INSIDE THE VIRGINIA DUALS

- The 16th-ranked Navy wrestling team (6-0) resumes its dual slate this weekend to compete in the 43rd annual Virginia Duals at the Hampton Coliseum in Hampton, Va. The Mids will face No. 11 South Dakota State (4-2) on Friday at 4:30 p.m. and No. 19 Oklahoma (4-2) on Saturday at noon.
- Fans can watch both duals with a FloWrestling subscription with links provided on NavySports.com.

NAVY TEAM NOTES

- Navy won its sixth dual of the season on Dec. 21 when it defeated American, 38-0
- The win marked the first time the Mids shut out an EIWA opponent since 1989 when they beat Franklin & Marshall, 37-0
- Navy has also earned wins over then No. 23 Illinois (23-18), then No. 16 Pitt (21-12), Morgan State (39-0), VMI (40-6) and Ohio (27-12)
- The Mids have held two teams scoreless this season. Navy hadn't posted multiple shutouts in a single season since 2020-21 when it defeated Cleveland State (37-0) and George Mason (44-0)
- The Mids have won their last eight duals dating back to last season, which is their longest winning streak since they won 10-consecutive duals between the 2004-05 and 2005-06 campaigns
- Navy has scored at least 20 points in all six duals this season and has outscored its opponents, 188-48
- The Mids have won 46 of the 60 bouts in duals this season and have earned bonus points in 22 of their wins (47.8)
- Navy is coming off a solid outing at the Franklin & Marshall Open on Jan. 5
- Andrew Cerniglia (165) was crowned a champion at the tournament, while Danny Wask (174, 3rd), Grady Griess (285, 4th) and Jamier Ferere (285, 5th/6th) also placed in their respective weight class
- The Mids are making their 10th appearance at the Virginia Duals
- Navy owns a 24-17 record and has won at least two duals in eight of its nine appearances at the event
- The Mids are competing at the Virginia Duals for the second-straight year for the first time since 1994-95
- Navy went 1-3 in Hampton last year. The Mids beat Kent State (27-21) and lost to South Dakota State (31-6), Virginia (29-9) and Oklahoma (28-12)
- Navy remained No. 16 in the latest National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) Division I Top 25 Poll, which was announced on Jan. 9
- The Mids have been ranked in seven-consecutive polls after being tabbed 19th on Nov. 14

NAVY INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Brendan Ferretti (133) and Josh Koderhandt (141) are both 5-0 in duals and are tied as the team leader in dual wins this season
- Koderhandt has won his last 10 dual matches dating back to last season and leads the team with 21 dual victories in his career
- Ferretti has claimed sixth-straight wins in duals dating back to last season. The sophomore is 12-3 (80.0) in duals in his career
- Griess leads Navy in total wins this season with 17. Additionally, he owns the third-most victories amongst ranked heavyweights in the nation
- Griess surpassed Koderhandt as the team leader in career victories (68) with his four wins at the Franklin & Marshall Open
- Griess and Wask have only lost to ranked opponents this season
- Cerniglia has won 18 of his 22 dual matches and owns the best winning percentage in duals on the team (81.8)
- The senior won two of his six matches at the Franklin & Marshall Open by technical fall to give him a career-high four wins by tech fall this season
- Ferere continued his excellent sophomore campaign with a 4-1 record at the Franklin & Marshall open. The Highpoint, N.C., native is second on the team in wins (16) and leads the Mids in victories by fall (6) and major decision (6)
- David Key (184) needs two wins in Hampton to set a new career high in dual victories in a season. The senior has totaled five dual wins in each of his previous three seasons
- Key won all three of his matches at the Virginia Duals a year ago, two of which were against ranked wrestlers
- Hayden Benter (125) and Daniel Williams (197) are the only mids in the projected lineup that haven't competed in a dual
- Williams also had a solid performance at the Franklin & Marshall Open. The freshman won three of his five matches and was one of only five Navy wrestlers to post at least three victories

GRIESS NAMED TEAM CAPTAIN

- Griess was selected as the captain of the 2023-24 Navy wrestling team
- He won the 109th individual EIWA title in program history this past season. His placement earned him a spot to wrestle at the NCAA Championship for the first time in his career. He also placed first at the Clarion Open, Bearcat Open and Franklin & Marshall Open in his respective weight class
- The Grand Island, Neb., native led the Mids with 32 victories to become the 50th wrestler in program history to post 30 or more wins in a season. Additionally, he led the team in dual victories (eight) and wins against nationally-ranked opponents (eight)
- Griess was also one of 105 athletes who earned EIWA All-Academic honors in 2022-23. The quantitative economics major owns a 3.88 cumulative GPA and posted the top GPA in his weight class. Additionally, he was one of only 13 athletes on the honors list with a GPA of at least 3.8

900 WINS AND COUNTING

- Established in 1909, the Navy wrestling program is in its 116th season as a varsity sport. Head coach John Schutz directed the Mids to a 24-9 victory over Penn on March 13, 1909 in their inaugural dual
- Having amassed a 927-324-26 overall record, Navy captured the program's 900th win behind a 21-12 win victory Maryland on Dec. 6, 2019
- With 74 NCAA Championship appearances in tow, there are just eight programs who have competed in more - Oklahoma State (91), Oklahoma (83), Iowa State (82), Michigan (81), Michigan State (79), Penn State (79), Lehigh (77) and Illinois (76). Like Navy, both Iowa and Minnesota have made 74 appearances
- The Mids, meanwhile, have the 25th-longest active NCAA Championship appearance streak, having competed in each of the last 25 tournaments. Oklahoma leads the country with 73-straight appearances

SCOUTING SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

- The Jackrabbits are ranked 11th in the country with a 4-2 record
- South Dakota State scored big in its three wins at the Dakota Showcase against Dakota Wesleyan (46-4), Northern State (33-6) and Augustana (37-9)
- The Jackrabbits dropped their next two duals to Big 10 foes Minnesota (19-13) and Nebraska (21-17)
- South Dakota State returned to the win column with a big upset in its first meeting against then No. 6 Michigan, 22-17. The Jackrabbits earned bonus points in four of their five wins, including a victory by technical fall (17-1, 3:18) by Tanner Sloan (197) to clinch the dual
- South Dakota State is expected to bring nine ranked wrestlers to Hampton, two of which are in the top 10
- Cade DeVos (174) is ranked fifth in the nation with a 9-1 overall record and a 4-1 dual record. His lone loss came against then No. 6 Shane Griffith by a 4-1 decision in sudden victory in SDSU's dual with Michigan
- DeVos compiled a 5-0 record to place first at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational
- Sloan is currently the sixth-best wrestler in his weight class. The senior owns a 9-1 overall record and is 4-0 in duals this season
- Sloan is 95-21 overall and 53-4 in duals in his career. He hasn't lost a dual match since Nov. 29, 2021
- The 2022-23 197-pound national runner-up also had an impressive showing at the CKLV Invitational, placing third with a 5-1 record
- The additional ranked Jackrabbits include No. 17 Tanner Jordan (125), No. 15 Derrick Cardinal (133), No. 22 Clay Carlson (141), No. 20 Alek Martin (149), No. 17 Cael Swensen (157), No. 14 Bennett Berge (184) and No. 32 Luke Rasmussen

NAVY VS. SOUTH DAKOTA STATE SERIES

- Navy will take on South Dakota State for just the third time
- The Mids won the first matchup in Brookings, 31-3, during the 1970-71 campaign
- The Jackrabbits won last year's meeting at the Virginia Duals, 31-6
- Koderhandt and Carlson are expected to face each other for the fourth time. Carlson won last year's match in Hampton by an 11-6 decision

SCOUTING OKLAHOMA

- Ranked 19th in the nation, Oklahoma heads to Hampton with a 4-2 overall record and a 2-2 Big 12 record
- The Sooners won their first three duals of the season over Central Michigan (29-11), Little Rock (26-10) and North Dakota State (29-7)
- After a 30-12 defeat against then No. 3 Missouri, Oklahoma rallied to defeat West Virginia, 21-19. The Sooners trailed, 19-13, with two bouts remaining, but a win by technical fall (18-3, 7:00) from Stephen Buchanan (197) and a win by decision (9-7) from Josh Heindselman (285) flipped the scoreboard
- Oklahoma's most recent dual was a loss to then No. 11 Oklahoma State, 28-9, on Dec. 10
- The Sooners had an excellent performance at the Southern Scuffle, placing second out of 21 teams. Buchanan and Heindselman highlighted Oklahoma's 13 wrestlers who placed in the tournament by claiming titles in their respective weight class
- Buchanan is currently ranked second in the country with a 15-0 record. He and N.C. State's Trent Hidlay are the only 197-pound ranked wrestlers who are undefeated with at least 10 wins
- Heindselman is the second-best ranked Sooner at No. 14 with a 14-3 record
- Also earning a ranking are No. 15 Mosha Schwartz (141), No. 29 Cael Carlson (165), No. 29 Tate Picklo (174), No. 30 Willie McDougald (149) and No. 33 Jared Hill (157)

NAVY VS. OKLAHOMA SERIES

- Navy will be going for its first win in its series against Oklahoma
- The Sooners have won all 14 matchups, including last year's meeting at the Virginia Duals, 28-12
- Oklahoma won the inaugural dual in Annapolis, 21-12, on Dec. 4, 1965
- The individual matchup to keep an eye on will be at heavyweight between Griess and Heindselman. The two will face each other for the third time in their careers. Heindselman won the first meeting at the 2023 Virginia Duals by a 2-1 decision in TB1. Griess avenged the loss in the opening round of the NCAA Championship by a 3-0 decision

HEAD COACH CARY KOLAT

CAREER RECORD: 61-52 (10TH YEAR)

NAVY (4): 22-12, 64.7 | CAMPBELL (6): 39-40, 49.4

Former national champion and Olympic team member Cary Kolat is in his fourth year as the head coach of the Navy wrestling team after being introduced as the program's eighth head coach on March 20, 2020.

Navy posted a 5-6 overall dual record during the 2022-23 season and won four of its five duals against EIWA Opponents. Additionally, the Mids wrestled in five tournaments during the regular season.

Navy placed third of 12 teams at the 44th annual Navy Classic. Nine Mids placed in the event, led by second-place finishes from Grady Griess (285) and Jacob Koser

(197). Navy also had an impressive showing at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, finishing in 14th place as a team. Josh Koderhandt (141) won six matches in his weight class, five of which were against nationally ranked wrestlers to place fourth. Koser won three matches to finish seventh overall in his respective weight class.

The Mids won four of their final five duals to end the regular season. Navy defeated Hofstra, 21-12, and rallied to beat Binghamton, 19-18, in its final two duals in Annapolis. The Mids trailed the Bearcats, 15-6, but won four of the final five bouts to win the dual. Navy also continued its dominance over Bucknell and Army. The Mids won their 21st-consecutive dual over Bucknell with a 25-9 victory, improving to 25-1 in the all-time series. Kolat remained undefeated against Army with an 18-13 victory in West Point to claim Navy's 52nd win in the all-time series.

Kolat guided the Mids to another impressive outing at the EIWA Championship. Navy finished in a tie for fourth place out of 17 teams. Heavyweight Grady Griess won the 99th individual EIWA title in school history after posting a 4-0 record at the tournament. He was one of five Mids to earn an automatic qualifying spot for the NCAA Championship. Koser qualified for nationals for the third-straight season after placing fourth and Koderhandt earned his second-consecutive appearance by finishing in third place. David Key (184) also earned a third-place finish in his respective weight class to qualify for the championship for the second time in his career. Additionally, Brendan Ferretti (133) placed fourth at the league tournament to become one of only 17 true freshmen to qualify for nationals.

Seven Mids recorded 20 or more victories during the 2022-23 season, led by 32 wins from Griess. Navy's heavyweight became the 50th wrestler in program history to reach 30 victories in a season and the first Mid to achieve the mark since Michael Coleman (34) and Nicholas Gil (32) did so in the 2017-18 season. Also posting 20 or more wins was Koderhandt (28), Koser (26), Ferretti (22), Sammy Starr (21), Key (20) and Val Park (20).

Collegiate wrestling returned to its traditional format in 2021-22 with Kolat leading the Midshipmen to a 6-5 dual record, while also sending wrestlers to five tournaments during the regular season. Navy wrestlers claimed a combined 9 individual titles competing at the Clarion Open, Bearcat Open and Navy Classic. The Mids also saw great success in the 43rd annual Navy Classic, placing third in the 12-team field, while eight wrestlers placed in the top-three among their respective weight classes including four individual champions.

After dropping its first two duals to Maryland and Lehigh, Navy responded with three-straight victories over Hofstra (35-6), Ohio (21-14) and Cleveland State (32-7). Navy ended the regular season with another three-match win streak, defeating EIWA foe Bucknell (21-12) and Clarion (33-8), before claiming a 22-9 victory over Army in the annual Star Match which was held in Alumni Hall in Annapolis.

Four Navy wrestlers placed among the top eight in their respective weight classes, including 2022 finalists Josh Koderhandt (133) and Andrew Cerniglia (157), who helped lead Navy to a seventh-place finish at the 118th EIWA Championship. Additionally, Jacob Koser (197) placed third to join Koderhandt and Cerniglia as automatic qualifiers for the NCAA Championship, while Val Park (165) finished eighth, just missing a qualifier spot.

Koderhandt and Koser both claimed a victory at the NCAA Championship held at Little Caesars Arena in Detroit, Mich. to help Navy tie for 48th in the team standings.

Under his tutelage, Jacob Allen excelled both on and off the mat. A 2020-21 NCAA qualifier, Allen was named a 2022 First-Team CoSIDA Academic All-American. He graduated with a 4.00 grade-point average and was ranked No. 1 in the Class of 2022 in Academic Order of Merit, No. 2 in Military Order of Merit and No. 7 in Overall Order of Merit.

Kolat arrived in Annapolis at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, maneuvering his way through what would be a shortened season that featured only dual competition outside of the postseason conference and national tournaments.

Though Navy would fall short in its season-opener against Pitt 22-14, the Mids regrouped and won their final five duals of 2020-21 including a 41-3 victory at Clarion on Jan. 9 to give Kolat his first win at the Academy. The Midshipmen also claimed a 21-9 victory over Lehigh, their first against the reigning EIWA champions since defeating the Mountain Hawks 19-15 in Annapolis on Jan. 15, 2011. From there, Navy put together back-to-back shutouts against Cleveland State (37-0) and George Mason (44-0), marking the first time the Midshipmen put together two-straight shutout victories since the 1962-63 season when they blanked Hofstra 24-0 and followed up with a 30-0 win over Virginia Tech. Navy closed out the dual season by scoring a 20-13 victory over Army in the annual Star Match which was held at Christl Arena in West Point.

Navy placed second at the EIWA Championship, the program's best finish since 2013 (2nd). Seven Mids wrestled in the semifinals, while five competed in the finals, as seven of the Mids' nine wrestlers placed among the top three. Senior Cody Trybus became the program's 33rd different wrestler to earn multiple EIWA titles after winning the 141-pound weight class in 2000 and 2021.

Nine wrestlers represented Navy at the NCAA Championship, marking just the third time in program history that Navy has sent nine or more wrestlers to the national tournament and the first since 1969. Logan Treaster (125), Jacob Allen (133), Cody Trybus (141), Andrew Cerniglia (157), Tanner Skidgel (165), David Key (184) and Jacob Koser (197) earned automatic berths by way of their finish at the EIWA Championship, while Casey Cobb (149) and John Birchmeier (285) earned at-large bids. Five of the nine wrestlers won at least one match, as the Mids went on to finish 37th out of 63 teams.

Kolat established himself as one of the premier coaches in the sport after building a Campbell program into a Southern Conference power and a national name. The Camels saw unprecedented success in his final four seasons, winning three SoCon Tournament titles (2017, 2019, 2020) and two regular-season SoCon Championships (2019, 2020). Under his tutelage, he produced 19 NCAA Championship qualifiers, 12 individual SoCon Champions and 28 medalists at the SoCon Tournament.

Kolat arrived at Campbell prior to the 2014-15 season after serving as associate head coach at North Carolina from 2010-14.

During Kolat's tenure in Chapel Hill, he was involved in all phases of the UNC program and helped improve the team's national ranking from 57 to 22. In addition, he served as head coach at the Olympic regional training center in Chapel Hill where he trained Olympic-level athletes.

Kolat has also served on wrestling staffs at Lehigh, Wisconsin, West Virginia and his alma mater, Lock Haven.

Kolat was named 2017 USA Wrestling Women's Co-Coach of the Year, joined by John Smith for the honor, and named by USA Wrestling. Smith and Kolat were the official 2017 Women's World Team coaches, working with National Coach Terry Steiner and leading the U.S. women in Paris, France to an impressive second-place finish. The team was led by World champion Helen Maroulis, World silver medalist Alli Ragan and World bronze medalist Becka Leathers.

On June 2-3, Kolat was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a member of the 41st Annual Class. Kolat is recognized as a Distinguished Member for the Modern Era. The NWHOF recognizes distinguished members as a wrestler who has achieved extraordinary success in national and/or international competition; a coach who has demonstrated great leadership in the profession and who has compiled an outstanding record; or a contributor whose long-term activities have substantially enhanced the development and advancement of the sport.

A two-time NCAA Division I wrestling champion, Kolat was a four-time All-American who went on to compete in the 2000 Sydney Olympics. A three-time World Cup gold medalist, he also won World silver and bronze medals.

His career also includes three U.S. Open championship medals and a pair of Pan-Am Games first-place finishes. Kolat was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1991-2002. In the summer of 2011, Kolat returned to competitive wrestling, was a finalist at the Kolat won four-straight state titles and compiled a perfect 137-0 record at Jefferson-Morgan High School in Green County Pa. He was named Outstanding Wrestler at the state meet each year, an honor no other wrestler had won even twice.

Kolat began his decorated collegiate career at Penn State, where he advanced to the NCAA finals as a freshman. After his sophomore year, he garnered All-America honors for the second-straight season and was named Big Ten Conference Wrestler of the Year. In two seasons at Penn State, Kolat compiled a 61-6 record, including a 39-1 mark as a sophomore.

He transferred to Lock Haven, where he won his first NCAA Division I National Championship in 1996 with a 25-1 record. He finished 25-0 as a senior when he won the 142-pound national title. He completed his college wrestling career with a 111-7 overall record and 53 pins.

Kolat earned his Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice from Lock Haven in 2003. He and his wife, Erin, are the parents of two daughters – Zoe and Gracie, and a son Ryder.
