HIGHLIGHTS:

⊗ This is NJIT's second all-time meeting with Sarah Lawrence College. NJIT won the first matchup, 90-55, on Feb. 28, 2015. It was the first time Sarah Lawrence faced a D-I opponent.

⊗ NJIT is 18-0 vs. D-III opponents and 24-0 vs. non D-I foes. The Highlanders sport an average margin of victory of 36.75 against non D-I opponents all-time.

⊗ Tonight marks the first game in the head coaching career of Brian Kennedy, who was hired to the post on April 15 after four seasons as the top assistant and five as an assistant at DePaul.

⊗ With five points tonight, senior Damon Lynn will set NJIT's D-I scoring record. The current mark is 1,724 held by Chris Flores '13. The all-time school record is 2,028 (Clarence Pierce '96).

⊗ Last season, NJIT finished 20-15 -- marking back-to-back, 20-win seasons (prior, its highest win total was 16 from 2012-13). The Highlanders have also made back-to-back appearances in the semifinals of the CollegiateInsider.com National Postseason Tournament (CIT).

⊗ Last season, NJIT set a program season record with 19 wins against D-I opponents.

⊗ Since Dec. 30, 2014, the Highlanders boast an impressive 36-18 (.667) record.

⊗ NJIT is 1-9 in openers all-time and 0-3 at home (all three against Manhattan). With a win tonight, the Highlanders will win their first opener since its first game as a D-I -- a 56-55 win at Manhattan on Nov. 11, 2006. Last season, they opened with an 87-57 loss at No. 2 Kentucky.

MACON, Ga. - After capturing its second ASUN Conference Men's Basketball Championship last season, FGCU sits atop the Preseason Coaches & Media Polls. North Florida, the two-time defending ASUN Regular Season Champions, followed in second place garnering first-place votes in each ranking.

UNF senior guard Dallas Moore collected ASUN Preseason Player of the Year honors after leading the league in scoring (19.8) and assists (6.0) last season.

FGCU's Demetris Morant corralled the ASUN Preseason Defensive Player of the Year nod after swatting away 32 shots in 23 games last season. Morant added 5.3 RPG, while contributing 5.7 PPG on the offensive end shooting 57.6 percent from the field.

NJIT sits third in both preseason rankings as the Highlanders enter their second season in the ASUN after a second-straight semifinal appearance in the CollegiateInsider Tournament.

HIGHLANDERS BY THE NUMBERS

1 2 5 10 349

Year as a member of the ASUN Conference, after NJIT finished with the 2-seed for the ASUN Tournament last season.

Points needed by Damon Lynn to become NJIT's D-I scoring leader, passing the record of 1,724 set by Chris Flores '13.

Career double-doubles for Tim Coleman, two shy of NJIT's D-I all-time record (12, Nesho Milosevic & Isaiah Wilkerson).

Three-pointers made by Damon Lynn in his career -- the most by any active player in NCAA Division I men's basketball.

HOME GROWN:

Entering the season, NJIT has the most localized roster in all of college basketball. As researched by Jake Sharpless of Rukkus. The average player comes from just 39 miles from hometown to school.

NJIT's roster features nine New Jersey natives, including three from here in Newark (Abdul Lewis, James McMillon, Taj Price), three from Hillside (Shyquan Gibbs, Chris Jenkins, Damon Lynn) one from East Brunswick (Rob Ukawuba), one from Jersey City (Mohamed Bendary) and one from Union (Tim Coleman). Last season, NJIT received 64% of its scoring from New Jersey natives. In fact, 97% of NJIT returning points in 2016-17 are from products of the Garden State.

Interestingly, the second-most localized roster for 2016-17 belongs to reigning national champ Villanova (128 miles) and the least localized is Hawaii (4,031).

Here are the ranks for the other ASUN programs: Lipscomb (#7, 162 mi), North Florida (#114, 590 mi), Jacksonville (#130, 663 mi), Florida Gulf Coast (#138, 689 mi), Stetson (#236, 1113 mi), Kennesaw (#292, 1545) and USC Upstate (#329, 1948 mi).

Y'ALL COME BACK NOW, HEAR?!

The Highlanders return eight players from last season's 20-win team -- and that doesn't include F Abdul Lewis, who sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules (South Alabama). Even though NJIT lost four key players (PG Ky Howard, G Winfield Willis, F Emmanuel Tselentakis, F Terrence Smith) from their 2016 CIT semifinalist squad, the Highlanders still return:

- 67% of their scoring (including 83% of their three-point field goals made) from last season
- 54% of their rebounding from last season
- 60% of their minutes played from last season

THE KENNEDY ADMINISTRATION:

After four seasons as a top assistant at NJIT, head coach Brian Kennedy begins his first season at the helm of the program. The 47-year-old was introduced as the 11th head coach in program history on April 15, 2016, after four seasons as the top assistant under the Jim Engles -- who was hired as head coach at Columbia eight days after the Lions defeated the Highlanders in the semifinals of the 2016 CIT. Since joining the program, "BK" has helped guide the Highlanders to a combined 70-56 record and both back-to-back, 20-win seasons as well as back-to-back appearances in the CIT semifinals.

A talented recruiter, Kennedy was extremely instrumental in luring some of the Highlanders most talented all-time performers -- such as Tim Coleman, Damon Lynn and Rob Ukawuba -- to Newark. That reputation has continued with the new 2020 class, which -- on paper -- is the highest rated recruiting class in program history with Ron Alston, Shyquann Gibbs, Taj Price and Anthony Tarke.

The Monmouth University product also spent time as an assistant at DePaul University from 1997-2002, where he helped guide the Blue Demons back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000.

Kennedy has two first-year assistants this season: Jeff Rafferty, who spent the past nine seasons as an assistant at University of Delaware; and Kevin Driscoll, who was an assistant the past three seasons at Holy Cross. Rafferty and Driscoll join second-year coaches Kim Waiters and Andrew McGlynn.

THREE-LANDERS:

Last season, the Highlanders drained a program-record 306 three-pointers -- a total that ranked 27th in the nation and shattered the previous mark of 279 from 2014-15. NJIT also ranked 40th in nation in three-pointers made per game (8.7). The team returns 83% of its treys from 2015-16.

- Senior Damon Lynn, who leads all active D-I players in 3FGM (349), led the ASUN in both 3FGM (116) and 3FGM/G (3.3) last season.
- Senior Tim Coleman finished last season with a .412 3FG% -- which ranked 5th in the ASUN.
- Junior Chris Jenkins finished 8th in the ASUN in 3FG% (.399) and 9th in 3FGM/G (2.0) in his first season playing with the Highlanders.

HOME SWEET ZOOM:

With the $102 M Wellness and Events Center set to open in 2017-18, the Highlanders play their final full season at Estelle and Zoom Fleisher Athletic Center. Last season, the Highlanders finished 12-6 at home -- winning their last three games in Newark (all in CIT) as well as six of their last seven affairs. Since the start of the 2009-10 season, NJIT is an impressive 75-31 (.708) at the "Zoom" -- including a program record 15-2 (.882) mark in 2014-15. Since their transition to Division I, the Highlanders have recorded an overall mark of 79-56 (.585) at the Zoom.

NJIT also enters the season with a 20-6 (.769) record all-time in conference games at the Zoom including a 16-3 record when NJIT participated in the Great West Conference (2009-13).

Conversely, the program went 0-9 in home games (0-2 in conference) played at the Prudential Center (2008-10).

LYNN-SANITY:

Senior guard Damon Lynn is just five points away from shattering the program's all-time scoring record of 1,724 (Chris Flores '13). The co-captain enters the season as the NCAA active D-I leader in three-point field goals made (349) while ranking fourth in points (1,720) and ninth in in scoring average (17.7 ppg).

Last season, Lynn set the NJIT single-season scoring record with 642 points -- shattering his own mark of 578 set in 2014-15. His average of 18.3 ppg also represented a new program season-high and ranked fifth in the nation's highest scoring conference. The Hillside, N.J., native also led the ASUN and placed fifth in D-I in three-point field goals made (116) while listing second in the conference and 34th in the nation in total points (642).

Prior to Lynn, no Highlander had ever registered back-to-back, 500-point seasons -- a scoring plateau he has now reached in all three of his campaigns (500, 578, 642). Going back to 2014-15, he has scored in double figures in 46 of his last 48 games. During this span, which started Jan. 19, 2015, Lynn is averaging 18.7 ppg (878). In his career, he has scored 20+ points in 41 of his 97 games and 30+ in five affairs (34, 32, 32, 31, 30) -- including a program single-game record of 34 points as a freshman at NC A&T on Jan. 18, 2014.

Lynn had a remarkable streak of 72 straight games with at least one 3FGM snapped by UNF on Jan. 24, 2016. Still, in his 97-game NCAA career, he has only had three games without a trey.

An Iron Man on the court, Lynn has started all of NJIT's 99 games during his career, while playing an amazing 90% of all possible minutes (3,507 of 3,900).

In addition to being a unanimous selection to the preseason ASUN All-Conference Team, the 2015-16 ASUN First-Team selection has been named to the 2017 Lou Henson Watch List as well as being tabbed as both a Top 100 Player in College Basketball for 2016-17 and a Non-Power Five Guard Who Will Be Household Name in 2016-17 by College Court Report.

TIM OF ALL TRADES

Senior G/F Tim Coleman a first-time selection to an ASUN All-Conference Team, is coming off an historical campaign in which he set NJIT's D-I single-season record for rebounds (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., also became the sixth member of NJIT's D-I 1,000-point club (1,053) and the third Highlander to reach 500 career rebounds (548).

One of the most versatile players in the conference, Coleman finished 2015-16 ranked third in the ASUN in both steals per game (1.5) and double-doubles (7), fourth in rebounds per game (7.5), fifth in blocks per game (0.9) and three-point FG percentage (.412) and 11th in points per game (13.8). In D-I ranks, Coleman placed 54th in the nation in defensive rebounds per game (6.3).

NO KY, NO PROBLEM?:

All-time NJIT assist leader Ky Howard graduated in May, leaving NJIT without a point guard who also finished as one of three Highlanders with at least 1000 points (1139) and 500 rebounds (533)... Senior Damon Lynn, who ranked ninth in the ASUN with 3.3 assist per game, figures to handle the point a significant amount this season.

But this role is not all that unfamiliar to Lynn. During NJIT's 21-win campaign in 2014-15, the Hillside, N.J., native handled a bulk of the point guard responsibilities for 10 games after Howard went down with an ankle injury in January. During that time, NJIT went 8-2 and Lynn averaged 18.2 ppg and 5.3 apg. In fact, after a two-game adjustment period, he averaged 22.0 ppg and 5.8 apg over the final eight contests of the span.

2016-17 NJIT MEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON PREVIEW

If the Highlanders had to commission an author to pen the story of their 2015-16 season, perhaps Ernest Hemingway would've been the appropriate choice. The NJIT men's basketball team proved that the Sun Also Rises in Newark – as the Highlanders finished in a tie for second place their first year in the ASUN Conference. In addition, they reached 20 wins for a second straight season and advanced to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com National Postseason Tournament (CIT) for the second consecutive year.

But then, there was A Farewell to Arms.

Gone are starters Ky Howard, Terence Smith, Manny Tselentakis and Winfield Willis along with eight-year head coach Jim Engles.

That said, the Highlanders return a key corps of returnees – including a pair of pre-season ASUN All-Conference selections in Tim Coleman and Damon Lynn.

Then, there is the man For Whom the Bell Tolls. After four years serving as top assistant, Brian Kennedy was named NJIT men's basketball head coach in April. This upcoming season will mark the first career head coach post for "BK," who has spent nine seasons as an assistant coach including his prior tenure at DePaul University (1997-02).

On the floor, the Highlanders return seven lettermen and two starters. In addition, they bring back 67-percent of their scoring (including 83-percent of their three-point field goals), 54-percent of their rebounding and 60-percent of their minutes played from a season ago.

So how will this new chapter go?

"We have a big challenge ahead of us with our schedule. It's the toughest schedule we've ever had here at NJIT," said Kennedy, who helped guide the Blue Demons back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000. "But we return a great nucleus of kids and have a talented group of newcomers. Our freshmen excite me with their talent and enthusiasm, but still have a ways to go to be ready for a D-I basketball game."

Lynn, a senior co-captain, has been pleased with what he has seen during the preseason both in his teammates and the new leader.

"The team is doing pretty well. We have a lot of high hopes being that we have three senior captains and a freshman class that is so talented," said Lynn, who finished last season as an ASUN First-Team All-Conference selection. "And coach has instilled a lot of confidence in us."

Last season, NJIT entered the league predicted to finish third by the ASUN Coaches Poll and fourth by the ASUN Media Poll. The Highlanders wound up earning the 2-seed in the conference tournament. This season, they are projected for third place in both polls.

"This year, when we 'bring it in on three,' we say 'finish,'" Lynn said. "Now we have to finish our story. We've created a story from going from an independent, to winning 21 games, to [reaching 20 wins] two years in a row, to joining a conference and then finishing second. So now we have to finish our story and write it off well."

BACKCOURT

No doubt, one of the more difficult adjustments facing the Highlanders will be playing without four-year star Ky Howard – who ran the point for the past three seasons. Howard, a tremendous all-around player, not only set the school's single-season assist record (154) last season, but left NJIT as the all-time assist leader (416). He is also just one of three Highlanders all-time to post at least 1,000 points and 500 rebounds in a D-I career.

Lynn, who finished fifth in the ASUN in scoring (18.3 points per game) and ranked ninth in the ASUN with 3.3 assist per game, figures to handle the point a significant amount this season.

But this role is not all that unfamiliar to Lynn. During NJIT's 21-win campaign in 2014-15, the Hillside, N.J., native handled a bulk of the point guard responsibilities for 10 games after Howard went down with an ankle injury in January. During that time, NJIT went 8-2 and Lynn averaged 18.2 ppg and 5.3 apg. In fact, after a two-game adjustment period, he averaged 22.0 ppg and 5.8 apg over the final eight contests of the span.

Lynn enters the season as the NCAA active D-I leader in three-point field goals made (349) and ranks fourth in points (1,720). In fact, he is just five points away from shattering the program's all-time scoring record of 1,724 (Chris Flores '13).

"Damon is going to be called upon to have the ball in his hands more. I don't want to take away from his scoring, as he's going to leave here as the school's all-time leading scorer," Kennedy said. "But Damon is really ready to take that next step up in his level of play where he can get everyone involved but also score, as well. He's evolved in his game and he's got a lot of players around him to help."

One of those players is 6'1" freshman point guard Shyquan Gibbs, a graduate of St. Anthony's H.S. in Jersey City who helped lead the Friars to a 26-0 record last season.

"Shyquan is a coach's dream," Kennedy said. "He is a valedictorian in the classroom and a state champion on the court."

In addition, the NJIT point guard situation got bolstered with the late signing of Donovan Greer, a sophomore who transferred from San Jacinto (TX) C.C. There, the 6'3" Houston native helped his Region XIV runner-up team to a 20-10 record.

The Highlanders should be able to find plenty of backcourt points from the wing, as they return two talented long-distance shooters in junior Chris Jenkins and senior Osa Izevbuwa.

Jenkins, referred to by his coach as a "high-major shooter," came on strong in December. In his first season at NJIT, the Hillside, N.J., finished the year ranked eighth in the ASUN in three-point FG percentage (.399) and ninth in three-point FG per game (2.0).

FRONTCOURT

The Highlanders frontcourt figures to be the strongest it's ever been. And it all starts with preseason ASUN All-Conference selection, Tim Coleman.

Last year, the senior co-captain enjoyed an historical campaign in which he set NJIT's single-season record for rebounds (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., became just the third Highlander all-time to reach both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds.

One of the most versatile players in the conference, Coleman finished 2015-16 ranked third in the ASUN in steals per game (1.5), fourth in rebounds per game (7.5), fifth in blocks per game (0.9) and three-point FG percentage (.412) and 11th in points per game (13.8).

"Tim's had a great offseason," Kennedy said. "The game is slowing down for him a lot. He's seeing how he can be a mismatch nightmare for opponents. Now he's learning to let the game come to him and seeing where he can take advantage of things."

With Coleman sliding from the '4' to the '3,' this season, senior co-captain Rob Ukawuba figures to move into the starting lineup.

A player Lynn referred to as a "freak of nature and very athletic," the undersized power forward (6'4") has used his strength and his motor to become a valuable "sixth man" over the past two seasons. Last year, Ukawuba finished with the fourth-highest scoring average (8.2 ppg) in the ASUN among reserves (players with fewer than 10 starts).

"I try to embrace [the role]," said Ukawuba. "I try to see where I have my advantage. If it's a bigger guy, then maybe I can be faster. Sometimes bigger guys are tall and lanky, so maybe I'm stronger than them or maybe more athletic."

Perhaps the biggest addition to the group is a guy who is just that – the biggest on the team. After sitting out a year following a transfer from University of South Alabama, Newark native Abdul Lewis is expected to round out the starting five.

The redshirt sophomore measures 6'10" and brings a wealth of athleticism to the court. As a freshman in 2014-15, Lewis averaged 7.0 ppg and an impressive 6.7 rpg – a mark that led the Jaguars and ranked seventh in the Sun Belt Conference.

"We are very happy and excited to have him. He brings us an added dimension to score in the low post," said Kennedy about Lewis, who logged nine points and 10 rebounds against NJIT on Jan. 25, 2015, in Mobile. "He's really been locked in this preseason and he's working diligently preparing for the upcoming year."

Kennedy also expects significant contributions from sophomore Mohamed Bendary. As a freshman last season, the 6'9" product of St. Anthony's led the Highlanders in blocks in seven games, in rebounds three times and in scoring twice.

NEWCOMERS

Gibbs is not the only freshman who figures to play a significant role this season. NJIT has exciting prospects in Ron Alston (6'6"), Taj Price (6'7") and Anthony Tarke (6'6"). On paper, it's the highest rated recruiting class NJIT has ever had.

Tarke, a 2015 graduate of Gaithersburg (MD) H.S. who attended Coastal Academy US (NJ) for the 2015-16 season, has a chance to see significant minutes early in the season.

"Anthony is a tremendous athlete who should have an immediate impact in the ASUN," Kennedy said. "His versatility on the court should prove invaluable as the season progresses and he becomes adjusted to the college game."

OUTLOOK

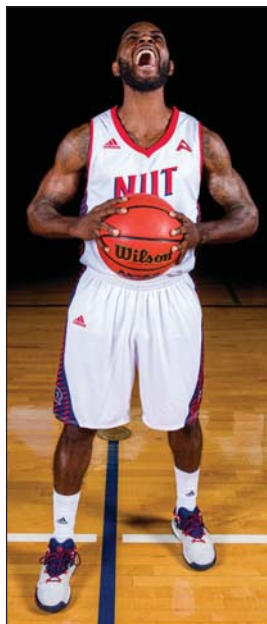

The Highlanders are optimistic about their chances to continue the amazing upward progression of the program – which sports a 36-18 (.667) record since Dec. 30, 2014. During that time, NJIT has earned its first win against a Top-25 team (Michigan) and a BIG EAST rival (St. John's); has posted its first two 20-win seasons and reached its first two national postseason tournaments; has joined an automatic qualifying (AQ) conference and has a new arena under construction for the 2017-18 season.

NJIT will indeed have its challenges this season, starting with its grueling non-conference schedule. Then, once league play begins, the Highlanders will have to be up night-in, night-out to battle against teams that comprised the highest scoring conference in the nation last season. And with the ASUN being solid from top to bottom, there are no easy outs.

"This year has a lot of potential to be very special," Ukawuba said. "Everybody wants to play in the NCAA Tournament. Coming here as a freshman, we weren't even in a conference – seeing that we were working hard and didn't get a chance to make it to the tournament. Now it's in our hands and it's really on us. We try to preach that in the locker room. This is an opportunity that doesn't always come and we have a good enough team to make it there."

If all goes well, perhaps the literary inspiration for the 2016-17 season recap will come from Karen Kingsbury – author of the New York Times Best Seller, A Time to Dance.

TONIGHT'S OPPONENT: SARAH LAWRENCE

Coming off back-to-back, 20-win seasons and consecutive semifinal appearances in the CollegeInsider.com National Postseason Tournament (CIT), the Highlanders open the 2016-17 campaign on Friday night against Sarah Lawrence (NY) College at Fleisher Athletic Center. Opening tip is set for 7:45 p.m.

Friday's contest will mark the debut of head coach Brian Kennedy, who was introduced as the 11th head coach in program history on April 15, 2016. Kennedy had served as the top assistant under the departed Jim Engles for the past four seasons, during which time the Highlanders posted an impressive 70-56 record. The Monmouth University product also spent time as an assistant at DePaul University from 1997-2002. During his tenure with the Blue Demons, Kennedy helped guide the program back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000.

The Gryphons represent one of two non-Division I foes that NJIT will play this season, with a home tilt vs. Dean College slated for Dec. 22. The Highlanders are 18-0 all-time vs. Division III opponents and 24-0 vs. non-Division I foes with an average margin of victory of 36.75 points.

With five points on Friday night, senior guard Damon Lynn will set NJIT's Division I scoring record. Chris Flores ('13) holds the current record with 1,724 career points. Lynn is also just 309 points away from the all-time school record of 2,028 points held by Clarence Pierce ('96).

Next season, the Highlanders will open a state-of-the-art $102 M facility – the Wellness and Events Center – which will feature a 3,500-seat basketball arena. In the meantime, they will look to continue their dominance at Fleisher Athletic Center, where NJIT has won six of its last seven home games dating back to last season. In fact, the Highlanders sport a 75-31 (.708) home record since the start of the 2009-10 season, including a program-best 15-2 mark in 2014-15.

With a win on Friday, the Highlanders will earn their first victory in an opener since the school's Division I debut -- a 56-55 victory over Manhattan on Nov. 11, 2006. Last season, the Highlanders fell to No. 2 Kentucky, 87-57, at Rupp Arena to start the season.

The game will be shown live on ESPN3 (all remaining NJIT home basketball games will be live on ESPN3). Matt Provence, voice of the Highlanders, is on play-by-play with expert analysis from Dave Calloway.

ALL-TIME SERIES

This is NJIT's second all-time meeting with Sarah Lawrence College. On February 28, 2015, the Highlanders picked up a 90-55 victory over the Gryphons at Fleisher Athletic Center. In fact, that game marked the first time in school history that Sarah Lawrence had played a Division I program.

HOOKED ON GRYPHON-ICS

Sarah Lawrence is a Division III member and competes in the Skyline Conference, which is comprised of 11 full-time members and five part-time members in the New York City area.

The Gryphons are coming off a 5-20 season in 2015-16, but return their top five and six of the top seven scorers from that squad. Graham Gilleran and Stevan Radosavljevic led the way for the team offensively last season averaging 11.4 ppg and 11.0 ppg, respectively.

Gilleran, the 2014 Newcomer of the Year, topped the Gryphons with 14 points in the only previous meeting against NJIT.

The team has some international flavor, as the roster has representation from Hong Kong (Justice Nikkel), Japan (Eamon Collins) and Serbia (Radosavljevic).

Sarah Lawrence is piloted by head coach Chris Ehmers who also serves as the Assistant Director of Athletics. Ehmers enters his sixth season at the helm of the Gryphons and is the winningest coach in program history. In 2013-14, he led the team to double-digit wins (10) for the first time ever.

NJIT OUTLOOK

The Highlanders return their top two scorers as well as five of their top eight point leaders from a team that posted a 20-win season and finished tied for second in their inaugural year in the ASUN Conference.

Lynn (18.3 ppg) and Tim Coleman (13.8 ppg) paced the team offensively a year ago and both return for their senior seasons. Coleman also led the squad in rebounding with 7.5 boards per game.

In 2015-16, NJIT knocked down 35.4% of their three-pointers and bring back the top three players in terms of triples made: Lynn (116), Chris Jenkins (57) and Coleman (47).

Friday also marks the NJIT debut of Newark native Abdul Lewis who sat out last season per NCAA rules after transferring from the University of South Alabama.

- 1989-90: Team captain as a senior point guard for the Monmouth Hawks (NEC)

PLAYER SUCCESS:

- Recruited/coached two AP All-America honorable mention honorees at NJIT: Chris Flores ('12-13) and Damon Lynn ('14-15)
- Recruited/coached future NBA players while at DePaul: Andre Brown, Steven Hunter, Paul McPherson, Quentin Richardson and Bobby Simmons.

Brian Kennedy, who has been an assistant men's basketball coach at NJIT since August 2012, will be introduced as the 11th head men's basketball coach in program history on a Friday, April 15 press conference.

Coach Kennedy, whose involvement with the sport of basketball literally covers his entire life, is the son of the late Bob Kennedy, a former college and high school coach and the nephew of Pat Kennedy, who was a Division I head coach for 31 years at Iona, Florida State, DePaul, Montana, and Towson.

The Kennedy family business, the Hoop Group, began in the Trenton, NJ, CYO in 1963 with summer basketball camps and moved in 1969 to Cherry Valley, PA, and the Pocono Invitational began.

In 1991, the Hoop Group acquired the Eastern Invitational camp and renamed it the Hoop Group Elite Camp. A few years later, the Hoop Group began running grassroots tournaments and the subsequent years have seen numerous alumni go on to play in the NBA, including Kobe Bryant, Amar'e Stoudemire 2010 #1 overall pick John Wall, 2011 #1 pick Kyrie Irving and 13 other first-round picks that year.

Numerous legendary coaches have lectured at the camp, including the late Jim Valvano and Hall of Famers Lou Carnesecca, Rollie Massimino, Hoop Group Skills Camp Director Bob Hurley, Bob Knight, and Herb Magee.

Brian Kennedy, who played at both Princeton and Monmouth (1990 graduate), took over the family business after graduating from Monmouth in 1990 and was President and co-founder when it was rebranded from the Pocono Invitational to the Hoop Group and became the largest basketball instructional organization in the world.

He entered the college coaching ranks in 1997 as an assistant coach at DePaul on the staff headed by his uncle Pat. There, he was part of one of major college basketball's great turnarounds, as the Blue Demons, who won fewer than five games the year before he arrived, made the National Invitation Tournament quarterfinals in 1999 and then the NCAA Tournament in 2000 as a team ranked in the national Top 25.

"BK" as he is known to his many friends, was involved in all aspects of the DePaul program and was a leader in efforts that brought in a group named as the nation's top recruiting class in 1998 by The Sporting News.

Among the players he helped bring to DePaul five future NBA players: Quentin Richardson, Bobby Simmons, Steven Hunter, Paul McPherson, and Andre Brown.

He stepped aside from coaching from 2002 through 2009, when he worked on Wall Street in the financial sector.

He returned to the Hoop Group as Athletic Director, serving in that capacity from 2009 until 2012, when he joined the staff at NJIT.

In his first year as an assistant, the Highlanders captured their first Division I league title when they were regular season champions of the old Great West Conference.

As with DePaul in his first turn as a college coach, Kennedy spearheaded the recruiting efforts for NJIT and he faced a major task in his first recruiting year, with all three double-figure scorers from the 2012-13 Great West champions graduating in May 2013.

* Team Captain

The story is not yet fully written, but that first recruiting class (Class of 2017) and subsequent incoming players have been vital to Highlander men's basketball reaching unprecedented success.

The extremely inexperienced 2013-14 team finished 13-16, but the two teams since have won a combined 41 games (21 in 2014-15 and 20 in 2015-16), while advancing to the semifinals of the national postseason CollegeInsider.com Tournament after both seasons.

In addition, the Highlanders won their first-ever game over a ranked opponent when they upset #17/#16 Michigan in December 2014 and they scored their first-ever win over a team from the BIG EAST Conference when they topped St. John's in December 2015.

Two members of that first recruiting class have already put their names all over the NJIT record books. Damon Lynn, picked second-team all-state (all groups) by the Star-Ledger as a senior at Union Catholic High School, came on board and has started every game the Highlanders have played in his three seasons. Lynn has amassed 1,720 points in three seasons, including a school-record 349 career 3-point baskets.

Tim Coleman came in the same class, entering NJIT after graduating from St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, NJ, where he played for Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame coach Bob Hurley. At St. Anthony, Coleman was a contributor on teams that won New Jersey state Tournament of Champions crowns following his sophomore and junior seasons. In all, the Friars were 93-2 in Coleman's last 95 career games.

Coleman has grown as a college player, compiling 1,053 points and 548 rebounds through his first three seasons with NJIT.

Rob Ukawuba, a third-team all-state (all groups) pick in the same class, has been a vital contributor as the team's sixth man the last two seasons, posting an 8.2 points per game scoring average this season.

NJIT HIGHLANDERS ASSISTANT COACHES

JEFF RAFFERTY

SPRINGFIELD '97 | 1ST SEASON AT NJIT

Jeff Rafferty joined the NJIT staff after serving nine years at the University of Delaware -- where he earned the title of Associate Head Coach for the 2013-14 season... The 1997 graduate of Springfield College enjoyed one of his highlight seasons in 2013-14, when the Blue Hens finished 25-10, tying for the second-most wins in program history, and made the 2014 NCAA Tournament as the #13 seed in the East Regional...Rafferty's work in helping to build the UD program was recognized by FOXSports.com as one of the Top 10 Mid-Major Assistant Coaches in the country in 2008 and by RecruitDirt.com as the top assistant coach in the CAA in 2012... Prior, he was an assistant coach at the University of New Hampshire and for four years as the top assistant at UMass Lowell (then Division II). In his time at UML, the River Hawks were a combined 94-30 and made back-to-back trips to the D-II national Elite Eight in 2003 and 2004... He coached in NCAA Division III at Union College (2000-01) and at his alma mater, Springfield, which was a combined 40-17 and reached the Division III Sweet Sixteen in his second season on staff. He began his coaching career with an internship with the NBA's Boston Celtics and coached in 1997-98 at one-time NJIT opponent Texas Pan American.

KEVIN DRISCOLL

MISERICORDIA '04 | 1ST SEASON AT NJIT

Kevin Driscoll joined NJIT after serving as an assistant at Holy Cross, which won the 2015-16 Patriot League championship tournament by winning four straight road games to advance to the NCAA Tournament. Once in the NAAs, Holy Cross defeated Southern University in a "First Four" game for the program's first NCAA Tournament win since 1953. A 2004 graduate of Misericordia (PA) University, Driscoll also had a hand in the Crusaders' run to the 2014 CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) -- where they defeated Brown for their first national postseason since 2004-05... Prior to joining the Holy Cross staff, Driscoll was director of the Hoop Group Elite/Eastern Invitational and Skills/Pocono Invitational for four years, managing all aspects of the world's largest basketball camps... The Hamburg, Pa., native also served as an assistant coach at Albright (PA) College for three seasons (2006-09), where he helped lead the Lions to a combined 44-32 record... He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management and was a four-year letter winner on the Misericordia Cougars, who he helped to two postseason ECAC Division III Tournament appearances. He is among the Misericordia career leaders with a field goal percentage over 55 percent.

KIM WAITERS

ROBERT MORRIS '11 | 2ND SEASON AT NJIT

Kim Waiters enters his second season in his first full-time college coaching position after joining NJIT as an assistant in July 2015... In his two seasons in Newark, the Highlanders have gone 41-27 with back-to-back appearances in the semifinals of the CIT... Waiters got involved with coaching when he was an undergraduate at Robert Morris (PA) University, working as a student assistant... After graduating in 2011 with a bachelor's of Business Management, Waiters became the Director of Skills Camps at the Pocono Invitational, a prestigious overnight camp that began operation in 1963... From the Pocono Invitational, Waiters headed to The Hoop Group, the largest basketball instruction organization in the world. He directed 10 Premier Grassroots AAU team tournaments and 16 high school events featuring premier teams from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Maryland. "Kim is an outstanding person who has the potential to be one of the top young basketball coaches in the country," said former NJIT Head Coach Jim Engles. "He is a tremendous addition to our coaching staff, a tireless recruiter, terrific relationship builder and someone who believes in the values that align with both the NJIT community and our men's basketball program."

ANDREW MCGLYNN

TOWSON '12 | 2ND SEASON AT NJIT

Andrew McGlynn enters his second season on the NJIT staff after working as a Video Coordinator at La Salle University in 2014-15... In his two seasons in Newark, the Highlanders have gone 41-27 with back-to-back appearances in the semifinals of the CIT... McGlynn entered college coaching as a graduate assistant for the University of Detroit Mercy men's basketball program, managing video operations and assisting with opponent scouting. In 2013, Detroit Mercy clinched an NIT berth, McGlynn's first season on staff... He was head student manager for the Towson men's basketball program for four seasons and graduated in 2012 with a bachelor's in Sport Management and received his MBA in Business Administration from Detroit Mercy in 2014... Beginning in June 2011, when he was an intern, McGlynn worked for The Hoop Group, the largest basketball instruction organization in the world. "We are extremely excited to have Andrew join our staff," said former NJIT head coach Jim Engles, who hired McGlynn. "He brings a wealth of experience from working on the staffs of Detroit and La Salle. He is a true professional in every sense of the word and will definitely help us elevate our program as we make the jump to the Atlantic Sun Conference."

NJIT WELLNESS AND EVENTS CENTER... OPENING 2017

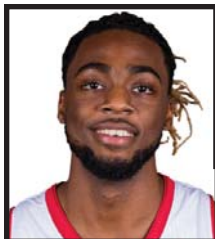

NJIT hosted a groundbreaking ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 12, 2015, for the Wellness and Events Center (WEC), a sleek new building that has the promise to become the social centerpiece of a revamped campus.

The Wellness and Events Center, already nicknamed WEC, is a $102 M building that will be constructed on the site of the current Lubetkin Field at Mal Simon Stadium athletic field. WEC will extend across the length of the field, which will later be rebuilt on the north side of the building. The construction of WEC, to begin after the groundbreaking, will be finished in the Fall of 2017.

As the name implies, WEC is a multi-purpose building. The 200,000-square-foot building will be in equal parts a fitness center, a study space, a gathering spot and a sports arena that will double as a conference and events center. WEC will offer students a place to relax and stay fit; athletes a place to practice and play games; and the university a place to host on-campus events and conferences.

WEC's amenities include: (1) an arena with a 3,500 capacity, (2) a 25-meter pool with diving area, (3) a fitness center with cardio equipment and weights, (4) lounges, study areas and multipurpose rooms, (5) an indoor 10,000 square feet turf space, (6) two practice courts for intramural and intercollegiate sports, (7) a running track that will encircle the concourse of the first-floor arena.

WEC is a major part of a $300 million building plan to overhaul the campus. Other parts of the plan include the Central King Building, whose classrooms and labs are state of the art; the Life Sciences and Engineering Building; a new parking deck, located behind NJIT's Enterprise Development Center on Warren Street; and the renovation of classrooms and labs all over campus. The renovation plan reflects the university's evolution from a commuter school to a nationally-ranked research university. Indeed, NJIT's growing reputation has prompted a surge in enrollment that totals more than 11,000 students.

“Taj is a Newark product who played his HS basketball under Coaches Tavares, Garvin and Hawkins at East Side. He is a tireless worker who has a very high basketball ceiling and I believe he is just scratching the surface with his abilities. Taj will be called upon to give us immediate support “up front” as he improves his perimeter skills. His Post Grad year playing for the famed Roadrunners AAU team run by Coach Sandy Pinyin and at The Phelps School under Coach Brian Shanahan really helped to prepare him for the rigors he will face this year.”

A forward from Newark's East Side High School, Taj Price, joins sophomore transfer Abdul Lewis on the Highlander squad after the pair guided East Side to the 2014 NJSIAA North 2 Group 3 State title, defeating Summit, 54-25. East Side, ranked second in the state in 2014, posted a 30-2 overall record. ...Price averaged 9.4ppg and 4.9rpg during his senior campaign and attended The Phelps School, a prep school, in Pennsylvania, during the 2015-16 season...

HIGH SCHOOL:

Coleman, a resident of Union, NJ, is a graduate of St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, where he was coached by Bob Hurley, a 2010 inductee into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame... Played on Friar teams that won the NJSIAA State Tournament of Champions following his sophomore and junior years and he entered his final high school game (a defeat in the Non-Public 'B' final) having been on the winning side in 93 of the prior 94 games... As a senior, Coleman averaged 8 ppg and 5 rpg. One of his memorable efforts came in the New Jersey Non-Public 'B' North title game vs. fellow Jersey City power, Hudson Catholic, which entered the tilt with one loss. St. Anthony, ranked 1st in the state at the time, would defeat 2nd-ranked Hudson decisively, 57-42... Against a Hudson Catholic front line led by Top 75 national recruit Reggie Cameron, a 6'8" power forward now at Georgetown, Coleman came up big. On that night, the 6-5 Coleman matched Cameron in points (12) and rebounds (10) and also posted a game-best four blocked shots... Coleman grabbed nine rebounds in a regular season tilt against nationally-ranked St. Benedict's Prep of Newark...

"Shyquan is a coach's dream. He is a Valedictorian in the classroom and a State Champion on the court. His apprenticeship under his father Shelton (former St. Peter's college great and current Snyder HS Head Coach) and Hall of Fame Coach Bob Hurley have Shy more than prepared for great success as a Highlander."

Shyquan Gibbs a graduate of St. Anthony's High School in Jersey City, where he was coached by Bob Hurley, a 2010 inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, will be the third St. Anthony alumnus on the Highlander roster, which features senior Tim Coleman and sophomore Mohamed Bendary. ...Gibbs, ranked among the top 25 New Jersey players in the Class of 2016 by NJHoops.com, led the Friars (26-0) to be ranked No.1 Boys High School basketball team in New Jersey and fourth-best in the nation, according to USA Today. ...as a junior, Gibbs helped the Friars to a 28-2 record and sixth consecutive NJSIAA Non-Public, North B Championship. ...Gibbs played for the Jersey City Boys Club on the AAU circuit.

Shyquan Wanya Gibbs. ... son of Shelton and Elyse Gibbs. ...Gibbs, who intends to major in business at NJIT, was named St. Anthony High School Valedictorian, News12 co-Scholar-Athlete of the Week (November 15, 2015) and recipient of the Investors Bank Academic Excellence Award.

"Anthony is a tremendous athlete who should have an immediate impact in the ASUN. His versatility on the court should prove invaluable as the season progresses and he becomes adjusted to the college game. The experience he gained playing for Coach Ian Turnbull at Coastal Academy combined with his experience under the tutelage of Arty Jones are invaluable as he begins his career in Brick City."

"Ron has grown 2/3 inches since HS and enters NJIT as a 6'7 Guard. He can play multiple positions and will give us great flexibility in his first year. Ron is a ferocious competitor and one of the better passers I have seen in quite some time. He played in one of the top Prep School leagues in the country under Coach Danny Manuel at the Miller School in Charlottesville, VA and with Coach Ron Gadson and the VA Elite program."

Ron Alston, a forward from Virginia, was selected first-team all-Virginia Independent Conference (VIC) Division I as a senior at Miller School in Charlottesville, Virginia. Alston ranked #42 in the state of Virginia in the Class of 2016, finishing his senior campaign with 10.8ppg, 7.1rpg and 4.0apg. ...he earned VIC Division I second-team honors in 2014-15, averaging 12.9ppg, 5.7rpg and 2.6apg. ..Alston, who played for the Virginia Elite AAU team.

Ronald Carlton Alston... son of Lisa Barnes... intends to major in business at NJIT.

HIGH SCHOOL:

Versatile swingman was one of New Jersey's top players as a senior at East Brunswick High School and is known for his toughness and athleticism... Ukawuba averaged 16.6 points, 6.8 rebounds, and 2.9 steals a game for East Brunswick, which posted a 26-4 record in 2012-13... Had nine games with 20 or more points and reached double-figure scoring in 29 of the 30 games... Had seven double-figure rebound games... Ukawuba reaped numerous honors for leading veteran coach Bo Henning's East Brunswick's Central Jersey Group 4 champions. The Star-Ledger of Newark named Rob third-team All-State for all groups, making him one of New Jersey's top 15 high school players in the eyes of the state's largest newspaper. In addition, The Star-Ledger also named him first-team All-State in Group 4 (largest public schools); second-team All-State among senior players; and first-team All-Middlesex County. His local daily paper, the Home News Tribune, which is part of MyCentralJersey.com, selected Ukawuba for its All-Area first team. ...Born in New Brunswick, NJ, to parents who immigrated to the United States from Nigeria before he was born, Rob is a chiseled 6-foot-3, 210 pounder who followed his older brother into basketball. He spent the early part of his high school career playing around the basket, but has expanded his game to hone his perimeter skills and he made 25 3-point baskets as a senior, while also notching 66 assists. ...To get a sense of Ukawuba's pure athletic ability, as a senior he told a newspaper interviewer he "might try" track and field in the spring. He did just that in the spring and posted a high jump of 6'0" in the Greater Middlesex Conference Relays. That jump in high school, with limited competitive experience, would have been good for a Top Nine finish in the 2013 championships for local Division I college conference.
