalniak (Sr / M) had started 25-consecutive contests (5 Fr / 9 So / 11 Jr) before coming off the bench at Lafayette last April. He has started 32 of the 33 games over his career, including each of the last 7.

- The following player(s) enter the Manhattan contest with point-scoring streaks of 5 or more games.

Player	Pt.	G	A	Last time w/o a point
Patrick Skalniak	32	0	1	---
Xavier Arline	8	3	4	at Lehigh, 3.5.22
Henry Tolker	8	6	0	at Boston U., 4.2.22

- Going into last weekend's Manhattan game, Patrick Skalniak had scored a point in every game of his career (32 Gms / 51G-39A=90Pts). The Jaspers, however, held the Navy All-American without a point for the first time in his career, snapping what was the nation's fifth-longest active point streak. Ironically, the streak began in 2020 against Manhattan.
- Henry Tolker (So / A) has turned in a point in 17 of the 19 games over his career, including hat tricks in 7 contests. He was held scoreless for the first time in his career by Boston U. (4.2.22) and last week (Manhattan) was held without a point for just the second time, snapping an 8 game point-scoring streak.
- Xavier Arline (Jr / A), Navy's starting quarterback on the football team, also had his 8-game point-scoring streak stopped by Manhattan. He was held in check in his first-collegiate appearance on March 5, 2022 against Lehigh, but had since contributed a goal or an assist in 8-straight games.
- Navy has had at least one pole (close defense or long-stick midfielder) score a goal during the season in each of the last 29 years (1994-present). The Mids are looking to extend that to 30 this spring.

NAVY AMONG THE ELITE

- One of seven Div. I lacrosse programs that has produced 700+ wins, Navy became just the fourth to reach 800 when it defeated UMBC on Feb. 15, 2019.
- With 825 wins, Navy is the fourth-winningest program in D-I men's lacrosse history behind Johns Hopkins (1,006), Syracuse (928^) and Maryland (873). Johns Hopkins became the first men's lacrosse team to reach 1,000 wins, capturing that milestone mark on Feb. 19, 2022, in an 11-10 win over Loyola.
- In terms of all-time winning percentage, Navy stands fourth (68.5) on the list, while Maryland is #1 at 75.7.
- In terms of oldest programs, Navy is fifth on the list now in its 116th year, while Johns Hopkins is #1 in its 136th season.
- Navy will face 2 of the other 4 programs that have 800-plus wins to their credit. The Mids will play host to Johns Hopkins (March 17 / 7:00 pm) and Army (April 22 / 7:00 pm).
- Last spring marked the first time Navy defeated both Johns Hopkins and Army in the same season since 1974. Second-year head coach Dick Szlasa led Navy to wins over Johns Hopkins (13-12 in Annapolis) and Army (12-9 at West Point).

THE X-FACTOR

- Xavier Arline (Jr / A), who has played quarterback on Navy's football team the last 3 years, was a 5-star recruit and the #5 ranked lacrosse player in the country coming out of high school in the summer of 2020. He originally committed to North Carolina, however, when Mack Brown was hired as the football coach Arline decommitted.
- Arline found early success with the football team and opted not to play lacrosse his rookie year. Wanting to fulfill his lifelong dream of play both sports, he joined the lacrosse team in January 2022.
- Prior to making his lacrosse debut on March 5, 2022 at Lehigh, Arline had not played competitive lacrosse since his junior year (2019) of high school thanks to COVID.
- Arline, who started 5 of the 6 games in which he played in 2022, made his first-collegiate lacrosse start on March 13 against Colgate where he scored his first-collegiate goal. He finished the season with 8 points on 5 goals and 3 assists.
- A starter in all 4 contests this season, Arline is Navy's leading scorer with 12 points on 5 goals and 7 assists. He had his best game in a Navy lacrosse jersey 2 weeks ago at Hofstra where he paced the Mids with 7 points on 3 goals and 4 assists - all career highs.
- While there is a storied history of football players who have also played lacrosse, it's been rare to have a two-sport player since the mid-70s.
- Arline is just the fifth Navy athlete in the last 25 years who has played both football and lacrosse. Jamie Doffermyre (1997-00) played lacrosse as a sophomore (13 gms), the final 2 games of his junior year (voted football team captain, went through spring football) and his senior year (13 gms).
- David Hills played both football and lacrosse his freshman year in 2001-02. He hung up his lacrosse stick and went on to a successful career as a kicker for the football team, earning an invitation to play in the 2001 Blue-Gray Classic.
- Brye French (2010-13) played a combined 29 games over 3 seasons. He, too, was voted the defensive team captain, missing his junior year before returning his senior year.
- Ford Higgins (2020), the starting center (26 gms) for Navy's 2019 Liberty Bowl-winning football team, joined the lacrosse team in the spring of 2020. He played in one game before the season was shut down due to COVID.

TOLKER LOOKS FOR ENCORE SEASON

- Last spring, Henry Tolker (So / A) enjoyed one of the best freshman seasons by a Navy player in recent memory. A starter in 14 of the 15 games a year ago, he amassed 34 points on 23 goals and 11 assists.
- Tolker is only the 14th freshman in school history to score 30 points in a season. He finished the year 10th on Navy's all-time freshman scoring list with 34 points.
- Tolker's 23 goals last spring were the second most on the team and tied for the sixth most by a Navy freshman.
- Tolker dealt out a pair of assists against Lehigh in the Patriot League Quarterfinals last spring to propel him into 10th on Navy's freshman assists list.
- He is just the seventh freshman to appear on all 3 lists, joining Brendan Schneck (1977), John Hawley (1985), Mike Herger (1987), Ian Dingman (2003), Tucker Hull (2011) and Sam Jones (2011).
- Tolker has picked up where he left off and stands #2 on the team in scoring with 9 points on a team-high 9 goals. He has twice finished with hat tricks, scoring 3 against Mount St. Mary's (2.4) in the opener and a career-high 5 at Hofstra last weekend.
- He has produced points in 17 of his 19-career appearances (Boston U. '22 / Manhattan '23) with goals in 13 games and assists in 10.

NAVY'S 30-POINT CLUB

- Navy finished the 2022 season with 5 players reaching the 30-point milestone - Patrick Skalniak (Sr / M / 48 pts), Nick Cole (--- / A / 38), Dane Swanson (Jr / M / 38), Henry Tolker (So / A / 34) and Max Hewitt (Jr / M / 43). It marked the first time in program history that a Navy team has achieved that feat.
- There have been 23 seasons Navy has had 3 or more players reach the 30-point mark, while on just 10 occasions there have been 4 players reach 30 points by season's end.
- 2022 also marked the first time Navy has had 3 midfielders score 30 points in a single season. On just two prior occasions had a pair of midfielders reached 30 points and that was done in back-to-back seasons (2018, '19) by Greyson Torain and Ryan Wade.

CAUSING HAVOC

- Navy finished the 2022 campaign averaging 7.73 takeaways per game and was ranked #33 nationally.
- Navy has averaged double-figure caused turnovers just once since it became an official NCAA stat in 2010. The Mids closed out 2013 ranked #2 and averaged 10.00 caused turnovers per game (130 / 13 gms).
- Jackson Bonitz (Jr / D) finished 2022 tied with Geoff Leone (2009) for 10th on the Mids' single-season caused turnovers list with a team-best 18. Zach Snider (Sr / LSM) tied for 20th with 14 takeaways.
- Bonitz is tied with former teammate Andrew McKenna for 12th on Navy's career caused turnovers list. He needs just 1 more to find himself in a three-way tie for 10th alongside Matt Verman (2009-12) and Andy Tormey (2006-09).
- Meanwhile, Snider, who leads the team this season with 4 takeaways, needs just 1 caused turnover to enter the top 20 career list where he would tie Michael Strack (2015-18), Marty Gallagher (2008-11) and Zack Schroeder (2007-10) for 19th.

IN THE CLASSROOM

- The rigors a student-athlete faces at a Service Academy are unlike those a typical student-athlete might encounter on a day-to-day basis. Whether it's the added military training, mandatory room or uniform inspections or the academic schedule, Service Academy student-athletes are in a league of their own.
- The Naval Academy's academic day is divided into six 50-minute class periods beginning at 7:55 am and concluding at 3:20 pm. Unique to the Academies, all 4,400 Midshipmen reside on the Yard in Bancroft Hall and dine together in King Hall.

MIDFIELD MUSCLE

- Last year's starting midfield trio was one for the record books, as Patrick Skalniak (Sr / 28-20=48), Dane Swanson (Jr / 21-17=38) and Max Hewitt (Jr / 20-12=32) all finished the season with at least 30 points. It marked the first time in program history that 3 midfielders reached the 30-point milestone in the same season.
- A starter in 32 of the 33 games in which he has played, Skalniak has produced a point in 32 of the 33 contests. He has goals in 24 of the 33 and assists in 24. Additionally, he has 22 multi-point, 15 multi-goal and 11 multi-assist games.
- Skalniak has produced 90 points on 51 goals and 39 assists over his career. He is 10 points shy of becoming the 37th player in program history to reach 100, while he needs 25 goals (76, Christian Daniel 2018-21) and 10 assists (49, Greyson Torain 2016-19) to join Navy's all-time top 20 in those respective statistical categories.
- Skalniak became the program's 17th different midfielder to reach 30 points in a season when he contributed 6 points (3G, 3A) in the Mids' 11-10 win at Johns Hopkins last spring. With his 3 goals at Army, he became just the fifth midfielder in school history to eclipse 40 points in a season, joining Bob DeSimone (44 in 1975), Ryan Wade (48 in 2019), Glen Miles (53 in 1986) and Brian Keith (53 in 1989).
- Skalniak's 48-point performance tied as the third most in school history, while Swanson's 38 points tied as the sixth most and Hewitt's 32 points tied as the 21st most.
- Skalniak is 1 of 4 midfielders in program history to post 20 goals and 15 assists in a season, joining Glen Miles (1986 / 23-30), Ryan Wade (2019 / 20-28) and Greyson Torain (2017 / 23-15).

ODDS AND ENDS

- BACK TO BACK: Navy opened up the 2023 campaign by playing a pair of games in a 2-day span (W, 13-7 vs. Mount St. Mary's / W, 19-5 vs. Queens). It marked just the third time in program history Navy has played on back-to-back days and the first time since 1975. Navy met Maryland in the 1975 National Championship Game on May 31 (L, 20-13) in Baltimore before facing archrival Army the following day (W, 10-5) in Annapolis. In 1945, Navy played 2 games on the same day. Navy defeated Cornell 20-1 on May 5 and followed with a 14-0 rout against Dartmouth later that day.
- DOUBLE DIGITS: Navy scored 10 goals in the second quarter of its 19-5 victory over Queens (2.5). It's the first time the Mids have reached double digits in a single frame since the Mids put up 10 goals in the third quarter of a 28-10 victory over Delaware on April 11, 1978. Even more remarkable, 9 different players accounted for the Mids' 10 goals during the second-quarter run against Queens (Jack Flaherty, Henry Tolker, Xavier Arline, Jon Jarosz, James Flannery, Sam Dracobly, Tommy Hovivian, Jeff Lachenmeyer-2, Carter Ash).
- AN OFF DAY FOR NAVY'S POTENT OFFENSE: Navy, who entered last weekend's Manhattan game as the nation's 14th-best scoring offense (15.00 goals/gm), was held scoreless in the final 26 minutes of its 6-5 loss to the Jaspers. It was the longest the Mids have been held without a goal since Feb. 29, 2020, when Lehigh held Navy scoreless for just over 27 minutes en route to a 14-6 win. Navy's one goal in the second half of the Manhattan game marked the fewest goals scored in a half by the Mids since their March 6, 2018 contest that saw Navy trail Penn 3-1 at the half. Additionally, Navy's top-three scorers were held without a point. All-American Patrick Skalniak (Sr / M) entered the game having scored a point in every game of his career (32 gms) and owned the nation's fifth-longest point streak. Meanwhile, attackmen Xavier Arline (Jr) and Henry Tolker (So) had recorded points in 8-consecutive games.
- MIDS PICKED THIRD: Navy has been picked to finish third in the 2023 Patriot League Preseason Poll. Defending Patriot League Champion Boston University secured 15 of the 18 first-place votes to top the poll for the first time in league history. It's the first time since Loyola joined the Patriot League in 2014 that the Greyhounds were not the preseason favorite. Loyola was selected to finish second, followed by Navy, Army, Lehigh, Bucknell, Colgate, Lafayette and Holy Cross. Navy's Patrick Skalniak (Jr / M) and Jackson Bonitz (So / D) were also named to the Preseason All-Patriot League Team for a second-consecutive year.

Last season, 2022, marked the first year of their collegiate experience in which they were able to play an entire season.

NAVY IN OVERTIME

- Navy owns a 20-26 all-time record (43.5) in overtime contests, including a 10-15 mark in games at home.
- 31 of the 46 games have been decided in a single overtime period, however 9 have gone into double OT, 4 into three extra frames, 1 into four and 1 into six.
- Three of Navy's last four overtime contests have been against Army with the Mids winning 2 of the 3.
- The Mids played their first overtime game since 2019 when they scored a 12-11 victory over Army (4.23.22) on a Jack Sweeney (Sr / A) extra-man goal.
- In 2016, Navy played 3 overtime contests. It dropped a 12-11 double-overtime heartbreaker to #5 Johns Hopkins on Feb. 9, 2016 at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. It marked just the fifth time in series history the game had been decided in extra frames and the first double-OT game between the two. Johns Hopkins has won four of the five.
- Two weeks later (2.27), Navy dropped its first game in the series to Boston U., a double-OT matchup (10-9).
- The Mids bounced back with an 11-10 victory in overtime at Army (4.16). It was just the fifth time in series history the game went into extra minutes and the first since 1991.
- Perhaps no overtime game in school history gained more attention than when Andy Warner etched his name into Naval Academy lore by way of his overtime goal against 17th-ranked Johns Hopkins in 2010, snapping a 36-game losing streak to the Blue Jays. It was the Mids' first win over Hopkins since 1974.
- Navy pulled out a 9-8 triple-overtime victory over Colgate in the 2009 Patriot League Tournament Semis. Joe Lennon scored four goals for the Mids, including the last three. It marked the Mids' first OT win in postseason action, as Navy previously lost NCAA Tournament decisions to Cortland State (2OT) in 1972 and Washington & Lee (3OT) in 1973.

- The Navy win also went down in the record books as the longest Patriot League Tournament contest.
- The Mids' 8-7 loss against Cornell in 2008 marked the first time in program history that Navy had played an overtime game at a neutral site.

HEAD COACH JOE AMPLO

• On June 5, 2019, Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk announced the hiring of Joe Amplo as the program's ninth head men's lacrosse coach.

• Amplo, an assistant coach for Team USA who won the 2018 World Championship and will be on staff for the 2022 World Championship, has established himself as one of the premier head coaches in the sport after building the Marquette program from the ground up.

• He led the Golden Eagles to consecutive BIG EAST Tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances in 2016 and 2017, while also guiding MU to at least the BIG EAST semifinals in five of its six seasons competing as a member of the conference.

• Fifteen Golden Eagles accounted for 30 All-BIG EAST citations, while seven players have earned USILA All-America recognition during his tenure. Among those honorees is Liam Byrnes who was a three-time All-BIG EAST defenseman and was named the 2016 BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and a Second-Team All-American. Additionally, Noah Richard, a unanimous two-time All-BIG EAST long-stick midfielder, was named the 2019 BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and an Honorable Mention All-American after helping Marquette to a No. 5 ranking in man-down defense last spring.

• Four of his Marquette players were named USILA Scholar All-Americans, while better than 120 of his student-athletes garnered BIG EAST All-Academic honors for their classroom success (min. 3.00 grade-point average the preceding academic year). In 2016, B.J. Grill, a three-time All-BIG EAST defenseman, was named to the 2016 Senior CLASS Award First Team, an award that highlights achievement in community, classroom, character and competition.

• Amplo, who was named the first head coach in Marquette history on Feb. 4, 2011, garnered 2014 BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors in just his second season at the helm. He led the Golden Eagles to a second-place regular-season finish in what was their first year as a member of the conference, as well as their first of five-consecutive semifinal appearances in the BIG EAST Championship. They played the nation's 14th-toughest schedule according to Inside Lacrosse that season.

• In 2015, he guided Marquette to a 10-win campaign in just their third season of competition and in 2016, led Marquette to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance on the heels of a victory over No. 1 Denver in the BIG EAST Tournament Championship Game. Marquette earned the sixth seed in the NCAA Tournament and fell to eventual NCAA Champion North Carolina by a single goal in what was the first NCAA Tournament game ever played in the state of Wisconsin.

• Marquette's victory over Denver to claim the BIG EAST's 2016 automatic NCAA bid snapped an NCAA-high 22-game home winning streak at Peter Barton Stadium for the Pioneers, while handing them their first loss to a BIG EAST team since joining the league in 2014 (spanned 21 games). The victory also set a new program benchmark with MU's 11th win of the season after the Golden Eagles produced a 4-1 mark in BIG EAST regular-season action.

• Amplo was the 2016 recipient of the USILA Howdy Myers Man of the Year Award. The award is presented annually to an individual who has contributed to the game of lacrosse in a capacity over and above the normal efforts and in so doing, has shown unselfish and untiring devotion to the game.

• Amplo came to Marquette with 11 years of collegiate coaching experience, 10 of which came at his alma mater, Hofstra University. He served as associate head coach with the Pride for three years and was the team's defensive coordinator.

• Amplo joined the Hofstra coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1999 and remained there until 2001 when he took an assistant coaching position at Penn. After one season with the Quakers, Amplo returned to Long Island where he remained through the 2011 season.

• As a student-athlete, he was an All-America East performer as a senior in 1999 when he started all 16 games and led the school to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship.

• A native of Farmingville, N.Y., he graduated from Hofstra in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in geography and earned a master's degree in college student counseling. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters, Sophia, Charlotte and Lily.
