Ten to Note

- Northern Illinois carries the longest Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) winning streak in the country (nine games) into its 2012 season opener versus Iowa.
- NIU will play a home game at Chicago's Soldier Field for the second year in a row and for the third time overall.
- The Huskies are one of 10 FBS programs to win at least 11 games in each of the last two years,
- On defense, NIU has 10 returning starters (9 who started at least 7 games in 2011 and one who started in 2010). By contrast, the Huskies have eight NEW starters on offense in 2011.
- At quarterback, junior Jordan Lynch takes over for Chandler Harnish, a four-year starter who set 30 school records and is the most successful QB in the school's FBS history (since 1969).
- NIU is 0-7 all-time versus Iowa, including a 16-3 loss to the Hawkeyes at Soldier Field in the 2007 season opener.
- Northern Illinois is 2-3 in its last five games versus Big Ten teams dating back to 2009 with victories at Minnesota (2010) and at Purdue (2009).
- Over the last 10 years, Northern Illinois is the winningest program in the Mid-American Conference (78-49, a 61.4 winning percentage) and leads all Football Bowl Subdivision teams in the state of Illinois since 2002.
- Head coach Dave Doeren enters his second season at the helm of the NIU program after posting the best record by a first-year coach in school history.
- Northern Illinois' 2011 Mid-American Conference Championship was the school's first MAC football title in 28 years (since 1983).

Quoting Dave Doeren

...on the Huskies' winning streak

"Early in camp we talked about what we achieved last year and how we did it. We made it pretty clear that none of those things are going to help us win this year other than the experiences we went through and trying to gain wisdom. It's something you're proud of, but you acknowledge it's not going to do anything for you when it comes to winning."

A Century of Success

Since 2000, Northern Illinois has become one of the most consistently successful FBS football programs in the country. Over the past 12 years, NIU has:

Seasons with 6 or more wins	11
Bowl games	6

OPENING DAY: The Huskies play host to Iowa at Soldier Field in Chicago to open the 2012 campaign. It is the second straight season, and third time overall, that NIU has played at the Chicago landmark. Northern Illinois lost to No. 7 Wisconsin last September (49-7) and fell to Iowa, 16-3, on Sept. 1, 2007.

STREAKING: Northern Illinois enters the 2012 season with the longest winning streak in the nation (FBS) after winning its last nine games of 2011, including the MAC Championship game and 2012 GoDaddy.com Bowl. NIU's last loss was to Central Michigan (48-41) on Oct. 1, 2011 in Mt. Pleasant,

BACK-TO-BACK: Northern Illinois is one of 10 FBS programs to win at least 11 games in each of the last two years, joining Virginia Tech, Oklahoma State, Michigan State, TCU, Boise State, Oregon, Stanford, LSU and Alabama. NIU and Stanford are the only teams whose 11-win seasons came under different head coaches.

NIU Head Coach Dave Doeren

In his first season as head coach of the Northern Illinois University football program, Dave Doeren and his Huskies achieved milestones rarely reached over the course of a career, let alone a single season. Doeren's first year at the helm of a program saw NIU win the school's first Mid-American Conference Championship since 1983, triumph in the GoDaddy.com Bowl and close out the year with nine straight victories en route to tying the school record with 11 wins. Doeren became the winningest first-year head coach in school history.

A 17-year collegiate coaching veteran who helped take teams to eight bowl games and two national championship contests as an assistant coach at Wisconsin (2006-10), Kansas (2002-05), Montana (2000-01), USC (1998-99) and Drake (1995-97), Doeren was named the 21st head football coach in NIU history on Dec. 13, 2010.

Doeren came to NIU after completing his fifth season at Wisconsin in 2010 at the Rose Bowl where the Big Ten champion and 11-2 Badgers met TCU. After spending his first two seasons in Madison as the Badgers' co-defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator, he added defensive coordinator duties in January 2008. During Doeren's time at Wisconsin, the Badgers posted a 49-16 overall record and played in the Champs Sports (twice), Outback and Capital One bowls. At Wisconsin, Doeren's defenses were consistently ranked in the top 25 in the nation; while there he coached current National Football League defenders Jonathan Casillas (Saints), DeAndre Levy (Lions) and J.J. Watt (Texans).

Doeren arrived at UW after four seasons (2002-05) at the University of Kansas. He was the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for three seasons at KU before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2005.

Prior to his time at Kansas, Doeren coached the secondary at NCAA FCS power Montana for two seasons. Montana won the I-AA national championship in 2001 and went 28-3 with two conference titles in his time there.

He started his college coaching career as an assistant at Drake from 1995-97 where he coached linebackers, before becoming defensive coordinator in 1997. A four-year letterwinner at Drake (1990-93), Doeren earned Academic All-America honors as a senior and graduated with a bachelor's degree in pre-medical biology and a master's in educational leadership.

KENNETH AND ELLEN CHESSICK PRACTICE CENTER

This fall, Northern Illinois will begin construction of the Kenneth and Ellen Chessick Practice Center, an 83,500-square foot facility which will provide a dedicated on-campus indoor practice facility for Huskie student-athletes.

The Chessick Practice Center will house a full-size, 120-yard artificial surface football practice field with buffer space surrounding the field on all sides. It will stand 65-feet tall in the center and 45-feet high at the sidelines. The building will sit in the center of NIU's athletic footprint on the west side of campus and will be connected to the Jeffrey and Kimberly Yordon Center by the Barsema Hall of Champions.

FBS Top Five in APR (2012)

For the second straight year, Northern Illinois ranks among the Top Five Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams in Academic Progress Rate (APR), the primary measurement used by the NCAA to gauge a team's academic success.

Northwestern	993
Boise State	989
Duke	989
Ohio State	988
NORTHERN ILLINOIS	987

started 48 total games, led by WR Martel Moore with 25. In addition to WR Perez Ashford's nine starts, six other players on offense have started at least one game for the Huskies.

WATCH LISTER: For the second consecutive season, Huskie DE Sean Progar was named to the preseason watch list for the Rotary Lombardi Award, presented to the top lineman/linebacker in college football. The senior made a career high 52 tackles, 22 solo, a year ago with 11 tackles for loss and 5.5 quarterback sacks. In 40 career games, Progar has 121 tackles, 29 tackles for loss and 15.5 quarterback sacks.

SERVICE MAN: Tight end Jason Schepler is one of 117 nominees for the 2012 All-state AFCA Good Works Team®. Schepler didn't let a season-ending injury slow his community involvement as he tallies at least 14 hours of community service projects per semester. A member of NIU's Leadership Council, he also excels in the classroom, maintaining a 3.85 grade point average in electrical engineering.

NOT AROUND HERE: Chandler Harnish went from setting 30 Northern Illinois records and winning the MAC's Vern Smith Award as league MVP a year ago to "Mr. Irrelevant" when he was the 253rd and final pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. Harnish was selected in the seventh round by his home state Indianapolis Colts. As the last pick, Harnish was feted in California at the annual Mr. Irrelevant festivities.

FIRST TEAMER: Kicker Mathew Sims is the only returning Huskie who was named to the first team All Mid-American Conference squad a year ago. Sims set the school record for kick scoring, PATs made and PATs attempted as a sophomore. He made a pair of game-winning field goals, including one versus Ohio to win the Mid-American Conference Championship on the final play. The Huskies return all of its specialists in 2012.

RECEIVING VOTES: For the second consecutive preseason, Northern Illinois is receiving votes in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls. NIU earned one vote in the AP poll and two points in the USA Today rankings. The Huskies finished 2011 ranked 28th and 26th, respectively by AP and USA Today, the second straight year Northern Illinois ended up in the Top 30. NIU was the only MAC team to earn preseason votes.

IOWANS: While the Huskies do not have any players from Iowa on the roster in 2012, two of the Huskie coaches have ties to the Hawkeye state. NIU head coach Dave Doeren was an Academic All-American at Drake University in Des Moines and began his coaching career there in 1995. He was the linebackers' coach in 1995 and 1996 before becoming defensive coordinator in 1997. NIU defensive coordinator Jay Niemann, a native of Avoca, Iowa, played at Iowa State (1979-82) and coached in the state from 1989-2007

THE LAST TIME (Sept. 1, 2007):

Iowa used a stout defense and an efficient ground attack to outlast Northern Illinois 16-3 in front of a sellout crowd of 61,500 at Soldier Field in Chicago. Iowa running backs Albert Young (145) and Damian Sims (110) each tallied over 100 yards rushing while the Hawkeyes held NIU to 21 yards on the ground. Young put UI on the scoreboard with a seven-yard touchdown run in the second quarter; the PAT was missed. Iowa extended their lead to 13-0 on a five-yard pass from Jake Christensen to Brandon Myers following an eight-play, 95-yard drive. NIU responded with a 33-yard field goal by Chris Nendick for the Huskies' lone points on the game. Iowa intercepted three passes in the game, including one inside the Huskies' 10-yard line. Aside from a 22-yard Iowa field goal, there was little offense in the second half as only one of the teams' combined 13 possessions ended in a score.

Seniority

Northern Illinois' 16-man senior class includes just two players originally signed as scholarship players in 2008 with just six fifth-year Huskies overall. The seniors enter 2012 with 29 career wins (2009-11) and need seven victories to break the 2011 seniors' mark and become the winningest class in NIU football history.

5th-year seniors: Logan Pegram, Victor Jacques, *Jason Schepler, *Sean Progar, *Rashaan Melvin, *Ryan Neir

Transfers (JC or 4-year): Matt Battaglia, *Daniel Green, *Courtney Stephen, Demetrius Stone, Jamal Womble

4th-year seniors: Perez Ashford, Alan Baxter, Tyrone Clark, Nabal Jefferson, Martel Moore

originally came to NIU as a walk-on* at Drake (1989-96), Northern Iowa (1997-2001) and Simpson (2002-07). He was head coach at Simpson and compiled a 32-29 record in six seasons.

YOUNG BUT TALENTED: Northern Illinois' offensive line will feature five new starters in 2012. Redshirt juniors Jared Volk and Matt Krempel bring the most experience to the group with Volk, who is recovering from a knee injury, the only offensive lineman who has previously started a game. Volk has played in 23 games with two starts (both last year), while Krempel has seen action in 18 games. The Huskies will play, and may start three redshirt freshmen in the middle of the line in Andrew Ness (C), Aidan Conlon and Matthew Killian (G).

NAME CHANGE: Northern Illinois' 2012 roster includes three (unrelated) Moores and three Browns with DBs Marlon (CB) and Tre' (S) Moore, expected to see action this season, not to be confused with receiver Martel. On the offensive line, NIU features both Ryan and Ron, the latter a freshman who was in danger of being mixed up with receiver Da'Ron Brown. That's because Ron Brown, a Detroit native, came to NIU as Daron Brown. During a photo shoot for freshmen this past June, Daron (OL) decided to avoid confusion, he would be known as simply Ron.

1,000-Yard Rushers

Northern Illinois has had a back post a 1,000 yard rushing season in 12 of the last 13 seasons. A look at the list:

Huskies in the NFL

As of Tuesday, August 28, nine former Northern Illinois players were in NFL training camps. Veterans Michael Turner, Doug Free, Larry English and Tracy Wilson were joined by four members of the 2011 senior class and 2010 grad Landon Cox.
