AROUND THE HORN

- The Mavericks officially punched their ticket to their fourth consecutive Summit League Tournament last week after winning the final game of the season at Northern Colorado.
- The league announced its All-Summit honorees on Tuesday, with four Mavericks making the cut: First Team Third Baseman Mike Boeve, First Team Shortstop Devin Hurdle, Second Team Utility Player Brennen Bales, and Honorable Mention Starting Pitcher Harrison Kreiling.
- A no-doubter, Boeve is now 3-for-3 in First Team honors after finishing the regular season with career highs in average (.401) and OBP (.515). He capped off the season with the game-tying home run at Northern Colorado on Saturday for his fourth of the season. The home run also marked his 32nd RBI of the season, giving him 94 in his career.
- Hurdle earned his first ever Summit League honor after taking a massive step forward this season. Year over year, the shortstop increased his average from .230 to .377, his OBP from .315 to .435, and his SLG from .335 to .556. He also greatly cut down on strikeouts, going from 54 to 25.
- Two-way Bales made a huge impact in his first season in Omaha, hitting .283 with five home runs and 25 RBIs, while also making 12 relief appearances, striking out 12 and earning one win.
- Kreiling also earns his first All-Summit honor after returning from injury and making 10 appearances with eight starts for Omaha, compiling a 4.60 ERA with 45 strikeouts. He was named the league's pitcher of the week on May 8 after setting a career high with 11 strikeouts in six shutout innings vs. Western Illinois.
- The hero of last week's clincher at UNC was Wyatt Sellers, who had one of the greatest relief outings in Mavericks' history as he entered the game in the seventh with Omaha up for the first time and proceeded to throw three shutout innings in which he allowed just one hit vs. six strikeouts. Though he found himself in a bases-loaded jam in the eighth, he preserved Omaha's lead with a crucial strikeout to end the inning.
- Also making a major impact this year were the Lechnir brothers, with Zach and Drew coming to Omaha and combining for seven home runs, seven doubles, 38 RBIs, and 44 runs scored.
- On the bump, rookie pitcher Preston Tenney had an impressive debut season as he took over as the team's No. 1 starter after Caleb Riedel went down with injury. With two complete game shutouts and a Pitcher of the Week award, Tenney more than earned the spot.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Across 157 at bats this season, Mike Boeve only struck out 9 times, by far the fewest of any mit League hitter with at least 150

Summit League hitter with at least 150 at bats. In each of his first two seasons, Boeve struck out 29 times.

Harrison Kreiling fell just short of reaching 100 career strikeouts last week, recording six to end the regular season with 98. Should he reach the milestone this week, he will join Caleb Riedel and Charlie Bell as active Mavericks in the century club.

This is the fourth season in a row that the Mavericks have qualified for the Summit League Tournament (not including the 2020 season). In this span, the Mavericks have gone 110-110-1.

The Mavericks scored a total of 271 runs this season for an average of 5.77 runs per game. Facilitating this offense was a .284 team batting average, .372 team on-base percentage, and .435 team slugging.

SCOUTING REPORT

Scouting Oral Roberts

The Golden Eagles enter the tournament as the No. 1 seed after finishing with a near undefeated record in the conference at 23-1, including a 3-0 record against Omaha this season. The team's 12 All-Summit honorees are also a league high. Leading the way for them on offense is Summit League Player of the Year Jonah Cox, who slashed .425/.484/.692 (1.176) with nine home runs, 16 doubles, eight triples, and 55 RBIs. Four more players finished with an average above .300, including fellow First Team honoree Matt Hogan and his 16 home runs, 61 RBIs, and .713 SLG.

On the mound, First Team honoree Jakob Hall fronts a strong rotation with this 3.56 ERA and 80 strikeouts, while Summit League Pitcher of the Year Cade Denton leads the bullpen with a 1.51 ERA and 12 saves.

Scouting North Dakota State

As the No. 2 seed, the Bison went 16-7 in league play and 3-2 against the Mavericks and had nine All-Summit honorees this year. First Team second baseman Peter Brookshaw paces their offense with a .313 average and .979 OPS. Also having standout seasons are Druw Sackett, who leads the team with 13 home runs and 52 RBIs, and Cadyn Schwabe and his 26 steals.

All three NDSU weekend starters earned All-Summit honors, as Parker Puetz (2.64 ERA), Cade Feeney (3.99 ERA) and Trusten Roehrich (4.10 ERA) had excellent seasons and combined for 13 wins and 198 strikeouts.

Scouting South Dakota State

The Jackrabbits are the No. 3 seed at 13-11 in the conference, sweeping three games from Omaha. Their seven All-Summit honorees are led by First Team catcher Ryan McDonald, who batted .417 with a monstrous .929 slugging percentage and 1.504 OPS after clubbing 17 home runs and 10 doubles. Also producing noteworthy seasons on offense are Dawson Parry (.317 BA) and Cade Stuff (.913 OPS).

Jake Goble is the lone Jackrabbit starting pitcher to make the All-Summit team after finishing with a 4.91 ERA. SDSU's bullpen features a solid one-two of Eli Sundquist (3.67 ERA) and Ryan Bourassa (3.89 ERA, eight saves) who combined for 34 appearances and 64 innings pitched.

SEASON NOTES

Summit League Preseason Poll

The Omaha baseball team was ranked third in the 2023 Summit League Preseason Poll the league announced on February 15. This is the second season in a row the Mavericks have been tabbed third in the preseason poll.

Omaha earned 30 points in the poll, trailing only North Dakota State (36) and Oral Roberts (42). The Mavericks went 26-31 last year with a 12-12 record in league play. They advanced all the way to the Summit League Tournament Championship after defeating NDSU 5-3 in the final elimination game, but lost the following day to ORU in the title game.

Place	Team	Points (First-Place Votes)	2022 Record

Boeve and Riedel Named Preseason Players to Watch

The Summit League also announced its 2023 Players and Pitchers to Watch, with Mike Boeve being named for the second consecutive year and Caleb Riedel for the first time.

Boeve took a massive leap forward in his sophomore season. Starting all 57 games at third base last year, he finished the season with a .364/.491/.584 slash line (1.075 OPS), clubbing eight home runs and 23 doubles along the way, as well as driving in 33 runs and scoring 46. Not only did every single one of these rank in the top 10 in the Summit League, but his .491 OBP ranked 27th in the entire NCAA while his 23 doubles were the 20th most. On top of all of this, Boeve also strung together a 29-game hitting streak from April 3-May 26.

Boeve was named First Team All-Summit for the second straight season, as well as the Summit League Player of the Year and made the American Baseball Coaches Association/Rawlings Central All-Region Second Team.

Riedel burst onto the scene as a rookie last year, starting 13 games and firing 60.1 innings. During this time he posted the second-best ERA in the nation at 1.49 as he allowed just 12 earned runs total. He also owned a 1.18 WHIP, struck out 65 batters, and held opposing hitters to a .229 BA. Over a 27-inning stretch spanning five games from February 27-April 15, Riedel did not allow a single earned run.

Riedel was also a First Team All-Summit selection and was named the Summit League Newcomer of the Year.

Preseason All-American

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) released its 2023 Preseason All-America Teams on February 2, and Mavericks ace Caleb Riedel was named Third Team All-American.

Riedel is one of just two Summit League players to be recognized this year, with the other being Oral Roberts relief pitcher Cade Denton who was named First-Team All-American.

SEASON NOTES

2022 Season in Review

The Mavericks had an up and down 2022 season, initially coming out to a 2-10 start capped off by five straight losses to USC, No. 10 Arkansas, and Valparaiso. Omaha's only wins during this time were a 15-0 routing of San Jose State and a stunning 9-4 win at UCLA. Mike Boeve and Cam Frederick each went 2-for-4 in that win and drove in a pair of runs, while Jackson Gordon had the start and fired three shutout innings.

After a rough start to the season, Omaha turned things around and went 7-5 over their next 12-game stretch, notching keys wins over Creighton (5-3), Nebraska (4-3), and taking a pair from Rutgers (1-0, 3-2). Noah Greise mashed three doubles and drove in five runs during this stretch, including the lone run in the 1-0 shutout of Rutgers. Caleb Riedel and Joey Machado tossed five and four innings apiece in the shutout. Boeve also remained hot during this time with 10 hits and seven RBIs, including three-straight games with a home run.

The Mavericks continued to gain momentum as they again went 7-5 over their next 12 games, beating a couple of Power 5 opponents in Nebraska (6-5) and Kansas (11-10). Garrett Kennedy had a career day at Kansas, going 3-for-5 and driving in six runs, including three on a second-inning homer. This stretch culminated in a three-game Summit League sweep of Western Illinois that brought Omaha to 16-20 with a 10-5 conference record. Wyatt Sellers and Harrison Kreiling picked up the wins in the final two games of the sweep, combining for 5.1 innings without allowing an earned run.

This momentum would be short lived, however, as the Mavericks proceeded to lose three in a row to Nebraska and Penn State. Though they rebounded with a 9-0 shutout over Kansas, led by a three-RBI performance from Devin Hurdle and six scoreless innings from Kreiling, they struggled to find consistency on offense and wound up getting shutout in back-to-back games vs. Oral Roberts to drop to 20-28 (12-9).

With only four games left, Omaha seemed primed to end the season on a high note as they took down Minnesota 10-7 on the road. Kreiling fired six more shutout innings while Drew Reetz led the offense with a double and two RBIs. Unfortunately, the team faltered down the stretch and ended the regular season by getting swept by St. Thomas.

This trend of up and down performances would continue into the Summit League Tournament as the Mavericks exploded in the opening game with a 10-2 win over North Dakota State in which Greise drove in three and scored three and Eduardo Rosario brought home a pair as well. Riedel also had his longest outing of the season with eight innings pitched. The next day, however, they fell 8-12 to Oral Roberts.

In the final elimination game of the tournament, Omaha rode a strong pitching performance from Charlie Bell and an early two-run homerun from Rosario to a 5-3 victory over NDSU to advance to the Summit League title game. Unfortunately, the Mavericks saw their hopes of an NCAA Tournament berth end the very next day in a 2-21 loss to ORU in the championship.

Despite how things ended, several Mavericks ended the season with impressive stat sheets. Boeve won Summit League Player of the Year with a .364/.491/.584 slash line, eight home runs, 23 doubles, 12 steals, and 33 RBIs. Rosario and Greise finished second and third on the team in OPS at .768 and .761, respectively, with Rosario also leading the Mavericks with 34 runs batted in.

Defensively, Eddie Satisky recorded 387 putouts at first place and helped turn 25 double plays, all without making a single error. His .278 batting average is also second among all returners this year.

On the mound, Reidel owned a miniscule 1.49 ERA and struck out 65 batters in his debut season to cruise to Summit League Newcomer of the Year. Kreiling (3.06 ERA) and Bell (3.82 ERA) also dominated, each owning a sub 1.40 WHIP and striking out 49 and 69 batters apiece.

SEASON NOTES

Athletes of the Week

March 6

Mike Boeve picked up his first Summit League TicketSmarter Peak Performer of the week honor on March 6 after he went 8-for-12 with two doubles, seven RBIs, and scored eight runs, meaning that of the 38 runs Omaha scored against K-State and BYU that week, Boeve accounted for 15 of them. He also never struck out while simultaneously drawing six walks. This was the fourth time Boeve has been named Athlete of the Week.

March 13

Caleb Riedel had one of the most dominant outings of his career against Stonehill on March 10, firing six shutout innings in which he allowed just two baserunners. He also struck out a career-high 13 batters, four more than his previous high. This is the first Pitcher of the Week honor of Riedel's career.

April 4

Rookie JUCO transfer Preston Tenney had the game of his career on April 1 vs. Northern Colorado, tossing a complete game shutout that saw him strike out eight batters, walk none, allow just two hits, and throw only 108 pitches (84 of which were strikes). At one point he even set down 10 straight batters, firing six 1-2-3 innings overall. This is the first Pitcher of the Week honor of Tenney's career.

May 8

Harrison Kreiling became the latest Maverick to take home Pitcher of the Week after tossing six shutout innings vs. Western Illinois on May 6. He only allowed two hits while striking out a career high 11 batters. This is the first Pitcher of the Week honor of Kreiling's career.

Boeve vs. Power 5

Mike Boeve has played 38 games against Power 5 schools in his career, logging 147 at bats. In this span, he is hitting .299/.418/.497 (.909) with 23 RBIs, 24 runs scored, 19 XBHs, and five home runs, all while walking 22 times (plus eight HBPs) vs. only 19 strikeouts (10.1 K%). This season in particular, Boeve is batting .393/.528/.607 (1.135) in eight games, recording six RBIs, six runs, four XBHs, and eight walks vs. just two strikeouts.

Super Rosario

In Omaha's 16-4 rout of BYU, Eduardo Rosario turned in quite possibly the greatest offensive performance of his career. Batting 3-for-5 with a double and a home run, Rosario accounted for nine of Omaha's runs with seven RBIs and two runs scored. Those seven RBIs were the most by any Maverick since Chris Esposito at Mizzou back on February 27, 2021.

Yes We Cam

While Mike Boeve missed a couple of games due to a minor leg ailment, Cam Frederick stepped up big time as he led Omaha's offense to a pair of massive victories over Stonehill and Nebraska. In the former, Frederick went 3-for-5 and drove in four runs thanks to a pair of towering home runs. This was the first two-homer game of his career. Then, in the Nebraska game, Frederick went 4-for-5 and reached on an error as he drove in two with a go-ahead double in the sixth. Combined, Frederick batted 7-for-10 with six RBIs, four runs, and three XBHs. Even after Boeve's return to the lineup, Frederick has remained a starter in left field and continues to serve as one of the team's top power bats.

Double Down

Starting with their 16-4 win over BYU, the Mavericks would end up scoring double-digit runs in four-straight games, besting Stonehill 10-0 and 13-3, before heading to Lincoln and toppling Nebraska 10-6. Overall, the Mavericks outscored their opponents 49-13 while outhitting them 47-24. In total, the Mavericks racked up 20 XBHs, 15 of which were doubles. Including the first two games of the BYU series, this number climbs to 29 XBHs and 22 doubles. Eduardo Rosario (2), Eddie Satisky (2), Drew Lechnir (2), Devin Hurdle (3), Brennen Bales (3), Noah Greise (3), and Haiden Hunt (3) all recorded multiple doubles during this six-game span.

Welcome to the Century Club

Both Caleb Riedel and Charlie Bell reached 100 career strikeouts this season, with the former doing so in the fourth inning vs. NDSU on March 24, and the latter hitting the mark in the second inning vs. WIU on May 6.

5-for-5

On April 16 at SDSU, Mike Boeve did what no Maverick had done since Ryan Keele vs. Purdue Fort Wayne on May 4, 2013 and went 5-for-5 at the plate. He is currently the only player in the Summit League to do so this season.

Present Arms for The Colonel

Another breakout rookie on this year's team is reliever Rans Sanders. After assuming the role of closer, The Colonel has gone 4-for-5 in save attempts. His six-out save at Nebraska in particular was what cemented him as the closer as he came into a bases loaded and no outs situation in the eighth and proceeded to strike out the next three batters in order to keep Omaha on top. He would later prove his dominance again when he shutdown Creighton through two innings in the the first meeting of the year between the two teams.

40 K

Mavericks pitchers struck out 41 batters in three-straight wins over Stonehill and Nebraska back in March. This was the most strikeouts recorded by the team over any three-game stretch in the program's DI history. Caleb Riedel (13) and Preston Tenney (12) accounted for more than half of these strikeouts as each set a new career single-game high.

Five Relow

Last season, Omaha's 4.75 team ERA ranked 67th in the nation out of 293 D1 programs. Of the six pitchers to make at least two starts in 2022, five had an ERA below 4.00: Caleb Riedel (1.49), Charlie Bell (3.82), Mark Timmins (3.31), Harrison Kreiling (3.06), and Joey Machado (2.96). Though Timmins and Machado have both since graduated, the Mavericks bolstered their pitching staff with the addition of seven new pitchers this offseason.

Mining the Junior College Ranks

Of the 13 newcomers to join the Mavericks this season, 10 had prior experience at the junior college level: Haiden Hunt (Chattanooga State CC), Joel Benes (Cloud County CC), Rans Sanders (Cloud County CC), Kai Reum (Iowa Central CC), Luke Gainer (Iowa Western CC), Matt Goetzmann (Southeast CC), Preston Tenney (Northeast CC), Cade Baker (Hutchinson CC), Brennen Bales (Northeast CC), and Alex Potter (Northeast CC).

22 out of 32 members of the team have JUCO experience. Zach Lechnir (CMU), Drew Lechnir (CMU), and Brady LeJeune DeAcutis (Texas Tech) are the only newcomers with no prior JUCO experience. Likewise, only Cam Frederick, Harrison Kreiling, Noah Greise, Sid deMayo, Garrett Kennedy, Jackson Gordon, and Mike Boeve were recruited out of high school.

A Veteran Lineup

With over two-thirds of the team arriving via the transfer portal over the last few seasons, the Mavericks find themselves in the unique position of having no freshmen and only two sophomores on the team. "It wasn't by design," noted Porter about the all upperclassmen lineup. "We always try to get the best talent out of Omaha and the state of Nebraska. There's enough players here to win championships."

Porter vs. Power 5

Since taking the helm of the team in 2017, Head Coach Evan Porter has led the Mavericks to 21 wins over Power 5 opponents. Their first this year came in a 7-6 comeback over K-State on February 28, and their second came at Nebraska on March 14 in an instant classic that saw Omaha ride a late-game surge to a 10-6 victory. Omaha would win another game vs. the Huskers on April 11 in a 6-5 victory in extra innings.

In 2022, Omaha racked up eight wins against these schools, stunning No. 21 UCLA 9-4 on February 23, before winning their first of two games against Nebraska that season a couple weeks later. Omaha then took two out of three from Rutgers in mid-March, followed by another two wins against Kansas, including a 9-0 shutout on May 3. The Mavericks then wrapped up their Power 5 slate with a 10-7 win at Minnesota on May 17.

One of the most decorated players in UNO history and UNO Hall of Fame Class of 2018 inductee, Evan Porter is in his seventh year as head coach of the Omaha baseball program in 2022. He previously spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Mayericks from 2013-16.

In just his third season at the helm, Porter led his team to the program's first NCAA Division I Baseball Regional berth after the Mavericks captured The Summit League Regular Season and Tournament championships. Porter was also named Summit League Coach of the Year and saw eight of his players earn All-Summit honors. His team finished 31-24-1 and more than doubled in wins from the previous season en route to an appearance in the Los Angeles Regional against No. 1 UCLA. The Mavericks also finished the 2019 with a .984 fielding percentage, which marked the nation's best. The team also saw Payton Kinney earn Summit League Pitcher of the Year, Tournament MVP and Rawlings/ABCA All-America Third Team honors.

In 2020, the Mavericks were limited to just 14 games, but saw a multitude of highlights. Despite a shortened season, Omaha recorded a 10-4 record, which marked the program's best start in the Division I era. The Mavericks sat atop the league standings and ended the season on a six-game winning streak.

The following year, Omaha played almost a full season, going 22-25 overall and securing the No. 3 seed in the Summit League Conference Tournament by going 14-12 in conference play. The team was bested, however, in the first round by the eventual champions from North Dakota State.

In 2022, the Mavericks continued to find success under Porter, reaching the Summit League postseason for the third time in a row after ending the regular season 12-12 in the conference. Fourth-seeded Omaha faced top-seeded North Dakota State twice in the tournament, first in the opening round and later in the elimination game, winning both contests and making it all the way to the finals.

Porter was four-year starter at shortstop from 2005-09 and a two-time All-American. He was also a three-time all-region selection from 2007-09, earning awards from Daktronics and Rawlings/ABCA. Additionally, Porter was a two-time All-NCC pick (2007-08) and was first-team All-MIAA in 2009.

Porter's name runs through the Omaha record books, as he remains the program's all-time leader in games played (239), at-bats (869), hits (323), doubles (75), home runs (43), runs batted in (249) and total bases (527). His 97 hits recorded as a senior were a UNO single-season record that still stands, and his 23 doubles and 76 RBI in his junior year both rank second on the single-season charts.

A member of the UNO squad that earned a berth to the 2007 NCAA Division II College World Series, Porter was part of two Maverick teams (2006, 2008) that set a school record with 45 wins. During his time, UNO made four straight NCAA regional appearances and won the 2008 NCC championship.

Following his senior campaign, Porter was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 23rd round. He has played professionally overseas for the Solingen Alligators in Germany (2010), Gothenburg Sharks in Sweden (2011), Victoria Park Reds in Australia (2011-12), ADO AamigoO Lakers in Holland (2012) and Sölvesborg Firehawks in Sweden (2014, 2016).

A native of Omaha and a product of Millard North High School, Porter graduated from UNO with his bachelor's degree in business marketing in 2009 and his master's of business administration in 2016.
