AROUND THE HORN

- The Mavericks close out their regular season this week when the play their third and final game at Creighton on Tuesday, before facing off with South Dakota State for three games starting on Thursday to finish off the season.
- Currently sitting in third place behind St. Thomas (20-23, 14-9) and North Dakota (18-26-1, 13-10-1), Omaha still has a chance to win the Regular Season Title and enter the tournament as the No. 1 seed. Since St. Thomas is not eligible for postseason play, Omaha can still finish in second behind them and be the No. 1 seed in the Summit League Tournament.
- The Mavericks went 1-2 in their home finale last week against St. Thomas. Their only win came via a 10-6 victory on Saturday in which Harrison Kreiling and Joe Hackmann combined to strike out 15 Tommies in nine innings. This was Kreiling's first double-digit strikeout game of the season and the third of his career.
- Cardel Dick drove in six of Omaha's 17 runs last week, scoring three apiece on Saturday and Sunday. He plated three on Saturday with his first career triple and also recorded his third home run of the season on Sunday.
- With two more steals last week, Matt Goetzmann stole his 20th career base, making him the only active Maverick to reach this mark.
- A week after hitting his first home run of the season, Henry Zipay hit a no-doubter over the wall in right on Saturday for his second of the season and the third of his career.
- Luke Gainer had his fourth-straight scoreless outing on Sunday. He has now gone nine consecutive innings without allowing a run.
- Making his first start since April 12, Haiden Hunt went 2-for-4 with two runs and an RBI on Sunday as he got Omaha on the board in the second with his first triple of the season.

SCOUTING REPORT

Entering their final week of the season, Creighton currently sits at 32-16 with a 5-12 record in the Big East. The Bluejays have gone 3-7 over their last 10, though, they are coming off a 14-9 win at Connecticut on Sunday.

Nolan Sailors is Creighton's top offensive weapon as he currently leads the team in AVG (.364), OPS (1.061), RBIs (55), runs (51), and steals (16). Not far behind him are Nolan Clifford, who boasts a .343 AVG and .954 OPS, and Teddy Deters, who leads the team with nine home runs and four triples.

Seven different pitchers have made at least three starts for Creighton this year, with Dominic Cancellie (2.83 ERA), Jack Pineau (4.05), and Eli Nissen (4.25) being the top performers through 19 combined starts. Shane Curtin (3.19 ERA) and Mason Kock (3.57) head up the bullpen with eight of the team's 10 saves.

Head Coach Ed Servais is the winningest coach in Creighton baseball history at 675-403-1 while his career record of 857-485-2 is 21st among all Division I coaches. In 21 years with Creighton, he has led them to six NCAA Tournaments.

South Dakota State is 3-7 in its last 10 games, though, that includes a 10-6 win at Nebraska on May 8 and an 8-5 upset over NDSU on Sunday.

Cael Frost remains arguably the league's top hitter as he paces all players in in OPS (1.201), SLG (.758), runs (50), doubles (15), and home runs (20). Dawson Perry has also put up impressive numbers as he leads the league with 58 RBIs and has clubbed 14 home runs and 13 doubles, all while posting a 1.035 OPS in the process.

Nic McCay leads SDSU's pitching staff as its only member with an ERA below 5.75 at 3.51. He has also struck out 89 batters and owns a .224 BAA. Despite a 6.85 ERA, reliever Alex Clemons owns the lowest BAA on the team at .146 through 23.2 innings.

Rob Bishop is now in his eighth season with the Jackrabbits and 14th overall as a head coach. Not including the shortened 2020 season, He has lead SDSU to the Summit League Tournament in every season since taking over in 2017.

SEASON NOTES

Summit League Preseason Poll

The Omaha baseball team was ranked fourth in the 2024 Summit League Preseason Poll the league announced on February 14.

Omaha earned 13 points in the poll, trailing only North Dakota State (36) and Oral Roberts (42). In 2023, Omaha finished in fourth place in the regular season in 2023 with a 21-28 overall record and a 9-14 conference mark. In the Summit League Tournament, the Mavericks fell to No. 1 Oral Roberts on day one, before nearly fighting back but falling just short in an 12-inning loss to No. 2 North Dakota State in the elimination game.

Place	Team	Points (First-Place Votes)	2023 Record (SL Record)
1.	Oral Roberts	25 (5)	54-14 (23-1)
2.	North Dakota State	21 (1)	23-30 (16-7)
3.	South Dakota State	16	24-28 (13-11)
4.	Omaha	13	21-28 (9-14)
5.	Northern Colorado	9	11-34 (8-16)
6.	St. Thomas	6	10-34 (6-18)

Riedel and Hunt Named Preseason Players to Watch

The Summit League also announced its 2024 Players and Pitchers to Watch on February 14, with Caleb Riedel being named for the second consecutive year and Haiden Hunt for the first time.

This is the second year in a row that Riedel has been named a Preseason Pitcher to Watch. After finishing with the lowest ERA in the country in his first season (1.49), he had an injury shortened 2023 campaign, making eight appearances and seven starts. Despite this, Riedel still earned a Summit League Player of the Week award on March 13 after striking out a career-high 13 in six shutout innings vs. Stonehill. In conference play, he posted a 12-strikeout performance in 7.1 innings against Northern Colorado. Overall he totaled 54 strikeouts in 38.0 innings of work (12.8 K/9).

Hunt was a breakout star in his Mavericks debut last year, establishing himself as one of the top lead-off hitters in the league. He slashed .291/.390/.442 (.832) with three home runs, eight doubles, and a team-high four triples last season while driving in 14 runs and scoring 30. Hunt had 15 multi-hit games in 2023, as well as having nine games with multiple runs scored. He also swiped eight bags and did not commit a single error in 102 chances in the outfield.

2023 Season Highlights

The Dynamic Duo Goes Pro

The biggest story out of the 2023 season was the success seen on the left side of Omaha's infield courtesy of third baseman Mike Boeve and shortstop Devin Hurdle.

Boeve, arguably the greatest player in program history, became the highest draft pick in school history when he was chosen 54th overall in the 2nd Round by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 2023 MLB Draft. This followed an incredible 2023 campaign that saw him lead all Mavericks in AVG (.401), OBP (.512), OPS (1.075), runs scored (37), hits (67), doubles (15), and walks (32), all while striking out just nine times.

As for Hurdle, he was signed as a free agent by the Texas Rangers immediately after the draft and even appeared for their Double A squad prior to the end of the year. He hit .373/.425/.547 (.972 OPS) in 2023 and also recorded five home runs, nine doubles, 29 RBIs, and 25 runs.

Power 5 Success

The Mavericks had a solid year against Power 5 opponents in 2023, going 4-5 against them on the year following an 0-3 start. Their first win came on a late comeback against K-State on a frigid February night in which the scored four in the eight to erase the Wildcats' 6-3 lead.

Omaha followed this up with back-to-back wins against the Huskers in Lincoln, riding a late-game surge to a 10-6 victory in the first game, before winning the second game 6-5 in extras after Zach Lechnir drove in the game-winning run with a sac fly in the top of the 10th.

The Mavericks' final Power 5 win came at home against Penn State in May when they forced a seven-inning mercy rule after going up 16-3. Haiden Hunt and Zach Lechnir both drove in three runs, going a combined 4-for-7 with a home run each.

Omaha also saw great success against cross-town rival Creighton, taking the first meeting 4-1 thanks to a three-run homer from Noah Greise and 6.2 innings of one-run ball from starter Charlie Bell. Though Omaha lost the second game 2-4, the Mavericks held the Bluejays scoreless through the first six innings and only had one less hit at 7 to 8.

Against in-state opponents, Omaha owned the best overall record between them, Nebraska, and Creighton at 3-2.

Newcomers Getting It Done

Haiden Hunt and Zach Lechnir headlined Omaha's crop of new position players, with both finishing in the top five on the team in multiple offensive categories, including a third-place ranking in OBP for Hunt (.390) and a second-place finish in home runs for Lechnir (6).

Zach's twin brother Drew Lechnir also had a solid season at the plate slashing .267/.368/.356 with 22 runs scored. Matt Goetzmann, one of the team's top defenders, also had a massive second half on offense, recording 23 of his 28 hits and 16 of his 20 runs scored after April 1.

SEASON NOTESAthletes of the Week*March 11

Trent Burkhalter and Preston Tenney swept the Summit League Player of the Week awards on March 11, with Burkhalter winning the first of his career just four weeks into his Division I tenure, and Tenney winning the second of his career. Burkhalter batted .429 with seven RBIs and two home runs during the week, while Tenney fired five shutout innings on just 60 pitches to earn his first win in the series final at SIUE.

April 1

Caleb Riedel earned his second career Summit League Pitcher of the Week honor after firing seven shutout innings in a win over 2023 conference champion and CWS participant Oral Roberts on March 30. He only allowed three hits in the game while striking out eight on a good mix of fastballs and breaking pitches. In the process, Riedel lowered his season ERA to 3.89 and his career ERA to 3.11.

April 15

Tyler Bishop turned in one of the greatest performances in NCAA history vs. SDSU on Saturday, April 13, when he became the first Maverick to ever go 6-for-6 in a game, the first to score six runs in a game, and the first in the D1 era to have seven RBIs in a game. He also became the first Maverick to hit for the cycle in the D1 era and the first overall since 2008. In four games against Creighton and SDSU Bishop went 8-for-19 with eight runs scored, nine RBIs, and five XBHs. All told, of the 40 runs Omaha scored that week, 17 came from him.

Not only was Bishop named Summit League Peak Player of the Week, but was also named the Perfect Game National Player of the Week and the D1baseball.com Top Performer.

April 22

For the second time this season, Omaha swept the Summit League weekly awards as Drew Lechnir was named Peak Performer of the Week for the first time in his career and Caleb Riedel earned his second Peak Pitcher honor of the season. Lechnir went 7-for-13 with eight RBIs and three runs, including a career-high six RBIs in the series opener against Northern Colorado. As for Riedel, he fired seven no-hit innings with a season-high 11 strikeouts and only two baserunners allowed in Saturday's game. Riedel was also named the NCAA Pitcher of the Week.

April 29

For the third time this season and second week in a row, Omaha swept the Summit League weekly honors with Matt Goetzmann earning his first Peak Performer award and Luke Gainer getting his first Peak Pitcher award. Goetzmann extended his hitting streak to 11 straight games after hitting safely in all four games at K-State and North Dakota State. He went 8-for-14 (.571) with five RBIs and four runs scored, and also clubbed a home run and a triple at K-State. On the mound, Gainer threw four shutout innings across Saturday and Sunday against NDSU, earning his fourth save of the season in the former and going three scoreless in the pouring rain with four Ks in the latter. He allowed just one hit over the weekend while striking out six.

Athlete of the MonthApril

Matt Goetzmann was named the Summit League Peak Performer of the Month for all sports in April.

In 14 games he slashed he slashed .438/.549/.789 (1.338 OPS), recording eight multi-hit games and getting a hit in each of the last 11 games. He reached base safely in every single game and only had one hitless game the whole month. Goetzmann displayed excellent power during this span, notching 11 extra-base hits, including four home runs. In total, Omaha scored 106 runs in the month of April; Goetzmann personally drove in 14 runs and scored 19 runs, accounting for roughly a third of the team's scoring. Included in this were five multi-run games, including a season-high four at St. Thomas, and four multi-RBI games, including a season-high four at St. Thomas.

Goetzmann also went 7-for-9 on stolen base attempts and did not commit a single error in the field as he continued to make highlight reel plays every week.

SEASON NOTES

A New Supporting Staff

The Mavericks are sporting a new group of assistant coaches behind Head Coach Evan Porter this year. The first pickup was former Wayne State College head coach and Hall of Fame inductee John Manganaro. He returns to college athletics after a 14-year hiatus following a 17 years as head coach of Wayne State. During that time Manganaro compiled a 506-309-1 (.620) record, reaching the NCAA Division II Tournament seven times and being named NSIC Coach of the Year four times.

The next to join was former bullpen coach of the Lincoln Saltdogs Tyler Goodro. Serving primarily as the team's catching coach, Goodro has instructed, coached and scouted thousands of youth, high school and collegiate baseball players. He has also been instrumental in the tutelage of several Major League and professional catchers.

The final addition was former BYU pitcing coach and Chicago White Sox rehab pitching coach Michael Bradshaw. He spent four seasons with the Cougars before joining Chicago's staff in 2022, helping major league pitchers Liam Hendricks and Garrett Crochet on rehab assignments.

Welcome to the Century Club

Both Caleb Riedel and Charlie Bell reached 100 career strikeouts last season, with the former doing so in the fourth inning vs. NDSU on March 24, and the latter hitting the mark in the second inning vs. WIU on May 6. Riedel began the year with 119 strikeouts while Bell has 106.

In game two of Omaha's doubleheader vs. NDSU on March 16, Harrison Kreiling became the third current member of the Mavericks' pitching staff to reach 100 career strikeouts with his first strikeout of the game.

Shutting Down the Champs

During Omaha's first series this year with reigning Summit League champion and 2023 CWS participant Oral Roberts from march 28-30, the Mavericks took two of three from the Golden Eagles thanks to a lights-out performance from the pitching staff. Across three games, only four earned runs were allowed, all coming in game two. Charlie Bell and Joe Hackmann did not allow a run in the first game. In game two, all three relievers-Chris Byhre, Nick Scanlon, and Luke Gainer-combined for 6.1 scoreless. Finally, in game three, Caleb Riedel and Harrison Kreiling fired nine shutout innings to take the series. This marked the first time since 2016 that the Mavericks took a series from ORU at home.

Record After Record After Record...

In the highest scoring game in the history of Tal Anderson Field, Omaha beat SDSU 21-15 on April 13, setting or tying four team offensive records along with the four individual records set by Tyler Bishop that same game. In addition to the afformentioned stadium scoring record, the Mavericks' 24 hits and seven doubles are both tied for the team's highest total ever, while their 11 XBHs blew past the previous all-time record of nine.

Three Aces

From April 19-28 against Northern Colorado and North Dakota State, Omaha's three weekend starters Charlie Bell, Caleb Riedel, and Harrison Kreiling were firing on all cylinders. All three made two starts in this span and combined to go 4-0 with a 2.70 ERA and 37 strikeouts in 33.1 innings pitched. None of them allowed more than three runs in any start or struck out less than five batters.

A Veteran Lineup

Of the 37 members of the 2024 squad, 21 are seniors and another nine are juniors. This comes after a 2023 season that also saw the Mavericks boast 30 upperclassmen on the roster.

Young Additions

After not having a single freshman on the roster the last two years, the Mavericks have added seven this season: RHP Grant Wagner, Catcher Cardel Dick, INF/RHP Kaizer Papenhagen, INF Grant Sommers, RHP Ethan Louthan, RHP Drew Lenehan, and RHP Carter Navin.

Mining the Junior College Ranks

Out of 37 players on the current roster, 24 have previously played at the JUCO level. Of the team's 20 newcomers, 13 played at a junior college last season: Trent Burkhalter (Kirkwood CC), Cole Whitehill (Southeast CC), Brayden Curtis (Southeast CC), Tyler Palmer (Southeast CC), Matt Dreheer (Northeast CC), Nick Scanlon (Kirkwood CC), Jackson Trout (Northeastern Junior College), Tyler Bishop (Southeast CC), Gage Ingram (Northeast CC), Isaa Cychosz (Bryant & Stratton CC), Ethan Louthan (Iowa Western CC), Reed Scott (Hutchinson CC), Joe Hackman (Crowder College), and Chris Byhre (Madison College).

In addition to the seven freshman, only Zach Lechnir, Drew Lechnir, Brady LeJeune DeAcutis, Harrison Kreiling, Noah Greise, and Sid deMayo have not previously played at the JUCO level.

Porter vs. Power 5

Since taking the helm of the team in 2017, Head Coach Evan Porter has led the Mavericks to 21 wins over Power 5 opponents. Their first last year came in a 7-6 comeback over K-State on February 28, and their second came at Nebraska on March 14 in an instant classic that saw Omaha ride a late-game surge to a 10-6 victory. Omaha would win another game vs. the Huskers on April 11 in a 6-5 victory in extra innings, before routing Penn State 16-3 on May 10.

In 2022, Omaha racked up eight wins against these schools, stunning No. 21 UCLA 9-4 on February 23, before winning their first of two games against Nebraska that season a couple weeks later. Omaha then took two out of three from Rutgers in mid-March, followed by another two wins against Kansas, including a 9-0 shutout on May 3. The Mavericks then wrapped up their Power 5 slate with a 10-7 win at Minnesota on May 17.

One of the most decorated players in UNO history and UNO Hall of Fame Class of 2018 inductee, Evan Porter is in his seventh year as head coach of the Omaha baseball program in 2022. He previously spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Mavericks from 2013-16.

In just his third season at the helm, Porter led his team to the program's first NCAA Division I Baseball Regional berth after the Mavericks captured The Summit League Regular Season and Tournament championships. Porter was also named Summit League Coach of the Year and saw eight of his players earn All-Summit honors. His team finished 31-24-1 and more than doubled in wins from the previous season en route to an appearance in the Los Angeles Regional against No. 1 UCLA. The Mavericks also finished the 2019 with a .984 fielding percentage, which marked the nation's best. The team also saw Payton Kinney earn Summit League Pitcher of the Year, Tournament MVP and Rawlings/ABCA All-America Third Team honors.

In 2020, the Mavericks were limited to just 14 games, but saw a multitude of highlights. Despite a shortened season, Omaha recorded a 10-4 record, which marked the program's best start in the Division I era. The Mavericks sat atop the league standings and ended the season on a six-game winning streak.

The following year, Omaha played almost a full season, going 22-25 overall and securing the No. 3 seed in the Summit League Conference Tournament by going 14-12 in conference play. The team was bested, however, in the first round by the eventual champions from North Dakota State.

In 2022, the Mavericks continued to find success under Porter, reaching the Summit League postseason for the third time in a row after ending the regular season 12-12 in the conference. Fourth-seeded Omaha faced top-seeded North Dakota State twice in the tournament, first in the opening round and later in the elimination game, winning both contests and making it all the way to the finals.

Porter was four-year starter at shortstop from 2005-09 and a two-time All-American. He was also a three-time all-region selection from 2007-09, earning awards from Daktronics and Rawlings/ABCA. Additionally, Porter was a two-time All-NCC pick (2007-08) and was first-team All-MIAA in 2009.

Porter's name runs through the Omaha record books, as he remains the program's all-time leader in games played (239), at-bats (869), hits (323), doubles (75), home runs (43), runs batted in (249) and total bases (527). His 97 hits recorded as a senior were a UNO single-season record that still stands, and his 23 doubles and 76 RBI in his junior year both rank second on the single-season charts.

A member of the UNO squad that earned a berth to the 2007 NCAA Division II College World Series, Porter was part of two Maverick teams (2006, 2008) that set a school record with 45 wins. During his time, UNO made four straight NCAA regional appearances and won the 2008 NCC championship.

Following his senior campaign, Porter was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 23rd round. He has played professionally overseas for the Solingen Alligators in Germany (2010), Gothenburg Sharks in Sweden (2011), Victoria Park Reds in Australia (2011-12), ADO AamigoO Lakers in Holland (2012) and Sölvesborg Firehawks in Sweden (2014, 2016).

A native of Omaha and a product of Millard North High School, Porter graduated from UNO with his bachelor's degree in business marketing in 2009 and his master's of business administration in 2016.
