

1988 WORLD SERIES TEAM

The 1988 season was a very special time in Huskie softball history. Head coach Dee Abrahamson's Huskies were ranked as high as No. 10 nationally by mid-season and between April and May, NIU embarked on a school-record 16-game winning streak.

The potent Northern Illinois line-up featured a three-time, first-team All-America selection and four Academic All-America picks. The 35-11 overall record represented the best team winning percentage (.761) in the program's history. By season's end, not only did NIU go 9-0 at home, but managed an impressive 10-4 ledger vs. the country's Top 20.

The Huskies became the first Division I program to advance to the softball Final Eight in its initial NCAA appearance. The Huskies finished the season ranked No. 11 in the NCAA in team batting average (.302) and team earned run average (0.88) and No. 13 in team fielding (.964).

The idyllic trip into the nation's Top 20 and the College World Series was fueled by a mixture of chemistry, strong talent, a balance of offense, defense and pitching, heads-up play, a strong goal-oriented focus and dedicated coaching.

From the start of March, Abrahamson thought her team could be "good." Northern Illinois had 13 letterwinners back from a 24-25 team that tasted some success by placing seventh at the National Invitational Championships in 1987. The club also boasted four experienced seniors: catcher Pat Faletti, first baseman Sue Kause, second baseman Laura Peterson, and shortstop Amy Veld.

The Huskies finished runner-up at the Florida State Invitational, splitting with the nationally-ranked hosts. A month later, Northern Illinois won the Iowa State Cyclone Classic by beating No. 8-rated Illinois State, No. 16 Iowa State and No. 19 Nebraska. Two days later, Abrahamson's club ascended to the No. 10 spot in the NCAA Division I poll.

The Huskies dominated the North Star Conference Tournament as that event turned into the Northern Illinois Invitational for more reasons than its DeKalb location. Junior pitcher Beth Schrader, who won 24 of 29 decisions and ranked among the NCAA leaders in ERA (No. 12 at 0.58) and victories (No. 15 with 24) that spring, earned the "W" in three straight NSC triumphs against Dayton (16-0), Valparaiso (3-1) and DePaul (8-1). Six Huskies---Jill Justin, Schrader, Faletti, Kause, Lisa Gilfof and Julie Sexton---made the all-tourney squad. Justin and Faletti shared the NSC Most Valuable Player honors.

At the NCAA Regional, Northern Illinois

beat host Bowling Green, 4-3, before losing to Illinois State by a 1-0 margin and falling into the loser's bracket in the double-elimination format. Thanks to a triple play, Northern Illinois topped ISU in the rematch, 3-1, and then Gilfof's home run spelled the difference in the 2-0 final in the title game. Justin, Faletti, Schrader, and Gilfof all made the All-Midwest team.

The Huskies joined the country's softball elite, No. 1-ranked UCLA, Fresno State, Texas A&M, Adelphi, Arizona, Cal Poly-Pomona, and Nebraska in Sunnyvale, Calif. Seeded No. 8, Northern Illinois was matched against eventual champion UCLA in the first round. An unearned run in the first inning proved to be the difference as the Huskies fell, 1-0.

NIU's best was certainly enough to draw a compliment from UCLA head coach Sharon Backus, whose Bruin team claimed its fourth national crown in seven years.

"I didn't have any idea about Northern Illinois except what I read in their guide and in the papers," she said. "I was quite impressed with their confidence and the way they came to play."

The dream season ended two days later in a 3-0 setback to defending champion Texas A&M.

"The tough thing about making the (NCAA) tourney is that you either end on a loss or as a national champion," Abrahamson said. "Making the tournament was a big step. I think we played really well when we had to.

Christopher Thomas Freidel Memorial Award

Christopher Thomas Freidel Memorial Award Winners

Christopher Freidel holds a special place with the Northern Illinois University softball program. The son of Tom and Katie Freidel, Christopher grew up with the Huskie softball team as his family shared living space with the NIU coaches. He was certainly the team's No. 1 fan, often attending practices and cheering on the team at nearly every home event of his tragically-shortened life.

Christopher died in a car accident at age five on February 8, 1988. Although he was unable to physically follow the team he loved in its first NCAA Tournament appearance, he was definitely with the team in spirit. A message from his parents to the 1988 team read, "...He didn't really understand winning and losing, but he did know about putting his whole self into something and doing the best he could to do it right. He learned that, in part, from watching you."

To honor the memory of this special young fan, the players decided to make their tribute a lasting one by establishing the Christopher Thomas Freidel Memorial Award. The annual award, voted on by the seniors, is given to the Huskie player who best exemplifies the characteristics Christopher was learning.
