2024 NEVADA WOLF PACK FOOTBALL

HEAD COACH JEFF CHOATE

Jeff Choate was named the 28th head coach of the Nevada football program Dec. 4, 2023.

Choate comes to Nevada from Texas, where he served as the Longhorns' co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. Under Choate's tutelage, the Longhorn defense topped the Big XII in rushing defense (82.4 ypg, third in the country), scoring defense (18.9 points per game, 15th in the country), third-down conversion percentage defense (26.6 percent, second in the country), and total defense (336.7 yards per game), while ranking in the national top 10 in red-zone defense (73.8 percent, seventh), as the Longhorns racked up a 12-2 record, Big XII title, and a spot in the College Football Playoff.

Prior to his time in Austin, Choate served four seasons (2016-19) as head coach at Montana State. There, he led the Bobcats to a combined 19-9 record over his final two seasons, making consecutive appearances in the FCS playoffs with a run to the semifinals in 2019.

Since starting as a graduate assistant at Utah State in 2002, Choate's stops have included championship and top-10 programs as Boise State (2006-11), Montana State (2016-20), and Texas. The Longhorns will face No. 2 Washington, where Choate spent two seasons (2014-15) as an assistant under Chris Petersen, in the 2024 Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day, and his resume includes two Fiesta Bowl titles (Boise State, 2007 and 2010).

At Texas, Choate helped guide Jaylan Ford to one of the finest years for a linebacker in program history in 2022. Ford earned All-American honors and All-Big 12 Conference accolades after totaling a career-high 119 tackles (61 solo), 10 tackles for loss, two sacks, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and four interceptions. The 119 tackles were the most for a Longhorn since 2014 and his four interceptions tied the single-season record for a Texas linebacker, last accomplished by Derrick Johnson in 2002 and 2003.

Over his four seasons at the Montana State helm, the Bobcats improved dramatically in many statistical categories. By his final season (2019), Montana State ranked in the FCS top 25 in rushing offense (8th/258.1 ypg), turnover margin (13th/+0.87 tpg), rushing defense (18th/121.2 ypg), scoring defense (23rd/22.1 ppg), and total offense (25th/426.5 ypg), along with sacks allowed (7th/0.93 spg), sacks (20th/2.73 spg), tackles for loss allowed (11th/4.67 tpg) and net punting (14th/39.17 ypp). Two Bobcats earned second-team FCS All-America honors, including OL Mitch Brott and DL Bryce Sterk. Along with those two, a total of 13 Montana State players received All-Big Sky Conference recognition, including first-team linebackers Troy Andersen and Josh Hill and third-team linebacker Amandre Williams. Montana State finished the season 11-4, winning six of its last seven games with the only loss coming to No. 1 North Dakota State in the playoff semifinals. The 11 wins are the second-highest single-season total in program history and included a fourth-straight win over Montana for the first time since 1977.

In 2016 and 2017, Choate began the building process at Montana State. The Bobcats had back-to-back Big Sky Freshman of the Year honorees those seasons with Andersen, playing both quarterback and linebacker, garnering it in 2017, and QB Chris Murray doing so in 2016, along with Freshman All-America recognition. One of Andersen's fellow linebackers, Mac Bignell was tabbed first-team all-conference in 2017. The Bobcats led the Big Sky and ranked seventh nationally in rushing offense at 249.5 yards per game that year, all while facing a program-record seven nationally ranked opponents. The rushing attack was also strong the year before, as they ranked 17th in the nation at 212.0 yards per game behind a line anchored by first-team all-conference OG J.P. Flynn.

From 2006-2011, Choate was an assistant at Boise State in several roles. He served as special teams coordinator all six years and also spent time coaching running backs (2006-08), linebackers (2009) and nickel backs (2010-11). During that time, the Broncos posted a 73-6 overall record, winning four Western Athletic Conference Championships and two Fiesta Bowl Championships and finishing ranked in the top 11 five times (2006, '08-11), including two in the top five (2006, 2009).

Among his protégés was Kyle Brotzman, the highest-scoring kicker in school and conference history (439 points) and Boise State's career leader in punting (44.6 ypp). He also coached Kyle Wilson, who led the country in punt return touchdowns (3) and ranked 12th in punt return average (14.2 ypr) in 2008. Coaching nickelbacks, Choate tutored All-WAC first team selection Winston Venable in 2010. The Broncos ranked second nationally in scoring defense (12.8 ppg) and total defense (254.7 ypg) that season.

Working with the linebackers in 2009, the Broncos were 14th nationally in total defense (300.2 ypg) and scoring defense (17.1 ppg). The team led the WAC in six defensive statistical categories that year, including passing efficiency defense, total defense, scoring defense, pass defense, tackles for loss and sacks. The team completed its season 14-0 with its second Fiesta Bowl win by defeating TCU.

As running backs coach, he was instrumental in the development of Ian Johnson, who at the time set a WAC record with 58 rushing touchdowns, which is still the second-best mark following 59 by Colin Kaepernick. Johnson amassed 4,183 yards in a Bronco uniform, second all-time in school history. He led the nation in rushing touchdowns (25) and scoring (152 points) in 2006. That year, the Broncos finished 13-0 including a win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl.

Choate earned his bachelor's degree from Montana Western in 1993, where he played linebacker. He and his wife, Janet, have one son, Jory, and a daughter, Jacy.

SERIES HISTORY

Boise State leads the all-time series with the Wolf Pack by a 31-14 margin, although the Wolf Pack captured the last meeting on The Blue. Back on Oct. 2, 2021, Nevada beat the Broncos, 41-31.

Saturday, Nevada will go for its third-straight win at Albertsons Stadium, as prior to the 2021 meeting, the Wolf Pack beat Tulane, 38-27, in the 2020 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

ABOUT BOISE STATE

Boise State enters the weekend on a six-game winning streak after suffering its only loss of the season in Week 2 at Oregon. The Broncos have steadily climbed the national polls since, coming in at No. 12 (AP) and No. 14 (USA TODAY Coaches Poll) Sunday.

Running back Ashton Jeanty leads the country in rushing yards (1,525), rushing touchdowns (20), and rushing yards per game (190.6), as the Bronco offense churns out a national-best 267.9 yards per game. The Broncos also boast the nation's third-best scoring offense, averaging 45.8 points per game.

THE LAUNCH

The Launch of Nevada Football began Dec. 4, 2023, when Jeff Choate was named the 28th head coach in program history.

Choate brings a championship resume to Reno which boasts deep postseason runs (FCS semifinal with Montana State in 2019, College Football Playoff semifinal with Texas in 2023), top-10 programs, and Fiesta Bowl victories in 2006 and 2011.

His first head-coaching tenure came at Montana State from 2016-20, over which he guided the Bobcats to a 19-9 record over his final two seasons, culminating with an 11-4 record and a run to the FCS semifinals in 2019.

Most recently, Choate spent the past three seasons (2021-23) at Texas, serving as the Longhorns' co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. Under Choate's tutelage, the Longhorn defense topped the Big XII in rushing defense (82.4 ypg, third in the country), scoring defense (18.9 points per game, 15th in the country), third-down conversion percentage defense (26.6 percent, second in the country), and total defense (336.7 yards per game), while ranking in the national top 10 in red-zone defense (73.8 percent, seventh), as the Longhorns racked up a 12-2 record, Big XII title, and a spot in the College Football Playoff.

THE STAFF TO FUEL THE LAUNCH

Head coach Jeff Choate wasted little time tapping his vast network to fill out the Wolf Pack's new coaching staff. Heading into 2024, the Wolf Pack boasts a coaching staff brimming with the championship mentality and pedigree that will fuel the program's Launch.

Three members of Choate's Nevada staff followed the Wolf Pack boss from Texas. Associate Head Coach/Interior Defensive Line Payam Saadat spent 2023 as Special Assistant to Head Coach Steve Sarkisian, Passing Game Coordinator/Secondary coach Joey Thomas, a former Montana State All-American and seven-year NFL veteran, was a senior defensive analyst for the Longhorns, and Defensive Ends coach Nico Johnson, a three-time national champion at Alabama, was a Longhorns graduate assistant from 2022-23.

Offensive coordinator Matt Lubick, recognized among the nation's most prolific coordinators and top recruiters begins his first season at Nevada in 2024. Defensive coordinator Kane loane, a four-time All-American at Montana State and the architect of Boise State's 2023 Mountain West Champion defense, reunites in Reno with Choate, under whom he served as Montana State's defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2019.

Running backs coach Mike Lynch, most recently of Syracuse, served with Choate on the staffs at Utah State (2002-04) and Eastern Illinois (2005). Run Game Coordinator and Offensive Line coach Brian Armstrong spent Choate's entire Montana State tenure (2016-19) on the Bobcat staff, while Wide Receivers and Quarterbacks coach David Gilbertson and Special Teams coordinator and linebackers coach Parker Henry were each on the 2012 Washington State team for which Choate served as linebackers coach.

James Price, familiar with the Mountain West as a standout wide receiver at Wyoming from 2015-18, and now Nevada's interim wide receivers coach, was Montana State's Director of Player Personnel in 2023.

Finally, Wolf Pack legend Virgil Green remains on staff, overseeing his old position, tight ends. Green, a 10-year NFL veteran and Super Bowl 50 Champion, was part of Nevada's 2010 WAC Champion squad, and made 72 receptions for 939 yards and 11 touchdowns over his Wolf Pack career (2008-10).

PLENTY OF HISTORY BETWEEN THE TWO

The rivalry between Nevada and Boise State encompasses 53 years (the first meeting was in 1971) and four conferences (Big Sky, Big West, WAC, Mountain West). With Saturday's meeting being the 46th all-time between the schools, it is a little-known fact that this series is the most played in Boise State's history, and the second-most in Nevada history (Nevada has played Fresno State 56 times).

The most famous meeting of the teams came Nov. 26, 2010, in Reno, when No. 19 Nevada overcame a 17-point halftime deficit to beat No. 3 Boise State, 34-31, in overtime. That game featured an incredible 27 future NFL players (14 for Nevada, 13 for Boise State).

CHOATE RETURNS TO THE BLUE

Nevada head coach Jeff Choate served on Chris Petersen's Boise State staff from 2006-11, overseeing the Bronco special teams the whole tenure along with coaching running backs (2006-08), linebackers (2009) and nickelbacks (2010-11). During that time, the Broncos posted a 73-6 overall record, winning four WAC titles and two Fiesta Bowl Championships (2007, 2010), and finishing ranked in the top 11 five times (2006, '08-11), including two in the top five (2006, 2009).

Choate was responsible for the recruitment of a number of the future NFL players on the Bronco roster in that 2010 game, including future NFL All-Pro running back Doug Martin.

CREATOR OF THE DAN PAUL HAMMER

Another of Choate's lasting contributions to Boise State Football was creation of the team's primary badge of honor: the Dan Paul Hammer. Named in 2019 after former Bronco fullback and special teamer Dan Paul, who played from 2008-12 and tragically passed away of unknown causes during the summer of 2019, the weekly team honor traditionally goes to the player who made the biggest hit on special teams in the previous game.

Choate, as Special Teams Coordinator, started the award in 2006--picking up a sledgehammer from a local Home Depot. "The Hammer," as it was known before being named for Paul, remains a highly-coveted honor within the program, as stickers bearing the uniform numbers of the season's previous bearers adorn the handle, and the current honoree leads the Broncos onto the field pregame.

NO LETUP IN THE SCHEDULE

Nevada's 2024 schedule has set up as one of the nation's toughest. Notably, the Wolf Pack has the rare distinction of playing three 2023 FBS conference champions in 2024, with the first two coming back-to-back to start the campaign:

- Aug. 24 - vs. SMU (2023 American champion) - L, 29-24
- Aug. 31 - at Troy (2023 Sun Belt champion) - W, 28-26
- Nov. 9 - at Boise State (2023 Mountain West champion)

Oregon (Michigan, Washington, Boise State) is the only other FBS school to play three 2023 FBS conference champions in 2024.

BATTLE OF TWO OF THE MW'S TOP QBs

Saturday's meeting between Nevada and Boise State will feature two of the Mountain West's most efficient quarterbacks in Brendon Lewis and Maddux Madsen. Heading into Saturday's contest, Madsen is second in the conference with a 153.9 efficiency rating while Lewis is third at 140.6.

Overall, the QBs have combined for 28 passing touchdowns (17 for Madsen, 11 for Lewis), while Lewis, with 660 rushing yards, is a total offense machine at 244.7 yards per game.

LEWIS AMONG THE MOUNTAIN WEST'S TOP QBs

Quarterback Brendon Lewis continues to rank among the top Mountain West quarterbacks after another quality, dual-threat effort against Colorado State. Against the Rams, Lewis posted his second 100-yard rushing game of the season, finishing with 109 yards and two touchdowns on 14 carries, extending his streak to four games with a rushing score.

One of the top dual-threat quarterbacks in the conference, Lewis once again accounted for at least one touchdown with both his arm and legs Saturday, running for two scores and throwing for 252 yards and another touchdown.

On the year, Lewis has had a hand in just over half of the Wolf Pack's 34 touchdowns (11 passing, seven rushing), while completing 67.8 percent of his passes for 1,542 yards with 660 rushing yards.

Among Mountain West quarterbacks, Lewis leads in rushing yards, ranks third in total offense (2,202 yards) and fourth in total offense per game (244.7 ypg).

LEWIS AND RED DEADLY ON THE GROUND

Nevada's run game isn't just limited to one player--the Pack has three players with at least 200 rushing yards on the season, with that trio of Savion Red (676), quarterback Brendon Lewis (660) and Patrick Garwo III (246) combining for 1,582 yards. The three have also combined for all 20 of Nevada's rushing touchdowns in 2024.

Lewis (seventh) and Red (ninth) each rank in the Mountain West top-nine in rushing yardage, while Nevada is one of just two teams (along with New Mexico) with two ball carriers in the conference's top 10.

ANOTHER 100-YARD RECEIVING GAME

Three Nevada receivers have posted 100-yard receiving games in 2024, with Cortez Braham Jr. racking up the latest in a nine-catch, 141-yard effort against Colorado State.

Braham Jr. and Jaden Smith each have two 100-yard receiving games this season, while Marcus Bellon notched his first Oct. 26 at Hawai'i. Together, the trio has combined to haul in 10 of the Wolf Pack's 13 touchdown receptions in 2024.

COATS JR. CONTINUES CAREER SEASON

Cornerback Michael Coats Jr.'s career season has been getting even better with each game. Coats Jr. recorded his fourth interception of the season Oct. 26 at Hawai'i, and is tied for third in the nation. His 13 pass breakups continue to lead the country, heading into Week 10.

Coats' coverage has been one of the highlights of the Nevada secondary's improved performance in 2024. Through 10 games, Nevada's defense has already broken up 38 passes, surpassing last season's total of 32. Along with Coats' national-best 13, the Pack secondary is reinforced by six from Kitan Crawford and three apiece from Keyshawn Cobb and KK Meier.

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST IN THE RED ZONE

Nevada's red-zone performance on offense has been a significant turnaround in 2024. On offense, the Wolf Pack has converted 30 of 32 red-zone trips into points, the 93.8-percent rate ranking 11th in the country and second in the Mountain West. Of Nevada's 32 trips, 27(!) have resulted in touchdowns, an 84.4-percent rate. That rate has, so far, well out-distanced the Pack's 2023 rate in which it only scored 16 touchdowns on 35 red-zone trips (45.7 percent).

CASHING IN ON THE MONEY DOWN

Another key category in which Nevada is among the nation's best is on third-down conversions. On the "money down," Nevada's 50.4 success rate ranks ninth in the country and second in the Mountain West. The Wolf Pack's success on third down has been key in extending drives, and holding onto the ball, contributing well to Nevada's average time of possession of 31:58, which leads the Mountain West and ranks 21st in the country.

LONGHORN CONNECTION

Head coach Jeff Choate isn't the only pickup Nevada made from national runner-up Texas during the offseason. Along with associate head coach Payam Saadat, passing game coordinator/secondary coach Joey Thomas, and defensive ends coach Nico Johnson, Choate has recruited some key players who aim to make a "Texas"-sized impact for the Wolf Pack.

Running back Savion Red and Ky Woods feature on the offensive side of things. Red's impact has been immediate, as he played in 21 games over his first two seasons (2022-23) at Texas, beginning his Longhorn career at wide receiver before moving to running back ahead of 2023, and making appearances as a Wildcat quarterback. Red saw action in the Big 12 Championship Game win over Oklahoma State and in the CFP semifinal (Sugar Bowl) against Washington, and finished the season with 131 rushing yards and a score on 30 carries.

On defense, fifth-year safety Kitan Crawford and defensive lineman Kristopher Ross add experience from Austin. Crawford was named Honorable Mention Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year in 2023, and appeared in 46 games over his career at Texas. With the Longhorns, he racked up 61 tackles, 2.0 tackles-for-loss, an interception, and two pass breakups.

FIRST MOUNTAIN WEST WEEKLY HONOR OF 2024

Nevada offensive lineman Tyson Ruffins was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Week after Week 0. Ruffins was part of a Wolf Pack offensive line which worked in front of a running game which produced three ballcarriers who finished with at least 30 yards, led by quarterback Brendon Lewis' 77.

Behind the Pack line, Lewis had one of his top games in a Nevada uniform, throwing for two touchdowns (matching his season output from 2023) and 132 yards without an interception. Against the SMU rush, the Nevada line only gave up one sack in the contest, along with just five tackles-for-loss, one of which came because of a fumbled exchange.

WOLF PACK ALUMNI ON NFL ROSTERS

Five Nevada Football alumni made the final cut onto NFL 53-man rosters following the conclusion of training camp.

G Joel Bitonio (Nevada, 2009-13) - Cleveland Browns

Bitonio will begin his 11th NFL season, all with the Cleveland Browns, in 2024. Bitonio has made five-straight Pro Bowls, and was named to the AP All-Pro First Team in 2021 and 2022.

G Austin Corbett (Nevada, 2013-17) - Carolina Panthers

Corbett will begin his seventh NFL season, and third with Carolina, in 2024. He appeared in just four games last season, after opening 2023 on the Panthers' PUP (physically unable to perform) list while recovering from a knee injury from the end of the 2022 campaign.

WR Romeo Doubs (Nevada, 2018-21) - Green Bay Packers

Romeo Doubs will enter year three with the Green Bay Packers, after a solid 2023 sophomore season. Doubs appeared in all 17 games, making 16 starts, and 59 catches for 674 yards and eight touchdowns.

LB Daiyan Henley (Nevada, 2017-21) - Los Angeles Chargers

Henley played at Nevada from 2017-21, being named to the All-Mountain West Second Team in 2021, before finishing his collegiate career at Washington State in 2022. Henley is set to enter his second season with the Chargers, after making 16 tackles over 15 appearances as a rookie in 2023.

LB Nephi Sewell (Nevada, 2017-18) - New Orleans Saints

Sewell played two seasons (2017-18) for the Pack, making 53 tackles while starting all 11 games in 2018. After transferring to Utah, where he finished his collegiate career, Sewell signed as a free agent with the New Orleans Saints. Sewell will begin the 2024 season, his third with the Saints, on the team's PUP list.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Nevada is in its 118th season of collegiate football. The Wolf Pack sports an all-time record of 580-528-33. Since joining the FBS in 1992, Nevada is 202-201 overall and 131-108 in conference play. Nevada has posted winning seasons in 12 out of its past 16 campaigns.

THE BITONIO FAMILY STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

On April 21, 2023, Nevada Athletics received one of its largest donations to date, thanks to Joel and Courtney Bitonio's generous gift of $1 million to support the football program. The donation funded the new football weight room, named The Bitonio Family Strength & Conditioning Center, and will support student-athletes in Nevada's pursuit to build a championship-caliber athletic department.

As a former Nevada player, NFL pro bowler, and offensive lineman for the Cleveland Browns, Bitonio recognizes the value of a strong football program in shaping the lives of young athletes and providing opportunities for success.

"I'm honored to be able to give back to the university that helped shape me into the person I am today," said Joel Bitonio. "I know firsthand the impact that a strong football program can have on student-athletes. The weight room has always been more than just a place to train; it is where teams build character, develop discipline, and learn the importance of teamwork. I'm honored to be able to give back to the university that helped shape me into the person I am today," said Joel Bitonio. "I know firsthand the impact that a strong football program can have on student-athletes. The weight room has always been more than just a place to train; it is where teams build character, develop discipline, and learn the importance of teamwork. I'm proud to be able to support the football program's success and ensure student-athletes have the resources they need to succeed."

"Joel and Courtney's gift is a transformational statement about the importance the University of Nevada plays in the lives of our student-athletes," said Athletic Director Stephanie Rempe. "This gift will significantly impact our football program and the momentum we are creating within our athletics program. I am personally so grateful to Joel and Courtney for their generous gift and their leadership, and hope it encourages others in the Wolf Pack community to support our efforts to build a championship-caliber athletics program."

The University of Nevada and Nevada Athletics are grateful for the Bitonio family's commitment to supporting the success of the Wolf Pack's football program. A thriving athletics program contributes to the success of the entire institution, and Nevada Athletics hopes that the Bitonio family's gift will inspire others to support.

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Preston Stone connected on a 35-yard touchdown pass to RJ Maryland with 1:18 left in the fourth quarter and Southern Methodist avoided an upset to open the season, defeating Nevada 29-24 on Saturday night.

A near four-touchdown favorite, SMU needed a fourth-quarter comeback to survive the first game of its inaugural season as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Down 24-13, the SMU comeback started with 10 minutes left and the Mustangs pinned at their own 10-yard line. On third down and short, Stone connected on a 49-yard pass to Maryland. SMU finished the drive with a Brashard Smith 4-yard touchdown run and a two-point conversion to pull within 24-21.

On Nevada's next possession, SMU defensive lineman Anthony Booker Jr. tackled Nevada quarterback Brendon Lewis in the end zone for a safety to pull the Mustangs within a point with eight minutes left in the game.

SMU began its winning drive on its own 17-yard line with 3:31 left.

The nine play, 83-yard drive ended with Maryland's winning catch. SMU's 6-foot-4 junior tight end and son of former Dallas Cowboys defensive tackle Russell Maryland finished the game with eight receptions for 162 yards.

Stone completed 17 of 30 passes for 254 yards with a touchdown and an interception.

Penalties plagued the Mustangs and forced them to play from behind into the fourth quarter. The Mustangs had 11 penalties for 125 yards, including one unsportsmanlike penalty for spitting that led to an ejection for cornerback Brandon Crossley in the third quarter.

The penalty opened the door for the Wolf Pack to continue a 15-play drive and take a 24-13 lead with 3:23 left in the third.

Lewis led the Wolf Pack in its near upset, completing 14 passes on 26 attempts for 132 yards. He also led the Wolf Pack with 77 rushing yards and found success throughout the game on quarterback draw plays.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Darius Taylor ran for 124 yards and two scores and caught a touchdown pass as Minnesota geared up for Big Ten play by beating Nevada 27-0 Saturday.

Kerry Brown had two interceptions and Ethan Robinson one for Minnesota, which blanked its second straight overmatched opponent and has allowed one touchdown in three games. It beat FCS Rhode Island 48-0 last week after losing 19-17 to North Carolina.

Minnesota last shut out consecutive opponents in October 1962.

Corey Hetherman is in his first year as the Gophers defensive coordinator.

Taylor had an 80-yard touchdown early in the third quarter. The sixth-longest rushing score in school history included breaking through a couple missed tackles near the line of scrimmage and Taylor cutting back across the field over the final 20 yards.

Despite missing seven games, the sophomore led the Gophers with 799 yards last season. A leg injury kept him out of this year's season opener against North Carolina and he had 14 carries for 64 yards last week.

Max Brosmer finished 16 of 26 for 191 yards and a touchdown as the Gophers (2-1) averaged 6.66 yards per play and finished with a 386-172 advantage in total yards.

Under pressure much of the game thanks to an overmatched offensive line, Nevada's dual-threat quarterback Brendon Lewis was 15 of 23 for 114 yards with three interceptions and ran 10 times for minus-1 yards. He was sacked four times.

The Wolf Pack (1-3) had eight infractions for 89 yards, including a defensive pass interference inside the 10 and an unsportsmanlike conduct that gave Minnesota a first down when deep inside its own territory. In last week's 20-17 loss to Georgia Southern, Nevada committed 14 penalties for 134 yards.

RENO, Nev. (AP) -- Patrick Garwo III ran for three touchdowns, Savion Red added 117 rushing yards and Nevada rolled past Eastern Washington 49-16 on Saturday.

Nevada's Brendon Lewis had touchdown passes of 4 yards to Marcus Bellon and 24 yards to Jaden Smith. Those scores, combined with Garwo's runs of 9, 7 and 1 yard gave the Wolf Pack (2-3) a 35-3 lead through the third quarter.

The teams traded touchdowns in the fourth quarter. First, Malik Dotson had a 2-yard run for Eastern Washington's first touchdown. Following that, Red had a 31-yard run for Nevada, Michael Wortham and Noah Cronquist connected on a 42-yard pass for EWU, and Red wrapped up the scoring with a 3-yard run.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) -- Wide receiver Nick Nash threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Jabari Bates with 50 seconds to play to help San Jose State beat Nevada 35-31 Saturday night.

Emmett Brown threw two touchdown passes, including a 24-yarder to Nash, before he was replaced by backup Walker Eget. Brown finished 12-of-28 passing for 170 yards and Eget completed 10 of 13 for 141 yards — including a 51-yard pass to Sebastian Macaluso to the 16 that set up the winning TD.

Eget, from the shotgun, threw a lateral pass to Nash on the right side, who threw it back to Bates in the front-left corner of the end zone to cap the scoring.

San Jose State's Floyd Chalk, who scored on a 1-yard run in the first quarter, ran for a 5-yard touchdown late in the third to make it 28-all. Nevada (2-4, 0-1 Mountain West) answered with a 13-play, 67-yard drive that took more than 7 minutes off the clock before it stalled at the 8 and the Wolf Pack settled for a 25-yard field goal by Matthew Killam with about 10 minutes to play.

Brendon Lewis passed for 213 yards and two touchdowns and added 90 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 13 carries for Nevada. Jaden Smith caught both scoring passes from Lewis, and finished the game with six receptions for 89 yards.

Eget came in and the Spartans went three-and-out before the San Jose State defense forced a punt. Brown threw back-to-back incomplete passes to make it third-and-10 before he was once again replaced by Eget, who hit Macaluso for a 14-yard gain for a fresh set of downs and three plays later his deep pass down the middle to Macaluso set up Nash's winning TD pass to Bates.

RENO (AP) -- Savion Red ran for four touchdowns Saturday night, Kitan Crawford returned an interception 57 yards for a touchdown and quarterback Brendon Lewis ran for a 67-yard TD as part of a wild fourth quarter and Nevada held on to beat Oregon State 42-37.

Lewis was 5-of-12 passing for 51 yards but added 151 yards rushing on nine carries and Red finished with 23 carries for 137 yards. Red scored on runs of 33 and 5 yards in the first half and his 7-yard TD run with about 6 minutes left in the third quarter trimmed Nevada's deficit to 24-21.

Michael Coats Jr. intercepted a pass from Gevani McCoy before Red scored on a 6-yard run with 13:37 to go in the fourth quarter to give the Wolfpack a four-point lead. Crawford's pick-6 made it 35-24 less than 3 minutes later. Anthony Hankerson ran it in from the 1 and, after the 2-point conversion failed, Oregon State trailed by five with 6:59 to play.

On first-and-15 from the Beavers 33, Lewis pulled the handoff on a jet sweep and raced up the middle for a touchdown that made it 42-30 with 4 minutes remaining but Oregon State again responded, this time with a 3-yard touchdown pass from McCoy to Trent Walker that capped the scoring with 1:57 left.

Nevada (3-4) went three-and-out on its ensuing possession and the Beavers moved well beyond midfield before Coats picked off pass from McCoy in the end zone as time expired to seal it.

Hankerson finished with 28 carries for 154 yards rushing and three touchdowns for Oregon State (4-2). McCoy was 27-of-42 passing for 348 yards and a touchdown but threw four interceptions.

Mikey Keene threw a screen pass that Gilliam turned into a 71-yard gain to the Nevada 17-yard line. Three plays later Joshua Wood scored on a 7-yard run to cap a 95-yard drive, and the Bulldogs had a three-point lead with 4:13 left in the third quarter. It was the only score of the second half.

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Avery Morrow ran for two touchdowns, Justin Marshall also had a rushing TD and the Colorado State special teams starred Saturday night as the Rams beat Nevada 38-21.

Colorado State (6-3, 4-0 Mountain West Conference) has won four games in a row and five of its last six.

Morrow ran for a 7-yard touchdown with 10:40 left in the first quarter and, after a Nevada punt, Marshall capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive with an 8-yard TD run to give the Rams a 14-0 lead with 2:20 remaining in the first quarter.

Jordan Noyes kicked a career-long 60-yard field goal (tied for second longest in school history) to make it 17-0 at halftime. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, Ayden Hector forced a fumble that was recovered by Gabe Kirschke to eventually set up a 21-yard field goal by Noyes with 11:30 to go in the third.

On the ensuing kickoff, a miscommunication led to Nevada failing to field the ball. Sophomore wide receiver Caleb Goodie raced down field and, inside the 1, met returner Sean Dollars at the ball and knocked it into the end zone where Jace Bellah covered it.

Jamari Person caught a pass for the 2-point conversion to make it 28-0 with 11:17 remaining in the third quarter.

Brendon Lewis was 20-of-28 passing for 252 yards and a touchdown and added a game-high 109 yards rushing on 14 carries, including two 3-yard TDs, for the Wolf Pack. Cortez Braham Jr. had 141 yards receiving on nine catches.
