LEVISTER TOP INDIVIDUAL AT MINORITY COLLEGE CHAMPIONSHIP

NCCU freshman Jameshia Levister finished atop the women's individual medalist race of the 15th National Minority College Golf Championship.

Levister shot a final round 79 Sunday on the 6,488-yard (5,360 for women), par-72 North Course at the PGA Golf Club in Port St. Lucie, Florida. Her three-day total of 236 (74-83-79) trailed only Julia Walsh (80-75-73=228) and Caroline Pehrson (70-77-77=224), both of Bethune-Cookman College, who were competing in the women's team event.

A native of Ocala, Fla., Levister's score of 74 on Friday was an individual best during the 2001 season, bettering her previous top score by six strokes (80 on March 12 in Charlotte, NC).

EAGLES EARN CIAA ACADEMIC AWARD

NCCU earned the 2003 CIAA Golf Academic Award as the team with the highest grade point average.

(April 23, 2003)

WRIGHT TAGGED CIAA ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

NCCU freshman Steve Wright was voted as the 2003 CIAA Golf Rookie of the Year award winner.

Pete Hayes, the head coach responsible for resurrecting the golf program at NCCU, was chosen as the 2004 and 2005 CIAA Golf Coach of the Year.

(May 6, 2004)

HAYES VOTED CIAA GOLF COACH OF THE YEAR

NCCU head men's golf coach Pete Hayes has been voted as the 2004 CIAA Men's Golf Coach of the Year.

The NCCU men's golf team placed second to Fayetteville State at the 2004 CIAA Golf Championships, marking the Eagles best conference tournament finish since starting the program in 2000.

NCCU won two of its six events during the 2004 campaign, along with three second place performances.

(May 13, 2004)

THREE EAGLES VOTED TO CIAA ACADEMIC TEAM

Three NCCU golfers are among the 20 individuals from the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association that have been named to the seventh annual CIAA Commissioner's All-Academic Team.

NCCU junior golfer Ernie Batchelor earned CIAA Commissioner's All-Academic First Team honors. Fellow golfers Morgan Pierce and Steve Wright were named to the Second Team.

DEMBY M.V.P. OF CIAA EASTERN DIVISION GOLF CHALLENGE

NCCU freshman Brian Demby earned Most Valuable Player honors of the 2005 CIAA Eastern Division Golf Challenge, leading the Eagles to a second place finish at the Carolina Golf Club in Elizabeth City, N.C.

Demby's two-day total of 152, including a first-round tally of 73, was the lowest score in the 10-team tournament field.

NCCU's two-day total of 649 was just seven strokes shy of the event winner and reigning CIAA champion Fayetteville State University (642). The Eagles actually outscored the Broncos on the final day, 326 to 327.

(April 22, 2005)

DEMBY SHOOTS CIAA RECORD 135, HAYES REPEATS AS CIAA COACH OF THE YEAR

Brian Demby of NCCU captured low medalist honors with a CIAA-record score of 135 at the 2005 CIAA Golf Tournament held at River's Bend Golf Course in Chester, Va.

Demby shot a four-under-par 67 on day one, and then followed with a three-under-par 68 on day two.

As a team, NCCU posted a two-day score of 614 to finish in second place, 25 strokes shy of champion Fayetteville State.

NCCU head coach Pete Hayes repeated as the CIAA Golf Coach of the Year.

TWO EAGLES IN TOP 10 AT NATIONAL MINORITY GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Two Eagles finished in the top 10 as North Carolina Central University settled for a fifth place team finish at the 19th National Minority College Golf Championship at the PGA Golf Club (North Course) in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

NCCU freshman Brian Demby fired a 2-over-par 74 on the final day to jump into seventh place on the individual leaderboard (78-81-74=233), while junior Steve Wright carded a 79 to land in the No. 10 position.

At the end of the first round NCCU's team score of 313 was good for second place, just three strokes behind leader and eventual champion Lincoln University. The Eagles, however, posted a 341 in the second round of play to drop to fifth place in the Division II team standings.

NCCU GOLF SNAPS FAYETTEVILLE STATE'S STREAK OF CIAA WEST TITLES

Fayetteville State University was the only school to ever win the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Western Division Men's Golf Championship since the event started in 1998 ... until Tuesday.

North Carolina Central University snapped the Broncos' eight-year winning streak by rallying on day two to capture the 2006 CIAA Western Division golf title at Bull Creek Golf Course in Louisburg, N.C.

Brian Demby carded rounds of 67 and 68 for a CIAA record score of 135 to earn top medalist honors at the 2005 CIAA Golf Tournament in Chester, Va.

The Eagles, seven strokes behind FSU after day one, fired a team score of 317 on day two to win the division crown by six strokes.

NCCU was topped by Brian Demby, who placed second overall with a two-day total of 149, including a 73 on day two. Newcomer Dustin McCray finished in a tie for fifth place with a 158 (76/82), while Eagle veteran Steve Wright rounded out the top 10 with a 161 (79/82).

The golfers bravely battled the course and strong wind gusts at Bull Creek, which resulted in high scores for many participants the second day.

Historical Notes

The 2006 NCCU Eagles rallied for a third place finish at the 20th PGA Minority Collegiate Championship in Port St. Lucie, Fla.

McCRAY LEADS NCCU TO SECOND PLACE AT CIAA GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

NCCU freshman Dustin McCray fired a two-day total of 144 (71-73) to earn All-CIAA honors and lead the Eagles to a second place finish at the 2006 CIAA Men's Golf Championship at River's Bend Golf Course in Chester, Va.

The Eagles finished only 17 strokes behind the front-running Broncos of Fayetteville State as NCCU recorded a two-day total of 609.

(May 7, 2006)

EAGLES RALLY FOR THIRD PLACE FINISH AT PGA MINORITY CHAMPIONSHIP

North Carolina Central University overcame a nine-stroke deficit to pass Morehouse College for third place at the 20th PGA Minority Collegiate Golf Championship in Port St. Lucie, Fla. on Sunday (May 7).

The third place effort, edging Morehouse by two strokes, is the best team finish at the PGA event in the past three years. The Eagles placed fourth in 2004 and fifth in 2005.

NCCU sophomore Brian Demby regrouped after a day one score of 84 to fire a 78 on Saturday and a 79 on Sunday to finish in a tie for seventh place on the individual leaderboard.

NCCU OVERCOMES EIGHT-STROKE DEFICIT TO CAPTURE WSSU GOLF INVITATIONAL TITLE

The North Carolina Central University Eagles turned an eight-stroke, day-one deficit into a 10-stroke victory on Sunday morning at Winston Lake Golf Course as NCCU fired a team total of 332 (674 total) to overcome the Saint Augustine's College Falcons and capture the 2009 Winston-Salem State University Golf Invitational championship.

NCCU benefitted from a round of 75 (+4) carded by senior Josue Garza and a round of 78 from freshman Braden Cox as the pair turned in the top two rounds on Sunday to finish first and second respectively in the individual medalist portion of the event as they led the NCCU rally en route to the team title.

The 2009 NCCU Eagles tied for fifth place in the Division I standings at the 23rd PGA Minority Collegiate Championship.

NCCU senior Chris Winters shaved six strokes off his day one score to finish in a tie for fifth place with a two-day total of 172 (89-83). Rookie Ronald Royster rounded out the victorious Eagles line-up by placing 15th with a score of 189 (93-96).

(April 23, 2009)

PERRY HONORED AS NCCU COACH OF THE YEAR

Head golf coach Paul Perry was honored by the North Carolina Central University Student Activities Board as the 2008-09 NCCU Coach of the Year.

A graduate of NCCU and former Eagle football student-athlete, Perry guided the Eagles golf team to four top four finishes in seven events, including a dramatic come-from-behind victory at the Winston-Salem State Ram Invitational. Perry's golfers also tied for second place at the Savannah State Tiger Fall Invitational and placed third at the South Carolina State Bulldog Classic.

NCCU TIES FOR FIFTH PLACE AT PGA MINORITY GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Senior Winters Shoots Even Par in Final Round to Finish in Tie for Fifth Place

North Carolina Central University finished in a tie for fifth place at the 23rd PGA Minority Collegiate Golf Championship in Port St. Lucie, Fla., on Sunday, marking the best finish for the Eagles at the national championship event since 2006.

The Eagles fired a final-round 302 for a three-day score of 892 (296-294-302), equaling the team total of the Bulldogs of South Carolina State.

Senior Chris Winters topped NCCU with an even-par 72, with five birdies on the day. The Durham, N.C. native finished the weekend with a five-under-par 211 (70-69-72), tying for fifth place in the individual standings.

Winters capped his college career in style, sinking a 20-foot birdie putt on his final shot as an NCCU Eagle.

NCCU freshman Braden Cox used four birdies to post a 76 (+4) in his final round. Senior Josue Garza and junior Juan Sanchez each carded a 77 (+5), while freshman Ronald Royster added an 83 (+11).

Chris Winters shot a 5-under-par 211 to tie for fifth place at the 2009 PGA Minority Collegiate Championship.

Historical Notes

The 2015 NCCU Eagles posted the lowest round in program history with a team score of 291 at the 29th PGA Minority Collegiate Championship in Port St. Lucie, Fla.

HINTON RETURNS TO ALMA MATER AS GOLF COACH

NCCU alumnus and certified golf teaching professional David Hinton III was announced as the university's new men's golf head coach on Aug. 7, 2009.

A native of Raleigh, N.C., Hinton is a Certified Golf Teaching Professional by the United States Golf Teachers Federation and a Certified Golf Instructor and Coach with The First Tee Organization. He is also a 1991 graduate of NCCU, where he earned a bachelor's degree in public administration.

Hinton has worked as a Golf Coach and the Community Outreach Coordinator with The First Tee of the Triangle (N.C.) for seven years prior to joining NCCU. During that time he also served as the Program Director, Golf Swing Instructor and Coach at Next Level Sports Management Company in Raleigh, N.C., and as the Junior Golf Program Director with Saint Augustine's College at Meadowbrook Country Club in Garner, N.C. During the 2011-12 season, Hinton was the head golf coach at Southeast Raleigh High School.

EAGLES BREAK SCHOOL RECORD IN FINAL ROUND OF PGA MINORITY CHAMPIONSHIP

The NCCU golf squad posted a score of 291 in the final round of the 29th PGA Minority Collegiate Golf Championship on Sunday at The PGA Club (Wanamaker course) to break the school's 18-hole team scoring record and match the best round by a Division I men's team at this year's event.

The Eagles broke the previous record by three strokes. The 294 team total was recorded in 2009 at the same event.

On the final day, Sumner Tate (Raleigh, N.C.) carded his best round of the season, a 1-under-par 71, to top NCCU. Jordan Bohannon (Southfield, Mich.) also tallied a season-best score of even-par 72, while Garrett Carpenter (Augusta, Ga.) and Zane Lewis (Sanford, N.C.) each tallied 74 (+2). Michael Wilson (Flint, Mich.) added an 82.

The team's record-breaking performance on Sunday was 20 strokes less than Saturday's team score of 311 and a 31-shot improvement over Friday's 322. NCCU's three-round total of 924 ranks as the fourth-best 54-hole team total in school history and positioned the Eagles in a tie for sixth place in the 2015 PGA tournament team standings, the program's best finish since tying for fifth place in 2009.

Tate's three-round total of 229 (81-77-71) tied for 13th on the individual leaderboard.

NCCU BREAKS SCHOOL RECORDS AT DONALD ROSS INTERCOLLEGiate

The NCCU men's golf team surpassed a host of NCCU team and individual records at the Donald Ross Intercollegiate played at Mimosa Hills Golf Club in Morganton, N.C., on Oct. 12-13.

Individually, sophomore Zane Lewis (Sanford, N.C.) broke the 10-year-old NCCU record for low round with a 66 (-4) in the second round on Monday and tied the school record for low 54-hole total with a 211 (74-66-71), equaling the mark of Chris Winters at the 2009 PGA National Minority Collegiate Championship. Lewis finished ninth out of 76 golfers on the individual leaderboard.

As a team, the Eagles improved upon the low-round record they broke at the 2015 PGA National Minority Collegiate Championship in May with a 291 by posting a team score of 289 in Monday's second round. The squad also edged the school record for low 54-hole team score with an 891, shaving one stroke off the old standard of 892, which was tallied by the 2008-09 Eagles at the aforementioned PGA event under the leadership of coach Paul Perry.

NCCU sophomore Jordan Bohannon (Southfield, Mich.) tied for 24th with a 217 (72-71-74), followed by senior Sumner Tate (Raleigh, N.C.) in a tie for 62nd place with a 227 (76-74-77), and senior Michael Wilson (Flint, Mich.) in 74th place with a 237 (78-79-80). Senior Jerome Bostwick (London, England) added a score of 243 (84-78-81).

NCCU RALLIES FOR BEST DIVISION I FINISH AT PGA MINORITY COLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The NCCU men's golf team posted its best score of the weekend in Sunday's final round at the PGA Golf Club in Port St Lucie, Florida, rallying for the program's best finish at the PGA Minority Collegiate Championship on the Division I level.

The Eagles trimmed 25 shots off Friday's opening round team score to shoot a 306 on Sunday, moving past Maryland Eastern Shore into fourth place at the 30th annual event. Since reclassifying to NCAA Division I, NCCU's previous best finish at the PGA Minority Collegiate Championship was a tie for fifth place in 2009.

NCCU's best finish all-time at the PGA event is a third-place effort in the Division II standings in 2006.

Sophomore Jordan Bohannon (Southfield, Mich.) posted an even-par final round of 72 for a total score of 227 (80-75-72), placing fifth in the Division I individual leaderboard. Bohannon's 38 pars recorded during the three-round event were the most in the Division I field. Fellow sophomore Zane Lewis (Sanford, N.C.) closed the tournament with a 75 (+3) to finish in ninth place with a score of 230 (76-79-75). Senior Michael Wilson (Flint, Mich.), who battled a painful injury all weekend, played a gutsy final round of his college career with a 79 – a 15-stroke improvement from his score on Friday when even competing was in jeopardy. Junior Sumner Tate (Raleigh, N.C.) was a steady contributor for the Eagles with rounds of 83, 80 and 80, while senior Jerome Bostwick (London, England) closed out his college career with a 266 (92-80-94).

As a team, NCCU recorded scores of 331, 314 and 306 for a total score of 951, eight shots ahead of Florida A&M and 11 strokes behind third-place Savannah State.

BOHANNON'S MVP PERFORMANCE LEADS NCCU TO RUNNER-UP AT MDES CHALLENGE

NCCU junior golfer Jordan Bohannon earned MVP honors and led the Eagles to a runner-up team finish at the Maryland Eastern Shore Collegiate Challenge at The Ocean City Golf Club in Berlin, Maryland.

Bohannon, a native of Southfield, Michigan, captured low medalist recognition after carding an even-par 72 in Monday's opening round, followed by a 74 and a 76 to finish at 222 (+6) on the 6,701-yard course.

Zane Lewis posted scores of 75, 77 and 81 to tie for eighth place at 233 (+17). Sumner Tate (76, 81, 76) and Samuel Bradley (74, 80, 80) placed 10th and 11th, respectively, followed by Nathan Corley (77, 76, 88) in 19th place.

As a team, NCCU took home the runner-up trophy with a tally of 917 (297, 307, 313), just seven strokes behind event winner Iona (292, 305, 313). Hampton (934) placed third, even host Maryland Eastern Shore (939) fourth and Virginia State (993) fifth.

The 2016-17 NCCU Eagles earned the runner-up award at the Maryland Eastern Shore Collegiate Challenge, while Jordan Bohannon captured low medalist honors.

(Oct. 31, 2017)

NCCU'S LEWIS SHOOTS FOUR-UNDER-PAR AT SSU INVITATIONAL

SAVANNAH, Ga. – NCCU senior Zane Lewis posted rounds of 70, 71 and 71 to finish at 4-under-par for third place on the individual leaderboard at the Savannah State University Tiger Fall Invitational at Crosswinds Golf Club.

A native of Sanford, North Carolina, Lewis's three-round total score of 212 earned him an All-Tournament award and is just one stroke off the NCCU record for a 54-hole event, a standard he tied the prior season.

NCCU SENIORS END CAREERS AS RECORD-BREAKERS

The college careers of statistically the two best golfers in NCCU history came to an end in record-breaking fashion on May 13, 2018, in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

Seniors Jordan Bohannon (Southfield, Mich.) and Zane Lewis (Sanford, N.C.) walked off the 18th green at The PGA Golf Club after Sunday's (May 13) final round of the PGA Minority Collegiate Championship with the two best single-season scoring averages in the NCCU records book. Lewis concluded his final campaign with an average of 74.28 strokes per round, while Bohannon established a new single-season record with a scoring average of 74.15.

In 2017-18, Lewis achieved six top-10 finishes with a win percentage of .837, while Bohannon tallied nine top-10 performances with two event victories and a win percentage of .842. The dynamic duo each carded low rounds of 68.

During their standout four-year careers, they have also posted the top two career scoring averages at NCCU. From 2014-18, Lewis averaged 76.15 shots per round (6,397 strokes in 84 rounds), while Bohannon is the school's new record-holder with a career average of 75.74 (6,741 strokes in 89 rounds).

Lewis also holds the NCCU record for low round with a 66 (-4) in the second round of the Donald Ross Intercollegiate on Oct. 12, 2015, breaking a standard that stood for 10 years.

Bohannon, who has improved his scoring average in each of the past four seasons, owns a career win percentage of .626 with 17 top-10 finishes and three event victories, both marks are more than any other Eagle in the NCCU records book.

During their junior campaigns in 2016-17, Bohannon and Lewis helped lead the Eagles to the best single-season team scoring average (307.34) in school history.

HISTORIC ACE! NCCU'S GULLSTRAND RECORDS HOLE-IN-ONE

NCCU senior golfer Jesper Gullstrand (Vellinge, Sweden) recorded a hole-in-one on the 208-yard 12th hole at Bryan Park during the second round of the Aggie Invitational on March 28, 2022, the first hole-in-one registered in the NCCU men's golf records book.

(May 4, 2022)
BARBARE BREAKS NCCU SEASON SCORING RECORD

NCCU redshirt junior Daniel Barbare broke the school record for single-season scoring average by ending the year with three rounds in the 70s during the PGA WORKS Collegiate Championship on May 2-4 in Philadelphia.

Barbare, out of Raleigh, North Carolina, opened the tournament with a 1-under-par 71 at The Union League Golf Club at Liberty Hills, then registered rounds of 75 and 79 to finish in a tie for 13th place on the leaderboard.

His 2021-22 scoring average of 73.94 broke the record held by Jordan Bohannon, who averaged 74.15 during the 2017-18 campaign.
