HIGHLIGHTS:

⊗ Kent State leads the all-time series, 1-0, after the Golden Flashes won last season in Newark, 80-75, on Dec. 7, 2015. The game was tied 75-75 until KSU's Kellon Thomas hit a game-winning three-pointer with 1:12 remaining. Thomas finished with a game-high 22 points.

⊗ All-time, NJIT is 0-1 against Mid-American Conference (MAC) foes, having faced only KSU.

⊗ NJIT is playing in Game 3 of a five-game road swing and has started 1-1. The Highlanders endured a hard-fought, 74-68 loss at Minnesota on Tuesday after a 75-74 win at UMass Lowell on Saturday. Last year, the Highlanders set a program record for road wins with eight (8-9).

⊗ NJIT finished 0-2 against the Big 10 this season. However, they trailed just 37-34 at halftime at No. 17 Purdue and were within single-digits inside the final minute. The Highlanders led 61-58 at Minnesota (in "others receiving votes") and were down just one point inside of 3:00 left.

⊗ Senior Tim Coleman, the reigning ASUN Co-Player of the Week, is four rebounds away from setting a new NJIT career rebounds record – which is currently 616, held by Isaiah Wilkerson '12.

⊗ Senior Damon Lynn, who ranks second in the ASUN at 21.9 ppg, leads all Division I active players in career points (1,939) & 3FGM (391) – which ranks tied for 16th all-time in D-I history.

⊗ Freshman Anthony Tarke scored a career-high tying 13 points at Minnesota (5-11, 2-5, 1-2).

⊗ With a win tonight, NJIT will tie its best start through 11 games of a season at 6-5. The Highlanders opened 6-5 three times in 10 prior seasons as a D-I member, including in 2015-16.

THE KENNEDY ADMINISTRATION:

After four seasons as a top assistant at NJIT, head coach Brian Kennedy begins his first season at the helm of the program. The 50-year-old was introduced as the 11th head coach in program history on April 15, 2016, after four seasons as the top assistant under the Jim Engles -- who was hired as head coach at Columbia eight days after the Lions defeated the Highlanders in the semifinals of the 2016 CIT. Since joining the program, "BK" has helped guide the Highlanders to a combined 70-56 record and both back-to-back, 20-win seasons as well as back-to-back appearances in the CIT semifinals.

A talented recruiter, Kennedy was extremely instrumental in luring some of the Highlanders most talented all-time performers -- such as Tim Coleman, Damon Lynn and Rob Ukawuba -- to Newark. That reputation has continued with the new 2020 class, which -- on paper -- is the highest rated recruiting class in program history with Ron Alston, Shyquann Gibbs, Taj Price and Anthony Tarke.

The Monmouth University product also spent time as an assistant at DePaul University from 1997-2002, where he helped guide the Blue Demons back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000.

HOME GROWN:

Entering the season, NJIT has the most localized roster in all of college basketball, As researched by Jake Sharpless of Rukkus. The average player comes from just 39 miles from hometown to school.

NJIT's roster features nine New Jersey natives, including three from here in Newark (Abdul Lewis, James McMillon, Taj Price), three from Hillside (Shyquan Gibbs, Chris Jenkins, Damon Lynn) one from East Brunswick (Rob Ukawuba), one from Jersey City (Mohamed Bendary) and one from Union (Tim Coleman). Last season, NJIT received 64% of its scoring from New Jersey natives. In fact, 97% of NJIT returning points in 2016-17 are from products of the Garden State.

Interestingly, the second-most localized roster for 2016-17 belongs to reigning national champ Villanova (128 miles) and the least localized is Hawaii (4,031). Here are the ranks for the other ASUN programs: Lipscomb (#7, 162 mi), North Florida (#114, 590 mi), Jacksonville (#130, 663 mi), Florida Gulf Coast (#138, 689 mi), Stetson (#236, 1113 mi), Kennesaw (#292, 1545) and USC Upstate (#329, 1948 mi).

FAB FOUR:

NJIT had its highest recruiting class on paper this season with freshmen Ron Alston, Shyquann Gibbs, Taj Price and Anthony Tarke -- and they didn't disappoint in their career debuts on 11/11 vs. Sarah Lawrence. The four combined for 34 of NJIT's 100 (34%) points as well as 25 of its 62 (40%) of its rebounds.

- Tarke became the first Highlander ever to record a double-double in his NCAA debut (13 pts, 10 reb). He also became just the fifth freshman to record the feat; first since Tim Coleman, Feb. 12, 2014.
- Alston and Price both finished with nine points and seven rebounds, apiece.

Y'ALL COME BACK NOW, HEAR?!

The Highlanders return eight players from last season's 20-win team -- and that doesn't include F Abdul Lewis, who sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules (South Alabama). Even though NJIT lost four key players (PG Ky Howard, G Winfield Willis, F Emmanuel Tselentakis, F Terrence Smith) from their 2016 CIT semifinalist squad, the Highlanders still return:

- 67% of their scoring (including 83% of their three-point field goals made) from last season
- 54% of their rebounding from last season
- 60% of their minutes played from last season

NJIT ANNOUNCES FIRST FOUR FOR CLASS OF 2021

The NJIT men's basketball team has announced the early signings of four high school seniors for its Class of 2021: Izaiah Brockington (Philadelphia, Pa.), Zach Cooks (Lawrenceville, Ga.), Shawndale Jones (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and David Kachelries (Emmaus, Pa.).

"We are very excited about our incoming class. All four of these guys have great academic and athletic backgrounds," said NJIT Head Coach Brian Kennedy. "Izaiah, Zach, Shawndale, and David have all competed at high levels both on their high school and AAU teams. Each player brings a unique and added dimension to our squad and with this year's current freshman class."

Kennedy added: "We are building the foundation of our program as we move forward in the ASUN Conference and we believe NJIT fans will enjoy their exciting and athletic style of play."

Izaiah Brockington is a 6-4 guard from Philadelphia and a two-time All-Catholic League member while playing for Archbishop Ryan. As a junior, he was a first-team selection after averaging 14.2 ppg for the Raiders and leading Ryan to a 16-9 record

-- which was just one win shy of a berth of a state playoff berth and a six-win increase from the year before. Brockington, a member of the honors program at Ryan, is also a two-time Northeast Times Catholic League Player of the Year. He also competes in AAU basketball with K-Low Elite.

Zach Cooks is a 5-9 point guard known for both excellent ball-handling and play-making abilities. After spending his first two high school seasons at Norcross H.S., he transferred to Berkmar H.S. last season and helped guide the Patriots to a Sweet 16 in the state tournament. There, he averaged 11.4 points per game and 2.5 assists per game as a junior while earning a Scholar Athlete Award. Cooks also plays AAU basketball with the Southern Stampede and was named co-MVP of the 2016 Best of the South AAU Tournament after averaging 27 points per game.

Shawndale Jones is a 6-3 combo guard who athleticism shines not only on the hardwood, but also on the gridiron as a WR/CB at The Kiski School in Saltsburg, Pa. Prior, Jones played two seasons at North Hills H.S. (Pittsburgh) and averaged 20 points per game as a sophomore. In his first year at The Kiski

School he was the 2015 Peddie School Invitational Tournament (PSIT) Most Valuable Player. He also competes as an AAU member of TTG (Pittsburgh) and was the co-MVP of the 2016 BIG SHOTS MYRTLE BEACH tournament, where he led the entire league in scoring at 25 points per game. In its recap of all ASUN early signings, Hoopseen.com commented that Jones "could be the steal of the class."

David Kachelries is a 6-1 point guard and a both a 1st-Team All-League and 3rd-Team All-State selection while playing at Emmaus H.S. -- where he led the Green Hornets to a third-place finish in the District 11 tournament and advance to the second round of the PIAA 4A state tournament last season. As a junior, he averaged 20.8 points per game while also registering 5.3 assists, 2.1 rebounds and 2.7 steals per game. A stand-out shooter a 1,000-point career scorer, Kachelries drained 54 three-pointers last season while posting a 60 field-goal percentage. In the PIAA opener last season, he posted a 37-point performance against Martin Luther King (Philadelphia) H.S. He also competes in AAU with Sports U/Team Izod, one of the top basketball powers in New Jersey.

*NJIT Record; GREY=This season

LYNN-SANITY:

Senior Damon Lynn leads the ASUN in three-pointers made (42), three-pointers per game (4.2) and steals per game (2.5) while ranking second in scoring at 21.9 ppg and in FT percentage (.915; 43-for-47) and tied for third in assists per game (4.0).

In the opener, Lynn shattered NJIT's all-time career scoring record (1,734, Chris Flores '13) and now has 1,939 points. The co-captain is the NCAA active D-I leader in points (1,939) and three-point field goals made (391) while ranking fifth in steals (174) and ninth in scoring average (18.1 ppg).

Lynn followed the performance in Game 2 by tying his own NJIT D-I single-game record by scoring 34 points at Utah State, initially set as a freshman 1/18/14 at North Carolina A&T (breaking the mark of 31, set by Winfield Willis on 12/12/13).

Last season, Lynn set the NJIT single-season scoring record with 642 points -- breaking his own mark of 578 set in 2014-15. His average of 18.3 ppg also represented a new program season-high and ranked fifth in the nation's highest scoring conference. The Hillside, N.J., native also led the ASUN and placed fifth in D-I in three-pointer made (116) while listing second in the conference and 34th in the nation in total points (642).

Prior to Lynn, no Highlander had ever registered back-to-back, 500-point seasons -- a scoring plateau he has now reached in all three of his campaigns (500, 578, 642). Going back to 2014-15, he has scored in double figures in 54 of his last 56 games. In his career, he's scored 20+ points in 47 of his 107 games and 30+ in seven affairs.

- Lynn had a remarkable streak of 72 straight games with at least one 3FGM snapped by UNF on Jan. 24, 2016. Still, in his 107-game NCAA career, he has only had three games without a trey.

- An Iron Man on the court, Lynn has started all of NJIT's 107 games during his career, while playing an amazing 89.7% of all possible minutes (3,861 of 4,305).

- In addition to a unanimous preseason All-ASUN pick, the 2015-16 ASUN First-Team selection has been named to the 2017 Lou Henson Watch List as well as being tabbed as both a Top 100 Player in College Basketball for 2016-17 and a Non-Power Five Guard Who Will Be Household Name in 2016-17 by College Court Report.

TIM OF ALL TRADES

Senior F Tim Coleman, a selection to the preseason ASUN All-Conference Team, had a 15-point, 11-rebound affair at UMass Lowell on Saturday. The performance marked his team-leading second double-double of the season and 12th of his career -- tying NJIT's all-time career record (Nesho Milosevic '08, Isaiah Wilkerson '12).

Last Wednesday against Saint Francis University, he registered a career-high tying 27 points in the win against Saint Francis. He now ranks fourth in the ASUN in blocks per game (1.2) and steals per game (1.4), tied for fifth in rebounding (6.5) and 12th in scoring (13.8 ppg).

The co-captain is coming off an historical campaign in which he set NJIT's D-I single-season record for rebounds (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., also became the sixth member of NJIT's D-I 1,000-point club (1,191) and the third Highlander to reach 500 career rebounds (613).

- Coleman is now 4 rebounds away from becoming NJIT's D-I all-time career rebounding leader.

- Coleman currently ranks 31st in the nation among D-I active career rebounds (613).

2016-17 NJIT MEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON PREVIEW

If the Highlanders had to commission an author to pen the story of their 2015-16 season, perhaps Ernest Hemingway would've been the appropriate choice. The NJIT men's basketball team proved that the Sun Also Rises in Newark – as the Highlanders finished in a tie for second place their first year in the ASUN Conference. In addition, they reached 20 wins for a second straight season and advanced to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com National Postseason Tournament (CIT) for the second consecutive year.

But then, there was A Farewell to Arms.

Gone are starters Ky Howard, Terrence Smith, Manny Tselentakis and Winfield Willis along with eight-year head coach Jim Engles.

That said, the Highlanders return a key corps of returnees – including a pair of pre-season ASUN All-Conference selections in Tim Coleman and Damon Lynn.

Then, there is the man For Whom the Bell Tolls. After four years serving as top assistant, Brian Kennedy was named NJIT men's basketball head coach in April. This upcoming season will mark the first career head coach post for "BK," who has spent nine seasons as an assistant coach including his prior tenure at DePaul University (1997-02).

On the floor, the Highlanders return seven lettermen and two starters. In addition, they bring back 67-percent of their scoring (including 83-percent of their three-point field goals), 54-percent of their rebounding and 60-percent of their minutes played from a season ago.

So how will this new chapter go?

"We have a big challenge ahead of us with our schedule. It's the toughest schedule we've ever had here at NJIT," said Kennedy, who helped guide the Blue Demons back to national prominence with the nation's Number 1 Recruiting Class in 1999, a Top-25 Ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2000. "But we return a great nucleus of kids and have a talented group of newcomers. Our freshmen excite me with their talent and enthusiasm, but still have a ways to go to be ready for a D-I basketball game."

Lynn, a senior co-captain, has been pleased with what he has seen during the preseason both in his teammates and the new leader.

"The team is doing pretty well. We have a lot of high hopes being that we have three senior captains and a freshman class that is so talented," said Lynn, who finished last season as an ASUN First-Team All-Conference selection. "And coach has instilled a lot of confidence in us."

Last season, NJIT entered the league predicted to finish third by the ASUN Coaches Poll and fourth by the ASUN Media Poll. The Highlanders wound up earning the 2-seed in the conference tournament. This season, they are projected for third place in both polls.

So with Hemingway unavailable, what will it take now to author a happy ending?

"This year, when we 'bring it in on three,' we say 'finish,'" Lynn said. "Now we have to finish our story. We've created a story from going from an independent, to winning 21 games, to [reaching 20 wins] two years in a row, to joining a conference and then finishing second. So now we have to finish our story and write it off well."

BACKCOURT

No doubt, one of the more difficult adjustments facing the Highlanders will be playing without four-year star Ky Howard – who ran the point for the past three seasons. Howard, a tremendous all-around player, not only set the school's single-season assist record (154) last season, but left NJIT as the all-time assist leader (416). He is also just one of three Highlanders all-time to post at least 1,000 points and 500 rebounds in a D-I career.

Lynn, who finished fifth in the ASUN in scoring (18.3 points per game) and ranked ninth in the ASUN with 3.3 assist per game, figures to handle the point a significant amount this season.

But this role is not all that unfamiliar to Lynn. During NJIT's 21-win campaign in 2014-15, the Hillside, N.J., native handled a bulk of the point guard responsibilities for 10 games after Howard went down with an ankle injury in January. During that time, NJIT went 8-2 and Lynn averaged 18.2 ppg and 5.3 apg. In fact, after a two-game adjustment period, he averaged 22.0 ppg and 5.8 apg over the final eight contests of the span.

Lynn enters the season as the NCAA active D-I leader in three-point field goals made (349) and ranks fourth in points (1,720). In fact, he is just five points away from shattering the program's all-time scoring record of 1,724 (Chris Flores '13).

"Damon is going to be called upon to have the ball in his hands more. I don't want to take away from his scoring, as he's going to leave here as the school's all-time leading scorer," Kennedy said. "But Damon is really ready to take that next step up in his level of play where he can get everyone involved but also score, as well. He's evolved in his game and he's got a lot of players around him to help."

One of those players is 6'1" freshman point guard Shyquan Gibbs, a graduate of St. Anthony's H.S. in Jersey City who helped lead the Friars to a 26-0 record last season.

"Shyquan is a coach's dream," Kennedy said. "He is a valedictorian in the classroom and a state champion on the court."

In addition, the NJIT point guard situation got bolstered with the late signing of Donovan Greer, a sophomore who transferred from San Jacinto (TX) C.C. There, the 6'3" Houston native helped his Region XIV runner-up team to a 20-10 record.

The Highlanders should be able to find plenty of backcourt points from the wing, as they return two talented long-distance shooters in junior Chris Jenkins and senior Osa Izevbuwa.

Jenkins, referred to by his coach as a "high-major shooter," came on strong in December. In his first season at NJIT, the Hillside, N.J., finished the year ranked eighth in the ASUN in three-point FG percentage (.399) and ninth in three-point FG per game (2.0).

FRONTCOURT

The Highlanders frontcourt figures to be the strongest it's ever been. And it all starts with preseason ASUN All-Conference selection, Tim Coleman.

Last year, the senior co-captain enjoyed an historical campaign in which he set NJIT's single-season record for rebounds (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., became just the third Highlander all-time to reach both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds.

One of the most versatile players in the conference, Coleman finished 2015-16 ranked third in the ASUN in steals per game (1.5), fourth in rebounds per game (7.5), fifth in blocks per game (0.9) and three-point FG percentage (.412) and 11th in points per game (13.8).

"Tim's had a great offseason," Kennedy said. "The game is slowing down for him a lot. He's seeing how he can be a mismatch nightmare for opponents. Now he's learning to let the game come to him and seeing where he can take advantage of things."

With Coleman sliding from the '4' to the '3,' this season, senior co-captain Rob Ukawuba figures to move into the starting lineup.

A player Lynn referred to as a "freak of nature and very athletic," the undersized power forward (6'4") has used his strength and his motor to become a valuable "sixth man" over the past two seasons. Last year, Ukawuba finished with the fourth-highest scoring average (8.2 ppg) in the ASUN among reserves (players with fewer than 10 starts).

"I try to embrace [the role]," said Ukawuba. "I try to see where I have my advantage. If it's a bigger guy, then maybe I can be faster. Sometimes bigger guys are tall and lanky, so maybe I'm stronger than them or maybe more athletic."

Perhaps the biggest addition to the group is a guy who is just that – the biggest on the team. After sitting out a year following a transfer from University of South Alabama, Newark native Abdul Lewis is expected to round out the starting five.

The redshirt sophomore measures 6'10" and brings a wealth of athleticism to the court. As a freshman in 2014-15, Lewis averaged 7.0 ppg and an impressive 6.7 rpg – a mark that led the Jaguars and ranked seventh in the Sun Belt Conference.

"We are very happy and excited to have him. He brings us an added dimension to score in the low post," said Kennedy about Lewis, who logged nine points and 10 rebounds against NJIT on Jan. 25, 2015, in Mobile. "He's really been locked in this preseason and he's working diligently preparing for the upcoming year."

Kennedy also expects significant contributions from sophomore Mohamed Bendary. As a freshman last season, the 6'9" product of St. Anthony's led the Highlanders in blocks in seven games, in rebounds three times and in scoring twice.

NEWCOMERS

Gibbs is not the only freshman who figures to play a significant role this season. NJIT has exciting prospects in Ron Alston (6'6"), Taj Price (6'7") and Anthony Tarke (6'6"). On paper, it's the highest rated recruiting class NJIT has ever had.

Tarke, a 2015 graduate of Gaithersburg (MD) H.S. who attended Coastal Academy US (NJ) for the 2015-16 season, has a chance to see significant minutes early in the season.

"Anthony is a tremendous athlete who should have an immediate impact in the ASUN," Kennedy said. "His versatility on the court should prove invaluable as the season progresses and he becomes adjusted to the college game."

OUTLOOK

The Highlanders are optimistic about their chances to continue the amazing upward progression of the program – which sports a 36-18 (.667) record since Dec. 30, 2014. During that time, NJIT has earned its first win against a Top-25 team (Michigan) and a BIG EAST rival (St. John's); has posted its first two 20-win seasons and reached its first two national postseason tournaments; has joined an automatic qualifying (AQ) conference and has a new arena under construction for the 2017-18 season.

NJIT will indeed have its challenges this season, starting with its grueling non-conference schedule. Then, once league play begins, the Highlanders will have to be up night-in, night-out to battle against teams that comprised the highest scoring conference in the nation last season. And with the ASUN being solid from top to bottom, there are no easy outs.

Of course, there's arguably no program in the nation more adept at overcoming obstacles than NJIT.

"This year has a lot of potential to be very special," Ukawuba said. "Everybody wants to play in the NCAA Tournament. Coming here as a freshman, we weren't even in a conference – seeing that we were working hard and didn't get a chance to make it to the tournament. Now it's in our hands and it's really on us. We try to preach that in the locker room. This is an opportunity that doesn't always come and we have a good enough team to make it there."

If all goes well, perhaps the literary inspiration for the 2016-17 season recap will come from Karen Kingsbury – author of the New York Times Best Seller, A Time to Dance.

TONIGHT'S OPPONENT: KENT STATE

KENT, OH -- The Highlanders (5-5) will continue their season-long five-game road trip on Saturday when they battle the Kent State Golden Flashes (6-3). Opening tip from the Memorial Athletic and Convocation Center in Kent is slated for 7 p.m.

NJIT took Big 10 foe Minnesota to the brink in a 74-68 loss to the Golden Gophers on Tuesday night in Minneapolis. Kent State has won two in a row including a 100-72 win over Niagara last time out.

Matt Provence, the voice of the Highlanders, will be on the call beginning with the pregame show at 6:45 p.m. The broadcast can be accessed for free at www.njithighlanders.com.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Saturday marks the second all-time meeting between the Highlanders and Golden Flashes.

Last season, Kent State closed the game on a 13-4 run en route to an 80-75 win over NJIT on Dec. 7, 2015 at Fleisher Athletic Center in Newark.

Junior guard Kellon Thomas scored 12 of his game-high 22 points in the final 3:20 to help lift the Golden Flashes to the comeback win. Thomas was joined in double figures by senior forward Jimmy Hall who had 17 points while sophomore guard Jaylin Walker and Xavier Pollard each chipped in with 15.

Senior forward Tim Coleman paced the Highlanders with 20 points and six rebounds while senior guards Damon Lynn and Rob Ukawuba contributed 14 points apiece.

In fact, Kent State is the only member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) that NJIT has played.

NEWS FLASHES

The Golden Flashes rank second in the MAC at 84.1 ppg and have three players averaging in double figures led by Hall-a Preseason All-MAC East Division Team selection-at 18.7 ppg. Walker (12.1 ppg) and senior guard Deon Edwin (11.0 ppg) are the others scoring in double figures for head coach Rob Senderoff's squad.

Kent State's defense has been the calling card for the team this season though as they are allowing just 68.0 ppg (2nd in the MAC) and have held opponents to just 39.2% shooting from the field, which is tops in the league.

Senderoff is in his sixth season as the head coach of the program and has compiled a 106-70 record to date. The Spring Valley, N.Y., native took over as the head coach in 2011 after two previous stints as an assistant at KSU from 2002-06 and 2008-2011.

In his 11 seasons associated with the program, Senderoff has been a part of 10 postseason teams including an NCAA Tournament berth in 2006.

Kent State is 4-0 at home this season and has won

In fact, NJIT held a 61-58 lead with 7:16 to play before the Gophers closed the game on a 16-7 run.

Ukawuba led NJIT with 18 points on 5-of-8 shooting and hit all three of his attempts from downtown. The senior co-captain was joined in double figures by Lynn (12 points) and freshman Anthony Tarke who contributed 13 points and five rebounds off the bench.

The 18 points were a season-high for Ukawuba who came within a basket of tying his career-high of 20.

With two rebounds on Saturday, Coleman will pass Isaiah Wilkerson ('12) and become the school's all-time leading rebounder. The Union, N.J., native ranks second on the team in rebounding this season at 6.5 boards per game, just behind Lewis (7.0 rpg).

LAST TIME OUT: MINNESOTA 74, NJIT 68 IN MINNEAPOLIS (12/6/16)HIGHLANDERS TAKE BIG 10 FOE MINNESOTA TO BRINK IN 74-68 LOSS

Senior Rob Ukawuba Paces Highlanders with Season-High 18 Points; Freshman Anthony Tarke Ties His Career-High with 13

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – The Highlanders (5-5) took Minnesota to the brink, but came up just short in a 74-68 loss to the Golden Gophers (8-1) on Tuesday night at Williams Arena in Minneapolis.

After senior forward Tim Coleman hit a layup to give NJIT a 61-58 lead with 7:16 left, Minnesota's Nate Mason hit a three on the other end to tie the game and kickstart a 16-7 run for the Gophers over the remainder of the game.

The Highlanders did not go away though as senior guard Damon Lynn and junior guard Chris Jenkins each missed three-pointers in the last three minutes that would have given the visitors the lead.

Mason's jumper with 1:19 left gave Minnesota a 69-65 advantage and the hosts made 5-of-6 free throws in the final minute to ice the game.

NJIT hit 10-of-14 (71.4%) on the night from the charity stripe and the Golden Gophers sank 23-of-29 (79.3%).

Senior guard Rob Ukawuba led the way for NJIT with 18 points on 5-of-8 shooting while freshman Anthony Tarke chipped in with 13 points and five rebounds off the bench and Lynn added 12 points, five rebounds and five assists. Sophomore center Abdul Lewis contributed nine points and nine rebounds for head coach Brian Kennedy's squad.

Ukawuba's 18 points represent a season-high and came within a basket of tying his career-high of 20. The East Brunswick, N.J., native connected on all three of his attempts from beyond the arc.

Senior guard Akeem Springs paced the Gophers with a game-high 19 points off the bench and he was joined in double figures by Mason (18 points), freshman guard Amir Coffey (13 points) and sophomore guard Dupree McBrayer who had 11.

The second half was a tightly contested affair with neither team leading by more than four points until McBrayer hit a pair of free throws with 0:38 left to stretch the lead to six.

In the early going, Minnesota jumped out to an early 9-2 edge before a 12-5 run from the Highlanders capped by a jumper from Lewis tied things at 14 apiece.

Tarke hit a layup with 4:41 left in the opening stanza to give NJIT

Brian Kennedy, who has been an assistant men's basketball coach at NJIT since August 2012, will be introduced as the 11th head men's basketball coach in program history on a Friday, April 15 press conference.

Coach Kennedy, whose involvement with the sport of basketball literally covers his entire life, is the son of the late Bob Kennedy, a former college and high school coach and the nephew of Pat Kennedy, who was a Division I head coach for 31 years at Iona, Florida State, DePaul, Montana, and Towson.

The Kennedy family business, the Hoop Group, began in the Trenton, NJ, CYO in 1963 with summer basketball camps and moved in 1969 to Cherry Valley, PA, and the Pocono Invitational began.

In 1991, the Hoop Group acquired the Eastern Invitational camp and renamed it the Hoop Group Elite Camp. A few years later, the Hoop Group began running grassroots tournaments and the subsequent years have seen numerous alumni go on to play in the NBA, including Kobe Bryant, Amar'e Stoudemire 2010 #1 overall pick John Wall, 2011 #1 pick Kyrie Irving and 13 other first-round picks that year.

Numerous legendary coaches have lectured at the camp, including the late Jim Valvano and Hall of Famers Lou Carnesecca, Rollie Massimino, Hoop Group Skills Camp Director Bob Hurley, Bob Knight, and Herb Magee.

Brian Kennedy, who played at both Princeton and Monmouth (1990 graduate), took over the family business after graduating from Monmouth in 1990 and was President and co-founder when it was rebranded from the Pocono Invitational to the Hoop Group and became the largest basketball instructional organization in the world.

He entered the college coaching ranks in 1997 as an assistant coach at DePaul on the staff headed by his uncle Pat. There, he was part of one of major college basketball's great turnarounds, as the Blue Demons, who won fewer than five games the year before he arrived, made the NIT quarterfinals in 1999 and then the NCAA Tournament in 2000 as a team ranked in the Top 25.

"BK" as he is known to his many friends, was involved in all aspects of the DePaul program and was a leader in efforts that brought in a group named as the nation's top recruiting class in 1998 by The Sporting News.

Among the players he helped bring to DePaul five future NBA players: Quentin Richardson, Bobby Simmons, Steven Hunter, Paul McPherson, and Andre Brown.

He stepped aside from coaching from 2002 through 2009, when he worked on Wall Street in the financial sector.

He returned to the Hoop Group as Athletic Director, serving in that capacity from 2009 until 2012, when he joined the staff at NJIT.

In his first year as an assistant, the Highlanders captured their first Division I league title when they were regular season champions of the old Great West Conference.

As with DePaul in his first turn as a college coach, Kennedy spearheaded the recruiting efforts for NJIT and he faced a major task in his first recruiting year, with all three double-figure scorers from the 2012-13 Great West champions graduating in May 2013.

* Team Captain

The story is not yet fully written, but that first recruiting class (Class of 2017) and subsequent incoming players have been vital to Highlander men's basketball reaching unprecedented success.

The extremely inexperienced 2013-14 team finished 13-16, but the two teams since have won a combined 41 games (21 in 2014-15 and 20 in 2015-16), while advancing to the semifinals of the national postseason CollegeInsider.com Tournament after both seasons.

In addition, the Highlanders won their first-ever game over a ranked opponent when they upset #17/#16 Michigan in December 2014 and they scored their first-ever win over a team from the BIG EAST Conference when they topped St. John's in December 2015.

Two members of that first recruiting class have already put their names all over the NJIT record books. Damon Lynn, picked second-team all-state (all groups) by the Star-Ledger as a senior at Union Catholic High School, came on board and has started every game the Highlanders have played in his three seasons. Lynn has amassed 1,720 points in three seasons, including a school-record 349 career 3-point baskets.

Tim Coleman came in the same class, entering NJIT after graduating from St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, NJ, where he played for Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame coach Bob Hurley. At St. Anthony,

Coleman was a contributor on teams that won New Jersey state Tournament of Champions crowns following his sophomore and junior seasons. In all, the Friars were 93-2 in Coleman's last 95 career games.

Coleman has grown as a college player, compiling 1,053 points and 548 rebounds through his first three seasons with NJIT.

Rob Ukawuba, a third-team all-state (all groups) pick in the same class, has been a vital contributor as the team's sixth man the last two seasons, posting an 8.2 points per game scoring average this season.

Brian Kennedy is the proud father of four children: daughters Taylor, Tatum, and Kelly; and son Brian, Jr.

McGlynn entered college coaching as a graduate assistant for the University of Detroit Mercy men's basketball program, managing video operations and assisting with opponent scouting. In 2013, Detroit Mercy clinched an NIT berth, McGlynn's first season on staff... He was head student manager for the Towson men's basketball program for four seasons and graduated in 2012 with a bachelor's in Sport Management and received his MBA in Business Administration from Detroit Mercy in 2014... Beginning in June 2011, when he was an intern, McGlynn worked for The Hoop Group, the largest basketball instruction organization in the world. NJIT WELLNESS AND EVENTS CENTER... OPENING 2017

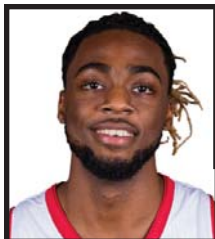

NJIT hosted a groundbreaking ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 12, 2015, for the Wellness and Events Center (WEC), a sleek new building that has the promise to become the social centerpiece of a revamped campus.

The Wellness and Events Center, already nicknamed WEC, is a $102 M building that will be constructed on the site of the current Lubetkin Field at Mal Simon Stadium athletic field. WEC will extend across the length of the field, which will later be rebuilt on the north side of the building. The construction of WEC, to begin after the groundbreaking, will be finished in the Fall of 2017.

As the name implies, WEC is a multi-purpose building. The 200,000-square-foot building will be in equal parts a fitness center, a study space, a gathering spot and a sports arena that will double as a conference and events center. WEC will offer students a place to relax and stay fit; athletes a place to practice and play games; and the university a place to host on-campus events and conferences.

WEC's amenities include: (1) an arena with a 3,500 capacity, (2) a 25-meter pool with diving area, (3) a fitness center with cardio equipment and weights, (4) lounges, study areas and multipurpose rooms, (5) an indoor 10,000 square feet turf space, (6) two practice courts for intramural and intercollegiate sports, (7) a running track that will encircle the concourse of the first-floor arena.

WEC is a major part of a $300 million building plan to overhaul the campus. Other parts of the plan include the Central King Building, whose classrooms and labs are state of the art; the Life Sciences and Engineering Building; a new parking deck, located behind NJIT's Enterprise Development Center on Warren Street; and the renovation of classrooms and labs all over campus. The renovation plan reflects the university's evolution from a commuter school to a nationally-ranked research university. Indeed, NJIT's growing reputation has prompted a surge in enrollment that totals more than 11,000 students.

Coleman, a resident of Union, NJ, is a graduate of St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, where he was coached by Bob Hurley, a 2010 inductee into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame... Played on Friar teams that won the NJSIAA State Tournament of Champions following his sophomore and junior years and he entered his final high school game (a defeat in the Non-Public 'B' final) having been on the winning side in 93 of the prior 94 games... As a senior, Coleman averaged 8 ppg and 5 rpg. One of his memorable efforts came in the New Jersey Non-Public 'B' North title game vs. fellow Jersey City power, Hudson Catholic, which entered the tilt with one loss. St. Anthony, ranked 1st in the state at the time, would defeat 2nd-ranked Hudson decisively, 57-42... Against a Hudson Catholic front line led by Top 75 national recruit Reggie Cameron, a 6'8" power forward now at Georgetown, Coleman came up big. On that night, the 6-5 Coleman matched Cameron in points (12) and rebounds (10) and also posted a game-best four blocked shots... Coleman grabbed nine rebounds in a regular season tilt against nationally-ranked St. Benedict's Prep of Newark...

HIGH SCHOOL:

Versatile swingman was one of New Jersey's top players as a senior at East Brunswick High School and is known for his toughness and athleticism... Ukawuba averaged 16.6 points, 6.8 rebounds, and 2.9 steals a game for East Brunswick, which posted a 26-4 record in 2012-13... Had nine games with 20 or more points and reached double-figure scoring in 29 of the 30 games... Had seven double-figure rebound games... Ukawuba reaped numerous honors for leading veteran coach Bo Henning's East Brunswick's Central Jersey Group 4 champions. The Star-Ledger of Newark named Rob third-team All-State for all groups, making him one of New Jersey's top 15 high school players in the eyes of the state's largest newspaper. In addition, The Star-Ledger also named him first-team All-State in Group 4 (largest public schools); second-team All-State among senior players; and first-team All-Middlesex County. His local daily paper, the Home News Tribune, which is part of MyCentralJersey.com, selected Ukawuba for its All-Area first team. ...Born in New Brunswick, NJ, to parents who immigrated to the United States from Nigeria before he was born, Rob is a chiseled 6-foot-3, 210 pounder who followed his older brother into basketball. He spent the early part of his high school career playing around the basket, but has expanded his game to hone his perimeter skills and he made 25 3-point baskets as a senior, while also notching 66 assists. ...To get a sense of Ukawuba's pure athletic ability, as a senior he told a newspaper interviewer he "might try" track and field in the spring. He did just that in the spring and posted a high jump of 6'0" in the Greater Middlesex Conference Relays. That jump in high school, with limited competitive experience, would have been good for a Top Nine finish in the 2013 championships for local Division I college conference.

PERSONAL:

Robert Ukawuba... son of Charity and Hyacinth Ukawuba... business & information systems major... born 12/2/94 in New Brunswick, NJ.
