CARY KOLAT

HEAD COACH

Former national champion and Olympic team member Cary Kolat is in his fifth year as the head coach of the Navy wrestling team after being introduced as the program's eighth head coach on March 20, 2020.

Navy wrestling posted an 8-6 record and won two of its five duals against Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (EIWA) opponents in 2023-24. The Mids opened the season with six-straight victories, which was their best start since 2016-17. Navy's first dual was a 23-18 upset against No. 23 Illinois. The victory marked the first time the Mids defeated a Big Ten opponent since 2019 when they beat Maryland, 21-12.

Navy then played host to the Navy Quad Meet, where it picked up three more wins against Morgan State (39-0), VMI (40-6) and No. 16 Pitt (21-12). The Mids improved to 26-13-2 against Pitt and earned their first win in the series since 1997.

Navy opened its EIWA slate against American. The Mids won all 10 bouts and earned bonus points in five to defeat the Eagles, 38-0. The victory marked the first time Navy shut out an EIWA foe since 1989 when it beat Franklin & Marshall, 37-0.

The Mids later won two duals against Lock Haven (33-9) and Bucknell (34-7). Kolat defeated his alma mater to give Navy its first win over Lock Haven since 1992. The Mids claimed their 22nd-consecutive win over the Bison to improve to 26-1 in the series. Navy's 22-straight victories over Bucknell is its longest active win streak against a program. The Mids ended the dual with their second-highest point total and posted their third-largest victory against the Bison. Additionally, Navy scored more than 30 points against Bucknell for the first time since 2007. The win marked the fifth time the Mids scored 30 or more points in a dual during the season, which is the most since 2006-07.

Navy placed second of 14 teams with 137 points at the 45th annual Navy Classic. Nine of the 20 wrestlers placed in the event, five of which were freshmen. Freshman Danny Wask (174) and senior Grady Griess (285) both finished with a 5-0 record to win their first titles at the Navy Classic. Wask became the first Navy freshman to earn a first-place finish since Joe Locksmith in 2010. Additionally, he is the first mid to win a title at 174 pounds since Jadaen Bernstein in 2016.

Wask and senior Griess shined again at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational. Wask finished with a 4-2 record to place fourth overall in his respective weight class. Griess also compiled a 4-2 record to place fifth at heavyweight.

Andrew Cerniglia (165) posted a 6-0 record to place first in his respective weight class at the 11th annual Franklin & Marshall Open. He became the eighth mid to garner a first-place finish at the tournament. Cerniglia outscored his six opponents, 73-30, and scored 10 or more points in five matches. Additionally, Wask (third), Griess (fourth) and Jamier Ferere (fifth/sixth) placed in the tournament.

Josh Koderhandt (141) posted a 4-0 record at the EIWA Championship to be crowned a champion in the tournament for the first time in his career. Navy was one of only four programs with an individual champion. Koderhandt won two matches by fall and outscored his additional two opponents, 17-2 to become the third mid to win an EIWA title under Kolat. Additional place winners at the league tournament were Cerniglia (second), David Key (third at 184), Griess (seventh) and Wask (seventh). The Mids finished in sixth place of 17 teams with 79.5 points.

All five place winners at the EIWA Championship qualified to compete in the NCAA Championship. Key highlighted nationals by placing eighth to become the first mid to garner All-America honors during Kolat's tenure in Annapolis. He claimed the 65th All-America nod in team history and became the first Navy wrestler to reach the podium since Mathew Miller (184) in 2016. Key was seeded 25th in his respective weight class for the championship and posted the second-largest seed to place difference (17) amongst the field of 330 wrestlers. Additionally, he was one of only four wrestlers seeded 20th or higher to place in the top eight in their respective weight class. Key compiled a 3-3 record at the championship, defeating Air Force's No. 7 Sam Wolf (4-1), Wisconsin's No. 20 Shane Liegel (4-2) and Missouri's No. 9 Colton Hawks (2-1).

Navy posted a 5-6 overall dual record during the 2022-23 season and won four of its five duals against EIWA Opponents. Additionally, the Mids wrestled in five tournaments during the regular season.

Navy placed third of 12 teams at the 44th annual Navy Classic. Nine Mids placed in the event, led by second-place finishes from Grady Griess (285) and Jacob Koser (197). Navy also had an impressive showing at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, finishing in 14th place as a team. Josh Koderhandt (141) won six matches in his weight class, five of which were against nationally ranked wrestlers to place fourth. Koser won three matches to finish seventh overall in his respective weight class.

The Mids won four of their final five duals to end the regular season. Navy defeated Hofstra, 21-12, and rallied to beat Binghamton, 19-18, in its final two duals in Annapolis. The Mids trailed the Bearcats, 15-6, but won four of the final five bouts to win the dual. Navy also continued its dominance over Bucknell and Army. The Mids won their 21st-consecutive dual over Bucknell with a 25-9 victory, improving to 25-1 in the all-time series. Kolat remained undefeated against Army with an 18-13 victory in West Point to claim Navy's 52nd win in the all-time series.

Kolat guided the Mids to another impressive outing at the EIWA Championship. Navy finished in a tie for fourth place out of 17 teams. Heavyweight Grady Griess won the 99th individual EIWA title in school history after posting a 4-0 record at the tournament. He was one of five Mids to earn an automatic qualifying spot for the NCAA Championship. Koser qualified for nationals for the third-straight season after placing fourth and Koderhandt earned his second-consecutive appearance by finishing in third place. David Key (184) also earned a third-place finish in his respective weight class to qualify for the championship for the second time in his career. Additionally, Brendan Ferretti (133) placed fourth at the league tournament to become one of only 17 true freshmen to qualify for nationals.

Seven Mids recorded 20 or more victories during the 2022-23 season, led by 32 wins from Griess. Navy's heavyweight became the 50th wrestler in program history to reach 30 victories in a season and the first Mid to achieve the mark since Michael Coleman (34) and Nicholas Gil (32) did so in the 2017-18 season. Also posting 20 or more wins was Koderhandt (28), Koser (26), Ferretti (22), Sammy Starr (21), Key (20) and Val Park (20).

Collegiate wrestling returned to its traditional format in 2021-22 with Kolat leading the Midshipmen to a 6-5 dual record, while also sending wrestlers to five tournaments during the regular season. Navy wrestlers claimed a combined 9 individual titles competing at the Clarion Open, Bearcat Open and Navy Classic. The Mids also saw great success in the 43rd annual Navy Classic, placing third in the 12-team field, while eight wrestlers placed in the top-three among their respective weight classes including four individual champions.

After dropping its first two duals to Maryland and Lehigh, Navy responded with three-straight victories over Hofstra (35-6), Ohio (21-14) and Cleveland State (32-7). Navy ended the regular season with another three-match win streak, defeating EIWA foe Bucknell (21-12) and Clarion (33-8), before claiming a 22-9 victory over Army in the annual Star Match which was held in Alumni Hall in Annapolis.

Four Navy wrestlers placed among the top eight in their respective weight classes, including 2022 finalists Josh Koderhandt (133) and Andrew Cerniglia (157), who helped lead Navy to a seventh-place finish at the 118th EIWA Championship. Additionally, Jacob Koser (197) placed third to join Koderhandt and Cerniglia as automatic qualifiers for the NCAA Championship, while Val Park (165) finished eighth, just missing a qualifier spot.

Koderhandt and Koser both claimed a victory at the NCAA Championship held at Little Caesars Arena in Detroit, Mich. to help Navy tie for 48th in the team standings.

Under his tutelage, Jacob Allen excelled both on and off the mat. A 2020-21 NCAA qualifier, Allen was named a 2022 First-Team CoSIDA Academic All-American. He graduated with a 4.00 grade-point average and was ranked No. 1 in the Class of 2022 in Academic Order of Merit, No. 2 in Military Order of Merit and No. 7 in Overall Order of Merit.

Kolat arrived in Annapolis at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, maneuvering his way through what would be a shortened season that featured only dual competition outside of the postseason conference and national tournaments.

Though Navy would fall short in its season-opener against Pitt 22-14, the Mids regrouped and won their final five duals of 2020-21 including a 41-3 victory at Clarion on Jan. 9 to give Kolat his first win at the Academy. The Midshipmen also claimed a 21-9 victory over Lehigh, their first against the reigning EIWA champions since defeating the Mountain Hawks 19-15 in Annapolis on Jan. 15, 2011. From there, Navy put together back-to-back shutouts against Cleveland State (37-0) and George Mason (44-0), marking the first time the Midshipmen put together two-straight shutout victories since the 1962-63 season when they blanked Hofstra 24-0 and followed up with a 30-0 win over Virginia Tech. Navy closed out the dual season by scoring a 20-13 victory over Army in the annual Star Match which was held at Christl Arena in West Point.

Navy placed second at the EIWA Championship, the program's best finish since 2013 (2nd). Seven Mids wrestled in the semifinals, while five competed in the finals, as seven of the Mids' nine wrestlers placed among the top three. Senior Cody Trybus became the program's 33rd different wrestler to earn multiple EIWA titles after winning the 141-pound weight class in 2000 and 2021.

Nine wrestlers represented Navy at the NCAA Championship, marking just the third time in program history that Navy has sent nine or more wrestlers to the national tournament and the first since 1969. Logan Treaster (125), Jacob Allen (133), Cody Trybus (141), Andrew Cerniglia (157), Tanner Skidgel (165), David Key (184) and Jacob Koser (197) earned automatic berths by way of their finish at the EIWA Championship, while Casey Cobb (149) and John Birchmeier (285) earned at-large bids. Five of the nine wrestlers won at least one match, as the Mids went on to finish 37th out of 63 teams.

Kolat established himself as one of the premier coaches in the sport after building a Campbell program into a Southern Conference power and a national name. The Camels saw unprecedented success in his final four seasons, winning three SoCon Tournament titles (2017, 2019, 2020) and two regular-season SoCon Championships (2019, 2020). Under his tutelage, he produced 19 NCAA Championship qualifiers, 12 individual SoCon Champions and 28 medalists at the SoCon Tournament.

Kolat arrived at Campbell prior to the 2014-15 season after serving as associate head coach at North Carolina from 2010-14.

During Kolat's tenure in Chapel Hill, he was involved in all phases of the UNC program and helped improve the team's national ranking from 57 to 22. In addition, he served as head coach at the Olympic regional training center in Chapel Hill where he trained Olympic-level athletes.

Kolat has also served on wrestling staffs at Lehigh, Wisconsin, West Virginia and his alma mater, Lock Haven.

Kolat was named 2017 USA Wrestling Women's Co-Coach of the Year, joined by John Smith for the honor, and named by USA Wrestling. Smith and Kolat were the official 2017 Women's World Team coaches, working with National Coach Terry Steiner and leading the U.S. women in Paris, France to an impressive second-place finish. The team was led by World champion Helen Maroulis, World silver medalist Alli Ragan and World bronze medalist Becca Leathers.

On June 2-3, Kolat was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a member of the 41st Annual Class. Kolat is recognized as a Distinguished Member for the Modern Era. The NWHOF recognizes distinguished members as a wrestler who has achieved extraordinary success in national and/or international competition; a coach who has demonstrated great leadership in the profession and who has compiled an outstanding record; or a contributor whose long-term activities have substantially enhanced the development and advancement of the sport.

A two-time NCAA Division I wrestling champion, Kolat was a four-time All-American who went on to compete in the 2000 Sydney Olympics. A three-time World Cup gold medalist, he also won World silver and bronze medals.

His career also includes three U.S. Open championship medals and a pair of Pan-Am Games first-place finishes. Kolat was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1991-2002. In the summer of 2011, Kolat returned to competitive wrestling, was a finalist at the U.S. Open and competed in the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials.

Kolat won four-straight state titles and compiled a perfect 137-0 record at Jefferson-Morgan High School in Green County Pa. He was named Outstanding Wrestler at the state meet each year, an honor no other wrestler had won even twice.

Kolat began his decorated collegiate career at Penn State, where he advanced to the NCAA finals as a freshman. After his sophomore year, he garnered All-America honors for the second-straight season and was named Big Ten Conference Wrestler of the Year. In two seasons at Penn State, Kolat compiled a 61-6 record, including a 39-1 mark as a sophomore.

He transferred to Lock Haven, where he won his first NCAA Division I National Championship in 1996 with a 25-1 record. He finished 25-0 as a senior when he won the 142-pound national title. He completed his college wrestling career with a 111-7 overall record and 53 pins.

Kolat earned his Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice from Lock Haven in 2003. He and his wife, Erin, are the parents of two daughters – Zoe and Gracie, and a son Ryder.

BLAIZE CABELL

ASSISTANT COACH

Blaize Cabell is in his fifth season as an assistant coach at Navy after spending the 2019-20 season as the volunteer assistant coach at Campbell.

Cabell works primarily with the wrestlers at 184, 197 and 285 pounds.

Cabell guided David Key (184) to an eighth-place finish at the NCAA Championship to become the first mid to garner All-America honors during head coach Cary Kolat's tenure at Navy. He claimed the 65th All-America nod in team history and became the first Navy wrestler to reach the podium since Mathew Miller (184) in 2016. Key was seeded 25th in his respective weight class for the championship and posted the second-largest seed to place difference (17) amongst the field of 330 wrestlers. Additionally, he was one of only four wrestlers seeded 20th or higher to place in the top eight in their respective weight class. Key compiled a 3-3 record at the championship, defeating Air Force's No. 7 Sam Wolf (4-1), Wisconsin's No. 20 Shane Liegel (4-2) and Missouri's No. 9 Colton Hawks (2-1).

Key recorded career highs in wins (21), dual victories (seven), wins by fall (five) and victories against ranked wrestlers (eight) during his senior season. He posted two vital pins over ranked opponents in Navy's upset victories over No. 23 Illinois (23-18) and No. 16 Pitt (21-12). Key also had tremendous success at the EIWA Championship, placing third with a 5-1 record to earn his third trip to the NCAA Championship.

Heavyweights Grady Griess and Jamier Ferere were also key pieces in 2023-24.

Griess led the team in total victories (26) and wins by fall (nine). He also totaled a career-high nine wins over ranked wrestlers during his senior campaign. Griess won eight dual matches over the course of the season, which included a 4-2 decision over Pitt's No. 9 Dayton Pitzer. He also had great success in tournaments, placing first at the Navy Classic, fourth at the Franklin & Marshall Open and fifth at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational.

Griess represented the Mids at 285 pounds at the EIWA Championship and placed seventh. He clinched his second trip to the NCAA Championship for his placement at the EIWA tournament. Griess ended with a 2-2 record at nationals with victories against Binghamton's No. 20 Cory Day (4-1) and Rider's No. 24 David Szuba (Fall / 4:09).

Ferere doubled his win total from his freshman season, posting a record of 20-7. He won 10 of his final 11 matches of the season and finished in a tie for the second-most wins by fall on the team with eight. Ferere placed in four tournaments (Mat Town College Open II - 1st; Patriots Open - 2nd; Navy Classic - 4th; Franklin & Marshall Open - 5th/6th) and won both of his dual matches during the season. His sophomore campaign was highlighted by defeating Bucknell's No. 27 Dorian Crosby by a 6-4 decision in Navy's, 34-7, victory over the Bison.

Three of Navy's five NCAA qualifiers during the 2022-23 season worked directly with Cabell.

Grady Griess had the top season for the Mids. The junior recorded a team-leading 32 victories and eight dual wins. He became the 50th wrestler in Navy history to reach 30 victories in a season and the first Mid to achieve the mark since Michael Coleman (34) and Nicholas Gil (32) did so in the 2017-18 season.

Griess won his first 10 matches of the season, taking first place at the Clarion Open and Bearcat Open and second at the Navy Classic. After posting a 3-2 record at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, Griess won 19 of his next 21 contests. He posted a 6-0 record to place first at the Franklin & Marshall Open where he surrendered just five points at the tournament.

Griess also dominated his foes at the EIWA Championship. He finished with a 4-0 record and outscored his opponents, 36-7, to win the 109th individual EIWA title in program history. Griess also earned an automatic qualifying spot for the NCAA Championship. He recorded a 1-2 record at nationals with a victory against 20th-ranked Josh Heindselman of Oklahoma by a 3-0 decision. Navy's heavyweight led the team with eight wins against nationally ranked opponents during the season.

Jacob Koser (197) finished his career at Navy with his third-consecutive appearance at the NCAA Championship. Koser posted a 1-2 record at nationals with a 6-4 decision win against 23rd-ranked Andy Smith of Virginia Tech. He earned his third trip to the NCAA Championship after recording a 3-2 record to finish in fourth place at the EIWA Championship.

Koser earned tournament titles at the Bearcat Open and Franklin & Marshall Open and placed second at the Navy Classic during the regular season. He was also one of only two Mids to place at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, earning seventh place with a record of 3-2. Koser matched his career high with 26 victories during his senior campaign. He also recorded a career-high six fall victories during his final season to end his career with 17.

David Key qualified for the NCAA Championship for the second time in his career. He finished with a 1-2 record at nationals and upset 22nd-ranked Dylan Connell of Illinois by an 8-4 decision. Key had a huge turnaround to place third at the EIWA Championship. After dropping his second match of the league tournament to 24th-ranked Brian Bonino of Drexel, Key won his next three matches to set up a rematch with Bonino in the third-place bout. He jumped on Bonino immediately and won by an 8-3 decision.

Key finished with 20 wins during his junior season and won five dual matches. He recorded an important victory in Navy's, 18-13, win in the Star Meet against Army. He defeated Sahm Abdulrazzaq by a 3-2 decision to give Navy its first bout win of the dual.

Another contributor under Cabell in 2022-23 was Jacob Lucas (197). He won 18 matches during his freshman campaign and defeated Oklahoma's Seth Seago by a 3-1 decision in sudden victory to earn his first collegiate dual victory. Lucas placed in five tournaments over the course of the season, which included a first-place finish at the Mat Town College Open I. He also had an impressive fourth-place showing at the Navy Classic.

Cabell worked alongside 197-pound NCAA qualifier Jacob Koser during the 2021-22 season. Koser recorded the second-most wins on the team with 26 and had the second-most dual wins with eight. Koser captured individual titles at two tournaments over the course of the season (Clarion Open / Navy Classic). He defeated 17th-ranked Cameron Caffey of Michigan State by an 8-0 major decision in the title match of the Navy Classic. Koser went on to place third at the EIWA Championship with a 4-1 record and defeated 30th-ranked Ben Smith of Cleveland State by a 12-0 major decision for his lone win at the NCAA Championship.

Hunter Johns and David Key competed at 184 pounds for the Mids. Johns placed second at the Bearcat Open and third at the East Stroudsburg Open. Key was crowned the 184-pound Navy Classic champion, defeating 26th-ranked Layne Malczewski of Michigan State by a 10-4 decision in the title match.

Cabell worked with a trio of 285 pounders that finished the year with a number of accolades. Ryan Catka (23), Grady Griess (19) and Riley Smith (15) finished the season with a combined 57 wins. Catka's 23 wins were the most by a Navy heavyweight since Ed Prendergast recorded a 39-5 record en route to winning the 2008 EIWA title and earning All-America honors with a third-place finish at the NCAA Championship. He finished the dual season with a 6-1 record. In tournament competition, Smith won the Navy Classic, while Griess finished two spots behind in third.

Cabell and the Navy staff arrived in Annapolis at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, maneuvering their way through what would be a shortened season that featured only dual competition outside of the postseason conference and national tournaments.

After dropping its season-opener to Pitt 22-14, Navy won its final five duals of 2020-21, including a 41-3 victory at Clarion on Jan. 9 to give Cary Kolat and his staff their first win at the Academy. The Midshipmen also claimed a 21-9 victory over Lehigh, their first against the reigning EIWA champions since defeating the Mountain Hawks 19-15 in Annapolis on Jan. 15, 2011.

From there, Navy put together back-to-back shutouts against Cleveland State (37-0) and George Mason (44-0), marking the first time the Midshipmen put together two-straight shutout victories since the 1962-63 season when they blanked Hofstra 24-0 and followed up with a 30-0 win over Virginia Tech. Navy closed out the dual season by scoring a 20-13 victory over Army in the annual Star Match which was held at Christl Arena in West Point.

Navy placed second at the EIWA Championship, the program's best finish since 2013 (2nd). Seven Mids wrestled in the semifinals, while five competed in the finals, as seven of the Mids' nine wrestlers placed among the top three.

Nine wrestlers represented Navy at the NCAA Championship, marking just the third time in program history that Navy has sent nine or more wrestlers to the national tournament and the first since 1969. Logan Treaster (125), Jacob Allen (133), Cody Trybus (141), Andrew Cerniglia (157), Tanner Skidgel (165), David Key (184) and Jacob Koser (197) earned automatic berths by way of their finish at the EIWA Championship, while Casey Cobb (149) and John Birchmeier (285) earned at-large bids. Five of the nine wrestlers won at least one match, as the Mids went on to finish 37th out of 63 teams.

A three-time NCAA qualifier (2014-16) at heavyweight during his collegiate career at Northern Iowa, Cabell's responsibilities at Campbell included helping develop the 197-pound and heavyweight athletes. Among his prized pupils, heavyweight Jere Heino clinched his third NCAA Tournament berth following his runner-up finish at the 2020 SoCon Championship, while 197-pound Chris Kober placed third at the conference tournament.

The Camels wrapped up the 2019-20 season by posting an 11-2 record that featured wins in each of their last nine duals. Among that nine-match winning streak, CU put together an undefeated mark (7-0) in conference action. Campbell secured its second straight and third overall SoCon Tournament Championship in four years thanks to crowning five individual champions.

Campbell, who ranked as high as No. 12 in the country (InterMat), completed a sweep of its regular-season conference schedule with a 35-13 win at Davidson on February 23, claiming its second straight league dual championship. The dual title is the first outright regular-season championship for the Camels in program history, while its undefeated conference record was also a first.

The 2016 Mid-American Conference Champion competed for the Panther Wrestling Club and the Valley Regional Training Center following graduation. He placed fourth at the Senior Men's Freestyle World Team Trials (97 KG) in 2018.

He and his wife, Kate, reside in Annapolis with their son.

TY EUSTICE ASSISTANT COACH

Ty Eustice is in his first year as assistant wrestling coach at the Naval Academy. Eustice comes to Navy from Davidson where he had served as the head assistant coach since 2021.

Prior to coaching at Davidson Eustice was an assistant coach at Minnesota State in Mankato, Minn. from 2017-21. While at Minnesota State, Eustice coached two NCAA finalists, seven All-Americans and 15 national qualifiers. Minnesota State was 24-6 over his final three seasons and finished 10th at the NCAA Championship in both 2018 and 2021.

Eustice served as the head wrestling coach at Iowa Lakes Community College in 2010 and 2011 where he coached six All-Americans, including two-time national champion Victor DeJesus. His teams finished seventh and 10th at the national tournament.

Eustice started his coaching career in 2009 as an assistant coach at Cornell College in Iowa.

The Blue Earth, Minn. native wrestled collegiately at the University of Iowa where he was a two-time All American and a four-time NCAA Qualifier. In 2006, the two-time team captain was a NCAA Finalist. He was also a member of the Big Ten Championship team in 2004.

Eustice also earned the distinction of Cadet, Junior and FILA Junior National Freestyle All-American. Before wrestling collegiately, Eustice was also a four-time high school state champion in Minnesota.

Eustice earned his BA from the University of Iowa in 2006 and his MA from MSU Mankato in 2008.

BARRY DAVIS ASSISTANT COACH

Barry Davis joined the Navy wrestling staff as an assistant coach in May of 2024.

Davis comes to Annapolis following a 25-year stint as the head coach at Wisconsin. During his tenure with the Badgers, he coached three national champions, 26 All-Americans, 62 NCAA qualifiers and eight Big Ten champions. He is Wisconsin's all-time winningest coach (227-167-11) and led the Badgers to 15 top-20 finishes at the NCAA championship, which included a fourth-place finish in 2010 that tied the best placement in school history. Davis was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Wrestling Coaches Association for his team's finish during the 2009-10 campaign.

Davis is well known for having top-level talent in the 165-pound weight class.

He coached two-time 165-pound NCAA champion Donny Pritzlaff (2000, '01) at Wisconsin. Along with his two national titles, Pritzlaff was named an All-American at 150 pounds (sixth) in 1998 and 165 pounds (fifth) in 1999. Additionally, he won three Big Ten titles at 165 under Davis (1999, 2000, '01).

Davis aided Andrew Howe to his first NCAA Division I title at 165 pounds and a perfect 37-0 overall record in 2010. Howe also garnered All-America distinction in 2009 and 2011 for placing second and third, respectively, at nationals. Howe dominated the Big Ten during his three years as a Badger, winning the 165-pound conference title in 2009, '10 and '11.

Isaac Jordan claimed All-America accolades four times under Davis' guidance. He placed seventh in 2014 (157) and 2015 (165) before finishing as the runner-up at 165 pounds in 2016. He capped off his career with a fourth-place effort at 165 pounds in 2017. Jordan also won a pair of Big Ten titles (2015, '16) while working with Davis.

Davis' additional national champion was Jeff Walter, who won the heavyweight title in 1996.

Another big name for Davis during his time with Wisconsin was Tyler Graff, who was named an All-American at 133 pounds four times (2010 - 5th; 2011 - 5th; 2013 - 3rd; 2014 - 2nd).

Davis began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Iowa, during the 1986 and 1987 campaigns. He later served as an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes from 1988-92 before heading to Madison. During his coaching tenure in Iowa City, he helped Iowa win three national championships (1986, '91, '92) and seven-straight Big Ten titles (1986, '87, '88, '89, '90, '91, '92).

Davis is also one of the most decorated athletes in collegiate wrestling as a three-time national champion and a four-time NCAA All-American at Iowa. He won the 118-pound national championship in 1982 and the 126-pound titles in 1983 and 1985. Additionally, Davis was named the Outstanding Wrestler of the 1985 NCAA Championship. His efforts helped the Hawkeyes claim four national team titles (1981, '82, '83, '85).

Davis also led Iowa to four Big Ten championships. He was crowned a champion all four years he competed in the conference tournament and is one of only 18 wrestlers to win four Big Ten titles.

Following his historic senior season, Davis was named the 1985 Big Ten Conference Athlete of the Year. He finished his career with a record of 162-9-1. He still holds school records for victories in a single season (46 in 1982) and career wins (162) and is fourth in career-winning percentage (94.5). For his accomplishments, Davis was inducted into the National Iowa Varsity Club Athletic Hall of Fame in September of 1998. He was later recognized by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a distinguished member in 2007.

Davis' success in college led to multiple opportunities to wrestle internationally. After winning the gold medal at the 1983 Pan American Games (125.5) as a member of the U.S. World wrestling team, he redshirted the 1984 season to compete for the U.S. Olympic freestyle wrestling team. Davis won a silver medal at 125.5 pounds at the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles. He went on to win a bronze and silver medal at the 1986 and 1987 World Championships, respectively, at 125.5 pounds. Davis was also a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic freestyle wrestling team.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Davis won three state championships for Prairie High School and compiled a record of 102-6-1. He graduated from Iowa in 1985 with a degree in general studies. Davis is married to Andrea Davidson and has two daughters, Amanda and Amy.

BEN BARTON

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Ben Barton is in his first year as Director of Operations for Navy wrestling. Barton comes to Navy from Rudis Wrestling Apparel, where he worked for the past year.

Barton was a three-time NCAA Division I qualifier as a wrestler going twice while he was at Campbell and once at Lock Haven.

Barton helped lead the Camels to Southern Conference titles in 2017, 2019, 2020 and 2021, winning the Southern Conference title at 157 pounds in 2019 to earn his first bid to the NCAA Tournament and was an at-large qualifier in 2021.

Barton continued his success at Lock Haven while working on his master's degree in sports administration, helping the Bald Eagles win the 2022 MAC Championship, claiming the 157-pound championship and earning his third trip to the NCAA Championship.

A Louisville, Ky., native, Barton earned a Bachelor of Science in marketing from Campbell University in 2020.

2024-25 NAVY WRESTLING

ARMY-NAVY RIVALRY

There are few rivalries in all of sports that compare to that of Army-Navy. On the mat, Army-Navy wrestling is no exception. The two schools have been going to battle on the mat every year since 1957, when the Mids topped the Cadets, 17-8. Army then took four of the next five matches, before Navy went on the most dominant streak in the history of intercollegiate competition between the two academies.

From 1963 to 1996, the Mids wrestled 34 consecutive matches without a loss. Navy won 30 matches and tied four times between 1963's 18-9 win, and 1996's 21-9 win. Through the streak, there were a few close matches, like Navy's 22-18 win in 1993. But the majority were lopsided, such as the Mids' 40-2 win in 1975. Navy's dominance was most evident in the 1970s, when the Mids never failed to score fewer than 23 points, and never gave up more than 14. The average score between 1970 and 1979 was an amazing Navy 31.3, Army 6.7.

In 2001, Navy kicked off a 14-match winning streak by capturing an exciting 19-13 victory at West Point. In 2002, the Mids scored an electrifying 22-9 win over the Black Knights in Alumni Hall with a crowd of over 3,000 looking on that included then Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld. In 2014, the Mids won eight of the 10 bouts, including each of the first three to secure a 29-6 victory over the Black Knights in Annapolis.

The Mids' 18-match unbeaten streak against the Black Knights that dated back to 1997 was snapped in 2015 when Army earned a 21-10 victory over Navy. The Mids, however, returned to the win column in 2016 with a 19-17 decision over the Black Knights in Annapolis.

Army strung together its largest win streak in the series from 2017-20, but Navy has responded with three-straight victories dating back to 2021. Army slowed down Navy's win streak with a narrow 18-17 victory in 2024.
