PLAYER OF THE YEAR IN THE MAKING

Senior Aaliyah Jenkins was named the Mountain West Player of the Year, Tuesday. In Mountain West games, Jenkins leads the conference in batting average (.522), slugging percentage (1.159), on-base percentage (.607), hits (36), home runs (10), triples (4), RBI (32), total bases (80), runs scored (29), and stolen bases (16)

Jenkins won five Player of the Week awards this season, the first five weekly honors of her career. Jenkins is the first player since 2005 Marissa Nichols of UNLV to win five MW Player of the Week awards in a season. Jenkins's five POTW awards breaks her own record set last week for the most in a season in Nevada history.

Jenkins is the 6th player in conference history to win five POTW awards in a career.

Jenkins just keeps breaking records. She now holds the Nevada program record for Home Runs (53), RBI (192), Slugging Percentage (.719), and Total Bases (740). she is also four walks away from breaking the Nevada record (currently at 93) and she sits in second in runs scored all time.

Jenkins set some new Mountain West records with her outstanding marks. Jenkins now holds the senior record for batting average (.522), on-base percentage (.607), and slugging percentage (1.159). Her slugging percentage mark is the second best in conference history. Jenkins also tied a senior record for stolen bases (16) and triples (4). Her 80 total bases are the third most in conference history.

ALL MOUNTAIN WEST HONORS

Along with Aaliyah Jenkins, four players were named to the All-Mountain West teams. Jenkins, Madison Clark, and Hailey McLean were all named to the All-Mountain West First Team. Haylee Engelbrecht and Tess Bumiller were each named to the All-Mountain West Second Team.

Head Coach Victoria Hayward was named the Coach of the Year. Hayward has stated multiple times that she believes this is a Staff of the Year award because her assistants have been so impactful on the team's success.

BRACKETOLOGY

Three publications currently have the Wolf Pack in the field of 64.

D1 Softball's Eric Lopez has the Pack as a three-seed at the Norman regional playing Washington in the first round. Prairie View A&M rounds out the four team pool.

Softball America's Brady Vernon also has Nevada as a three-seed. However, Vernon has the Pack taking on UCF in Baton Rouge. The Southland Conference winner is the four-seed in Vernon's projections, either McNeese or Southeastern Louisiana.

A smaller, lesser known projection from collegesportsmadness.com has the Pack as a three seed at the Eugene regional, playing Mississippi State in the first round, where Idaho State is the fourth team in the regional.

SAN DIEGO STATE CONNECTIONS

The Wolf Pack Staff has strong connections to the two-seed San Diego State. Three of the Pack's coaches are former Aztecs. Head Coach Victoria Hayward served as the San Diego State Associate Head Coach in 2023 during the Aztecs' run to the NCAA Super Regional. Hayward served as an assistant coach for one season in 2022.

Delanie Wisz was an assistant coach for San Diego State from 2023-2024, volunteering in 2023. Jillian Celis was a star player for the Aztecs from 2020-2023 before following Hayward to Washington for her final year of eligibility.

All three fell under Stacey Nuveman Deniz. Cali Decker, Ally Dueker, Bella Espinoza, Dee Dee Hernandez, and Jade Ignacio were all on the 2023 Aztec team with Hayward, Wisz, and Celis.

BULLDOGS CONNECTIONS

Nevada Pitching Coach Carli Cutler was a graduate assistant at Fresno State in 2021, immediately following her playing career at UConn. There are no remaining links between Cutler and the Bulldogs.

Haley Painter spent her true freshman season at Fresno State where she red-shirted under Stacy May-Johnson before following the coach that recruited her, Linda Garza. Taryn Irigoyen and Alyssa Orr are Painter's only remaining Bulldog teammates.

UTAH STATE CONNECTIONS

Hailey McLean and Tess Bumiller each transferred from Utah State following the 2024 season. After neither player felt a fit at Utah State, McLean returned home to the Truckee Meadows as Nevada's first transfer of the 2024 cycle. McLean recruited Bumiller to follow to Nevada.

UP-DOWN-UP FOR PAINTER

Haley Painter season has been split into three drastic stints.

Painter started the season on a historic pace, ready to smash almost every Nevada single season hitting record. Through 25 games Painter hit .393 with an OBP of .452 and slugged .905. Painter had 11 homers, 10 doubles, and 32 RBI after the first game of the DeMarini Classic.

Painter's 17-game slump began with the March 15 doubleheader against California Baptist and Stanford. Over the next five weeks Painter hit .095 with a .167 slugging percentage and a .291 on-base percentage only salvaged by her walks. Painter went 4-for-42 with 5 RBI and 10 strikeouts.

The slump came to end with a game winning triple at San Jose State to take the series. In her last ten games Painter is hitting .393 again with an even higher .528 OBP and a .893 SLG. Painter is 11-for-28 with 10 RBI, 3 2B, 1 3B, and 3 HR. Painter has not struck out since.

A HIT MACHINE

Madison Clark was second in the Mountain West with a .493 batting average in conference play.

Her conference season was highlighted by a 12-game hitting streak which saw her hit .600 with a .617 OBP. The streak began with a 4-for-4 game with 4 runs in a 12-0 win at Fresno State.

The streak featured nine multi-hit games and five games with three or more hits. Clark scored 17 times during the streak

BERLINGERI STRUGGLING AWAY

Redshirt Freshman Ainsley Berlingeri is second on the team in ERA with a 2.73 ERA in all 27 games played.

In home and neutral games Berlingeri has a sub-2.00 ERA, leading the team in both types of games. In neutral site games Berlingeri has a 1.55 ERA with a 4-0 record, striking out 37 batters in 31.2 innings. She posts a 1.83 ERA with a 4-0 record when playing at Hixson Park in Reno.

However, on the road Berlingeri's ERA balloons to 4.87 with a 2-2 record, walking 18 batters compared to her 20 strikeouts in 27.1 innings in true away games.

SLUGFEST AT HIXSON

The Wolf Pack and Aggies faced on in a 64-run series two week ago.

On Thursday, the Pack cameback from down 7-1 entering the bottom of the fifth, to win 8-7. Jenkins got the come-back going with a homer to left, a four run sixth inning set up the Pack for a walk-off in the seventh inning. Lexi O'Gorman hit a single to left-centerfield for her second true walk off of the season, becoming the first player to walk off multiple games in a season since Danielle Lew in 2020.

O'Gorman walked off the Pack's 2-1 win over Santa Clara earlier this season.

Game two was historic for the Pack's offense. The Pack's 17 runs were tied for the most this season and were the sixth most in Wolf Pack history. Nevada recorded 20 hits, tying the program record and the most since 2/28/15 vs Southern Illinois. Nevada broke the record for the most total bases in a game in program history with 38.

Haylee Engelbrecht tied an NCAA record with four doubles, becoming the fourth player in DI history to hit four doubles in a game.

Lexi O'Gorman hit a grand slam, the Pack's second grand slam of the season, and totaled 6 RBI, the most by any Wolf Pack player this season and tied for the third most in program history.

O'Gorman was named one of Softball America's stars of the week with her 10 RBI and hitting .714. O'Gorman was also named to NCAA Softball's lineup of the week as an outfielder.

BOISE BASH

The Wolf Pack scored 17 runs on Sunday, March 23 at Boise State, the most the Pack has scored in a game since 3/19/2019 at New Mexico (21).

A 13-run inning highlighted the game, the most runs scored by Nevada in an inning since 3/25/2018 vs New Mexico (13). The Pack started the third inning with nine consecutive batters getting aboard through hits, walks, and errors. Nevada finished the inning with nine singles, one home run, and one walk, in addition to four grounders, and two fly balls.

BACK-TO-BACK JACKS

Tatum Maytorena and Maya Larsen hit back-to-back home runs 3/28 against San Diego State. This was the second instance of consecutive home runs for the Pack this season, the other came on 3/15 vs California Baptist when Larsen and Haylee Engelbrecht hit-back-to-back homers.

Nevada had three sets of back-to-back home runs last season. 2/8 vs Hawai'i, Taryn Jenkins and Gabby Herrera; 3/10 vs San Diego, Taryn Jenkins and Aaliyah Jenkins; 4/3 at Utah State, Gabby Herrera and Taryn Jenkins.

AALIYAH JENKINS HITS BOMBS

Aaliyah Jenkins broke the Nevada program home run record on February 8 with her first inning homer against California Baptist. The home run was Jenkins's 38th of her career.

Jenkins entered the season tied for the program record but officially passed Megan Sweet for sole possession of the record earlier this season. Jenkins currently sits on 53 career home runs.

Jenkins also broke the Nevada career RBI record on Friday, March 28 with her 3-run home run against San Diego State. Jenkins has career total of 192 RBI.

HC VICTORIA HAYWARD

Victoria Hayward is in her first season as head coach of the Nevada Wolf Pack. Hayward was announced as Head Coach of the Nevada Softball program on May 22, 2024 by Athletic Director Stephanie Rempe.

Hayward spent 2024 at her alma mater, Washington, as an assistant coach, helping lead the Huskies to a 32-15 record and the program's 30th consecutive NCAA Regional.

Spent two seasons in the Mountain West with San Diego State from 2022-23. Served as associate head coach for the Aztecs during the team's NCAA Super Regional run. Won regular season MW championship and made NCAA Regional as assistant coach in 2022.

Served as UCF's director of operations in 2019.

Spent 2018 with Maryland as a hitting coach after two seasons as UMass assistant coach. Was a GA at LSU for her first season out of college. Spent Fall 2014 as a volunteer assistant coach at SeattleU.

Signed AU Pro Softball contract in 2020. Has played seven total seasons with AU, including five championship seasons and two AUX season.

Was drafted to the AUSL Talons by GM Lisa Fernandez and Head Coach Howard Dobson.
