Team Information

A&T: North Carolina A&T is coming off a 53-14 loss to UNC at Kenan Stadium. The Aggies now play the second game of a four-game road swing as they visit Elon. The last time the Aggies lost to an ACC school big they rebounded the next week by beating Elon 19-17 on Sept. 25, 2004. Elon: Elon is coming off a 21-13 overtime win over Gardner-Webb. Saturday will be the Phoenix's home opener.

A&T Coach Rod Broadway: Broadway (UNC '77) is in his fifth season at A&T and holds a 29-18 (.617) record. Broadway also spent four seasons apiece at N.C. Central and Grambling, and has an overall record of 97-41 (.703). He is three wins shy of his 100th career coaching victory.

Elon Coach Rich Skrosky: Skrosky is in his second season with the Phoenix. He had a tough 1-11 year in 2014 and the Phoenix were winless in the CAA. The Phoenix did snap a 10-game losing streak dating back to last season with its win over Gardner-Webb.

AGGIES FINALLY GET SOMEONE THEIR OWN SIZE

- ▶ North Carolina A&T enters its 92nd season of football.
- ▶ The Aggies just won the school's 12th conference title and the seventh since joining the MEAC in 1971.
- ▶ The Aggies are coming off its first-ever trip to Kenan Stadium where they were defeated 53-14 by the University of North Carolina. The 53 points were the most points A&T has ever surrendered to an FBS, but at the same time the Aggies 14 points were the most points they've ever scored against an FBS.
- ▶ For the first time this season the Aggies will get to play an FCS opponent after opening the season against Division II Shaw before playing the FBS Tar Heels.
- ▶ Elon is 22-11 against schools who currently play football in the MEAC. The Aggies lead the all-time series against Elon 6-4 and have won both games the two teams have played since renewing the series in 2013 after a seven-year absence.
- ▶ A&T is 3-1 at Rhodes Stadium with its only loss coming on Sept. 24, 2005 when the Aggies lost a field goal contest 12-9.
- ▶ A&T is 15-15 against in-state schools since 2000. Two of those losses came against ACC schools. Five of the wins came against Division II opponents.
- ▶ A&T running back Tarik Cohen had a career day against Elon in last season's game as he rushed for a career-high 234 yards and one touchdown on 20 carries. He won the game on an 81-yard touchdown run that gave the Aggies the lead for good in the fourth quarter.
- ▶ There have been a number of field goals in the series between A&T and Elon. Elon has connected on 19 field goals in the 10-game series, while A&T has also connected on 19 field goals.
- ▶ A&T will focus on getting their passing game going. On the season, the Aggies are 23-for-49 with four touchdowns, three interceptions and 306 yards passing. WR Denzel Keyes has excelled with nine receptions for 165 yards and two touchdowns this season.

2015 WEEKLY HONORS

N.C. A&T Football Weekly Media Luncheon

MEAC Special Teams Player of the Week

Caleb Gabriel, WR vs. Shaw, 9/7/15, 92-yard kickoff return

*Was co-special teams player of the week

North Carolina A&T has a weekly press conference featuring head coach Rod Broadway and on occasion players will be made available. The press conference begins each Monday at noon at the Bryan and Fitness and Wellness Center's multipurpose room. The only Monday the Aggies will not hold a press conference is Sept. 21 ahead of the Aggies off week.

MEAC Weekly Teleconference

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference will hold its weekly football teleconference each Tuesday at 10 a.m. to 11:43 a.m. N.C. A&T head coach Rod Broadway begins his session at 11:33 a.m., each Tuesday. The media may contact the MEAC media relations office at porterp@themeac.com to get the phone number.

N.C. A&T BY THE NUMBERS

0 — Accounts for the number of FCS schools the Aggies have played this season after opening with a DII and an FBS over the first two games.
4 — The number of two-sport stars the Aggies have on their football team including WR Denzel Keyes who has started games for the men's basketball and WR Caleb Gabriel who is the 100 meter champion in the MEAC.
6.33 — Career yards per carry for RB Tarik Cohen. He would need to average more than 7.17 yards per carry to break Maurice Hicks' school record for yards per carry in a career.
9-4 — N.C. A&T's overall record when Kwashaun Quick is the Aggies starting quarterback including an upset win over Appalachian State in 2013.

13 — Tarik Cohen has this many 100-yard games in his career including three 200-yard games.
19 — Quarterback Kwashaun Quick accounted for this many touchdowns last season, the fourth most in school history.
22 — Consecutive starts for rover Landis Shoffner, who has the longest current streak on the team.
27-1 — At N.C. A&T Rod Broadway is virtually unbeatable when leading at halftime. Under Broadway the Aggies are 24-2 when leading after three quarters.
43 — That's how many games the Aggies played without giving up 50 or more points before

UNC scored 53 on Sept. 12, 2015. The Aggies last gave up 50 or more points in 2011.
2013 — A&T did not force a turnover on Saturday, marking the first time that's happen in two years
858 — Tarik Cohen needs that many yards to break Mike Mayhew's all-time rushing record at N.C. A&T. Cohen is just a junior.
.875 — The Aggies are 21-3 at home under head coach Rod Broadway over the previous four years, which gives them the excellent winning percentage. Two of those losses came to Coastal Carolina, the other loss was against Morgan State, which means the Aggies are 15-1 against conference foes at home under Broadway.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

- North Carolina A&T receives its origins from being a land-grant institution in 1890. Today, the university is celebrating its 125-year anniversary as a land-grant institution. Over those 125 years, the university has become a university known for its innovation including its nanoengineering program.
- The slogan for the Aggies 125th is Our Future, Our Pride.
- A&T stands for Agricultural and Technical. It is considered an historically black college or university because of its heritage as being a school started for African Americans. Every school in the MEAC is considered an HBCU.
- Enrollment at N.C. A&T exceeds 11,000 students making it the largest historically black college or university in the nation. A&T has a retention rate of 79 percent or approximately 6,300 students. The Aggies welcomed more than 2,400 students during the fall of 2015.
- Academically, the university is best known for its College of Engineering program. The COE ranks No. 1 for the number of degrees awarded to African Americans. U.S. News and World Report ranks the COE in the top third of the Best Undergraduate Engineering Programs.
- The School of Agriculture and Environmental Sciences is the largest among the nation's HBCU's.
- If you are around an Aggie long enough you may hear the chant "Aggie Pride" shouted several times. The loud chant of Aggie Pride stems from the Aggies proud history in the civil rights movement with A&T Four, four young men who sparked the modern-day civil rights movement by staging a sit-in at the counter of the downtown Greensboro Woolworth's where they were refused service on Feb. 1, 1960.
- Aggies have also ran for president, flown in space shuttles and occupied positions of influence in corporations.
- Among the famous A&T alumni are civil rights activist Jesse Jackson, Challenger astronaut Ronald McNair and billionaire business woman Janice Bryant Howroyd.

TEAM NOTES

A&T IN THE POLLS

- The Aggies are not ranked in the STATS FCS top 25 but they did receive 48 votes in last week's poll. The Aggies entered the poll as No. 24 team last season before the last game of the season. It marked the first time the Aggies were ranked nationally in 11 years.
- The Aggies were also picked to win the MEAC in 2015. The Aggies went eight straight seasons (2005-12) without being predicted to finish in the top 5 of the MEAC. A&T also had four players — RB Tarik Cohen, DL Marquis Ragland, PK Cody Jones and CB Tony McRae — named to the conference's preseason first team.
- The Aggies were ranked No. 1 in the Sheridan Black College and the Boxtorow Black College Poll for four straight weeks last season.
- The are ranked No. 2 in the Boxtorow poll this week, while being voted No. 3 in the SBN poll.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

- Running back Tarik Cohen has also earned several preseason honors. He was named third-team preseason All-American by STATS FCS. Boxtorow also named him a preseason All-American and College Sporting News put him on their Fab 50 list. He was also named MEAC preseason offensive player of the year.

STAFF CHANGES

- During the offseason the Aggies promoted wide receiver coach Chip Hester to offensive coordinator. Hester, who served as the head coach at Catawba College for seven seasons, replaced Rickey Bustle as the Aggies OC. He will continue to coach wide receivers.
- Bustle also served as the Aggies quarterbacks coach, so the Aggies also had to replace him in that regard. Chris Barnette, a former quarterback at Division III Guilford College (Greensboro, N.C.), accepted the position during the offseason.
- Defensive line coach Courtney Coard took a position at the University of Georgia.

The Aggies replaced him with veteran coach Damon Frenchers who is making his second stint at A&T after leaving in 2007.

- The Aggies also had to replace inside linebacker coach Charles Cheek. They replaced him with Thomas Howard out of the University of Findlay.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

- The Aggies coaching staff has more than 160 years of combined experience. Head coach Rod Broadway, offensive coordinator Chip Hester, defensive coordinator Sam Washington and defensive line coach Damon Frenchers all have more than 20 years of coaching experience.
- Broadway, outside linebacker coach Trei Oliver, offensive line coach Keith Wagner and running backs coach Shawn Gibbs have been coaching together for more than 10 years.

AGGIES LOOK STRONG NATIONALLY

- Despite giving up 463 yards of offense to North Carolina, the Aggies took look strong defensively in the national rankings.
 - The Aggies are ranked 14th in total defense after only giving up 81 yards of offense to Shaw.
 - Mistakes can happen no matter who you are playing. But the Aggies have been mostly mistake free this season. A&T have only been called for six penalties this season and are ranked No. 1 in the nation for fewest penalties per game. They are second in fewest penalty yards per game.
 - In the conference the Aggies are ranked No. 1 in scoring offense, rush offense, total defense, rush defense and No. 2 total offense.
- ### HOME DOMINANCE
- The Aggies were 4-1 at home last season, including a perfect 3-0 against MEAC schools.
 - The Aggies are 21-3 at home since Broadway took over in 2011. They are 15-1 against conference schools since Broadway's arrival.
 - A&T was just 5-21 at home over the five prior to Broadway's arrival.

GAME 3 • N.C. A&T vs. ELON • SEPT. 19, 2015 • RHODES STADIUM • #BEATELON

A&T ON OFFENSE

• The Aggies had 413 yards of offense last Saturday against Shaw University. It marked the 17th time in the 46-game Broadway era that the Aggies had more than 400 yards of offense. Five of those games came against Division II opponents. Here is a look at the top-10 offensive performances under Broadway.

Year	Opp.	Yards
2012	West Virginia St.	489
2013	Elon	469
2013	Savannah St.	464
2013	Virginia Lynchburg	452
2014	Howard	448
2014	Morgan St.	446
2011	Delaware St.	440
2011	Virginia Lynchburg	431
2011	Florida A&M	428
2014	Hampton	426

• A&T has had success running the ball against the Phoenix over the past two seasons. The Aggies have combined to rush for 451 yards on 84 carries, averaging 5.4 yards per carry. The Aggies rushed for 270 yards last season, their third highest amount for the season.

• The Aggies find themselves atop the league rankings in rushing offense even after playing FBS foe North Carolina last week. The Aggies have ranked No. 1 in rushing offense over the previous two seasons and have been among the top-5 rushing teams in the conference for the past five seasons.

• Even though the Aggies did not have the type of offensive night they want against North Carolina, they did manage to have six plays of 20 yards or more in the game including a 38-yard TD pass from Lamar Raynard to Khris Gardin.

• Tarik Cohen and Kwashaun Quick took part in most of the plays with Cohen accounting for 23 of the 59 plays of 20 yards or more while

• The Aggies had the top two scorers in the league last season in RB Tarik Cohen and kicker Cody Jones. Cohen scored 96 points last season on 16 touchdowns, while Jones posted 90 points thanks to 15 field goals and 45 extra points.

THE QB's

FRESHMEN STARTING SEASON OPENERS

• A freshman starting the season opener for the Aggies has not been an unusual occurrence. Redshirt freshman Lamar Raynard made the start last Saturday against Shaw.

• Here are the freshmen who have started season openers for the Aggies over the past 10 seasons.

Year	Starter
2002	Marshal Glenn
2006	Wayne Campbell
2007	Herb Miller
2011	Kwashaun Quick
2014	Lamar Raynard

RAYNARD'S RISE TO THE TOP

• Redshirt freshman quarterback Lamar Raynor put together a good spring and August camp to put himself in competitive battle for a starting job. Quick was not able to attend spring practice, giving the High Point Andrews graduate a chance to be the Aggies No. 1 over the spring.

• Raynor did not disappoint in the spring game, going 22-for-36 for 230 yards and a touchdown. He also had a 10-yard rushing touchdown.

A QUICK STARTER

• Kwashaun Quick is 9-4 as the A&T starter. In 2013, he helped the Aggies top then Division I FCS power Appalachian State 24-21 in Boone. It was the first time in almost thirty years that an in-state school beat App State in Boone.

• In fact, Quick has started the Aggies last three season openers including the App State win. As a freshman he started for a suspended Lewis Kindle against Coastal Carolina, a 29-13 loss in Conway, S.C. In 2014, he made the opening-game start against Alabama A&M in a 47-13 drubbing of A&M in the MEAC/SWAC Challenge in Orlando, Fla.

• In season openers, Quick is 32-for-60 for 349 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions. He holds a 2-1 mark in those games. He also rushed 202 yards and two touchdowns on 36 carries in those starts.

SHARING TIME

• Kwashaun Quick was suspended for spring practice and the first game of the season for violating team rules. That left Lamar Raynard as the starter against Shaw where he played the vast majority of the snaps before the game got out of hand.

• Quick got the start against UNC and played 45 of the 63 snaps in the game for A&T. Raynard did enter the game in the second quarter after a Quick INT and he threw a TD pass to Gardin.

COHEN GOES TO BRISTOL

• A&T RB Tarik Cohen put a number of videos on social media of him catching a football while simultaneously doing a backflip. It eventually evolved into him catching two footballs while doing a backflip. He then closed out the series of videos by doing a summersault then a backflip while catching the football.

• In an instant, Cohen became a social media sensation. The videos caught the attention of NBC Sports, Fox Sports and ESPN. His video made appearances on several ESPN shows including His & Hers, SportsNation and PTI.

• He eventually earned an invitation to the campus of ESPN in Bristol, Conn. The ESPN producers asked Cohen to come out and be a part of the three-hour Saturday morning SportsCenter. Cohen was on for two segments. During the first segment he performed his backflip while catching the football feat three times flawlessly. He even caught the ball with one hand while doing the backflip. The second segment included a sit-down interview with the ESPN host Matt Barrie.

BEST TWO-YEAR AGGIE RUSHING PERFORMANCES

• Tarik Cohen has rushed for 2,488 yards over the first two years of his career. No Aggies has ever rushed for this many yards combined as a freshman and sophomore. Cohen's two-year performance is second all-time in A&T history. Here is a look at the best rushing performances in consecutive seasons in school history.

GOING FOR THE RECORD IN 3

• Cohen has a chance in 2015 of passing Mike Mayhew as the Aggies all-time leading rusher. If he does, he would become the all-time leading rusher in three years. Plus he did not start the first five games of his career.

TOP RUSHING PERFORMANCES — CAREER

Player	Years	Att.	Yards
Mike Mayhew	09-12	761	3,521
Maurice Hicks	00-01	392	2,812
James White	90-93	426	2,783

Wayman Pitts	79-82	428	2,185

WHO'S BACKING HIM UP

• When Tarik Cohen needs a breather the Aggies will turn to redshirt freshman Amos Williams. Williams is a converter defensive back who moved to running back during the spring.

• Williams even started in the backfield with Cohen in Week 1 and 2.

• The Aggies also turn to true freshman back Keevon Thompson who 22 times this season and is averaging 4.3 yards per carry.

THE WR'S

DO-IT-ALL RECEIVERS

• Three receivers on N.C. A&T's roster participate in other sports on campus. After football season, Denzel Keyes goes immediately to the basketball court and plays for the A&T men's basketball team. Keyes has started six games as a men's basketball player. Caleb Gabriel is a sprint champion who won the MEAC championship in the 100 meters in May. Meanwhile Kevin Francis qualified for NCAA regionals in the 100 meter hurdles.

INJURY BUG

• The Aggies lost some wide receivers during camp thanks to broken arms. Xavier Griffin went out during the first week of camp with a broken arm after reaching back for a fumble. Griffin was expected to start at one of the wide receiver positions. A week later Michael Weaver, Jr., broke his arm thanks to a hit going across the middle.

• Senior Kevin Francis also is out with a knee injury after turning it awkwardly against Shaw in Week 1.

POSITION CHANGES

• The Aggies' injuries at wide receiver has brought about some position changes. Former tight end Kevin Francis has moved to wide receiver and should start at the "Z" receiver. Francis is 6-5, 217-pound and should be a nice complement to 6-4 receiver Denzel Keyes.

• Also moving to wide receiver is former quarterbacks Frank Foster and Isaiah Hicklin. Foster is a senior junior college transfer who was the Aggies third-string quarterback in 2014. Hicklin, a freshman, came to A&T as a QB before moving to receiver during the 2015 camp.

THE AGGIE 'D'

• Under the leadership of defensive coordinator Sam Washington, the Aggies defense has been one of the best in FCS over the past four seasons.

• The Aggies defense has never finished lower than 16th nationally in the four years. The run defense has never finished any lower than 24th in the nation.

• Over his first three years of the Broadway era, the rush defense finished no lower than seventh and in 2013 the Aggies led the nation in rush defense. Over the past three seasons A&T's pass defense has finished first, ninth and second respectively.

• In 2014, the Aggies ranked second in scoring defense, passes intercepted and team passing efficiency defense, third in turnover margin and they were fifth in red zone defense.

• The Aggies held Shaw to 44 yards rushing and 81 yards of offense. In 46 games in the Broadway era, the Aggies have held opponents to under 100 yards rushing 22 times including a streak of seven straight games from Oct. 20, 2012 to Sept. 14, 2013. The Aggies have held four opponents to under 100 yards of offense since 2011.

WHAT THE AGGIES TAKEAWAY

- The Aggies defense ranked in the top-30 in 13 different statistical categories nationally in 2014 including leading the nation in turnovers gained.
- The North Carolina A&T defense has forced at least one turnover in 20 straight games dating back to the 2013 season. The Aggies were also third in the nation in turnover margin. The last time the Aggies failed to cause a turnover was in a 29-24 loss to S.C. State on Oct. 5, 2013 in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.
- The Aggies were also second in the nation in interceptions and sixth in the nation in fumbles recovered.

THE D-LINE

WELCOME TO RAGLAND

Marquis Ragland earned first-team All-MEAC honors last season and was a part of the preseason first-team defense for the MEAC. Ragland also blocked three kicks last season, which ranked him seventh in the nation. He also made 69 tackles and 15.5 tackles for loss from his nose guard position.

DON'T FORGET THE OTHER KEYES

Wide receiver Denzel Keyes gets a lot of attention because of his leaping ability and great hands. Apparently, his brother Angelo Keyes also has good hands. Keyes made two key interceptions last season to help win games. He intercepted a pass at Elon to secure a 17-12 win before returning an INT for a touchdown in a 33-20 win at Delaware State. Angelo Keyes broke up five passes from his defensive end position in 2014.

DEEP D-LINE

The Aggies have tremendous depth along the defensive line. Six of the eight players on the Aggies two-deep has started at least two games. Defensive End Sam Blue is a Rutgers transfer and D'Anthony Ross who does not appear on the two-deep earned significant playing time in 2014. The Aggies starting defensive line has a combined 79 games of experience.

THE LB'S

ALBERT RETURNS

Outside linebacker Marcus Albert missed the 2014 season to work on academics. As a freshman, he made 21 tackles and 3.5 tackles for loss. Albert started two games a freshman.

THE ROVER BATTLE

There is an excellent battle for the Aggies starting rover position. Lorenz Suttles, who started at strong side linebacker last season, served as the backup on Saturday against Shaw. His competition is not too shabby in Greensboro native Landis Shoffner. Shoffner led the Aggies in tackles last season, breaking D'Vonte Grant's three-year run.

MR. JONES IS BACK

Fifth-year middle linebacker Denzel Jones is the only returning starter among the linebacker corps from last season. Jones was third on the team in tackles a year ago and had two games where he finished with double-digit tackles.

THE DB CREW

TONY, TONY, TONY

Cornerback Tony McRae enters his final season with A&T. On Saturday he made his seventh career interception. He also has 25 career passes defended. Last year, he became a starter for the first time after serving as an understudy his first two seasons. McRae, a first-team All-MEAC selection in 2014 and a preseason selection in 2015, made the most of his opportunity to start. McRae was 13th in the nation in passes defended after intercepting five passes and breaking up 11. He was 15th in the nation in interceptions.

REPLACING MATTOCKS

Donald Mattocks finished his career last year, but not before earning All-American and all-conference honors after picking off seven passes in 2014. He also broke up nine passes. Senior Marquis Boyan looks to replace Mattocks' production. Boyan has played safety and corner during his time at A&T.

DB POWER

The Aggies secondary was second in the nation in passing defense efficiency and 24th in passing yards allowed. Last year marked the third straight year the Aggies have finished in the top 10 in passing defense efficiency. The Aggies were ninth in 2012 and sixth in 2013.

THE SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS

KICKING IT WITH CODY

Cody Jones became the Aggies first first-team All-MEAC kicker since Yonnick Matthews earned the honor in 2003. Jones made 15 of 19 field goals and 45 of 47 on extra points. Jones led the MEAC in field goals made and field goal percentage (.789). Jones also handled the Aggies punting duties after Dominic Frescura went down with an injury five games into the season. Jones averaged 39.2 yards per punt.

- Jones also handled the punting duties on Saturday against Shaw. In two punts he averaged 39 yards.

SPEEDY RETURNERS

- The Aggies have tremendous talent in speed in return men. Tony McRae returned a kick 95 yards for a touchdown last season against Alabama A&M and earned second-team all-conference honors as a returner to go along with his first-team honor as a corner.
- McRae also returned a kick 91 yards for a touchdown in 2013 in a 24-21 win over Appalachian State.
- Caleb Gabriel got into the act on Saturday by returning a kickoff 92 yards against the Bears. It marked the third straight year the Aggies have opened the season with a kickoff return.
- Gabriel, the 100 meter champion in the MEAC, will join McRae as a return man, giving the Aggies one of the speediest return tandems in the conference.
- Sophomore Khris Gardin will handle the punt return duties for a second straight season. He had a 28-yard punt return on Saturday and averaged 8.5 yards per return in 2014.

2015 N.C. A&T AGGIES FOOTBALL

GAME 3 • N.C. A&T vs. ELON • SEPT. 19, 2015 • RHODES STADIUM • #BEATELON

Aggies football program has made tremendous strides under Broadway's first four years of stewardship. A year before Broadway's arrival, the Aggies were 1-10. In his first season, they improved four games to 5-6. The next two seasons the Aggies put together consecutive 7-4 seasons. In his fourth season, the Aggies went 9-3 overall and 6-2 in the MEAC to capture a share of the MEAC title, the Aggies first title in 11 years. He is 29-18 (.617) over his first four years as the Aggies head man.

The three straight winning seasons are the programs first since posting winning seasons from 1999-01. The Aggies had 11 players earn all-conference honors in 2014, the most in school history. Of those 11 players, seven earned first-team honors. Broadway also saw seven of his players earn some type of All-American honor, which included center Ronald Canty earning Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association All-American recognition. One of his prized recruits Tarik Cohen became a national figure and social media sensation during the 2015 offseason when he was showcased online catching a football, sometimes two, while coming out of a backflip. Cohen was also made an appearance on ESPN SportsCenter doing a backflip while catching a football. On the field, Cohen has been named the MEAC's rookie of the year and its co-offensive player of the year, making him the second Aggie under Broadway to earn the honor.

The Aggies were even able to get off to a 3-0 start in 2013, including an upset win over three-time FCS national champion Appalachian State in Boone, N.C. It was the first time the Mountaineers had lost to an in-state opponent at home since 1984. The Aggies also finished the season with the No. 1 rush defense in the nation and No. 4 overall defense in the country. 2013-14.

Broadway has turned the Aggies into a winner despite numerous obstacles he inherited when he arrived on campus in February of 2011. Broadway took over a program mired in NCAA sanctions stemming from a low graduation rate. As a result, Broadway has taken on the task of building a winner despite having reduced practice hours, fewer scholarships and little to no spring practice. Instead of making excuses, Broadway changed the football culture at A&T. He revitalized A&T's program with a stingy defense and a stringent focus on accountability on the football field and in the classroom.

One of his first initiatives was to make his players proud of the A&T legacy. Before each home game, they visit the statue (on campus) of four men and former A&T students (David Richmond, Franklin McCain, Joseph A. McNeil and Jibreel Khazan formerly known as Ezell Blair, Jr.) largely credited with ushering in the modern day civil rights movement with their famous Feb. 1, 1960 sit-in at a Greensboro F.W. Woolworth's lunch counter.

His focus on academic excellence resulted in 34 football players earning a 3.0 grade point average or better during the 2012 fall semester. Twenty-one players were named A&T scholar athletes in 2013 and 23 earned the honor in 2014.

In addition, A&T's annual academic progress rate score, the score that measures progress toward degree, improved to 944 in single year 2011-12, releasing the Aggies from NCAA sanctions. The single-year score improved to 948 the following year and increased to 958 in

The foundation for the Aggies' resurgence on the field has been defense. In three years, the Aggies overall defense has ranked no lower than 24th nationally. A&T's run defense has never finished lower than 16th. The Aggies held six different opponents to under 100 yards rushing in 2013. Overall, nine players earned either first, second or third-team All-MEAC honors and Cohen was a Jerry Rice finalist for best FCS freshman in the nation.

The prior year opponents went an amazing 17 straight quarters without scoring an offensive touchdown against the Aggies defense. The Aggies were also No. 1 nationally in pass defense efficiency in 2012. The second year under Broadway also produced two first-team All-MEAC performers in cornerback D'Vonte Graham and left tackle William Ray Robinson III. Three more defensive players earned second-team honors in defensive tackle Chris Neal, linebacker D'Vonte Grant and safety Travis Crosby.

In his first year, Broadway became the first Aggie head coach in school history to produce a 2,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

Mike Mayhew, the Aggies 1,000-yard back in 2011, was named MEAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year. Wallace Miles, the 1,000-yard receiver, signed an NFL free agent contract with the Detroit Lions. Defensively, Grant became a Jerry Rice Finalist for best freshman in the Division I-FCS after he led the Aggies in tackles. Mayhew, Robinson, Nathan Isles, Ayodeji Olatoye, Desmond Lawrence and Miles have all earned invites to NFL camps. Isles, Miles and Olatoye signed free agent contracts with NFL teams. Miles still plays in the CFL.

Broadway came to A&T with an impressive history of winning championships with a brand of football that is exciting offensively and punishing defensively. In his last two head coaching positions – N.C. Central and Grambling State – each school came away with a Black College National Championship.

Broadway has compiled a 97-41 (.703) record over 12 years as a head coach. Before taking over the difficult task of rebuilding an Aggies program with just 14 wins in the previous seven seasons before his arrival, Broadway spent four seasons (2007-10) at Grambling State. The Tigers went 35-12 under his leadership.

The year before he arrived at GSU, the Tigers went 3-8. During his first season there in 2008, the Tigers finished second in the Southwestern Athletic Conference and made an appearance in the SWAC Championship Game. Five players received either All-American or All-SWAC honors, and Broadway was a finalist for the nationally-recognized Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. Wide receiver Clyde Edwards earned FCS Fabulous 50 All-American honors and running back Frank Warren was named SWAC Freshman of the Year.

Year two led to even more improvements for the GSU program. The Tigers ascended to the top of the SWAC with a 9-0 record and a 41-9 win over Jackson State in the SWAC Championship Game. GSU's 2008 season also produced an 11-2 overall mark, a No. 24 national ranking in the Sports Network Division

I-FCS poll and a Black College National Championship.

Defense was the catalyst for the Tigers' success as they finished the season ranked No. 1 nationally in turnover margin, pass efficiency defense and had a No. 7 ranking in rush defense. In addition, three players earned All-American honors, nine were named All-SWAC and five players earned Louisiana Sports Writers Association recognition. Accolades for Broadway included being named SWAC Coach of the Year and The Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C., Coach of the Year.

In 2009, GSU continued to play well. The Tigers finished 7-4 overall and 5-2 in the SWAC. The next season resulted in a 9-2 mark that was complemented by an 8-1 SWAC record. During his career at GSU, Broadway also showed he had a hankering for winning rivalry games. He went 3-1 against archrival Southern. He also owns the best winning percentage in program history, even better than legendary GSU head coach Eddie Robinson.

Before his stint at GSU, Broadway turned N.C. Central into a Division II national power. His four-year stint (2003-06) at N.C. Central produced a 33-11 record, back-to-back CIAA titles for the first time in 50 years and the Eagles made two consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division II Playoffs. The 2006 season was the highlight of Broadway's tenure at NCCU.

Broadway led the Eagles to an 11-1 season and the top seed in the NCAA Division II Southeast Region. After fielding the No. 1 rated offense in the CIAA and the 15th ranked defense nationally, individual honors included two players being named Associated Press Little All-Americans.

There were also 12 players named All-CIAA, 10 Eagles earned Daktronics All-Southeast Region recognition and four members from the 2006 team were named SBN All-Americans, including freshman quarterback Stadford Brown, who was also named SBN Player of the Year. During his stint at NCCU, Broadway also put together a 16-game regular-season winning streak and led the Eagles to their first-ever victory over a SWAC opponent with a win over Southern in 2006.

Broadway began his collegiate coaching career at East Carolina University in 1979. His other coaching positions included stays at Duke University (1981-94), the University of Florida (1995-00) and the University of North Carolina (2001-02). As an assistant at UNC, Broadway helped the Tar Heels to a No. 15 national ranking in total defense and an appearance in the Peach Bowl.

At Florida, he served as a member of the Steve Spurrier's staff. In 1996, he helped the Gators win an NCAA National Championship. Broadway's stay also included four SEC Championships and six bowl appearances. The Gators defense led the SEC in sacks four straight seasons (1996-99), and the team set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed, as offenses produced just 70.7 yards per game.

A 1977 graduate of UNC, Broadway played on the Tar Heels defensive line from 1974-77.
