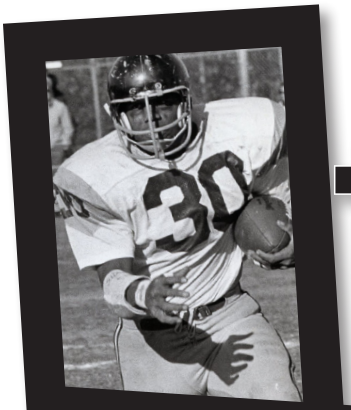
A WINNING TRADITION

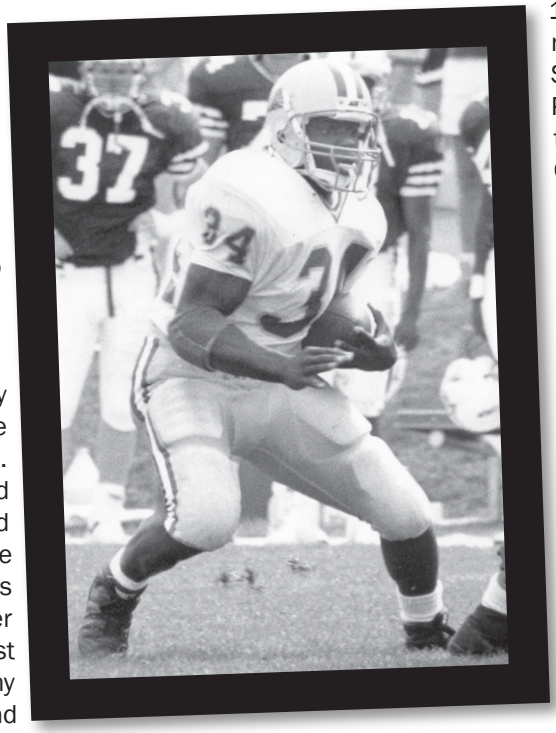


The 2009 season marked the Charger football program's 32nd season, and was the first year since the conclusion of the 2003 campaign that UNH has fielded a team. The return of the football was of great interest and excitement to University of New Haven students, alumni, fans and friends of athletics. One year later, the Chargers claimed their first conference championship title since moving to the Division II level.

Charger football has a storied tradition of gridiron success, including four NCAA Division II playoff appearances in the 1990's. The program posts an all-time record of 184-133-5 in 33 seasons, including a 155-94-1 mark after moving to the Division II level in 1982.

When the Charger football team advanced to the NCAA Championship game in 1997, with now head coach Peter Rossomando serving as defensive line coach, UNH was at that time the smallest school in NCAA history to play for a national title. UNH also advanced to the NCAA semifinals in 1992 and the quarterfinals in 1993 and 1995.

In addition to team success, many individuals in UNH Football history have earned national and regional accolades. UNH had 126 All-New England award winners in 19 seasons between 1983 and 2001, and 63 All-ECAC picks during the same time period. Perhaps the program's most famous alum is running back Roger Graham, who won Division II's most prestigious award - the Harlon Hill Trophy - after leading the NCAA in scoring and ranking second in rushing in 1993. UNH has had a player finish in the top four in the Harlon Hill voting on five occasions.



UNH has a proud tradition of coaches that have gone on to find great success in the professional and college ranks as well. Tony Sparano, who led UNH to the 1997 national championship game and is second all-time in victories at UNH, is currently the Head Coach for the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Chris Palmer (coach, 1986-87) has been an NFL head coach, NFL quarterback coach and is currently the offensive coordinator for the NFL's Tennessee Titans. The program's all-time wins leader, Mark Whipple (coach, 1988-93), piloted UMass to a Division I-AA national championship in 1998 and won a Super Bowl as quarterbacks coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Whipple is currently the quarterbacks coach for the NFL's Cleveland Browns. Darren Rizzi (coach, 1999-2001) currently serves as special teams coordinator for the NFL's Miami Dolphins after serving as head coach at the University of Rhode Island in 2008.

After a successful return in 2009 with a 4-4 record in the Northeast-10 Conference and a fifth place finish, the Chargers finished the 2010 season with an 8-2 overall record and won the Northeast-10 Conference Championship, in just their second season back to the gridiron. In each of the first two seasons back, the Chargers have earned numerous postseason accolades, including two All-American Honorable Mention selections.

RALPH F. DELLACAMERA STADIUM

Newly renovated with state-of-the-art blue and gold Sprinturf, Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium hosted its' first football game on Saturday, September 19, 2009. Sporting a large Charger logo in the center, the renovation was made possible by a gift from alumnus Ralph F. DellaCamera Jr., managing member and CIO of DellaCamera Capital Management LLC in Manhattan and a member of the university's board of governors.

On Saturday, September 26, 2009, the stadium was officially dedicated in Ralph F. DellaCamera's name. In front of a sell-out crowd, over 3,500 fans also saw the first victory at the new stadium as the Chargers pulled off a 23-18 win over Stonehill College.

After receiving turf improvements in 2008, a new press box and a cutting edge scoreboard were installed to improve upon the game environment at Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium prior to the 2009 opener. Prior to the 2010 season, a one-of-a-kind video board was also installed at DellaCamera Stadium.

In two seasons on the blue and gold turf, New Haven has posted a 6-4 record. In 2009 and 2010 the team went 3-2, while 2011 will mark the first season with six home games at DellaCamera Stadium.

Prior to the renovations in 2008 and 2009, the stadium was known as Robert B. Dodds Stadium. Dodds Stadium was a natural grass surface and was home to the Charger Football program up until 2003. As the former home for the Charger Football team, Dodds Stadium saw a number of important games throughout its history.

DellaCamera Stadium is located on UNH's North Campus, directly across Boston Post Road from UNH's main campus. Parking for events at DellaCamera Stadium is available in the Charger Gymnasium lot.

2011 COACHES

PETER ROSSOMANDO

HEAD COACH
THIRD SEASON
RECORD OVERALL: 13-7
CONFERENCE RECORD: 10-6
ALMA MATER: BOSTON UNIVERSITY

The 2010 Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the Year, Peter Rossomando, enters his third season as head coach at the University of New Haven. UNH President Dr. Steven H. Kaplan and Director of Athletics Deborah Chin introduced Rossomando as the university's head football coach at a press conference on Thursday, December 13, 2007, in UNH's Alumni Lounge & Conference Center.

Rossomando became the ninth head coach in program history and officially began his duties at UNH on January 1, 2008. In just two seasons at the varsity level, Rossomando has guided UNH football to the top of the Northeast-10 Conference as they were crowned Champions in 2010.

Last season, New Haven finished 8-2 overall and 6-2 in the Northeast-10 to capture the program's first conference championship since the 1979 season and its first at the Division II level. At the conclusion of the season, cornerback Desmond Anderson was named an All-American Honorable Mention, while running back Victor Jones was named the New Haven Gridiron Club Offensive Player of the Year. The Chargers also had 12 players earn All-Conference honors and three earn All-New England honors. As a team, UNH led the Northeast-10 Conference in turnover margin and sacks, while also ranking seventh in Division II in turnover margin. Desmond Anderson led Division II in interceptions, while Victor Jones ranked 18th in rushing.

In 2008, Rossomando led the Chargers in a rebuilding season as the new coaching staff began the recruiting process after a five-year absence. One year later, Rossomando and his staff had developed 85 student-athletes which suited up in the Charger blue and gold for the first time against Lincoln University (Pa.) on September 5, 2009. Rossomando started right where he left off with the Chargers, defeating Lincoln 33-10.

The momentum carried the team through the 2009 season, surprising Northeast-10 Conference opponents with a 5-5 overall record and a 4-4 mark in conference play. Six players earned All-Conference accolades, while the Chargers ranked 14th in Division II in passing offense with 284 yards per game, a mark that also lead the NE-10. Wide receiver Sharieff Hall earned All-American Honorable Mention honors and ranked eighth in Division II in receptions per game, while quarterback Ryan Osiecki ranked 14th in total offense.

For the seven seasons prior to arriving at UNH, Rossomando was on the coaching staff at the University at Albany - a member of the Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS, formerly Division I-AA). Serving under program founder and 35-year head coach Bob Ford, Rossomando served as associate head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for his last three seasons at Albany.

Rossomando has 16 seasons of highly-successful college coaching experience under his belt, and kicked off his career with a five-year stint at the University of New Haven from 1994 to 1998. The Chargers were 41-14-1 in Rossomando's first go-round at UNH, when he was a member of head coach Tony Sparano's staff that went to the 1997 NCAA Division II Championship game and the 1995 NCAA playoffs.

During Rossomando's tenure at UAlbany (2001-2007), the Great Danes posted a 46-32 overall record and a 36-12 mark (.750) in the Northeast Conference (NEC). He helped lead UA to three NEC championships (2002, 2003, 2007) and the 2002 ECAC title. As NEC champions in the fall of 2007, UAlbany played Pioneer League champs Dayton for the mid-major national championship and rose as high as No. 3 in both the Sports Network and Football Gazette Division I FCS Mid-Major polls.

While at UAlbany, Rossomando coached several NCAA FCS mid-major All-Americans, including Geir Gudmundsen, Mike Laroche, Brandon Shaw, Aaron Kimball, Jacob Anderson, Jacob Hobbs and Sam Pagano. Gudmundsen, who was on the 2004 AFCA All-America First Team, and Hobbs went on to sign professionally as NFL free agents with Buffalo and Philadelphia, respectively. UAlbany had ten linemen selected First Team All-NEC under Rossomando's tutelage.

In 2007, UAlbany was 8-4 overall and ran through the NEC with a 6-0 league record, scoring 39.2 points per game in conference play. The Great Danes rushed for 275 yards per game and averaged 413 yards of total offense in NEC play, while leading the conference in total offense and turnover margin. Rossomando's offensive unit came alive in the second half of the 2006 season, averaging 296.0 total yards and 193.7 rushing yards against Northeast Conference opponents. In 2004, the Great Danes ranked seventh nationally in rushing with 254.7 yards per game, while leading the Northeast Conference for the sixth-straight year in that category. UAlbany shattered the NEC rushing record with 3,215 yards on the ground the previous year.

Rossomando served as the offensive coordinator and line coach at Cortland State prior to taking up his position at UAlbany. He handled weekly game plans, coached the kickoff return and field goal special teams, and recruited New York City and Long Island. He also coached the offensive line and was video coordinator at Division I-AA Northeastern for one season (1999) following his stint at UNH (1994-98).

In his previous stop at UNH, Rossomando served as both offensive line coach and academic coordinator during his first three seasons with the program. He spent his final two years as the Chargers' defensive line coach and special teams coordinator, and also spent those two seasons as recruiting coordinator. UNH reached the NCAA Division II playoffs in both 1995 and 1997, and won the Lambert Cup Trophy twice.

The Chargers saw three offensive linemen named All-ECAC and two on the All-New England squads with Rossomando as their position coach. In Rossomando's first season, 1994, UNH all-time great Roger Graham earned his third all-America honor and rushed for 1,607 yards to narrowly miss winning his second-straight Harlon Hill Trophy. During the 1997 national runners-up season, Rossomando was special teams and defensive line coach. He helped lead a defensive unit that recorded 41 sacks during the 10-game regular season, limiting opponents to just 9.8 points per game while recording three shutouts.

From 1990-93, Rossomando played on the offensive and defensive lines at Division I-AA Boston University, where he earned a B.S. in clinical exercise physiology. The Terriers won the 1993 Yankee Conference championship with an undefeated record.

A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Rossomando received All-America and all-state scholastic honors and was the 1989 Staten Island Player of the Year. He and his wife, Jessica, have three children, Reese, Gianna and Nicholas.

On December 13, 2007 Rossomando was introduced as the Chargers ninth head football coach at a press conference on the UNH campus. Above: Rossomando joined by his wife, Jessica, and their three children.

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE

The Northeast-10 Conference enters its 31st year as there is little surprise why the Northeast-10 Conference has continued to grow stronger year by year since it's inception and now stands as a model conference of NCAA Division II.

The conference was built from the ground up with strong cornerstones and a vision of becoming the premier Division II NCAA athletic conference in the nation. A quick look around the league today will tell even the casual observer that the NE-10 has done so. The conference is a powerful union of strong academic and athletic colleges and universities that incorporates 16 institutions from New York and New England. The NE-10 sponsors the most championship sports of any Division II conference in the nation.

The Northeast-10 can look to a long history of successes – the growth from seven original schools to more than double its size 20 years later – the contention for and winning of national championships – the change in league structure from on-campus administration to a central governing location – the anticipation of, coping with and addition of modern technology - the recognition of student-athlete performances in the classroom where the real competitions are played out – all of them have been built thanks to the hard work and dedication through the years of thousands of people who have, at one time or another, called the Northeast-10 home for their athletics program or their livelihood.

The NE-10 history began with the vision of a few good men and women. It was back in 1979 that a handful of athletics directors realized that the world of college athletics was changing and that they, and their programs, would have to change as well.

In the late 1970's and early 1980's the NCAA began to emphasize the importance of conferences in organizing competition and determining bids to NCAA national tournaments. The NCAA required six teams to be recognized as a conference in order to award championships, and the creation of national tournaments with automatic qualifiers to league champions became a new goal towards which teams could strive.

The founding fathers of the NE-10 were only happy to comply. Thus, a handful of athletic directors at smaller schools, classified Division II and of similar scope, academic makeup and athletic abilities hatched the idea of a new athletics conference in New England. Therefore, on October 9, 1979, a simple press release announced that a new unnamed Division II conference was being formed. Eight months later, at the Pleasant Valley Country Club in Springfield, Mass., the league was publicly announced.

The Northeast-7 Conference established instant credibility in its membership and that credibility led to a slow but continued expansion through the years. The admittance of Saint Anselm in 1981 created the Northeast-8. In 1984, Hartford joined the ECAC Division I North Atlantic Conference but was immediately replaced by Merrimack.

The "Northeast-10" name came about when Saint Michael's and Quinnipiac joined the league in 1987 and the conference remained stable until 1995 when Springfield left for Division III. The league stayed at 10 members as Le Moyne joined the league in 1996 from the New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) and briefly expanded to 11 when Pace joined in 1998 from the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference (NYCAC). Quinnipiac elevated to the Division I Northeast Conference (NEC) to again return the foundation of 10 until the last major expansion took place prior to 2001 when five new schools joined the fold. Franklin Pierce, Southern New Hampshire University (formerly New Hampshire College), the University of Massachusetts Lowell and Southern Connecticut State University were joined by the College of Saint Rose.

In 2008, Bryant University departed for Division I and the University of New Haven immediately to replace Bryant in all sports, maintaining a 15 institutions in the conference.

Adelphi University, became the newest member of the conference last year, bringing membership to 16 full-time institutions.

The Owls had one chance at the end of the game, with just over two minutes left in the game they regained possession at their own 5-yard line. On the second play of the drive, Desmond Anderson put an end to the game with his fourth interception of the season. The Chargers' offense guided the clock all the way down to zero, finalizing the Elm City upset at DellaCamera Stadium.

GAME RECAP: SPRINGFIELD, Mass. – The University of New Haven football team defeated American International College 13-0 Saturday afternoon in Massachusetts. With the win the Chargers improve to 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the Northeast-10 Conference, while the Yellow Jackets fall to 3-4 overall and 3-2 in the NE-10.

With just under 13 minutes to play in the fourth quarter, Rob Hill intercepted a Rob Parent pass and returned it 10-yards for a touchdown, giving the Chargers the game-sealing points.

In a game dominated by wind gusts in excess of 30 miles per hour, neither team could muster a score in the opening quarter. With possession at the end of the first quarter, the Chargers used the wind in the opening drive of the second quarter and pushed the ball deep into the Yellow Jackets' territory. With 10:34 left in the first half, Chris Scifo broke a 0-0 tie with a 25-yard field goal. The kick capped a 14-play 67-yard drive which would prove to be the only score the Chargers would need to win Saturday game.

Paced by a shout rushing attack from Victor Jones, New Haven amassed 168 yards in the first half, including 82 on the ground. Jones tallied 92 yards, while quarterback Ryan Osiecki was sacked twice for a loss of 10 yards. Osiecki went 9-of-14 for 86 yards in the first half.

Jones finished the day as the Chargers only 200-yard rusher of the new era. He amassed 202 yards on an amazing 46 carries. Osiecki threw for 151 yards on the blustery day in western Mass. The junior connected on 16-of-24 passes, with a long of 18-yards. The running game would allow the Chargers to control the time of possession with over 41-minutes of ball control.

The Chargers defense, which shutout AIC for the first time since the opening game of the 2005 season, held the Yellow Jackets to 172 total yards on 43 plays. Anderson, Charlie Hatchett and Mike Gomes led the UNH defense, each with five tackles. Anderson had a fumble recovery and the interception, while Gomes recovered two fumbles. Hill also had a good day with four stops, an interception and 1.5 tackles-for-loss.

With a 4-1 conference record, the Chargers now stand alone at the top of the NE-10 standings. Merrimack remains the only other one-loss team in the conference with a 3-1 conference mark.

GAME RECAP: WEST HAVEN, Conn. – The University of New Haven football team outlasted Merrimack College on Saturday afternoon, as the Chargers knocked off the Warriors by the final score of 27-25 on Homecoming at DelaCamera Stadium. With the win, UNH remains atop of the Northeast-10 Conference standings at 7-1 and 5-1 in the league. Merrimack falls to 4-3 overall and 3-2 in NE-10 competition with the loss.

The Chargers would take a 10-0 lead after the first quarter, but the Warriors answered with six in the second quarter, cutting the lead to four at halftime.

New Haven would go on to score the first 10 points of the second half off a Victor Jones 1-yard touchdown run and a Chris Scifo 42-yard field goal, both in the third quarter.

On the first possession of the fourth quarter, Merrimack cut the Chargers' lead to 20-13 off a 1-yard touchdown run from James Suozzo. After a 16-yard touchdown strike from Ryan Osiecki to Sharieff Hall, Merrimack put two quick scoring drives together in the final seven minutes of the fourth quarter. With 6:34 left on the clock, Merrimack punched in a three-yard run which capped a, 8-play 70-yard drive. On its ensuing possession, Merrimack went another 88-yards on 15 plays to score their final touchdown with 50-seconds left on the clock, making the score 27-25. On the Warriors two-point try, the Chargers stopped running back Anthony Smalls in the backfield, securing the win.

GAME RECAP: WEST HAVEN, Conn. – The University of New Haven football team, nationally ranked No. 23 in last week's poll, was stunned by Saint Anselm College on Saturday afternoon at Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium, dropping its final regular season game by the final score of 35-26. Even with the result, the Chargers still claimed the 2010 Northeast-10 Conference Title.

New Haven concluded the regular season with an 8-2 mark and 6-2 in the league. The Hawks improved to 2-7 and 2-5 in NE-10 competition.

With a win today, New Haven would have concluded the regular season with an overall record of 9-1 and 7-1 in NE-10 competition. The last time the Chargers finished a campaign with one loss was in 1997, a season that ended with a loss in the NCAA National Championship game.

Osiecki finished with 252 yards passing and one touchdown for the Chargers. Washington-Ellison caught seven passes for 113 yards, while Josh Smart accumulated 45 yards on the ground and 69 in the air. Lashley had three receptions for 60 yards and Hall added three catches for 41 total yards.

Defensively, Bernard Risco and Charlie Hatchett led the team in tackles with 10 apiece. The four offensive touchdowns by Saint Anselm marked only the second time a team had accomplished that feat against the Chargers defense.

November 21, 1992 - New Haven 38, West Chester 26

In its first ever NCAA playoff game, New Haven defeated host West Chester to advance to the national quarterfinals. The Chargers opened the scoring with two first quarter touchdown passes from Ken Suhl. New Haven took control of the game with two TDs in the third quarter, raising its lead to 32-14, before West Chester came right back with two TDs of its own to make the score 32-26. New Haven ended any comeback thoughts when Roger Graham broke through for a 45-yard TD run. Graham finished with 222 yards and one TD while Suhl completed 19 of 27 passes for 350 yards and three TDs. Tony Willis caught eight passes for 130 yards while Max Joyner-Brown had four catches for 95 yards and two TDs.

November 28, 1992 - New Haven 35, Ferris State 13

New Haven used a 21-point third quarter to take control en route to a 35-13 victory over Ferris State. New Haven opened the scoring when Roger Graham galloped 52 yards on his first carry of the game. Two Ferris State field goals cut the lead to 7-6 at halftime. A.J. Livingston and John Raba each rushed for a score while Tony Willis tossed a 53-yard scoring strike to Joe Davis off a reverse option play for the third TD. Willis grabbed a TD of his own when quarterback Ken Suhl tossed a NCAA playoff record 99-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter. Suhl finished with 14-25 for 256 yards. Willis caught four of those passes for 127 yards and a TD. Graham rushed for 118 yards and a TD.

December 5, 1992 -Jacksonville St. 46, New Haven 35

New Haven lost in the semifinals to eventual national champion Jacksonville State. Jacksonville State grabbed a 21-0 lead in the second quarter highlighted by an 82-yard punt return and a 90-yard TD reception by Danny Lee. UNH battled back to make the score 21-14 at halftime as Max Joyner-Brown caught a 13-yard scoring strike and Roger Graham ran 11 yards for a TD. New Haven tied the game early in the fourth quarter on Joyner-Brown's second TD catch. Lee regained the lead for Jacksonville State but the extra point failed. Graham ran nine yards for his second TD and the extra point split the uprights, giving UNH its first lead of the game, 35-34. Lee ran 39 yards for his fourth TD of the game, putting Jax State ahead 41-35. New Haven reached inside the JSU 35-yard line before being stopped on a fourth and one. Suhl was 23 of 36 for 248 yards and three TDs while Graham gained 191 yards and scored two TDs. Willis secured his third straight 100-yard game, catching 11 passes for 110 yards and a TD.

November 18, 1995 - New Haven 27, Edinboro 12

Edinboro scored on its first possession of the game, taking a 6-0 lead on a one-yard dive by Gerald Thompson. New Haven cut the lead in half on Gene Adair's 37-yard field goal near the end of the first quarter. Edinboro doubled its scoring total when Keith Cushenberry grabbed the ball away from receiver Bobby Barnette and raced 31 yards for a touchdown with 2:34 left in the half, giving the Scots a 12-3 lead at halftime. New Haven answered with a 47-yard FG on its first possession of the second half. With under a minute left in the third quarter, Ron Jenkins dashed seven yards for a touchdown giving the Chargers the lead 13-12. Jenkins and Dave Menard each added a touchdown in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring, giving UNH its third NCAA first round victory in three tries. Jenkins finished with 150 yards on 30 carries with two TDs while Jesse Showerda completed 19 of 32 passes for 229 yards.

November 25, 1995 - Ferris State 17, New Haven 9

The only stats that would indicate that New Haven lost this game would be the five turnovers, three fumbles and two interceptions. All the other statistics favored New Haven including time of possession (36:02), total yards (420 yards) and total plays (90). However, the most important stat favored the home team, a 17-9 final score.

Ferris State opened the scoring with a 22-yard field goal by Jason Lipke. The Bulldogs boosted their lead on Chris Pulliams three-yard run, only the fourth rushing touchdown surrendered by the UNH defense in 12 games. Benny Roe's 23-yard TD run in the third quarter gave the home team a 17-0 lead before New Haven finally lit its side of the scoreboard on Ron Jenkins five-yard run with 9:00 remaining. Gene Adair brought the team to within one score with a 25-yard field goal, making the score 17-9. New Haven had the ball inside the Ferris 20-yard line in the final 2:00 but failed on a fourth-down attempt, securing the win for Ferris State.

November 22, 1997 - New Haven 47, Glenville State 7

The Chargers dominated play in their first playoff appearance since 1995. New Haven led 27-0 at the half on touchdown receptions from Adam Roman and Ketric Barnes and a pair of touchdown runs from quarterback Cazzie Kosciolek. The lead went to 34-0 after Bill Woods caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from Kosciolek off a fake field goal.

Glenville State finally got on the board at 34-7 after a 68-yard touchdown pass to running back Byron Stevenson. Glenville State quarterback Wilkie Perez entered the game as the leading passer in Division II. The Chargers limited Perez to one touchdown, while intercepting two passes. Don Highsmith ran for a career-high 212 yards on 32 carries as the Chargers racked up 271 yards rushing. UNH's defense recovered two fumbles and intercepted two passes.

December 6, 1997 - New Haven 27, UC Davis 25

The No.2 ranked University of New Haven football team defeated UC Davis 27-25 in the NCAA Division II national semifinals in front of 4,712 at the Yale Bowl. It was the first semifinal win for New Haven. "This is the greatest win in UNH history," head coach Tony Sparano said.

Davis took a 3-0 lead on a Ray Hill 31-yard field goal just 3:48 into the game. New Haven's Adam Roman, a junior wide receiver from Laguna Hills, Calif., scored the next three touchdowns to give the Chargers a 21-3 lead. The Aggies totaled 575 yards of total offense, but committed four turnovers.

With :23 left in the game, Daft completed a 1-yard pass to Wes Terrell on a 4th and two. Terrell was stopped just short of the first down by Dennis Burney and Jason Pacourek (Sr., Yorba Linda, Calif.).

New Haven quarterback Cazzie Kosciolek completed 11 of 26 passes for 161 yards and two touchdowns. Running back Don Highsmith rushed for 105 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown. It was the fifth straight game Highsmith rushed for 100 yards or more.

December 13, 1997 - Northern Colorado 51, New Haven 0

UNH was the first school from Connecticut to play in a college football title game and was the smallest school enrollment wise to ever play for the DII football title.

New Haven won the coin toss and elected to kick off. The Chargers stopped Northern Colorado on their first three plays, setting up a 4th and 2 from the UNC 36. Dirk Johnson faked a punt and ran 39 yards. Two plays later, Corte McGuffey connected with Dillon Micus on a 20-yard touchdown pass.

It was only the second time all season that an opponent had scored first against New Haven. Northern Colorado sacked Cazzie Kosciolek seven times, the most sacks UNH had allowed all season. New Haven also lost three fumbles, the most it had lost all season.

On December 13, 1997 the University of New Haven football team became the first college from Connecticut and the smallest school to ever compete for the NCAA Division II football title. Photo: Players huddle during the 1997 National Championship game in Florence, Alabama.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Steven H. Kaplan, Ph.D., University President

Steven H. Kaplan, Ph.D., became the sixth president of the University of New Haven (UNH) on July 1, 2004. Dr. Kaplan joined a nearly 85-year-old institution dedicated to experiential education. With enrollment of over 5,200 undergraduate and graduate students representing more than 35 states and some 45 countries, UNH has several nationally ranked programs in a number of majors in business, engineering, public safety, and the liberal arts and sciences.

Dr. Kaplan was presented to the community in March 2004 by then Board of Governors Chairman Robert Alvine, who characterized the president-designate as energetic, well-liked and respected, focused and remarkably effective in mobilizing an institution's resources to achieve target results. His highest priorities are strengthening the University's endowment, growing enrollment to optimum levels, and engendering an atmosphere for excellence among all constituencies. He has focused on establishing strong relationships with members and organizations within UNH's circle of constituents – faculty, students, administrators, alumni, friends, campus neighbors and leaders of Connecticut's business and public service communities.

As president, he oversees a faculty of nearly 400, 530 staff, and an annual budget of $84 million.

Previously, Dr. Kaplan was chancellor and professor of English at the University of Virginia's College at Wise, Virginia, the only four-year branch campus of the University of Virginia and one of the nation's best public colleges, according to U. S. News & World Report.

Dr. Kaplan began his teaching career in 1982 as an Instructor of English at the University of Maryland, European Division. From 1985-1989, he served as Visiting Lecturer in American Studies at Eberhard-Karls Universitat, Tübingen, Germany – one of the oldest and most highly regarded universities in Europe. After completing his doctoral studies at Eberhard-Karls Universität, he returned to the U.S. to teach English at the University of Southern Colorado. Within three years, he was made department chair, serving in that capacity for two years before becoming Director of the Center for International Studies.

Dr. Kaplan also served as dean of Arts and Humanities at SUNY College at Buffalo, an institution with about 11,000 students; and as Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Butler University, an independent comprehensive institution of five colleges and 3,400 students, which is ranked by U. S. News & World Report as one of the top regional universities in the Midwest.

He completed his Ph.D. in Comparative Literature at Eberhard-Karls Universität in Germany and holds the Master of Arts degree (with a concentration in philosophy, German, and English), also from Eberhard-Karls Universitat. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Dr. Kaplan is the author of a book on American translations of the poetry of Rainer Maria Rilke, a number of scholarly essays, a book on Tim O'Brien's fiction with the University of South Carolina Press, and an anthology of international war stories with the University Press of Colorado.

Dr. Kaplan and his wife, Anemone Schweizer-Kaplan, are both ardent opera buffs and love to ballroom dance, hike, and downhill ski. They share a great love for the visual and performing arts and have traveled to over twenty-five countries in twenty-five years, including Tanzania where they hiked up Mt. Kilimanjaro. They have a son and three daughters

Dr. Kaplan grew up in Chicago, the son of a shoe store owner and an actress-comedienne. He said his stepfather, Irving Glovin, taught him to love ideas and appreciate the contributions we all need to make to good causes. He was a good friend of Oskar Schindler, was instrumental in getting the story out in book and film form (associate producer of the film), and is the President of the Oskar Schindler Humanitarian Foundation. Dr. Kaplan also serves on the board of the foundation.

His wife grew up in Southwest Germany. She holds the equivalent of an American M.A. in Secondary Education and taught at a German high school. She is a ceramics artist and taught German and pottery during their time in Wise.

Deborah Chin, Associate Vice President, Director of Athletics and Recreation

Deborah Chin became the school's fourth director of athletics in 1993, and currently oversees a department which sponsors 17 NCAA Division II varsity sports. She was elected to the prestigious position of Chair for the NCAA's Division II Management Council for 2008.

UNH Athletics has enjoyed a high level of success across the board during Chin's tenure as Director of Athletics, advancing to NCAA tournament play 50 times in 14-plus years. UNH has recently made a number of capital improvements to athletic and recreational facilities, including the construction of the multi-million dollar David A. Beckerman Student Recreation Center, a $1.3 million synthetic turf renovation of Kayo Field (soccer and lacrosse), as well as installation of state-of-the-art blue and yellow synthetic turf at the new Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium. Chin spearheaded efforts to re-instate football as a varsity program and find UNH a new athletics conference that best fits the institution's long-term academic and athletic aspirations. Both goals were accomplished when UNH announced on November 13, 2007 that it had been accepted as a full member of the prestigious Northeast-10 Conference, effective the 2008-09 academic year. The Charger football team will return to the gridiron for the 2009 season.

A member of the University of New Haven staff since 1975, Chin began her UNH career as Coordinator of Women's Athletics. She was responsible for starting the women's intercollegiate athletic program at UNH, coaching volleyball, tennis, basketball and softball in the early years. Chin eventually surrendered all head coaching responsibilities, except volleyball, when she was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics in 1979.

Among her numerous honors, Chin was named the NACWAA NCAA Division II Administrator of the Year in 2009 after serving as the D-II Management Council Chair. In 2007, the Connecticut Sportswriters' Alliance presented Chin with the Gold Key Award, the state's top sporting honor which recognizes significant contributions to athletics in the State of Connecticut. Chin won the NACDA/Continental Airlines Athletic Director of the Year for the Northeast Region in 1998-99 and was awarded the NACWAA Josten's District I Administrator of the Year Award in 1997. Chin won the National Association for Girls and Women in Sports Presidential Award in March 1997 and was the Connecticut Post Woman of the Year in 1993. Chin has also earned the U.S. Volleyball Association Meritorious Service Award and the YMCA Women in Leadership Award.

As head women's volleyball coach, Chin fashioned a Hall of Fame resume - literally - earning induction into the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Hall of Fame in December, 2006. Chin is also a member of the Connecticut Volleyball Hall of Fame (Inducted October, 1998), the Connecticut Women's Basketball Hall of Fame (April, 1999), and the Athletics Hall of Fame at her alma mater, SUNY-Cortland.

In a 19-year career (1975-93) as head coach for the Chargers, she posted a 578-179 record (.764) and was at that time only the fifth Division II coach to win 500 career matches. The Chargers made 10 trips to the NCAA tournament during Chin's reign, reaching the top five four times. Her awards include six AVCA Northeast Region Coach of the Year distinctions as well as eight New England Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year honors. Chin coached the Chargers to twelve 30-win seasons, including six straight. She is also recognized internationally as a top volleyball clinician.

As an administrator, Chin has served on over 30 national and regional committees.
