DETROIT (AP) — Kaleb Eleby threw two touchdowns and ran for another and Western Michigan recorded its second bowl victory in program history, rolling past Nevada 52-24 in the Quick Lane Bowl on Monday.

Sean Tyler rushed for 146 yards on 14 carries and returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown for Western Michigan (8-5). Jaxson Kincaide, a Nevada transfer, rushed for 105 yards on 17 carries and scored two touchdowns.

The Broncos' only other bowl victory came in the 2015 Bahamas Bowl against Middle Tennessee.

Nate Cox passed for 121 yards and a touchdown and Devonte Lee rushed for 85 yards and a touchdown for Nevada (8-5).

Western Michigan, which had 352 rushing yards, led 31-10 at halftime.

Tyler's 100-yard return followed Brandon Talton's 32-yard field goal. Midway through the first quarter, Eleby connected with Corey Crooms on a 74-yard scoring pass.

The Broncos' other first-half touchdowns came on Eleby's 20-yard pass to Brett Borske and Kincaide's 7-yard run.

THE TAKEAWAY

A majority of Nevada's offensive starters during the regular season opted out of the bowl game to prepare for the NFL draft or transfer. The retooled unit had no chance to keep pace with the Broncos, who scored on two big plays in the opening quarter and then established a steady rushing attack.

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Carson Strong threw for 271 yards and five touchdowns, Devonte Lee and Toa Taua each rushed for over 100 yards, and Nevada beat Tulane 38-27 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Tuesday.

Nevada (7-2) finished 2020 the same way it started the year — by playing in the same bowl game, which the Wolf Pack lost 30-21 to Ohio on Jan. 3.

This year's Potato Bowl allowed Nevada to end with a win after losing its regular-season finale to San Jose State, which cost the Wolf Pack a spot in the Mountain West title game.

Cameron Carroll rushed for 120 yards and a touchdown for Tulane (6-6), which was one of 19 schools to play 11 regular-season games amid the coronavirus pandemic. The Green Wave failed in their bid to win three consecutive bowl games for the first time in program history.

Nevada built a 19-0 lead early in the second quarter, but the Green Wave rallied, pulling within 26-20 midway through the third quarter.

Then Nevada's dominant ground game took over, imposing its will on a Tulane defensive line thinned by injuries and absences.

Lee rushed for 105 yards and Toa had 102 yards rushing with a touchdown to go along with 77 yards receiving.

Coach Jay Norvell has Nevada headed in the right direction, and Strong will be back next year along with leading rushers Lee and Toa. Nevada will need to find some answers on a defense that will be hit hard with graduation.

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Nathan Rourke accounted for 241 yards of offense and ran for a touchdown to help Ohio beat Nevada 30-21 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

The Wolf Pack also were missing three key defensive starters, suspended for their participation in a fight in a loss to rival UNLV in the regular-season finale.

Ohio raced to a 20-9 lead and scored the first 10 points of the third quarter before holding off Nevada's late rally.

The Bobcats lost leading rusher O'Shaan Allison late in the first quarter with an undisclosed injury. De'Montre Tuggle took over, rushing for 97 yards and a touchdown to spark a ground attack that finished with 285 yards on 50 carries spread among five players.

Rourke, who is projected to be a high first-round draft pick in the Canadian Football League, tied Kareem Wilson's school record for career rushing touchdowns of 49. Wilson played from 1995-98.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Reagan Roberson bulldozed through one tackler and dove into the end zone on an 11-yard catch-and-run in overtime, lifting Nevada over Arkansas State 16-13 in the Arizona Bowl on Saturday.

Nevada (8-5) labored against Arkansas State's defensive front all game before coming to life late, going up 10-7 on Devonte Lee's 1-yard touchdown run with 1:06 left.

Arkansas State (8-5) racked up 499 yards, but was 1 for 5 in the red zone with two turnovers before marching quickly down the field at the end of regulation. Blake Grupe, who had one field goal blocked and badly missed on another, drilled a 32-yarder to tie it on the final play.

Grupe opened overtime with a 24-yard field goal, but Roberson bulled his way into the end zone to send the Wolf Pack rushing onto the field.

Nevada's Ty Gangi had 200 yards and a touchdown on 18-of-34 passing with two interceptions.

Arkansas State's Justice Hansen threw for 275 yards, but also had three interceptions — two in the end zone — after throwing six during the regular season. Warren Wand ran for 140 yards for the Red Wolves.

Nevada and Arkansas State came to the desert known for their prolific quarterbacks and high-scoring ways. Neither showed up in a stuck-in-the-mud first half.

Both quarterbacks airmailed receivers multiple times, including one by Hansen that was intercepted at the Wolf Pack 20.

Gangi opened 1 for 6 and hit a few passes after that, setting up Ramiz Ahmed's 36-yard field goal. Nevada had 72 total yards at halftime, yet only trailed 7-3.

Hansen was a bit more effective despite the pick, setting up the Red Wolves for three scoring chances. They converted one: Marcel Murray's 2-yard TD run.

The earlier field goal fiascos seemed to have an impact on play calling the opening drive the second half. Instead of attempting a field at fourth-and-goal from the 4, the Red Wolves tried a trick play. The Wolf Pack sniffed it out and stuffed offensive lineman Lanard Bonner after he caught a back pass from Hansen.

Arkansas State again had the ball inside Nevada's 10 the next series after an interception, but the Wolf Pack intercepted a tipped pass in the end zone.

Next two series, same thing: Arkansas State interception, Nevada interception in the end zone.

2015 NOVA HOME LOANS ARIZONA BOWL

NEVADA		28
COLORADO STATE		23

DECEMBER 29, 2015 || ARIZONA STADIUM || TUCSON, ARIZ. || ATTENDANCE: 20,425

TUCSON, Ariz. — Sophomore James Butler scored the game-winning touchdown with just 66 seconds remaining and Nevada won the inaugural NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl with a 28-23 victory over Colorado State on Tuesday evening at Arizona Stadium.

The Wolf Pack led for the majority of the game before Colorado State connected on a 39-yard field goal to lead by one with just over three minutes remaining. Nevada then drove 72 yards in just eight plays to tally the go-ahead score before holding on late for a thrilling victory.

Butler rushed 24 times for 189 yards and two touchdowns, being named Arizona Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player while setting a program bowl record in total rushing yards. Senior DE Ian Seau posted five tackles, three tackles for loss, one sack and one forced fumble to be named Arizona Bowl Defensive Most Valuable Player.

Nevada tallies its fifth bowl victory in program history and its first since the 2010 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. The Pack closes the season with a 7-6 overall record, marking the sixth winning campaign in the past seven seasons. Colorado State also closed the year with a 7-6 record.

The Wolf Pack scored the bowl game's first points after Seau tallied his fifth forced fumble of the season, leading to a 19-yard Zuzo field goal. Nevada then took a 6-0 lead early in the second quarter on a Zuzo's 39-yard field goal.

The rest of the first half consisted of fireworks as the teams combined to score on their last five possessions of the second quarter. A 39-yard pass down to the one-yard line set up a touchdown rush as Colorado State took the lead, 7-6. On the second play of Nevada's ensuing drive, the line opened a big hole for Butler, who sprinted 77 yards to the end zone to make it 13-7 with 6:38 to play.

The Rams pulled within three points with a 20-yard field goal on their next drive. Junior CB Elijah Mitchell then brought the crowd to their feet with an electric 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, making it 19-10 with 1:33 left in the quarter. Colorado State drove down for a late field to make it 19-13 at halftime.

Nevada drove 12 plays and 53 yards in its opening drive of the second half before Zuzo drilled a 40-yard field goal. Colorado State then pulled within two points, as Jasen Oden scored a nine-yard touchdown rush to make it 22-20 with 3:55 left in the third. The Rams then took the lead late in the fourth quarter with a 38-yard field goal, pulling in front by a 23-22 margin with just 3:40 left to play.

With the game on the line and all the chips on the table, Nevada came up clutch with a historic scoring drive. Eight plays, 73 yards in just under two-and-a-half minutes. Butler opened with a 15-yard rush before Stewart added a 14-yard rush on the next play to enter Ram territory. After a one-yard rush, Stewart hit Hasaan Henderson for a 22-yard gain and Butler added another 13-yard rush, and just like that, Nevada was down to the seven-yard line.

After a no-yard gain and three-yard rush followed by Colorado State timeouts, Butler rushed up the middle and found pay dirt for the winning score -- a four-yard rush with 66 seconds remaining to make it 28-23.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Nevada Wolf Pack will have to wonder how the New Orleans Bowl might have been different if not for some untimely mistakes deep in Louisiana-Lafayette territory.

Nevada failed to reach the end zone for the first time in six seasons and lost 16-3 on Saturday, Dec. 20. Freshman receiver Wyatt Demps fumbled just inside the Ragin' Cajuns 10-yard line and later was called for a false start on first-and-goal at the 1.

Nevada's defense gave up only one touchdown while forcing four field goal attempts - one of which was missed - but otherwise had a hard time preventing Cajuns quarterback Terrence Broadway from completing passes. ULL had a sizable advantage in yardage (411-213) and time of possession (36:54 to 23:06). Broadway became the first quarterback to complete his first 14 passes in an NCAA Division I bowl game and finished 26 of 31 for 227 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions.

Hunter Stover made a career-long 46-yard field goal in the first half and added kicks of 35 and 30 yards for the Ragin' Cajuns (9-4), who completed their fourth consecutive nine-victory season with their fourth straight New Orleans Bowl win.

Cody Fajardo passed for 124 yards and rushed for 49 more for Nevada (7-6), marking the second time he'd passed for more than 2,000 yards and rushed for more than 1,000 in a season.

But the Wolf Pack, who had 200 or more yards rushing in each of their previous five games, gained only 89 yards on the ground against ULL and failed to score a touchdown for the first time since being shut out at Notre Dame in 2009.
Demps' fumble came early in the second quarter on a hit by Sean Thomas, and the ball was recovered by Cajuns linebacker Dominique Tovell at the 11.

Demps' false start later in the quarter moved Nevada back to the ULL 6. Then the Cajuns stuffed a running play and forced two incompletions before Nevada settled for a field goal.

Fajardo was 14 of 29, and his incompletions included a pair of key fourth-down passes in the fourth quarter. Both quarterbacks were sacked four times.

Broadway's fast start helped keep Fajardo on the sideline but didn't amount to many points.

The Cajuns scored their only touchdown on their opening possession, capped by Broadway's 17-yard pass to C.J. Bates. Stover's first field goal was the only other ULL score in the opening half.

Broadway's first incompletion didn't come until 44 seconds remained in the first half, when the Cajuns were on the edge of field goal range. But Brock Hekking's sack of Broadway took ULL out of range, and Broadway's second incompletion came next as he threw for the end zone as time expired.

Broadway was picked as the game's most valuable player.

2012 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL

NEVADA	NEVADA	48
ARIZONA	ARIZONA	49

DECEMBER 15, 2012 || BRANCH FIELD || ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. || ATTENDANCE: 24,610

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Matt Scott threw two short touchdown passes in the final 46 seconds and college football's postseason started with a wild one when Arizona rallied past Nevada 49-48 Saturday in the New Mexico Bowl.

Overcoming a slow start and three big turnovers, Arizona (8-5) recovered an onside kick in the last minute, setting up Scott's 2-yard toss to Tyler Slavin with 19 seconds left for the winning score.

Arizona trailed 21-0 in the first quarter and was down 45-28 entering the final period. Scott threw for 382 yards and marched his team back into the game despite two earlier interceptions.

The nation's rushing leader, Ka'Deem Carey, gained 172 yards for the Wildcats and but fell short of becoming only the 16th running back in NCAA history to reach 2,000 yards in a season.

The teams combined for 1,237 total yards, the second most of any bowl game in history at the time.

Cody Fajardo threw for three touchdowns and ran for another score to lead the Wolf Pack (7-6). He had 256 yards passing and 140 yards rushing and controlled most of the game, completing 22 of 32 throws.

Stefphon Jefferson, the nation's second-leading rusher, ran for 180 yards for Nevada and also seemed unstoppable as the Wolf Pack took a big lead and held on to it for most of the game.

But after forcing Nevada to kick a field goal with 1:48 left that made it 48-35, Scott drove the Wildcats 75 yards. Arizona then recovered an onside kick and Scott moved Arizona into the end zone after three plays and 51 yards.

Rich Rodriguez, in his first season as Arizona head coach, is now 3-5 in bowl game appearances.

With 180 yards on 34 carries, Jefferson set the Nevada and Mountain West record for most rushing yards in a single season. He passed Chance Kretschmer (2001) at Nevada and Ronnie Hillman (SDSU, 2011) for the Mountain West mark. Jefferson finished the year with 1,883 yards on the ground and will likely finish second in the nation behind Ka'Deem Carey of Arizona.

HONOLULU (AP) - Austin Davis made the plays when it counted to send Southern Mississippi coach Larry Fedora out a winner. Davis threw two touchdowns, including a 4-yarder late in the game, and No. 22 Southern Miss earned a school-record 12th victory by holding off Nevada 24-17 in the Hawaii Bowl.

Davis was off most of the night but made it count on the game-winning drive. On third-and-goal, he scrambled right and found Kelvin Bolden for the 4-yard score, capping a seven-play, 68-yard drive. He had just 59 yard passing at halftime and finished 18 of 41 for 165 yards.

On the winning drive, Davis was 3 of 4 for 66 yards, including a 43-yard completion to Dominique Sullivan down the right sideline and a 19-yarder to a crossing William Spight. Sullivan had five catches for 75 yards.

With Davis held in check, the Golden Eagles relied on their defense, stopping Mark on fourth-and-1 at midfield with 3:56 left. Mark had 183 yards rushing for the Wolf Pack (7-6) but was held to just 21 yards in the second half.

Nevada was without its top receiver, Rishard Matthews, who has 91 receptions for 1,364 yards and eight TDs.

The game featured a Hawaii Bowl-record 17 punt, and the 41 combined points was the fewest in bowl history.

Cody Fajardo was 8 of 19 for 60 yards for Nevada. He also was held to just 14 yards rushing on nine carries before being replaced by Tyler Lantrip.

The Golden Eagles got another big win after capturing their fifth C-USA title by upsetting previously unbeaten Houston 49-28 in the conference championship game. This was the first 10-win season for Southern Miss since 1988.

Nevada tied the game 17-all late in the third quarter on a 37-yard field goal by Allen Hardison, taking advantage of a miscue by Southern Miss. Tracey Lampley Fedora said. waved for a fair catch on a punt and was run into by teammate Alex Smith. The ball bounced off Lampley's left leg and Nevada's Brandon Marshall recovered on the Southern Miss 14, leading to the field goal.

Just as Nevada seemed to take control of the game, Southern Miss scored 10 points in the final 1 1/2 minutes of the first half to take a 17-14 lead into the break.
Mark's 45-yard run gave the Wolf Pack a 14-7 lead with about 5 minutes left in the half, and Nevada took the ball right back on the ensuing kickoff.

Lorenzo Devers returned the kickoff 61 yards and appeared to be heading for a touchdown. After shedding the kicker, Devers was stripped from behind by Khalid Wooten and Thaddeus Brown returned it 16 yards to the Nevada 36.

But the team from Reno gambled and ended up turning it over on downs on its own 45 when Mark was stopped short on fourth-and-1. That led to a 48-yard field goal by Hrappman with 1:21 left in the half.

On the kickoff, Wooten fumbled and Southern Mississippi's Emmanuel Johnson recovered at the Nevada 24. Seven plays later, Davis threw a 2-yard pass to Lampley in the back of the end zone for the go-ahead score. A brief scuffle broke out between some of the players after the catch, but no one was ejected.

With both teams struggling to get going, special teams got the Golden Eagles on the scoreboard from a blocked punt by Tim Green early in the second quarter.

Green burst through the middle and leaped in the air, getting his hand on the ball as he flipped over a blocker. Tray Becton-Martin then dropped on the ball in the end zone, giving the Golden Eagles a 7-0 lead. Becton-Martin is the 25th different player to score for the Golden Eagles this year, which leads the nation.

Nevada answered with a 5-yard touchdown run by Mark, who had a 25-yard scamper to begin the 81-yard drive. Mark had 41 yards rushing on the drive, giving him 112 yards and his sixth-straight game with 100 or more.

Mark burst up the middle for 43 yards and was chased down from behind by Presley, getting Nevada inside the red zone. But Fajardo's pass on third down was tipped and intercepted in the end zone by Jacorius Cotton.

2011 KRAFT FIGHT HUNGER BOWL

NEVADA	20
BOSTON COLLEGE	13

JANUARY 9, 2011 || AT&T PARK || SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. || ATTENDANCE: 41,063

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used a strong defensive effort to cap its most successful season ever at college football's highest level by beating Boston College 20-13 in the Fight Hunger Bowl on Sunday night.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolf Pack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

This game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The Eagles (7-6) did a good job controlling the Wolf Pack on the ground, holding them to a season-low 114 yards - more than 190 below their season average.

Kaepernick was held to 22 yards on nine carries, but managed to top 3,000 yards passing for the season. That allowed him to join Brad Smith and Vince Young as the only FBS quarterbacks to rush for at least 1,000 yards and throw for 3,000 in the same season.

With an efficient passing day by Kaepernick, the big plays from Matthews and a stout defense, the Wolf Pack were able to snap Boston College's five-game winning streak. The Eagles were held to 185 yards.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14 of 34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who was listed as the starter but did not play after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery in late November.

The teams traded field goals in the third quarter, giving Nevada a 20-10 lead heading into the fourth. Boston College was unable to capitalize on an interception that Luke Kuechly returned to the Wolf Pack 6. But two runs netted just a yard and Rettig threw an incompletion on third down, forcing the kick.

After Nevada's field goal late in the third, Rettig's was intercepted by Marlon Johnson on a deflected ball that gave Nevada the ball at the BC 41. Vai Taua fumbled the ball right back but once again the Eagles were unable to take advantage.

Helped by a pair of pass interference penalties, BC got a 32-yard field goal from Nate Freese with 3:52 to play to make it 20-13. The Eagles got the ball back at their 10 with 3:06 to go and got a 32-yard pass from Rettig to Chris Pantale on their first play.

Two plays later Khalid Wooten intercepted a pass to seal the win and send the thousands of Nevada fans who drove a few hours from Reno home happy.

The Wolf Pack sold about 15,500 tickets, surpassing California and Navy for the most sold in the nine-year history of this game. The attendance of 41,063 was the second largest for the bowl. It included one streaker, who ran on the field in the fourth quarter, causing a brief delay.

After an early fumble by Kaepernick led to a 30-yard touchdown run by Andre Williams, Matthews provided the Nevada fans plenty to cheer about in the first half.

First, Matthews got behind the defense as Kaepernick scrambled to his left. Kaepernick then flicked a pass toward the end zone for an easy 27-yard score that tied the game for Nevada.

The Wolf Pack then held the Eagles to a three-and-out on the next possession and Matthews returned the punt 72 yards to make it 14-7. That was Nevada's first punt return for a score since Oct. 13, 2001. Nevada added a late 32-yard field goal by Anthony Martinez to take a 10-point lead at the half.

The game was sponsored by Kraft, which is using the bowl to promote its efforts to fight hunger in the United States. Instead of a coin for the opening toss, officials tossed an Oreo cookie that was chocolate on one side and vanilla on the other.

NEVADA	7

University of Villanova's highly spirited and unbelievably rugged Main Liners defeated the Nevada Wolf Pack 27-7 in the Harbor Bowl game in San Diego, Calif., before 20,000 fans.

It was a brutally battled ball game, with the Easterners' rough rock'-em-sock'-em tactics emerging victorious over the air-minded Nevada team.

Serious injuries to Nevada's All-American quarterback Stan Heath, and fullback Sherman Howard in the first half considerably hindered Nevada's chances of winning.

Tommy Kalmanir's 61-yard run was one of the features of the day as the swift halfback sped through the entire Villanova team for Nevada's lone touchdown.

A second period fumble on the Villanova goal line was extremely demoralizing to the Nevadan's.

Trailing the entire game, the Wolf Pack had their chance to advance to the semifinals, but missed that chance when a last second field goal, which would have given the team a one-point victory, sailed wide to the left on the final play of the game. Youngstown State left Reno with a 30-28 win, and the Penguins took advantage of that momentum, eventually winning the national championship in Statesboro, GA two weeks later.

Making only his second collegiate start, Chris Vargas threw for 340 yards and three touchdowns and drove the Wolf Pack into position for the final goal attempt. Bryan Reeves caught 11 passes for 174 yards and a TD.

The Wolf Pack, in their first game of their quest to return to Georgia for another chance at the elusive Division IAA national championship, took on ground-oriented Cowboys of McNeese State in the tournament's first round.

McNeese State's patient ground attack, which accounted for little yardage through two and a half quarters, came alive on two long, grinding drives of 97 and 96 yards in two successive possessions as the Cowboys cut a 22-3 Nevada lead to a precarious 22-16.

McNeese got the ball back twice more, but because time was running out, abandoned the ground game and were stopped by the Pack.

Coming from behind on a risky 95-yard surprise pass play, the University of Nevada won its first post-season bowl appearance under first-year head coach Joe Sheetketski.

The Wolf Pack downed a fired up North Texas State collegians 13-6 in a viciously played battle at Phoenix, Arizona, before 12,000 fans.

With Nevada on their own five-yard line and trailing 6-0, quarterback Stan Heath faded back and whipped a 50-yard pass to speedster Tommy Kalmanir, who caught it without breaking his stride and romped the remaining distance to the goal-line. Bob Corley converted and later husky Ernie Zeno plowed through for the final score.

Again, as in other games, the violent tackles of guard Ken Sinofsky were paralyzing.

Georgia Southern won its fourth IAA National Championship with a solid 36-13 win over the Wolf Pack, a team making its first National Championship appearance after having reached the semifinals five times before.

Trailing 14-6 at the half, Nevada drove during their first possession in the third quarter 79 yards to the Eagle one-yard line in a crucial series that could have tied the game. Nevada attempted a short field goal, but it was missed.

After an exchange of fumbles, the Eagles drove 70 yards and scored. It was a touchdown that sealed the Georgia Southern victory in front of 23,000 delirious Eagle fans and a nationwide CBS-TV audience.
