THIS WEEK'S GAME

DOGS & BIRDS IN DECEMBER: NIU closes out the six-game 2020 season with a road game at MAC West foe Eastern Michigan on Saturday, December 12th. December 12 marks the latest end to the regular season in school history although the Huskies are no stranger to December football, having played in 10 bowl games and six MAC Championships in December dating back to the 1983 California Bowl.

SERIES HISTORY: NIU holds a 33-15-2 advantage in the all-time series with EMU and has won 17 of the last 19 meetings. NIU saw its 11-game series winning streak versus the Eagles snapped last year in Huskie Stadium. Prior to that, Eastern Michigan's last win over NIU came in 2007, a 21-19 victory in DeKalb. The Eagles' last win over the Huskies in Rynearson Stadium was a 39-32 victory in 2000. NIU has won nine straight games in Ypsilanti, including overtime victories on each of its last two visits with a 31-24 win in 2016 and a 26-23 3OT triumph in 2018. All-time, the Huskies are 17-7-1 versus EMU as the road team. The Eagles are NIU's oldest MAC foe as the series goes all the way back to 1927, with annual meetings from 1947-1961 before becoming league opponents. The Huskies are 23-5-2 versus Eastern Michigan in their two stints in the MAC.

FAMILY REUNION: NIU offensive linemen Brayden Patton will see a familiar face on the EMU sideline as Patton's father, James, is in his second season on Chris Creighton's staff at Eastern Michigan. James, a 27-year college coaching veteran and Miami (Ohio) grad who has made stops at Indiana, Pitt, Rhode Island and Northwestern serves as the Eagles' offensive line coach and run game coordinator. Brayden has started 17 consecutive games on the NIU offensive line, the last seven at center.

THE LAST MEETING: A year ago, Eastern Michigan used a 24-point third quarter to break open a 14-7 game en route to a 45-17 win over NIU on Tuesday, November 19, 2019. Leading 14-7, Eastern Michigan scored on each of its first three possessions of the third quarter to build a 31-10 advantage. After quarterback Mike Glass led the Eagles on a nine-play 75-yard touchdown drive to open the third quarter, a pair of Huskie turnovers led to EMU's next 10 points and a 38-10 lead. Tailback Tre Harbison led the Huskie offense with 112 rushing yards on 30 carries and NIU QB Marcus Childers rushed for 92 yards on 13 carries while Glass completed 20-of-24 passes for 235 yards and three scores.

SENIOR SALUTE

The rest have arrived at NIU over time, including starters Tyrice Richie and Ross Bowers, who are each in their second season with the Huskies.

LAST WEEK: Toledo scored 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to earn a 41-24 victory over NIU at Huskie Stadium Saturday in the Huskies' home finale. NIU and Toledo split 48 points in an offensive first half that included 651 combined yards of total offense. After a scoreless third quarter, UT took a 27-24 lead at the 11:31 mark of the fourth quarter and added a pair of touchdowns in the final five minutes to claim the win. NIU TB Harrison Waylee recorded his first collegiate 100-yard rushing game with 114 yards on 19 carries and a score.

HUSKIES IN THE MAC: NIU is 156-110-2 all-time in Mid-American Conference play. The Huskies are 120-65 (.649) in league action since re-joining the MAC in 1997. Since 2010, NIU is 65-20 against the MAC with three undefeated campaigns, two one-loss seasons, six-straight division championships and seven overall during that stretch. The Huskies are in their 35th season as a member of the Mid-American Conference in 2020-21, including an initial stint in the league from 1975-85. Since the MAC went to divisional play in 1997, NIU is 74-48 versus teams from the MAC West, including a 37-17 mark in the division since 2010.

FROM PLAYER TO COACH: A four-year letterwinner at tailback who earned first team Academic All-American honors from CoSIDA in 2000 and 2001, Thomas Hammock gained 2,423 yards rushing in 32 games in his NIU career, which still ranks 13th all-time in Huskie history. He was a first team All-MAC selection in 2000 and 2001 after back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns. Hammock's playing career was cut short after the first game of his senior season when he was diagnosed with a heart condition. He was replaced in the line-up by a familiar name, future NFL All-Pro Michael Turner.

MITTEN NATIVES: NIU's 2020 roster features eight Michigan natives. Six have played for the Huskies this season and five are listed on the depth chart - three as starters - going into the EMU game. The Huskies have seven Detroit area players, while freshman quarterback Dustin Fletcher is a Flint product. Three of NIU's Michigan products are tight ends - sixth-year senior tight end Daniel Crawford (Macomb/Dakota HS), redshirt senior Maximillian Thrower (Detroit, Mich./Shrine Catholic) and redshirt junior Liam Soraghan (Dearborn/Divine Child). Four of NIU's eight Michigan natives are freshmen, including Fletcher and defensive starters James Ester (Detroit/Cass Tech) and safety C.J. Brown (Canton/Walled Lake Western).

CARDINAL & BLACK, AND GREEN: The numbers are in and the Huskies are officially one of the youngest teams in the nation. With 81 freshmen and sophomores (underclassmen) on the 111-man roster, NIU (73.0) ranks behind only Oregon (73.6) in percentage of the 2020 roster who are underclassmen. The Huskies total of 60 freshmen (true and redshirt) is tied for fourth-most in the country behind Nebraska (78), SMU (66) and Bowling Green (64). The 10 youngest and MAC teams on the list:

NEW NAMES: Not all of the newest Huskies are freshmen. In total, there are 57 new names on the 2020 NIU roster, including freshmen and transfers. The newcomers outnumber the returnees 57-54 with 34 returning letterwinners. Of the 57 new faces, 46 are true freshmen, four come to NIU from the junior college ranks, three are grad transfers, one is an undergrad transfer from a four-year school and two are non-freshmen walk-ons.

STARTING YOUNG: Thirteen different freshmen, including 10 true freshmen, have started games for NIU in 2020. The Huskies have had nine, 11 and 10 rookies in the starting line-up versus Ball State, Western Michigan and Toledo, respectively. NIU's starting line-up at WMU featured nine true freshmen, six on defense. On offense, redshirt freshman Logan Zschneritz has started every game at guard, and has been joined in the starting line-up by true freshmen John Champe (OG), Harrison Waylee (TB) and Trayvon Rudolph (WR). Defensively, true freshmen Pierce Oppong (DE), Raishein Thomas (DE) and Devin Lafayette (S) have started all five games, redshirt freshmen Demond Taylor Jr. and James Ester have shared the defensive tackle spot as have true freshmen C.J. Brown and Jordan Hansen at safety. Rookie Eddie Jackson has started at outside linebacker in the last two games while his classmate, Daveren Rayner has started four games at the other OLB spot.

MAKING HISTORY: Tyrice Richie recorded his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season versus Toledo with 111 yards on seven catches to become just the eighth player in NIU history to have four or more 100-yard receiving games in a season, and the first since Kenny Golladay in 2016 (and 2015). Richie has reached the 100-yard threshold in five games played, the fewest games of any player in school history. The senior is the first NIU player since Darrell Hill in 2001 to post three consecutive 100-yard receiving games. Hill posted three straight 100-yard games on October 20 (112 vs. WMU), October 27 (108 vs. CMU) and November 3 (124 vs. EMU).

RANKED RECEIVER: With 46 catches in five games, Tyrice Richie ranks second nationally in catches per game with 9.2, behind only Ole Miss' Elijah Moore (10.8). He easily surpassed his 2019 season total of 32 catches (in 11 games) on the strength of 11 and 12 catch days at Ball State and Western Michigan, respectively. The Chicago senior also ranks 16th nationally in receiving yards with 526 for an average of 105.2 yards per game. His 526 yards are 316 more than his nearest teammates' total and account for 43 percent of NIU's receiving yards.

RUN RUN RUDOLPH: Freshman wide receiver Trayvon Rudolph, a preferred walk-on who was awarded a scholarship this fall, now has returned more kickoffs (24) for more yards (590) than any PLAYER in the country. Rudolph recorded a season-long 56-yard return at Western Michigan, the longest kickoff return by a Huskie since Aregeros Turner scored on a 97-yard kickoff return versus Buffalo in 2016 (Oct. 22). His average of 24.6 yards per return is 23rd in the country, and he ranks second nationally in combined kick returns (599 punt + kickoff).

IN THE BOOKS: With 24 kickoff returns for 590 yards in just five games in 2020, freshman Trayvon Rudolph is already in the NIU single season record books. His 24 kickoff returns are tied for 10th in a season, and are the most by a Huskie since 2016 (Aregeros Turner, 30), while his 590 KOR yards rank ninth on the NIU single season charts.

HUSKIES IN THE PROS

Five Huskies are on active NFL rosters in 2020, led by 49ers safety Jimmie Ward, coming off a Super Bowl season in 2019, and Detroit Lions wide receiver Kenny Golladay. Veteran corner Rashaan Melvin has opted out of the 2020 season, while Tommy Lee Lewis returned to the New Orleans Saints as a member of the practice squad and 2019 NIU senior Jordan Steckler was signed to the Patriots' practice squad on October 27.

ALL-PURPOSE: Trayvon Rudolph's average of 161.6 all-purpose yards per game leads all FBS freshman and ranks 12th nationally. In addition to his 598 return yards (590 on kickoffs and eight on punts), Rudolph has caught 11 passes for 210 yards to rank second on the team in receiving yards. He caught a career high five passes for 95 yards at Ball State including a season-long 47-yard grab. His yards per catch average (19.1) leads the Huskies with more receptions of 25 yards or longer (5) than any other player.

LEADING THE WAY-LEE: Freshman tailback Harrison Waylee recorded the first 100-yard rushing game by a Huskie this season, and the first 100-yard rushing game of his career, when he ran for 114 yards on 19 carries versus Toledo. Waylee scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 28-yard carry, a week after scoring his first touchdown on a nine-yard pass reception at Western Michigan. The freshman leads NIU in rushing with 334 yards on 84 carries for an average of 4.0 yards per carry.

FA LA LA LAFAYETTE: Safety Devin Lafayette had a break out game versus Toledo as he led NIU with 13 tackles, the second-highest total by a Huskie this year, and snagged his first career interception. Lafayette, a Georgia product who has started every game as a true freshman, ranks second on the team with 33 tackles.

THE GANDY MAN CAN: Cornerback Jordan Gandy tied a 17-year-old school record with five pass break ups at Western Michigan and his 1.6 passes defended per game (PBUs + INTs) lead the MAC and are tied for second in the FBS. Gandy, a DeKalb native who transferred to NIU from South Dakota State, is the first Huskie to break up five passes in a game since Randee Drew versus Tennessee Tech on Sept. 6, 2003. Gandy leads NIU with 36 tackles after an 11-tackle performance versus Toledo.

ADD ANOTHER RECORD: With four punts versus Toledo, senior Matt Ference added the NIU career record for most punts to his list of Huskie punting marks. Ference has punted 259 times for 10,707 yards over the last four seasons, surpassing Kent Baker's 257 punts from 1996-99. The St. Louis native set the NIU career mark for punting yards at Ball State, breaking Todd Van Keppel's mark of 10,312 yards set in 1984. Ference's 41.34 yard punting average ranks first on the Huskie career charts, and he holds the single season marks for punts and punting yards.

10K MAN: With 10,707 yards on 259 punts, Matt Ference's career totals rank second in the nation among active punters behind Northwestern's Derek Adams. His 41.34-yard average is 41st among active players.

TWO-POINT PLAYS: NIU is 2-for-4 on 2-point conversion attempts in 2020, the most successful 2-point attempts for the Huskies in a season since 2009, when NIU was also 2-for-4. Tight end Daniel Crawford caught a pass from Ross Bowers to score the two points on the Huskies' last touchdown at Ball State and NIU went 1-of-3 on two-point tries versus Buffalo with Rondarius Gregory rushing for the points. The Huskies' four two-point attempts is the most since 2018, when NIU was successful once in five tries. The Huskies did not convert a two-point PAT try between 2012-17, going 0-for-6 during that stretch.

NEWCOMERS RULE: No surprise the top of the Huskie tackle chart is filled by the freshmen and newcomers who have filled the starting roles this year. Five of the top seven tacklers are newcomers, led by sophomore transfer Jordan Gandy (36 tackles) and true freshman safety Devin Lafayette (33). Middle linebacker Nick Rattin, just a sophomore himself, and senior outside linebacker Kyle Pugh are the veterans on the list with 28 and 27 stops, respectively.

HOLDING STRONG: NIU allowed Western Michigan to convert just one of nine third downs and held Toledo to a 3-of-9 mark. Through five games, NIU's third down conversion defense of 30.0 percent (15-of-50) ranks ninth nationally and is second in the MAC. Buffalo was 3-of-9 on third down conversions and CMU converted just 1-of-11 third down tries.

COMPLEMENTARY FOOTBALL: The Huskie offense helped out the defense at Western Michigan in several ways evident in the stats. For the first time since the 2019 game at Toledo, NIU did not commit a turnover. NIU also totaled exactly 40:00 in time of possession, the most by a Huskie team since a 28-20 victory at Purdue on Sept. 19, 2009, a span of 148 games.

IN THE RED: The Huskies rank 10th in the FBS in red zone defense with six complete stops on opponents 21 trips inside the NIU 20 and have forced field goals four times. NIU recorded a pair of fourth down stops inside the red zone versus CMU, Dillon Thomas had an end zone interception at Ball State, while Western Michigan missed a short field goal and Toledo turned it over on downs.

WALK-ON U: Jordan Gandy became the third walk-on to be awarded a scholarship for this season on Dec. 1, joining defensive lineman Devonte O'Malley (Nov. 22) and wide receiver Trayvon Rudolph. Of the 111 players on the Huskies 2020 roster, 42 are currently or began their careers at NIU as walk-ons. The list includes senior punter Matt Ference, starters Nick Rattin (LB), Brett Bostad (FB) and more. NIU has a long tradition of successful walk-ons, like 2010 MAC MVP Chad Spann and eight-year NFL veteran Rashaan Melvin.

HOLDING THEM DOWN: The NIU defense put together its best performance of the season at Western Michigan against one of the MAC's top offenses. The Broncos' points (30), rushing yards (115) and attempts (25), total offensive plays (49) and yards (325) were all season lows by a Huskie opponent. WMU's totals for the game were well below their season averages coming into the game.

	Season Average	vs. NIU	Difference
Points	50.3	30	-20
Total Yards	516.3	325	-191
Passing Yards	310.7	210	-100

QUICK HITS: NIU's 26 first downs in the Buffalo game were the most by the Huskies since the 2018 Akron game ... opponents have scored 34 points off NIU turnovers in 2020 ... the Huskies' third-quarter touchdown at Western Michigan is NIU's only score in the third quarter this year ... quarterback Ross Bowers' 27 completions at Ball State tied for eighth on the NIU single game chart and were the most by a Huskie QB since October 10, 2015 ... NIU's five interceptions this year are one more than the Huskies totaled in 12 games in 2019.

COAST TO COAST: Thomas Hammock and his staff have put together one of the most geographically diverse rosters NIU has seen in several years with Huskie players hailing from 16 different states and two different countries. Huskie hometowns stretch - literally - from coast to coast with Washington (Ross Bowers), Oregon (Connor Neville) and California (Rodney Thompson) representing the West Coast. There are four Huskies from Hammock's native New Jersey, seven from Florida and two each from Texas and Georgia. Junior college transfer Woodly Appolon hails from Montreal, Canada. Of course the largest representation call the Midwest home, topped by 52 Illinoisans and 16 Wisconsinites. The Huskie roster state-by-state:

Illinois	52	Georgia	2
Wisconsin.....	16	Texas	2
Michigan	8	California.....	1
Florida	7	Oregon	1
Indiana	4	Nebraska.....	1
New Jersey.....	4	Tennessee	1

NIU Head Coach Thomas Hammock

Thomas Hammock, a former Huskie student-athlete and assistant coach, returned home to Northern Illinois University as the 23rd head coach in the history of NIU football on Jan. 18, 2019. One of the top football student-athletes in school history, Hammock was named NIU head coach after five seasons (2014-18) as an assistant coach with the Baltimore Ravens.

He is the first African-American head coach in NIU football history and is the first alumnus to lead the Huskies as a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) program.

In his first season as head coach in 2019, he led NIU to a 5-7 record with a 3-3 mark in one-score games.

Hammock, whose NIU playing career was cut short in his junior season due to a heart condition, began his coaching career after a brief stint in the business world. He spent two seasons at Wisconsin as a graduate assistant, followed by two seasons as an assistant at NIU under Huskie Hall of Famer Joe Novak (2005-06). Hammock then served as an assistant at Minnesota and Wisconsin before joining the Ravens in 2014.

In five seasons as the running backs coach with the Ravens, Hammock helped Baltimore's rushing attack finish in the top 11 in the NFL three times, including in 2018 when the Ravens had the second-best rushing offense in the league, averaging 152.6 yards per game. The Ravens made the playoffs twice in Hammock's time in Baltimore.

Hammock helped mentor running back Justin Forsett to his first career Pro Bowl in 2014 as he rushed for a career-high 1,266 yards, fifth-most in the NFL. Baltimore fullback Kyle Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in 2016 after he led the NFL in catches (37) and receiving yards (266) by a fullback.

Prior to his five seasons in Baltimore, Hammock spent three years at the University of Wisconsin, where he was the running backs coach and assistant head coach. In Hammock's first season in Madison in 2011, the Badgers ranked 11th nationally in rushing, averaging 235.6 yards per game. Montee Ball led the nation in rushing yards (1,923) and broke Barry Sanders' single-season NCAA touchdown record with 39 scores, 33 rushing. Ball was a consensus first team All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist for the Badgers, who finished 11-3 and played in the Rose Bowl.

The following season, Wisconsin once again ranked among the nation's elite rushing teams and Ball became the NCAA's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American at running back during his playing days, Hammock returned to DeKalb as an assistant coach in 2005-06. In his first season, NIU Hall of Famer Garrett Wolfe rushed for 1,580 yards and 16 touchdowns in just nine games as NIU won the MAC West Division and appeared in the MAC Championship Game for the first time.

During the 2006 campaign, Wolfe rushed for an NCAA-best 1,928 yards as the Huskies reached the Poinsettia Bowl. Hammock helped Wolfe earn All-America and first team All-MAC honors in both 2005 and 2006. Wolfe was also the Vern Smith Leadership Award winner as the MAC's Most Valuable Player in 2006.

Following his two seasons with the Huskies, Hammock spent four years as the running backs coach at the University of Minnesota (2007-10), helping the Golden Gophers to the Insight Bowl in both 2008 and 2009. Hammock was named the co-offensive coordinator at Minnesota for the 2010 season and the Gophers moved up 26 spots nationally in rushing and 34 spots in total offense.

Hammock, a New Jersey native who grew up in Ft. Wayne, Ind., earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from NIU in December 2002, and a master's in educational leadership and policy analysis from Wisconsin in 2004. He and his wife, Cheyennitha, also a NIU alum, have a daughter, Tierra, and a son, Thomas Douglas.

THE LAST MEETING

Eastern Michigan 45, NIU 17

Nov. 19, 2019

DeKalb, Ill. | Huskie Stadium

Eastern Michigan used a 24-point third quarter to break open a 14-7 game and went on to defeat NIU, 45-17, Tuesday night at Huskie Stadium.

EMU quarterback Mike Glass completed 20-of-24 passes for 235 yards and three touchdowns while Shaq Vann ran for 101 yards as the Eagles earned their first win over NIU since 2007.

Tailback Tre Harbison led the Huskie offense with 112 rushing yards on 30 carries as he surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season, becoming the first NIU tailback to go over 1,000 rushing yards in back-to-back seasons since Chad Spann in 2009-10. Harbison has 1,021 yards on 230 carries on the season.

Quarterback Marcus Childers rushed for 92 yards on 13 carries and completed 12-of-26 passes for 99 yards with a career-high three interceptions.

Leading 14-7, Eastern Michigan scored on each of its first three possessions of the third quarter to build a 31-10 advantage. Glass led the Eagles on a nine-play, 75-yard drive to open the quarter with Vann scoring from eight yards out for the first score.

After the Huskies responded with a 34-yard field goal by John Richardson to narrow the margin to 21-10, EMU took just two plays to go 75 yards for a 28-10 lead. Vann escaped for 24 yards and a Huskie penalty moved the ball to the NIU 36-yard line. From there, Glass completed his second 36-yard TD pass of the game, this time to Line Latu for a 28-10 advantage.

A pair of turnovers led to EMU's next 10 points. Childers fumbled while getting sacked and EMU recovered at the NIU 38-yard line. Five plays later, kicker Chad Ryland converted from 27 yards out. Then, one play after the Eagles' Brody Hoying returned an interception 48 yards to the NIU 22, Glass hit Jackson for a 22-yard touchdown and a 38-10 EMU lead.

Eastern Michigan led 7-0 after one quarter and 14-7 at the half. The Eagles scored on their first possession of the game, driving 62 yards in eight plays and 4:16 with Glass scoring from one yard out.

EMU doubled its lead on its first drive of the second quarter with a seven-play, 86-yard drive. Glass hit Arthur Jackson with a 36-yard completion for the score after the defensive back fell down on the play.

The Huskies responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive to cut the lead in half with 6:35 to play in the half. Harbison picked up 35 yards on the ground on the drive and Childers completed three passes before taking it in from eight yards out for the score.

GAME 2: CENTRAL MICHIGAN 40, NIU 10

November 11 | 6 p.m. (CT) | ESPN2
DeKalb, Illinois | Huskie Stadium | 419*

The NIU Huskies trailed by just nine at halftime, but two third quarter take-aways helped Central Michigan score 24 unanswered points to start the second half on its way to a 40-10 victory over NIU on Wednesday night at Huskie Stadium.

Kyle Pugh made a game-high 14 tackles, including 1.5 sacks, his highest total in a game since 2017. Davenner Rayner, making his first career start, and Jordan Hansen each made seven tackles.

Central Michigan struck first with a 58-yard touchdown pass from Daniel Richardson to Dallas Dixon on the first drive of the contest. The Chippewas needed just two plays to go 76 yards to open the scoring.

Richardson was 13-of-19 passing in the contest for 196 yards and two touchdowns.

Late in the first quarter, the Huskies moved to the Central Michigan 23-yard line but were unable to convert on fourth and three, turning the ball over on downs as the Chippewas took a 7-0 lead into the second quarter.

A mishandled snap on a punt deep in NIU territory was knocked out of the back of the end zone by the Huskies for a Central Michigan safety with just over two minutes left in the opening half, giving CMU a 9-0 lead at the intermission.

Central Michigan added to its lead with a 12-play, 94-yard drive to start the second half. Kobe Lewis capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run as the Chippewas took a 16-0 lead.

A Huskie fumble on the ensuing kickoff gave the ball back to the Chippewas inside NIU territory and CMU converted with a 40-yard field goal to take a 19-point advantage.

Late in the third quarter, NIU turned the ball over on downs near midfield and, on the second play of the drive, Central Michigan added another score as Richardson connected with Lew Nichols on a screen pass that went 58 yards for the touchdown.

Nichols ran for a 36-yard score early in the fourth quarter before John Richardson got the Huskies on the scoreboard with a 45-yard field goal.

Nichols finished with a game-high 91 yards on 12 carries.

GAME 3: BALL STATE 31, NIU 25

November 18 | 6 p.m. (CT) | ESPNNews
Muncie, Indiana | Scheumann Stadium | 859*

Tailback Erin Collins scored a pair of touchdowns and quarterback Ross Bowers threw for 300 yards, but the NIU Huskies could not overcome a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit and Ball State retained the Bronze Stalk Trophy with a 31-25 win over NIU Wednesday night at Scheumann Stadium.

Ball State broke a 14-14 tie with back-to-back scores in the second half after getting a boost from its defense, which scored on a 71-yard interception return in the second quarter.

In addition to Bowers' 300-yard game, which came on 27-of-40 passing, Tyrice Richie caught a career high 11 passes for 108 yards.

With the score tied 14-14 at halftime, Ball State drove to the NIU three-yard line on the opening possession of the second half before NIU junior Dillon Thomas intercepted BSU quarterback Drew Plitt in the end zone. The Huskie offense stalled and Ball State drove 59 yards in nine plays to take a 20-14 lead with 5:12 left in the third quarter. Caleb Huntley, who finished the game with 103 yards on 23 carries, scored from three yards out. The PAT failed due to a bad snap.

After an exchange of punts, Ball State extended the lead to 28-14 with a five-play, 80-yard drive. A 64-yard pass from Plitt to Yo'Heinz Tyler put BSU on the NIU 13-yard line. Two plays later, Plitt hit Tyler for the seven-yard score and his two-yard PAT pass to Antwan Davis was good.

NIU answered with a 13-play, 80-yard drive. Bowers hit Trayvon Rudolph, who caught five passes for 95 yards on the night, on fourth and three to give NIU a first down at the Ball State eight. Three plays later, Collins scored his second touchdown on a three-yard run. Bowers' two-point pass attempt to Crawford was good. With 7:09 to play, NIU trailed 28-22.

Ball State extended the lead to 31-22 with an 11-play, 59-yard drive that took 4:55 off the clock. Jack Knight hit a 33-yard field goal when the BSU drive stalled at the NIU 16 to provide the Cardinals' final points.

The Huskies drove to the Ball State 23, where John Richardson's field goal with 44 seconds was good from 41 yards out to pull the Huskies within six points.

Richardson got a nice bounce on his ensuing onside kick, but it fell into the hands of Ball State's Chris Albright and the Cardinals ran out the clock.

NIU scored on its first possession of the game, driving 75 yards in seven plays and 2:56 to take a 7-0 lead. Bowers hit Richie for 17 yards for the score.

Ball State drove to the NIU 26 on its ensuing possession, where the Huskie defense held and Knight's 42-yard field goal missed wide right. The Cardinals tied the game at seven on a five-yard pass from Plitt to Davis early in the second quarter after a Tye Evans 46-yard run put BSU on the NIU nine-yard line.

The Huskies took a 14-7 lead on a six-play, 74-yard drive with 11:39 before half. A short pass to Rudolph turned into a 47-yard play and Bowers hit Crawford on a 21-yard reception to the 21. Collins scored from two yards out two plays later.

Kalamazoo, Michigan | Waldo Stadium | NA

Western Michigan kicker Gavin Peddie made a 24-yard field goal with 2:23 to play to lift WMU to a 30-27 win over the NIU Huskies Saturday at Waldo Stadium.

NIU, whose starting line-up included 11 freshmen, held a powerful Western Michigan offense 20 points and 200 yards below their season average while controlling the ball for 40:00 and running 80 plays to the Broncos' 49. NIU outgained the Broncos, 350-325, while not committing a turnover for the first time in 2020.

The Broncos used a trio of big plays, leading to 20 points. La'Darius Jefferson scored WMU's first touchdown on a 43-yard run in the first quarter to give the Broncos a 7-3 lead; kickoff returner D'Wayne Eskridge scored on a 100-yard kick-off return in the second quarter as WMU took a 20-17 halftime lead; and Eskridge caught a pass between a pair of Huskie defenders in the fourth quarter and went 57 yards to set up WMU's game-tying touchdown with 9:12 to play in the game.

WMU scored 10 fourth-quarter points to erase a 27-20 NIU lead. The Broncos drove 79 yards in three plays and 1:16 to tie the game on a 26-yard touchdown catch by Skyy Moore at the 9:12 mark.
