2012 NICHOLLS FOOTBALL
MEDIA GUIDE

Putting the N in Community

Since taking over the program, third-year head coach Charlie Stubbs has emphasized the importance of giving back to the community. While the Colonel football program strives year-round to be successful on the field and in the classroom, the commitment to give back has no offseason as well. Throughout the year, members of the program take time to visit schools and hospitals, while also lending a hand to various charitable organizations.

2012 NICHOLLS OUTLOOK

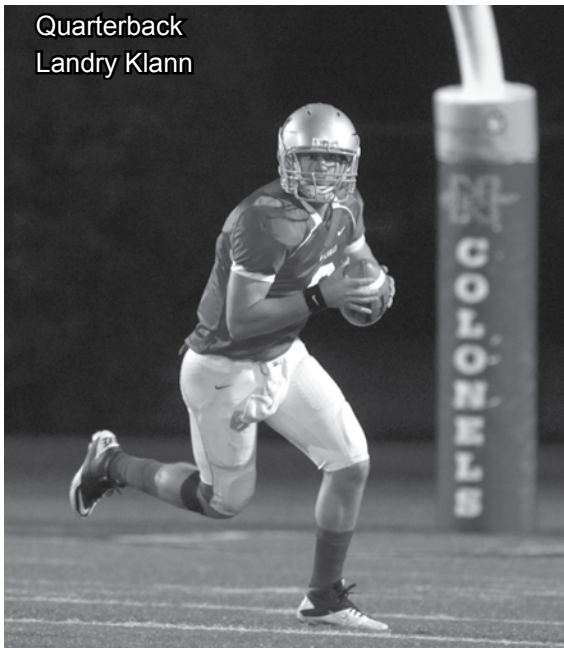

It's been said that a brother is born for adversity. With the misfortunes that last season's team endured - such as injuries, inexperience and bad luck - the 2012 squad heads into the upcoming season with a fitting team motto - Band of Brothers.

Nicholls had a promising start in 2011, but following the opener, about everything that could go wrong, did go wrong; resulting in a 10-game losing streak. However, Nicholls returns 52 letterwinners who suffered through that adversity - eager and determined to take the program to the next level.

Although the Colonels will be excited to put last season behind them, third-year head coach Charlie Stubbs' squad will have its work cut out from them as Nicholls opens against three teams from the Football Bowl Subdivision. In addition to facing three FBS schools for the first time in program history, the Southland Conference schedule isn't much easier as it features the national runners-up, Sam Houston State, and playoff qualifier Central Arkansas.

Quarterback
Landry Klann

QUARTERBACKS

-With Coach Stubbs shaking up the offense by switching three-year starting quarterback LaQuintin Caston to wide receiver, the Colonels will look to junior Landry Klann and sophomore Beaux Hebert to direct the offense. Klann, who is the projected starter, had two starts under center last year, including a near upset against Central Arkansas. On the year, Klann completed 63.2 percent of his passes, throwing for 377 yards and two touchdowns. Klann also displayed his rushing ability, scoring two times on the ground.

-Hebert saw limited action before suffering a shoulder injury which kept him sidelined through the spring. In his five games last season, he connected on 24 of 44 attempts, accounting for 254 yards and a score.

-Caston could still see action under center, lining up in the wildcat formation. In his three seasons at QB, he reeled off 1,513 yards rushing with 21 touchdowns. Last year, Caston ran for a career-best 707 yards, scoring five times.

RUNNING BACKS

-Senior Jesse Turner and junior Marcus Washington will receive the bulk of the carries in the running game after Caston led the team in rushing over the past two seasons. Both have proved to be capable of handling the load as each earned second-team All-Southland in their season as the feature back. In 2011, with Turner in a limited role due to a knee injury in the spring, Washington stepped in to accumulate 565 yards, averaging 4.5 yards per carry with four touchdowns. He also displayed his receiving skills, catching 23 passes for 170 yards and two scores. Against Central Arkansas, Washington recorded his first career 100-yard game, rushing for 101 yards on 15 carries.

-Turner will look to regain his form from 2010, where he led the SLC with a 5.7 yard-per-carry average. After completing a demanding rehab, he was able to play in eight games last season, racking up 184 all-purpose yards with one touchdown.

-Providing depth for the backfield are junior Dalton Hilliard, sophomores Stephen Richmond and Joshua Johnson, and senior Ryan Anglin. All four received carries in 2011 as Nicholls rushed for 1,614 yards on the year.

WIDE RECEIVERS/TIGHT ENDS

-Nicholls will have to replace its top receiver from last season, Kenyad Blair, but possesses several options in the passing game as it returns nine receivers who earned letters in 2011. Sophomore Demon Bolt emerged late in the campaign to lead the Colonels with three touchdowns, while finishing the season with 12 receptions for 95 yards. Bolt also showed his versatility, carrying the ball 10 times for 41 yards.

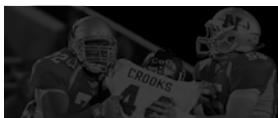

-Junior Brad Nelson is the top returner in yards, recording 117 on nine receptions. Senior Andrew Wynn also passed the 100-yard mark, catching seven balls for 101 yards. Rounding out the two-deep for the Colonels are junior Jordan Arcement (93 yards, 8 rec.), sophomore Josh Hanberry (32 yards, 5 rec.) and LaQuintin Caston.

-At tight end, sophomore Nick Scelfo earned second-team All-SLC after finishing second on the team with 189 yards on 15 receptions with one TD. Against UCA, Scelfo put together his best game with 55 yards on six receptions.

-Also back at tight end are senior Marshall Crawford, junior Josh Dudley and sophomore Mark Mayberry.

Offensive Lineman
Gerald Gruenig

OFFENSIVE LINE

-The offensive line will be anchored by senior Gerald Gruenig and Rafe Plaisance. While the injury bug hit the O-line last season, four freshmen, including Plaisance, were forced to play and will head into the fall as the projected starters.

-The tackle position will feature three second-year players, with Ryan Zeller and Tyler Knowles playing as true freshman last season, combining for six starts. Behind Zeller and Knowles on the pre-fall depth chart is redshirt freshman Garrison Trice.

-At guard, two sophomores, Plaisance and Caleb Cline, are projected to start. Plaisance notched six starts in 2011, while Cline appeared in six games, starting in two.

-Gruenig will return to the center position after suffering a season-ending leg injury last year. Gruenig, a two-year starter, played in all five games for the Colonels in 2011 before his injury. Backing up Gruenig is sophomore Caleb Cline.

DEFENSIVE LINE

-In the defensive front, the line will be senior-heavy as Fernandez Garner and Darrell Brown are on the outside, with Edet Udoh at nose tackle. Brown was fourth on the team in tackles (48) and led the Colonels with 2.5 sacks. Garner recorded 1.5 sacks, while Udoh also got to the quarterback once as he finished with 5.5 tackles for loss.

-Backing up the seniors on the line is a trio of sophomores - Cole Frazier, Jordan Thompson and Andrew Carter. All played in at least three games as true freshmen last season, led by Frazier who had two starts in nine games played.

LINEBACKERS

-At linebacker, senior leading tackler Jordan Piper (81) heads three returning starters. Piper has been one of the most consistent players on the defensive side of the ball, racking up close to 200 tackles in his three seasons. Seniors Rashar Knight and Kerry Guidry hold down the edges of the 3-4, with junior transfer Chris Bermond looking to join Piper inside. Knight finished fifth in tackles (44) and blocked three kicks, while Guidry moved up from the secondary late last season, finishing the year with 33 tackles and an interception.

-On the depth chart, while all four backups are underclassmen, three earned significant player time last season. Sophomores Tyler Harrington and Ryan Bruno shore up the middle, with fellow classmate Davin Bovie and redshirt freshman Marcus Parker on the outside.

-The Colonels also bolstered the position by bringing in transfer Dwayne Mitchell from the University of Minnesota. Mitchell played primarily as a backup and on special teams.

SECONDARY

-In the secondary, junior safeties Jordan Hanberry, T.J. Lumar and Siegan Vergenal return, but the Colonels will have to replace their starting cornerbacks. As a team, Nicholls had nine interceptions last season, but seven came from departing starters Bobby Felder and Chika Madu.

-Along with finishing second on the team in tackles (65), Vergenal forced five fumbles last season, which was tied for fourth in the FCS. Hanberry played in all 11 games, tallying 43 tackles while Lumar had 27, a sack and an interception. Rounding out the safeties is sophomore Byron Cobb, who appeared in nine games.

-At cornerback, junior Brian Lewis is expected to anchor one side, emerging as a starter at the end of last season. Lewis had 43 tackles and a sack on the year, and also broke up two passes. Battling for the final opening in the secondary are four others, including junior transfer Anthony McLean.

Safety
Siegan Vergenal

Punter
Cory Kemps

SPECIALISTS

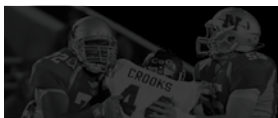

-Senior first-team All-SLC punter Cory Kemps returns after finishing sixth in the nation with a 42.8 yard per punt average. Of his fifty attempts, Kemps pinned 16 inside the 20 and had 11 that went for 50 yards or longer.

-Junior kicker Andrew Dolan will retain his role after a solid 2011 season where he led the Colonels with 42 points scored. Dolan made 6-of-9 field goal attempts and only misfired on one PAT. He also connected on a career-long 49-yarder against Lamar. On kickoffs, he averaged 57.6 yards per attempt and had two touchbacks.

-Senior Ben Landry will provide backup for both kicking positions. Landry spelled Kemps last season after an injury and booted a 58-yard punt on his only attempt. Landry also displayed his athleticism, rushing for 25 yards on a fake punt.

-The Colonels will have to replace all three primary returners from 2011, including Nicholls' all-time leader in kick return yards, Chika Madu. Josh Hanberry is set to return kickoffs, with Demon Bolt slated as the punt returner.

-Sophomore Ty Boudreaux returns as the long snapper, with junior Clint Clement listed at No. 2 on the depth chart.

Head Coach • Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks

Charlie Stubbs enters his third season as the head coach at Nicholls State University.

With over 32 years of coaching experience, which includes six years as an assistant head coach, Stubbs was selected to become the ninth head coach in the program's history on January 5, 2010. He joined the Colonels after holding the title of offensive coordinator at the University of Central Missouri for two years, where the Mules ranked first in conference in passing both seasons.

After two years at the helm at Nicholls, Stubbs has posted a 5-17 record, with three wins in conference. Last season, despite having to play several inexperienced players due to injuries, the Colonels battled through the adversity to compete in what proved to be one of the best conferences in the Football Championship Subdivision, which featured national runner-up Sam Houston State.

Although Nicholls came up short in conference play, the Colonels had numerous players recognized for their efforts, including nine players earning All-Southland honors. Bobby Felder, Cory Kempers and Chika Madu all garnered first-team, while Marcus Washington and Nick Scelfo were named second-team. Earning honorable mention for Nicholls were Andrew Dolan, Jordan Piper, Edet Udoh and Siegan Vergenall. Felder, a three-year starter at cornerback, went on to sign a rookie free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

Off the field, Stubbs' dedication to the classroom continued to pay dividends as Nicholls had two players – Kerry Guidry and Jordan Hanberry – earn Southland Conference All-Academic. In addition, 25 players were named to the Southland Conference Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll, with four earning a perfect 4.0 grade point average. Stubbs also keeps the Colonels active in the community as the players and coaches frequently visit hospitals, schools and volunteer their time to assist various local events.

Since taking over the program, two areas that Stubbs has focused on are building the program by signing student-athletes who are from Louisiana, and pitting his team against high-quality opponents in non-conference. In his first two full recruiting seasons, Stubbs has brought in 30 student-athletes who are from the Bayou State, and for the first time in program history, the Colonels will take on three programs from the Football Bowl Subdivision.

A Charleston, South Carolina native with over 24 years of collegiate coaching experience, Stubbs led the Colonels to four victories in his inaugural season, their most since 2007, despite installing an entire new offense. Stubbs replaced the heavy-rush scheme for a multiple-pro system, and although suffering growing pains throughout the year, the Colonels closed out the season in a big way by winning their final two contests.

In 2010, Stubbs guided Nicholls to victories in all three of its rivalry games – Texas State, Northwestern State and Southeastern Louisiana – for the first time since 2005. Also in his first season, the Colonels claimed two of their wins away from John L. Guidry Stadium, the most since '07.

Before his stint at Central Missouri, Stubbs was the offensive coordinator at the University of Louisville in 2007. While at Louisville, he guided the Cardinals to a national No. 4 ranking in passing offense which featured NFL players Brian Brohm and Harry Douglas (Atlanta Falcons).

Prior to UL, Stubbs spent four seasons at the University of Tulsa, leading the offense to an average of over 31 points per game while ranking among the top 25 teams in the nation each season. In 2005, Stubbs was a finalist for the American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year as the Hurricanes were crowned Conference USA and Liberty Bowl champions en route to a 9-4 finish.

From 1998-2000, Stubbs was the quarterbacks coach/passing game coordinator at the University of Alabama, where he helped direct the Crimson Tide to a pair of bowl appearances. After reaching the Music City Bowl in '98, 'Bama won the SEC title and earned a bid to the 2000 Orange Bowl with Stubbs receiving the SEC Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

Stubbs had three stints from 1994-97, spending his last two years at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas after one-year stints with University of Tennessee-Martin and the University of Memphis. In '97, Stubbs' Runnin Rebels offense ranked 12th in the nation in passing after holding the ninth spot in '96. Following one year at Memphis, Stubbs had a historical season at UTM as the Skyhawks set nine Ohio Valley Conference records while leading the conference in passing.

Stubbs received his first full-time position at Oregon State where he coached from 1985-90. Under his coordination, the Beavers ranked in the top three in the Pac-10 on offense in each season while ranking sixth nationally in '88 and 10th in '87.

After receiving a Bachelor's of Science in 1978 from Brigham Young University, Stubbs earned a master's in physical education in '84 working as a graduate assistant for the football team. During that season, head coach LaVell Edwards led the Cougars to a perfect 13-0 record to claim the 1984 Division I National Championship, making BYU the last non-BCS school to earn the title.

Stubbs has published three books throughout his career - "Wide Open Football," "Developing an Explosive Offense," and his most recent, "101 Playmakers and Special Plays".

Stubbs and his wife Sandy reside in Thibodaux. The couple has four children - Troy, Jay, Kim and Kyle - and is the proud grandparents of eight.

GAME SIX

October 8, 2011
John L. Guidry Stadium
Thibodaux, La.
Central Arkansas, 37, Nicholls 31

The Nicholls State University football team put together one of its best offensive showings, guided by sophomore quarterback Landry Klann, but Central Arkansas outscored Nicholls 21-6 in the second half and came up with a late game-winning goal line stance to secure a 37-31 victory at John L. Guidry Stadium.

With Nicholls (1-5, 0-2 SLC) trailing by six with 4:31 remaining in the game, the Colonels forced a three-and-out, but Central Arkansas (3-3, 2-1 SLC) elected to go for a 4th-and-1 at their own 33. Nathan Dick, who finished with 306 yards passing and three touchdowns for UCA, was stuffed on a sneak by linebacker Jordan Piper, giving the ball back to Nicholls.

On the ensuing possession on 4th-and-goal at the 7 with 1:43 on the clock, Klann, playing in his first game this season, found tight end Nick Scelfo open on the right side. Scelfo made a diving reach for the end zone, but a pair of UCA defenders knocked him out of bounds at the 1 to deny the game-tying touchdown.

Klann, who got the start due to injuries, had a remarkable 2011 debut, throwing for a career-high 237 yards on 19-of-26 with one touchdown. The San Antonio native also rushed for 35 yards and scored on a 1-yard sneak in the second quarter.

Sophomore running back Marcus Washington led the ground attack, accumulating a career-best 101 yards on just 15 carriers with two touchdowns.

Piper and Bobby Felder led all defenders with 12 tackles. Siegan Vergenal added eight and Ryan Bruno had seven.

In an era of considerable change in intercollegiate athletics, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions.

What began as a small gathering of college administrators nearly 50 years ago, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 11 member universities in four states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, that included current member Lamar University (then Lamar State College of Technology), the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into its fifth decade of existence.

The successful transformation continues. On Oct. 11, 2011, the Southland Conference announced the addition of Oral Roberts University, effective for the 2012-13 academic year, marking the league's first entry into the state of Oklahoma and the Tulsa metropolitan area. Shortly thereafter, on Nov. 21, the Southland announced the addition of Houston Baptist University for the 2013-14 academic year, giving the league an 11th member and its first institution in the region's largest city, home to significant student-recruitment and alumni bases.

In addition to its two newest members, the Southland Conference membership also consists of the University of Central Arkansas, Lamar University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Sam Houston State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, Stephen F. Austin State University and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

All told, the membership of the Southland encompasses approximately 120,000 current students and an alumni base of nearly 700,000. Famous alums from current Southland Conference schools include former CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), major League Baseball stars Kevin Millar (Lamar) and Mike Miley (Southeastern Louisiana), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas), Grammy Award-winning musicians Don Henley and Rodney Crowell (both Stephen F. Austin), NFL standout Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State), PGA Tour golfer Chris Stroud (Lamar), award-winning filmmaker Richard Linklater (Sam Houston State), American Idol winner Kris Allen (Central Arkansas), NCAA football coach Charlie Strong (Central Arkansas), TV personality Kathie Lee Gifford (Oral Roberts), and NFL coaching legend O.A. "Bum" Phillips (Lamar, Stephen F. Austin).

The cities of the Southland are diverse and progressive, ranging from international business and cultural basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. The conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

Continuing its tradition of innovation, the league launched the Southland Conference Television Network in the fall of 2008 and has already broadcast more than 130 events. The network is expanding its reach to roughly 11 million households throughout Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma in 2012-13. In its first four years, the regional network has received recognition for its work, nationally, and advanced to the NCAA national championship game. Also, in 2002 and 2003, McNeese State finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation, and advanced to the 2002 national championship contest. The conference has been represented in seven national championship games since the league joined the Football Championship Subdivision (formerly I-AA) in 1982. All told, Southland teams have played in 99 Division I playoff games in 30 years, winning 47 of the contests.

Historically, the Southland's successful football heritage has sustained itself through numerous membership and classification changes. Originally an NAIA conference, the Southland joined the NCAA College Division in 1968. The College Division was re-named NCAA Division II in 1973, and the league played two seasons in that class, before joining Division I in 1975. The Southland was an NCAA Division I-A league from 1978-81, before joining the ranks of FCS in 1982, its home ever since.

During its tenure as a Division I-A conference, the Southland Conference was instrumental in the startup of the Independence Bowl in 1976. The Southland representative served as the host team of the bowl until 1980, compiling a 2-3 record in those contests.

The conference can lay claim to five national championships, including College Division championships through former members Arkansas State (1970, UPI) and Louisiana Tech (1972, National Football Foundation). Louisiana Tech also won the first NCAA-sanctioned national title, winning the Division II playoffs in 1973. Tech followed that with the UPI's Division II national championship in 1974. Louisiana-Monroe won the 1987 national championship.

McNeese State, which has made 14 appearances in the national playoffs, also played in the 1997 NCAA Division I Championship game, while Stephen F. Austin played in the 1989 title contest and has six playoff appearances, including 2009 and 2010. Northwestern State has played in the playoffs six times, and advanced to the semifinals in 1998, while Sam Houston State has earned centers such as Houston, New Orleans, Tulsa and Little Rock, to the historical cities of Nacogdoches, Texas, and Natchitoches, La., to the home of the modern oil boom, Beaumont, Texas, to the unique Cajun French cultures found in the Louisiana cities of Thibodaux and Lake Charles. Southland Conference institutions also draw large numbers of students from the metropolitan areas of Dallas-Fort Worth, San Antonio, Baton Rouge, Austin, and Shreveport.

The Southland sponsors 17 championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in earning College Sports Media and Telly Awards on a regular basis.

The Southland Conference, in conjunction with the city of Frisco, Texas and Hunt Sports Group, also serves as the host to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Game in Frisco, which has been home to the conference headquarters since 2006. The game is played at Frisco's FC Dallas Stadium.

Southland Conference football ranks among the best Football Championship Subdivision leagues in the nation, and enjoys an annual expectation of competing for the national championship with multiple teams advancing to the NCAA playoffs each year. In 2011, Sam Houston State finished the regular season undefeated and ranked No. 1 five trips to the postseason, including the semifinals in 2004. Nicholls State has participated three times in the playoffs, and Central Arkansas made its playoff debut in 2011. On four occasions, the Southland has placed three teams in the NCAA playoffs.

The Southland has produced 163 first-team football All-Americans during its history and in 2010, Stephen F. Austin quarterback Jeremy Moses became the first player in Southland history to receive the Walter Payton Award, which is presented annually to the most outstanding football player at the FCS level.

The Southland is one of five FCS conferences with at least 200 selections (205) in the National Football League draft. The league also ranks third in the FCS with 25 players taken in the draft since 2000 and has 13 former players on NFL rosters heading into the 2012 season.

The Southland Conference has also sent such talent to the professional ranks as Buffalo's Terrence McGee (Northwestern State) and Felton Huggins (Southeastern Louisiana), Minnesota's Rhett Bomar (Sam Houston State), Jacksonville's Bryan Smith (McNeese State) and Larry Hart (Central Arkansas), Tennessee's Jacob Ford (Central Arkansas), Baltimore's Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State), Seattle's Dominique Edison (Stephen F. Austin) and Green Bay's Antonio Robinson (Nicholls State), who became the Southland's 24th player to win a Super Bowl when the Packers beat Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV in Arlington in 2011.

Among the former NFL stars from the Southland include Fred Dean, who was inducted to the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 2008 to become the first former Southland Conference player to earn induction in Canton. Other great NFL players from the Southland include Super Bowl XXIX quarterback Stan Humphries, Bill Bergey, Mike Barber, Fred Barnett, Bubby Brister, Ray Brown, Roger Carr, Larry Centers, Bruce Collie, Jackie Harris, Buford Jordan, Tim McKyer, Kavika Pittman, Billy Ryckman, Rickey Sanders, Eugene Seale, Rafael Septien, Terrance Shaw, Marcus Spears, Pat Tilley and Marvin Upshaw.

The Southland Conference has also seen its share of great coaches during its history in Maxie Lambright, Ernie Duplechin, Sam Goodwin, Jack Doland, Bennie Ellender, Bobby Keasler, Larry Lacewell, Bill Davidson, Dennis Franchione, Pat Collins, and Ron Randleman.

In addition to football, the Southland Conference can point to a number of accomplishments in all sports.

Men's basketball has experienced a tremendous amount of success during the Southland's 45-plus years. The league has sent two teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, as well as a squad to the NIT Final Four. Basketball stars Karl Malone, Joe Dumars, Jeff Foster, Dwight "Bo" Lamar, Andrew Toney and Mike Oliver played in the Southland Conference. In 2006, Northwestern State, playing as the No. 14 seed in the NCAA tournament, defeated No. 3 seed Iowa, 64-63, in first-round action. The league also saw three of its current teams, including newcomer Oral Roberts, reach the postseason in 2011.

Coaches such as Billy Tubbs, Mike Vining, Scotty Robertson, Jack Martin, Andy Russo, Bobby Paschal and Pat Foster have led teams in the Southland.

In women's basketball, the Southland also has its share of tradition with former member Louisiana-Monroe advancing to the 1985 NCAA Women's Final Four, and Stephen F. Austin sustaining itself as one of the most successful programs in the history of the sport. In 2008, the Ladyjacks became the eighth program in NCAA Division I history to record more than 800 wins.

In each of the last three seasons, at least three Southland teams reached the postseason, and in 2011, half of the current members, five (including newcomer Oral Roberts), earned postseason berths. A Southland team has played in the WNIT 12 times, including each of the last six years. Women's basketball all-stars have included Eun Jung Lee, Lisa Ingram, Portia Hill, Deneen Parker, Katrina Price, and Joskeen Garner, and coaches such as Gary Blair, Linda Sharp, James Smith and Linda Harper.

Baseball has emerged as a constant Southland Conference strength with the league earning numerous national rankings and NCAA tournament berths. The Southland consistently ranks among the top-10 conferences in the country. In 2011, 50 of the league's 150 non-conference victories came against the Big 12, Conference USA, Sun Belt and SEC. Major leaguers such as Ben Sheets, Micah Hoffpauir, Hunter Pence, David Segui, Brian Lawrence, Ben Broussard, Chuck Finley, Jerald Clark, and Terry Matthews once played in the Southland.

In 2012, Southeastern Louisiana's Stefan Lopez became the league's second winner of the national Stopper of the Year Award, which is selected by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers. Sam Houston State's Luke Prihoda won the award in 2007. Only the Big 12 Conference has had more players win that award.

The Southland also fares well each year in the Major League Draft. Seventeen players were selected in 2012, a year after the league saw 25 players taken in 2011, which matched 1995 for the most in its history. The league, which has had 456 draft picks all time, has had two players, Ben Sheets (Louisiana-Monroe) and Michael Choice (UT Arlington) taken seventh in the draft, marking the league's highest-ever draft picks.

In 2011, Lamar mentor Jim Gilligan became the first Southland coach to reach 1,200 career victories, ranking him sixth-best in the NCAA among active Division I coaches and 24th all-time. After 26 years as a college head coach, including his last five years at Sam Houston State, Mark Johnson retired following the 2011 season with 1,043 career wins. He is among an impressive list of coaches who have patrolled Southland Conference dugouts, including Mike Bianco, John Cohen, Mitch Gaspard, Smoke Laval, Butch McBroom, Pat Patterson, Tony Robichaux, Dave Van Horn and Jim Wells.

Softball continues to enjoy success on a national level, beating nationally-ranked opponents every year since 1995, including McNeese State's win at No. 1 Arizona State early in the 2012 season. In 2011, the league had four wins against ranked opponents, including a win by Stephen F. Austin at No. 3 Texas. In 20 years of NCAA tournament competition the Southland has racked up 15 wins.

The Southland also has a proud history in volleyball with former member UT Arlington representing the conference numerous times in the NCAA tournament, including a run to the NCAA Volleyball Final Four in 1989.

Track and field has also served as a proud asset for the Southland Conference as the league has produced numerous national champions and Olympic medalists. The Southland boasts 28 men and three women student-athletes who have won NCAA track and field national championships, including Northwestern State's Trecey Rew, who won the women's discus in 2011, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi's Shadrack Songok (10,000-meter run) in 2007 and 2008 and McNeese State's Brad Gebauer (pole vault) in 2007. The league has also produced U.S. Olympic track and field medalists Earl Bell, Thomas Hill, Al Joyner and Charles Austin, Liudmila Litvinova, along with other Olympians. With the addition of 10 more All-Americans in 2012, the league continues to find national success in both indoor and outdoor track and field. In the indoor circuit, the Southland boasts 66 unique all-time All-Americans that have won a combined 11 national championships. Likewise, in the outdoor season, the league has seen 158 different All-Americans, including 128 men and 30 women, who have combined to win 21 national championships.

Golf has traditionally been a strong Southland sport as exemplified by Lamar men's golfer Chris Stroud, who finished third individually at the 2003 NCAA National Championship and is a member of the PGA Tour. Both Stroud and former Southeastern Louisiana golfer Hugo Leon competed in the 2010 U.S. Open. The league has sent multiple teams into postseason play on numerous occasions, including in 2012 when three Southland teams – Lamar, Southeastern Louisiana and UT Arlington – competed in the NCAA tournament. Additionally, during the past four seasons the Southland has sent 10 golfers to compete as individuals in regional play with five in 2009, three more in 2010 and one each in 2011 and 2012. Lamar won a pair of NCAA Division II national championships in 1967 and 1968, and also produced PGA player Ronnie Black.

In 2005, Lamar's Dawie Van Der Walt finished fourth individually and Lamar tied for 12th place at the NCAA Men's Golf Championship, before the Cardinals tied for ninth in 2006 and tied for third in 2007. Former Lamar golfer Casey Clendenon advanced to the semifinals of the U.S. Amateur in 2007.

In women's tennis, Southeastern Louisiana won 46 consecutive conference matches during a four-year period that began in 2005, while in men's tennis Texas A&M-Corpus Christi has played in the NCAA tournament four times in the last six years.

The conference has increased sponsorship and championship opportunities for female student-athletes in recent years, adding women's golf and soccer as league sports.

The Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes. With the F.L. McDonald Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the league annually honors one male and one female scholar-athlete with a stipend for postgraduate study. The Scholar-Athlete Award is given to each institution's male and female student-athlete with the highest grade-point average. The Steve McCarty Citizenship Award, initiated in 2005-06 and named after the former Stephen F. Austin athletic director, properly recognizes accomplishments off the court for a male and female student-athlete. Also, student-athletes with grade-point averages above 3.0 are honored on the Southland's annual All-Academic teams and Commissioner's Honor Roll. A record 979 student-athletes appeared on the honor roll following the 2012 spring

While successful on the fields and courts, the Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes.

The conference continues to make great strides in the classroom. During the last six years, no other Division I conference has improved its Academic Progress Rate as well as the Southland Conference has. In fact, in 2009-10, the Southland ranked 10th among the 31 Division I leagues in men's basketball APR. The academic progress the league has shown ultimately leads to higher graduation rates for our student-athletes.

In addition to providing expanding opportunities for student-athletes, the Southland Conference and its member institutions are very involved in various community outreach programs. Many of these programs provide positive life skills training such as academics, citizenship and leadership to school-aged students in Southland communities.

Gary Kinchen

Gary Kinchen was faced with building a football program when he was named Nicholls State's first head coach in 1971. In the school's first two intercollegiate seasons, his teams posted a 5-17 record.

Under Kinchen, the Colonels won the first two games ever played in Guidry Stadium, then known simply as Colonel Stadium. NSU defeated Ouachita Baptist 12-7 in its home opener then a week later defeated Slippery Rock 18-14.

Nicholls finished its first season with a 3-8 record then went 2-9 the following year.

Kinchen assumed the head coaching duties after two years at Rice (1969-70) where he coached both the offensive and defensive lines.

His coaching career began at Glen Oaks High School in Baton Rouge after letting three years as an offensive lineman at Louisiana State (1961-63).

After two seasons as an assistant coach on the Glen Oaks staff, Kinchen was named the head coach. His coaching career also included stops at Southwestern Louisiana (1966) and Tulane (1967-68).

Bill Clements

1974-80

Bill Clements has the distinction of being the first football coach Nicholls State hired in 1971.

Clements was the Colonels' defensive coordinator for three seasons, including the school's final year it fielded a club team in 1971. He was named Nicholls State's head coach when Gary Kinchen resigned in 1974.

Under Clements, the Colonels won their first conference championship, capturing the 1975 Gulf South Conference title. That squad posted an 8-2 overall record and was 7-2 in the GSC.

In seven seasons, Clements' teams posted a 36-38-1 record. His 1979 squad went 8-3.

Prior to being a catalyst in building Nicholls State's program, Clements was the defensive coordinator for nine years at Holy Cross High School in New Orleans (1962-70). During his tenure at Holy Cross, the Warriors won a state championship, were the state runners-up twice and captured five district titles. He also coached a year at his alma mater Tulane for a year after graduating in 1960. Clements was an offensive and defensive lineman at Tulane and was named the Green Wave's team captain in 1959.

Sonny Jackson

Under Sonny Jackson, Nicholls State made its first appearance in the Division I-AA Championships. In his final season as head coach in 1986, the Colonels posted a 9-2 regular-season record to earn at-large bid to the championship.

The Colonels defeated Appalachian State 28-26 in the first round before suffering a 55-31 loss to eventual champion Georgia Southern in the quarterfinals.

Nicholls State also won the 1984 Gulf Star Conference championship under Jackson.

In seven seasons, Jackson's career record was 39-28-1 at Nicholls State.

Jackson received his bachelor's degree from Nicholls State in 1963 and began his coaching career at Chauvin High School as an assistant. He was the head coach at Chauvin for nine years and was also the head coach at Central High School in Baton Rouge before joining the Northeast Louisiana staff as an assistant in 1979.

Jackson coached two years at NLU before being named the Colonels' head coach.

Phil Greco

1987-92

Under the leadership of football coach and athletic director Phil Greco, Nicholls State was extended an invitation to join the Southland Conference in 1990.

The Colonels began playing in the league in 1991 and won its first conference game, a 15-10 victory over defending champion Northeast Louisiana.

In six seasons, Greco's record at Nicholls State was 27-37-2. During his tenure, Nicholls played Division I-AA opponents for the first time. NSU's road schedule during the late 1980s included games at Akron, Louisiana Tech and a 24-21 loss at Southwestern Louisiana in 1989.

Greco came to Nicholls State from Tulane where he was an assistant at his alma mater for two years. He coached the Green Wave running backs in 1985 and in 1986, he handled offensive tackles and tight ends.

He also coached three years at Northeast Louisiana (1981-83) and a year at Southern Mississippi (1984).

After graduating from Tulane in 1970, Greco was an assistant and head coach at F.T. Nicholls High School in New Orleans, an assistant at DeLaSalle and Archbishop Shaw and the head coach at East St. John from 1978-80. His 1980 team won the state championship with a 14-0 record.

Rick Rhoades

Rick Rhoades brought to Nicholls State a winning track record and the unique "Stack-I" offense.

The Colonels went 1-9-1 the year prior to Rhoades' arrival before going 3-8 his first year. NSU was 5-6 in Rhoades' only other season at Nicholls State in 1994.

Nicholls State's "Stack-I" offense accounted for 11 school records the first season and the Colonels were ranked ninth in the nation in rushing the second year using the system.

Rhoades' coaching career included three seasons as head coach at Troy State (1985-87). The Trojans won the 1987 NCAA Division II national championship. He was also a member of Troy State's 1984 national championship team serving as defensive coordinator (1983-84).

Rhoades went on to be head coach at Southern Illinois (1988). He was an assistant coach under Bill Curry at both Alabama (1989) and Kentucky (1990-92).

Rhoades graduated from Central Missouri State in 1970 and his coaching career began at Mountain Brook High School in Birmingham, Ala., which captured the 1976 state championship. He was the offensive coordinator at North Alabama (1981-82) before joining the Troy State staff.

Darren Barbier

The first NCAA playoff appearance for the school in 10 years highlighted the Darren Barbier era as his 1996 team completed one of the better turnarounds in I-AA football history. That team finished 8-4 and Barbier was rewarded with several coaching awards including Southland Football League, Louisiana Sports Writers Association, Schutt Sports/American Football Quarterly I-AA and the 10th Annual Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year awards.

Barbier, 1982 graduate of NSU and former second baseman for the Colonels, led the school for four years compiling a 17-28 overall mark.

Prior to Nicholls State, Barbier was the head coach at Hahnville High School for six seasons compiling a 64-12 mark (.842). His last season in 1994, Barbier led the Tigers to a 15-0 record and his second 5A state championships. Under his tutelage, the school also notched four straight district titles.

Daryl Daye

Under the direction of Daryl Daye, the Colonels opened a new dimension of Nicholls football with the triple option. Daye struggled through the first three seasons by only winning six games. However, in his fourth season the Colonels finished 7-4, the fifth best in school history, broke several records and finished ranked No. 1 in Division I-AA in rushing in the process.

During his five-year tenure as head coach, Daye compiled a 17-38 overall mark and an 8-24 overall Southland Conference record.

Daye's coaching career included three years as a student assistant and a graduate assistant at LSU (1986-88), two seasons as a graduate assistant at Southern Mississippi (1989-90) and eight seasons at Liberty (1991-98), where he was co-defensive coordinator for the final three seasons.

Charlie Stubbs

A long time offensive coordinator in the college ranks, Charlie Stubbs officially became the ninth head coach in Colonel football history on Jan. 5, 2010.

Stubbs joined the Colonels after holding the title of offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Central Missouri for two seasons.

Before UCM, Stubbs directed offenses at several elite programs including Oregon State, UNLV, Alabama and Louisville. Stubbs has also published three books throughout his career - "Wide Open Football," "Developing an Explosive Offense," and his most recent, "101 Playmakers and Special Plays".

In his first season, Stubbs guided Nicholls to four victories, including all three rivalry games. The Colonels knocked off Texas State in four overtimes in the "Battle of the Paddle" before closing out the season with wins against Northwestern State and Southeastern Louisiana.

NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs

Nicholls 28, Appalachian State 26

Nov. 29, 1986 • Boone, N.C.

Nicholls State survived a fourth-quarter rally to defeat Appalachian State 28-26 and advance to the quarterfinals of the 1986 NCAA Division I-AA Championship.

Mountaineer place kicker Bjorn Nittmo missed a 42-yard field goal with 13 seconds remaining as the Colonels held on for the win.

NSU led 28-19 with 3:24 remaining when Jimbo Windham kicked a 40-yard field goal. The Colonels had driven from their own 25 to the Appalachian State 23 before settling for three points.

The Mountaineers got right back into the hunt on their next possession when Todd Payton hooked up with Doug Beaty for a 76-yard pass down to the Colonel four. Two plays later, John Settle scored on a five-yard touchdown run.

Nittmo's point-after made it 28-26 with 2:13 left to play.

An unsuccessful ASU on-side kick led to the Colonels taking possession at the Mountaineer 43.

After a couple runs by Brian Stropolo, Doug Hudson's third-down pass was picked off by Mountaineer linebacker Cedric Felton at ASU's 42.

Appalachian State moved the ball to the Colonel 25 before Nittmo's kick went wide left. It was the kicker's second miss of the day.

Nicholls State found a way to win despite giving up 544 yards of total offense. Settle set Division I-AA playoff records with 37 carries for 236 yards, including 151 in the second half.

Kevin Smoot, who lead the Colonels with 21 carries for 57 yards, had a one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. After a 21-yard run by Hudson, Melvin Lewis broke off the right side for a touchdown run to give NSU a 25-13 lead at the beginning of the fourth period to cap a string of 19 unanswered points for Nicholls.

Georgia Southern 55, Nicholls 31

Dec. 6, 1986 • Statesboro, Ga.

Quarterback Tracy Ham rambled for 191 yards, including a 55-yard run for the first of three Eagle touchdowns in the first quarter as Georgia Southern defeated Nicholls State 55-31.

The win was the Eagles' second playoff victory en route to the school's second straight national championship in 1986.

Nicholls State turned the ball over on their first three possessions of the game and Georgia Southern turned the trio of miscues into 21 points. In addition to Ham's first-quarter touchdown run on a fourth-and-one play, Gerald Harris had scoring runs of four and one yard.

The Colonels had a total of seven turnovers with five leading to Georgia Southern scores.

In addition to a pair of touchdown runs, Ham completed 11 of 19 passes for 167 yards.

The Colonels stuck with their game plan as Doug Hudson engineered a six-play, 74-yard scoring drive early in the second quarter. Following a 42-yard pass from Hudson to Alfred Dorsey, Brian Stropolo scored on a 10-yard touchdown run.

Hudson completed 18 of 28 passes for 298 yards but also threw three interceptions during the day.

Montana 48, Nicholls 3

Nov. 30, 1996 • Missoula, Mont.

Montana sophomore quarterback Brian Ah Yat passed for 363 yards and three touchdowns as the Grizzlies defeated Nicholls State 48-3 in the first round of the 1996 Division I-AA playoffs.

It was Nicholls

State's first appearance in the I-AA playoffs since 1986. Montana, the defending national champions, took its first step back to advancing back to the national championship game with the win over the Colonels.

The Colonels knew all about the Grizzlies' high-flying aerial attack but it was the Griz defense which shutdown NSU like a Montana blizzard closes down Interstate 90. Nicholls managed just 129 yards of total offense in the game, 64 rushing and 65 passing.

Nicholls' lone score was set up by a 33-yard interception return by Ricky Wilson down to the Montana 9. Adam Diel kicked a 42-yard field goal with 14 seconds left in the first quarter to cut the Grizzlies' lead to 10-3.

Montana scored on consecutive drives in the second quarter to take a 24-3 lead at the half. The Griz had 317 yards of total offense by the end of the first quarter to the Colonels' 32. Montana finished with 545 yards of total offense, including 447 passing.

Furman 14, Nicholls 12

Nov. 26, 2005 • Greenville, S.C.

The Colonels championship season came to an end, as the Furman Paladins used a stingy defense to sneak past Nicholls, 14-12.

Nicholls scored the first points of the game. After Furman's Jerome Felton fumbled at the Paladins' 34-yard line, Naton Stewart returned the ball 11 yards. After gaining six yards, Alex Romero kicked a 34-yard field goal with 11:21 left in the first quarter to give the Colonels an early 3-0 lead.

After threatening on several occasions, Nicholls quarterback Yale Vannoy threw a 40-yard pass to Michael Okoronkwo to help setup a 11-yard DeMarko Hutchinson scamper that put Nicholls inside the Paladins 10-yard line. Like it did most of the day, Furman's defense stepped up and forced a field goal attempt. Romero got the call and converted on a 20-yard try to give the Colonels a 6-0 lead with 11:21 remaining in the half.

After exchanging possession, the Paladins gained momentum following two rushes for 30 yards by Cedrick Gipson and an Ingle Martin 17-yard dash that put Furman on the Colonels 33-yard line. Two plays later, Martin hit Justin Stepp for a 29-yard completion in the endzone to give the Paladins a 7-6 lead heading into the locker room.

Furman carried the momentum gained from their last scoring drive into the third quarter. In a drive that saw the Paladins keeping the ball on the ground for all but five yards, Furman drove 57 yards in 15 plays, capped by a one-yard run by Martin to extend their lead to 14-6 with 8:06 remaining in the third quarter.

Determined not to let their championship season end, the Colonels answered with a score of their own. Facing third-and-9 from their 21-yard line, the Paladins Andrew Thacker was called for pass interference, giving Nicholls first-and-10 from their 36-yard line. Following a series of rushes by a trio of Colonels, Vannoy completed a 22-yard pass to Kenly Horton on fourth-and-3 for a Nicholls touchdown with 2:02 remaining in the third quarter. However, the Colonels' two-point attempt failed, giving Furman a two-point advantage at 14-12.

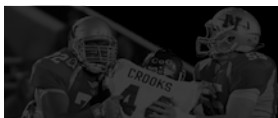

The Colonels were led by senior quarterback Vannoy, who finished the game with 13 carries for 46 yards. He also went 3-for-8 passing for 72 yards and a touchdown. Joseph Tobias averaged 4.5 yards per carry, with 90 yards on 20 attempts.

Toney Edison led Nicholls on the defensive side of the ball with nine tackles, one tackle for a loss, one fumble recovery and one blocked field goal.

Founded in 1948 as Francis T. Nicholls Junior College, Nicholls State University brings together the diverse cultures and heritage found in South Central Louisiana.

In 1970, Nicholls State was designated a university by an act of the Louisiana Legislature. The university was established to meet the higher education needs of Louisianians and has evolved during the past five decades into a center for learning.

The quality of the university's academic programs is assured through numerous national-accrediting organizations. Nicholls State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Today, the campus occupies 210 acres of land formerly part of historic Acadia Plantation on the eastern limits of the city of Thibodaux. Thibodaux Retaining its Southern charm and Cajun hospitality, Thibodaux has developed into a modern, progressive community where yesterday welcomes tomorrow.

Founded in 1820 on Bayou Lafourche, Thibodaux is graced by moss-laden oaks, plantation homes and lush fields of sugar cane. The word "lafourche" means fork as the bayou originally forked off the Mississippi River some 30 miles upstream from Thibodaux.

The Lafourche Parish Courthouse in downtown Thibodaux, the Edward Douglas White Home and Laurel Valley Plantation are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Elkins Hall on the Nicholls State University campus was recently added to the Register. Renovated 19th century homes front Canal Boulevard and New Orleans-style wrought iron traces downtown balconies.

The Wetlands Acadian Cultural Center located in Thibodaux is one of three Acadian Cultural Centers of the Jean Lafitte National Historical Park and Preserve in Louisiana that features many colorful aspects of Cajun life.

Known as the "Gateway to Bayou Country," Thibodaux is minutes away from the best in outdoor recreation.

Francis Tillou Nicholls

Francis Redding Tillou Nicholls was an esteemed figure in the Confederate Army, a Donaldsonville native, and the namesake of Nicholls State University.

Nicholls was born in Donaldsonville on Aug. 30, 1834. He graduated from West Point in 1855 and practiced law for a while. While serving in the Civil War he rose to the rank of brigadier general. After losing his left arm and leg and living as a prisoner of war, he returned home. He practiced law in Napoleonville for a while and was then nominated for governor in 1876 by the Louisiana State Democratic Party. He was elected during Reconstruction.

Nicholls went on to serve a second term as governor, from 1888 to 1892 and greatly opposed the corrupt Louisiana Lottery.

Following his time spent in as governor, he was named chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court. Nicholls retired to his home in Thibodaux in 1911 and died in 1912. He is buried in the St. John's Episcopal Church Cemetery in Thibodaux.

Dr. Hulbert came to Louisiana from Montana where he had served as the Chancellor of The University of Montana – Western from 1999 to June 2003. Before assuming the Western chancellorship, Dr. Hulbert served as the Commissioner of Higher Education for the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations as well as the Chief Executive Officer of the Rhode Island Board of Governors for Higher Education.

ROB BERNARDI

Athletic Director

Rob Bernardi enters his twelfth season as director of athletics at Nicholls State University, making him the second-longest tenured athletics director in the school's history behind the legendary Ray Didier. Stability, creativity, integrity and progress are the words that best describe Bernardi's tenure at Nicholls.

Improved facilities and added pride are not the only areas where Bernardi has brought about changes to the athletic program. Improving graduation rates and upgrading the academic services provided to Colonel athletes has been a goal of the department since Bernardi took over. The commitment to academics has begun to show positive results in the form of higher graduation rates and improved APR (Academic Progress Rates) scores. Colonel athletes are graduating at increasingly higher rates than ever before.

Facilitates and restore a sense of pride in Colonel athletics. Prior to coming to Nicholls, Bernardi spent ten years in varying capacities at the New Orleans-based Sun Belt Conference. During the last three years of his stay, he was the league's associate commissioner, coordinating and implementing marketing and promotional efforts related to the conference. He also worked hand-in-hand with other conferences, covering such topics as development and corporate relations. His responsibilities also included coordinating the Sun Belt's voting position on all NCAA legislation.

Prior to joining the Sun Belt Conference, Bernardi spent four years at the University of Arizona involved in athletics administration. While at Arizona, Bernardi worked under former NCAA president Cedric Dempsey, Dempsey was the athletics director at Arizona during the time. Born and raised in Los Angeles, California, Bernardi was a graduate assistant football coach at both the University of Arizona and Oregon State. While at Oregon State, he earned a master's degree in higher education. He earned an undergraduate degree in public health from California State University, Northridge in 1983.

Since arriving in Thibodaux, Bernardi has reinvigorated Nicholls athletics by transforming the department into a modern, progressive program aimed at increasing funding, improving facilities and enhancing the student-athlete experience. The California native's energy has worn off on coaches, student-athletes and members of the support staff.

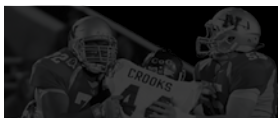

Bernardi helped orchestrate the renewal of a self-assessed student fee to help support Colonel athletics. It was the first time in more than two decades that intercollegiate athletics at Nicholls received funding directly from student fees. The added funding in conjunction with increased private support has helped rejuvenate athletic Bernardi has been active within the NCAA governance process having served on numerous NCAA committees. Currently Rob Bernardi is a member of the NCAA Division I Leadership Council. In the past he has served on the NCAA Interpretations Committee and the Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet.

Rob and Linda Bernardi have two daughters Nadine (27), Jenna (16), and is the grandfather of Emma (6). Bernardi's brother, Gary, is also involved in collegiate athletics serving as an assistant football coach at San Jose State.

John L. Guidry Stadium

John L. Guidry Stadium has been home to the Colonels football team since the school began playing the sport on the intercollegiate level in 1972. The facility is named in honor of former Galliano state representative John L. Guidry who was instrumental in the establishment of Francis T. Nicholls Junior College.

The stadium features a three-level press box on the west side. The second level houses an area for game management staff, radio and coaches' booths and a working press area that was established following a renovation project that was completed prior to the 1999 season. The president's suite and a 30-seat club level, which was also part of the 1999 press box renovation, is located on the third level. A photo deck is located on the roof. Just prior to the start of the 2010 season, a new scoreboard, complete with graphic animation features as well as a new sound system was installed. In 2012, the west entrance of the stadium was given a facelift which included a new elevator shaft and working elevator, entrance into the Colonel Club area and an ever-present illuminated Nicholls "N".

Adjacent to the elevator landing at ground level is the Colonels Club Room. Members use the building as a hospitality area before home games as well as for various university functions throughout the year.

Guidry Stadium is located adjacent to the Frank Barker Athletic Building, which houses the Nicholls football coaches' offices, locker rooms, the athletic training department and athletic staff. The Nicholls strength and conditioning facility and a 50-yard artificial turf field are located directly behind Barker Hall.

The stadium was officially dedicated on September 16, 1972 as Nicholls defeated Ouachita Baptist 12-7.

Hermon Grissom drilled a 37-yard field goal in the opening period for the first score in the stadium. Chris "Gator" Gardner caught a 27-yard pass from Lonnie Rogers for the first Colonel touchdown in the stadium as Nicholls came from behind to win.

The facility was originally referred to as Colonel Stadium but was renamed in Guidry's honor Sept. 15, 1973.

In 39 seasons, the Colonels have posted a 108-94-3 record in Guidry Stadium.

In 1975, Nicholls captured the Gulf South Conference championship with an 8-2 record, including a 6-0 mark at home. It is the only time Nicholls has gone undefeated at home. The 1996 Colonels capped the program's 25th anniversary season by going 5-1 in Guidry Stadium.

The five largest crowds to see the Colonels play in the stadium have come against intra-state rival Southern University, including a record 14,125 in the first Jaguar-Colonel game played in the stadium in 1981.

The stadium underwent an unexpected facelift during the 1992 season after suffering $150,000 worth of damage during Hurricane Andrew.

The concrete facade between the third-floor glass and the roof was ripped away by strong winds during the storm and falling debris destroyed 52 chair back seats. Glass on the south side of the press box on both the second and third levels was also blown out.

Members of the media had a rare opportunity to enjoy the first three home games in an open-air press box while the stadium was in repair.

Guidry Stadium was originally constructed at a cost of nearly $2 million.

The Office of Sports Information at Nicholls State University is responsible for the day-to-day publicity efforts of 14 Division I sports. The primary function of the Nicholls Sports Information Office is to service and accommodate the media in its coverage of the entire Colonel Athletic department.

The media relations office, located in Shaver Gym, handles a myriad of press services, including, but not limited to, the issuing of credentials, the publication of media guides, game programs and press notes as well as maintaining statistics and upkeep of the website.

Members of the media relations office will assist you with any day-of-game needs, including player and coach information, in-game statistics and post-game notes and quotes. Journalists and media covering Nicholls Athletics benefit from working in a professional and comfortable environment.

Members of the media relations staff are on call, in an effort to enhance the coverage of Nicholls Athletics.

Please adhere to the following guidelines when covering Colonel football during the 2012 season.

DURING THE WEEK

The Nicholls football team practices Tuesday through Thursday on the practice fields across the parking lot from Guidry Stadium. Practice will generally take place from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. All practices are open to the media and public with the understanding the strategy, formations, plays and personnel adjustments are to remain private.

Interviews with Nicholls State University Head Coach Charlie Stubbs and Colonel student-athletes can be conducted either before or after practice. All interviews MUST be conducted on the practice field. The Nicholls locker room and training room are OFF LIMITS to members of the media at all times.

Telephone interviews with Stubbs and Colonel student-athletes will take place on Wednesdays before practice. Please let Assistant Director of Media Relations Jamie Bustos know in advance what players you wish to interview and the appropriate arrangements will be made. Home telephone numbers of players and coaches will not be released to the media. Stubbs will be available for out-of-town radio and newspaper interviews ONLY during the Southland Conference weekly teleconference. Stubbs will take part in the Southland Conference Call on Tuesday mornings.

All student-athlete interviews will be scheduled around classes and other academic commitments.

TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCES

Nicholls head coach Charlie Stubbs will be available in Stubbs' Barker Hall office on Tuesday's at 11 a.m. to meet with the local media. At this time, Stubbs will review the previous week's game and look forward to what lies ahead. At some point during the press conference, an injury report and updated depth chart will be discussed and made available.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for Nicholls home games are issued for working media only. Sports editors and sports directors of accredited media outlets should submit requests for credentials on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted as early as possible. Media covering single games should submit requests by the Wednesday morning prior to the game. No passes will be issued after Thursday afternoon, NO EXCEPTIONS.

Media who cover Nicholls opponents on a regular basis may request credentials through opponent's sports information offices or through Nicholls. Nicholls follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in issuing credentials. In most instances, the Nicholls Office of Sports Information will fill all legitimate requests for credentials.

All credential requests should be sent to: Jamie Bustos, Nicholls State University Sports Information, P.O. Box 2032, Thibodaux, La. 70310.

VISITING RADIO

There are two courtesy phone lines available for the official radio station of Nicholls opponents. Please inform Jamie Bustos at least one week in advance if you are planning to make use of the phone lines.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets—newspaper, television stations and other recognized publications. Nicholls follows NCAA rules regarding sideline photographers. Photographers are not permitted to photograph in the team area, which is located between the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field. All photographers are required to have proper sideline credentials.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at John L. Guidry Stadium is available to all credentialed media. Requests for submitting parking passes should be made when submitting press and/or photo credential requests. The media parking area is located on the west side of the stadium and is accessible from Audubon Drive.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The media will call window is located at the southwest ticket office, which is on the right side of the press box entrance when facing the stadium. Please be prepared to present proper identification when picking up credentials. The media will call window will open 90 minutes prior to kickoff.

PRESS BOX AND GAMEDAY SERVICES

The elevator landing to the Guidry Stadium Press Box is adjacent to the Colonel Club room on the west side of the stadium.

Home and visiting radio booths, coaches' boxes and the public address announcer as well as the working press area are located on the second level of the Guidry Stadium press box. The photo deck is located on the fourth level.

Approximately 60 minutes prior to kickoff, a pre-game meal will be served to all credentialed media. Beverages and snacks will be available throughout the entire game as well.

In order to effectively maintain a professional environment, cheering WILL NOT be tolerated in the press box. If any member is found cheering at any point during the game, they will be asked to leave the press box.

Pre-game packets, including notes, statistics, flip cards and programs, will be made available upon arrival to the press box. A complete play-by-play account of each quarter as well as individual and team statistics will be distributed following each quarter and at halftime. Approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of the game, full stat books will be made available to the media. Out-of-town scores from around the region and nation will be distributed periodically during the game as well.

All requests to fax statistics to local media outlets will be honored as soon as possible following the conclusion of the game.

In addition, the Guidry Stadium Press Box will remain open for 60 minutes following the conclusion of the game for media to file stories. An ample supply of phone lines are available for the purposes of sending stories.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES

Both the Nicholls locker room and visiting locker room facilities are located in Barker Hall. The visiting locker room is on the west side of Barker Hall and faces Guidry Stadium while the Colonel dressing rooms are located on the east side of Barker Hall. Policies concerning interviews with visiting coaches and student-athletes will be set by sports information representatives of the visiting institution. The Nicholls locker room is CLOSED to the media at all times. At home, Nicholls coach Charlie Stubbs and selected student-athletes will be made available for interviews following the

NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period. The interviews will take place in the Offensive Meeting Room, located in Barker Hall. ABSOLUTELY NO INTERVIEWS WILL BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD. A member of the Nicholls sports information staff will take requests for player interviews with five minutes to play in the contest and will escort media members to the interview room following the game. Statistics will be made available to media members in the Offensive Meeting Room.

On the road, Coach Stubbs and selected student-athletes will meet with the media following the NCAA mandated 10-minute cooling off period in a pre-designated area generally just outside the Colonel dressing room. Again, no interviews will be conducted on the playing field. Please direct all requests to Jamie Bustos.
