PURPLE EAGLES HAVE WON TWO OF THE LAST THREE AT GALLAGHER

After a two-week break, the Niagara Purple Eagles resume play against the Siena Saints on February 20-21 at 12 p.m. inside of the Gallagher Center. For the February 20 game, Niagara and Siena have joined forces for a virtual sellout campaign in an effort to help offset the financial challenges incurred by both athletic departments over the past year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

SCENE SETTER

- The Purple Eagles' series with Siena will be their first games since their series with Monmouth on January 29-30 due to a previously scheduled bye week and a COVID-19 related pause.
- NU split its two-game series with the Monmouth Hawks. After falling 77-67 on January 29, the Purple Eagles bounced back with an 83-74 win on January 30.
- Niagara has won two of the last three meetings with Siena at home dating back to the 2016-17 season.
- The Purple Eagles and Saints split last season's series with each team protecting home court. Niagara erased a double-digit first half deficit to edge Siena, 72-71 on January 19. The Saints used an early second half run to pull away for a 77-55 win on March 4 at the Times Union Center.

GREG PAULUS

HEAD COACH

Second Season At Niagara

19-29/2nd Season Overall, 15-19 MAAC

Greg Paulus is highly regarded in college athletics for his dedication to the holistic development of student-athletes. His stellar resume includes eight NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament appearances as a player and a coach.

Paulus, who developed his craft after 14 years of playing and coaching at some of the most prestigious programs in collegiate athletics, joined the Purple Eagles staff in May 2019 as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. He was named Niagara University men's basketball head coach in November 2019.

Paulus made the 2019-20 Purple Eagles one of the most competitive teams in the MAAC. The Purple Eagles surpassed preseason predictions with Paulus having the Purple Eagles contending near the top of the conference all season and winning ten games against conference opponents. Niagara won a game in the MAAC Tournament for the first time in three seasons after beating Marist in the first round.

The Purple Eagles ranked statistically in the top-25 in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (10.6), in fewest total turnovers (338), in turnover margin (3.3) and 3-point field goal percentage (.372), while leading the MAAC in all four categories. Niagara had the best assist-to-turnover ratio (1.13) in the MAAC as well. Under Paulus' tutelage, sophomore Marcus Hammond had a career-season en route to being named to the All-MAAC First Team.

Paulus' accomplishments during his maiden voyage as a head coach were recognized by the college basketball industry as he was the recipient of the 2019-20 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year Award which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in NCAA Division I college basketball.

It was a record-setting 2019-20 academic campaign for the Purple Eagles which started with the team earning a 3.4 GPA in the summer of 2019. The Purple Eagles followed with a then-record 3.18 GPA in the fall semester. The spring semester welcomed another record-setting GPA as the Purple Eagles posted a 3.42 GPA with 11 student-athletes earning a GPA of 3.0 or higher. Eight Purple Eagles earned 2019-20 MAAC Academic Honor Roll accolades for having a cumulative grade-point average of 3.2 or higher. Justin Roberts and Steven Levnaic garnered MAAC All-Academic Team honors at the end of the season.

The program was recognized for its outstanding academic year with the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Team Academic Excellence Award. The award honors programs that had a grade-point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher for the 2019-20 season; the Purple Eagles finished with a 3.3 GPA.

The Purple Eagles were active in the local community as they practiced the university's mission of community service. The team sponsored a family during the holiday season through Community Missions of Niagara Frontier, and volunteered at the Magdalene Project at St. George's Church in Niagara Falls at Thanksgiving.

Paulus, who started at point guard for legendary college basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski at Duke University, previously served on the coaching staff at George Washington, Louisville, Ohio State, and Navy.

Paulus was recognized by the NABC 30-Under-30 program and has attended nationally recognized leadership development programs like Villa 7, Ethics Coalition Coaches Academy, and the 2019 Collegiate Coaching Consortium.

Paulus had a successful four-year playing career at Duke (2005-09). A three-year starter and two-time captain for Duke, he played on three ACC Championship teams and four NCAA Tournament teams, helping Duke to a combined 112-28 record while leading the team in assists in 2006, 2007 and 2008.

As a freshman in 2006, Paulus was a member of the ACC All-Freshman First Team, the ACC All-Tournament Second Team and a second-team freshman All-American while averaging 6.7 points and 5.2 assists. He is one of just four freshmen in ACC history to lead the league in assists. He scored 1,193 career points at Duke and ranks among the career top 10 in assists (468), three-point field goals (210) and three-point field goal percentage (.398).

Paulus spent the 2009-10 season at Syracuse as a graduate student transfer on the football team where he was the starting quarterback and captain. He passed for 2,024 yards and 13 touchdowns in 12 games. His 67.7 completion percentage (193-of-285) is a Syracuse single-season record.

Paulus earned ACC All-Academic Team accolades on three occasions and was a two-time Academic All-American Third Team selection. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science with a certificate in markets and management studies in 2009. He earned a master's degree in Television, Radio and Film from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse in 2010, earning 2009 Big East All-Academic Team honors.

Paulus was named the Gatorade High School Football Player of the Year (2004) and the Gatorade High School Male Athlete of the Year (2005) at Christian Brothers Academy. Other recipients of the Gatorade Male Athlete of the Year award are LeBron James (2003), Dwight Howard (2004), Kevin Love (2006), Matt Barkley (2008) and Kyler Murray (2015).

A native of Syracuse, N.Y., Greg and his wife, Megan, have a son named Preston and a daughter named Whitney.

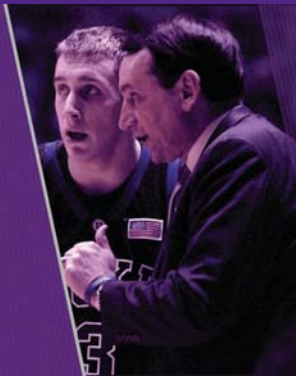

2020-21 NIAGARA UNIVERSITY MEN'S BASKETBALL

Greg Paulus will do an excellent job at Niagara. He was born to coach. In addition to being a star student-athlete from that part of the country, Greg has worked as an assistant at outstanding schools and under terrific mentors. All of that experience will serve him well as he embarks on this professional journey. We are proud of Greg and his family, and firmly believe he is ready for this opportunity.

I'm thrilled for Greg to have this incredible opportunity, one he's certainly earned. As a player, his passion and basketball IQ were immediately evident to thousands in the arena and millions more on television. It takes a special combination of talent, character and leadership to play both point guard and quarterback at any level, let alone Power-5. Throughout his career he's learned from, and been mentored by, some of the best coaches in our sport. I have no doubt he will be great for Niagara, and I'm excited to watch him lead the program to new heights.
