HIGHLIGHTS:

⊗ This is NJIT's third meeting with Colgate, and the all-time series is tied, 1-1. The Highlanders won the most recent matchup, 77-58, in Hamilton on Feb. 6, 2013. The Raiders won the only previous meeting in Newark, 76-73, on Feb. 1, 2012, at Fleisher Athletic Center.

⊗ All-time, NJIT is 10-23 against Patriot League foes -- including an 84-83 OT loss at Lafayette on Thursday in Easton, Pa. The Highlanders finished 4-0 against the PL last season -- including postseason wins against Boston and Army in the 2016 CIT.

⊗ NJIT has started 1-0 at home. Since the 2014-15 season, the Highlanders are 28-8 in Newark.

⊗ With a win today, NJIT will start 2-2 -- which will mark the seventh time in 11 seasons as a Division-I member that the Highlanders have started 2-2 or better (started 3-1 in 2015-16).

⊗ With a win today, NJIT will snap a string of back-to-back defeats. The Highlanders only lost three straight games once last season -- from Jan. 6-14 (at Yale, vs. USC Upstate, at FGCU).

⊗ Following today's game, NJIT next heads to Mexico for a pair of contests Tuesday and Wednesday as part of the Cancun Challenge, which started with a 93-84 loss at Utah State on Monday.

⊗ Last season, the ASUN was the highest-scoring conference in D-I. Through the first week of the season, NJIT ranks second in the ASUN in scoring at 89.0 ppg, trailing only Stetson (90.7) and Lipscomb (90.0)... Senior Damon Lynn leads the conference in scoring at 24.0 ppg.

⊗ Monday, Damon Lynn tied his own NJIT D-I single-game record with 34 points at Utah State (at NC A&T, Jan. 18, 2014)... In the opener, he became NJIT's D-I career scoring leader (1,792).

Points needed by Damon Lynn to become NJIT's all-time leading scorer and pass Clearance Pierce '96 (2,028 in D-III).

LOOKING TO REBOUND:

Currently, NJIT leads the ASUN in rebounding (45.0 rpg; 33rd in NCAA) and rebounding margin (+8.0) -- which is a marked improvement from last season, when the Highlanders finished sixth at 34.7 rpg.

- Sophomore Abdul Lewis holds a 2016-17 single-game high of 12 rebounds (2x: 11/11 vs. SLC & 11/17 at LC) and ranks second in the ASUN at 9.3 ppg.
- Freshman Anthony Tarke ranks fifth in the ASUN at 7.7 rpg and third in offensive rpg at 3.7.

FAB FOUR:

NJIT had its highest recruiting class on paper this season with freshmen Ron Alston, Shyquann Gibbs, Taj Price and Anthony Tarke -- and they didn't disappoint in their career debuts on 11/11 vs. Sarah Lawrence. The four combined for 34 of NJIT's 100 (34%) points as well as 25 of its 62 (40%) of its rebounds.

- Tarke became the first Highlander ever to record a double-double in his NCAA debut (13 pts, 10 reb). He also became just the fifth freshman to record the feat; first since Tim Coleman, Feb. 12, 2014.
- Alston and Price both finished with nine points and seven rebounds, apiece.

HOME GROWN:

Entering the season, NJIT has the most localized roster in all of college basketball. As researched by Jake Sharpless of Rukkus. The average player comes from just 39 miles from hometown to school.

NJIT's roster features nine New Jersey natives, including three from here in Newark (Abdul Lewis, James McMillon, Taj Price), three from Hillside (Shyquan Gibbs, Chris Jenkins, Damon Lynn) one from East Brunswick (Rob Ukawuba), one from Jersey City (Mohamed Bendary) and one from Union (Tim Coleman). Last season, NJIT received 64% of its scoring from New Jersey natives. In fact, 97% of NJIT returning points in 2016-17 are from products of the Garden State.

Interestingly, the second-most localized roster for 2016-17 belongs to reigning national champ Villanova (128 miles) and the least localized is Hawaii (4,031).

Here are the ranks for the other ASUN programs: Lipscomb (#7, 162 mi), North Florida (#114, 590 mi), Jacksonville (#130, 663 mi), Florida Gulf Coast (#138, 689 mi), Stetson (#236, 1113 mi), Kennesaw (#292, 1545) and USC Upstate (#329, 1948 mi).

Y'ALL COME BACK NOW, HEAR?!

The Highlanders return eight players from last season's 20-win team -- and that doesn't include F Abdul Lewis, who sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules (South Alabama). Even though NJIT lost four key players (PG Ky Howard, G Winfield Willis, F Emmanuel Tselentakis, F Terrence Smith) from their 2016 CIT semifinalist squad, the Highlanders still return:

- 67% of their scoring (including 83% of their three-point field goals made) from last season
- 54% of their rebounding from last season
- 60% of their minutes played from last season

THE KENNEDY ADMINISTRATION:

After four seasons as a top assistant at NJIT, head coach Brian Kennedy begins his first season at the helm of the program. The 47-year-old was introduced as the 11th head coach in program history on April 15, 2016, after four seasons as the top assistant under the Jim Engles -- who was hired as head coach at Columbia eight days after the Lions defeated the Highlanders in the semifinals of the 2016 CIT. Since joining the program, "BK" has helped guide the Highlanders to a combined 70-56 record and both back-to-back, 20-win seasons as well as back-to-back appearances in the CIT semifinals.

A talented recruiter, Kennedy was extremely instrumental in luring some of the Highlanders most talented all-time performers -- such as Tim Coleman, Damon Lynn and Rob Ukawuba -- to Newark. That reputation has continued with the new 2020 class, which -- on paper -- is the highest rated recruiting class in program history with Ron Alston, Shyquann Gibbs, Taj Price and Anthony Tarke.

The Monmouth University product also spent time as an assistant at DePaul University from 1997-2002, where he helped guide the Blue Demons back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000.

Kennedy has two first-year assistants this season: Jeff Rafferty, who spent the past nine seasons as an assistant at University of Delaware; and Kevin Driscoll, who was an assistant the past three seasons at Holy Cross. Rafferty and Driscoll join second-year coaches Kim Waiters and Andrew McGlynn.

THREE-LANDERS:

NJIT currently ranks second in the ASUN in three-pointers made (28) behind only Lipscomb (30). Last season, the Highlanders drained a program-record 306 three-pointers -- a total that ranked 27th in the nation and shattered the previous mark of 279 from 2014-15. NJIT also ranked 40th in nation in three-pointers made per game (8.7). The team returns 83% of its treys from 2015-16.

- Senior Damon Lynn, who leads all active D-I players in 3FGM (359), led the ASUN in both 3FGM (116) and 3FGM/G (3.3) last season.
- Senior Tim Coleman finished last season with a .412 3FG% -- which ranked 5th in the ASUN.
- Junior Chris Jenkins finished 8th in the ASUN in 3FG% (.399) and 9th in 3FGM/G (2.0) in his first season playing with the Highlanders.

LYNN-SANITY:

Senior Damon Lynn leads the ASUN in scoring at 24.0 ppg, three-pointers made (15), three-pointers per game (5.0) and free-throw percentage (1.000; 13-for-13).

In the opener, Lynn shattered NJIT's D-I career scoring record (1,734, Chris Flores '13) and now has 1,792 points. The co-captain entered the season as the NCAA active D-I leader in three-point field goals made (349) while ranking fourth in points (1,720) and ninth in scoring average (17.7 ppg).

Lynn followed the performance in Game 2 by tying his own NJIT D-I single-game record by scoring 34 points at Utah State, initially set as a freshman 1/18/14 at North Carolina A&T (breaking the mark of 31, set by Winfield Willis on 12/12/13).

Last season, Lynn set the NJIT single-season scoring record with 642 points -- breaking his own mark of 578 set in 2014-15. His average of 18.3 ppg also represented a new program season-high and ranked fifth in the nation's highest scoring conference. The Hillside, N.J., native also led the ASUN and placed fifth in D-I in three-pointers made (116) while listing second in the conference and 34th in the nation in total points (642).

Prior to Lynn, no Highlander had ever registered back-to-back, 500-point seasons -- a scoring plateau he has now reached in all three of his campaigns (500, 578, 642). Going back to 2014-15, he has scored in double figures in 48 of his last 50 games. In his career, he's scored 20+ points in 43 of his 100 games and 30+ in six affairs.

- Lynn had a remarkable streak of 72 straight games with at least one 3FGM snapped by UNF on Jan. 24, 2016. Still, in his 100-game NCAA career, he has only had three games without a trey.

- An Iron Man on the court, Lynn has started all of NJIT's 100 games during his career, while playing an amazing 90% of all possible minutes (3,611 of 4,025).

- In addition to a unanimous preseason All-ASUN pick, the 2015-16 ASUN First-Team selection has been named to the 2017 Lou Henson Watch List as well as being tabbed as both a Top 100 Player in College Basketball for 2016-17 and a Non-Power Five Guard Who Will Be Household Name in 2016-17 by College Court Report.

TIM OF ALL TRADES

Senior G/F Tim Coleman a first-time selection to an ASUN All-Conference Team, is coming off an historical campaign in which he set NJIT's D-I single-season record for rebounds (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., also became the sixth member of NJIT's D-I 1,000-point club (1,065) and the third Highlander to reach 500 career rebounds (551).

One of the most versatile players in the conference, Coleman finished 2015-16 ranked third in the ASUN in both steals per game (1.5) and double-doubles (7), fourth in rebounds per game (7.5), fifth in blocks per game (0.9) and three-point FG percentage (.412) and 11th in points per game (13.8). In D-I ranks, Coleman placed 54th in the nation in defensive rebounds per game (6.3).

- Coleman is now 54 rebounds away from becoming NJIT's D-I all-time career rebounding leader.

TARKE ATTACK!:

G/F Anthony Tarke started his career by becoming the first freshman to record a double-double in his NCAA debut with 13 points, 10 rebounds on 11/11/16 vs. Sarah Lawrence. He followed up with 7-4-1 line at Utah State.

- He currently ranks fifth in the ASUN in rebounding (7.7 rpg) and third in offensive rebounding at (3.7 o-rpg).

2016-17 NJIT MEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON PREVIEW

If the Highlanders had to commission an author to pen the story of their 2015-16 season, perhaps Ernest Hemingway would've been the appropriate choice. The NJIT men's basketball team proved that the Sun Also Rises in Newark – as the Highlanders finished in a tie for second place their first year in the ASUN Conference. In addition, they reached 20 wins for a second straight season and advanced to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com National Postseason Tournament (CIT) for the second consecutive year.

But then, there was A Farewell to Arms.

Gone are starters Ky Howard, Terence Smith, Manny Tselentakis and Winfield Willis along with eight-year head coach Jim Engles.

That said, the Highlanders return a key corps of returnees – including a pair of pre-season ASUN All-Conference selections in Tim Coleman and Damon Lynn.

Then, there is the man For Whom the Bell Tolls. After four years serving as top assistant, Brian Kennedy was named NJIT men's basketball head coach in April. This upcoming season will mark the first career head coach post for "BK," who has spent nine seasons as an assistant coach including his prior tenure at DePaul University (1997-02).

On the floor, the Highlanders return seven lettermen and two starters. In addition, they bring back 67-percent of their scoring (including 83-percent of their three-point field goals), 54-percent of their rebounding and 60-percent of their minutes played from a season ago.

So how will this new chapter go?

"We have a big challenge ahead of us with our schedule. It's the toughest schedule we've ever had here at NJIT," said Kennedy, who helped guide the Blue Demons back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000. "But we return a great nucleus of kids and have a talented group of newcomers. Our freshmen excite me with their talent and enthusiasm, but still have a ways to go to be ready for a D-I basketball game."

Lynn, a senior co-captain, has been pleased with what he has seen during the preseason both in his teammates and the new leader.

"The team is doing pretty well. We have a lot of high hopes being that we have three senior captains and a freshman class that is so talented," said Lynn, who finished last season as an ASUN First-Team All-Conference selection. "And coach has instilled a lot of confidence in us."

Last season, NJIT entered the league predicted to finish third by the ASUN Coaches Poll and fourth by the ASUN Media Poll. The Highlanders wound up earning the 2-seed in the conference tournament. This season, they are projected for third place in both polls.

So with Hemingway unavailable, what will it take now to author a happy ending?

"This year, when we 'bring it in on three,' we say 'finish,'" Lynn said. "Now we have to finish our story. We've created a story from going from an independent, to winning 21 games, to [reaching 20 wins] two years in a row, to joining a conference and then finishing second. So now we have to finish our story and write it off well."

BACKCOURT

No doubt, one of the more difficult adjustments facing the Highlanders will be playing without four-year star Ky Howard – who ran the point for the past three seasons. Howard, a tremendous all-around player, not only set the school's single-season assist record (154) last season, but left NJIT as the all-time assist leader (416). He is also just one of three Highlanders all-time to post at least 1,000 points and 500 rebounds in a D-I career.

Lynn, who finished fifth in the ASUN in scoring (18.3 points per game) and ranked ninth in the ASUN with 3.3 assist per game, figures to handle the point a significant amount this season.

But this role is not all that unfamiliar to Lynn. During NJIT's 21-win campaign in 2014-15, the Hillside, N.J., native handled a bulk of the point guard responsibilities for 10 games after Howard went down with an ankle injury in January. During that time, NJIT went 8-2 and Lynn averaged 18.2 ppg and 5.3 apg. In fact, after a two-game adjustment period, he averaged 22.0 ppg and 5.8 apg over the final eight contests of the span.

Lynn enters the season as the NCAA active D-I leader in three-point field goals made (349) and ranks fourth in points (1,720). In fact, he is just five points away from shattering the program's all-time scoring record of 1,724 (Chris Flores '13).

"Damon is going to be called upon to have the ball in his hands more. I don't want to take away from his scoring, as he's going to leave here as the school's all-time leading scorer," Kennedy said. "But Damon is really ready to take that next step up in his level of play where he can get everyone involved but also score, as well. He's evolved in his game and he's got a lot of players around him to help."

One of those players is 6'1" freshman point guard Shyquan Gibbs, a graduate of St. Anthony's H.S. in Jersey City who helped lead the Friars to a 26-0 record last season.

"Shyquan is a coach's dream," Kennedy said. "He is a valedictorian in the classroom and a state champion on the court."

In addition, the NJIT point guard situation got bolstered with the late signing of Donovan Greer, a sophomore who transferred from San Jacinto (TX) C.C. There, the 6'3" Houston native helped his Region XIV runner-up team to a 20-10 record.

The Highlanders should be able to find plenty of backcourt points from the wing, as they return two talented long-distance shooters in junior Chris Jenkins and senior Osa Izevbuwa.

Jenkins, referred to by his coach as a "high-major shooter," came on strong in December. In his first season at NJIT, the Hillside, N.J., finished the year ranked eighth in the ASUN in three-point FG percentage (.399) and ninth in three-point FG per game (2.0).

FRONTCOURT

The Highlanders frontcourt figures to be the strongest it's ever been. And it all starts with preseason ASUN All-Conference selection, Tim Coleman.

Last year, the senior co-captain enjoyed an historical campaign in which he set NJIT's single-season record for rebounds (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., became just the third Highlander all-time to reach both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds.

One of the most versatile players in the conference, Coleman finished 2015-16 ranked third in the ASUN in steals per game (1.5), fourth in rebounds per game (7.5), fifth in blocks per game (0.9) and three-point FG percentage (.412) and 11th in points per game (13.8).

"Tim's had a great offseason," Kennedy said. "The game is slowing down for him a lot. He's seeing how he can be a mismatch nightmare for opponents. Now he's learning to let the game come to him and seeing where he can take advantage of things."

With Coleman sliding from the '4' to the '3,' this season, senior co-captain Rob Ukawuba figures to move into the starting lineup.

A player Lynn referred to as a "freak of nature and very athletic," the undersized power forward (6'4") has used his strength and his motor to become a valuable "sixth man" over the past two seasons. Last year, Ukawuba finished with the fourth-highest scoring average (8.2 ppg) in the ASUN among reserves (players with fewer than 10 starts).

"I try to embrace [the role]," said Ukawuba. "I try to see where I have my advantage. If it's a bigger guy, then maybe I can be faster. Sometimes bigger guys are tall and lanky, so maybe I'm stronger than them or maybe more athletic."

Perhaps the biggest addition to the group is a guy who is just that – the biggest on the team. After sitting out a year following a transfer from University of South Alabama, Newark native Abdul Lewis is expected to round out the starting five.

The redshirt sophomore measures 6'10" and brings a wealth of athleticism to the court. As a freshman in 2014-15, Lewis averaged 7.0 ppg and an impressive 6.7 rpg – a mark that led the Jaguars and ranked seventh in the Sun Belt Conference.

"We are very happy and excited to have him. He brings us an added dimension to score in the low post," said Kennedy about Lewis, who logged nine points and 10 rebounds against NJIT on Jan. 25, 2015, in Mobile. "He's really been locked in this preseason and he's working diligently preparing for the upcoming year."

Kennedy also expects significant contributions from sophomore Mohamed Bendary. As a freshman last season, the 6'9" product of St. Anthony's led the Highlanders in blocks in seven games, in rebounds three times and in scoring twice.

NEWCOMERS

Gibbs is not the only freshman who figures to play a significant role this season. NJIT has exciting prospects in Ron Alston (6'6"), Taj Price (6'7") and Anthony Tarke (6'6"). On paper, it's the highest rated recruiting class NJIT has ever had.

Tarke, a 2015 graduate of Gaithersburg (MD) H.S. who attended Coastal Academy US (NJ) for the 2015-16 season, has a chance to see significant minutes early in the season.

"Anthony is a tremendous athlete who should have an immediate impact in the ASUN," Kennedy said. "His versatility on the court should prove invaluable as the season progresses and he becomes adjusted to the college game."

OUTLOOK

The Highlanders are optimistic about their chances to continue the amazing upward progression of the program – which sports a 36-18 (.667) record since Dec. 30, 2014. During that time, NJIT has earned its first win against a Top-25 team (Michigan) and a BIG EAST rival (St. John's); has posted its first two 20-win seasons and reached its first two national postseason tournaments; has joined an automatic qualifying (AQ) conference and has a new arena under construction for the 2017-18 season.

NJIT will indeed have its challenges this season, starting with its grueling non-conference schedule. Then, once league play begins, the Highlanders will have to be up night-in, night-out to battle against teams that comprised the highest scoring conference in the nation last season. And with the ASUN being solid from top to bottom, there are no easy outs.

Of course, there's arguably no program in the nation more adept at overcoming obstacles than NJIT.

"This year has a lot of potential to be very special," Ukawuba said. "Everybody wants to play in the NCAA Tournament. Coming here as a freshman, we weren't even in a conference – seeing that we were working hard and didn't get a chance to make it to the tournament. Now it's in our hands and it's really on us. We try to preach that in the locker room. This is an opportunity that doesn't always come and we have a good enough team to make it there."

If all goes well, perhaps the literary inspiration for the 2016-17 season recap will come from Karen Kingsbury – author of the New York Times Best Seller, A Time to Dance.

TONIGHT'S OPPONENT: COLGATE U.

NJIT (1-2) will look to snap their two-game skid when they return home to host the Colgate Raiders (1-1) of the Patriot League on Saturday afternoon. Opening tip from Fleisher Athletic Center is slated for 4 p.m.

The Highlanders dropped an 84-83 overtime heart-breaker at Lafayette on Thursday, while Colgate picked up a 67-63 win at Cornell last time out.

The game will be shown live on ESPN3 (all remaining NJIT home basketball games can be seen on ESPN3).

A simple way to find ESPN3 is on NJIT's official athletics website, www.njithighlanders.com. Near the middle of the home page NJIT TV section, click Upcoming Events for a list of scheduled NJIT contests. After finding the event, click the camera icon to the right of the event listing. That brings you to an ESPN3 portal where you can access the desired program.

Matt Provence, voice of the Highlanders, is on play-by-play with expert analysis from Dave Calloway.

Prior to the game, NJIT will unveil a 2016 CIT Semifinal banner. The Highlanders made their second straight semifinal appearance in the CIT last season and picked up victories over Army, Boston University and UT-Arlington before falling to Columbia.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Saturday will mark the third all-time meeting between NJIT and Colgate after the schools split the first two encounters.

However, the two teams have not played since the Highlanders picked up a 77-58 win in Hamilton on Feb. 6, 2013. Senior forward Ryan Woods paced NJIT with a career-high 26 points in that contest.

Colgate won the only previous meeting in Newark, a 76-73 decision on Feb. 1, 2012 at Fleisher Athletic Center.

With the loss to Lafayette, the Highlanders are now 10-23 all-time against the Patriot League, but have won four of their last five against PL foes dating back to last season.

OPENING THE 'GATE

Colgate evened up their record at 1-1 on the young season with a 67-63 victory over Ivy League foe Cornell on Wednesday night at Newman Arena in Ithaca.

Junior Sean O'Brien led the Raiders with 18 points while freshman Will Rayman chipped in with 12 points and nine rebounds off the bench. Sophomores Francisco Amiel and Malcolm Regisford each added 10 points of their own off the bench.

Regisford was named to the Patriot League All-Rookie Team last season.

Head coach Matt Langel's squad opened the year with an 83-55 loss to 2016 Final Four participant Syracuse.

Coming off a 13-17 (9-9 PL) campaign in 2015-16, the Raiders were picked to finish sixth in the Patriot League preseason poll.

Langel is in his sixth season as head coach of the Raiders after spending seven seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Penn (2004-06), and Temple (2006-2011). During his tenure as an assistant, the Moorestown, N.J., native was a part of five NCAA Tournament teams.

In his playing days, Langel helped lead the Quakers to two Ivy League titles and ranks in the top 10 in school history in three-pointers made in a single game (2nd), three-pointers made in a season (8th) and career three-pointers made (4th).

Sophomore David Krmpotich's father, David, was a silver medalist in men's rowing at the 1988 Summer Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea.

All-time, the Raiders have won two Patriot League titles and appeared in the NCAA Tournament in both 1995 and 1996.

NJIT OUTLOOK

The Highlanders led for most of the night before coming up just short in the overtime loss to Lafayette on Thursday night.

Damon Lynn hit 5-of-11 from beyond the arc en route to a team-high 24 points and is averaging 24.0 ppg thus far in 2016-17. The senior co-captain also sank all seven of his free throw attempts and is a perfect 13-of-13 from the charity stripe this season.

NJIT also received strong offensive performances from senior Tim Coleman (15 points, eight rebounds, five assists), sophomore Abdul Lewis (13 points, 12 rebounds) and freshman Anthony Tarke (eight points, nine rebounds).

Rebounding was a strong suit in the game as NJIT outrebounded the Leopards, 45-40 and pulled down 12 offensive rebounds.

The Highlanders shot 10-of-25 (40.0%) from beyond the arc as five different players hit three-pointers.

LAST TIME OUT: LAFAYETTE 84, NJIT 83 IN OT (11/17/16)NJIT DROPS OVERTIME HEARTBREAKER TO LAFAYETTE, 84-83Coleman Misses Game-Winner at the Buzzer as Leopards Rally from Double-Digits Down to Edge NJIT

EASTON, PA -- Despite leading for most of the night, the Highlanders (1-2) dropped an 84-83 overtime heartbreaker to Lafayette (2-1) on Thursday night at Kirby Sports Center in Easton, Pa.

With the Lafayette win, the Leopards have won all five meetings in Easton and the home team has emerged victoriously in each of the last six matchups in the all-time series.

Senior guard Nick Lindner sank a pair of free throws with 2:00 left in the extra session to give the Leopards the lead for good at 82-81.

Lindner scored a game-high 25 points to go along with seven rebounds and six assists.

With NJIT trailing 84-83 in the final seconds of overtime, senior Tim Coleman had a game-winning shot attempt. The co-captain drove into the lane and got off an eight-footer, but his fadeaway jumper rimmed out at the buzzer.

NJIT held a 70-61 advantage with 4:09 left in regulation before Lafayette embarked on a 12-0 run to take their first lead of the night.

Lindner scored five points during the run and his three-pointer with 2:02 left gave the hosts a 71-70 lead before freshman Hunter Janacek capped the run with a layup.

The Highlanders would battle back though, as a triple from senior guard Damon Lynn tied things at 75 apiece with 0:49 to play. Lindner quickly responded with a layup to give the lead back to the Leopards, but Coleman forced overtime as he sank a pair of free throws on the other end with 0:25 remaining.

Lynn led the way for head coach Brian Kennedy's squad with 24 points while Coleman (15 points, eight rebounds, five assists) and Abdul Lewis (13 points, 12 rebounds) joined him in double figures. Freshman Anthony Tarke chipped in with eight points and nine rebounds off the bench.

Lynn -- the nation's active leader in career three-pointers made (364) -- hit 5-of-11 from beyond the arc as the Highlanders combined to shoot 10-of-25 (40.0%) from deep. Junior Chris Jenkins (6 points) sank a pair of treys, as well.

To go along with Lindner's 25 points, the Leopards featured strong offensive contributions from junior Matt Klinewski (20 points) and Janacek (11 points). Klinewski also added 11 rebounds for the hosts.

NJIT appeared to take control of the game with a 17-5 run midway through the second half as a one-point lead ballooned to 13 at 57-44 with 11:13 remaining. Over the next seven minutes, Lafayette was not able to get closer than five.

Klinewski's jumper with 3:53 to play kickstarted the 12-0 run that gave them the lead.

The Highlanders shot 23-of-35 (65.7%) from the charity stripe

Brian Kennedy, who has been an assistant men's basketball coach at NJIT since August 2012, will be introduced as the 11th head men's basketball coach in program history on a Friday, April 15 press conference.

Coach Kennedy, whose involvement with the sport of basketball literally covers his entire life, is the son of the late Bob Kennedy, a former college and high school coach and the nephew of Pat Kennedy, who was a Division I head coach for 31 years at Iona, Florida State, DePaul, Montana, and Towson.

The Kennedy family business, the Hoop Group, began in the Trenton, NJ, CYO in 1963 with summer basketball camps and moved in 1969 to Cherry Valley, PA, and the Pocono Invitational began.

In 1991, the Hoop Group acquired the Eastern Invitational camp and renamed it the Hoop Group Elite Camp. A few years later, the Hoop Group began running grassroots tournaments and the subsequent years have seen numerous alumni go on to play in the NBA, including Kobe Bryant, Amar'e Stoudemire 2010 #1 overall pick John Wall, 2011 #1 pick Kyrie Irving and 13 other first-round picks that year.

Numerous legendary coaches have lectured at the camp, including the late Jim Valvano and Hall of Famers Lou Carnesecca, Rollie Massimino, Hoop Group Skills Camp Director Bob Hurley, Bob Knight, and Herb Magee.

Brian Kennedy, who played at both Princeton and Monmouth (1990 graduate), took over the family business after graduating from Monmouth in 1990 and was President and co-founder when it was rebranded from the Pocono Invitational to the Hoop Group and became the largest basketball instructional organization in the world.

He entered the college coaching ranks in 1997 as an assistant coach at DePaul on the staff headed by his uncle Pat. There, he was part of one of major college basketball's great turnarounds, as the Blue Demons, who won fewer than five games the year before he arrived, made the NIT quarterfinals in 1999 and then the NCAA Tournament in 2000 as a team ranked in the Top 25.

"BK" as he is known to his many friends, was involved in all aspects of the DePaul program and was a leader in efforts that brought in a group named as the nation's top recruiting class in 1998 by The Sporting News.

Among the players he helped bring to DePaul five future NBA players: Quentin Richardson, Bobby Simmons, Steven Hunter, Paul McPherson, and Andre Brown.

He stepped aside from coaching from 2002 through 2009, when he worked on Wall Street in the financial sector.

He returned to the Hoop Group as Athletic Director, serving in that capacity from 2009 until 2012, when he joined the staff at NJIT.

In his first year as an assistant, the Highlanders captured their first Division I league title when they were regular season champions of the old Great West Conference.

As with DePaul in his first turn as a college coach, Kennedy spearheaded the recruiting efforts for NJIT and he faced a major task in his first recruiting year, with all three double-figure scorers from the 2012-13 Great West champions graduating in May 2013.

* Team Captain

The story is not yet fully written, but that first recruiting class (Class of 2017) and subsequent incoming players have been vital to Highlander men's basketball reaching unprecedented success.

The extremely inexperienced 2013-14 team finished 13-16, but the two teams since have won a combined 41 games (21 in 2014-15 and 20 in 2015-16), while advancing to the semifinals of the national postseason CollegiateInsider.com Tournament after both seasons.

In addition, the Highlanders won their first-ever game over a ranked opponent when they upset #17/#16 Michigan in December 2014 and they scored their first-ever win over a team from the BIG EAST Conference when they topped St. John's in December 2015.

Two members of that first recruiting class have already put their names all over the NJIT record books. Damon Lynn, picked second-team all-state (all groups) by the Star-Ledger as a senior at Union Catholic High School, came on board and has started every game the Highlanders have played in his three seasons. Lynn has amassed 1,720 points in three seasons, including a school-record 349 career 3-point baskets.

Tim Coleman came in the same class, entering NJIT after graduating from St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, NJ, where he played for Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame coach Bob Hurley. At St. Anthony,

Coleman was a contributor on teams that won New Jersey state Tournament of Champions crowns following his sophomore and junior seasons. In all, the Friars were 93-2 in Coleman's last 95 career games.

Coleman has grown as a college player, compiling 1,053 points and 548 rebounds through his first three seasons with NJIT.

Rob Ukawuba, a third-team all-state (all groups) pick in the same class, has been a vital contributor as the team's sixth man the last two seasons, posting an 8.2 points per game scoring average this season.

Brian Kennedy is the proud father of four children: daughters Taylor, Tatum, and Kelly; and son Brian, Jr.

NJIT WELLNESS AND EVENTS CENTER... OPENING 2017

NJIT hosted a groundbreaking ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 12, 2015, for the Wellness and Events Center (WEC), a sleek new building that has the promise to become the social centerpiece of a revamped campus.

The Wellness and Events Center, already nicknamed WEC, is a $102 M building that will be constructed on the site of the current Lubetkin Field at Mal Simon Stadium athletic field. WEC will extend across the length of the field, which will later be rebuilt on the north side of the building. The construction of WEC, to begin after the groundbreaking, will be finished in the Fall of 2017.

As the name implies, WEC is a multi-purpose building. The 200,000-square-foot building will be in equal parts a fitness center, a study space, a gathering spot and a sports arena that will double as a conference and events center. WEC will offer students a place to relax and stay fit; athletes a place to practice and play games; and the university a place to host on-campus events and conferences.

WEC's amenities include: (1) an arena with a 3,500 capacity, (2) a 25-meter pool with diving area, (3) a fitness center with cardio equipment and weights, (4) lounges, study areas and multipurpose rooms, (5) an indoor 10,000 square feet turf space, (6) two practice courts for intramural and intercollegiate sports, (7) a running track that will encircle the concourse of the first-floor arena.

WEC is a major part of a $300 million building plan to overhaul the campus. Other parts of the plan include the Central King Building, whose classrooms and labs are state of the art; the Life Sciences and Engineering Building; a new parking deck, located behind NJIT's Enterprise Development Center on Warren Street; and the renovation of classrooms and labs all over campus. The renovation plan reflects the university's evolution from a commuter school to a nationally-ranked research university. Indeed, NJIT's growing reputation has prompted a surge in enrollment that totals more than 11,000 students.

TAJ PRICE

FR | F | 6-7 | 210 | Newark, NJ | Newark East Side

COACH KENNEDY ON PRICE:

"Taj is a Newark product who played his HS basketball under Coaches Tavares, Garvin and Hawkins at East Side. He is a tireless worker who has a very high basketball ceiling and I believe he is just scratching the surface with his abilities. Taj will be called upon to give us immediate support "up front" as he improves his perimeter skills. His Post Grad year playing for the famed Roadrunners AAU team run by Coach Sandy Pyonin and at The Phelps School under Coach Brian Shanahan really helped to prepare him for the rigors he will face this year."

2016-17:

- 11/11 vs. Sarah Lawrence: Started season with 9 points (4-10, 1-6) and 1 rebound in 17 minutes off bench

HIGH SCHOOL:

A forward from Newark's East Side High School, Taj Price, joins sophomore transfer Abdul Lewis on the Highlander squad after the pair guided East Side to the 2014 NJSIAA North 2 Group 3 State title, defeating Summit, 54-25. East Side, ranked second in the state in 2014, posted a 30-2 overall record. ...Price averaged 9.4ppg and 4.9rpg during his senior campaign and attended The Phelps School, a prep school, in Pennsylvania, during the 2015-16 season...

PERSONAL:

Taj Awan-Ali Price... intends to major in engineering at NJIT

Coleman, a resident of Union, NJ, is a graduate of St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, where he was coached by Bob Hurley, a 2010 inductee into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame... Played on Friar teams that won the NJSIAA State Tournament of Champions following his sophomore and junior years and he entered his final high school game (a defeat in the Non-Public 'B' final) having been on the winning side in 93 of the prior 94 games... As a senior, Coleman averaged 8 ppg and 5 rpg. One of his memorable efforts came in the New Jersey Non-Public 'B' North title game vs. fellow Jersey City power, Hudson Catholic, which entered the tilt with one loss. St. Anthony, ranked 1st in the state at the time, would defeat 2nd-ranked Hudson decisively, 57-42... Against a Hudson Catholic front line led by Top 75 national recruit Reggie Cameron, a 6'8" power forward now at Georgetown, Coleman came up big. On that night, the 6-5 Coleman matched Cameron in points (12) and rebounds (10) and also posted a game-best four blocked shots... Coleman grabbed nine rebounds in a regular season tilt against nationally-ranked St. Benedict's Prep of Newark...

HIGH SCHOOL:

Versatile swingman was one of New Jersey's top players as a senior at East Brunswick High School and is known for his toughness and athleticism... Ukawuba averaged 16.6 points, 6.8 rebounds, and 2.9 steals a game for East Brunswick, which posted a 26-4 record in 2012-13... Had nine games with 20 or more points and reached double-figure scoring in 29 of the 30 games... Had seven double-figure rebound games... Ukawuba reaped numerous honors for leading veteran coach Bo Henning's East Brunswick's Central Jersey Group 4 champions. The Star-Ledger of Newark named Rob third-team All-State for all groups, making him one of New Jersey's top 15 high school players in the eyes of the state's largest newspaper. In addition, The Star-Ledger also named him first-team All-State in Group 4 (largest public schools); second-team All-State among senior players; and first-team All-Middlesex County. His local daily paper, the Home News Tribune, which is part of MyCentralJersey.com, selected Ukawuba for its All-Area first team. ...Born in New Brunswick, NJ, to parents who immigrated to the United States from Nigeria before he was born, Rob is a chiseled 6-foot-3, 210 pounder who followed his older brother into basketball. He spent the early part of his high school career playing around the basket, but has expanded his game to hone his perimeter skills and he made 25 3-point baskets as a senior, while also notching 66 assists. ...To get a sense of Ukawuba's pure athletic ability, as a senior he told a newspaper interviewer he "might try" track and field in the spring. He did just that in the spring and posted a high jump of 6'0" in the Greater Middlesex Conference Relays. That jump in high school, with limited competitive experience, would have been good for a Top Nine finish in the 2013 championships for local Division I college conference.
