Oklahoma 84, Niagara 67Tucson, Ariz.

Niagara made its long-awaited second trip to the NCAA Tournament when it was named the No. 14 seed in the Austin Region.

As the underdog against No. 3 seed Oklahoma, Niagara hung tough in the first half, using a late 12-2 run to trail 37-34 at halftime. The Purple Eagles came within one point, 44-43, early in the second stanza, but the Sooners went on a 12-2 run of their own putting the game out of reach.

ALL-TIME GREATS

John J. 'Taps' Gallagher

"The Gentleman's Coach"

The tradition of Niagara basketball was established by the work of John J. 'Taps' Gallagher, who toiled 31 seasons as head coach and 35 years as director of athletics.

Gallagher came to Niagara after a spectacular career as a three-sport athlete at St. John's University and three years of coaching at St. John's Prep. The New York City connections of the Brooklyn-born Gallagher were a critical element in his recruiting and helped put Niagara on the map with regard to scheduling. Not only did Niagara make an annual trip to the city, but also his relationship was a key element in getting a rotation of opponents through Buffalo as part of their trip to the East.

He led Niagara to a winning mark in 11 of his first 12 years, compiling a 165-89 record. His 1935-36 squad was Niagara's first to participate in postseason play, winning the District I title in the Tournament for the U.S. Olympic Team. During World War II, Niagara suspended play in 1943 and Gallagher enlisted in the U.S. Navy where he rose to the rank of Lieutenant Commander. He returned to campus in 1946, missing two seasons of play.

The basketball program resumed its winning ways and earned its first National Invitation Tournament bid in 1950. Niagara would make seven trips to Madison Square Garden for the NIT in Gallagher's tenure, recording its best finish under Gallagher in 1954 when the Purple Eagles lost to Duquesne in the semifinals and beat Western Kentucky to finish third. Led by senior Larry Costello, the 1953-54 squad recorded 24 wins.

Gallagher was a proponent of the Little Three and often bypassed attractive scheduling opportunities to continue the rivalries with Canisius and St. Bonaventure. He took great pride in the 11 Little Three titles earned during his tenure.

Gallagher was able to use his influence to get Niagara invited to some of the most prestigious basketball tournaments in the country, including the All-College Tournament in Oklahoma City and the Quaker City Tournament in Philadelphia.

Gallagher had acquired the reputation as the "Gentleman Coach" as he combined sportsmanship and competitiveness in a way that was rarely seen. In 1962, he was presented the Sam Schoenfield Award from the college basketball officials association for his sportsmanship.

He retired from coaching in 1965 with a record of 465 wins and 261 losses for an outstanding .640 winning percentage. His 31 years as head coach ranks 18th in NCAA Division I history. His 465 wins ranked 12th in the NCAA history at retirement and now is 79th on the all-time NCAA Division I list.

Gallagher remained as director of athletics until retirement in 1969. He passed away in 1982 at the age of 77. Three months later, the Niagara Student Center was renamed in his honor as the John J. 'Taps' Gallagher

Cradle of Coaches

Through the years, Niagara's coaching ledger has read like a who's who of great basketball minds. The three coaches listed here coached or played on Monteagle Ridge and professionally. Their predecessors laid the foundation for Niagara basketball, however these men are widely regarded for the school's most successful hoop years.

All three coaches that are listed below, played during one of the most successful times in Purple Eagle history, and learned under the legendary 'John 'Taps' Gallagher, during the early 50's.

Larry Costello
1950-54 player

The outstanding player on the 1952-53 and 1953-54 teams, which included four other NBA draft picks (Bo Erias, Jim McConnell, Charlie Hoxe and Ed Fleming), was guard Larry Costello. The 1954 graduate finished his Niagara career as the all-time leading scorer with 1,275 points in just three seasons. He was named to the 1953 and 1954 National Invitation Tournament All-Star teams.

Costello was drafted by the Philadelphia Warriors and played two seasons. He then played 11 years with the Syracuse Nationals, five in Syracuse and the last six in Philadelphia as a 76er. In 1967, the 76ers won the NBA Finals. He retired in 1968.

Immediately, the expansion Milwaukee Bucks named the 38-year-old as its first head coach. The Bucks selected Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) with the first pick in the 1969 draft and added veteran Oscar Robertson. The team immediately became a competitor in the NBA, winning the 1971 NBA title in a four-game sweep. The Bucks returned to the NBA Finals in 1974, losing to Boston in a seven-game series.

Costello ended his coaching career in Milwaukee 18 games into the 1976-77 season. He coached the first part of the 1978-79 season for the Chicago Bulls, ending his NBA career with 430 victories, which ranked sixth at the time. He returned to coaching as the head coach at Utica College. Costello, who had his number 69 retired by Niagara, died in 2001.

Hubie Brown
1951-55 player

In 1972, Costello hired his former teammate, Hubie Brown, as an assistant. Brown spent two seasons on Costello's staff, then left to coach the American Basketball Association's Kentucky Colonels for two seasons, guiding them to the 1975 ABA Championship and to the 1976 ABA semifinals. After the season, Brown was hired as the head coach of the Atlanta Hawks, which he led to three playoff appearances in five years. His turnaround effort in 1977-78, when the team finished 41-41 after a 31-51 record the previous year, earned Brown NBA Coach of the Year honors. Brown continued his coaching career as the head man of the New York Knicks from 1982 to 1987. He led the Knicks to playoff appearances in 1983 and 1984.

After he left the Knicks, Brown had an outstanding broadcasting career, with both CBS and TNT. For his outstanding contributions to basketball as a member of the media, Brown was awarded the Basketball Hall of Fame's Curt Gowdy Electronic Media Award in 2000.

Brown returned to the sideline in the 2002-03 season as the head coach of the Memphis Grizzlies. In 2003-04, Brown was named the NBA Coach of the Year and guided the Grizzlies to the playoffs for the first time in five seasons.

Brown capped his career when he was selected to the Basketball Hall of Fame as a contributor in 2005.

Frank Layden
1951-53 player
1969-1975 coach

The third member of the coaching tridum also got his professional start courtesy of a teammate. Frank Layden was coaching even before he left Niagara, overseeing the 1954-55 freshman team for coach 'Taps' Gallagher. He coached at the high school level and then returned to Niagara as the head basketball coach in 1968. He led the Purple Eagles to their NCAA Tournament appearance in 1970, including a first-round win over Pennsylvania. His teams earned NIT berths in 1972 and 1976. Layden also left Niagara in 1976 with 119 career wins, second at the time to only Gallagher.

Layden joined Brown's first-year staff at Atlanta where he coached for three seasons before the New Orleans Jazz hired him as general manager in 1979. After the team moved to Utah, he added responsibilities as head coach in early 1981-82, a position he held for eight seasons until early in the 1988-89 campaign. He won a division title in 1983-84 and was named both NBA Coach of the Year and Executive of the Year. His Jazz made a run of five-straight playoff seasons.

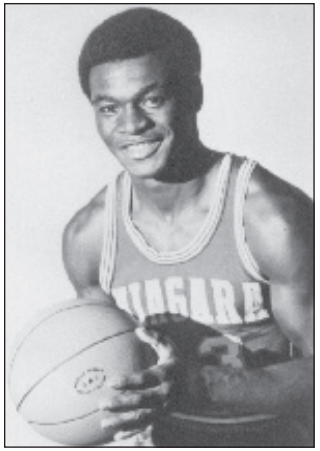

After he finished his coaching career, he remained as

$ - NBA Coach of the Year

Calvin Murphy

His name has become synonymous with Niagara basketball. The 5-foot-9 guard from Norwalk, Conn., came to Niagara after a renowned high school career that included three all-state selections and two all-America honors. He averaged 49.8 points for the Niagara freshmen, playing before capacity crowds in the Student Center.

As a sophomore, he broke the Niagara single-game scoring record in his first varsity game with 41 points vs. Long Island in the Student Center and went on to average 38.2 points per game, second in the nation and third-best in NCAA history to that point. The average still ranks eighth-best all-time. He was selected to the Associated Press second team, United Press International (UPI), U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Converse Yearbook First-Team All-America Teams.

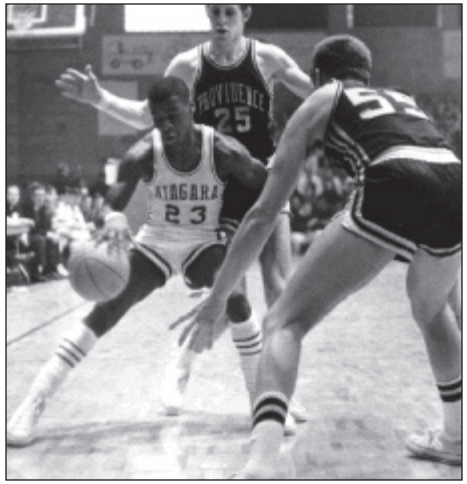

As a junior, he set the national scoring mark against a Division I opponent with 68 points in a 118-110 win over Syracuse in the Student Center. The scoring effort still ranks third in NCAA history. He finished the year third in the nation in scoring at 32.4 points per game and had already set the Niagara career scoring mark. He earned first-team positions on 13 All-America teams, including Associated Press, UPI, Look Magazine and Basketball Weekly.

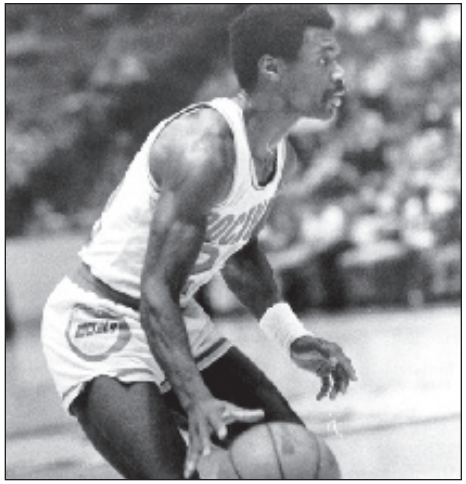

His senior season, Murphy led Niagara to 20 wins and its first NCAA Tournament appearance. Niagara (22-7) upset Pennsylvania in the first round, 79-69, before bowing to Villanova and North Carolina State. Murphy averaged 29.4 points per game in his final season and finished with 2,548 points in his three-year career, the fifth-highest total in major college history at that point. His career scoring average of 33.2 points per game still ranks fourth in NCAA history behind Pete Maravich (LSU), Austin Carr (Notre Dame) and Oscar Robertson (Cincinnati).

In addition to being an outstanding collegiate basketball player, Murphy was also one of the finest baton twirlers in the country. During the World's Fair in New York, he was selected as second in the nation.

Murphy was a second-round draft choice of the Houston Rockets, where he played for 13 seasons, setting the Houston career records for points (17,949), games played (1,002), assists (4,402) and steals (1,165). More than 20 years later, he still holds the franchise assist record and ranks second in the other three categories.

Niagara and the Rockets have retired his number 23. He was inducted into the

Emilio J. (Zeke) Sinacola

1948-51 ~ New York City, N.Y.

Sinacola became the first Niagara player to pass the 1,000-career point mark, finishing his career with 1,188 points to set a Western New York scoring record. Sinacola played some of his best basketball in his hometown. After his sophomore season, he was selected as the outstanding visiting player to appear at Madison Square Garden during the 1948-49 campaign after leading Niagara to a 66-64 win over C.C.N.Y. Sinacola hit the game-winning shot with 23 seconds to play in overtime. The Purple Eagles knocked C.C.N.Y. off again his junior year, earning national recognition and eventually a 1950 NIT bid, Niagara's first. In his senior year, Sinacola gave another sterling performance at MSG, scoring 29 points in a 77-75 upset of St. John's. The Fort Wayne Pistons selected him in the 1951 NBA draft, where he played until 1953-54.

The numbers of Sinacola (19), Tom Birch (11) and Jim Moran (21) were retired immediately following their senior season in 1951 after the trio carried Niagara to a 62-24 record over their three varsity years.

Moran, who led the nation in field-goal accuracy as a junior, became the team's top rebounder by his senior year. Birch was a strong playmaker and was among the national leaders as a senior. As sophomores, the trio combined for 49 of Niagara's 62 points in a 62-59 win over nationally ranked Dayton at the Buffalo Auditorium. Niagara upset Syracuse in the 1950-51 season before the largest crowd of the year at the State Fair Coliseum, 71-70. Sinacola led all scorers with 23.

In their final game in the Aud, Birch gave a stellar display of killing the clock and was carried off the court after a 51-46 victory before 12,165. Even the losses were exciting. For example, in 1949-50, Niagara hosted San Francisco, the defending NIT champs, at the Aud and lost a tight game, 52-48. A year later, Niagara pushed top-ranked Bradley before falling, 78-74.

The trio were key players for coach Taps Gallagher as he returned to Monteagle Ridge from service in the U.S. Navy and re-established himself as a master recruiter and coach.

Gallagher never used those numbers again, but no official record was kept of the retired numbers. Number 11 returned to use in 1967; number 21 in 1990. Jim Moran brought the forgotten honor of the retired numbers to Niagara's attention in 1999, but Luis Villafañe was already using number 11. After he completed his final season, the numbers have not been used.

Baltico "Bo" S. Erias

1951-54 ~ Austoria, Long Island, N.Y.

Playing with outstanding fellow players, Bo Erias was called upon to sacrifice individual achievement for team success. And success came their way with a 46-12 combined record over his final two varsity seasons, including two NIT bids.

As a junior, the 6-4 power player hit several key baskets in overtime to lead Niagara to an 82-76 win over Brigham Young in the 1953 NIT, marking Niagara's first NIT win. He finished with 12 points. As a senior, he had 13 points as part of Niagara's balanced attack in a 76-66 win over No. 5 La Salle. In the 1954 NIT Tournament, Erias had a team-high 20 points to pace Niagara to a 77-74 win over Dayton in the second round. In the final game of his career, Erias tallied a team-best 21 points in a 71-65 win over Western Kentucky in the consolation championship game of the NIT. After graduation, he was selected in the fifth round of the 1954 NBA draft by Rochester. He played part of the 1957-58 NBA season with Minneapolis.

Ed Fleming

1951-55 ~ Pittsburgh, Pa.

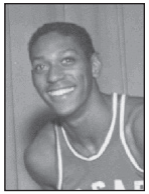

Ed Fleming left Niagara as its all-time leading scorer and still ranks fifth on the career scoring list. He helped Niagara to an amazing 66-18 record over his three years, and earned three-straight NIT bids and retired the Flight Memorial Trophy by winning the Little Three title for three-straight years.

As a sophomore, the 6-2 guard played all 70 minutes of Niagara's 88-81 six-overtime win vs. Siena. He changed his number to 70 for his final two seasons. That same year, Fleming led a balanced Niagara attack with 19 points in a 74-66 win over No. 5 La Salle, overcoming a 25-point effort by Explorer All-American Tom Gola. Fleming almost made it two in a row over Gola and the Explorers when he scored 32 points against La Salle in the 1954-55 season, but the top-ranked La Salle squad won, 76-75. Fleming exploded offensively the final semester of his senior year, including a 38-point effort in a win over St. Bonaventure, a 25-point night in a win over St. John's at Madison Square Garden and 28 points in the first-round NIT win over Lafayette. When he graduated, Fleming held the Niagara career records for points (1,682), field goals (605), free throws (472) and rebounds (975). He was selected in the third round of the 1955 NBA draft by Rochester and played six seasons in the NBA.

Charles Hoxie

1951-55 ~ New York City, N.Y.

Charlie Hoxie played on some of the most talented Niagara teams, combining with Ed Fleming to provide a one-two rebounding punch. Fleming (975) and Hoxie (916) each grabbed more than 900 career rebounds. As seniors, Fleming and Hoxie combined with Tom Hemans to lead the nation in team rebounding. He scored 1,274 career points, which currently ranks 23rd on the all-time scoring list.

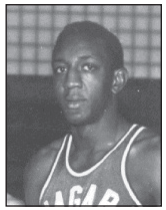

Hoxie helped lead Niagara to a combined record of 66-18 in his three seasons, earning three NIT bids and three Little Three Championships. As a sophomore, the 6-4 forward tallied 23 points to help Niagara to its first NIT victory, an 82-76 win over Brigham Young. As a junior, he returned to Madison Square Garden and again tallied 23 points to help Niagara to a 69-50 win over La Salle in the semifinals of the eight-team Holiday Festival.

After college, the Milwaukee Hawks selected him in the NBA draft. He elected to play for the Globetrotters. The Globetrotters were playing more games than the entire eight-team NBA. The annual "World Series of Basketball" was a best of 21-game series between the College All-Americans and the Globetrotters. In 1956, the Globetrotters won for the seventh-straight year by a narrow, 11-10 edge before 203,615 fans. Hoxie was named the series MVP for the Globetrotters.

Alex (Boo) Ellis

1955-58 ~ Hamilton, Ohio

Alex "Boo" Ellis became a rebounding and scoring force during his three years with the Niagara varsity. He left Monteagle Ridge first in career rebounds with 1,533 and second in scoring with 1,656 points. He remains the rebounding record holder and currently ranks sixth in scoring. The 6-5 center averaged 20.9 points and 19.4 rebounds per game during his three-year career.

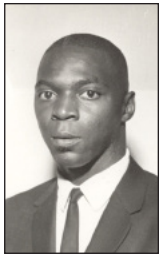

A rebounding machine, Ellis set the Niagara single-season mark as a sophomore with 485, broke it as a junior with 522 and again as a senior when he led the nation with 526 rebounds. Ellis set the Niagara single-game record during his junior year when he grabbed 31 boards in a 99-76 win over Villanova in the Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden. Later that year, he returned to his native Ohio and scored 31 points with 31 rebounds in a 95-83 win over Kent State. During his junior year, he set both the Niagara single-season scoring (631) and rebounding (522) records.

As a senior, he was selected as the Western New York Athlete of the Year. He was also the MVP of the All-College Tournament in Oklahoma City when he scored 84 points (28.0 per game) with 75 rebounds in the three games against Western Kentucky, San Francisco and Tulsa. Niagara won the consolation championship in the eight-team field. Niagara twice earned NIT bids in his career, losing to St. Francis in 1956 and eventual champion Xavier in 1958.

Al Butler

1958-61 ~ Rochester, N.Y.

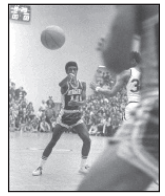

A strong scoring threat, Al Butler left Niagara with the best career scoring average at 22.8 points per game, a mark that has been surpassed only by Calvin Murphy. During his junior year, Butler hit a jump shot with two seconds to play to lead Niagara to an 81-80 overtime win past Syracuse. He tied the Student Center record with 34 points. He would break that record later in the season with 49 points in a 93-59 romp over Western Ontario, setting Niagara, Little Three and Student Center scoring marks. He had outstanding back-to-back games, scoring 39 in a win over Duquesne, then 38 in a loss to Seton Hall at the Garden.

In his senior year, Butler led the Niagara charge at the Olean Armory when Niagara ended the St. Bonaventure home court win streak at 99 with an 87-77 upset win. Butler led Niagara with 25 points. Following his career, Butler was a second-round choice of the Boston Celtics. He played four seasons in the NBA with Boston, New York and Baltimore.

Marshall Wingate

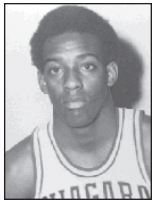

1969-72 ~ New York City, N.Y.

One of the top 10 Niagara scorers of all-time, Marshall Wingate surpassed the 1,000-point mark for his career in a 73-72 win over Canisius in his senior season. The 6-5 swing player was a key figure on coach Frank Layden's 1972 team that advanced to the NIT finals. He and teammate Al Williams led the team over Texas-El Paso in the first-round game. He scored 20 to help Niagara defeat Princeton, 65-60, to extend Niagara's stay in New York. After a semifinal win over St. John's, Niagara lost to Maryland in the title game despite a 30-point effort from Wingate in his final collegiate game. He had scored 92 points in Niagara's four-game tournament run. The 617 points scored his senior season remains one of the top 10 performances in Niagara history. His 17.1 career scoring average also ranks in the top 10. Wingate was a fourth-round choice of the Philadelphia 76ers in the 1972 NBA draft.

Al Williams
1970-73 ~ Hempstead, N.Y.

The shifty 5-10 guard helped to lead Niagara to its best finish ever in the NIT, a runner-up award in 1972, plus he left Niagara with its all-time assist record. Williams played a key role in Niagara's run in the 1972 NIT, guiding the team in scoring in the opening win over Texas-El Paso, then hitting two free throws with one second to play in the 69-67 win over St. John's in the semifinals. Williams finished his junior season with 136 assists, which was second only to Calvin Murphy's 140 from his senior year at that point. He was named to the 1971-72 UPI Small America First Team. During Williams' senior season, he set a then single-game record with 14 assists in an 84-74 loss to South Carolina. His 165 assists as a senior set a Niagara record and still ranks fifth on the all-time list.

Andrew Walker
1972-76 Player, 1985-89 Coach
Long Island City, N.Y.

Andrew Walker has accounted for 110 Niagara basketball victories, 51 in four seasons as a player and 59 in four seasons as the head coach. As a player, the 6-4 scorer tallied 1,620 career points over his four-year career. His 678 career field goals ranks fourth on the all-time list. He played for coach Frank Layden's final four years on Monteagle Ridge, and, as a senior, helped the Purple Eagles upset St. Bonaventure in the ECAC Upstate Playoffs, and earned a 1976 NIT bid. Niagara lost to Kentucky in the opening round.

As a coach, Walker led Niagara to the 1987 NIT, where it knocked off Seton Hall in the first round, then dropped an 89-81 decision to La Salle. It was Niagara's first postseason bid since his senior year. In 1988, Walker's team advanced to Niagara's only North Atlantic Conference title game in its seven years as a league member. Niagara lost to Boston University in the title game.

Phil Scaffidi
1976-80 ~ Amherst, N.Y.

No one player captured the spirit and determination of the Niagara community more than No. 3, Phil Scaffidi. He came to campus after a two-year stint in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization as a hard-nosed, gritty player from St. Joseph's Collegiate. The 6-0 guard had a knack for hitting big shots during his career. As captain of the 1978-79 team, he was on his way to setting the all-time assist record and scoring 1,000 career points in his senior year when he entered a Buffalo hospital with kidney-liver problems and tests indicated cancer. He underwent an operation in Colorado and was treated at Buffalo's Roswell Park Memorial Institute. He was able to return to the court for six games in the 1979-80 campaign. On Jan. 21, 1980, he scored eight points and added two assists to set the Niagara all-time assist mark with 403 and lead Niagara to a 105-91 win over Cleveland State. The U.S. Basketball Writers Association honored him with the 1979-80 Most Courageous Award. He died March 23, 1980, ending a 15-month fight against cancer.

Joe Arlauckas
1983-87 ~ Rochester, N.Y.

The last Niagara player to be selected in a NBA draft, Joe Arlauckas, had an outstanding four-year run on Monteagle Ridge, finishing with 1,610 career points, which stands eighth on the all-time list. Arlauckas set the Niagara blocked shot record with 220 and finished eighth on the career rebounds chart with 815. He was a key part of one of Niagara's biggest wins in recent memory, a 62-59 upset of St. John's in the Niagara Falls Convention Center. The St. John's roster included seven future NBA draft choices, including Chris Mullins and Walter Berry. The Redmen finished the season with four losses, three to Georgetown and one to Niagara.

As a senior, Arlauckas broke his own blocked shot record with nine in a 97-83 win over Kent State. He finished the season with 67 blocks, which was the single-season record (now second). He led Niagara to the 1987 NIT where the Purple Eagles opened with a 74-65 win over Seton Hall before dropping an 89-81 decision to La Salle. A fourth-round choice of the Sacramento Kings after graduation, Arlauckas played briefly in the NBA before embarking on a successful professional career in Spain.

Brian Clifford

1990-93 ~ Woodside, N.Y.

After sitting out his freshman season, the enthusiastic 6-8 forward made the most of his opportunities over his three years of play, averaging a double-double in his sophomore and junior years, and leading the team to its best season since it began conference play as a senior. Clifford, who watched the team struggle to a 6-16 mark during his freshman season, helped the squad to a 23-7 record as a senior, the best Niagara record since the 1953-54 campaign.

Clifford led the team in rebounding all three seasons, averaging a career-best 10.3 points per game as a sophomore. He also led the team in scoring during his sophomore and junior seasons. As a senior, Clifford led Niagara to an 11-3 mark in league play, good for second in the circuit. With two MAAC Tournament wins, Niagara advanced to the conference final for the first time in history, dropping a 68-67 decision to Manhattan despite leading the game for the first 39 minutes and 57 seconds. Niagara was awarded its first postseason bid in six years and lost in the opening round of the 1993 NIT to Boston College.

Clifford was Niagara's first two-time first-team All-MAAC selection, earning the honor as a junior and senior. He finished his career as the first Purple Eagle to surpass 1,000 points, 800 rebounds, 300 assists and 150 steals. Clifford was named to the 1993 MAAC All-Tournament Team and was the 1990-91 MAAC Rookie of the Year. He was an honorable mention 1991-92 All-East pick by Eastern Basketball. Clifford set his career scoring high with 30 points in an 86-68 win over Western Michigan in the Gallagher Center as a senior.

Chris Watson

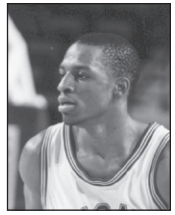

1993-97 ~ White Plains, N.Y.

The 6-7 forward was a consistent scorer since he stepped foot on campus and led the Purple Eagles in scoring in his final three years. He was a 1995-96 first-team All-MAAC choice as a junior and earned second team honors in 1994-95 and 1996-97. He was third in the MAAC in scoring in his junior and senior seasons. Watson scored a career-high 40 points in a 79-77 overtime win past Siena during his junior season. He finished his career with 1,711 career points, fourth in Niagara history behind Calvin Murphy, Juan Mendez and Tremmell Darden, respectively. His career free throw totals (466) and field goal totals (615) rank fifth and sixth on the all-time chart.

Alvin Young

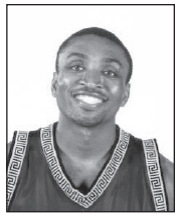

1997-99 ~ Brooklyn, N.Y.

Alvin Young has a story that would make Horatio Alger proud. Cut from his high school basketball team as a freshman at Bishop Loughlin, Young never played in high school, but kept his passion for the game by playing in the Brooklyn playgrounds. He made the most of his opportunity as a college freshman under former Niagara assistant Dick Conover at Mitchell College, a junior college in New London, Conn., by leading the NJCAA Division II in scoring at 29.6 points per game. As a sophomore, he helped Mitchell to a seventh-place finish in the national tournament and was a NJCAA Division II All-American.

At Niagara, he started all 27 games as a junior and earned third-team All-MAAC honors, averaging 15.7 points per game. In his first trip back home as a Division I college player, he tallied a season-best 26 points in an 86-63 win over St. John's at Madison Square Garden. He exploded offensively as a senior and led the nation in scoring at 25.1 points per game, helping Niagara (17-12, 13-5) to a tie for the MAAC regular-season championship. He was named the MAAC Player of the Year. Young scored a career-high 44 points in an 86-82 win over Siena at the Pepsi Arena, which at the time was the highest single-game scoring mark since Calvin Murphy finished re-writing the Niagara record book in 1970. From a player cut from the team and never played high school basketball, to the leading scorer among all NCAA Division I players – now that's a Horatio Alger story, basketball-style.

Demond Stewart

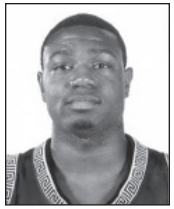

1999-01 ~ Rochester, N.Y.

A transfer to Niagara from Mercyhurst College, Demond Stewart made the most of his two years on Monteagle Ridge, leading the MAAC in scoring in back-to-back years. Stewart enrolled at Niagara, but sat out during the year Alvin Young led the nation in scoring. He jumped right in the following year, averaging 22.9 points per game, seventh-best in the nation. He added 19.6 points per game as a senior, earning MAAC Player of the Year honors. His career scoring average of 21.3 points per game ranks third-best all-time at Niagara, behind Calvin Murphy and Al Butler. He hit 341 free throws in just two years at Niagara, which ranks 10th on the career list.

Daryl Greene

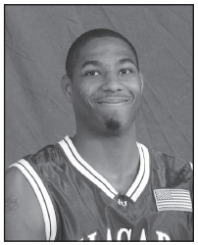

1998-02 ~ Largo, Md.

The 6-foot-1 guard finished his four-year run on Monteagle Ridge as one of the top guards in the program's storied history, finishing in the top 10 all-time in scoring, assists, steals, three-point field goals and three-point accuracy. He led the program to 67 wins over the four years (67-51/.568), Niagara's best four-year run in total wins since the 1968-72 campaigns.

As a sophomore, Greene recorded 144 assists from the point guard spot, the 10th-highest total in Niagara history. He also averaged a career-best 17.5 points per game, including a career-best 33 points in the MAAC Tournament semifinal loss to Siena at the Pepsi Arena.

After an injury-plagued junior season, Greene returned to offensive form as a senior, hitting 81 three-pointers, second best in Niagara history. He earned first team All-MAAC honors and his second selection to the MAAC All-Tournament Team. He helped Niagara to two tournament wins and its first MAAC final appearance in nine years.

Tremmell Darden

2000-04 ~ Las Vegas, Nev.

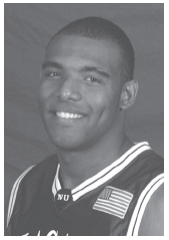

The 6-foot-4 forward finished his illustrious Purple Eagle career with 1,729 points, currently good for fourth on the school's all-time list, behind other NU greats Calvin Murphy, teammate Juan Mendez and Charron Fisher. Darden earned Second Team All-MAAC honors as a junior and a senior after claiming third team accolades as a sophomore.

Darden played in two MAAC Championship games, and helped the 2003-04 team earn an NIT berth. The Purple Eagles defeated Troy State in the opening round before falling at Nebraska. The forward scored 26 points in the win over Troy State and totaled 62 points in the MAAC Tournament during his senior campaign, earning MAAC All-Tournament Team honors.

Darden was half of the Purple Eagles' one-two punch during his junior and senior seasons, where he totaled over 1,000 points in those two seasons alone. He teamed up with Mendez to score 2,267 points in just 61 games.

Juan Mendez

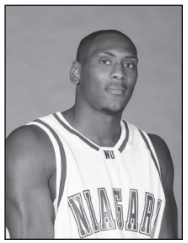

2001-05 ~ Montreal, Que.

Juan Mendez rewrote the Niagara record books during his four seasons on Monteagle Ridge. The 6-foot-8 forward led the Purple Eagles to the second NCAA Tournament berth in school history while amassing over 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds. He ranks in the top five in seven career categories, including points, rebounds and blocks.

The 2005 MAAC Player of the Year averaged 23.5 points and 10.6 rebounds per game during his senior season while leading NU to the MAAC Championship. Mendez scored 23 points with 13 rebounds in the championship victory over Rider, to earn MAAC Tournament MVP and propel the squad into its second-straight postseason berth, and just the second NCAA Tournament in school history. That season he also landed on the AP All-American Honorable Mention Team. During his career, Mendez was named First-Team All-MAAC a record three times.

Mendez was half of the Purple Eagles' one-two punch during his sophomore and junior seasons, where he totaled over 1,350 points in those two seasons alone. He teammed up with Tremmell Darden to score 2,267 points in just 61 games. The Purple eagles made it to the NIT during Mendez' junior season.

Charron Fisher

2004-08 ~ Pennsauken, N.J.

Charron Fisher ended his outstanding Niagara career ranked in the top 10 in 17 statistical categories, including ranking third in career points. Due to injuries, the 6-foot-4 forward was only able to play a full season during his senior year, while still pouring in 1,799 career points.

During the 2007-08 season, Fisher led the nation in scoring throughout the year, and finsihed the season one-tenth of a point behind the scoring champion. Fisher etched his name in the NU record books with his scoring totals, including notching back-to-back 40-point games during the regular season. His 46 points at Loyola was one point off the MAAC record, but bested the Niagara conference record by one point. The two-time First Team All-MAAC selection was a threat both inside and outside.

As a junior, Fisher returned to the lineup and helped turn a 1-7 start without him into one of the most successful seasons in school history. The 2006-07 Purple eagles became the third team in school history to make it to the NCAA Tournament after winning the 2007 MAAC Championship. The Purple Eagles won the opening round game against Florida A&M, behind 13 points and eight boards from Fisher and moved on to play top-seeded Kansas.

Tyrone Lewis

2006-10 ~ Levittown, Pa.

Tyrone Lewis made an instant impact to the Purple Eagle basketball program as a freshman en route to having one of the best careers in program history. Lewis became first the freshman in conference history to earn MAAC Tournament MVP as he helped lead Niagara to the 2007 MAAC title. The Purple Eagles earned their third NCAA Tournament appearance and defeated Florida A&M, 77-69, in the opening round for the program's first win in the NCAA Tournament in 37 years. Niagara advanced to the next round where it faced No. 1 Kansas and was eliminated. Lewis' four steals in the game are the most by a Purple Eagle in an NCAA Tournament game. He followed his freshman year by earning All-MAAC Second Team honors in 2008 after starting in all 29 games while averaging 16.1 ppg and 4.2 rpg.

Lewis' breakout season was his junior campaign. Lewis earned First-Team All-MAAC, NABC All-District I Second Team and MAAC Defensive Player of the Year honors helping the team to 26 wins, the second-most in program history. In the season-opening win over Towson, Lewis blocked eight shots which are the most by a guard, by a junior and second most in a game in program history. He etched his named in the defensive record book as he set the Niagara then-single-season record with 91 steals and 2.6 steals per game, while leading the conference in steals.

Offensively, Lewis averaged 16.2 ppg and was a threat from behind the arc. He connected on at least one 3-pointer in 34 of 35 games, including a stretch of 29-straight, and made multiple 3's in 29 games. Lewis set the school single-season record with 99 3-pointers and led the MAAC. His most dramatic 3-pointer of the season came during the 2009 MAAC Championship Semifinal versus Rider. With NU trailing by three, Lewis banked in a 30-footer to tie the game with 1.7 seconds remaining in regulation. The Purple Eagles would win in double overtime for their 26th of the season. Lewis completed his senior season by earning All-MAAC Second Team recognition and was named to the 2010 Mid-Major Defensive All-America Team.

Lewis is third all-time in scoring (1,849), first in steals (250) and 3-pointers made (290), eighth in blocks (76) and ninth in free throws made (395). Lewis finished his career as the only player in MAAC history to record 1,500 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists and 200 steals. He totaled 1,849 points, 523 boards, 222 assists and 250 steals while adding 290 3-pointers.

Anthony Nelson

2007-11 ~ Plainfield, N.J.

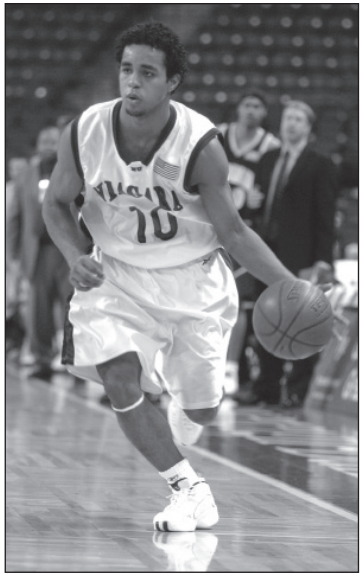

Anthony Nelson became the first player in program and Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) history to have at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 600 assists and 200 steals in his career. After gradually rising through the record books from his freshman to junior seasons, Nelson had a record-setting senior campaign as the lone senior on a young, inexperienced 2010-11 Purple Eagles team. Nelson averaged a career-high 15.0 points per game to lead NU in scoring and his 5.0 rpg were a career-best. On Feb. 6, he recorded the program's first-ever triple-double with 10 points, 10 rebounds and 14 assists in a win over Marist. On Feb. 25, he became Niagara's all-time career assists leader, surpassing Alvin Cruz's 630 assists, and set the single-season steals record.

Nelson was named 2011 MAAC Defensive Player of the Year and earned a spot on the All-MAAC Second Team for his first-ever all-conference team award. Nelson set the school's and conference's single-season steals record with a nation leading 3.4 steals per game. Nelson broke former teammate Tyrone Lewis' records of 2.6 steals per game and 91 total steals set during the 2008-09 season. Lewis became the first Purple Eagle to win the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year award during that season. Nelson's 230 career steals are second behind Lewis' 250. Nelson was named to the 2011 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 1 Second Team to become only the second Purple Eagle to be named to a NABC All-District team, joining Juan Mendez who was named to the first team in 2005. He also earned the Mid-Major Defensive All-America Team honors, joining Lewis as the only Purple Eagles to be named to the Mid-Major Defensive All-America squad.

Nelson's 230 career steals rank second in program history behind Lewis's 250 and his career-high of eight steals on Jan. 9 are tied for second most in program history and tied for sixth most in a single game this season. Nelson finished his career first in assists with 647, second in steals with 230 and with 571 rebounds. He ranks 27th place all-time in scoring with 1215 points.

John J. 'Taps' Gallagher Center

The 2,100-seat John J. "Taps" Gallagher Center means different things to different people. To Purple Eagle fans, it means great atmosphere, roaring crowds and Niagara victories. To opponents, it means intimidation, deafening noise and a likely defeat.

Niagara University's on-campus facility has been the home for the school's basketball program since Nov. 30, 1949. Niagara has enjoyed a tremendous home-court advantage in the friendly confines of the Gallagher Center over the years.

Originally named the Student Center, it was renamed on May 23, 1982, in honor of the former athletics director and basketball coach at Niagara. In the summer of 1998, the Gallagher Center underwent a $1.3 million renovation that included a new floor, bleachers and decor. In 1995, the Gallagher Center also received improved lighting. Banners featuring Niagara's NCAA and National Invitation Tournament appearances were added in 1996-97 while banners marking the accomplishments of the women's basketball program were added in 1997-98.

On the outside of the Gallagher Center, fans are welcomed by the Niagara Hall of Fame which highlights historical moments in the Niagara athletics. In 2018, the

Frank and Barbara Layden Court

On December 6, 2014, Niagara University officially named the Gallagher Center court after Frank and Babara Layden.

Layden, who played for Niagara from 1951-55 under John 'Taps' Gallagher, is a pro and collegiate basketball coaching legend. He led his alma mater for eight seasons, including taking Niagara to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament in 1970. Layden finished his coaching tenure at Niagara at the end of the 1976 season with 119 career wins, which were second at the time to Gallagher.

Layden's next move was to the NBA where he worked as an assistant coach for the Atlanta Hawks (1976-79), and with the Jazz organization as general manager (1979-87), head coach (1981-89) and president (1989-99). Layden was named the 1983-84 NBA Coach of the Year and Executive of the Year, and was the recipient of the NBA's J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award, which is annually given to a player or coach who shows outstanding service and dedication to the community.

By his side is his wife, Barbara. The couple has always been committed to community service. The Laydens have supported many charitable causes including cancer awareness, crime prevention, and child abuse. In 2013, Frank and Barbara were named the Humanitarian of the Year by Catholic Community

St. Vincent's Gym
1906-49

Niagara's first home court on campus was located on the fourth floor of St. Vincent's Hall, which opened in 1906. Niagara enjoyed a successful run in the cozy confines of St. Vincent's court, once winning 36-straight home games in a streak that ended in the 1935-36 season. The Purple Eagles played home games there until 1949 when the Student Center, later named the Gallagher Center, opened. St. Vincent's Hall was renovated in 2001 and the fourth floor is now home to the College of Hospitality and Tourism.

Buffalo Memorial Auditorium
1941-96
105-95 (.525)

Niagara played a number of games at the Buffalo Auditorium in its history, starting with a Jan. 20, 1941, game against St. Bonaventure that was played as part of a college basketball doubleheader that featured Canisius and La Salle in the second contest. During the Taps Gallagher era, Niagara played at least seven games annually in the Aud from 1950-51 to 1956-57. Upset with the financial distribution of the gate from doubleheaders, Niagara did not play at the Aud from 1957-58 until 1966-67. The Aud again became a regular stop on the schedule in 1972-73 when Niagara played all of its home games at the Aud. In 1973, the Niagara Falls Convention Center opened, and Niagara did not play more than two games a season in the Aud over the final 23 years the building was open. Niagara played its final game in the Aud in the 1995-96 season, upsetting Canisius, 58-56. The building

Niagara played the majority of its home games at the Niagara Falls Convention Center in downtown Niagara Falls from the time it opened for the 1973-74 season through the 1981-82 campaign. After a six-year hiatus, Niagara returned to the Convention Center as a regular tenant again for the 1988-89 season through the 1995-96 campaign. Late in the 1995-96 season, Niagara played its final game on the Convention Center court, besting Siena, 79-77. The Purple Eagles earned an 82-63 record at the Convention Center over a
