HUSKIE QUICK HITS

- NIU is playing its first MAC Tournament game since 2019. The 2020 tournament was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic before the Huskies played a game and NIU did not qualify in 2021 and 2022.
- No player or coach on the current NIU roster has been part of a MAC Tournament game.
- David Coit was named to the All-MAC Third Team and Kaleb Thornton earned All-MAC Honorable Mention recognition. This marks the first time that NIU has had two All-MAC honorees in the same season since 2003-04.
- Kaleb Thornton led the MAC in both assists and steals in conference play, averaging 6.7 assists and 2.2 steals per game. Thornton is averaging 5.3 assists per game overall this season, second in the MAC and 30th nationally.
- Harvin Ibarguen led the league in field goal percentage in conference play, shooting 81.7 percent (67-of-82).
- In league play, NIU is second in the MAC in field goal percentage, shooting 48 percent, and third in field goal defense, holding opponents to 44.5 percent.

NIU IN THE MAC TOURNAMENT

- NIU is seeded seventh in the Mid-American Conference Tournament and is appearing in the tournament field for the first time since 2020 after failing to qualify for each of the past two conference tournaments.
- The Huskies did not play a game in the 2020 tournament as they earned the fourth seed and a bye to Cleveland. NIU was hours away from meeting 12th-seeded Miami in the quarterfinals when the tournament was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- As a result of the 2020 cancelation and not qualifying for the last two tournaments, when the Huskies take the floor on Thursday, it will have been 1,455 days since NIU's last MAC Tournament game, the 2019 semifinals against Bowling Green on March 15, 2019.
- In its last tournament appearance in 2019, seventh-seeded NIU opened with an 80-61 victory over 10th-seeded Ohio at home (March 11, 2019). The Huskies then won their first game in Cleveland since 2003 with an 80-76 win over second-seeded Toledo in the quarterfinals (March 14, 2019). NIU bowed out of the tournament with a 71-67 setback against third-seeded Bowling Green in the semifinals (March 15, 2019).
- Eugene German led the Huskies in that 2019 tournament, averaging 27.0 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game, while shooting 66.7 percent (32-of-38) from the field and 52.4 percent (11-of-21) from three, earning all-tournament honors.
- No player or coach on the current NIU roster has been part of a MAC Tournament game.
- NIU is seeded seventh at the MAC Tournament for the fourth time in school history. The Huskies were also the No. 7 seed in 2014, 2016 and 2019. In each of those tournaments, the No. 7 seed opened with a home game against the No. 10 seed, which the Huskies won in all three tournaments. NIU also defeated second-seeded Toledo in the 2019 quarterfinals. NIU is 4-3 all-time in the MAC Tournament as the No. 7 seed.
- NIU is 14-24 all-time in MAC Tournament history. The Huskies won the tournament in 1982, appeared in the championship game in 1981 and have reached the semifinals on three other occasions (1980, 2003, 2019). Since returning to the MAC for the 1997-98 season, NIU is 7-20 in the conference tournament.
- NIU is 2-9 all-time in MAC Tournament games at Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse. The only two Huskie victories in the venue came during the quarterfinals in 2003 (vs. Western Michigan) and 2019 (vs. Toledo).

HOW THE HUSKIES GOT TO CLEVELAND

- NIU defied preseason predictions and overcame numerous injuries to punch their ticket to the MAC Tournament in Cleveland.
- •The Huskies were picked 12th in the MAC preseason coaches poll, and 12th by The Almanac. Blue Ribbon Yearbook picked the Huskies to finish ninth.
- NIU's non-conference schedule included games against Atlantic 10 regular season champion VCU, WCC regular season co-champion Gonzaga, Big Ten No. 2 seed Northwestern and WAC No. 1 seed Sam Houston.
- The Huskies played 10 road or neutral site games during the non-conference, including eight-straight between Nov. 17 and Dec. 17.
- That stretch saw the Huskies play games in seven different states and three time zones. Including flight connections, the eight-game stretch saw NIU travel more than 13,000 miles through 11 states.
- After losing leading scorer Keshawn Williams in the second conference game at Buffalo (Jan. 7) to what would turn out to be a season-ending injury, NIU won four-of-five games, beginning with a 73-54 win over Central Michigan (Jan. 10).
- That stretch also included back-to-back wins at Miami (Jan. 17) and Eastern Michigan (Jan. 24), which sparked a four-game road winning streak, the longest road winning streak for the program since the 2002-03 season, when the Huskies won seven-straight.
- Already without Williams in the backcourt, NIU played four consecutive games without another key guard as Kaleb Thornton missed the Feb. 14 game at Ball State and David Coit missed the next three games, beginning Feb. 18 against Miami. Overall this season, NIU has lost 78 man-games due to injury or illness.
- The Huskies became the sixth team to clinch a spot in the MAC Tournament with their 84-80 victory at Central Michigan (Feb. 25).
- NIU finished conference play with a 9-9 record. It is just the fifth time since returning to the MAC in 1997-98 that the Huskies have finished .500 or better in conference play. NIU went 11-7 in 2002-03, 12-6 in 2005-06, 9-9 in 2015-16 and 11-7 in 2019-20.

COIT AND THORNTON EARN ALL-MAC HONORS

- David Coit and Kaleb Thornton each received all-conference honors as the league announced its postseason awards on Wednesday (March 8). Coit was named to the All-MAC Third Team while Thornton received All-MAC honorable mention recognition.
- Coit is 12th in the league in scoring at 15.7 points per game, and eighth in league play at 16.9 points per game.
- He also ranks in the top-20 in three pointers per game (third, 2.8), steals per game (13th, 1.3), assists (16th, 2.9) and three-point percentage (17th, 38 percent).
- In league play, Coit was second in free throw percentage (89.7 percent), second in three pointers per game (3.0) and fifth in assist/turnover ratio (2.17). He also ranked in the top-15 in steals (12th, 1.3), assists (13th, 3.3) and three-point percentage (15th, 39.5 percent).
- Coit ranks 42nd in the country in three pointers per game (2.8) and 64th in three-point percentage (38 percent).
- Thornton led the MAC in both assists and steals during conference play, averaging 6.7 assists - and 2.2 steals per game. He is second overall in assists per game with 5.3 and fifth in steals with 1.6 per contest.

- •Thornton is sixth in the MAC with a 1.70 assist/turnover ratio, eighth in league games at 1.78, and 16th in three-point percentage both overall (38.1 percent) and in league play (39.2 percent).
- Nationally, Thornton is 30th in the country in assists per game (5.3).
- Over the final 16 games of the season, NIU went 8-4 in games where both Coit and Thornton were in the line. Coit missed three games during that stretch while Thornton missed one, the Huskies were 1-3 in those contests.
- This marks the first time that NIU has had two All-MAC honorees in the same season since the 2003-04 campaign when Marcus Smallwood and P.J. Smith both received All-MAC honorable mention recognition.

NEXT MAN UP

- In the 16 games since Keshawn Williams went out with a season-ending injury, the Huskies have posted a 9-7 record, including five road wins, and have gotten contributions from up and down the lineup.
- During those 16 contests, NIU is averaging 77.1 points per game, shooting 49.3 percent from the field and 37.8 percent from three-point range. In the previous 15 games, NIU averaged 67.5 points per game, shooting 43.2 percent and 31.5 percent from three.
- David Coit has played in 13 of those 16 games and is averaging 17.8 points per game during that stretch, shooting 46.6 percent (81-of-174) and 41 percent (43-of-105) from three, while also averaging 3.5 assists per game.
- Zarique Nutter is averaging 14.8 points per game during the last 16 contests, shooting 45.7 percent (91-of-199) from the field, while grabbing 4.6 rebounds per contest.
- Kaleb Thornton has played in 15 of the 16 contests and is averaging 12.9 points per game, shooting 38.7 percent (29-of-75) from three. Thornton is also averaging 7.2 assists and 2.3 steals per game.
- Darweshi Hunter is averaging 13.0 points per game, shooting 49.6 percent (70-of-141) from the field and 47.8 percent (43-of-90) from three. Hunter has made six consecutive starts.
- Anthony Crump is shooting 61.4 percent (54-of-88) from the field in the last 16 games, along with a team-best 6.3 rebounds per game while averaging 9.8 points per contest.
- Harvin Ibarguen is shooting 81.6 percent (62-of-76) from the floor in the last 16 contests. Ibarguen is averaging 8.2 points per game and 5.4 rebounds per contest during the stretch.
- During the current 16-game stretch, the Huskies played one game without Kaleb Thornton (Feb. 14 at Ball State) and three without David Coit (Feb. 18 vs. Miami, Feb. 21 at Ohio and Feb. 25 at Central Michigan). NIU is 8-4 in the last 16 when both Coit and Thornton are in the lineup.

ROAD WARRIORS

- NIU's seven road wins overall this season is the third-most in the MAC, behind only Toledo (10) and Kent State (9). It is also tied for 53rd nationally. Charleston, Colgate, Florida Atlantic, Houston and Oral Roberts lead the country with 11 road wins each.
- •The Huskies finished league play with a 5-4 road record. NIU's five road wins is the most by the Huskies since the 2005-06 season when NIU won six road league games.
- In the last two seasons combined, NIU has the fifth-most conference road wins in the MAC with nine. Toledo has 16, Kent State has 14, Akron has 12 and Buffalo has 10.
- NIU's victory at Bowling Green (Feb. 4) was its fourth consecutive road win (at Miami, Eastern Michigan, Western Michigan and Bowling Green), the longest road win streak for the program since the 2002-03 season when the Huskies won seven consecutive road games from Jan. 8, 2003 (at Toledo) through Feb. 15, 2003 (at Eastern Michigan).

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Huskies are 10-0 when scoring 80-or-more points this season. NIU is also 8-0 when it outrebounds its opponent.
- The Huskies have made 230 three-point field goals, the second-most in a single-season in program history. The single-season school record was set in 2015-16, when NIU made 238 triples. NIU has attempted 660 triples this season, the third-highest single-season total in school history.
- NIU has scored 2,247 points this season, the seventh-highest total in program history. The school record is 2,506, set during the 2018-19 campaign.
- NIU's average years of Division I experience per KenPom is 1.17 years per player, which ranks 309th in the nation and ninth in the MAC (ahead of only Eastern Michigan, Central Michigan and Buffalo), making the Huskies one of the youngest teams in the country and the league in terms of experience.
- The Huskies played the third-hardest non-conference schedule according to KenPom, behind only Buffalo and Kent State
- Kent State currently has the MAC's longest home court win streak at 22 games, including a perfect 15-0 this season. The last team to win at Kent State was NIU, when the Huskies defeated the Golden Flashes, 65-63, last season (Jan. 11, 2022). NIU did not visit Kent State this year.
- NIU has lost 78 man-games due to injury or illness this season. Just one player, Anthony Crump, has appeared in all 31 games during the 2022-23 season.

THE SPARK

• David Coit has scored in double figures 21 times this season, including nine games of 20-plus points and 20 games of 30-plus points. He is NIU's second leading scorer at 15.7 points per game, 12th in the MAC, and is also eighth in scoring in league play at 16.9 points per game.

- Coit scored a career-high 32 points against Kent State (Jan. 14), going 8-of-14 from the field, including 5-of-9 from three, and a perfect 11-of-11 from the free-throw line.
- Coit has scored in double figures in 10 of the last 11 games he has played, averaging 18.5 points per game during that stretch. Coit is shooting 47.9 percent (70-of-146) from the field and 44.3 percent (39-of-88) from three during those 11 contests, along with 88.9 percent (24-of-27) from the line. He is also averaging 4.0 assists per game and has a 2.32 assist/turnover ratio.
- Coit is averaging 2.8 three-point field goals per game, third in the MAC and 42nd nationally. In league play, he is averaging 3.0 triples per contest, second in the MAC.
- Coit's 79 three-point field goals this season are second-most in NIU single-season history. Eugene German holds the Huskie single-season record with 87 in 2018-19. Coit's 208 three-point attempts are the third-most in a season in school history.
- Coit is second in the MAC in free throw shooting in league play at 89.7 percent (35-of-39).
- Coit had a season-high six assists against Kent State (Jan. 14) and tied that mark with six at Ball State (Feb. 14). He is currently 16th in the MAC with 2.9 assists per game and 13th in the MAC in assists in conference games with 3.3 per contest. He is fifth in league play with a 2.17 assist/turnover ratio.
- Coit recorded a career-best five steals against Buffalo (Jan. 7), the most by a Huskie in a game since Kaleb Thornton had six on March 2, 2021, against Western Michigan.
- Coit is 13th in the MAC in steals with 1.3 per contest and 12th in league play also with 1.3 per game.
- Coit scored 31 points in NIU's season opener against Illinois Springfield (Nov. 7), the most points by a Huskie in a season opener in the last 30 years.
- Trendon Hankerson had 28 points in a season opening win at Washington last year (Nov. 9, 2021), Levi Bradley had 28 in the 2017-18 opener against Green Bay (Nov. 14, 2017) while T.J. Lux also scored 28 points in the opener in 1999-2000 against Boston University (Nov. 19, 1999).
- Coit led the nation in NJCAA Division III last season with 30.6 points per game at Atlantic Cape Community College. Coit had 15 games with 30-plus points a season ago, with three games of 40-plus, including a career-high 42 points against Brookdale (Jan. 25, 2022).

THE DISTRIBUTOR

- Kaleb Thornton leads the Huskies with 5.3 assists per game, second-best in the MAC, and 30th nationally, and his 1.70 assist/turnover ratio is sixth-best in the conference. In league play, Thornton is averaging 6.7 assists per game, best in the conference, and has a 1.78 assist/turnover ratio, eighth in the MAC.
- Thornton is fifth in the MAC in steals, averaging 1.6 per contest, and leads the MAC in conference play with 2.2 steals per game.
- •Thornton ranks 16th in the MAC in three-point percentage, shooting 38.1 percent (37-of-97), and is also 16th in conference games at 39.2 percent (31-of-79).
- In his last 11 games, Thornton is averaging 12.8 points, 8.2 assists and 1.8 steals per game with a 1.96 assist/turnover ratio.
- Thornton netted a new career-high 21 points against Toledo (Jan. 14), going 5-of-7 from three-point range. He also had seven assists, five rebounds and four steals against the Rockets.
- Thornton tied that career-high with 21 points against Ohio (Feb. 7), going 9-of-16 from the field with eight assists, three rebounds and three steals.
- •Thornton tied that number again with 21 points at Central Michigan (Feb. 25) to help NIU clinch a spot in the MAC Tournament in Cleveland. Thornton went 3-of-4 from three and 8-of-10 from the free-throw line against the Chippewas.
- The senior guard is ranked seventh on NIU's career assist list with 320, having past Jerry Williams (317, 1983-87), Donald Whiteside (313, 1987-91) and Mike Lipnisky (310, 1990-95), with his 11 in the regular season finale against Eastern Michigan (March 3). Thornton is the only player in NIU's career top-10 to have played less than four seasons at NIU.
- Thornton eclipsed the 200-career assist mark with his six assists against UAlbany (Dec. 20).
- •Thornton reached the 300-career assist mark with his five assists at Central Michigan (Feb. 25).
- •Thornton is second on NIU's single season assist list with 153, behind only Jay Bryant who holds the record of 163 set in 1979-80. Thornton appears twice on NIU's single-season list as his 117 assists last season is the eight-best year in program history.
- Thornton dished out a career-high 11 assists against Long Island (Nov. 23) with just one turnover, while adding seven points on 3-of-6 from the field.
- Thornton's 11 assists marked the first time a Huskie had 10-or-more in a game since Laytwan Porter had 10 against Eureka on Nov. 21, 2015.
- •Thornton matched that 11 with an 11-assist performance against Kent State (Jan. 14). He also scored 13 points against the Golden Flashes and became the first Huskie to record a points-assists double-double since Mike DiNunno had 21 points and 10 assists against Western Michigan on Jan. 13, 2010.
- The Bolingbrook, Ill., native recorded his second points-assists double-double with 10 points and 11 assists against Western Michigan (Feb. 11).
- Thornton capped the regular season with another points-assists double-double has he recorded 17 points and 11 assists against Eastern Michigan (March 3).
- Just five players in program history have ever had more assists in a game than Thornton's

THE STAT SHEET STUFFER

- Zarique Nutter is NIU's third leading scorer at 12.4 points per game and has scored in double figures 20 times this season, including 13 of the last 16 games.
- Nutter ranks 23rd in the MAC in rebounding with 4.8 boards per contest.
- In conference play, Nutter is averaging 14.1 points per game, 20th in the MAC, and 4.8 rebounds per game, 25th in the conference.
- Over the last nine contests, Nutter is averaging 15.7 points per game, shooting 47.4 percent (55-of-116) from the field. Nutter has scored 18 points or more in five of the last nine contests.
- Nutter collected his first career double-double with 18 points and 15 rebounds at Georgia Tech (Nov. 17).
- Nutter's 15 rebounds against the Yellow Jackets are the most by a Huskie since March 5, 2019, when Lacey James pulled down 19 at Central Michigan.
- Nutter just missed his second double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds in the conference opener at Akron (Jan. 3). Also had near misses at Miami (Jan. 17) with 16 points and eight rebounds and against Ohio (Feb. 7) with 12 points and nine rebounds.
- Nutter has led the Huskies in scoring seven times this season, while also leading NIU in rebounding on nine occasions, in blocks four times and in steals three times.
- More than just an offensive threat, against Eastern Michigan, Nutter drew the primary defensive assignment against former McDonald's All-American Emoni Bates. In two games against Nutter and the Huskies, Bates averaged 6.5 points per game, going 5-of-23 (21.7 percent) from the field and 1-of-10 (10 percent from three). Against the rest of the MAC, Bates averaged 19.7 points per game, shooting 38.7 percent (104-of-269) from the field and 30.1 percent (37-of-123) from three.
- Nutter came to NIU from Clarendon College in Clarendon, Texas, where last season he averaged 19.9 points, 8.6 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game.
- In his first season at Clarendon, Nutter was named Western Junior College Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year after averaging 15.8 points, 6.7 rebounds and 2.3 assists per contest.

THE SHARPSHOOTER

- Over the past 15 games, Darweshi Hunter has been one of the best shooters in the MAC.

Rashon BURNO Head Coach

Second Season

Rashon Burno enters his second season as head coach at Northern Illinois University in 2022-23. Burno came to DeKalb following six seasons at Arizona State, including five as associate head coach, and is the 29th head coach in Huskie men's basketball history.

"What a great day for NIU Men's Basketball," said NIU Vice-President and Director of Athletics Sean T. Frazier upon Burno's hiring. "When we started this process, it was about the right fit and matching up with our core values at NIU. Rashon Burno brings significant experience within Illinois, Chicagoland and other basketball powerhouse regions. This is vital in growing the NIU basketball brand.

"I am extremely excited by his level of professionalism and overall basketball pedigree. He has matured quickly in the coaching circles and we feel that his time is now to take NIU men's basketball to the next level. We are extremely appreciative of the hard work put in by the search committee during our hiring process."

In his first season with the Huskies, Burno made an immediate impact in signaling a new era for Huskie hoops as he guided NIU to a 71-64 victory at Washington in his head coaching debut. The win marked NIU's first over a "high-major" opponent since 2005 and the first in program history against a Pac-12 foe. Burno became the first Huskie head coach to win his debut since Tom Jorgensen in 1966.

The road victory in Seattle was a sign of things to come for Burno's first Huskie team as NIU won six true road games during the 2021-22 season, including four in conference play, the most for NIU since the 2005-06 campaign.

Under Burno's guidance, Keshawn Williams earned all-conference honors as he averaged a team-best 16.3 points per game while Kaleb Thornton became NIU's first Academic All-MAC selection since 2017.

Prior to his arrival in DeKalb, Burno was named one of The Athletic's 25 Next Head Coaches in November 2020 and was also ranked as the third-best assistant coach in the Pac-12 by Stadium's Jeff Goodman in July 2020. He was also on Silver Waves Media's 50 Impactful High Major Assistant Coaches list in April 2020.

In six seasons at Arizona State, Burno has helped the Sun Devils to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances as ASU played in the First Four in 2018 and the First Round in 2019. Arizona State had 20 wins and was on track for its third-straight tournament appearance in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic ended the season. Three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances would have been a first for the Sun Devils in 60 seasons.

During Burno's time in Tempe, the Sun Devils matched the highest ranking in program history as they ascended to number three in the AP Poll for two consecutive weeks in December 2017. Arizona State won 20 games in 2017-18, 23 games in 2018-19 and 20 games in 2019-20, marking just the third time in program history that the Sun Devils posted three-straight 20-win seasons.

Burno has helped mentor eight all-conference honorees over his six seasons at Arizona State, including first team recipients Tra Holder (2018), Zylan Cheatham (2019) and Remy Martin (2020). Luguentz Dort was named the 2019 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year while Martin and Alonzo Verge Jr. earned Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year honors in 2018 and 2020, respectively.

Prior to his time at Arizona State, Burno was an assistant coach for three seasons at the University of Florida under current Chicago Bulls head coach Billy Donovan, helping the Gators reach the Final Four in 2014 and the Elite Eight in 2013. Burno and the Gators won SEC regular season titles in both 2012-13 and 2013-14, posting a perfect 18-0 conference mark in 2013-14 while also winning the conference tournament that season. Burno helped develop All-SEC guards Kenny Boynton, Mike Rosario and Scottie Wilbekin, who became the first Gator guard to win SEC Player of the Year honors in 2014.

Burno was an assistant coach at Manhattan College in 2011-12, working under head coach Steve Masiello as the Jaspers won 21 games, a 15-win turnaround from the prior year. Burno began his collegiate coaching career at Towson in 2010-11, where he reunited with his college head coach, Pat Kennedy.

Before joining the collegiate coaching ranks, Burno was the head coach at Marmion Academy in Aurora, Illinois, from 2007-10.

As a player, Burno earned 58 starts in four seasons at DePaul (1998-2002), helping the Blue Demons to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and the NIT in 1999. He was named to the 2000 Conference USA All-Tournament Team and still ranks third in DePaul history in steals (201) and sixth in assists (439).

Burno attended St. Anthony's High School in Jersey City, N.J., and played for Basketball Hall of Fame head coach Bob Hurley Sr., winning high school national championships in 1996 and 1997. He was an executive producer for the 2010 documentary, "The Street Stops Here," which chronicled Hurley and his St. Anthony's program.

EXHIBITION NIU: 79

McKendree: 76

October 31, 2022 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - Four players scored in double figures, led by 23 points from Keshawn Williams as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team downed McKendree, 79-76, in an exhibition game on Monday night (Oct. 31) at the NIU Convocation Center.

Zarique Nutter scored 19 points, David Coit added 13 and Anthony Crump finished with 10 points and a team-high eight rebounds.

A basket by Zion Russell midway through the opening half put the Huskies in front, 13-12, and ignited an 11-2 burst as NIU took a 22-14 lead with 7:22 left before the intermission. Armandas Plintauskas knocked in a triple before Darweshi Hunter, Crump and Nutter all added buckets during the run. The Huskie lead grew to as large as 11 in the first half as Williams converted an old-fashioned three-point play and Crump followed with a finish at the rim, giving NIU a 31-19 lead with three minutes left in the half.

McKendree cut the NIU advantage back to five before Coit scored the final four points of the opening 20 minutes, giving the Huskies a 39-30 lead at the break.

NIU shot 53.1 percent (17-of-32) from the field in the first half while holding McKendree to just 25 percent (9-of-36) shooting. Nutter led all scorers with a dozen at the half while Milos Vicentic had 11 to pace the Bearcats.

A 6-2 burst to open the second half gave the Huskies a 45-32 lead, Williams scored four of the six to open the second stanza for the Huskies.

The NIU lead was nine when McKendree went on a 14-0 run to take a 55-50 lead with 13:20 to play. The Bearcats still led by five, 57-52, when the Huskies used a five-point burst to pull even at Tied at 59, McKendree converted a three-point play to take a 62-59 lead with just over nine minutes left, but NIU responded with a 14-2 run to lead 73-64 with under five to go. Williams scored the first four during the run, Nutter added a pair of free throws, Coit made back-to-back threes and Crump finished the run with two from the charity stripe.

McKendree scored the next seven to cut the Huskie lead back to a pair, 73-71, before a Williams bucket and a triple from Xavier Amos, sandwiched around a Bearcat free throw, put NIU in front, 78-72, with 68 seconds left.

Vicentic scored a game-high 32 points and grabbed 12 re bounds for McKendree, Bryson Bultman scored 14 points with 13 rebounds.

GAME 1 NIU: 77

Illinois Springfield: 83 November 7, 2022 • NIU Convocation Center

DEKALB, III. - Missing four players due to various injuries and illnesses, the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team fell, 83-77, to Illinois Springfield in the season opener on Monday night (Nov. 7) at the NIU Convocation Center.

David Coit led all scorers with 31 points, Keshawn Williams added 23 points, including 8-of-10 from the free-throw line.

UIS shot 60 percent (15-of-25) from the field in the second half, including 50 percent (7-of-14) from three-point range, outscoring the Huskies, 46-39, after halftime.

Ing the Huskies, 46-39, after hairtime.
UIS led by a pair in the early going, 14-12, before the Prairie Stars used a 7-2 burst to take a 21-14 advantage with 12:40 to play in the opening half. NIU pulled back within four, 24-20, until a 6-0 burst gave UIS a 30-20 lead with a little over seven minutes to play in the first half.

NIU answered with an 11-0 run. Zion Russell opened the burst with a basket and Williams added seven of the next nine as the Huskies went back in front, 31-30, with 4:47 to play in the open-

The Huskies took a 38-37 lead into the break, Williams had 14 points in the opening 20 minutes and Coit had 11. Jack Weber led the Prairie Stars with eight first half points.

After NIU extended its lead to four on a triple by Darweshi Hunter to open the second half, Illinois Springfield used a 10-0 run to go in front, 50-41, just less than four minutes into the second stanza.

The Prairie Stars extended their lead to 15 before a 13-3 burst by the Huskies cut the advantage back to five, 68-63, with 6:25 left to play. Coit scored the first five points of the run and, following a UIS, triple Coit added an old-fashioned three-point play. A pair free throws from Williams followed before Coit knocked in another triple, to bring NIU within five.

UIS answered with back-to-back threes of its own, both from Max Kunnert, as the visitor's lead grew back to 11 with just over five minutes remaining.

Four consecutive missed free throws by UIS in the final minute helped the Huskies claw back within five, 82-77, but that was as close as NIU would get as time ran out on the Huskie comeback seven points and a team-high eight rebounds.

Kunnert finished with 17 points, going 5-of-8 from three-point range. Weber added 14 points, Michael Wright added 11 and Jordan Rice chipped in 10 points for the Prairie Stars.

After Northwestern went in front by a half-dozen, 14-8, Williams answered with the next five to pull the Huskies back within one. Williams converted an old-fashioned three-point play before connecting on a floater to cut the Wildcat lead to 14-13 with just under 14 minutes to play in the opening half.

Northwestern's lead grew back to eight, 21-13, until a three-point play from Coit and a layup from Williams brought NIU back to within three, 21-18, with 8:37 left in the first half.

The Wildcats used a 7-0 burst to lead, 30-19, with a little over four minutes left in the opening 20 minutes. Nutter ended the run with a basket for the Huskies and sparked an 8-2 response from NIU as the Huskies trimmed the Northwestern lead back to five, 32-27. Williams scored the other six points for NIU during the Northwestern scored the final four points of the half as the Wildcats took a 36-27 lead into the intermission.

Williams scored 15 points in the opening 20 minutes for the Huskies, who shot 47.8 percent (11-of-23) from the field in the half. Robbie Beran led Northwestern with 13 points as the Wildcats took advantage of 11 Huskie turnovers, converting them into 13 points.

The Northwestern lead grew to a dozen early in the second half until a 7-2 burst by the Huskies brought NIU back within seven. Coit knocked in a triple before Williams and Harvin Ibarguen each converted a pair at the line to trim the Northwestern lead to 43-36 with just under 15 minutes to play.

Trailing 48-38, Xavier Amos scored five-straight to cut the Northwestern advantage to just five, 48-43, with 10:49 remaining, forcing a Wildcat timeout. Northwestern answered with the next 10 as the Wildcat lead grew to 58-43 with a little over six minutes left.

Beran finished with a team-high 15 points for the Wildcats. Boo Buie scored 13 points and Ty Berry finished with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Northwestern held NIU to just 6-of-28 shooting (21.4 percent) in the second half.

Purdue Northwest: 73 November 14, 2022 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - Eleven different players scored, including seven with at least eight points, as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team earned a 99-73 victory over Purdue Northwest on Monday night (Nov. 11) at the NIU Convocation Center. Zarique Nutter led the way with 20 points, Keshawn Williams added 14 and seven assists while David Coit chipped in 11 points and five assists.

NIU shot 60.6 percent (40-of-66) from the field in the contest, including 41.7 percent (10-of-24) from three-point range. The Huskies had 22 assists in the contest.

An early 9-0 run helped the Huskies get off to a good start, taking a six-point lead. Nutter had six of the nine points to get the NIU offense started. After the Pride pulled back within a pair, 9-7, NIU answered with the next seven as the Huskies took a 16-7 lead with 11 minutes to play in the opening half. Oluwasegun Durosinmi made free throw, followed by baskets from Kaleb Thornton, Xavier Amos and Zion Russell.

Amos, Russell and Thornton each had eight points off the bench for the Huskies.

Purdue Northwest used a 10-2 burst to trim the NIU advantage back to one, 18-17, with 8:15 left before halftime. The Huskie lead was still one until Williams went on a 9-2 run of his own, giving the Huskies a 30-22 lead with 5:14 left in the opening half.

After a basket by Purdue Northwest brought the Pride within a half-dozen, NIU scored the next seven as Russell made a triple and Nutter added a pair of buckets to give the Huskies a 37-24 lead with 3:11 to play before the intermission.

The NIU advantage reached 16 when Coit knocked in a triple, but Purdue Northwest scored the final five points of the half to cut the Huskie lead to 42-31 at halftime.

NIU started the second half with an 8-1 burst as the lead grew to 50-32 just two minutes into the second half.

Three minutes later, the Huskies went on an 11-2 run to take a 69-40 lead with 12:53 to play and they never looked back

Anthony Crump grabbed a team-high seven rebounds, to go along with nine points. NIU had a 22-4 edge in fast break points and an 18-8 advantage in second chance points.

Dillon led Purdue Northwest with 15 points, Tyran Rodgers added 13 for the visitors

ATLANTA, Ga. - Zarique Nutter posted his first career double-double with a game-high 18 points and a game-best 15 rebounds, but the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team fell to Georgia Tech, 68-50, on Thursday night (Nov. 17) at McCamish Pavilion. The Huskies rallied from a 23-point halftime deficit to within seven early in the second half but a spurt by the Yellow Jackets helped holdoff the Huskie rally.

Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia Tech took a 43-20 lead into halftime, but the Huskies opened the second half on an 11-1 run as Nutter scored seven while Oluwasegun Durosinmi and Keshawn Williams each added a basket to pull the Huskies back to within 13, 44-31. The run ballooned to 17-1 as Nutter made a free throw and David Coit scored five-straight, trimming the Georgia Tech lead to 44-37 with 14:30

Coit finished with 10 points while Williams added nine.

Georgia Tech responded with nine-straight as the lead grew back to 53-37 with just over eight minutes remaining.

NIU cut the deficit back to a dozen on a free throw from Durosinmi with a little over five minutes to play, but that was as close as the Huskies would get despite holding Georgia Tech to just 28.6 percent (8-of-28) shooting in the second half, including

1-of-6 (16.7 percent) from three. Four players scored in double figures for the Yellow Jackets, led by 14 points, and 11 rebounds, from Ja'von Franklin. Miles Kelly added 13 points, Dallan Coleman chipped in 12 and Deivon Smith added 11 points and a game-high six assists.

A layup out of a timeout from Williams pulled the Huskies within four, 11-7, in the early going, but Georgia Tech used a 19-1 run to take a 30-8 lead with just under seven minutes to play in the Georgia Tech shot 46.3 percent (19-of-41) from the field in the opening 20 minutes while holding NIU to just 20 percent (7of-35) shooting. Kelly led the Yellow Jackets with nine first half points, Nutter had seven to pace the Huskies.

The Yellow Jackets outscored NIU, 42-24, in the paint in the contest and 17-6 in second chance points.

Sam Houston: 88 November 22, 2022 • Suncoast Credit Union Arena Fort Myers, Fla.

FORT MYERS, Fla. - Sam Houston shot 52.4 percent (33-of-63) from the field, including 54.5 percent (12-of-22) from three-point range, as the Bearkats topped the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team, 88-54, on Tuesday afternoon (Nov. 22) at the Rocket Mortgage Fort Myers Tip-Off at Suncoast Credit Union Arena.

Zarique Nutter scored a team-high 11 points while David Coit added 10 and Zion Russell chipped in a career- high 10 points.

An early 9-0 run gave Sam Houston a 12-4 lead six minutes into the first half. After a pair of free throws from Russell, the Bearkats knocked in two triples to extend their advantage to 18-6 with 12 minutes left before the intermission.

Back-to-back baskets from Keshawn Williams and Nutter helped the Huskies trim the Sam Houston advantage back to single-digits, 19-10, just past the midway point of the half.

Williams finished with nine points in the contest. The Bearkats used a 10-0 run to take a 34-12 lead before a basket from Russell ended the run. NIU scored six of the final eight points of the half as Sam Houston took a 41-22 lead into the intermission.

Nutter and Russell each had a half-dozen to pace the Huskies in the opening 20 minutes, Qua Grant and Donte Powers both had 10 for Sam Houston. The Bearkats shot 50 percent (15-of-30) from the field in the first half, including 58.3 percent (7-of-12) from three-point range. Sam Houston forced 15 first half NIU turnovers, converting them into 20 points.

In the second half, the Huskies shot 44.4 percent (12-of-27) from the field but were unable to slow down the Bearkats, who shot 54.5 percent (18-of-33) in the second 20 minutes.

Taku Youngblood tied his career-high with seven points, all seven of which came in the second half. Anthony Crump grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

Grant led all scorers with 19 points for Sam Houston, Lamar Wilkerson added 15 and Powers finished with 13 points. The Bearkats finished the contest with 34 points off 22 Huskie turnovers.

2022-23: BOX SCORES

GAMES NIU: 86

Long Island: 61 November 23, 2022 • Suncoast Credit Union Arena Fort Myers, Fla.

FORT MYERS, Fla. - Keshawn Williams scored a game-high 28 points as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team shot 54.1 percent (33-of-61) from the field, and 47.8 percent (11-of-23) from three, in an 86-61 victory over Long Island on Wednesday afternoon (Nov. 23) in the third-place game at the Rocket Mortgage Fort Myers Tip-Off.

David Coit scored 17 points and Zarique Nutter added 10 points. Oluwasegun Durosinmi grabbed a game-high, and career-best, 11 rebounds, to go along with a career-high seven points, while Kaleb Thornton also had seven points, along with a career-best 11 assists.

The 11 assists for Thornton marked the first time a Huskie had 10-or-more assists in a game since Laytwan Porter recorded 10 against Eureka on Nov. 21, 2015.

Already in front by a pair, NIU used a 6-0 burst to take a 10-2 lead with 14:26 to play in the opening half. Nutter made a pair of buckets and Williams added a layup during the run.

The Huskie advantage reached double figures when Xavier

Amos scored five-straight points to put NIU ahead 20-8 with just under 11 minutes to play before the intermission.

A 9-0 run helped the NIU lead grow to 34-15 with 6:26 left before the half. Williams opened the run with a basket, Coit and Thornton each added a pair and Coit finished the run with a triple as the Huskies went in front by 19.

Long Island scored 10 of the next 12, trimming the NIU lead back to 36-25 with just over four minutes left in the half.

Back-to-back trifectas from Thornton and Coit helped the lead grow back to 17 and ignited a 14-2 Huskie run to close the half. Coit added two more triples during the run and Williams finished at the rim as NIU took a 50-27 lead into the intermission.

Williams led all scorers with 16 points in the opening 20 minutes, Coit added 14 while Thornton had five points and six assists in the first half.

The Huskies opened the second half by scoring six of the first eight, forcing an early Sharks timeout.

After Long Island scored the next three, NIU answered with five as Nutter finished as the rim and Coit hit another triple, giving NIU a 61-32 lead.

NIU continued to control the contest and built a lead as large as 32, 84-52, before Long Island closed the game on a 9-2 run to cut the final deficit to 25.

R.J. Greene led Long Island with 14 points, Quion Burns and Marko Maletic each added 12 while Jacob Johnson chipped in 11 points.

Cedar Falls, Iowa

Northern Iowa: 83 November 26, 2022 • McLeod Center

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa – Leading by just two with two minutes to play, Northern Iowa used a 7-0 burst to hold off the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team, 83-76, on Saturday afternoon at the McLeod Center. Keshawn Williams scored a team-high 28 points and both teams shot better than 50 percent from the field in the second half, but the Panthers shot 13 more free throws than the Huskies in the second half.

With UNI in front by one early, the Panthers used a 14-0 burst to push their advantage to 21-6 with 8:34 left in the opening half. Harvin Ibarguen ended the run with a layup and Coit made a floater to trim the Panther lead to 15. After a free throw from UNI, Plintauskas knocked in a corner triple and Zion Russell converted at the rim as the Huskies closed to within seven, 22-15, with just under seven minutes left in the half.

Plintauskas went 4-of-4 from three-point range in the contest. A long two from Kaleb Thornton and a breakaway dunk from Williams off a turnover, helped the Huskies trimmed the deficit to just five, 28-23, with 3:24 to play in the half.

The Panthers answered with a triple, but NIU came right back with the next six to pull within a pair. Anthony Crump made four free throws, sandwiched around a fadeaway baseline jumper from Williams, cutting the Panther lead to 31-29.

The Huskies were down just one at the break, 32-31, as Coit made a pair of free throws on the final possession of the half for Williams scored the first six points of the second half, including an old-fashioned three-point play, to give NIU a five-point lead early in the second half. After a bucket by the Panthers, Williams added a triple from the top of the key to give the Huskies a 40-34 advantage less than four minutes into the second period. The guard from Chicago Heights, Ill., scored 23 of his 28 points in the second half.

NIU led by seven after a trifecta from Nutter, his second of the half, but Northern Iowa went on a 16-2 run as the Panthers led 57-50 with just over nine minutes left.

A pair of free throws and a triple from Williams brought NIU back within three, 60-57, but the Panthers scored the next four to lead by seven with 6:33 to play.

With the hosts still in front by seven, Williams knocked in a tri-ple with 3:32 remaining to cut the deficit to four, 71-67. The two teams traded basket and UNI then made a free throw to lead by five until Plintauskas drained a triple, cutting the Panther advantage to just a pair, 74-72, with a little over two minutes remaining.

Northern Iowa scored the next seven however as the Panthers held off the visitors in the final minutes.

NIU: 90 Eastern Illinois: 70 November 30, 2022 • Lantz Arena Charleston, III.

CHARLESTON, III. - Five players scored in double figures as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team shot 61.7 percent (29-of-47) from the field, including 56 percent (14-of-25) from three-point range, in a 90-70 victory over Eastern Illinois on Wednesday night (Nov. 30) at Lantz Arena.

Keshawn Williams led the way with 17 points, Zarique Nutter and David Coit each scored 16 while Kaleb Thornton and Darweshi Hunter both chipped in 10 points.

The Huskies led by six at the break but clamped down defensively after the intermission, holding the Panthers to 36.4 percent shooting (12-of-33) in the second half, including 18.2 percent (2of-11) from three, on their way to the 20-point victory. With Eastern Illinois in front by three early, NIU used a 7-1 burst to take a three-point lead of its own, 13-10, with 13:51 to play in the opening half.

After a basket by the Panthers, Yanic Konan Niederhauser, seeing his first action of the season, scored the next five, including a triple from the top of the key, as NIU took an 18-12 lead. Eastern Illinois scored the next four to pull within a pair, but Thornton and Williams answered with triples as the Huskie advantage grew to eight, 24-16, just past the midway point of the opening stanza.

The NIU lead was still eight after a triple from Coit, but Eastern Illinois scored the next seven to cut the Huskie advantage to 32-31 with 3:42 to play before the half.
Eastern Illinois pulled even at 36 until NIU closed the half with a six-point burst on buckets from Niederhauser, Hunter and a putback jam from Williams in the final seconds as the Huskies took a 42-36 lead into the break.

A bucket from Nutter and an old-fashioned three-point play from Williams to start the second half put the Huskies in front, 47-36. With NIU in front by a dozen, Coit knocked in a triple, the ninth of the contest for the Huskies, and Nutter finished at the rim to give NIU a 56-39 lead with 15:55 to go, forcing an Eastern Illinois timeout.

Still in front by a dozen, Armandas Plintauskas made a pair from the line and Coit knocked in another triple to extend the Huskie advantage to 70-53 just past the midway point of the second half.

A corner triple from Hunter ignited a 10-0 Huskie run. Williams finished an alley-oop, Nutter converted an old-fashioned three-point play and Harvin Ibarguen scored as NIU took an 84-59 lead and never looked back.

Caleb Donaldson was the only player in double figures for Eastern Illinois, he scored 15 points and dished out six assists.

GAMED NIU: 47 Idaho: 84

December 2, 2022 • ICCU Arena Moscow, Idaho

MOSCOW, Idaho - Idaho shot 64.3 percent (18-of-28) from the field in the second half as the Vandals topped the Northern IIlinois University men's basketball team, 84-47, on Friday night (Dec. 2) at the ICCU Arena. Divant'e Moffitt scored a game-high 22 points to lead the Vandals, Isaac Jones added 17.

Keshawn Williams was the lone Huskie in double figures, he scored 10 points with a team-best seven rebounds.

With the game tied at 10, Zarique Nutter converted an old-fashioned three-point play and Harvin Ibarguen made a free throw as the Huskies took a four-point lead with 8:27 left in the opening Nutter finished with eight points, David Coit also added eight for the Huskies.

NIU was still in front by four before Idaho 10-1 run to take a fivepoint advantage, 22-17, with a little over four minutes to play before the intermission

After a triple from Williams brought the Huskies back within a pair, 24-22, Idaho closed the half on an 11-2 run to take a 35-24 lead into halftime.

Moffitt led all scorers with 14 points in the opening 20 minutes, including three triples in the final two minutes of the half. Nutter led NIU with a half-dozen in the first half. The Vandals shot 46.4 percent (13-of-28) in the opening stanza, including 37.5 percent (6-of-16) from three, while holding the Huskies to just 32.1 percent (9-of-28) and 25 percent (2-of-8) from three.

A 9-0 burst helped give Idaho a 48-28 lead with 14:36 to play before Yanic Konan Niederhauser ended the run with a basket inside for the Huskies. The Vandals made eight of their first nine shots to start the second half.

Idaho's lead continued to grow throughout the second half as the road weary Huskies began to feel the effects of two games in 48 hours played nearly 2,000 miles apart.

Dominique Ford scored 12 points for Idaho and Nigel Burris was the fourth Vandal in double figures, he had 11 points.

No. 15 Gonzaga: 88 December 12, 2022 • McCarthey Athletic Center Spokane, Wash.

SPOKANE, Wash. - The Northern Illinois University men's basketball team was within a half-dozen at the intermission, but Gonzaga shot 50 percent (19-of-38) from the field in the second half, including 45.5 percent (5-of-11) from three, to claim an 88-67 victory over the Huskies on Monday night (Dec. 12) at the Mc-Carthey Áthletic Center.

Keshawn Williams scored a team-high 25 points with eight rebounds, Anthony Crump added a career-high 20 and eight rebounds while All-American Drew Timme paced the Bulldogs with

A pair of free throws from Williams tied the game at six in the early going before five-straight points from Gonzaga gave the Bulldogs an 11-6 advantage with just over 12 minutes to play in the opening half. The 5-0 run grew to 10-0 as Gonzaga pushed its lead to 16-6 before a bucket from Crump ended the run.

A triple from Williams brought NIU within eight, 26-18, with 5:14 left in the half but Timme answered right back for the Bulldogs.

After the Gonzaga lead grew to a dozen, 34-22, back-to-back triples from David Coit and Williams cut the deficit in half with 1:54 left before the intermission. Gonzaga answered with a basket be-fore Williams finished an alley-oop from Coit to finish the half as the Bulldogs took a 36-30 lead into the intermission.

Timme led all scorers with 16 points in the opening 20 minutes, Williams paced the Huskies with a dozen. Gonzaga shot 42.9 percent (12-of-28) from the field in the first half while NIU shot 40.6 percent (13-of-32).

With the Buildogs in front by seven early the second half, Gonzaga used a 5-0 burst to push its advantage to a dozen, 46-34, and force a Huskie timeout with 17:39 to play.

The Gonzaga lead ballooned to 14 until a corner triple from Williams and an old-fashioned three-point play from Crump trimmed the Bulldogs lead to 50-42 with 15:44 left. Gonzaga went back up a dozen, 58-46 before Crump converted another three-point play to bring the Huskies back within nine with just under 12 minutes remaining.

A 13-1 burst gave the Bulldogs a 71-50 advantage with a little under nine minutes left to play, putting the game out of reach.

Three players scored in double figures from off the bench for Gonzaga, led by Ben Gregg's 18 points. Malachi Smith added 14 and Hunter Sallis chipped in 10 points for the Bulldogs, who won their 71st consecutive home game, the longest home win streak in the nation over the last 35-plus years.

December 17, 2022 • Siegel Center Richmond, Va.

RICHMOND, Va. - VCU opened up an 18-point lead inside the opening six minutes of the contest as the Rams topped the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team, 90-63, on Saturday afternoon (Dec. 17) at the Siegel Center. The Rams shot 59.3 percent (16-of-27) from the field in the opening 20 minutes, including 60 percent (6-of-10) from three-point range, while forcing 13 Huskie turnovers.

Keshawn Williams finished with a team-high 16 points while Zarique Nutter added 11 points and a team-high eight rebounds. VCU jumped out to a quick start, leading 9-2 in the early going. After a floater by David Coit, the Huskies were within five, but back-to-back triples by David Shriver gave VCU a 17-6 lead just over four minutes into the contest. The trifectas ignited a 13-0 run for VCU as the hosts took a 24-6 lead with 14:26 left in the opening half.

NIU and VCU then traded baskets for the next eight minutes as the Rams led 35-18. The hosts then used a 10-1 spurt to take a 45-19 advantage with just under two minutes to play before the intermission.

VCU took a 49-26 lead into halftime. Nutter led NIU with eight first half points, Coit added seven. Shriver had 11 points to pace

In the second half, NIU slowed VCU from the field, holding the Rams to just 46.4 percent (13-of-28) from the field after the intermission, including 1-of-6 from three (16.7 percent), but VCU went to the free-throw line 17 times in the second half, converting 14 of those opportunities.

Darweshi Hunter scored nine points in the second half for NIU. Four players scored in double figures for VCU, led by 22 points from Jamir Watkins. Jalen DeLoach added 16 points and a gamehigh nine rebounds, Shriver finished with 14 and Adrian Baldwin Jr. chipped in 10 points.

CAME 112 NIU: 78 Albany: 83

December 20, 2022 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - David Coit scored 24 points and Keshawn Williams netted 23 but the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team dropped a narrow 83-78 decision to UÁlbany on Tuesday afternoon (Dec. 20) at the NIU Convocation Center.

NIU shot 53.7 percent (29-of-54) from the field, including 57.1

percent (16-of-28) in the second half, but was unable to overcome UAlbany's 12 three-point field goals and 15-4 edge in second chance points.

UAlbany led by seven at the half and its lead had grown to eight just past the midway point of the second stanza when NIU used an 8-0 burst to pull even. Coit opened the burst with a basket, Williams added a pair of free throws before Darweshi Hunter and Oluwasegun Durosinmi each scored to even the game at 64 with Five points for the Great Danes, followed by four from the Huskies, meant UAlbany was in front by one with a little over five minutes to play.

After the two teams traded baskets, UAlbany went on a 7-0 burst to lead 78-70 with 3:01 remaining. A triple from Kaleb Thornton and an old-fashioned three-point play by Williams pulled NIU to within a pair, 78-76, with 1:10 to go, but UAlbany scored the next four to hold off the Huskie comeback attempt.

An 8-2 burst by UAlbany gave the Great Danes a 17-10 lead with 13:31 to play in the opening half. NIU responded with six-straight points on a bucket by Anthony Crump and a pair of baskets from Williams to trim the UAlbany lead to just one, 17-16, with just under 11 minutes to play in the half.

The Great Danes then used a 12-3 spurt to push their advantage to 29-19 with 8:14 left in the opening half. NIU trimmed the deficit back to a half-dozen before another 8-1 run by the visitors put UAlbany in front, 42-29, with 2:24 to play in the opening half. NIU scored the next eight to get within five until a pair of free throws for the Great Danes made the UAlbany lead 44-37 at the

A trio of triples early in the second half helped UAlbany's lead grow to 53-42. NIU answered with seven-straight as the Huskies trimmed the Great Danes lead to just four, 53-49, with just over 15 minutes to go. Crump made a pair of free throws to open the run, Durosinmi added a free throw before Thornton and Williams converted buckets

An old-fashioned three-point play from Coit pulled the Huskies within a pair, 58-56, until UAlbany made back-to-back triples as the lead grew back to eight just past the midway point of the second half.

The Huskies then used an 8-0 run to even the contest at 64, setting up the game's final minutes.

GAME 113 NIU: 67

Indiana State: 57 December 22, 2022 • Hulman Center Terre Haute, Ind.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. - Keshawn Williams tied his career high with 32 points, including 22 in the second half, and David Coit added 19, as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team defeated Indiana State, 67-57, on the road on Thursday afternoon (Dec. 22) in its final non-conference game of the season.

The Huskies led by as many as 14 in the second half but held off a late charge by the Sycamores to win at Indiana State for the first time since 1973.

Williams went 13-of-20 from the floor, including 3-of-6 from three, and grabbed a career-best tying nine rebounds. Coit grabbed a career-best seven boards.

Indiana State scored the first six to open the contest before NIU answered with the next eight, capped by a baseline drive and jam from Williams.

NIU was still in front by a pair until a 5-0 burst gave Indiana State a three-point advantage, 14-11. The Sycamores led 18-15 before a layup from Kaleb Thornton and two buckets from Williams off turnovers pushed the Huskies in front, 21-18, with 8:33 to play before the intermission.

The Huskie run continued with another bucket from Williams and would grow to a 15-0 run through a bucket from Zarigue Nutter, a triple from Coit and another basket by Williams as NIU took a 30-18 lead with just over four minutes to play before half-

Four-straight points from Indiana State were followed by five from Coit, giving the Huskies a 35-22 advantage, but the Sycanores finished the half with a 7-0 run to trim the NIU lead to a half dozen, 35-39, at the break. The first seven points of the second half went to the Huskies as Williams scored five and Coit netted a pair to help the NIU advantage grow to 42-29.

Indiana State trimmed the lead back to nine until a pull-up jumper from Coit made it 50-39 Huskies with 12:11 left to play.

Out of a timeout with one second on the shot clock, Williams beat the buzzer for the first of back-to-back baskets as NIU led 54-41 at the midway point of the second half.

Williams knocked in two-straight trifectas, giving the Huskies a 60-46 lead, but Indiana State scored the next nine as they trimmed the NIU advantage to 60-55 with 1:29 left.
As the game clock ticked under a minute, Williams hit an off-balance trifecta right in front of the Huskie bench to beat the shot clock and increase the NIU lead to eight. NIU went 4-of-4 from the free-throw line in the final moments as the Huskies snapped a four-game losing streak.

GAME 143 NIU: 51 Akron: 76 January 3, 2023 • Rhodes Arena Akron, Ohio

AKRON, Ohio -- Akron scored 48 second half points, shooting 56.7 percent (17-of-30) from the field after halftime, as the Zips turned a two-point halftime lead into a 76-51 victory over the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team in the Mid-American Conference opener for both schools on Tuesday night (Jan. 3) at Rhodes Arena.

Zarique Nutter led the way for the Huskies with 11 points and nine rebounds while Keshawn Williams added 10 points. The Zips led 9-6 before a five-point NIU burst put the Huskies in front by a pair. Williams made a bucket and Kaleb Thornton added a trifecta from the wing as NIU took an 11-9 lead with just over 11 minutes to play in the opening half.

After Akron went back in front, 15-13, NIU used an 8-2 burst to take a 21-17 lead with 3:26 left in the first half. Williams opened the run with a long two, Nutter then added a bucket before Darweshi Hunter converted twice, giving the Huskies a four-point advantage.

Akron then used an 11-0 run to take a seven-point lead in the final minute of the half until a pair of free throws from David Coit and a triple to beat the halftime buzzer from Nutter brought the Huskies back within a pair, 28-26, at the intermission.

Nutter led NIU with nine points and eight rebounds in the opening 20 minutes; Enrique Freeman had 12 points to pace the Zips in the first stanza.

The home team made a quick start to the second half, using a 10-1 burst to take a 38-27 lead with 17:30 to play. Akron's lead grew to 13 with another basket before two-straight buckets from Anthony Crump (Inkster, Mich.) brought NIU back within single-digits.

An old-fashioned three-point play from Williams made it 44-34 Akron with 14 minutes to play, but the Zips scored the next six as they pushed their lead to 50-34.

Akron held NIU to 26.9 percent (7-of-26) shooting in the second half, including 0-of-7 from three-point range. Freeman finished with 27 points and 15 rebounds to lead the Zips, Greg Tribble added 16 points.

GAME 115 NIU: 62 Buffalo: 80 Buffalo, N.Y.

January 7, 2023 • Alumni Arena

BUFFALO, N.Y. - Buffalo jumped out to a quick start, taking an 11-point lead five minutes into the contest, and went on to an 80-62 victory over the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team on Saturday afternoon (Jan. 7) at Alumni Arena. David Coit led the way for the Huskies with 16 points while Harvin Ibarquen had a career high 13 points and a career best seven rebounds. Buffalo made five of its first six shots from the field and used an early 10-0 run to take a 16-5 lead five minutes into the contest. Back-to-back putbacks from Ibarguen helped NIU pull back within seven, 25-18, with 5:53 left in the first half. But the Bulls answered with the next six as the lead grew back to 13. Buffalo closed the first half on a 9-1 run as the Bulls took a 45-28 lead into the intermission. Buffalo shot 60 percent (18-of-30) from the field, including 6-of-10 from three-point range, in the opening 20 minutes. Isaac Jack had 10 points, on 5-of-5 shooting, to pace the Bulls in the first half, Ibarguen led the Huskies with six points and six rebounds. A pair of buckets from Coit helped ignite a 9-0 NIU run early in the second half. Darweshi Hunter added a basket during the burst and Armandas Plintauskas capped the run with a corner triple as the Huskies trimmed the Buffalo advantage to 53-43

The home team responded with the next seven points however as the lead grew back to 60-43 with just under 11 minutes to go. Coit had five steals in the contest to go along with his team-high 16 points, Kaleb Thornton scored eight points with five assists.

Four players finished in double figures for Buffalo, led by 19 points from Curtis Jones. Armoni Foster added 13 points, Jack finished with 13, Isaiah Adams scored 11 points and LaQuill Hardnett had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

GAME 116 NIU: 73

Central Michigan: 54 January 10, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - David Coit scored 23 points and Zarique Nutter added a career-best 22 as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team downed Central Michigan, 73-54, on Tuesday night (Jan. 10) at the NIU Convocation Center. The Huskies shot 49 percent (25-of-51) from the field, and 44.4 percent (8-of-18) from three, as they earned their first win in Mid-American Conference play.

NIU scored 37 points off 22 Central Michigan turnovers and also converted 23 fast break points in the contest.

A pair of free throws from Kaleb Thornton and a basket by Nutter helped give the Huskies an early 8-6 lead inside the opening five minutes of the contest. The bucket by Nutter was the first of eight-straight Huskie points for the Newark, N.J. native.

With the game tied at 17, Coit and Thornton knocked in back-Nill run grew to 10-0 on a free throw by Coit and another trifecta from the Huskie guard as NIU took a 27-17 lead with 7:51 left in the opening half.

After Central Michigan answered with the next three, Thornton knocked in a triple and Coit converted to give NIU a 32-20 advantage with just under five minutes to play in the half.

Thornton finished with 16 points in the contest on 5-of-9 shooting from the field.

The Huskie lead grew to as much as 15 on a triple by Darweshi Hunter, but Central Michigan scored the final five points of the half to trim the NIU advantage to 40-30 at the break.

Coit led all scorers with 14 points in the opening 20 minutes, Brian Taylor had seven to pace the Chippewas. NIU scored 20 points off 12 Central Michigan turnovers in the first half and went 6-of-11 (54.5 percent) from beyond the arc.

Five minutes into the second half, with NIU still in front by 10, Coit knocked down his fourth triple of the contest, and then added a layup as the Huskies took a 52-37 lead with 14:16 to play.

Coit went 9-of-15 from the floor in the contest, including 4-of-8 from three.

A pair of buckets from Nutter helped ignited an 8-2 Huskie burst as Coit added a basket and Anthony Crump made a pair of free throws as NIU pushed its lead to 61-41 with 9:31 left.

Crump finished with five points and a team-high seven rebounds

Despite having each of its three tallest players fouled out for the final 6:36 of the contest, playing the remainder of the game with no one taller than 6-foot-6, NIU held Central Michigan to just 26.9 percent (7-of-26) shooting in the second half.

Taylor led the Chippewas with 15 points and 11 rebounds, Markus Harding added 11 points.

NIU: 67 Toledo: 84

January 14, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - Darweshi Hunter scored a career-best 22 points and Kaleb Thornton netted a career-high 21, along with seven assists, five rebounds and four steals, but the Northern Illinois University men's basketball fell to Toledo, 84-67, on Saturday afternoon (Jan. 14) at the NIU Convocation Center.

Toledo converted 16 Huskie turnovers into 19 points while NIU scored just six points off 12 Rocket miscues. The visitors also went 28-of-38 (73.7 percent) from the free-throw line while the Hus-kies were 15-of-24 (62.5 percent). A 7-0 Toledo burst early in the contest gave the Rockets a 9-5 edge before a short jumper from Zarique Nutter trimmed the Toledo lead back to just a pair with 16:20 to play in the opening half. Nutter finished with seven points and five rebounds.

The Rockets led by a half-dozen until a triple from Hunter cut the Toledo lead in half, 17-14, with just over 11 minutes to play in the opening stanza. Toledo then used a 17-0 run to take a 34-14 lead with a little more than five minutes left in the first half.

The Toledo lead grew to as large as 22 before NIU used an 8-2 burst to cut the Rocket advantage to 39-23 with 1:04 to play in the half. Oluwasegun Durosinmi scored the first three on the spurt, Hunter added a pair of free throws and Thornton knocked in his second triple of the half.

Toledo made a baseline jumper at the buzzer to take a 41-23 lead into halftime. Thornton paced the Huskies with seven first half points, Dante Maddox Jr. had 14 to lead the Rockets, who shot 50 percent (15-of-30) from the field in the opening 20 min-

A triple by Thornton, his third of the half and fifth of the night, helped cut the Toledo lead to 50-37 with 15:15 remaining, but the Rockets responded with a 9-3 burst as their lead grew to 59-

40 with just under 12 minutes to play.
Four Rockets scored in double figures, led by 18 points from Maddox. RayJ Dennis, Setric Millner Jr. and JT Shumate each added 15 points for Toledo.

NIU: 81 Miami: 77

January 17, 2023 • Millett Hall Oxford, Ohio

OXFORD, Ohio - The Northern Illinois University men's basketball team shot 61.5 percent (16-of-26) from the field in the second half to erase a one-point halftime deficit and claim an 81-77 victory over Miami on Tuesday night (Jan. 17) at Millett Hall. David Coit scored a team-high 21 points, Zarique Nutter added 16, Kaleb Thornton chipped in 13 points and Anthony Crump netted 11 in the victory.

Darweshi Hunter went 4-of-4 from the free-throw line in the final minute to help seal the victory for the Huskies. Hunter finished with nine points.

A triple from Coit ignited an early 9-2 burst for the Huskies as NIU led 12-6 at the first media timeout. Crump added a free throw before Coit drove for a layup and Thornton knocked in his second triple of the early going to put the Huskies in front by a half-dozen.

Back-to-back threes from Miami helped the RedHawks pull back even at 14 with just under 13 minutes to play in the half.

NIU responded with 10 of the next 12 as Coit and Nutter started the run, Miami followed with a basket before Thornton and Coit each knocked in a three to give NIU a 24-16 lead. A putback from Harvin Ibarguen helped the Huskie lead grow to double-digits, 30-20. After a triple from Hunter, NIU once again led by double-digits, 35-25, but Miami closed the half on a 15-4 run as the RedHawks took a 40-39 lead into halftime.

A 9-2 run early in the second half helped the Huskies move back in front, 53-48. Coit opened the burst with a triple and would add a layup during the run while Ibarguen and Nutter also scored as NIU took a five-point lead. After Miami made a basket to trim the NIU advantage to three, the Huskies scored six straight on a dunk from Crump, a bucket from Nuter and a floater from Coit as NIU led 59-50 with just under 12 minutes to play. The Huskies opened the second half 9-of-11 from the field.

A dunk from Crump, off a feed from Coit, gave the Huskies a 69-58 lead. After a free throw from Miami, Coit had a steal and went coast-to-coast for a layup, giving NIU a 71-59 lead with just under six minutes to play, forcing a Miami timeout.

A basket by Nutter gave the Huskies a 76-67 lead with 2:17 to play before Miami answered with the next six to cut the NIU advantage to just three with just under a minute to play.

Another Miami bucket, after the Huskies split a pair of free throws, brought the RedHawks within a pair. Hunter then stepped to the line and made two free throws, giving NIU a 79-75 lead with 26.2 seconds left.

Following another Miami score, Hunter once again made a pair at the line as the lead grew back to four. The Huskies then forced a RedHawk turnover to seal the road win.

Eastern Michigan: 67 January 21, 2023 • George Gervin GameAbove Center

YPSILANTI, Mich. - The Northern Illinois University men's basketball team shot 72.4 percent (21-of-29) in the first half and led wire-to-wire in an 88-67 victory over Eastern Michigan on Saturday afternoon (Jan. 21) at the George Gervin Game Above Center. David Coit scored a team-high 24 points, on 8-of-12 shooting, including 5-of-9 from three, with five assists, Zarique Nutter added 19 points, Darweshi Hunter chipped in 16 points and Anthony Crump scored 13 points as the Huskies picked up their second consecutive road win and improved to 3-3 in league play.

NIU raced out to a 13-3 lead in the opening four minutes of the contest. Coit scored five while Harvin Ibarguen and Crump each had four as the Huskies took the early 10-point lead. Ibarguen finished with eight points and a game-high eight re-

In front by nine, NIU used a 7-0 burst to take a 25-9 lead with 11:20 to play in the first half. Yanic Konan Niederhauser opened the run with a dunk, Hunter added a corner triple and Nutter finished ahead of the pack off a turnover to close the Huskie run.

The Eagles used a 6-3 spurt to trim the Huskie lead to 13, but Crump converted back-to-back buckets at the rim as the NIU advantage grew to 32-15 with just over eight minutes to play in

An old-fashioned three-point play from Nutter, followed by a dunk from Ibarguen, gave the Huskies a 48-25 lead, their largest of the half. Eastern Michigan answered with the next six before Kaleb Thornton closed the half with a jumper, giving the Huskies a 50-31 lead at the intermission.

Coit and Nutter each scored 11 points in the opening 20 minutes to lead the way for the Huskies. NIU shot 72.4 percent (21of-29) in the first half. It marked the first time NIU has shot better than 70 percent in a half since Jan. 23, 2018, when they shot 75.9 percent (22-of-29) against Bowling Green.

The Huskies and Eagles traded baskets for the first eight minutes of the second half.

After four-straight points from Eastern Michigan cut the NIU advantage to 62-45, Crump made a bucket and Nutter converted an old-fashioned three-point play, giving NIU a 67-45 lead just past the product of the control of the contro the midway point of the second half.

Eastern Michigan answered with a 9-2 run to trim the NIU lead to 15, 69-54, but Coit scored the next five as the advantage grew back to 20 with 6:53 left.

NIU shot 59.3 percent (32-of-54) from the field in the contest, including 40 percent (10-of-25) from three. The Huskies scored 40 points in the paint, compared to just 24 for the Eagles.

GAME 20 NIU: 86

Kent State: 76 January 24, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. -- A complete team effort that included five double-figure scorers helped the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team end the third-longest win streak in the nation on Tuesday night (Jan. 24) as the Huskies downed Kent State, 86-76, at the NIU Convocation Center.

David Coit scored a career-high 32 points, including 11-of-11 from the free-throw line, Darweshi Hunter added 14 points, Kaleb Thornton netted 13 points and 11 assists, Harvin Ibarguen chipped in 12 points and a game-high eight rebounds while Zarique Nutter scored 11 points.

Four-straight points from Kent State put the flashes in front by one, 70-69, with 3:37 to play before the Huskies scored five-straight on an alley-oop from Thornton to Ibarguen and a triple from Coit off a feed from Thornton.

Thornton's 13 points and 11 assists marked NIU's first points-assists double-double since Jan. 13, 2010, when Mike DiNunno had 21 points and 10 assists against Western Michigan.

After a basket by the Golden Flashes trimmed the NIU lead to a pair, Thornton drove to the basket, finished through contact and converted the free throw to put the Huskies in front, 77-72, with 1:52 left.

Kent State scored to cut the lead to three, but Nutter answered for NIU, sparking a 5-0 burst with a free throw from Ibarguen and another layup from Thornton, giving the Huskies an 82-74 advanand the layer of t percent (13-of-28) from three, as it picked up its third consecutive victory, and fourth in the last five games. The Huskies outscored the Golden Flashes off turnovers, 21-3, despite committing one more turnover than Kent State (13-12).

The Huskies and Golden Flashes traded baskets for most of the final eight minutes of the first half. A bucket from Ibarguen with 12 seconds left brought NIU within one, 38-37, but Kent State made a short jumper at the buzzer to take a three-point lead, 40-37, into the break.

NIU opened the second half with an 11-2 run. Ibarguen finished at the rim to open the half, Coit and Thorton each knocked in triples while Anthony Crump made a free throw and Coit converted a pair from the line to help the Huskies take a 48-42 lead with 16:18 remaining.

With NIU in front by three, Kent State made a pair of triples to move back in front, 58-55, with just under 12 minutes left to play. The lead swung back-and-forth for the next eight minutes with NIU taking a three-point lead on a basket by Nutter with 4:34 to go. Kent State answered with a triple to tie it and then added a free throw to take a 70-69 lead, setting up the game's final minutes.

Game 21 NIU: 69

Ball State: 87

January 28, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - The Northern Illinois University men's basketball team saw its three-game win streak end on Saturday (Jan. 28) as the Huskies fell, 87-69, to Ball State at the NIU Convocation Center. David Coit scored a team-high 20 points and Kaleb Thornton added 18 but NIU was unable to overcome a 16-point halftime deficit.

Anthony Crump added 12 points, going 8-of-10 from the freethrow line, and a team-high seven rebounds.

Ball State outrebounded the Huskies 43-29 in the contest.

Thornton made a pair of triples and finished a layup off a turnover in the opening four minutes for the Huskies as they took an early 10-9 advantage.

After a triple from Coit tied the game at 14, Ball State used a 6-0 burst to move in front, 20-14, with just over 12 minutes to play in the opening half.

Darweshi Hunter knocked in a triple from the wing to cut the Cardinal lead in half, but Ball State responded with the next 11 to take a 31-17 lead with 6:45 left before the intermission.

Zarique Nutter ended the Ball State run with a layup and Hunter finished off an offensive rebound. Those baskets ignited an 8-3 burst for the Huskies as NIU climbed back within nine, but Ball State answered with the next seven as the Cardinals led 41-25 with just over three minutes left in the half.

Ball State took a 49-33 lead into the break. The Cardinals shot 53.3 percent (16-of-30) in the opening 20 minutes, including 71.4 percent (10-of-14) from three. Thornton led NIU with 10 points in the first half, Demarius Jacobs had 10 for the Cardinals. Ball State had a 13-2 advantage in points off turnovers in the opening half. In the second half, the Cardinals cooled from beyond the arc, shooting just 3-of-14 (21.4 percent) from three, but grabbed 13 offensive rebounds that they converted into 15 second chance points.

Jarron Coleman led the way for Ball State with 20 points, Jacobs finished with 16 and Mickey Pearson added 10 points.

GAME 22 NIU: 73

Western Michigan: 59 January 31, 2023 • University Arena Kalamazoo, Mich.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. – Balanced scoring and defense helped lead the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team to a 73-59 victory over Western Michigan on Tuesday night (Jan. 31) at University Arena. Kaleb Thornton scored 15 points while David Coit and Zarique Nutter each had 13 as the Huskies held the Broncos to just 31.3 percent (21-of-67) shooting and 9.1 percent (2-of-22) from three-point range.

With the win, NIU has already matched its win total from a sea-son ago and had recorded back-to-back wins in Kalamazoo for the first time since 1981 and 1982.

The Huskies outscored the Broncos off turnovers, 15-5, and despite trailing in offensive rebounds, 23-10, scored more second chance points than Western Michigan, 9-8.

NIU jumped out to a 9-2 lead in the opening four minutes of the contest. Four different Huskies scored, including an old-fashioned three-point play from Harvin Ibarguen, as the visitors went in front early.

An 11-2 run by the Huskies forced a Western Michigan timeout. Coit and Thornton knocked in back-to-back triples to open the run, after a Bronco bucket, Ibarguen scored and Darweshi Hunter added a wing three to give NIU a 20-6 lead with 12:18 left in the half, forcing a Western Michigan timeout.

The NIU run reached 14-2 on a layup from Nutter and a free throw from Hunter as the Huskies took a 23-8 advantage just before the midway point of the opening half.

Western Michigan used a 7-0 burst to cut the Huskie lead to 10 until Hunter knocked in a corner triple, his second of the half, to push the NIU lead to 32-19 with just under four minutes to play before the intermission.

NIU took a 36-24 lead into halftime as Nutter led all scorers with eight in the opening 20 minutes. Lamar Norman Jr. scored a half-dozen to lead Western Michigan in the first half.

The Broncos started the second half with a 7-2 burst, trimming the NIU lead to just seven until Thornton made a trifecta and then added a pair of free throws to push the Huskie advantage to 43-31 with just under 16 minutes remaining.

Thornton had five assists and three steals to go along with his 5-of-8 from the field, 3-of-5 from three and 2-of-2 from the line.

After Western Michigan got back within eight, 43-35, Thornton knocked in another three to ignite an 8-2 Huskie burst with Nutter finishing at the rim and Coit connecting on a wing triple, giving the Huskies a 51-37 lead.

A 10-0 run for NIU, with Oluwasegun Durosinmi, Hunter and Anthony Crump combining to go 8-of-8 from the charity stripe during the burst, helped the Huskies push their lead to 61-39 with eight minutes left as they closed out their third consecutive road victory.

GAME 23 NIU: 86 Bowling Green: 78 February 4, 2023 • Stroh Center Bowling Green, Ohio

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio - The Northern Illinois University men's basketball team led wire-to-wire for the second time this week as it downed Bowling Green, 86-78, on Saturday afternoon (Feb. 4) at the Stroh Center. The Huskies opened up a double-digit lead in the opening six minutes of the contest and then held off a late second half run by the Falcons as they improved to 10-13 overall, 6-4 in the Mid-American Conference.

David Coit scored a game-high 21 points, Zarique Nutter added 18 points, Darweshi Hunter chipped in 13 while Harvin Ibarguen had 10 points and a team-high seven rebounds and Oluwasegun Durosinmi scored a career-high 10 points.

The win was NIU's fourth consecutive on the road, the longest road win streak for the program since 2002-03.

NIU made six of its first seven shots as the Huskies led 13-7 in the early going. Ibarguen and Nutter each made a pair of buckets in the first five minutes to pace the Huskie offensive early. Nutter finished the game 8-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-3 from three-point range.

Nutter's second basket ignited a 10-0 Huskie run as the NIU lead grew to 21-7 with 13:28 to play in the half. Ibarguen added his third bucket of the half during the run before Hunter and Coit made back-to-back triples.

NIU was in front 26-12 before Bowling Green used a 15-5 run to trim the Huskie advantage to just four, 31-27, with just under eight minutes to play before the intermission. A 6-0 burst by the Huskies pushed the NIU lead back to 10. Anthony Crump and Nutter each scored at the rim and Durosinmi made a pair of free throws to give the Huskies a 37-27 lead with five minutes to play in the opening stanza.

The NIU lead was 11 on an old-fashioned three-point play by Crump, but Bowling Green scored the final four points of the half as the Huskies took a 44-37 lead into halftime.

Early in the second half, the NIU advantage grew to 11 on an alley-oop from Crump to Ibarguen, but Bowling Green answered with the next nine to pull within a pair, 51-49.

Nutter connected on a trifecta to spark a 9-1 Huskies response as NIU took a 60-50 lead with 12 minutes left. Coit made a pair of free throws and Nutter finished twice through contact at the rim as the visitors increased their lead to 10.

Durosinmi scored six-straight Huskie points and Hunter added a free-throw line jumper as the Huskies led 68-52.

Bowling Green then used a 15-2 run to get within three, 70-67, with Coit doubled the NIU advantage back to a half-dozen with a triple with 3:36 left.

After a bucket by the Falcons, Coit made another trifecta, giving NIU a 76-69 lead. Following a Bowling Green free throw, Coit knocked in another three, his fifth of the night, to put the Huskies

GAME 23 NIU: 76 Ohio: 82

February 7, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. – Ohio shot 50.9 percent (28-of-55) from the field as the Bobcats upended the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team, 82-76, on Tuesday night (Feb. 7) at the NIU Convocation Center. Kaleb Thornton tied a career-high with 21 points while dishing out eight assists, David Coit and Zarique Nutter each had 12 points while Darweshi Hunter added 11.

An 8-0 Huskie burst gave the hosts a 21-15 lead with just under 12 minutes to play in the opening half. Harvin Ibarguen started the run with a dunk off a feed from Thornton, Hunter then knocked in a triple from the wing and Thornton scored the next three as the Huskies led by a half-dozen.

Ohio responded with the next five as the Bobcats trimmed the NIU advantage to just one, 21-20.

The Bobcats pulled even at 26 with 8:32 to play before the intermission and the lead swung back-and-forth for the next five-plus minutes

With NIU in front by one, Ohio used a 7-0 spurt to take a 41-35 lead with 2:27 left before the break. Two baskets from Nutter, sandwiched around an Ohio bucket, brought the Huskies within four but Ohio closed the half with a triple to take a 46-39 lead into the intermission.

Hunter led all scorers with 11 first half points, DeVon Baker had nine to pace the Bobcats. Both teams shot better than 50 percent in an opening 20 minutes that featured eight ties and 13 lead changes.

Ohio scored the first three to open the second stanza as the Bobcats increased their advantage to 49-39.

A basket by Nutter and a pair of free throws from Coit brought the Huskies within a half-dozen, 52-46. After the two teams traded triples, Ohio used a 7-2 burst to push its lead to 62-51 with 11:28 left to play. Nutter finished just a game-high nine rebounds to go along with his 12 points.

Thornton answered with back-to-back buckets and Oluwasegun Durosinmi converted a pair at the line as NIU pulled within five, 62-57, just past the midway point of the second half. The Bobcats led by nine after a triple with four minutes to play but the Huskies had one final run in them. A free throw from Thornton and a bucket by Anthony Crump (Inkster, Mich.) trimmed the Ohio lead to 75-69. Following a basket by the Bobcats, Coit converted an old-fashioned three-point play and Thornton finished at the rim to pull the Huskies within three, 77-74, with 1:18 left.

NIU then forced a turnover and had a chance to tie or pull within one, but the Huskies came up empty and Ohio closed out the game from the free-throw line.

GAME 25

NIU: 81

DEKALB, III. - Six Huskies scored in double figures as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team overwhelmed Western Michigan, 81-53, on Saturday afternoon (Feb. 11) at the NIU Convocation Center. Zarique Nutter scored a game-high 18 points while Anthony Crump had 11 points and a career-best 14 rebounds for his second career double-double. Kaleb Thornton also had a double-double with 10 points and a career-high tying 11 assist.

Harvin Ibarquen just missed a double-double with career-high tying 13 points and a career-best nine rebounds while Darweshi Hunter added 11 points. This was the first time NIU has had six double-figure scorers in a game since Dec. 14, 2016, against Olivet Nazarene.

Western Michigan jumped out to a quick start, taking a 12-4 lead in the opening five minutes of the contest.

Coit scored to ignite an 8-3 NIU burst as the Huskies pulled within three. Thornton added a layup, Hunter made a triple from the wing and Nutter made a free throw as the Huskies cut the Western Michigan lead to 15-12 with 11:51 to play before the break.

Trailing by three, a basket by Hunter started a 10-2 NIU run. Crump converted an alley-oop from Hunter before Coit and Thornton both made triples as NIU took a 22-19 lead with eight-and-a-half minutes to play in the opening half.

Western Michigan tied the game at 22, but Coit answered with a trifecta before Nutter and Thornton each finished at the rim, giving the Huskies a seven-point lead with five minutes left before the half

The NIU lead grew to 11 on Coit's third triple of the half, but Western Michigan scored the final three points of the half to cut the Huskie lead to 35-27 at the intermission.

A pair of dunks from Ibarguen, a coast-to-coast finish from Crump and a short jumper by Coit gave the Huskies a 43-29 advantage early in the second half.

With NIU in front by 13, the Huskies went on a 7-0 burst to push the lead to 60-40. A pair of finishes at the rim from Nutter and a driving layup from Crump, followed by a free throw by Nutter put the Huskies in front by 20 with less than nine minutes left.

Crump and Thornton's double-doubles marked the first time NIU had two players with double-doubles in the same game since Nov. 18, 2019, against Longwood.

Norman Jr. led the Broncos with 12 points, Seth Hubbard added 11 off the bench for the visitors.

GAME 26 NIU: 77 Ball State: 87

February 14, 2023 • Worthen Arena Muncie, Ind.

MUNCIE, Ind. – Trailing by as many as 17 early in the second half, the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team rallied to within five, but was unable to complete the comeback as they fell, 87-77, to Ball State on Tuesday night (Feb. 14) at Worthen Arena. David Coit scored a game-high 22 points, along with six assists and four rebounds.

Zarique Nutter added 18 points, Anthony Crump scored 16 points and eight rebounds while Darweshi Hunter added 15 points.

Ball State shot 51.7 percent (31-of-60) from the field in the contest, including 40.9 percent (9-of-22) from three-point range. A triple from Hunter gave the Huskies an early 6-3 lead before Ball State used a 15-2 run to take an 18-8 lead seven minutes into the contest.

Nutter answered with back-to-back finishes at the rim to bring the Huskies back within a half-dozen.

After Ball State went back in front by eight, NIU used a 9-0 run to take a 21-20 lead. Coit opened the run with a layup and then added a triple before a pair of buckets from Crump gave the Huskies a one-point lead with just over eight minutes left in the first half.
The lead swung back to the Cardinals, and they pushed their advantage to a half-dozen until seven-straight points gave the lead back to NIU. Crump started the run with a basket, Hunter finished a layup on the break and Crump knocked in a trifecta from the wing to give the Huskies a 31-30 lead with 4:03 to play before the break.

Ball State closed the half on a 13-2 run as the Cardinals took a 43-33 lead into halftime. Coit led NIU with 11 points in the opening 20 minutes, Jarron Coleman had 11 to pace the Cardinals. Ball State went 7-of-9 (77.8 percent) from the free-throw line in the first half while the Huskies were 0-of-2. The Cardinals scored the first seven points to start the second half as they pushed the lead to 50-33.

NIU climbed back within 11, 58-47, when Hunter knocked down a triple with just over 13 minutes to play.

The Huskies continued to chip away at the Ball State lead and cut the Cardinal lead to five as Nutter capped a 7-0 NIU burst with a pair of free throws. Hunter knocked in a three and made a short jumper to ignite the run as NIU cut the Ball State advantage to 61-56 with 8:13 left.

NIU was still within five, 67-62, until Ball State went on a 5-0 spurt to double its lead to 72-62 with 3:38 to play and the Huskies would get no closer than seven the rest of the way. Payton Sparks led Ball State with 20 points and 10 rebounds, Coleman and Demarius Jacobs each scored 17 points, Jaylin Sellers had 13 and Mickey Pearson chipped in 10 points.

GAME27 (OVERTIME) NIU: 65

Miami: 66

February 18, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. – A late Miami run in regulation forced overtime and the RedHawks outlasted the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team, 66-65, in overtime on Saturday afternoon (Feb. 18) at the NIU Convocation Center. Anthony Crump recorded his third career double-double with 17 points and 11 rebounds, along with five assists and four steals.

Zarique Nutter added 16 points, Darweshi Hunter scored 14 points and Harvin Ibarguen chipped in 12 points. With NIU in front 53-34 and just over nine minutes to play, Miami went on a 9-0 run to trim the Huskie lead to 55-44 with 6:38

Nutter stopped the RedHawk run with a triple, but the visitors answered with the final 14 points of regulation, including an off-balance triple from Anderson Mirambeaux with less than five seconds remaining to tie the game at 58, forcing overtime.

In the extra period, NIU scored first on a bucket from Ibarquen off a feed from Nutter, but Miami netted the next four to take their first lead of the contest, 62-60. An Ibarguen dunk from Crump evened the contest again, only for the RedHawks to score the next four and take a 66-62 lead with 22 seconds left.

A triple from Hunter, his third of the contest, cut the Miami lead to 66-65 and the Huskies forced a turnover on the inbounds pass to get the ball back with 14 seconds left, down just one.

NIU had a pair of looks in the final seconds but neither would fall as Miami escaped with the one-point road victory.

Mirambeaux led the RedHawks with 18 points, Morgan Safford added 16 points and 10 rebounds while Mekhi Lairy and Ryan Mabrey each chipped in 12 points.

NIU raced out to a 15-2 lead in the opening five minutes of the contest with Nutter scoring a half-dozen of the 15 to get the Huskies off to a quick start.

The Huskies led by 10 at the break, 32-22. Crump had 13 points, on 6-of-7 from the floor, to lead all scorers. Lairy had six points to lead Miami. NIU shot 51.9 percent (14-of-27) from the field in the opening 20 minutes while holding Miami to just 36.4 percent (8-of-22) shooting.

After Miami scored the first two points of the second half, NIU used a 1-0 run to push its advantage to 42-24 with just over 16 minutes left to play. The RedHawks cut the deficit back to a dozen before the Huskie's used a 10-2 burst to take a 53-34 lead with

February 21, 2023 • Convocation Center Athens, Ohio

ATHENS, Ohio - The Northern Illinois University men's basketball team and Ohio traded 12 leads and were tied nine times but a late 10-0 run helped lift the Bobcats to a 77-68 victory over the Huskies on Tuesday night (Feb. 21) at the Ohio University Convocation Center. Five Huskies scored in double figures, led by 17 points from Darweshi Hunter.

Harvin Ibarguen and Zarique Nutter each scored 13 points, Anthony Crump recorded his third double-double in the last four games with 11 points and 10 rebounds and Kaleb Thornton had 10 points and nine assists.

Ohio scored the opening five points of the contest before NIU answered with the next six as the Huskies to lead by one in a pre-cursor of what would turn out to be a back-and-forth contest.

With the Huskies in front, 12-11, Ohio used back-to-back triples to take a five-point lead, 17-12, with 13:31 to play before the intermission. NIU was within a pair, 18-16, before the Bobcats went on a 10-2 run to take a 28-18 advantage just past the midway point of the first half.

The Huskies answered with the next seven as Crump made a free throw, followed by baskets from Nutter, Crump and Ibarguen, as NIU trimmed the Ohio lead to 28-25 with just under seven minutes to play before the break.

Ohio's lead was still three until the Huskies went on a 6-0 spurt to take a 37-34 lead. Hunter, Nutter and Thornton scored during the mini run for NIU. The Bobcats hit a corner triple, their seventh three of the half, to tie the game at 37 at the break.

Dwight Wilson led all scorers with 10 points for Ohio in the opening 20 minutes, Hunter and Ibarguen each had eight to pace the Huskies.

Ohio scored first to open the second half before back-to-back buckets from Ibarguen, including an alley-oop from Thornton, forced an early second half timeout from the Bobcats as NIU took a 41-39 lead just over two minutes into the second stanza.

With Ohio in front by a pair, Nutter started a five-point Huskie burst with a layup through contact. Crump added a free throw and Nutter again finished at the rim, giving the Huskies a 51-48 lead with a little over 12 minutes remaining.

NIU's lead was still three after a tough finish by Hunter, but sixstraight by the hosts helped give Ohio a 62-59 advantage with 5:44 left to play.

The Huskies were within a pair, 66-64, with 2:35 remaining when Ohio used a 10-0 run to push its lead to a dozen and claim

GAME 29 NIU: 84 Central Michigan: 80 February 25, 2023 • McGuirk Arena Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. -- In a contest that featured 76 total free throw attempts, the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team held off a second half Central Michigan run to top the Chippewas, 84-80, and clinch a spot in the Mid-American Conference Tournament in Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday afternoon (Feb. 25) at McGuirk Arena.

Zarique Nutter and Kaleb Thornton each scored 21 points to lead the Huskies. Darweshi Hunter added 14 points while Anthony Crump and Harvin Ibarguen both chipped in 11 points.

Trailing by a pair six minutes into the contest, Armandas Plin-tauskas and Thornton knocked in back-to-back triples, igniting an 14-2 Huskie run. Thornton made another three and then finished at the rim before Hunter canned a trifecta, giving NIU a 22-12 lead with just under 11 minutes to play in the opening half.

After Central Michigan trimmed the Huskie lead back to five NIU went on a 12-0 run. Ibarguen opened the burst with a dunk off a feed from Thornton. The Bolingbrook, Ill., native then added a pair of free throws and Hunter made a short jumper to give NIU a 31-20 lead with 4:22 left before the intermission, forcing a Chippewa timeout.

The Huskies closed the half with a 6-2 spurt courtesy of a triple from Hunter, a free throw by Plintauskas and a dunk from Olu-wasegun Durosinmi off a feed from Thornton as NIU took a 47-29 lead into the break.

The Chippewas trimmed the NIU advantage to 13 early in the second half before a dunk from Ibarguen and a triple by Hunter pushed the Huskie lead back to 18, 56-38, four minutes into the second stanza.

Central Michigan answered with an 11-0 run, cutting the NIU to 56-49 with 11:32 left to play.

After the Huskies pushed the lead to 59-49, the Chippewas scored the next seven of the next eight to pull within four, 60-56, just past the midway point of the second half.

In front by a half-dozen, NIU used a 6-0 burst to push its advantage to 68-56 with 6:40 left. Ibarguen converted an old-fashioned three-point play, Nutter made a basket and added a free throw while Hunter also scored from the line as the Huskie advantage reached a dozen.

A Central Michigan layup with five minutes left helped claw the Chippewas within eight, 70-62. It would be the last field goal by the hosts until the final 10 seconds of the contest as Central Michigan would go to the free-throw line 14 times over the final five minutes, making 13 of those attempts.

Those trips to the line helped cut the NIU lead to 76-71 with 2:23 to play, but Crump made two free throws and Nutter scored at the rim as the Huskie advantage grew to nine. NIU's lead was seven before a three-pointer with less than a second left cut the final margin to four.

GAMESO NIU: 75 Buffalo: 85

February 28, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - After falling behind by as much as 19 early in the second half, the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team rallied to within seven before falling to Buffalo, 85-75, on Tuesday night (Feb. 28) at the NIU Convocation Center. David Coit and Darweshi Hunter each scored 18 to lead the way for the Huskies.

Anthony Crump added 13 points while Harvin Ibarguen and Ka-leb Thornton each netted 10, Thornton also recorded nine assists. A 9-0 run early in the contest helped give Buffalo a 9-2 lead inside the opening four minutes.

After Buffalo took a 19-8 lead, Coit, returning after missing the last three games, knocked in a triple and Ibarguen finished at the rim to bring the Huskies back within a half-dozen, 19-13, with 12:37 left in the half.

Buffalo used another 9-0 run to increase its advantage to 31-15 with a little less than six minutes to play before the intermission. The two teams would trade baskets the remainder of the half as the Bulls would take a 16-point lead, 42-26, into the break.

Isaiah Adams led all scorers with 13 points for Buffalo, Curtis Jones added 10 for the Bulls. Coit scored nine points, on 3-of-5 from three, to pace the Huskies. Buffalo shot 58.1 percent (18-of-31) from the field, including 41.7 percent (5-of-12) in the opening 20 minutes.

Zarique Nutter scored on each of the first two possessions of the second half for the Huskies, but Buffalo made its first four shots to open the half.

NIU trimmed the Buffalo lead to a dozen, 68-56, when Coit got a steal and went coast-to-coast for a layup with six minutes left to play, forcing a Buffalo timeout. Following the timeout, the Huskies got a stop and then Hunter canned a trifecta, off an assist from Thornton, to bring NIU within nine, 68-59.

After a pair of Buffalo free throws, Thornton scored and then found Ibarguen for a bucket, bringing the Bulls lead down to just 70-63 with 3:57 remaining. The visitors answered with the next six, however, as they earned the road victory and clinched a spot in Cleveland for the conference tournament.

Jones finished with a game-high 21 to lead the Bulls, Adams added 20 while LaQuill Hardnett scored 15 points. Buffalo shot 54.2 percent (32-of-59) from the field in the contest.

GAME 31 NIU: 85

Eastern Michigan: 66 March 3, 2023 • NIU Convocation Center DeKalb, III.

DEKALB, III. - Five players scored in double figures as the Northern Illinois University men's basketball team led wire-to-wire for an 85-66 Senior Day victory over Eastern Michigan on Friday afternoon (March 3) at the NIU Convocation Center. Zarique Nutter scored a team-high 19 points while Kaleb Thornton had his third double-double of the season with 17 points and 11 rebounds.

Darweshi Hunter registered 13 points, Harvin Ibarguen scored 12, going a perfect 6-of-6 from the field with a team-best seven rebounds, and Anthony Crump finished with 10 points.

NIU shot 56.5 percent (35-of-62) from the field in the contest, including 45 percent (9-of-20) from three-point range.

The Huskies jumped out to a 14-7 start as Hunter and Nutter each knocked down threes and Thornton had four assists in the opening four-plus minutes of the contest.

After Eastern Michigan trimmed the Huskie advantage to just a pair, 14-12, NIU used an 8-0 run to go in front 22-12 with 12 minutes to play before the intermission. Thornton started the burst with a triple, Hunter added a three before Thornton and Nutter each made a free throw. NIU was 8-of-10 from the field in the opening eight minutes, including 4-of-5 from three-point range.

The Eagles responded with a 7-2 spurt, cutting the NIU lead in

With the Huskies in front by a half-dozen, Crump scored and Oluwasegun Durosinmi added a pair of free throws, giving NIU a 33-23 lead with just over two minutes to play in the opening half. MIU still led by 10 when David Coit beat the buzzer to end the half, giving the Huskies a 37-25 lead at the break.

Nutter led all scorers with 11 points in the opening stanza, Hunter had 10 while Tyson Acuff led Eastern Michigan with 10.

Hunter and Thornton knocked down back-to-back trifectas to open the second half, extending the NIU lead to 43-25. NIU's advantage was 20 when Thornton made consecutive triples just after the midway point of the half, pushing the Huskie advantage to its largest of the contest, 71-45. Thornton was 4-of-7 from three in the contest.

The home team shot 71.4 percent (15-of-21) in the first 12 minutes of the second half, including 4-of-5 from three-point range, as the Huskies cruised to a 19-point victory.

In the final minute, senior Drew Wiemers made his first career field goal, converting an old-fashioned three-point play on Senior Day.
