AGGIE STADIUM

Florida A&M (3-5, 3-2 MEAC)
AT

North Carolina A&T (4-4, 2-3 MEAC)

Date: November 3, 2012

Time: 1:30 p.m.

Stadium: Aggie Stadium

City: Greensboro, N.C.

Radio: WNAA 90.1 FM, Campus Radio Station. Spencer Gwynn (play-by-play), Al Swann (color) and Billy Covington (color) bring the action.

Webstream: www.ncataggies.com, Walter Johnson (play-by-play), Alan Hooker (color).

Records: A&T is 4-4 overall and 2-3 in the MEAC after a 30-9 homecoming win over Norfolk State. A&T will need to win 2 out of 3 to finish above .500 for the first time in nine seasons. FAMU is 3-5 and 3-2 in the MEAC after a bye last week.

Rankings: Neither team is ranked in the Sports Network FCS poll, the Sheridan Broadcast poll or the Boxtorow HBCU poll.

North Carolina A&T Coach Rod Broadway: Broadway is in his second season with the Aggies and his 10th overall. He has a 77-33 record overall. He is 9-10 as the head coach of North Carolina A&T. He spent four seasons each at N.C. Central and Grambling State. He is 0-1 all-time against Florida A&M.

Florida A&M coach Joe Taylor: Taylor is in his 30th season as a head coach and his 5th season as the head man at FAMU. He has an impressive career record of 233-95-4, and he is 35-18 during his time in Tallahassee. Taylor won a share of the MEAC title with the Rattlers in 2010. He is 12-4 all-time against A&T.

Times Have Changed Offensively For A&T

A year ago, the Aggies had three clear-cut superstars on offense. Running back Mike Mayhew was MEAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year after recording his second straight 1,000-yard season. He carried the ball a school-record 231 times, 155 more times than backup Dominique Drake. Wide receiver Wallace Miles was the undisputed go-to man in the air. He became the school's first single-season 1,000-yard receiver after catching a school-record 70 passes. Behind center in 2011 was quarterback Lewis Kindle, who became just the fourth quarterback in school history to throw for more than 2,000 yards. In the process, the Aggies had their first-ever season where there was a 2,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher on the same team. In 2012, the roles have changed. Mayhew has shared carries with Drake and Ricky Lewis with Lewis leading the Aggies in rushing against Norfolk State last Saturday. No receiver has emerged as a No. 1 and on Kwashaun Quick replaced Kindle against the Spartans, leaving open the question, who is the Aggies starter for their conference game against Florida A&M this week? There are no such questions on the defensive side.

Cornerback D'Vonte Graham is tied for the MEAC lead in interceptions, strong safety Travis Crosby is third in the conference in tackles and as a team, the Aggies have had very few changes to the starting lineup defensively. The Aggies have the No. 1 defense in the conference and the No. 2 defense in the nation. A strong Aggies defense will be needed against a FAMU passing game that is No. 1 in the MEAC. Like the Aggies a year ago, the Rattlers have clear-cut stars on offense. QB Damien Fleming completes nearly 70 percent of his passes and has 15 touchdown passes and only four interceptions. Lenworth Lennon and Travis Harvey are ranked 2,3 in the conference in receiving. Defensively the Rattlers are led by linebacker Brandon Hepburn who has 64 tackles and 7.5 tackles for loss.

Who's Next?

A&T will play its seventh and final home game of the season as S.C. State comes to Aggie Stadium. The Bulldogs have won 11 straight against the Aggies, the longest winning streak for either team in the series.

2012 Aggie Football

WEEK 9 • FLORIDA A&M AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T • NOV. 3, 2012
AGGIE STADIUM

Coastal Carolina used three A&T turnovers to score 10 points in a 29-13 win. The Aggies started freshman quarterback Kwashaun Quick who was 11-for-23 for 155 yards and a touchdown. Fellow freshman Marquis Gorham made six catches for 48 yards. D'Vonte Grant had a game-high 15 tackles to lead A&T defensively.

A&T broke the school's single-game scoring record with a 77-0 win over West Virginia State. A&T compiled 489 yards of offense, while limiting the Yellow Jackets to just 41 yards of offense. Five different Aggie running backs, led Dominique Drake's three, scored touchdowns. Freshman kicker Zach Cimaglia connected on a school-record 10 extra points in the win.

Freshman kicker Zach Cimaglia connected on four field goals and quarterback Lewis Kindle threw two touchdown passes to lead the Aggies to a 40-7 win over Virginia University of Lynchburg. The Aggies defense recorded its second straight shutout as the Dragons only score came on a 45-yard interception return by Keith Lewis.

MSU receiver Andrew King caught a 32-yard TD pass in the back of the end zone from Robert Council with 10 seconds remaining to lead the Bears to a 21-18 win over A&T at Aggie Stadium. The Aggies missed an extra point and a field goal in the game, which made a huge difference. Running back Mike Mayhew did break the school's rushing record.

North Carolina A&T squandered three outstanding scoring opportunities with two turnovers in the red zone and a missed field goal as Bethune-Cookman came away with a 28-12 win. Junior strong safety Travis Crosby led a list of four Aggies who had double-figure tackles as he finished with 14 stops, 1.5 tackles for loss and he forced a fumble.

North Carolina A&T intercepted three passes and returned two for touchdowns as the Aggies handed Howard its first conference loss of the season with a 38-10 win at Aggie Stadium. Running back Mike Mayhew helped the Aggies offensively as he finished with 138 yards and a touchdown. Ricky Lewis added 76 yards and a touchdown.

Three North Carolina A&T turnovers led to 14 Delaware State points as the Hornets shut out the Aggies 24-0. It was the first shutout of the Aggies in four years. The Aggies played the Hornets evenly on the offensive end, but could not overcome two missed field goals and turnovers.

Freshman Quarterback Kwashaun Quick replaced A&T starter Lewis Kindle to start the second half and sparked the Aggies to a 30-9 homecoming win. It was the Aggies second consecutive homecoming win. After the Aggies trailed 9-7 at the half, Quick led the Aggies on a scoring drive that included him running for a 29-yard TD run.

Florida A&M has had A&T's number since the two teams started playing another in 1938. The Rattlers lead the all-time series 44-13-3. Nothing has changed recently. The Rattlers have won the last seven meetings even though the last three games have been decided by an average of 4.3 points. The Aggies last win over FAMU at Aggie Stadium came in 2003.

The Aggies would love to end their nasty losing streak against the Bulldogs. A&T is 0-11 in last 11 meetings against the Bulldogs, and their head coach Buddy Pough is 10-0 when facing A&T. S.C. State's 11-game win streak over the Aggies is the longest in the series. A&T's last win over the Bulldogs came in 2000.

One of the best rivalries in the FCS occurs on Nov. 17 as A&T travels to Durham. The two teams have made the rivalry even better with close games that come down to the final seconds. The series tied at five games apiece over the last 10 meetings. A&T's 10-point win over the Eagles last season was its largest margin of victory over NCCU since a 25-0 win in 2003.

Media Information

2012 Aggie Football

WEEK 9 • FLORIDA A&M AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T • NOV. 3, 2012 AGGIE STADIUM

A&T's LAST TIME OUT

A&T will play its seventh and final home game of the season as S.C. State comes to Aggie Stadium. The Bulldogs have won 11 straight against the Aggies, the longest winning streak for either team in the series.

North Carolina A&T made a quarterback change to start the second half and rolled to a 30-9 win over Norfolk State during the Aggies 2012 Greatest Homecoming On Earth. A&T quarterback Lewis Kindle started against the Spartans, but was ineffective. Kindle threw three first-half interceptions as the Aggies trailed 9-0 early. The Aggies trailed 9-7 at halftime because D'Vonte Graham returned a Norfolk State missed field goal 100 yards for a touchdown. Meanwhile, the Aggies offense was in the midst of going six straight quarters without a score.

Therefore, to open the second half, the Aggies turned to freshman quarterback Kwashaun Quick to replace Kindle. Quick quickly sparked the Aggies offense as his opening drive resulted in him scoring on a 29-yard touchdown run. The Aggies, who forced six turnovers in the game, then used one of those turnovers to expand their lead. After a NSU fumble, A&T running back Ricky Lewis scored on a 19-yard touchdown run to give A&T a 20-9 lead. A&T dominated defensively from there.

It allowed NSU just one second-half first down and five for the game. The Spartans were able to muster just 160 yards of offense. Mike Mayhew closed out the Aggies scoring with a 4-yard touchdown run. Quick had 68 yards rushing on seven carries. Running back Ricky Lewis finished the game with 81 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries. D'Vonte Grant led the Aggies defensively with seven solo tackles.

Noting The Norfolk State Game

- For the first time in the Broadway era, the Aggies were able to overcome a halftime deficit to win. In Broadway's previous 18 games as Aggies head coach, A&T was 0-8 when trailing at the half.
- North Carolina A&T's win on Saturday gave the Aggies their second consecutive homecoming win. It is the first time since 2000 and 2001 that the Aggies have been able to win consecutive homecoming games.

- The Aggies recaptured the lead after halftime, giving them the lead going into the fourth quarter. The Aggies are 4-0 this season and 9-1 under Broadway when they lead going into the fourth quarter. The Aggies are 7-0 under Broadway when they score 30 or points.

- NSU totaled just 160 yards of offense. It marked the third time during the Broadway era, the Aggies held an opponent to 200 yards or less in total offense.

- NSU's five first downs are the fewest first downs the Spartans have ever had in the 39-game series with A&T.

The Remarkable A&T 'D'

The average size of the starting North Carolina A&T defensive line is 6-foot-1, 248 pounds. The average size of A&T's is 5-11, 217 pounds. In other words, the Aggies are not very big on the defensive side of the ball. Despite being small in stature, they have the No. 2 defense in the nation and the No. 1 defense in the MEAC. The Aggies are only allowing 279.4 yards per game, while holding opponents to 113.6 yards per game on the ground. A&T is coming off of a performance where they did not allow Norfolk State into the end zone. On three separate occasions this season, the Aggies have not allowed an opponent to score a touchdown. At home, opponents have only scored 37 points against the Aggies defense in five games. In the process, opponents are averaging 99.8 yards per game on the ground at Aggie Stadium. The Aggies are also No. 1 in the conference in rushing defense and passing efficiency defense.

Quarterback Changes

North Carolina A&T has had its share of quarterback changes over the past few seasons. Last season, Lewis Kindle became the first A&T quarterback in a decade to start every game of a season.

Kindle's consecutive games started streak ended after the first game of 2012 when he sat out against Coastal Carolina because of a suspension.

The Aggies head into this week with some uncertainty as who the starter will be after Kwashaun Quick replaced Kindle in the second half of the Aggies 30-9 win over Norfolk State. In the 10 seasons prior to 2011, the Aggies have played 19 different quarterbacks with 12 of them getting starts.

Mayhew Mayhem

For the remainder of the 2012 season, Mike Mayhew will play under the moniker of A&T all-time leading rusher. Mayhew broke the record on an 8-yard carry in the second quarter. He almost lost the record with a six-yard loss on the next play. He solidified his mark however, with a 105-yard performance. Against Howard, he broke the school record for 100-yard rushing performances as his 138-yards game him the 13th of his career. He also became the 12th player in MEAC history to rush for 3,000 yards in a career. He now ranks 11th on the conference's all-time list.

Mayhew Breaks Carries Record

Mike Mayhew has carried the ball 676 times during his career, making him the Aggies all-time leader in carries. He broke Stoney Polite's school record for most carries in a career on Sept. 1, 2012 at Coastal Carolina as his 11 carries took him over the top.

Mayhew could put the record out of reach with five more games to play this season. He was only one of 25 backs with at least 150 carries in the FCS. In 2010, Mayhew carried the ball a school record 221 times.

The next year, he outdid himself by breaking his own record with 231 rushing attempts. Mayhew has recorded 25 or more rushing attempts eight times in his career. He averages 131.8 yards in those games.

Legends Speak To The Team

Two distinguished North Carolina A&T graduates and former Aggie football players addressed the football team before A&T's homecoming tilt against Norfolk State. Reverend Jesse Jackson, a famous civil rights activist and a two-time presidential candidate in the 1980's, played quarterback for the Aggies in the early 1960's. He came to prominence during the civil rights movement of the 1960's. Elvin Bethea is a former 15 NFL defensive lineman who played on the Aggies offensive line from 1964-67. Bethea's 15-year NFL career earned him passage to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

Jackson talked about preparation. Think about and understand the opponent long before the game. He also talked about the importance of graduating and making a difference in society. Bethea told the current Aggies they play for a great university. Bethea said to always be better than your opponent.

2012 Aggie Football

WEEK 9 • FLORIDA A&M AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T • NOV. 3, 2012 AGGIE STADIUM

At Home On Broadway

North Carolina A&T head coach Rod Broadway is tough to beat when he plays at home.

In four years at N.C. Central, Broadway was 18-5 at O'Kelly-Riddick Stadium. He was even better at Grambling, where he went 15-0 at Grambling's Eddie Robinson Stadium. A year ago, Broadway was 4-1 at Aggie Stadium, and he is 8-2 at home since becoming A&T's head football coach. In total, Broadway is 41-7 all-time when he plays at home as a head coach.

Hitman Crosby

Big things are expected from junior strong safety Travis Crosby. He was picked as a preseason All-MEAC performer and currently leads the Aggies in tackles.

He has not disappointed. Crosby leads the MEAC in tackles with 9.9 per game. He is also trying to head toward All-American status as a safety. Crosby is also fierce in the classroom with a 3.4 GPA in criminal justice. He is on pace to record 100 tackles this season.

His story is one of triumph. After growing up in a poverty-stricken neighborhood in Charlotte, Crosby decided in the 11th grade he did not want to follow the example of his peers by becoming a drug dealer or a high school dropout. Instead, he used football to earn an athletic scholarship to North Carolina A&T, where he has excelled as a student.

Crosby wants to become a lawyer, so he can help those trapped in the criminal justice system.

Ricky Lewis Steps In

Ricky Lewis has done almost everything since stepping on A&T's campus after leading nearby Dudley High School to two consecutive state championships. He arrived as a quarterback, where he eventually positioned himself as the quarterback for the wildcat formation. Over time, he became a punt returner and a wide receiver. This season, Lewis is a running back and a pretty good one. Coming into the Florida A&M game, Lewis is averaging 4.2 yards per carry and has scored two touchdowns. He had a game-high 81 yards against Norfolk State on Oct. 27. For his career, he has 1,016 all-purpose yards and has scored 8 times (6 rushing, two receiving) in 24 games.

Scoreboard

Aggie fans can look for some new tradition on the Aggie Stadium video board. Before the start of the fourth quarter, a picture of the Greensboro/A&T Four appears on the video screen. The four men – Joseph McNeil, Franklin McCain, Ezell Blair, Jr. (later known as Jibreel Khazan) and David Richmond – ignited the modern day civil rights movement with their sit-in at the segregated F.W. Woolworth's.

Head coach Rod Broadway wants it to represent the leadership needed going into the fourth quarter. The video board will also display the school's alma mater at the end of the game as the Blue & Gold Marching Machine plays it in front of the football team. Broadway wants the team to learn the school song because he wants them to know about the great history of the school.

The Fastest Aggies

After missing last season to focus on his academics, it doesn't look like D'Vonte Graham has missed a beat. Graham handles the Aggies kickoff and punt returns as well as man the corner-back island. In many cases, the Aggies depend on Graham to play a lot of 1-on-1 coverage.

He has responded by ranking sixth in the nation in punt returns, while helping the Aggies defense rank No. 2 in the MEAC in pass defense.

Graham uses his remarkable speed to enhance the Aggies defense and special teams. Graham ranks as the fastest Aggie (4.33) along with wide receiver Larry Raper (4.34) and Mike Mayhew (4.50). He's glad he made the decision he made because some of his friends did not have good outcomes.

The 2014 Class

The one thing that concerns North Carolina A&T head coach is the Aggies' 2014 class. That's because there isn't one. In 2010, the Aggies were not able to pull together a recruiting class because of NCAA sanctions due to a low APR score.

APR scores measure a program's graduation rate. The Aggies have put initiatives in place in order to improve the score, but it will not change the fact the Aggies will lack senior leadership in 2014.

The upside is that in 2015, the Aggies should have an impressive junior and senior class with players such as receivers Marquis Gorham and Darren Bullock.

Kicking Duties

North Carolina A&T will be sharing its kicking duties. Freshman Zach Cimaglia struggled midway through the season after getting off to a hot start. Cimaglia is 10-for-17 in field goals and 20-for-22 in the extra points. He has hit just four of his last nine field goals. Sophomore Jose Garcia-Camacho will handle the extra point duties and short field goals, while Cimaglia will handle 30-plus yard field goals and kickoffs. Cimaglia has nine touchbacks this season.

The Freshmen

The Aggies are relying on numerous freshmen this season, more noticeably on the offensive side of the ball. Freshman receiver Marquis Gorham has led the Aggies in receiving in all five games in 2012. Fellow freshman receiver Darren Bullock has also been instrumental in the Aggies offense. He has played in all five games and has caught a pass in all but one of those games. Even quarterback Kwashaun Quick has seen action this season as he was the Aggies Game 1 starter. Freshman kicker Zach Cimaglia has aided the Aggies in the kicking game by punting, and converting on eight field goals this season. Redshirt freshman tight end Kevin Francis has also played a significant role. Freshman defensive back Tony McRae has played several roles for the Aggies including, cornerback, safety and kick returner.

Offensive Linemen Shuffle

North Carolina A&T has not had the same starting lineup along the offensive line all season. Injuries and a lack of depth have left the Aggies shuffling their lineup upfront each week. Left tackle William Robinson III, Left guard Danye Gorrell and center Ronald Canty have started every game. Nathan Isles missed the first three games, returned to start the next three games before an injury against Howard sidelined him again. Armon White took over for Isles in the starting lineup versus Delaware State. Tim Sunkins came in as the starting right guard before a season-ending injury forced him to the sideline as Olin Leak then stepped in before being replaced by Thomas Hearn. White and freshman Jahkeem Forrester have filled in the gaps where needed.

Graham Earns Special Teams Player of the Week

D'Vonte Graham, the Aggies exciting return specialist and cornerback, was named MEAC Special Teams Player of the Week on Oct. 29. Graham (5-9, 180, JR, Tallahassee, Fla.) made one of the most pivotal plays in A&T's 30-9 homecoming win over Norfolk State on Oct. 27. The Aggies were sputtering after four first-half turnovers led to a 6-0 Spartans lead. NSU field goal kicker Everett Goldberg lined up for his third attempt, a 47-yarder, with a little more than nine minutes remaining in the second quarter. Goldberg's kick was not as successful as his first two. Once in the air, the ball got caught in the wind and fell into the hands of Graham, who was waiting for it eight yards deep in the end zone. Graham weaved through traffic on his way to a 100-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown. It was the first such return in A&T history. Zach Cimaglia earned Rookie of the Week Honors after kicking four field goals against Virginia University of Lynchburg on Sept. 17.

Graham Is Dual Threat For The Aggies

Graham is fifth in the nation and first in the MEAC in punt return average at 14.6 yards per return. He has one punt return for touchdown this season, and he also handles the Aggies kickoff returns. He is the second Aggie to earn MEAC weekly honors. As a defensive back, he is just as vital. He is tied for the league-lead in interceptions with four and ranks eighth nationally.

Tackles For Loss

North Carolina A&T loves tackling opponents behind the line of scrimmage. In fact, the MEAC is very good in tackling behind the line of scrimmage. The Aggies are 10th in the nation in tackles for loss but third in their own conference. N.C. Central and Norfolk State are 1,2 in the MEAC in tackles for loss. The Aggies make 7.5 tackles per game behind the line of scrimmage. Eighteen different Aggies have made tackles for loss led by Travis Crosby and Tony Mashburn who have 7.5 tackles for loss in 2012.

WEEK 9 • FLORIDA A&M AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T • NOV. 3, 2012 AGGIE STADIUM

Noting the Florida A&M Game

• Florida A&M has dominated the series against A&T over the years. The Rattlers lead the series 44-13-3 in a series that dates back to 1938. The Rattlers are currently on a seven-game winning streak against the Aggies and they won 12 straight versus A&T from 1956-67.

• A&T's last win over Florida A&M came on Oct. 18, 2003. It is also the Aggies last win over Florida A&M at Aggie Stadium. During the Aggies seven-game losing streak against Florida A&M, they have lost by an average of 14.1 points. A&T has lost the last three meetings by an average of 3.3 points. The last time the two teams met at home, the Aggies lost in overtime. It was the second overtime game in the series.

• The Aggies have three starters who are from Tallahassee, Fla., where Florida A&M resides. Senior outside linebacker Brandon Hover, junior cornerback D'Vonte Graham and senior defensive end Tony Mashburn are looking for their first win over the Rattlers. The three men came to A&T the same year, but Graham sat out last season.

• There are two MEAC teams the 18 Aggie seniors have not defeated in their careers – S.C. State and Florida A&M.

• In the last four games against A&T, Florida A&M has had either a 100-yard rusher or a 100-yard receiver in the game.

• Head coach Joe Taylor has faced A&T 16 times, including his time as Hampton's head coach.

Thanks Colorado

Two University of Colorado transfers Makari Pugh and Ayodeji Olatoye have been vital to the Aggies defense this season. Pugh has started twice at outside linebacker and ranks 45th in the nation in tackles for loss per game with 1.67.

Olatoye has made three starts at cornerback for the Aggies. Olatoye has one interception on the season has helped the Aggies rank fifth in the nation in pass defense and first in the MEAC.

Along with D'Vonte Graham and Isaiah Martin, the Aggies have the No. 2 pass defense in the conference.

Getting It Done In The Classroom Last Spring

The North Carolina A&T saw significant improvement in the classroom during the 2012 spring semester. The Aggies had 22 players record a 3.0 grade point average or better during the 2012 spring semester. The two highest were graduating seniors James Weaks' 3.75 GPA and Julian Alford's 3.77.

Among the standouts on this season's team was left tackle William Robison who posted a 3.40 GPA during the spring and defensive back Mark Newton who had a 3.75. Kicker Jose Garcia-Camacho posted a 3.44 GPA over the spring.

New Coaches In Town

There are several new coaches on the North Carolina A&T staff in 2012. Johnny Cox, a former wide receiver coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars replaced Shaun Hunter during the offseason. The Aggies also added two new graduate assistants.

Two of Broadway's former players at Grambling State University joined the staff in Kiare Thompson and Charles Cheek. Thompson will

Honoring the 1992 Team

The 1992 North Carolina A&T football team won the second of consecutive MEAC championships thanks to a 5-1 record in the MEAC. When the Aggies face Florida A&M on Nov. 3 at 1:30 p.m., the Aggies will honor the 1992 team. In 1992, the Aggies lost to Florida A&M, but then won four straight conference games to secure the championships. Among the standouts on the '92 team was linebacker Rodney Edwards, who earned MEAC Defensive Player of the Year. The all-conference standouts were offensive lineman Robert Holley, placekicker Carl Warren and defensive back Alonza Barnett.

2012 Aggie Football

WEEK 9 • FLORIDA A&M AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T • NOV. 3, 2012

AGGIE STADIUM

Rod Broadway enters his second season as the head football coach at North Carolina A&T. His first season at the helm produced a lot of excitement about the future of Aggie football.

The Aggies not only had a four-win improvement from their 1-10 season in 2010, but they were also in the thick of the MEAC race midway through the season before a four-game road trip derailed their chances. Also in his first year, Broadway became the first Aggie head coach in school history to produce a 2,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

Mike Mayhew, the Aggies' 1,000-yard back in 2011, was named MEAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year. Wallace Miles, the 1,000-yard receiver, signed an NFL free agent contract with the Detroit Lions. Defensively, linebacker D'Vonte Grant became a Jerry Rice Finalist for best freshman in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision after he led the Aggies in tackles. As a team, the Aggies showed their most significant improvement on the defensive end. They were ranked 114th in FCS rushing defense in 2010. In 2011 under Broadway, they finished seventh nationally and were tops in the MEAC. In 2010, A&T was 89th in FCS total defense. A year later under Broadway, they were eighth.

Broadway came to A&T with an impressive his-story of winning championships with a brand of football that is exciting offensively and punishing defensively. In his last two head coaching positions - N.C. Central and Grambling State - each school came away with a Black College National Championship.

Broadway has compiled a 77-33 (.770) record over nine years as a head coach. Before taking over the difficult task of rebuilding an Aggies program with just 14 wins in the previous seven seasons before his arrival, Broadway spent four seasons (2007-10) at Grambling State. The Tigers went 35-12 under his stewardship.

The year before he arrived at GSU, the Tigers went 3-8. During his first season there in 2008, the Tigers finished second in the Southwestern Athletic Conference and made an appearance in the SWAC Championship Game. Five players received either All-American or All-SWAC honors, and Broadway was a finalist for the nationally-recognized Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

The impact of Broadway's arrival was seen on both sides of the football. Grambling went from an average defense to one of the fiercest in the country. The Tigers ranked 12th nationally in total defense, eighth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense.

Grambling held three of their opponents to fewer than 30 yards, and 10 of their opponents committed three or more turnovers. Offensively, wide receiver Clyde Edwards earned FCS Fabulous 50 All-American honors and running back Frank Warren was named SWAC Freshman of the Year.

Year two led to even more improvements for the GSU program. The Tigers ascended to the top of the SWAC with a 9-0 record and a 41-9 win over Jackson State in the SWAC Championship Game. GSU's 2008 season also produced an 11-2 overall mark, a No. 24 national ranking in the Sports Network Division I-FCS poll and a Black College National Championship.

Defense was the catalyst for the Tigers' success as they finished the season ranked No. 1 nationally in turnover margin, pass efficiency defense and had a No. 7 ranking in rush defense. In addition, three players earned All-American honors, nine were named All-SWAC and five players earned Louisiana Sports Writers Association recognition. Accolades for Broadway included being named SWAC Coach of the Year and The Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C., Coach of the Year.

In 2009, GSU continued to play well. The Tigers finished 7-4 overall and 5-2 in the SWAC. The Tigers led the nation in punt return yardage and they had the ninth-best scoring offense. The next season resulted in a 9-2 mark that was complemented by an 8-1 SWAC record. The Tigers' rushing attack produced more than 200 yards per game, which ranked 15th nationally.

During his career at GSU, Broadway also showed he had a hankering for winning rivalry games. He went 3-1 against archrival Southern.

At Florida, he served as a member of the Steve Spurrier's staff. In 1996, he helped the Gators win an NCAA National Championship.

Broadway's stay also included four SEC Championships and six bowl appearances. The Gators defense led the SEC in sacks four straight seasons (1996-99), and the team set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed, as offenses produced just 70.7 yards per game.

He also owns the best winning percentage in program history, even better than legendary GSU head coach Eddie Robinson.

Before his stint at GSU, Broadway turned N.C. Central into a Division II national power.

His four-year stint (2003-06) at N.C. Central produced a 33-11 record, back-to-back CIAA titles for the first time in 50 years and the Eagles made two consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division II Playoffs. The 2006 season was the highlight of Broadway's tenure at NCCU.

Broadway led the Eagles to an 11-1 season and the top seed in the NCAA Division II Southeast Region. After fielding the No. 1 rated offense in the CIAA and the 15th ranked defense nationally, individual honors included two players being named Associated Press Little All-Americans.

There were also 12 players named All-CIAA, 10 Eagles earned Daktronics All-Southeast Region recognition and four members from the 2006 team were named SBN All-Americans, including freshman quarterback Stadford Brown, who was also named SBN Player of the Year. During his stint at NCCU, Broadway also put together a 16-game regular-season winning streak and led the Eagles to their first-ever victory over a SWAC opponent with a win over Southern in 2006.

WEEK 9 • FLORIDA A&M AT NORTH CAROLINA A&T • NOV. 3, 2012 AGGIE STADIUM

GAME 3 A&T 40, VUL 7 September 15, 2012 Aggie Stadium (10,084) GREENSBORO -- The North Carolina A&T defense put together its second straight dominating performance in a 40-7 win over Virginia University of Lynchburg. A&T's special teams were also effective. Freshman kicker Zach Cimaglia connected on four field goals and punt returner D'Vonte Graham returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown. In addition, the Aggies blocked a punt for the second straight week, which resulted in A&T's opening touchdown against the Dragons.

The Dragons only score came on a 45-yard interception return by Keith Lewis. The "pick 6" put the Dragons down 14-7. A&T quarterback Lewis Kindle quickly recovered.

Three plays after helping the Dragons score, Kindle found a wide open Marquis Gorham on a post pattern for a 34-yard touchdown reception to give the Aggies a 21-7 lead. Graham's return gave the Aggies another score before the half. In the second half, Cimaglia took over. Three of Cimaglia's field goals were from 40 yards or more.

Cimaglia even attempted a 53-yard field goal that came up short. Cimaglia's four field goals marked the first time in nine seasons an Aggie has kicked more than three field goals in a game. Kindle threw for 217 yards, two touchdowns and an interception on 16-for-27 passing. Nine different receivers caught passes for the Aggies in the win.

GAME 4 MSU 21, A&T 18 September 27, 2012 Aggie Stadium(14,015)

Despite two Mike Mayhew fourth-quarter touchdowns, Morgan State was able to steal a victory in the final seconds of a nationally-televised game Thursday night over North Carolina A&T. Andrew King cradled a 32-yard touchdown reception in the back of end zone with 10 seconds remaining to give the Bears a 21-18 win.

The game was marked by missed opportunities for A&T. Morgan State entered the final five minutes of the game without a timeout. The Aggies had a chance to close the game with a first down. But with 2:21 remaining, the Aggies were not able to convert a 3rd-and-4.

The failure allowed the Bears to get the ball back with 1:43 to play. Faced with a 3rd-and-10, MSU quarterback Robert Council threw an out pattern to Tyrone Hendrix. Originally, he was said to have made the catch out-of-bounds. But after being reviewed by replay officials, the call was overturned, giving the Bears new life.

GAME 5 B-CU 28, A&T 12 October 6, 2012 Municipal Stadium (10,081) DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.

-- North Carolina A&T threw two interceptions into the end zone and missed a 19-yard field goal in a 28-12 loss to Bethune-Cookman. The loss was particular disappointing, considering the Aggies held a dangerous offense to 310 yards of total offense. The Aggies did take advantage of the GAME 6 A&T 38, Howard 10 October 13, 2012 Aggie Stadium (13,422)

GREENSBORO -- North Carolina A&T intercepted three passes and returned two for touchdowns as the Aggies handed Howard its first conference loss of the season with a 38-10 win at Aggie Stadium. The Aggies rushed for a 242 yards against the Bison as senior running back Mike Mayhew finished with 138 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

Wildcats defense early has 27-yard and 24-yard completions to freshman Marquis Gorham led to a 6-0 Aggies lead as the latter completion went into the end zone. The extra point was missed.

After falling behind 7-6, the Aggies received another scoring opportunity in the second quarter. Trey Long made catches of 26 and 10 yards to give the Aggies the ball at the B-CU 24-yard line. Three plays later, quarterback Lewis Kindle underthrew a pass to Gorham in the end zone, which allowed Rashad Payne to intercept the pass.

Just before halftime, another break came A&T's way. For the third straight week, the Aggies blocked a punt. Leroy Bradford's block gave the Aggies the ball at the Wildcat 31. The Aggies didn't score a touchdown, but a 38-yard field goal by Zach Cimaglia did help the Aggies cut the lead to 14-9 going into the locker room.

Ricky Lewis added 76 yards and a touchdown. A week after throwing two red zone interceptions, the Aggies were efficient inside the red zone. They scored on all four trips inside the red zone, including three rushing touchdowns. Kicker Zach Cimaglia returned to form as well. He followed two straight weeks of missing extra points with a 5-for-5 performance in PATs and he booted a 31-yard field goal.

The Aggies were led defensively by the Aggies secondary. Safety Travis Crosby finished with 13 tackles, and cornerback D'Vonte Graham picked off two passes. His interception in the fourth quarter was returned 58 yards to seal the game. The Aggies opened their scoring with an 18-yard touchdown from Lewis. The Bison gained some momentum before halftime as Parker Munoz scored on a 37-yard field goal to put Howard down 14-10 at halftime.

DOVER, Del., -- Three North Carolina A&T turnovers led to 14 Delaware State points as the Hornets shut out the Aggies 24-0. It was the first shutout of the Aggies in four years. The Aggies played the Hornets evenly on the offensive end, but could not

GAME 8
A&T 30, NSU 9
October 27, 2012
Aggie Stadium (20,356)
GREENSBORO, N.C.,
-- A&T will play its seventh and final home game of the season as S.C. State comes to Aggie Stadium. The Bulldogs have won 11 straight against the Aggies, the longest winning streak for either team in the series.

overcome two missed field goals and turnovers.

Three turnovers and two missed field goals were too much to overcome as North Carolina A&T lost to Delaware State 24-0 at Alumni Stadium. It was the Aggies fifth straight loss at Alumni Stadium, and it was their first shutout loss in four years. The Aggies did receive some good news defensively as starting free safety Isaiah Martin returned from missing two games due to a knee injury to record 12 tackles. Middle linebacker Tony Clodfelter also had 12 tackles.

But the Aggies could not overcome three turnovers, which led to 14 point Hornet points. After a scoreless first quarter, Delaware State took advantage of a short field and drove 53 yards in eight plays to score on a 1-yard Nagee Jackson touchdown. Two plays into the Aggies' next drive, Leroy Bradford fumbled and the Hornets returned it 22 yards to the Aggies 31-yard line.

North Carolina A&T made a quarterback change to start the second half and rolled to a 30-9 win over Norfolk State during the Aggies 2012 Greatest Homecoming On Earth. A&T quarterback Lewis Kindle started against the Spartans, but was ineffective. Kindle threw three first-half interceptions as the Aggies trailed 9-0 early. The Aggies trailed 9-7 at halftime because D'Vonte Graham returned a Norfolk State missed field goal 100 yards for a touchdown. Meanwhile, the Aggies offense was in the midst of going six straight quarters without a score.

Therefore, to open the second half, the Aggies turned to freshman quarterback Kwashaun Quick to replace Kindle. Quick quickly sparked the Aggies offense as his opening drive resulted in him scoring on a 29-yard touchdown run. The Aggies, who forced six turnovers in the game, then used one of those turnovers to expand their lead. After a NSU fumble, A&T running back Ricky Lewis scored on a 19-yard touchdown run to give A&T a 20-9 lead. A&T dominated defensively from there.
