2008-09 Nicholls Colonels

Meet the Colonels

Season Outlook

Coach J.P. Piper returns ten players from last year's squad that finished 10-21 (5-10 SLC), having lost just one senior — Adonis Gray — to graduation.

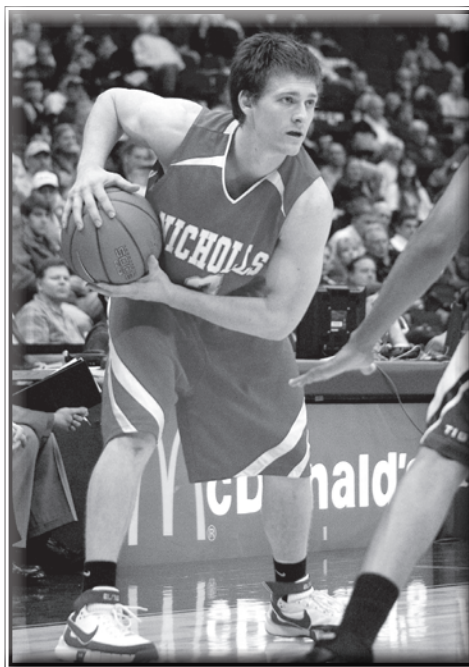

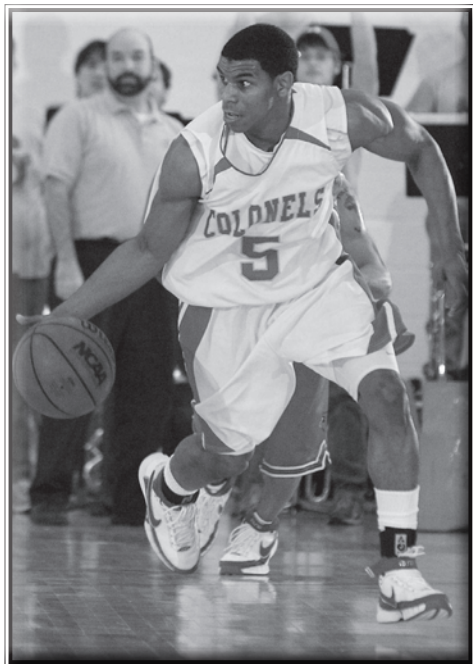

"On a personal level, I just miss Adonis because I was very fond of coaching him and there's a personal connection there," Piper said. "He's a wonderful kid. He stood in and went through some really tough times with this program and never gave up on what we were preaching about and trying to instill in our program. He came to stand for those things and I think that the changes that have occurred are due, in part, to his leadership and his impact behind the scenes. Hopefully there will be some guys who step up and pick up where he left off. And I expect that to happen. Our program is really healthy right now and if Adonis has done his job as a leader, we shouldn't miss a beat as he moves on."

The Colonels return four of their five starters from a year ago, including three of the biggest leaders on the team in team captains Justin Payne and Mike Czepil, and senior Ryan Bathie.

"The thing that's most encouraging to me," noted Piper, "that I think is a sign we are about to turn the corner, is the leadership of those guys. What's beginning to happen within our team is that we're a close-knit group. We're a family. The older guys believe in it and they're helping the younger guys to believe in it. They're bridging that gap between the coaching staff and the players. It's a refreshing change. They're watching more film, working hard in the weight room and doing more things on their own, and those are the kinds of things that add up to winning."

In addition to the experience that returns for Nicholls, Piper's squad welcomes six newcomers.

"This recruiting class that we had is the best one we've had since I've been here. Every one of these guys has an opportunity to contribute this year," added Piper. "The guys who have been through the ringer once have a little better sense of how we want things done and can really help out our new guys who are a little wide-eyed right now. But everyone is comfortable with the leadership that's in place within the team, so hopefully we'll flourish."

The Colonels look to improve defensively in 2008-09, building on rebounding and creating turnovers and fast break offensive situations.

"I thought we lost several games in the last two minutes last year because we were not able to secure a defensive rebound," Piper stressed. "We would defend well. We could contest the shot. We could create a miss. And then we weren't able to secure the rebound. I think we've addressed the rebounding concern in our recruiting and if one or two of those four guys can step up and help us down the stretch that translates to a few more wins for us."

"Every night is a war for us."

"Potentially, we would like to create more turnovers and get more steals which lead to more fastbreak and transition opportunities and a few more easy buckets every game. If you go back to those overtime losses, a few more turnovers and a few more easy buckets, perhaps you win those games. Couple that with the rebounding and I think we're a tougher opponent."

The Southland Conference continues to improve, providing the Colonels with tougher competition throughout the season.

"I wasn't prepared for the SLC to be as strong as it was last year," Piper noted. "Looking at who lost players and what was returning, I thought the league would be strong, but I wasn't expecting the RPI to be as high as it was. I would expect it to be strong again this year. Some of the traditional powers have lost some key players, so it will be interesting to see how those replacements come in and fill the void. But what I've learned is that it's an extremely difficult league and there's a lot of balance. Anybody can beat anybody on any given night. Every night is a war for us."

As Piper enters his fifth season with the Colonels, he is assisted by Kevin Johnson, Will Kellner and Joel Weiss. While Johnson and Weiss return for their second years with the program, Kellner joins Nicholls for the first time.

"Kevin is extraordinary for us," Piper said. "He runs the show on defense and there's nothing that he could do or say defensively that I'm not comfortable with — I have complete faith and confidence in him as the head coach of our defense. And maybe more importantly, he's remarkable with our guys off the court."

He's there talking to them about things that add up to winning — attitude, body language, winning habits vs. losing habits, how they walk across campus, how they take notes in class — he's constantly teaching them how things in their every day life can add up to success in basketball and vice versa."

"I think we have the basketball covered between Kevin and myself, but the biggest thing for us is recruiting. We needed to find help on that trail and Will answers that. He brings some great ties and great relationships that can help us land the players we're trying to get."

"Joel is our third assistant coach, entering his second year. He helps with recruiting but mainly he's the organization behind the scenes. He makes the day-to-day happen at home and on the road."

"I think this coaching staff is the strongest we've had since I've been here just because of the like-mindedness of all four coaches. It's just going to get better and better."

Piper On His Team

The guards are led by senior Justin Payne (Opelousas, La./Opelousas) who dished out 2.7 apg and provided 5.1 ppg for Nicholls in 2007-08.

"Justin is one of our team captains and the leader on the floor for us. Everything from the bench runs through him and I expect him to do a very solid job of running our team this year."

Payne is backed by sophomore Kellan Carter (Fresno, Calif./Edison) and newcomer Chris Iles (Houston, Texas/Westbury Christian).

"Kellan had a great year last year, and we expect more of the same from him this season. Chris brings more offense to the position. Justin and Kellan are both defensive-minded, but Chris brings more ability to score. We hope to generate more scoring from that spot with him in the mix."

Cody Worsham (Baton Rouge, La./Loyola (N.O.)) will sit out the 2008-09 season, but Piper has already recognized his abilities.

"Cody has demonstrated great toughness and a great feel for the game."

Piper welcomes the return of Mike Czepil (Hoppers Crossing, Australia/Thomas Carr) who sat out the second half of the season last year with a knee injury. Before being sidelined, Czepil poured in 11.6 ppg and grabbed 3.7 rpg for Nicholls.

"Mike's our other team captain and he does all of those intangible things that add up to winning. He has great leadership, great toughness and always makes plays in the clutch. Having him back out on the floor will be a huge boost for us."

K.J. Lee (Baton Rouge, La./Central) returns for Nicholls as well.

"K.J. is a two guard who shoots the ball really well and continues to improve defensively."

Another leader for Nicholls is senior Ryan Bathie (Melton, Australia/Mowbray), a Preseason Second Team All-Conference selection who provided a team-leading 13.6 ppg last year.

"He's a leader out on the floor and will really control a lot of our offense. We want him to get a lot of touches and a lot of opportunities to impact the game."

The top free throw shooter in the SLC in 2007-08 as a freshman, Anatoly Bose (Sydney, Australia/Waverley) enters his sophomore season.

"Anatoly shoots the ball well, defends well and rebounds well. We'd like to see him continue what he had going last season and follow up with another good year."

Also seeing time as a guard/forward combo is Dominic Friend (Geelong, Australia/St. Joseph's).

"We're hoping to play Dom facing up a little more this year and play a little more three than four or five. He shoots really well and is good putting the ball on the floor."

Joshua Johnson (Houston, Texas/Cypress Falls) represents a true power forward for Piper.

"He's extremely athletic and will earn minutes with defensive rebounding. He'll create scoring opportunities, but for now we'll use his presence on the boards and his athleticism defensively."

Newcomer Kyle Ford (Whitehouse, Texas/Whitehouse) is a perimeter player who can get to the rim.

"Kyle's athletic and hopefully will do some rebounding and finishing around the basket. Hopefully his adjustment will go quickly so we can get some minutes from him."

Also entering as a freshman, Fred Hunter (Denton, Texas/Denton) provides another option at the three-four spot.

"He has an uncanny knack for scoring the ball. It's a gift, so he'll have some freedom offensively. He rebounds well - has big hands - so we'll use him to get some boards on both ends."

Also adding depth to the Colonel roster is Dwight Fusilier (Abbeville, La./Louisiana College) who sat out last season with an injury.

"Dwight's a big, strong, athletic kid who rebounds well and makes open shots for us."

Piper will look to junior Chris Paige (Pearland, Texas/Pearland) and newcomers Phillip Ward (Fresno, Calif./Edison) and Cameron McCallum (Melton, Australia/Mowbray) in the post.

"Chris has done a good job of learning how to keep his intensity up for longer periods of time. That's something he's struggled with in the past. He's got the athleticism, so if he keeps that intensity up, the rebounding and defending will fall into place."

Ward and McCallum are expected to step in immediately and provide presence under the basket.

"We're excited about Phillip's ability to defend and rebound and also score some for us. We need him to impact the game with defensive rebounds. Cameron has a high basketball IQ and is very comfortable in our offense. Cam is probably going to be a little ahead of Phillip offensively, but they make a great combination. It's a tandem situation with a good balance."

Colonels Down Under

This summer, the Colonels traveled as a team to Melbourne, Sydney and Sutherland, Australia, competing in four games and experiencing the native country of five members of the Nicholls basketball team.

Coach J.P. Piper thought the trip gave the players a chance to bond and spend time together, developing team chemistry in a way that had never been done before.

"I asked the guys what they thought was the most beneficial thing about the trip to Australia and they all said that it really allowed them to focus on one another and come closer together as a group. When we went over there, their phones didn't work anymore, the voltage in the hotels is different, so it was a little more work to get on the computer and get online and talk to people. So they found themselves having to spend a little more time together. Our Australians were really eager to show us around, so when they had free time, the guys were out and about in the city together. We gave them free time in the evenings to go have fun and that allowed them to come together."

"It crystallized for me the morning that we flew back. Our Australians stayed, while the rest of us were preparing to fly back and we had that good-bye moment outside the hotel. They were all hugging and high-fiving and promising to e-mail and call the next week. At the end of a semester, things are scattered with people leaving on different days at different times, and there's not this focal point on the separation. But with this trip there was a defining moment where everyone realized they wouldn't see each other again until August and that was very powerful. It kind of surprised me. Every one of them said good-bye and got a hug and a high-five and you could feel the excitement about August. We had just won four games and had played well and accomplished something unexpected. They felt good about themselves."

"I was eager to see, when we got back to school in August, whether that energy would still be there and I was excited to see that it was. There's a really strong dynamic and a really strong bond in the group. I think that if we can tap into the power of that it bodes well for the season."

J.P. Piper

Head Coach • 5th Season • Southeastern Louisiana, '91

J.P. Piper enters his fifth season at the helm of the Colonel basketball program, having amassed a 33-82 overall record through four seasons.

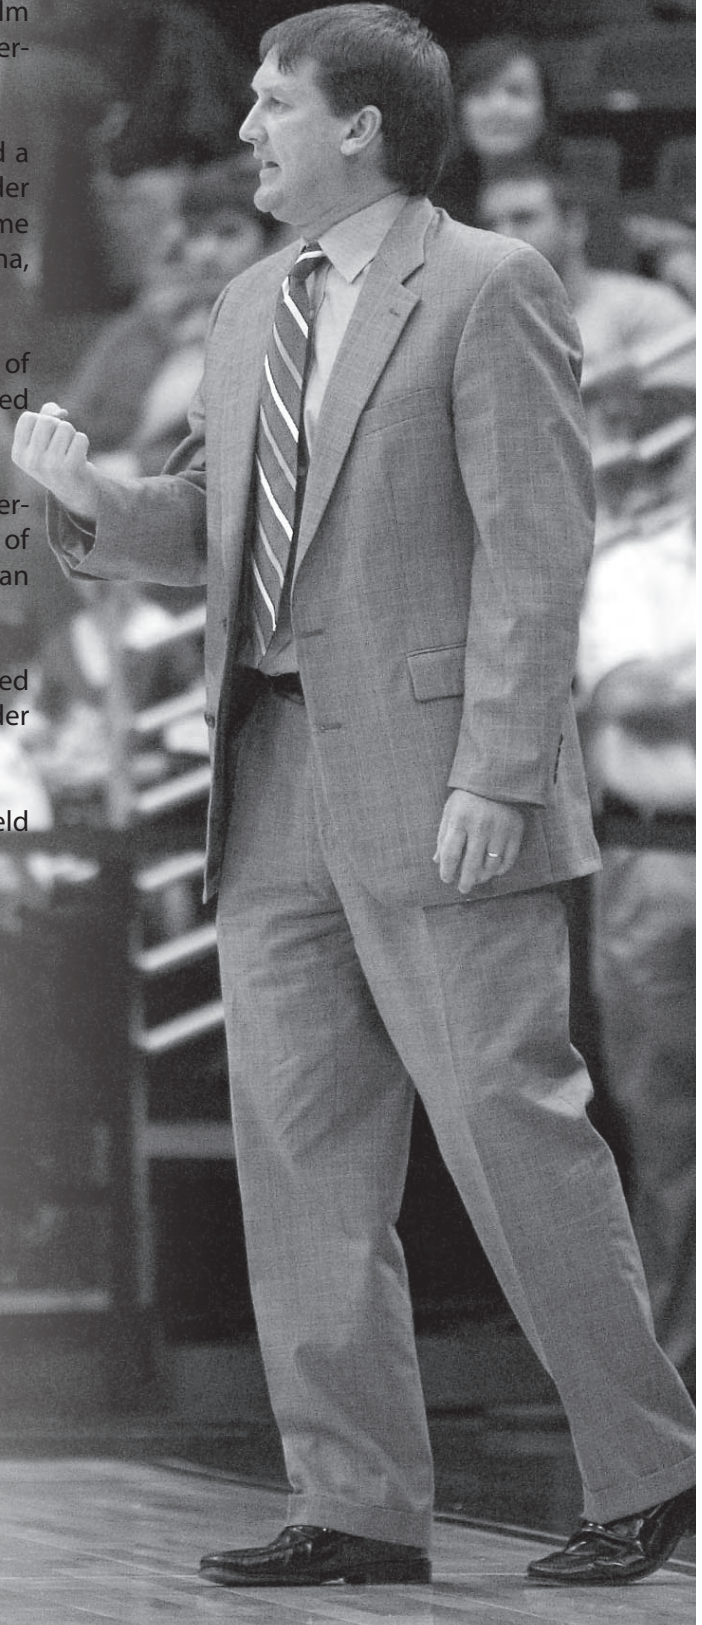

In 2007-08, Piper led Nicholls to a 10-21 record (5-11 SLC) and a fifth place finish in the Southland Conference East Division. Under Piper's tutelage, the Colonels traveled the country to face some of the toughest competition in the nation in No. 1 North Carolina, Alabama, Florida State and California.

Prior to last season, Piper gained a reputation for playing some of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country, dubbed 'scheduling insanity' by ESPN's Andy Katz.

CollegInsider.com named Piper the 2006-07 Southland Conference Coach of the Year for leading the Colonels to victory in five of their last seven SLC match-ups and falling just one point shy of an SLC Tournament berth.

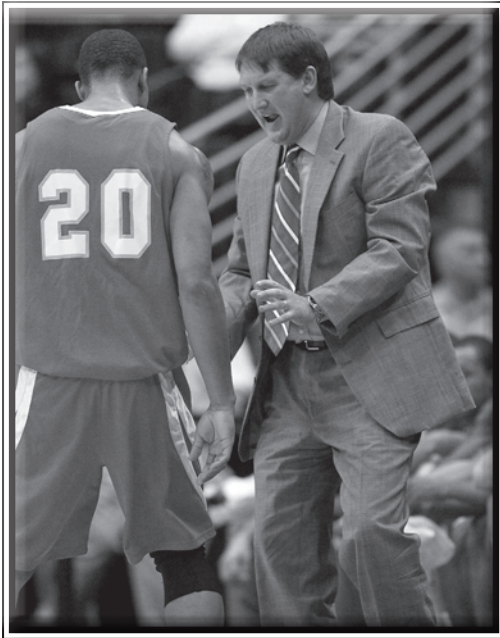

Before being named head coach at Nicholls in 2004, Piper served two seasons as the top assistant for the Colonels (2002-04) under the direction of head coach Ricky Blanton.

Prior to joining the college ranks, the Baton Rouge, La.-native held the position of head basketball coach at The Dunham School (Baton Rouge, La.) where he guided the Tigers to a Class A State Championship in 1997-98 and the Class A State Runner-Up spot in 1998-99. Piper was named Class A Coach of the Year in 1999 and was selected as head coach of the Louisiana High School Athletic Association (LHSAA) East All-Star Team.

Piper's leadership was evident off the court as he served as principal of The Dunham School for three years and President of the Louisiana High School Basketball Coach's Association for two years. Prior to his eight-year tenure at The Dunham School, Piper served as an assistant men's basketball coach at East Ascension High School in Gonzales, La., for two seasons.

The 42-year old is married to the former Renee Denson of Baton Rouge. They are the parents of two children, Hayden (11) and Riley (9). Piper and his family reside in Thibodaux.

Kevin Johnson

Assistant Coach • 2nd Season • Texas-Pan American, '88

Kevin begins his second season with the Colonels after helping Nicholls to its highest win total since the 2001 season. Johnson joined the staff in 2007 after spending the two previous seasons as an assistant at Louisiana Tech.

While with the Bulldogs, Johnson helped guide Louisiana Tech to a 30-33 overall record including a 20-13 mark and an 11-5 conference ledger through the 2005-06 season and an appearance in the post-season NIT Tournament.

Before taking the job at Louisiana Tech, Johnson served as the head coach at Centenary College in Shreveport, La., for six seasons. In those six seasons, he compiled an overall record of 65-100, including a 50-17 mark at home. In 2003-04, Johnson guided the Gents to a second-place finish in the Mid-Continent Conference with a 16-12 overall record (10-6 MCC) and a perfect 13-0 mark at home.

Prior to assuming his head-coaching role at Centenary, Johnson served as an assistant for the Gents under Billy Kennedy after gaining experience as an assistant at his alma mater, Texas-Pan American.

As a student-athlete at Texas-Pan American, Johnson compiled 1,156 career points, which ranks 13th all-time in the Broncos record books. His senior campaign was his most notable statistical season as Johnson averaged 16.1 points per game, had a field-goal percentage of .492 and an astonishing .574 conversion rate from three-point land. His three-point field-goal percentage led the All-American South Conference and ranked seventh nationally. Johnson was named to the All-American South First Team in 1988 for all of his outstanding play.

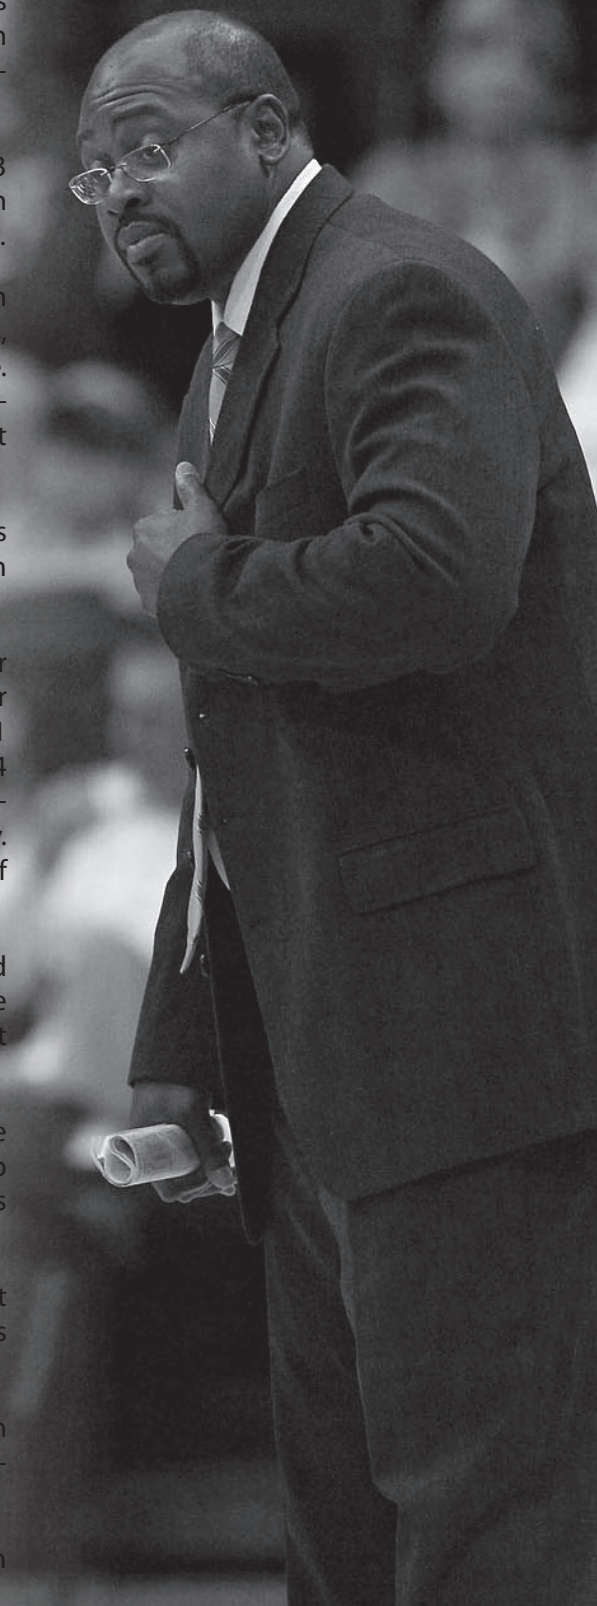

Following his distinguished career at Texas-Pan American, Johnson headed overseas to England where he played for the Leicester Riders. He spent one season with the Riders before accepting an assistant coaching position at Northwestern State in 1989.

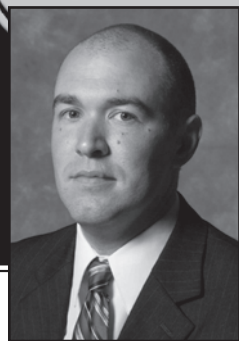

In 1990, he returned to England to become the head coach/player for the Oldham Celtics, and in 1992 he led the Celtics to a league championship with a 25-1 record. Johnson also averaged 33.0 points per game in Oldham's championship run.

In 1993, Johnson returned to the States to become an assistant coach at Bryan High School in Bryan, Texas and rejoined the college ranks in 1996 as an assistant at Texas-Pan American.

Johnson is a native of Morgan City, La., and prepped at Morgan City High School. He has two brothers in Rodney and Dave III – an All-American at Syracuse and a first-round NBA draft pick of the Portland Trailblazers in 1992.

Johnson is the proud father of his daughter Ceara Brinelle, who will turn seven during the season.

Will Kellner

Assistant Coach • 1st Season • Louisiana-Lafayette, '04

Will Kellner enters his first season with the Colonels after spending the past two seasons at Kilgore College under head coach Scott Schumacher.

As an assistant for the Rangers, Kellner helped guide Kilgore to a 31-29 overall record in his two-year stint, including a 10-0 start and No. 10 national ranking in 2006-07. During that time Kellner coached two National Junior College Athletic Association All Americans: Marcus Thornton (Baton Rouge, La.) and Ridge McKeither (Danville, Va.) Five Kilgore student-athletes went on to sign Division I scholarships during Kellner's time with the Rangers.

Prior to his tenure at Kilgore, Kellner served as a graduate assistant at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette under head coach Robert Lee. During his time at UL-Lafayette Kellner worked with two players who have signed NBA contracts: Orien Greene - the 53rd overall pick of the Boston Celtics who went on to play for the Indiana Pacers and Sacramento Kings - and Dwayne Mitchell, who signed with the Los Angeles Lakers. Seven other players went on to play professionally overseas.

Before working at UL-Lafayette, Kellner coached some of the top talent in the state of Louisiana while working with various AAU programs.

Kellner is a native of Lafayette, Louisiana and attended St. Thomas More High School. He earned his B.A. in English and M.B.A from UL-Lafayette.

He is engaged to Virginia Simon of Lafayette, La.

Joel Weiss

Assistant Coach • 2nd Season • Claremont McKenna, '00

Joel Weiss enters his second season as an assistant coach for J.P. Piper and the Colonels.

Prior to accepting the position at Nicholls, Weiss served as an assistant at St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas where he helped guide the Hill Toppers to a 24-6 overall record in 2006-07, including a 10-2 league mark, a Heartland Conference Championship and a berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament. With St. Edward's, his main duties included opponent scouting, film exchange, and academic monitoring.

While in Austin, Weiss was the manager of operations for Hoop Zone and also coached the 17 & Under Hoop Zone AAU team for two years. In addition, he served as an assistant to the communications director for the NBA developmental team – the Austin Toros. In that role, he compiled statistics, prepared game notes for NBA scouts and wrote and edited game stories.

Before moving to Texas, the Calif.-native worked with two California high schools, serving as the head coach of Claremont High School's fall program in 2004 and as an assistant at Newbury Park High School from 2002-03.

In 2000, Weiss was an assistant coach at Glendale College in Glendale, Calif., and helped steer the Vaqueros to the Elite 8 State Tournament – the highest tournament finish in school history.

Weiss made his coaching debut at his alma mater, leading the Agoura High School summer league in 1998 and 1999. In two years, his teams earned a combined 18-9 mark and a league championship (1998).

A two-sport athlete, Weiss played one season of collegiate football at Leigh University before transferring to Claremont McKenna College where he was a three-year member of the basketball team and two-year member of the football team.

Weiss is single and resides in Thibodaux.

TIGERS TAME COLONELS IN BATON ROUGE

BATON ROUGE, La. – Poor shooting from the field and from the charity strip by the Nicholls Colonels led to the LSU Tigers 68-41 victory in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center on Wednesday night.

Nicholls shot 30.2 percent (16-of-53) from the floor, 20.8 percent (5-of-24) from three-point territory, and 28.6 percent (4-of-14) from the free throw line in the game. LSU shot 52.1 percent (25-of-48) from field goal range, 35 percent (7-of-20) from behind the arc, and 73.3 percent (11-of-15) from the charity stripe.

“We didn’t make shots when it counted, and we lacked some intensity at critical times in the game,” said head coach J.P. Piper.

COLONELS MAKE PRIVATEERS WALK THE PLANK

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Nicholls dominated the University of New Orleans from start to finish as the Colonels never trailed in their 75-60 victory over the Privateers in the Human Performance Center on Saturday night.

The Colonels (2-6) were led by four double digit scorers in the win with junior Ryan Bathie leading the way with 18 points. The other three included freshman Dominic Friend with 17, which was a new career high, sophomore Michael Czepl with 11 and junior Gil Verner off the bench with 10.

BATHIE HITS BUZZER BEATER TO DEFEAT LUMBERJACKS IN OT THODOUX, La. – With the seconds rapidly ticking off the clock in overtime, junior Ryan Bathie had a put back lay up after a missed three point attempt by freshman Anatoly Bose to give the Colonels the 58-57 win over the Lumberjacks in Stophor Gym on Thursday night.

Nicholls (6-10, 1-0) fell behind in the overtime period 57-52, and then went on a 6-0 run to close out the game for the win.

"I'm just so proud of my guys and the heart and effort that they showed tonight," said head coach J.P. Piper about the Colonels' performance.

COLONELS LOSE DOUBLE OVERTIME THRILLER TO BEARS

THIBODAUX, La. – Central Arkansas' Nate Bowie poured in a game high 39-points, but none were bigger than his lay up with less than 45 seconds left in the second overtime period to give the Bears the 98-96 victory in Stophor Gym on Saturday night.

The Colonels (6-16, 1-6) and Bears (13-9, 3-5) went into overtime knotted up at 77, then each scored 10 in OT No. 1. Central Arkansas sealed the victory with an 11-point double overtime, and limited Nicholls to just nine points in the second extra five minutes.

"We made free throws, but didn't make them when it counted. Our guys played their hearts out tonight," said head coach J.P. Piper.

1995 Season Recap

For once, the prognosticators were right. Heading into the 1994-95 men's basketball season both the Southland Conference coaches and SID's picked the Colonels to accomplish something that had never been done before. Selected to capture the SLC title by the guys who develop strategy and the ones that write and publicize it, Nicholls State had the label of favorite.

Armed with pre-season All-SLC selections Gerard King and Reggie Jackson, NSU took aim on being one of 64, that's right, making it to the Big Dance. They wanted to be in the office pools, they wanted to be in front of the cameras, they wanted to be sized for a championship ring, hoist a banner, cut down a net, win a title.

The season began with the usual slate of difficult non-conference games. After taking down Louisiana Tech and Louisiana Christian, the Colonels fell to 2-1 losing to Oklahoma and current Major League baseball player Ryan Minor 89-80. After defeating Southeastern Louisiana and Faith Baptist, the Colonels ventured to the Land of Elvis, falling to Memphis State 92-72.

To commence SLC play, Nicholls took its show on the road, playing Stephen F. Austin and Sam Houston State. The trip was a sign of things to come as Rickey Broussard's team erased deficits in both games en route to a Texas sweep. Resiliency, intestinal fortitude and desire are all marks of champions, something NSU was on its way to becoming.

The next homestand featured games against Southwest Texas and Texas-San Antonio. Powered by King and Jackson, NSU began 4-0 in league play for the first time under Broussard. Following a setback to Northeast Louisiana, NSU ran the table winning its next 13 league games, setting itself up as the overwhelming favorite in the SLC Tournament. Taking all the drama out of the conference regular season race, the Colonels literally ran away and hid from the competition, finishing the season 17-1 in SLC play and 21-4 overall. Never as a Division I team had NSU won more than 19 games overall.

The Southland Conference coaching fraternity, which five months earlier had installed NSU as the favorite, took care of the Red and Grey when it came time for post-season honors. Broussard was named Coach of the Year, Jackson Player of the Year while King was named First Team All-SLC and senior guard Ray Washington was a second team choice. Carrying momentum over from their sensational regular season run, NSU blew past eighth-seeded McNeese State in the opening round 88-69 before 2,253 at Stoper Gym. It was then onto Shreveport where the team posted one of the most amazing comebacks in school history, responding from an eight-point deficit with less than three minutes remaining to down Stephen F. Austin 91-89. While their shooting wasn't terrific (NSU shot just 41 pct.) the Colonels kept turnovers to a minimum, committing just seven miscues. With the game tied at 89, Jackson drew on offensive foul and proceeded to bury the free throws, cap the furious comeback and keep the dream alive.

With less than 24 hours to regroup, NSU took to the Hirsch Coliseum floor to do battle with Northeast Louisiana. The bitter rivals went at it hard with NSU staking itself to an early 20-3 lead. Coming back from a poor shooting night against SFA, Nicholls connected on 64 pct. of its shots. With the NCAA Tournament well within its sights, NSU withstood a NLU charge to claim the title 98-87. The celebration that ensued confirmed the fact: NSU was off to the Big Dance. Now, it was just a matter of seeing who the team would face in its maiden voyage to the NCAA Tournament.

The NCAA Selection Committee sent the Colonels to Dayton, Ohio where they would tussle with fourth-seeded Virginia. Playing at a much higher level than their 13th seed, the Colonels jumped out to a 16-10 lead and trailed by only four (31-27) at halftime. The second half saw the battle-tested Cavs pull away, eventually prevailing 96-72. The contest marked the end of the proverbial road for seven NSU seniors most notably King and Jackson as King was named CBS' Chevrolet Player of the Game.

After reflecting on the season, NSU became determined that its first taste of March Madness certainly would not be its last.

1998 Season Recap

Comparing Nicholls State's 1998 basketball season to the one the team had in 1995 is unfair. It's like comparing the birth of one's first child to that of the second, like equating your first hole-in-one to your second. In all cases, both events are special and must be cherished, remembered and celebrated. While the 1998 Colonels didn't establish a school record for victories, weren't the first team from Thibodaux to participate in the Big Dance, Rickey Broussard's 1997-98 team was arguable the hardest working and versatile. A quick look at the season-end statistics says it all as four players finished the season with double-figure scoring averages. What began in mid-November in Gainesville, Fla. literally ended across the country as the team concluded its season with a return engagement in the NCAA Tournament all the way in Sacramento, California. Unlike 1994-95 when everyone and their brother forecasted great things, NSU was picked in the middle of the pack in 1997-98, selected fifth by SLC coaches and seventh by SLC sports information directors.

Terming the squad one of the most athletic he has ever coached, Nicholls State exceeded expectations and continued to uphold the tradition Broussard and his staff had worked so hard to create.

After falling to Florida 66-63, NSU faced another SEC team, Auburn, losing to the Tigers 96-75. Playing 11 of its first 12 games away from the friendly confines of Stoper Gym, NSU stumbled out of the starting gate at 2-8. Refusing to roll over, the Colonels swept the SLC-opening road trip just as they did in 1994-'95 taking care of McNeese State and Stephen F. As conference play wound its way towards the season ending SLC Classic, NSU became a team that nobody wanted to play. Relying on the talented quartet of Russell McCutcheon, Kenderick Franklin, Jason McCutcheon and Linzie Green, the Colonels were the epitome of a multi-faceted attack.

A 14-game winning league winning streak followed as Nicholls State won games every way possible. From easy blow-outs to nailbiters, Broussard's team found a way to prevail. After an 80-74 loss at Northeast Louisiana in the season's penultimate game, preventing themselves from becoming the first team in the modern era of SLC basketball to run the conference table, the team closed out the regular season with a 84-74 SLC win.

Following a 79-71 victory at the expense of Southwest Texas in the SLC semifinals, only Texas-Arlington stood in NSU's way of its second NCAA Tournament berth in four years. Before 2,478 at the Gold Dome, Nicholls State prevailed 84-81 with Russell McCutcheon scoring 22 points. Not waiting long, the team was told to head west to Sacramento, Calif. where a date with defending national champion Arizona awaited. Fighting hard against Lute Olson's bunch, Nicholls fell 99-60, to end its season.

While the trip may not have carried the result that everyone had hoped for, Nicholls State returned to the Big Dance and solidified its position as a program to be reckoned with and respected.

David R. Stopher Gymnasium

At a listed capacity of 3,800, Nicholls State University's Stopher Gymnasium is the smallest basketball facility in the Southland Conference. Over the years, it has also proven to be one of the toughest places to play in the league.

In the last decade, the Colonels have put together some impressive winning streaks at in the facility.

Nicholls enjoyed a 17-game home-court winning streak which stretched over parts of three seasons, including going a stellar 9-0 in the friendly confines during its SLC championship run in 1997-98. That streak began midway through the conference slate the previous year and extended through the first two home games of the next season.

Over the course of the 1994 and 1995 seasons, Nicholls strung together an 18-game winning streak in Stopher. At the time, it was the fourth-longest home-court streak in Division I.

In the early 1980s, the Colonels won an incredible 23 of 24 contests stretching from the 1982-83 season until 1984-85, including a 14-game winning streak in that mix.

Stopher's seating arrangement puts fans closer to the action than in any other SLC arena and the acoustics sometimes make the building seem like the site of a tractor pull.

The best seats in the house continue to be the pullout wooden bleachers at floor level. The balcony level includes chair-back seats at midcourt behind the scorers' table. Portable bleachers have sometimes been used in the end zones making the facility a more intimate for basketball.

The 34-year old facility has been dubbed at one time "The Bates Motel of College Hoops" by Inside Sports magazine.

The facility has undergone several cosmetic changes in the last several years.

The playing surface underwent a facelift following Hurricane Andrew in 1992. The storm caused water to leak through the roof and buckled portions of the floor. Prior to the 1994-95 season a new sound system was installed.

Modifications came during the middle of the 1997-98 championship run when pair of Daktronics scoreboards were installed. The scoreboard at the east end of the court includes a dot-matrix message center while the scoreboard on the west end includes individual point and personal foul totals for the players in the game.

After Hurricane Katrina struck in 2005, Stopher was used as a shelter for displaced victims from the affected areas of Southeastern Louisiana. Consequently, the Colonels' volleyball, and men's and women's Basketball Teams were forced to practice and play else where.

The volleyball team did have a single home contest played in Stopher that season, while Men's and Women's Basketball only played their Southland Conference games in Stopher during the 2005-06 campaign.

Just like after Hurricane Andrew in 1992, the wood floors in the gym were replaced, however in 2006, the entire floor was replaced and new chair back seating was installed around the entire lower level. Following the 2007-08 season, new seating was put throughout the upper levels and the floor was refinished.

Nicholls State University

Nicholls State University

Founded in 1948 as Francis T. Nicholls Junior College, Nicholls State University brings together the diverse cultures and heritage found in South Central Louisiana.

In 1970, Nicholls was designated a university by an act of the Louisiana Legislature. The university was established to meet the higher education needs of Louisianians and has evolved during the past five decades into a center for learning.

The quality of the university's academic programs is assured through numerous national-accrediting organizations. Nicholls State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Today, the campus occupies 210 acres of land formerly part of historic Acadia Plantation on the eastern limits of the city of Thibodaux. The campus, which fronts Bayou Lafourche, is about 50 miles southwest of New Orleans. Nicholls State University offers more than 85 two-year, four-year and graduate level programs through five academic colleges - Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, the Chef John Folse Culinary Institute, Education and Life Sciences and Technology.

Nicholls State University was the first university in the state to offer seven-on, seven-off programs for those employed in the offshore oil industry.

Nicholls is also the first public university in the state of Louisiana to undertake a strategic planning project. The project, which is funded entirely by private donations, will prepare Nicholls for the 21st century.

The University's Mission

Nicholls State University is committed to distinguishing itself as a quality institution of higher education dedicated to meeting the unique geographic and multi-cultural needs of the region and beyond. It prepares students to interpret and respond to changing regional, national and global society.

The location of Nicholls, in the center of the nation's major wetlands and in an agricultural and industrial economy, influence on educational programs and necessitates that the University:

- Ensure access to higher education for all citizens in the region;
- Expand knowledge and provide leadership through teaching, research and service;
- Provide high quality academic programs in the disciplines that support the needs of the region;
- Enhance economic development and strengthen the social and cultural infrastructure of the region.

Other facts about Nicholls

- The Chef John Folse Culinary Institute offers both a Bachelor of Science Degree and an Associate of Science Degree in Culinary Arts. The Institute was the first of its kind in the United States to offer a Bachelor of Science Degree in Culinary Arts. These degree programs provide an opportunity for students to develop in-depth knowledge of the culinary field of study that is strengthened and supported by a foundation of general learning.
- The Louisiana Center for Women and Government at Nicholls State University was established in 1990 to encourage the future leadership of women by preparing them for public service through nonpartisan education, research and training programs. Other centers of excellence at Nicholls State University include the Center for the Study of Dyslexia, the Small Business Development Center and the Center for Traditional Louisiana Boatbuilding.

- The Ellender Memorial Library at Nicholls State University houses more than 220,000 volumes, more than 3,000 journal titles and catalogues about 255,000 federal and state documents. It provides study areas for 1,500 patrons.
- The Student Programming Association at Nicholls State University has played host to various entertainers including Travis Tritt, Third Eye Blind and Everclear. In addition to presenting performers each semester, the SPA sponsors Crawfish Day, an annual event that draws more than 2,500 students into John L. Guidry Stadium.

Thibodaux

Retaining its Southern charm and Cajun hospitality, Thibodaux has developed into a modern, progressive community where yesterday welcomes tomorrow.

Founded in 1820 on Bayou Lafourche, Thibodaux is graced by moss-laden oaks, plantation homes and lush fields of sugar cane. The word "lafourche" means fork as the bayou originally forked off the Mississippi River some 30 miles upstream from Thibodaux.

The Lafourche Parish Courthouse in downtown Thibodaux, the Edward Douglas White Home and Laurel Valley Plantation are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Elkins Hall on the Nicholls State University campus was recently added to the Register. Renovated 19th century homes front Canal Boulevard and New Orleans-style wrought iron traces downtown balconies.

The Wetlands Acadian Cultural Center located in Thibodaux is one of three Acadian Cultural Centers of the Jean Lafitte National Historical Park and Preserve in Louisiana that features many colorful aspects of Cajun life.

Known as the "Gateway to Bayou Country," Thibodaux is minutes away from the best in outdoor recreation.

Francis Tillou Nicholls

Francis Redding Tillou Nicholls was an esteemed figure in the Confederate Army, a Donaldsonville native, and the namesake of Nicholls State University.

Nicholls was born in Donaldsonville on Aug. 30, 1834. He graduated from West Point in 1855 and practiced law for a while. While serving in the Civil War he rose to the rank of brigadier general. After losing his left arm and leg and living as a prisoner of war, he returned home. He practiced law in Napoleonville for a while and was then nominated for governor in 1876 by the Louisiana State Democratic Party. He was elected during Reconstruction.

Nicholls went on to serve a second term as governor, from 1888 to 1892 and greatly opposed the corrupt Louisiana Lottery.

Following his time spent in as governor, he was named chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court. Nicholls retired to his home in Thibodaux in 1911 and died in 1912. He is buried in the St. John's Episcopal Church Cemetery in Thibodaux.

Dr. Stephen T. Hulbert

University President

Dr. Stephen T. Hulbert became the fourth president of Nicholls State University on July 1, 2003. Hulbert came to Louisiana from Montana where he had served as chancellor of the University of Montana-Western from July 1999 to June 2003.

Previously, Hulbert served as the commissioner of higher education and chief executive officer to the Rhode Island Board of Governors of Higher Education from 1996 to June 1999.

From 1988 to 1996, Hulbert was affiliated with the University of Northern Colorado. There he served in numerous executive positions including that of interim president, provost and vice president for academic affairs, vice president for administrative services and treasurer of the Board of Trustees. He also carried faculty rank as a professor of educational leadership and policy studies.

From 1977-1988, Hulbert served as the vice president for finance and administration at Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania. He also carried faculty rank as a professor of counseling and student personnel administration. From 1972-1977, he served as the executive assistant to the president of Mansfield University of Pennsylvania.

In 1971-1972, while completing his doctoral studies, Hulbert served as a consultant for University Associates Incorporated of Washington, D.C. Hulbert's professional career in Higher Education began in 1968 when he served as the director of placement, student activities and housing at Western New England College in Springfield, Mass.

Hulbert received a Bachelor of Science in education degree from Worcester State College in Massachusetts; a Master of Education from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and a Doctorate of Education from the State University of New York at Albany.

He and his wife, Rebecca Kay, are the parents of one son, Scott Wesley, who is a practicing attorney in Phoenix, Ariz.

Rob Bernardi

Athletics Director

Rob Bernardi enters his eighth season as Director of Athletics at Nicholls, having made a significant improvement in the Colonel athletic programs. Since arriving in Thibodaux, Bernardi has given an active voice on a number of Southland Conference committees, while also serving as a member of the NCAA Division I Academic/Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet. Whether it be improving revenue or increasing department morale, the California native's energy has rubbed off on coaches, student-athletes and members of the support staff. Usually the first person to work and the last to leave, Bernardi has been a constant and loyal supporter of Nicholls athletics since his arrival, and has instilled a sense of pride within student-athletes and the department.

On a first-name basis with nearly every student-athlete, Bernardi has committed to maximizing the student-athlete experience through constant interaction with student-athletes and a commitment to the academic success of all Colonel student-athletes. Doing whatever he can to foster a family-style atmosphere throughout the department, he will look to continue leading the Colonels through the 21st century.

An administrator with 18 years of leadership experience, Bernardi returned to the campus environment after spending 10 years in varying capacities at the New Orleans-based Sun Belt Conference. During the last five years of his stay, he was the league's Associate Commissioner, coordinating and implementing all marketing and promotional efforts related to the conference. He also worked hand-in-hand with other conferences, covering such topics as development and corporate relations. His responsibilities also included coordinating the Sun Belt's voting position on all NCAA legislation.

Bernardi's most recent initiative was attracting the Manning Passing Academy to the Nicholls campus. The Manning Camp, which is owned and operated by former New Orleans Saints quarterback Archie Manning, has brought a new dimension to summers in Thibodaux, bringing over 1,200 athletes from around the country to Nicholls. Thanks to Bernardi's efforts, the camp has become a national media event, bringing excitement and revenue to the local economy.

Prior to his promotion, Bernardi served as the Sun Belt's Assistant Commissioner. During his time at the helm of the division, Bernardi initiated a conference-wide substance abuse education program and assisted member institutions in the NCAA Certification Process and Compliance Reviews. He also published a monthly compliance newsletter, which had a circulation of 500.

Before the formation of the Sun Belt, Bernardi spent a year with the league's predecessor, the American South, attracting the first corporate partners to the fledgling league.

Prior to joining the conference office, Bernardi spent time as a graduate assistant football coach at both Arizona and Oregon State. A native of Los Angeles, Bernardi received a bachelor's degree in Public Health from California State University-Northridge and a master's in education from Oregon State.

Married to the former Linda Gilly, Bernardi makes Thibodaux his home with Linda and daughters Nadine (22) and Jenna (10). His brother, Gary, is also involved in collegiate athletics, serving as an assistant football coach at UNLV.

Louise "Do" Bonin

Associate Athletics Director / Senior Woman Administrator

Louise "Do" Bonin begins her 13th year as the Senior Woman Administrator at Nicholls, a position that oversees the day-to-day operation of the Lady Colonel athletic programs.

Bonin, formerly the head women's basketball coach for the Lady Colonels, came to Nicholls after a year as an assistant at Fordham University in The Bronx, New York, where she was a part of the Rams' first appearance in the NCAA Division I Championship. Fordham posted a 21-9 record and captured the Patriot League's regular season and post-season tournament championships.

At Nicholls, Bonin inherited a team that had posted one winning season. During her 10-year span at the helm, the Lady Colonels continued to improve and become competitive in the Southland Conference. During the 1998-99 campaign, Bonin's squad captured the most wins since the 1990-91 season, and reached the Southland Conference Tournament for the first time in school history.

The New Iberia native began her coaching career at Dodson High School, where six of her seven teams advanced to the Class C state playoffs. She served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Pineville High School, and, from 1987-92, was the physical education department head and basketball coach at Leesville High School, where four of her five teams advanced to the state playoffs.

Bonin earned her bachelor's degree from Northwestern State in 1977 and earned a master's degree in secondary administration and supervision from Northwestern in 1983.

The Southland Conference

"The Southland Conference serves to unite its members in celebrating academic success, achieving competitive excellence, promoting positive values and developing community relationships within a framework of efficiency, integrity, and personal dignity."

In an era of considerable change in intercollegiate athletics, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions.

What began as a small gathering of college administrators over 45 years ago, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 12 member universities in three states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, that included current members Lamar University (then Lamar State College of Technology) and the University of Texas at Arlington (then Arlington State College), the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into its fifth decade of existence.

On July 1, 2006, the Southland Conference commemorated another milestone as the league membership reached 12, marking the largest configuration ever for the organization. The addition of the University of Central Arkansas and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi expanded the Southland into the Little Rock metro area and into the eighth largest city in Texas. UCA and A&M-Corpus Christi enhanced the Southland Conference in innumerable ways, including athletic and academic successes, strong and principled leadership, and strong fan support and media coverage.

In addition to its two newest members, the Southland Conference lineup also consists of Lamar University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Sam Houston State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, Stephen F. Austin State University, the University of Texas at Arlington, the University of Texas at San Antonio, and Texas State University-San Marcos.

All told, the revised membership of the Southland encompasses over 160,000 current students and an alumni base of approximately 700,000. Famous alums from Southland Conference schools include former President Lyndon B. Johnson (Texas State), CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), U.S. Central Command general Tommy Franks (UT Arlington), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news and sports anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), country music star George Strait (Texas State), Major League Baseball stars Hunter Pence (UT Arlington), Kevin Millar (Lamar) and Ben Broussard (McNeese State), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas), and actor Lou Diamond Phillips (UT Arlington).

The cities of the Southland are diverse and progressive, ranging from international business and cultural centers such as the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex, San Antonio and the New Orleans area, to the historical cities of Nacogdoches, Texas, and Natchitoches, La., to the home of the modern oil boom, Beaumont, Texas, to the unique Cajun French cultures found in the Louisiana cities of Thibodaux and Lake Charles. Southland Conference institutions also draw large numbers of students from the metropolitan areas of Houston, Little Rock, Baton Rouge, Austin and Shreveport.

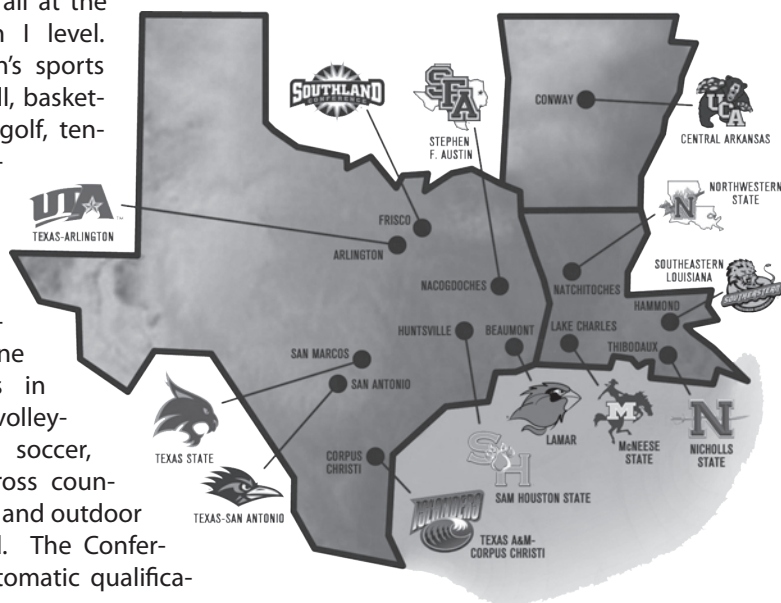

The Southland sponsors 17 championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include football, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis, cross country, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in basketball, volleyball, softball, soccer, golf, tennis, cross country, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The Conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, volleyball, men's golf, men's and women's tennis, women's soccer, men's and women's outdoor track and field, and men's and women's cross country.

The conference has increased sponsorship and championships opportunities for female student-athletes in recent years, adding women's golf and soccer as league sports. In 2007, Stephen F. Austin became the first SLC team to score a goal in the NCAA Tournament, while Texas State became the first women's golf program to compete in the NCAA Tournament.

In addition to providing expanding opportunities for student-athletes, the Southland Conference and its member institutions are very involved in various community outreach programs. Many of these programs provide positive life skills training such as academics, citizenship and leadership to school-aged students in Southland communities.

The Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes.

Media Information

The Office of Media Relations for Athletics at Nicholls State University, under the direction of Brandon Rizzuto, Director of Media Relations for Athletics, and Elizabeth Ballard, Assistant Director for Media Relations for Athletics, is responsible for the day-to-day publicity efforts of 15 Division I sports. The primary function of the Nicholls Office of Media Relations for Athletics is to service and accommodate the media in its coverage of the entire Colonel Athletic Department.

The Office of Media Relations for Athletics, located in Barker Hall, handles a myriad of press services, including, but not limited to, the issuing of credentials, the publication of media guides, game programs and press notes as well as maintaining statistics and upkeeping the website.

Members of the Office of Media Relations for Athletics will assist with any gameday needs, including player and coach information, in-game statistics and post-game notes and quotes. Journalists and media covering Nicholls State University Athletics benefit from working in a professional and comfortable environment.

Please adhere to the following guidelines when covering Lady Colonel soccer during the 2007 season.

During the Week

The Nicholls men's basketball team practices weekday afternoons in Stopher Gym. All practices are open to the media and public, but are subject to closure at the discretion of Coach Piper. When attending practice, please inform the Office of Media Relations for Athletics prior to your arrival. Please refrain from talking to coaches and players during the practice session.

Player and Coach Availability

Interviews with Nicholls men's basketball players and coaches MUST be arranged through Elizabeth Ballard. Please give at least 24 hours notice when requesting players. All interviews will be done either on the field following practice or in the Office of Media Relations for Athletics. Phone interviews also may be set up through the Office of Media Relations for Athletics.

Media Credentials

Media credentials for Nicholls home events are issued to working media only. All credential requests should be submitted to the Office of Media Relations for Athletics (phone: (985) 448-4282, fax: (985) 448-4490, e-mail: elizabeth.ballard@nicholls.edu).
