2013 NICHOLLS OUTLOOK

Following consecutive one-win seasons, the Nicholls football program is looking to climb out of the basement of the Southland Conference. However, the task will not be easy since the league has proved to be one of the strongest in the country, powered by back-to-back national runner-up Sam Houston State.

And if having to deal with an FCS title-contender wasn't enough, the Colonels will not only take on three FBS opponents in the non-conference for the second straight year, but Nicholls will head back to the Pacific Northwest to face BCS Championship hopeful Oregon, which is coming off a 12-win season and a Fiesta Bowl crown.

But for the first time in Charlie Stubbs' era, Nicholls will head into its season with a wealth of experience as the Colonels return 22 starters from 2012 and a total of 57 letterwinners.

Quarterback
Beaux Hebert

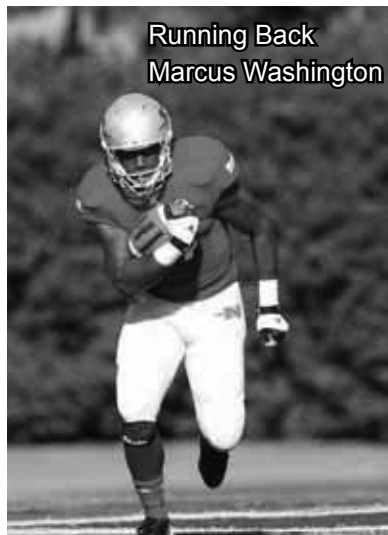

QUARTERBACKS

-For the first time in nearly a half decade, the Colonels will not have the services of do-it-all LaQuintin Caston, who closed out his career ranked in the top 10 on the all-time passing and rushing lists. If that wasn't enough to replace, Landry Klann, who led the Southland's third-best passing offense last season, underwent season-ending shoulder surgery in the spring and will be redshirted. With Klann on the sideline, the Colonels will look to Beaux Hebert and Tuskani Figaro to run the offense.

-Hebert put together his best spring since arriving on campus, and most importantly, was able to stay healthy. Last season, he saw action in four games, completing 62.2 percent of his passes for 315 yards and one touchdown. Hebert heads into the fall listed No. 1 on the depth chart.

-Figaro will look to replace the rushing void left by Caston. As a true freshman, he had a strong debut at Tulsa before running wild against Evangel where he rushed for 134 yards and three touchdowns. Unfortunately, a shoulder injury cut his season short, but Figaro was able to get reps in during the spring.

-Dash Duncan and Hayden Cardiff will add depth to the quarterbacks. Duncan redshirted in his freshman season last year, while Cardiff took snaps in addition to playing a key role on special teams.

Running Back
Marcus Washington

RUNNING BACKS

-Marcus Washington could be primed for a stellar senior season as he is expected to be the primary ball carrier for the first time in his career. Although Washington earned All-Southland honors in 2011 and honorable mention last season, he has had to share the backfield. With a career 4.9 yard per carry average and plenty of work headed his way, Washington could make a serious push for 1,000 yards.

-Backing up Washington will be senior Dalton Hilliard Jr. Hilliard has seen a fair share of playing time, but has yet to break into the offense. Last season, he caught six passes for 53 yards and rushed for a 10-yard TD.

WIDE RECEIVERS/ TIGHT ENDS

-Although the Colonels lose their reception leader from last season, running back Jesse Turner, Nicholls returns a plethora of receivers and tight ends. A total of six players from 2012 that had 10 or more receptions with 100 or more yards are back, which doesn't include Washington, who had 25 catches out of the backfield.

-Erik Buchanan and Carey Fortson give the Colonels a pair of long receivers, with Buchanan posing as a lethal deep threat. In his first season, Buchanan averaged 28.3 yards per catch, but only brought in 10 passes. Fortson had 16 receptions for 128 yards.

-Second-team All-Southland junior tight end Nick Scelfo was one of two Colonels to record 300 yards receiving, joining flanker Josh Hanberry (308). Scelfo hauled in two touchdown passes and averaged 13.6 yards per catch, while Hanberry matched Scelfo in receptions (22), but never crossed the goalline despite reeling in a 68-yard reception.

- Junior Demon Bolt is expected to make an impact this season after missing a portion of 2012 with an injury. Bolt had only five catches last season but nearly reached 100 yards. Senior Brad Nelson rounds out the fall depth chart for the receivers.

OFFENSIVE LINE

-The offensive line brings back four of five starters, led by All-Southland honorable mention left tackle Abasi Salimu. Eric Alt returns at right tackle, Caleb Cline at guard and the Colonels will welcome back guard Rafe Plaisance, who sat out last season.

-Sophomore Brandon Holmes made the transition to center in the spring as the Colonels look to replace four-year starter Gerald Gruenig. Holmes started at guard as a true freshman before being shelved late in the year with a knee injury.

-Returning letterwinners juniors Ryan Zeller and Tyler Knowles, senior Joe Bonner and sophomore Chris Bordelon are also expected to contribute.

-The Colonels added two FBS transfers to bolster the line, bringing in SMU transfer Ashton Duhe and former Memphis Tiger Nick Chartain.

DEFENSIVE LINE

-The Colonels will feature a pair of 300-pounders on the defensive line in senior Edet Udoh and sophomore transfer Keithen English. Udoh missed last season with an injury and will look to regain his form from 2011. English joins Nicholls after playing for the University of Houston.

-Senior Lorenza Young is slated to start at tackle, with junior Cole Frazier on the outside. Young had a strong junior season, recording 28 tackles with 3.5 for loss, while Frazier appeared in nine games, recording six tackles.

-Also returning on the defensive line are letterwinners Andrew Carter, Jordan Thompson and Michael Woods.

LINEBACKERS

-The linebacker core lost a key component in Jordan Piper, who last season proved to be one of the NCAA's best tacklers. But senior Chris Bermond put together a solid first season, finishing second behind Piper with 64 tackles. The Colonels will look to junior Nick LeBlanc to help replace Piper on the inside, while junior Davin Bovie (31 tackles) will be on the edge. The last starter on the fall depth chart is redshirt freshman Chris Lorden, who put together an impressive spring.

-Senior Ryan Bruno and junior Dwayne Mitchell will lead the backups, with letterwinners Kameryon Brown and Tyler Harrington rounding out the depth chart. Mitchell, a former Minnesota Gopher, had 16 tackles and two forced fumbles in his first season with the Colonels.

Linebacker

SECONDARY

-In the secondary, the safeties will once again be a strong part of the defense as the senior trio of Jordan Hanberry, T.J. Lumar and Siegan Vergenal return. Along with finishing fourth on the team in tackles last season, Vergenal added three more forced fumbles, giving him eight for his career. Lumar, who had 43 tackles, wrecked a little havoc himself by jarring two footballs loose and also recorded a pair of interceptions.

-At cornerback, four Colonels who had significant playing time last season are back, including starters B.J. Lewis and Toren Joseph. Lewis, a senior, was fifth on the team with 47 tackles while Joseph picked off two passes. Juniors Byron Cobb (47 tackles) and Josh Dewey also helped out in the turnover department as each recorded an interception.

Kicker
Andrew Dolan

SPECIALISTS

-Preseason All-Southland senior kicker Andrew Dolan will handle the field goal duties once again and will look to build off the final part of the 2012 season. Dolan led Nicholls in scoring with 51 points, helped by connecting on 7-of-8 field goals in the last six games.

-The Colonels will feature a new punter this season as Conner Fryoux joins the team after transferring in from ULM. Fryoux saw limited action for the Warhawks, recording only 16 punts.

-In the return game, junior Demon Bolt is slated to return punts with Josh Hanberry handling kick return duties. Bolt had only seven punt returns last season while Hanberry led the team with a 19.2 yard kick return average.

-Junior Ty Boudreaux returns as the long snapper.

Head Coach • Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks

Charlie Stubbs is in his fourth season as the head coach at Nicholls State University.

With over 33 years of coaching experience, which includes six years as an assistant head coach, Stubbs was selected to become the ninth head coach in the program's history on January 5, 2010. He joined the Colonels after holding the title of offensive coordinator at numerous universities including Alabama, Tulsa, Oregon State, Louisville and others.

After three years at the helm at Nicholls, Stubbs has posted a 6-27 record, including three wins in conference. Although the Colonels did not improve in the win-loss column last season, Stubbs' squad showed major progress, especially on the offensive side of the ball. Along with ranking third in the Southland in passing offense, Nicholls averaged 338.4 yards per game of total offense, which was over 50 yards better than the previous season.

While Nicholls was winless in conference for the second straight year, the Colonels still managed to land two players on the All-Southland Second Team. Linebacker Jordan Piper earned the honor after leading the league in tackles per game and tight end Nick Scelfo garnered all-conference for the second time in as many

In the classroom, Stubbs' program continues to shine as five Colonels were named Southland Conference All-Academic. Earning the nod for Nicholls were Gerald Gruenig, Kerry Guidry, two-time Nicholls Student-Athlete Award for Academic Excellence honoree Jordan Hanberry, Josh Hanberry and Landry Klann. The Colonels also placed 34 players on the Southland Conference Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll, including four with an unblemished 4.0 grade point average.

Since taking over the program, two areas that Stubbs has focused on are building the program by signing student-athletes who are from Louisiana, and pitting his team against high-quality opponents in non-conference. In his first three full recruiting seasons, Stubbs has brought in 44 student-athletes who are from the Bayou State, and for the second straight season, the Colonels will take on three programs from the Football Bowl Subdivision. Nicholls will face its toughest challenge in program history in its season opener as the Colonels take on the BCS title-contending Oregon Ducks.

A Charleston, South Carolina native with over 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, Stubbs led the Colonels to four victories in his inaugural season, their most since 2007, despite installing an entire new offense. Stubbs replaced the heavy-rush scheme for a multiple-pro system, and although suffering growing pains throughout the year, the Colonels closed out the season in a big way by winning their final two contests.

In 2010, Stubbs guided Nicholls to victories in all three of its rivalry games – Texas State, Northwestern State and Southeastern Louisiana – for the first time since 2005. Also in his first season, the Colonels claimed two of their wins away from John L. Guidry Stadium, the most since '07.

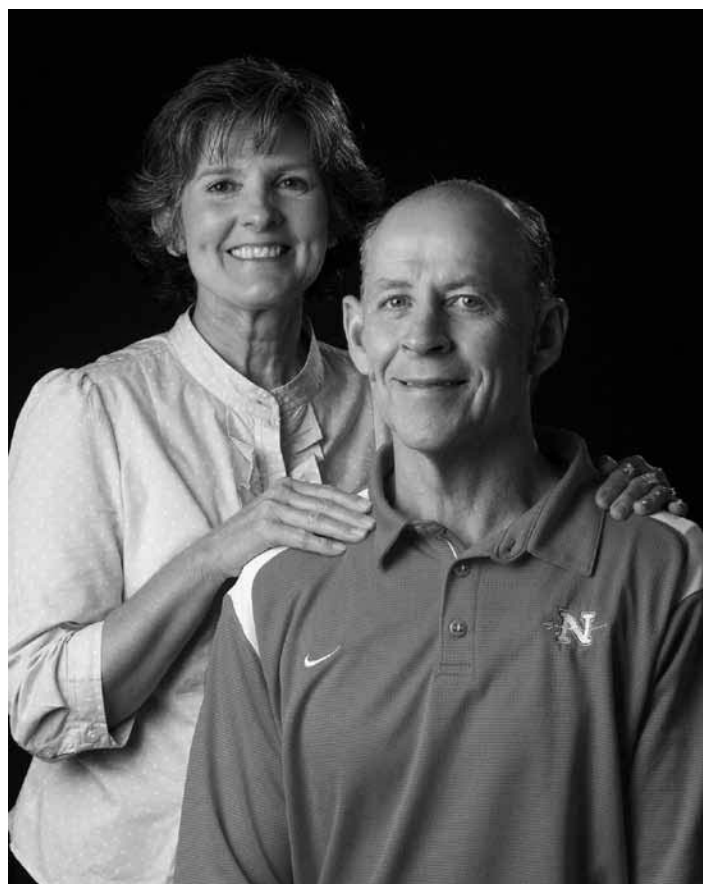

Before a two-year stint at Central Missouri, Stubbs was the offensive coordinator at the University of Louisville in 2007. While at Louisville, he guided the Cardinals to a national No. 4 ranking in passing offense which featured NFL players Brian Brohm and Harry Douglas (Atlanta Falcons).

Prior to UL, Stubbs spent five seasons at the University of Tulsa, leading the offense to an average of over 31 points per game while ranking among the top 25 teams in the nation each season. In 2005, Stubbs was a finalist for the American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year as the Hurricanes were crowned Conference USA and Liberty Bowl champions en route to a 9-4 finish.

From 1998-2000, Stubbs was the quarterbacks coach/passing game coordinator at the University of Alabama, where he helped direct the Crimson Tide to a pair of bowl appearances. After reaching the Music City Bowl in '98, 'Bama won the SEC title and earned a bid to the 2000 Orange Bowl with Stubbs receiving the SEC Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

Stubbs had three stints from 1994-97, spending his last two years at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas after one-year stints with University of Tennessee-Martin and the University of Memphis. In '97, Stubbs' Runnin Rebels offense ranked 12th in the nation in passing after holding the ninth spot in '96. Following one year at Memphis, Stubbs had a historical season at UTM as the Skyhawks set nine Ohio Valley Conference records while leading the conference in passing.

Stubbs received his first full-time position at Oregon State where he coached from 1985-90. Under his coordination, the Beavers ranked in the top three in the Pac-10 on offense in each season while ranking sixth nationally in '88 and 10th in '87.

After receiving a Bachelor's of Science in 1978 from Brigham Young University, Stubbs earned a master's in physical education in '84 working as a graduate assistant for the football team. During that season, head coach LaVell Edwards led the Cougars to a perfect 13-0 record to claim the 1984 Division I National Championship, making BYU the last non-BCS school to earn the title.

Stubbs has published three books throughout his career - "Wide Open Football," "Developing an Explosive Offense," and his most recent, "101 Playmakers and Special Plays".

South Alabama 9, Nicholls 3

The Colonel defense was stout all game, limiting the Jaguars to 279 yards. Nicholls forced two turnovers for the game, and had two missed opportunities in the second half. Senior Jordan Piper led the team with 12 tackles, while junior Chris Bermond racked up 10 in his Colonel debut. The Colonels had three sacks on the day, with Rashar Knight and Darrel Brown recording one each.

Although Nicholls' defense held USA without a touchdown, the Jaguars were as impressive, limiting the Colonels to only 118 yards of total offense. The Colonels struggled on third downs, converting only 2-of-12 attempts. Senior LaQuintin Caston led the team with 69 yards rushing on 10 carries, but the team only totaled 22 net rushing yards after six Jaguar sacks wiped out 39 yards. Sophomore tight end Nick Scelfo fueled the passing game, hauling in three catches for 40 yards.

In all, four quarterbacks saw action in the home opener, passing for a total of 364 yards and four scores. Beaux Hebert made his first appearance of the season, throwing for 64 yards and one touchdown.

Freshman quarterback Tuskani Figaro had an impressive Guidry-debut, leading the rushing attack with 134 yards on 13 carries and crossed the goal line three times. As a team, the Colonels racked up 390 yards on the ground and came within feet of having three players pass the 100-yard mark. Marcus Washington notched his second career 100-yard game, scoring twice on 10 carries for 110 yards, while Jesse Turner had 10 carries as well, running for 98 yards and a touchdown.

The Colonel defense was led by Jordan Piper with eight tackles and a sack. Dexter Aucoin, Josh Dewey and Siegan Vergenal each had an interception, and T.J. Lumar forced a fumble at the goal line to prevent a touchdown in the first quarter.

The 40th meeting between Nicholls State University and Northwestern State turned out to be one of the best in the series, as the Colonels took a five-point lead into the final quarter, but the Demons scored two field goals in the fourth for a 27-26 victory on Saturday at Turpin Stadium.

The Colonels finished with 293 yards on offense, but could only muster 49 yards in the second half. Both defenses stepped up in the final thirty minutes as the teams combined for only 13 points after the break. Northwestern State headed into halftime leading 21-19.

Aldaro Russell, who had a career-high 86 yards – all in the first half – came up big in the second quarter for the Colonels. Russell's 29-yard reception set up Andrew Dolan's second field goal, a 22-yarder, and after Dwayne Mitchell forced and recovered a fumble on the Demon's first play, Russell cut the deficit to two on the Colonels' opening play with his third touchdown catch of the season. On first down from the Demon 29, Landry Klann hit the senior from Marrero for a 29-yard score, making the count 21-19 Demons.

LaQuintin Caston, in his first game since Sept. 15, led Nicholls with 57 yards rushing on 10 totes. Klann finished the day 14 of 31 for 198 yards and two scores. On defense, the Southland's leading tackler, Jordan Piper, racked up nine tackles, including one for loss.

Southeastern Louisiana 35, Nicholls 16

The Nicholls State University football team had several opportunities to end their home slate on a high note against Southeastern Louisiana, but like much of the season, the Colonels were unable to capitalize as the Lions won the River Bell Classic for the second consecutive year, handing Nicholls a 35-16 loss on Senior Night.

Nicholls outgained Southeastern (5-6, 5-2) in total yards on offense, 335-323, but the Colonels' opening drive summed up the season for the Red and Gray. After forcing the Lions to punt, Nicholls pieced together one of its most efficient drives of the season, converting four third downs to get the ball 1st-and-goal at the 10. On 4th-and-1, Marcus Washington, who led Nicholls with 47 yards rushing, fumbled at the goal line, which was recovered by the Colonels in the end zone. However, the touchdown was nullified because the offensive team cannot recover an advanced fumble of fourth down, leaving Nicholls scoreless after its 17-play drive that lasted 7:34.

Landry Klann finished 18 of 38 for 211 yards and was sacked five times. Senior Jesse Turner ran for 36 yards and led the team in receptions, finishing with five for 45 yards. Carey Fortson chipped in with four catches for 43 yards, and Wynn finished with 50 yards on two receptions.

The seniors led the Colonel defense with Jordan Piper racking up 10 tackles, followed by Kerry Guidry with nine and Rashar Knight added a sack. Vergenal added two forced fumbles and Toren Joseph had an interception for the second straight game.

December 1, 2012
Reeser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore.
Oregon State 77, Nicholls 3

No. 15 Oregon State scored racked up 683 yards on offense against the Nicholls State University football team as the Beavers rolled to a 77-3 victory in front of 32,427 fans at Reser Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Colonels finished with 223 yards on offense, but only 83 came in the first half. Landry Klann threw for 164 yards on 19-of-32 to become the first Colonel to eclipse 2,000 yards since 1998. Senior Jesse Turner led the team with 11 receptions for 100 yards.

Nicholls put together a 14-play, 76-yard drive in the third, resulting in a 26-yard field goal from Andrew Dolan. But the three points would be all Nicholls could get as OSU continued to score at ease, finding the end zone in all 11 of its offensive drives. The 77 points is the most surrendered in program history, and the offensive output was the highest since Air Force put up 576 yards

In an era of considerable change in intercollegiate athletics, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates a half-century of the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions.

Commemorating its 50th anniversary in 2013, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 14 member universities in four states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into its five decades of existence.

The successful transformation continues, as the Southland Conference welcomed the addition of Oral Roberts University in 2012-13, marking the league's first entry into the state of Oklahoma. Also, on July 1, 2013, the Southland welcomed four additional members: Abilene Christian University, Houston Baptist University, the University of Incarnate Word in San Antonio, and the University of New Orleans.

In addition to its newest members, the Southland Conference also consists of the University of Central Arkansas, Lamar University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Sam Houston State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, Stephen F. Austin State University and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

An original Southland member, Abilene Christian rejoins the league as one of the most decorated athletic programs in NCAA history, and the addition of Houston Baptist, Incarnate Word and New Orleans gives the Southland a regular competitive presence in the key metropolitan areas of Houston, San Antonio and New Orleans. Southland cities encompass approximately 14.5 million people, and seven of its television markets rank among the top 100 in the U.S.

All told, the membership of the Southland encompasses nearly 140,000 current students and an alumni base of nearly 800,000. Famous alums from current Southland Conference schools include former CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), Major League Baseball star Wade Miley (Southeastern Louisiana), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas), and track and field Olympians Kenta Bell (Northwestern State), and Bobby Morrow and Billy Olson (both Abilene Christian).

Other notable alums from current members include Grammy Award-winning musicians Frank Ocean (New Orleans), Don Henley and Rodney Crowell (both Stephen F. Austin), and Ronnie Dunn (Abilene Christian), television personality and actress Ellen DeGeneres (New Orleans), current NFL standouts Lardarius Webb (Nicholls), Terrence McGee (Northwestern State), and Daniel Manning (Abilene Christian), professional golfers Shawn Stefani and Chris Stroud (both Lamar) and Colin Montgomerie (HBU), award-winning and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. The conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

Continuing its tradition of innovation, the league launched the Southland Conference Television Network in the fall of 2008 and has broadcast more than 160 events. The network has expanded its reach to roughly 13 million households throughout Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma in recent years, and has also gained national viewership through filmmaker Richard Linklater (Sam Houston State), American Idol winner Kris Allen (Central Arkansas), NFL Hall of Famer Jackie Harris (Northwestern State), former NFL standouts Bobby Hebert (Northwestern State), Gary Barbaro (Nicholls), Wilbert Montgomery (Abilene Christian) and Gary Reasons (Northwestern State), former MLB stars Darryl Hamilton (Nicholls) and Kevin Millar (Lamar), NCAA football coach Charlie Strong (Central Arkansas), TV personality Kathie Lee Gifford (Oral Roberts), actors John Larroquette (New Orleans), and Ricardo Chavira and Jesse Borrego (both UIW) and NFL coaching legend O.A. "Bum" Phillips (Lamar and Stephen F. Austin).

The Southland sponsors 17 championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, and indoor ESPN3 and Fox College Sports. In its first five years, the network has received recognition for its work, earning numerous College Sports Media and Telly Awards.

The Southland Conference, in conjunction with the city of Frisco, Texas, and Hunt Sports Group, also serves as the host to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Game in Frisco, which has been home to the conference headquarters since 2006. The game is played at Frisco's FC Dallas Stadium, and after a successful three-year run, the partnership was rewarded with a three-year renewal to serve as the national championship host site through the 2015 season.

Southland Conference football ranks among the best Football Championship Subdivision leagues in the nation, and enjoys an annual expectation of competing for the national championship with multiple teams advancing to the NCAA playoffs each year. In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State advanced to the NCAA national championship game. Also, in 2002 and 2003, McNeese State finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation, and advanced to the 2002 national championship contest. The conference has been represented in eight national championship games since the league joined the FCS (formerly I-AA) in 1982. All told, Southland teams have played in 104 Division I playoff games in 31 years, winning 51 of the contests.

Historically, the Southland's successful football heritage has sustained itself through numerous membership and classification changes. The Southland joined the NCAA College Division in 1968, and was designated as NCAA Division II in 1973 before joining Division I in 1975. The Southland was an NCAA Division I-A league from 1978-81, before joining the ranks of FCS in 1982, its home ever since.

During its tenure as a Division I-A conference, the Southland Conference initiated the startup of the Shreveport, La.-based Independence Bowl in 1976. The Southland representative served as the host team of the bowl until 1980, compiling a 2-3 record in those contests.

The conference can lay claim to five national championships, including College Division championships through former members Arkansas State (1970, UPI) and Louisiana Tech (1972, National Football Foundation). Louisiana Tech also won the first NCAA-sanctioned national title, winning the Division II playoffs in 1973. Tech followed that with the UPI's Division II national championship in 1974. Louisiana-Monroe won the 1987 Division I-AA national championship.

McNeese State, which has made 14 appearances in the national playoffs, also played in the 1997 NCAA Division I Championship game, while Stephen F. Austin played in the 1989 title contest and has six playoff appearances, including 2009 and 2010. Northwestern State has played in the playoffs six times, and advanced to the semifinals in 1998, while Sam Houston State has earned six trips to the postseason, including the semifinals in 2004. Nicholls has participated three times in the playoffs, and Central Arkansas has made consecutive playoff appearances in 2011 and 2012. On four occasions, the Southland has placed three teams in the NCAA playoffs.

The Southland has produced 168 first-team football All-Americans during its history and in 2010, Stephen F. Austin quarterback Jeremy Moses became the first player in Southland history to receive the Walter Payton Award, which is presented annually to the most outstanding football player at the FCS level.

The Southland is one of five FCS conferences with at least 200 selections (206) in the National Football League draft. There have been 26 Southland players taken in the draft since 2000, including Southeastern Louisiana defensive back Robert Alford, who was picked as the first FCS player in the second round of the 2013 draft. There are 20 former Southland players on NFL rosters heading into the 2013 season.

Southland Conference alumni in the NFL include Buffalo's Terrence McGee (Northwestern State) and Chicago's Josiah McCown (Sam Houston State), who have each been in the league for the last 11 seasons. Other recent NFL additions from the Southland include Green Bay's Kevin Hughes (Southeastern Louisiana), St. Louis' Jabara Williams (Stephen F. Austin) Washington's Devin Holland (McNeese State), Atlanta's Marcus Jackson (Lamar) and Cleveland's Dominique Croom (Central Arkansas).

The Southland has seen former Nicholls players win Super Bowl rings in two of the last three seasons, as former Colonel Antonio Robinson was a member of the Green Bay Packers' Super Bowl XLV champions. And, Nicholls-ex-Lardarius Webb was a member of the Super Bowl XLVII champion Baltimore Ravens.

Among the former NFL stars from the Southland include Fred Dean, who was inducted to the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 2008 to become the first former Southland Conference player to earn induction in Canton. Other great NFL players from the Southland include Super Bowl XXIX quarterback Stan Humphries, Bill Bergey, Mike Barber, Fred Barnett, Bubby Brister, Ray Brown, Roger Carr, Larry Centers, Bruce Collie, Jackie Harris, Buford Jordan, Tim McKyer, Kavika Pittman, Billy Ryckman, Mickey Sanders, Eugene Seale, Rafael Septien, Terrance Shaw, Marcus Spears, Pat Tilley and Marvin Upshaw.

The Southland Conference has also seen its share of great coaches during its history in Maxie Lambright, Ernie Duplechin, Sam Goodwin, Jack

Doland, Bennie Ellender, Bobby Keasler,
Larry Lacewell, Bill Davidson, Dennis
Franchione, Pat Collins, and Ron Randleman.

In addition to football, the Southland Conference can point to a number of accomplishments in all sports.

Men's basketball has experienced a tremendous amount of success during the Southland's 50 years. The league has sent four teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, as well as a squad to the NIT Final Four. Basketball stars Karl Malone, Joe Dumars, Jeff Foster, Dwight "Bo" Lamar, Andrew Toney and Mike Oliver played in the Southland Conference. In 2006, Northwestern State, playing as the No. 14 seed in the NCAA tournament, defeated No. 3 seed Iowa, 64-63, in first-round action. The league also saw three of its current teams, including newcomer Oral Roberts, reach the postseason in 2012.

Coaches such as Billy Tubbs, Mike Vining, Scotty Robertson, Jack Martin, Andy Russo, Bob Marlin, Danny Kaspar, Mike McConathy, Bobby Paschal and Pat Foster have led successful teams in the Southland.

In women's basketball, the Southland also has its share of tradition with former member Louisiana-Monroe advancing to the 1985 NCAA Women's Final Four, and Stephen F. Austin sustaining itself as one of the most successful programs in the history of the sport. In 2008, the Ladyjacks became the eighth program in NCAA Division I history to record more than 800 wins.

In each of the last four seasons, at least three Southland teams reached the postseason, and in 2012, four women's squads earned postseason berths. A Southland team has played in the WNIT 13 times, including each of the last seven years. Women's basketball all-stars have included Eun Jung Lee, Lisa Ingram, Portia Hill, Deneen Parker, Katrina Price, and Joselyn Garner, and coaches such as Gary Blair, Linda Sharp, James Smith and Linda Harper.

Baseball has emerged as a constant Southland Conference strength with the league earning numerous national rankings and NCAA tournament berths. The Southland consistently ranks among the top-10 conferences in the country. In 2011, 50 of the league's 150 non-conference victories came against the Big 12, Conference USA, Sun Belt and SEC. Major leaguers such as Ben Sheets, Micah Hoffpauir, Hunter Pence, David Segui, Brian Lawrence, Ben Broussard, Chuck Finley, Jerald Clark, and Terry Matthews once played in the Southland.

In 2012, Southeastern Louisiana's Stefan Lopez became the league's second winner of the national Stopper of the Year Award, which is selected by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers. Sam Houston State's Luke Prihoda won the award in 2007. Only the Big 12 has had more players win this award.

The Southland also fares well each year in the Major League Draft, but for the first time in conference history, two Southland players were selected in the first round of the 2013 draft. Stephen F. Austin shortstop Hunter Dozier was picked eighth by the Kansas City Royals making the Southland player and hitter of the year the league's top draft pick in any sport. Later in the first round, the Texas Rangers selected Oral Roberts right-handed pitcher Alex Gonzalez, Southland pitcher of the year, with the 23rd overall pick. The Southland has had eight first-round picks in its history.

In 2011, Lamar mentor Jim Gilligan became the first Southland coach to reach 1,200 career victories, ranking him sixth-best in the NCAA among active Division I coaches and 24th all-time. He leads an impressive list of coaches who have patrolled Southland Conference dugouts, including Mark Johnson, Mike Bianco, John Cohen, Mitch Gaspard, Smoke Laval, Butch McBroom, Pat Patterson, Tony Robichaux, Dave Van Horn and Jim Wells.

Softball continues to enjoy success on a national level, beating nationally-ranked opponents every year since 1995, including McNeese State's win at No. 1 Arizona State early in the 2012 season.

In 2011, the league had four wins against ranked opponents, including a win by Stephen F. Austin at No. 3 Texas. In 20 years of NCAA tournament competition the Southland has racked up 15 wins.

The Southland also has a proud history in volleyball with former member Texas-Arlington representing the conference numerous times in the NCAA tournament, including a run to the NCAA Volleyball Final Four in 1989.

Track and field has also served as a proud asset for the Southland Conference as the league has produced numerous national champions and Olympic medalists. The Southland boasts 28 men and three women student-athletes who have won NCAA track and field national championships, including Northwestern State's Trecey Rew, who won the women's discus in 2011, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi's Shadrack Songok (10,000-meter run) in 2007 and 2008 and McNeese State's Brad Gebauer (pole vault) in 2007. The league has also produced U.S. Olympic track and field medalists Earl Bell, Thomas Hill, Al Joyner, Charles Austin, and Liudmila Litvinova, along with other Olympians. With the addition of 10 more All-Americans in 2012, the league continues to find national success in both indoor and outdoor track and field. In the indoor circuit, the Southland boasts 66 unique all-time All-Americans that have won a combined 11 national championships. Likewise, in the outdoor season, the league has seen 158 different All-Americans, including 128 men and 30 women, who have combined to win 21 national championships.

Golf has traditionally been a strong Southland sport as exemplified by Lamar men's golfer Chris Stroud, who finished third individually at the 2003 NCAA National Championship and is a member of the PGA Tour. Both Stroud and former Southeastern Louisiana golfer Hugo Leon competed in the 2010 U.S. Open. Lamar alum Shawn Stefani had a pair of top seven finishes through the midway point of the 2013 PGA tour. The league has sent multiple teams into postseason play on numerous occasions, including in 2012 when three Southland teams – Lamar, Southeastern Louisiana and Texas-Arlington – competed in the NCAA tournament. Additionally, during the past five seasons the Southland has sent 12 golfers to compete as individuals in regional play with five in 2009, three more in 2010, one each in 2011 and 2012 and two in 2013. Lamar won a pair of NCAA Division II national championships in 1967 and 1968, and also produced PGA player Ronnie Black.

In 2005, Lamar's Dawie Van Der Walt finished fourth individually and Lamar tied for 12th place at the NCAA Men's Golf Championship, before the Cardinals tied for ninth in 2006 and tied for third in 2007. Former Lamar golfer Casey Clendenon advanced to the semifinals of the U.S.

Amateur in 2007.

In women's tennis, Southeastern Louisiana won 46 consecutive conference matches during a four-year period that began in 2005, while in men's tennis Texas A&M-Corpus Christi has played in the NCAA tournament five times in the last seven years.

The conference has increased sponsorship and championship opportunities for female student-athletes in recent years, adding women's golf and soccer as league sports.

In women's soccer, Stephen F. Austin midfielder Kylie Louw became the first player in conference history to earn All-America honors, when she earned third-team mention by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. A member of the South Africa Olympic team during the 2012 London Olympics, she also garnered first-team Academic All-America Honors from the College Sports Information Directors of America. The Ladyjacks have gone 72-12-8 (.826) in conference play during the last 10 seasons.

In women's golf, the Southland sent two teams to 2012 NCAA regional play for the first time since the league added the sport in 2002. Lamar leads all league teams with four team championships during that span.

The Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes. With the F.L. McDonald Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the league annually honors one male and one female scholar-athlete with a stipend for postgraduate study. The Scholar-Athlete Award is given to each institution's male and female student-athlete with the highest grade-point average. The Steve McCarty Citizenship Award, initiated in 2005-06 and named after the former Stephen F. Austin athletic director, properly recognizes accomplishments off the court for a male and female student-athlete. Also, student-athletes with grade-point averages above 3.0 are honored on the Southland's annual All-Academic teams and Commissioner's Honor Roll. A record 979 student-athletes appeared on the honor roll following the 2012 spring semester, and total of 1,545 student-athletes earned a spot on the honor roll at the end of the fall and spring semesters during the 2012-13 academic year.

While successful on the fields and courts, the Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes.

The conference continues to make great strides in the classroom. During the last seven years, no other Division I conference has improved its Academic Progress Rate as well as the Southland Conference has. In fact, in 2009-10, the Southland ranked 10th among the 31 Division I leagues in men's basketball APR. The academic progress the league has shown ultimately leads to higher graduation rates for our student-athletes.

In addition to providing expanding opportunities for student-athletes, the Southland Conference and its member institutions are very involved in various community outreach programs. Many of these programs provide positive life skills training such as academics, citizenship and leadership to school-aged students in Southland communities.

Gary Kinchen

Gary Kinchen was faced with building a football program when he was named Nicholls' first head coach in 1971. In the school's first two intercollegiate seasons, his teams posted a 5-17 record.

Under Kinchen, the Colonels won the first two games ever played in Guidry Stadium, then known simply as Colonel Stadium. Nicholls defeated Ouachita Baptist 12-7 in its home opener then a week later defeated Slippery Rock 18-14.

Nicholls finished its first season with a 3-8 record then went 2-9 the following year.

Kinchen assumed the head coaching duties after two years at Rice (1969-70) where he coached both the offensive and defensive lines.

His coaching career began at Glen Oaks High School in Baton Rouge after letting three years as an offensive lineman at Louisiana State (1961-63).

After two seasons as an assistant coach on the Glen Oaks staff, Kinchen was named the head coach. His coaching career also included stops at Southwestern Louisiana (1966) and Tulane (1967-68).

Bill Clements

Bill Clements has the distinction of being the first football coach Nicholls hired in 1971.

Clements was the Colonels' defensive coordinator for three seasons, including the school's final year it fielded a club team in 1971. He was named Nicholls' head coach when Gary Kinchen resigned in 1974.

Under Clements, the Colonels won their first conference championship, capturing the 1975 Gulf South Conference title. That squad posted an 8-2 overall record and was 7-2 in the GSC.

In seven seasons, Clements' teams posted a 36-38-1 record. His 1979 squad went 8-3.

Prior to being a catalyst in building Nicholls' program, Clements was the defensive coordinator for nine years at Holy Cross High School in New Orleans (1962-70). During his tenure at Holy Cross, the Warriors won a state championship, were the state runners-up twice and captured five district titles.

He also coached a year at his alma mater Tulane for a year after graduating in 1960. Clements was an offensive and defensive lineman at Tulane and was named the Green Wave's team captain in 1959.

Phil Greco

Under the leadership of football coach and athletic director Phil Greco, Nicholls was extended an invitation to join the Southland Conference in 1990.

The Colonels began playing in the league in 1991 and won its first conference game, a 15-10 victory over defending champion Northeast Louisiana.

In six seasons, Greco's record at Nicholls was 27-37-2. During his tenure, Nicholls played Division I-A opponents for the first time. The Colonels' road schedule during the late 1980s included games at Akron, Louisiana Tech and a 24-21 loss at Southwestern Louisiana in 1989.

Greco came to Nicholls from Tulane where he was an assistant at his alma mater for two years. He coached the Green Wave running backs in 1985 and in 1986, he handled offensive tackles and tight ends.

He also coached three years at Northeast Louisiana (1981-83) and a year at Southern Mississippi (1984).

After graduating from Tulane in 1970, Greco was an assistant and head coach at F.T. Nicholls High School in New Orleans, an assistant at DeLaSalle and Archbishop Shaw and the head coach at East St. John from 1978-80. His 1980 team won the state championship with a 14-0 record.

Rick Rhoades

Rick Rhoades brought to Nicholls a winning track record and the unique "Stack-I" offense.

The Colonels went 1-9-1 the year prior to Rhoades' arrival before going 3-8 his first year. The Colonels were 5-6 in Rhoades' only other season at Nicholls in 1994.

Nicholls' "Stack-I" offense accounted for 11 school records the first season and the Colonels were ranked ninth in the nation in rushing the second year using the system.

Rhoades' coaching career included three seasons as head coach at Troy State (1985-87). The Trojans won the 1987 NCAA Division II national championship. He was also a member of Troy State's 1984 national championship team serving as defensive coordinator (1983-84).

Rhoades went on to be head coach at Southern Illinois (1988). He was an assistant coach under Bill Curry at both Alabama (1989) and Kentucky (1990-92).

Rhoades graduated from Central Missouri State in 1970 and his coaching career began at Mountain Brook High School in Birmingham, Ala., which captured the 1976 state championship. He was the offensive coordinator at North Alabama (1981-82) before joining the Troy State staff.

Darren Barbier

The first NCAA playoff appearance for the school in 10 years highlighted the Darren Barbier era as his 1996 team completed one of the better turnarounds in I-AA football history. That team finished 8-4 and Barbier was rewarded with several coaching awards including Southland Football League, Louisiana Sports Writers Association, Schutt Sports/American Football Quarterly I-AA and the 10th Annual Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year awards.

Barbier, 1982 graduate of Nicholls and former second baseman for the Colonels, led the school for four years compiling a 17-28 overall mark.

Prior to Nicholls, Barbier was the head coach at Hahnville High School for six seasons compiling a 64-12 mark (.842). His last season in 1994, Barbier led the Tigers to a 15-0 record and his second 5A state championships. Under his tutelage, the school also notched four straight district titles.

A long time offensive coordinator in the college ranks, Charlie Stubbs officially became the ninth head coach in Colonel football history on Jan. 5, 2010.

Stubbs joined the Colonels after holding the title of offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Central Missouri for two seasons.

Before UCM, Stubbs directed offenses at several elite programs including Oregon State, UNLV, Alabama and Louisville. Stubbs has also published three books throughout his career - "Wide Open Football," "Developing an Explosive Offense," and his most recent, "101 Playmakers and Special Plays".

In his first season, Stubbs guided Nicholls to four victories, including all three rivalry games. The Colonels knocked off Texas State in four overtimes in the "Battle of the Paddle" before closing out the season with wins against Northwestern State and Southeastern Louisiana.

Nicholls 28, Appalachian State 26

Nov. 29, 1986 • Boone, N.C.

Nicholls survived a fourth-quarter rally to defeat Appalachian State 28-26 and advance to the quarterfinals of the 1986 NCAA Division I-AA Championship.

Mountaineer place kicker Bjorn Nittmo missed a 42-yard field goal with 13 seconds remaining as the Colonels held on for the win.

Nicholls led 28-19 with 3:24 remaining when Jimbo Windham kicked a 40-yard field goal. The Colonels had driven from their own 25 to the Appalachian State 23 before settling for three points.

The Mountaineers got right back into the hunt on their next possession when Todd Payton hooked up with Doug Beaty for a 76-yard pass down to the Colonel four. Two plays later, John Settle scored on a five-yard touchdown run.

Nittmo's point-after made it 28-26 with 2:13 left to play.

An unsuccessful ASU on-side kick led to the Colonels taking possession at the Mountaineer 43.

After a couple runs by Brian Stropolo, Doug Hudson's third-down pass was picked off by Mountaineer linebacker Cedric Felton at ASU's 42.

Appalachian State moved the ball to the Colonel 25 before Nittmo's kick went wide left. It was the kicker's second miss of the day.

Nicholls found a way to win despite giving up 544 yards of total offense. Settle set Division I-AA playoff records with 37 carries for 236 yards, including 151 in the second half.

Kevin Smoot, who lead the Colonels with 21 carries for 57 yards, had a one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. After a 21-yard run by Hudson, Melvin Lewis broke off the right side for a touchdown run to give the Colonels a 25-13 lead at the beginning of the fourth period to cap a string of 19 unanswered points for Nicholls.

Georgia Southern 55, Nicholls 31

Dec. 6, 1986 • Statesboro, Ga.

Quarterback Tracy Ham rambled for 191 yards, including a 55-yard run for the first of three Eagle touchdowns in the first quarter as Georgia Southern defeated Nicholls 55-31.

The win was the Eagles' second playoff victory en route to the school's second straight national championship in 1986.

Nicholls turned the ball over on their first three possessions of the game and Georgia Southern turned the trio of miscues into 21 points. In addition to Ham's first-quarter touchdown run on a fourth-and-one play, Gerald Harris had scoring runs of four and one yard.

The Colonels had a total of seven turnovers with five leading to Georgia Southern scores.

In addition to a pair of touchdown runs, Ham completed 11 of 19 passes for 167 yards.

The Colonels stuck with their game plan as Doug Hudson engineered a six-play, 74-yard scoring drive early in the second quarter. Following a 42-yard pass from Hudson to Alfred Dorsey, Brian Stropolo scored on a 10-yard touchdown run.

Hudson completed 18 of 28 passes for 298 yards but also threw three interceptions during the day.

Montana 48, Nicholls 3

Nov. 30, 1996 • Missoula, Mont.

Montana sophomore quarterback Brian Ah Yat passed for 363 yards and three touchdowns as the Grizzlies defeated Nicholls 48-3 in the first round of the 1996 Division I-AA playoffs.

It was Nicholls' first appearance in the I-AA playoffs since 1986. Montana, the defending national champions, took its first step back to advancing back to the national championship game with the win over the Colonels.

The Colonels knew all about the Grizzlies' high-flying aerial attack but it was the Griz defense which shutdown Nicholls like a Montana blizzard closes down Interstate 90. The Colonels managed just 129 yards of total offense in the game, 64 rushing and 65 passing.

Nicholls' lone score was set up by a 33-yard interception return by Ricky Wilson down to the Montana 9. Adam Diel kicked a 42-yard field goal with 14 seconds left in the first quarter to cut the Grizzlies' lead to 10-3.

Montana scored on consecutive drives in the second quarter to take a 24-3 lead at the half. The Griz had 317 yards of total offense by the end of the first quarter to the Colonels' 32. Montana finished with 545 yards of total offense, including 447 passing.

Furman 14, Nicholls 12

Nov. 26, 2005 • Greenville, S.C.

The Colonels championship season came to an end, as the Furman Paladins used a stingy defense to sneak past Nicholls, 14-12.

Nicholls scored the first points of the game. After Furman's Jerome Felton fumbled at the Paladins' 34-yard line, Naton Stewart returned the ball 11 yards. After gaining six yards, Alex Romero kicked a 34-yard field goal with 11:21 left in the first quarter to give the Colonels an early 3-0 lead.

After threatening on several occasions, Nicholls quarterback Yale Vannoy threw a 40-yard pass to Michael Okoronkwo to help setup a 11-yard DeMarko Hutchinson scamper that put Nicholls inside the Paladins 10-yard line. Like it did most of the day, Furman's defense stepped up and forced a field goal attempt. Romero got the call and converted on a 20-yard try to give the Colonels a 6-0 lead with 11:21 remaining in the half.

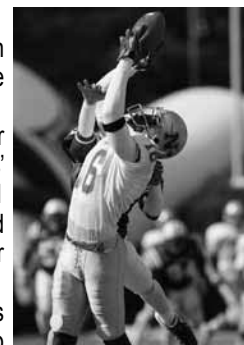

After exchanging possession, the Paladins gained momentum following two rushes for 30 yards by Cedrick Gipson and an Ingle Martin 17-yard dash that put Furman on the Colonels 33-yard line. Two plays later, Martin hit Justin Stepp for a 29-yard completion in the endzone to give the Paladins a 7-6 lead heading into the locker room.

Furman carried the momentum gained from their last scoring drive into the third quarter. In a drive that saw the Paladins keeping the ball on the ground for all but five yards, Furman drove 57 yards in 15 plays, capped by a one-yard run by Martin to extend their lead to 14-6 with 8:06 remaining in the third quarter.

Determined not to let their championship season end, the Colonels answered with a score of their own. Facing third-and-9 from their 21-yard line, the Paladins Andrew Thacker was called for pass interference, giving Nicholls first-and-10 from their 36-yard line. Following a series of rushes by a trio of Colonels, Vannoy completed a 22-yard pass to Kenly Horton on fourth-and-3 for a Nicholls touchdown with 2:02 remaining in the third quarter. However, the Colonels' two-point attempt failed, giving Furman a two-point advantage at 14-12.

The Colonels were led by senior quarterback Vannoy, who finished the game with 13 carries for 46 yards. He also went 3-for-8 passing for 72 yards and a touchdown. Joseph Tobias averaged 4.5 yards per carry, with 90 yards on 20 attempts.

Toney Edison led Nicholls on the defensive side of the ball with nine tackles, one tackle for a loss, one fumble recovery and one blocked field goal.

Founded in 1948 as Francis T. Nicholls Junior College, Nicholls State University brings together the diverse cultures and heritage found in South Central Louisiana.

In 1970, Nicholls State University was designated a university by an act of the Louisiana Legislature. The university was established to meet the higher education needs of Louisianans and has evolved during the past six decades into a center for learning.

The quality of the university's academic programs is assured through numerous national-accrediting organizations. Nicholls State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Today, the campus occupies over 210 acres of land formerly part of historic Acadia Plantation on the eastern limits of the city of Thibodaux. Nicholls State University offers more than 85 two-year, four-year and graduate level programs through five academic colleges - Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, the Chef John Folse Culinary Institute, Education and Life Sciences and Technology.

Nicholls State University was the first university in the state to offer seven-on, seven-off programs for those employed in the offshore oil industry.

Nicholls is also the first public university in the state of Louisiana to undertake a strategic planning project. The project, which is funded entirely by private donations, catapulted Nicholls into the 21st century.

Thibodaux

Retaining its Southern charm and Cajun hospitality, Thibodaux has developed into a modern, progressive community where yesterday welcomes tomorrow.

Founded in 1820 on Bayou Lafourche, Thibodaux is graced by moss-laden oaks, plantation homes and lush fields of sugar cane. The word "lafourche" means fork as the bayou originally forked off the Mississippi River some 30 miles upstream from Thibodaux.

The Lafourche Parish Courthouse in downtown Thibodaux, the Edward Douglas White Home and Laurel Valley Plantation are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Elkins Hall on the Nicholls State University campus was recently added to the Register. Renovated 19th century homes front Canal Boulevard and New Orleans-style wrought iron traces downtown balconies.

The Wetlands Acadian Cultural Center located in Thibodaux is one of three Acadian Cultural Centers of the Jean Lafitte National Historical Park and Preserve in Louisiana that features many colorful aspects of Cajun life.

Known as the "Gateway to Bayou Country," Thibodaux is minutes away from the best in outdoor recreation.

Francis Tillou Nicholls

Francis Redding Tillou Nicholls was an esteemed figure in the Confederate Army, a Donaldsonville native, and the namesake of Nicholls State University.

Nicholls was born in Donaldsonville on Aug. 30, 1834. He graduated from West Point in 1855 and practiced law for a while. While serving in the Civil War he rose to the rank of brigadier general. After losing his left arm and leg and living as a prisoner of war, he returned home. He practiced law in Napoleonville for a while and was then nominated for governor in 1876 by the Louisiana State Democratic Party. He was elected during Reconstruction.

Nicholls went on to serve a second term as governor, from 1888 to 1892 and greatly opposed the corrupt Louisiana Lottery.

Following his time spent in as governor, he was named chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court. Nicholls retired to his home in Thibodaux in 1911 and died in 1912. He is buried in the St. John's Episcopal Church Cemetery in Thibodaux.

Howell resides in Napoleonville with his wife Tina. They are the parents of two grown children and have six grandchildren.

ROB BERNARDI

Athletic Director

Rob Bernardi enters his thirteenth season as director of athletics at Nicholls State University, making him the second-longest tenured athletics director in the school's history behind the legendary Ray athletics.

Improved facilities and added pride are not the only areas where Bernardi has brought about changes to the athletic program. Improving graduation rates and upgrading the academic services provided to Colonel athletes has been a goal of the department since Bernardi took over. The commitment to academics has begun to show positive results in the form of higher graduation rates and improved APR (Academic Progress Rates) scores. Colonel athletes are graduating at increasingly higher rates than ever before.

Bernardi is credited with bringing the Manning Passing Academy to Nicholls State University. The football camp, which features Archie, Peyton and Eli Manning, has brought national attention to the Thibodaux community. The nationally recognized football camp finished its seventh year on the Nicholls campus, MPA attracts over 1000 young athletes to Nicholls and has become a summer attraction for the community, and economic success for the local community.

Bernardi has been active within the NCAA governance process having served on numerous NCAA committees. Currently Rob Bernardi is a member of the NCAA Division Leadership Council, while serving on the Division I Football Championship Committee, the NCAA Division I Committee on Athletics Certification, and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, as well as the NCAA Interpretations Committee and the Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance

Cabinet.

Prior to coming to Nicholls, Bernardi spent ten years in varying capacities at the New Orleans-based Sun Belt Conference. During the last three years of his stay, he was the league's associate commissioner, coordinating and implementing marketing and promotional efforts related to the conference. He also worked hand-in-hand with other conferences, covering such topics as development and corporate relations. His responsibilities also included coordinating the Sun Belt's voting position on all NCAA legislation.

Prior to joining the Sun Belt Conference, Bernardi spent four years at the University of Arizona involved in athletics administration. While at Arizona, Bernardi worked under former NCAA president Cedric Dempsey, Dempsey was the athletics director at Arizona during the time.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, California, Bernardi was a graduate assistant football coach at both the University of Arizona and Oregon State. While at Oregon State, he earned a master's degree in higher education. He earned an undergraduate degree in public health from California State University, Northridge in 1983.

Rob has two daughters Nadine (28), Jenna (17), and is the grandfather of Emma (7). Bernardi's brother, Gary, is also involved in collegiate athletics serving as an assistant football coach at the University of Colorado.

Didier. Stability, creativity, integrity and progress are the words that best describe Bernardi's tenure at Nicholls.

Since arriving in Thibodaux, Bernardi has reinvigorated Nicholls athletics by transforming the department into a modern, progressive program aimed at increasing funding, improving facilities and enhancing the student-athlete experience. The California native's energy has worn off on coaches, student-athletes and members of the support staff.

Bernardi helped orchestrate the renewal of a self-assessed student fee to help support Colonel athletics. It was the first time in more than two decades that intercollegiate athletics at Nicholls received funding directly from student fees. The added funding in conjunction with increased private support has helped rejuvenate athletic facilities and restore a sense of pride in Colonel

John L. Guidry Stadium has been home to the Colonels football team since the school began playing the sport on the intercollegiate level in 1972. The facility is named in honor of former Galliano state representative John L. Guidry who was instrumental in the establishment of Francis T. Nicholls Junior College.

The stadium features a three-level press box on the west side. The second level houses an area for game management staff, radio and coaches' booths and a working press area that was established following a renovation project that was completed prior to the 1999 season. The president's suite and a 30-seat club level, which was also part of the 1999 press box renovation, is located on the third level. A photo deck is located on the roof. Just prior to the start of the 2010 season, a new scoreboard, complete with graphic animation features as well as a new sound system was installed. In 2012, the west entrance of the stadium was given a facelift which included a new elevator shaft and working elevator, entrance into the Colonel Club area and an ever-present illuminated Nicholls "N".

Adjacent to the elevator landing at ground level is the Colonels Club Room. Members use the building as a hospitality area before home games as well as for various university functions throughout the year.

Guidry Stadium is located adjacent to the Frank Barker Athletic Building, which houses the Nicholls football coaches' offices, locker rooms, the athletic training department and athletic staff. The Nicholls strength and conditioning facility and a 50-yard artificial turf field are located directly behind Barker Hall.

The stadium was officially dedicated on September 16, 1972 as Nicholls defeated Ouachita Baptist 12-7.

Hermon Grissom drilled a 37-yard field goal in the opening period for the first score in the stadium. Chris "Gator" Gardner caught a 27-yard pass from Lonnie Rogers for the first Colonel touchdown in the stadium as Nicholls came from behind to win.

The facility was originally referred to as Colonel Stadium but was renamed in Guidry's honor Sept. 15, 1973.

In 40 seasons, the Colonels have posted a 109-97-3 record in Guidry Stadium.

In 1975, Nicholls captured the Gulf South Conference championship with an 8-2 record, including a 6-0 mark at home. It is the only time Nicholls has gone undefeated at home. The 1996 Colonels capped the program's 25th anniversary season by going 5-1 in Guidry Stadium.

The five largest crowds to see the Colonels play in the stadium have come against intra-state rival Southern University, including a record 14,125 in the first Jaguar-Colonel game played in the stadium in 1981.

The stadium underwent an unexpected facelift during the 1992 season after suffering $150,000 worth of damage during Hurricane Andrew.

The concrete facade between the third-floor glass and the roof was ripped away by strong winds during the storm and falling debris destroyed 52 chair back seats. Glass on the south side of the press box on both the second and third levels was also blown out.

Members of the media had a rare opportunity to enjoy the first three home games in an open-air press box while the stadium was in repair.

Guidry Stadium was originally constructed at a cost of nearly $2 million.

Sports editors and sports directors of accredited media outlets should submit requests for credentials on company letterhead. Requests for season passes should be submitted as early as possible. Media covering single games should submit requests by the Wednesday morning prior to the game. No passes will be issued after Thursday afternoon, NO EXCEPTIONS.

Media who cover Nicholls opponents on a regular basis may request credentials through opponent's sports information offices or through Nicholls. Nicholls follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in issuing credentials. In most instances, the Nicholls Office of Sports Information will fill all legitimate requests for credentials.

All credential requests should be sent to: Jamie Bustos, Nicholls State University Sports Information, P.O. Box 2032, Thibodaux, La. 70310.

VISITING RADIO

There are two courtesy phone lines available for the official radio station of Nicholls opponents. Please inform Jamie Bustos at least one week in advance if you are planning to make use of the phone lines.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets—newspaper, television stations and other recognized publications. Nicholls follows NCAA rules regarding sideline photographers. Photographers are not permitted to photograph in the team area, which is located between the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field. All photographers are required to have proper sideline credentials.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at John L. Guidry Stadium is available to all credentialed media. Requests for submitting parking passes should be made when submitting press and/or photo credential requests. The media parking area is located on the west side of the stadium and is accessible from Audubon Drive.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The media will call window is located at the southwest ticket office, which is on the right side of the press box entrance when facing the stadium. Please be prepared to present proper identification when picking up credentials. The media will call window will open 90 minutes prior to kickoff.

PRESS BOX AND GAMEDAY SERVICES

The elevator landing to the Guidry Stadium Press Box is adjacent to the Colonel Club room on the west side of the stadium.

Home and visiting radio booths, coaches' boxes and the public address announcer as well as the working press area are located on the second level of the Guidry Stadium press box. The photo deck is located on the fourth level.

Approximately 60 minutes prior to kickoff, a pre-game meal will be served to all credentialed media. Beverages and snacks will be available throughout the entire game as well.

In order to effectively maintain a professional environment, cheering WILL NOT be tolerated in the press box. If any member is found cheering at any point during the game, they will be asked to leave the press box.

Pre-game packets, including notes, statistics, flip cards and programs, will be made available upon arrival to the press box. During the game, box scores and other statistical reports will be distributed following each quarter and at halftime. Approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of the game, full stat books will be made available to the media. Out-of-town scores from around the region and nation will be distributed periodically during the game as well.

All requests to fax statistics to local media outlets will be honored as soon as possible following the conclusion of the game.

In addition, the Guidry Stadium Press Box will remain open for 60 minutes following the conclusion of the game for media to file stories. An ample supply of phone lines are available for the purposes of sending stories.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES

Both the Nicholls locker room and visiting locker room facilities are located in Barker Hall. The visiting locker room is on the west side of Barker Hall and faces Guidry Stadium while the Colonel dressing rooms are located on the east side of Barker Hall. Policies concerning interviews with visiting coaches and student-athletes will be set by sports information representatives of the visiting institution. The Nicholls locker room is CLOSED to the media at all times. At home, Nicholls coach Charlie Stubbs and selected student-athletes will be made available for interviews following the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period. The interviews will take place in the Offensive Meeting Room, located in Barker Hall. ABSOLUTELY NO INTERVIEWS WILL BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD. A member of the Nicholls sports information staff will take requests for player interviews with five minutes to play in the contest and will escort media members to the interview room following the game. Statistics will be made available to media members in the Offensive Meeting Room.

On the road, Coach Stubbs and selected student-athletes will meet with the media following the NCAA mandated 10-minute cooling off period in a pre-designated area generally just outside the Colonel dressing room. Again, no interviews will be conducted on the playing field. Please direct all requests to Jamie Bustos.
