Series vs. New Mexico State: GS leads, 2-0

Last Meeting vs. New Mexico State: 2015, Statesboro, Ga. - GS won, 56-26

THE SERIES

• Georgia Southern leads the all-time series with New Mexico State 2-0 after the Eagles downed the Aggies 56-26 last year in Statesboro. The Eagles jumped out to a 28-0 lead in the first half with touchdown runs from four different players and finished with 507 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground.

• In 2014, L.A. Ramsby ran for a career-high 136 yards and his 7-yard touchdown run with 11:37 left in the third quarter gave the Eagles their first lead of the night as they came from behind to beat NMSU 36-28 in Las Cruces.

• Kevin Ellison put the game out of reach after an Aggie touchdown late in the fourth quarter with a 32-yard run up the middle with 2:41 remaining.

• The Aggies jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Eagles scored 29 unanswered points to take their first lead of the game, a 29-14 advantage in the third quarter.

ROAD WARRIORS

• Georgia Southern is in the final part of a tough four-game road stretch as it heads to Las Cruces for Saturday's game. The Eagles are the only FBS squad to play four consecutive road games this year.

• Eight other FBS schools - Arkansas State, Army, Georgia State, Idaho (twice), UL Monroe, UMass, South Alabama and UTSA - will play three straight road games at some point this season.

• The Eagles' 40-day span between home games from Sept. 17 to Oct. 27 is the second-longest in the FBS this year, only behind Idaho's 42-day span late in the season.

KICKIN' KOO

• Senior kicker Younghoe Koo is making the most of his senior season as the New Jersey native is now 10-for-10 on the season on field goal attempts and has made all 14 PATs.

• Koo hit a career-long 53-yard field goal at Arkansas State while making all four of his attempts. In last week's game at Georgia Tech, he made a 44-yard field goal.

MAKING PEACH STATE RUSHING HISTORY

• Senior Matt Breida is quickly moving up the all-time state of Georgia FBS/D-1A rushing leaders and has a chance to finish second all-time behind legendary Herschel Walker.

1.	5,259	Herschel Walker (Georgia), 1980-82
2.	4,066	Robert Lavette (Georgia Tech), 1981-84
3.	3,699	Jerry Mays (Georgia Tech), 1985-89
4.	3,517	Eddie Lee Ivory (Georgia Tech), 1975-78
5.	3,430	Matt Breida (Georgia Southern) 2014-
6.	3,365	Tashard Choice (Georgia Tech), 2005-07
7.	3,345	PJ Daniels (Georgia Tech), 2002-05
8.	3,285	Todd Gurley (Georgia), 2012-14

• Breida's numbers do not include his one 15-yard rush in 2013, which came while GS was still playing in the FCS.

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

- 10 Younghoe Koo has made all 10 of his field goal attempts this season, including two kicks of 40 yards or longer.
- 9 All but nine of Tyler Bass's kickoffs have gone for touchbacks this season (28 of 37).
- 8 BJ Johnson III has become the eighth member of the 1,000-yard receiving club at Georgia Southern.
- 7 The Eagles had seven rushing touchdowns and 507 yards on the ground in last year's win over New Mexico State.
- 6 The Georgia Southern defense has recovered six fumbles this season.
- 5 Matt Breida stands fifth all-time for FBS rushing yards in the state of Georgia with 3,430 yards.
- 4 Saturday's game will be the final of four straight road games for the Eagles, the longest in the FBS this season.
- 3 The Eagles have lost three games in a row for just the eighth time in the modern era.
- 2 This will be Georgia Southern's second game ever played in the state of New Mexico.
- 1 The Eagles have won one of three games played in the Mountain Time Zone. They won at NMSU in 2014 and lost to Furman in the 1988 national championship (Pocatello, Idaho) and at Colorado State in 2007.

WEEK 8 NOTES

- Georgia Southern is in the midst of a 40-day span between home games. This is the second-longest time without a home game amongst all FBS schools in 2016 (Idaho, 42 days).
- As the birds fly, the Eagles will travel 7,822 miles (round trip, via air) in their contests away from home.
- Since joining the FBS in 2014, GS has the second-best record in the state of Georgia:
Georgia: 24-9
Georgia Southern: 21-10 (one win vacated by NCAA)
Georgia Tech: 18-15
Georgia State: 8-22

POST-GEORGIA TECH NOTES

- After yielding just three rushing touchdowns in their first five games, the Eagles' defense ceded four rushing scores to Georgia Tech.
- The Eagles have passed for more yards than they've run for in two straight games. Prior to this two-game streak, they'd run for more yards than passed for in 68 straight games.

NEW MEXICO STATE NOTES

- This is just the seventh all-time game in the Mountain (3) or Pacific (3) time zones for GS.

PACIFIC

1986 at Nevada (playoffs) - W
1999 at Oregon St - L
2015 at Idaho - W

MOUNTAIN

1995 at Montana (playoffs) - L
2007 at Colorado St - L
2014 at New Mexico St - W

- Overall, GS is 3-3 in these games with a 2-2 record in regular season games. They won both Pacific and Mountain time zone games since joining FBS (against Sun Belt foes New Mexico State and Idaho).
- The trip to Statesboro to Las Cruces is 1,440 miles (one way by air). The other six Eagle road trips are a combined 2,471 miles (one way by air).
- Over their two meetings, GS has run for 928 yards and 11 touchdowns. Last season, GS ran for 507 yards which was a Sun Belt best and the fourth-best total in all of FBS last year.
- Kevin Ellison has topped 100 yards in each of the two previous meetings including a 159-yard rushing game in Las Cruces in 2014.
- The Eagles have passed for just two first downs over the two games.
- Georgia Southern has completed just seven total passes vs. the Aggies.

YARDS PER COMPLETION NOTES

- GS averages 14.3 yards per catch, which ranks 14th in FBS and leads the Sun Belt.
- Over the past two years, the Eagles are 11th in FBS in yards per completion (14.2).

(MORE) SUN BELT RUSHING NOTES

- Only seven times has a Sun Belt team ran for over 440 yards since the start of the 2015 season. The Eagles own all seven of those instances, including the 2014 game at New Mexico State (592). That figure also leads the country.

THE DYNAMIC DUO

- When counting only his FBS yards, Kevin Ellison passed the 2,000-yard rushing mark against Western Michigan, joining Taysom Hill of BYU as the only active QBs to rush for that many yards. Since hitting the mark, three other FBS quarterbacks have hit the 2,000-yard mark. Ellison's freshman year, he ran for 886 yards while the Eagles were still in the FCS.
- Ellison was joined in Week 1 by Favian Upshaw in the 1,000 yard club. They're the only active quarterback teammates to both rush for over 1,000 yards in their career.

- Ellison (2,960) and Upshaw (1,263) have combined to run for 4,223 yards in their career. This leads FBS quarterback duos.

RUNNING TOWARD SUCCESS

- Since joining the FBS in 2014, are 21-4 when outrushing their opponents, 0-6 when being outrushed and 0-0 when the rushing total is even.
- Since 2014, GS is 21-1 when rushing for 300 yards or more. The Eagles are 13-0 when rushing for 400 yards or more, 4-0 when rushing for 500 yards or more and 1-0 when rushing for 600 yards or more.
- The Eagles are 19-4 when rushing 50 times or more in a game over the past two-plus seasons.
- Additionally, GS is 18-6 when holding the time of possession battle advantage in that span.

MOVIN UP THE CHARTS

- Kevin Ellison sits in fifth place at GS in career passing yards (2,811) and is 10th in rushing yards (2,960). He passed Chaz Williams for 10th place all-time at GS in the South Alabama game to join Tracy Ham, Greg Hill and Jayson Foster as the only players in the top 10 for both.
- Kevin Ellison sits in fifth place in school history in career passing yards (2,811). He's 393 yards from Kenny Robinson passing fourth place.
- Kevin Ellison has the sixth-most passing completions in GS history with 188.
- Kevin Ellison is 40 rushing yards and 189 passing yards shy of becoming the third Georgia Southern quarterback with 3,000 career passing and 3,000 career rushing yards (Tracy Ham, Greg Hill).
- BJ Johnson III became the eighth member of the 1,000-yard receiving club at Georgia Southern with his performance at Arkansas State and now has 1,046 career receiving yards. He needs 42 yards to pass Teddy Craft (1,087) for seventh place.
- BJ Johnson III now has 68 career receptions, good for seventh place all-time at Georgia Southern. He is four catches away from fourth all-time at GS.
- Matt Breida has 14 games with 100+ rush yards, which is the ninth most in Georgia Southern history. He's two games from Chaz Williams (eighth) and three from Jerick McKinnon (seventh).

HEAD COACH TYSON SUMMERS

Tyson Summers is in his first season as the head coach of the Georgia Southern Eagles. Summers, who has ties to Statesboro from his time with the Eagles in 2006, has a coaching career that has spanned almost 15 years and seven schools and has been a part of seven bowl teams.

A native of Tifton, Georgia, Summers returns home from Colorado State, where he served as the Rams' defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2015. Under his tutelage, the Rams defense ranked 20th in the country in passing defense, giving up just 186.3 yards per game heading into the Arizona Bowl. After dropping two overtime games early in the season, the Rams closed the regular season on a four-game win streak, with three of those victories coming on the road.

Prior to his work at CSU, he spent three seasons at UCF, where he served as defensive coordinator in 2014 for a unit that ranked among the best in the nation.

In his first full season as a defensive coordinator in 2014, Summers, 36, guided the top defense in the American Athletic Conference, and one that ranked in the top 10 among FBS schools in total defense (5th, 298.5 ypg), rushing defense (6th, 104.3 ypg), scoring defense (9th, 19.2 ppg) and red zone defense (6th, 71.4%). Summers' defense helped UCF to a 9-4 record, a second consecutive American Athletic Conference title and a berth in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl. The Knights held six opponents under 100 rushing yards and nine under 200 passing yards.

Three of Summers' defensive players earned first-team all-conference honors, while three more garnered second-team honors. That included cornerback Jacoby Glenn, who was The American's Co-Defensive Player of the Year and UCF's first Associated Press All-American (second team) since it joined the FBS level in 1996. Glenn signed as an undrafted free agent with the Chicago Bears in 2015.

Under Summers' leadership, linebacker Terrance Plummer earned back-to-back first-team All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2013 and 2014. He also was a two-time national defensive player of the week his final two years at UCF.

Summers was hired at UCF as a defensive assistant coach in 2012, and earned the title of linebackers coach one month later. For the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and that spring season, he was named interim defensive coordinator before being promoted to full-time defensive coordinator in April when spring camp concluded.

Summers helped call the plays in UCF's upset victory over high-powered Baylor in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, capping an unforgettable season for the Knights. The win enabled UCF to set a school record with 12 victories overall and achieve a program-high by being ranked No. 10 in the final AP Top 25 Poll. Plummer was named Defensive MVP of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, along with his first-team all-conference honors.

In 2012, Summers tutored three Knight linebackers into consistent a group that led UCF to a Conference USA East Division crown, a Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl win and a 10-4 record. Plummer, in his first year as the Knights' middle linebacker, went on to rack up 108 tackles with seven for loss. On the outsides, Ray Shipman broke out in just his second full season as he amassed 91 tackles. Previously a running back, Jonathan Davis was named the team's Most Improved Defensive Player, capping off the year with 99 tackles, including nine for a loss.

Summers' tenure at UCF came after a five-year stint at UAB that began in December 2006. He served as the Blazers' linebackers coach and added the roles of safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator in the final season of his tenure.

In his first year working with the UAB safeties in 2011, Summers helped mentor Jamie Bender in his senior season as he led the Blazers with 119 tackles. Bender also posted 7.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, six break-ups and four forced fumbles. He was voted on to the All-C-USA Second Team for that performance. On special teams, UAB ranked 17th in the nation by allowing just 4.71 yards per punt return, while freshman kicker Ty Long was named a 2011 Freshman All-American by Phil Steele's College Football Preview.

In Summers' first year at UAB, linebacker Joe Henderson was named to the All-C-USA Second Team. In 2008, Henderson climbed up to the first team thanks to a team-high 87 tackles as well as 12.5 tackles for loss, and went on to play for the BC Lions of the CFL from 2010-11. With a new wave of linebackers under Summers' control in 2010, Marvin Burdette paced the Blazers with 114 tackles en route to All-C-USA Honorable Mention accolades. While Summers was with UAB, kicker Swayze Waters was an All-C-USA First-Team pick in 2007 and 2008, and appeared in NFL preseason games highlighted by a stint with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2011.

Summers coached the safeties at GS in 2006 a year after serving as a graduate assistant for Georgia in 2005. That season, the Bulldogs won the SEC title and earned a berth in the Sugar Bowl which was played in Atlanta after Hurricane Katrina displaced the bowl. Summers worked with the secondary and witnessed three UGA defensive backs being selected in the NFL Draft: Tim Jennings (second round, first-team All-SEC), DeMario Minter (fifth round, first-team All-SEC) and Greg Blue (fifth round, first-team All-American).

During the 2004 season, Summers was a G.A. at Troy, which reached the postseason and the Silicon Valley Classic, and in 2003, he helped guide the defensive backs at Presbyterian College. Summers earned his first coaching position at Tift County (Ga.) High where coached the defensive backs in 2002.

A four-year letterwinner at Presbyterian College, Summers earned preseason All-South Atlantic honors as a linebacker in 1999 and was selected as team captain as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in political science from PC in 2002.

Summers is married to the former Beth King, and the couple has three sons, Jake, Walker and Anderson.

2014 - All-Sun Belt First Team (Sun Belt)

2014 - Doak Walker Award Semifinalist

2014 - Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year (CollegeSportsMadness.com)

- Became the ninth member of the 3,000-yard rushing club at GS against Georgia State last season ... Now has 3,445 yards for his career ... Sits in sixth place all-time at Georgia Southern.

- Was one of only four players with two of rushes of 80 yards or longer last year ... Led the FBS in 60-yard runs (5) and was tied with Florida State's Dalvin Cook in 70-yard runs (4).

- Racked up 1,608 yards rushing and a Sun Belt-leading 17 rushing TDs.

- Had big games in 2015 against Western Michigan (176 yards), The Citadel (164 yards), Idaho (184 yards), ULM (149 yards), Texas State (205 yards) and South Alabama (187 yards) with long scoring runs of 70, 87, 83, 66, 48 and 75 yards.

- Breida finished 10th in the country last season, averaging 128.3 rushing yards per game, and averaged 7.9 yards per carry, tops in the country (min. 100 rush) for the second year in a row ... His 8.68 yards per carry average in 2014 (171-1,485) also ranked first nationally (FBS) and set a new Eagles' single-season record ahead of Adrian Peterson's 7.52 average (257-1,932) from 1998. His average of 7.92 (203-1,608) yards per carry last year bumped Peterson's number down one spot to third place at GS.

- Needs 391 yards to pass Jayson Foster for fifth place all-time at GS for career rushing ... Needs 455 rushing yards to move into third place all-time.

- Has 14 games with 100 yards or more rushing and 12 rushing scores of 50 yards or more.

- Breida's 1,608 rushing yards in 2015 ranked fifth on the GS single-season list.

- Breida has led both the nation and Sun Belt in rushing yards per carry the past two years, finishing at 8.7 in 2014 and 7.9 in 2015.

- As a sophomore, he had more rushing touchdowns of 50 yards or more than anyone in the nation (7) and had the second-highest rushing touchdowns in the league with 17.

ELLISON AND UPSHAW ... UPSHAW AND ELLISON

DYNAMIC DUO LEADS EAGLE OFFENSE ONCE AGAIN

• Georgia Southern features one of the nation's top quarterback duos in seniors Kevin Ellison and Favian Upshaw. While Ellison has started 28 of the past 33 games, it's the quarterback who is hot and moving the chains who gets the call. In last year's GoDaddy Bowl victory over Bowling Green, Upshaw ran for 199 yards and four touchdowns to earn MVP honors of the game, but it was Ellison who ran for 134 yards and two scores and passed for 105 more to help lead the Eagles to a road win at Idaho.

• The combo of Ellison and Upshaw had the most rushing yards of any full-time quarterback duo in the FBS last year with a combined 1,291 yards. Ellison ran for 708 yards and eight TDs while Upshaw tallied 583 yards and six scores.

Ellison/Upshaw (GS): 1,291

Ward/Postma (HOU): 1,246

Jackson/Bonafon (LOU): 1,135

• Ellison is the FBS active leader in career rushing yards amongst quarterbacks:

Ellison (GS): 2,960

Hill (BYU): 2,540

Ward (HOU): 2,271

Thomas (GT): 2,092

Barrett (OSU): 2,054

THE DUAL-THREAT ELLISON

• Senior quarterback Kevin Ellison has 2,960 career rushing yards and 2,811 career passing yards. His 6.12 career yards per rushing attempt currently rank sixth all-time in school history with Matt Breida (7.52 ypc) first, Ricky Harris (6.75 ypc) second, Jayson Foster (6.74 ypc) third and the great Adrian Peterson (6.59 ypc) fourth.

RUSHING ROYALTY

• Georgia Southern is the only FBS school to currently boast two career 2,900-yard rushers: Matt Breida (Sr., RB, 3,445 yards) and Kevin Ellison (Sr., QB, 2,960 yards).

THE KOREAN CONNECTION

• The Eagles have the rare distinction of having two Korean-born players on its roster in Andy Kwon and Younghoe Koo.

• Koo, who made seven field goals and had 45 touchbacks last season, was born August 3, 1994 in Seoul, South Korea, to parents Seungmae Choi and Hyunseo Koo. He was raised in Ridgewood, New Jersey, before signing with Georgia Southern in 2013.

• Kwon, whose birth name is Nam Kyu Kwon, was an all-conference offensive lineman last year at center and was born less than two months later, also in Seoul. He was born on September 30, 1994 to Bruce Kwon and Anna Moon and hails from Suwanee, Georgia.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

• Of the 24 seniors on the 2016 roster, 11 Eagles will be playing the season as college graduates. They are, in alphabetical order: Jake Abraham, Jonathan Battle Jr., Montay Crockett, Sean Gaddy, Nardo Govan, Tre Griffin, BJ Johnson III, Rayquan Sam, Nick Sewak, Mike Summers Jr. (Georgia Tech) and Favian Upshaw.

• Four more seniors - Matt Breida, Ken Butler Jr., Ironhead Gallon and Summers (Master's) are slated to graduate in December and six seniors are on track to graduate in May 2017. Four more seniors are scheduled to finish next summer.

• In addition, three juniors - Myles Campbell, Ukeme Eligwe and Ryan George - are slated to graduate in May 2017. Junior Matt Flynn and sophomore George Johnson Jr. and are scheduled to graduate next summer.

UPSHAW LEADS HANDFUL OF TRANSFERS

• Senior Favian Upshaw (FIU) is one of 19 collegiate transfers on the 2016 GS roster. In addition to Upshaw, others who have transferred from FBS schools include Ukeme Eligwe (Florida State), Mike Summers Jr. (Georgia Tech) and Jake Edwards (Georgia).

HAVE A FIELD(S) DAY

• Sophomore running back Wesley Fields has been described as a hybrid between Matt Breida and L.A. Ramsby and was the third cog in a dynamic backfield that led the nation in rushing yards per game last season.

• A threat to go the distance, on the goal line and in the passing game, Fields had a standout freshman campaign for the Eagles. The Americus, Georgia, native rushed for 682 yards and seven touchdowns on 101 attempts, averaging 6.8 yards per carry. He also had four receptions for 105 yards and one touchdown, including a 60-yard scoring reception against New Mexico State.

• For his efforts, he was named to the All-Sun Belt Newcomer Team and was named the Offensive MVP of the GoDaddy Bowl after rushing for 75 yards and a touchdown while also catching a 17-yard pass in the Eagles' 58-27 win over Bowling Green.

THEY CALL HIM IRONHEAD

• Senior linebacker Deshawntee Gallon has wreaked havoc on opponents the past two-plus seasons, amassing 181 tackles and four blocked kicks.

• Nicknamed "Ironhead" by his father, Shawn, at a young age, Gallon earned honorable mention All-Sun Belt

GS AT A GLANCE

• Eight colleges and schools offer 125 degree programs at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels.

• Ranked No. 1 in affordable colleges in Georgia by College Affordability Guide

• Ranked No. 7 nationwide for the 50 affordable online universities by Online Course Report

• Named "Military-Friendly" school for the fourth year in a row by Military Advanced Education and G.I. Jobs

• The Online Nursing Program was ranked No. 1 for "Most Affordable Online Degrees in Nursing" by OnlineU

• Georgia Southern's graduate programs in public health were ranked 12th in the nation, according to the Spring 2015 Public Health Grad Rankings on GraduatePrograms.com.

• The Georgia Southern College of Business Administration was recognized as one of the top universities for professional sales education in the country by the Sales Education Foundation (SEF).

• The Georgia Southern College of Business Administration was featured in Newsweek's "Great Business Schools 2015," which featured eight outstanding business programs from across the country. These schools were selected not only for their academic standards, but also for their ability to help their students find employment after graduation.

• Georgia Southern's Garden of the Coastal Plain was listed among the "50 Most Amazing University Botanical Gardens and Arboreturns in the U.S." by The Best Colleges.

• The Online MBA offered by the College of Business Administration at Georgia Southern has been ranked 17th by BestColleges.com as a Top Online MBA Program of 2015.

• The College of Education earned a top 75 ranking among schools offering online graduate education programs in the 2015 U.S. News & World Report "Best Online Graduate Education Programs."

• Georgia Southern University's online M.Ed. in Higher Education degree program has been ranked by TheBestSchools.org as one of "The 25 Best Online Master in Higher Education Degree Programs."

• For the fourth consecutive year, GS has been named by U.S. News & World Report as a Best Online Education Program. Degrees on the annual list included graduate computer information technology, graduate education, graduate business and our online bachelor's programs.

honors last season after recording 81 total tackles (39u, 42a) with 1.5 sacks, two blocked kicks, 4.5 tackles for loss, two quarterback hurries and three pass breakups.

CONTINUE THE JOURNEY

- Georgia Southern, the FCS's winningest team with more than 50 games played, posted a .718 winning percentage and 294 all-time wins to go along with its unprecedented six national championships.
- The University announced its acceptance of an invitation to join the Sun Belt for the 2014-2015 academic year on March 27, 2013 and began its transition with the 2013 season.
- In 2014, the Eagles were bowl eligible and won the Sun Belt Conference championship with a perfect conference mark, but were denied their appeal for a bowl due to being in the final transitional year.
- In their second year, the Eagles won nine games, including the GoDaddy Bowl over Bowling Green in the program's first NCAA postseason bowl game.

BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

- Georgia Southern lost its top receiving threat in BJ Johnson III last season when he went down with a broken clavicle against Idaho. Originally feared to be lost for the year, Johnson progressed quicker than anyone expected and returned to the field against Troy on Nov. 14, missing just four games. The senior has 68 receptions for 1,046 yards and four touchdowns in his career.

HOME-GROWN TALENT

- There are 84 players on the Georgia Southern roster who are from the state of Georgia.

HIRING BRIGHT AND SUCCESSFUL COACHES

- Since Paul Johnson left Georgia Southern in 2001, the Eagles have had seven head coaches, including new head man Tyson Summers. GS has produced some of the brightest names in coaching, including three FBS head coaches:

Paul Johnson (HC at GS '97-'01; HC at Georgia Tech)
Mike Sewak (HC at GS '02-'05; OL at Georgia Tech)
Brian VanGorder (HC at GS '06; former DC at Notre Dame)
Chris Hatcher (HC at GS '07-'09; HC at Samford)
Jeff Monken (HC at GS '10-'13; HC at Army)
Willie Fritz (HC at GS '14-'15; HC at Tulane)

HELMET TECHNOLOGY

When Georgia Southern started preseason camp in 2013, it joined an elite group of collegiate football teams employing the Helmet Impact Telemetry System (HITS), which measures and records every hit to the head during practices and games.

With funding from the Office of the Vice President for Research and Economic Development, Georgia Southern has equipped 40 helmets with the Riddell HITS system. There are six sensors inside each helmet that measure the severity of a hit to the head.

A typical impact in football lasts about 15 milliseconds, and in that instant, measurements from the sensors will be transmitted in nearly real-time to a laptop computer being monitored on the sidelines of all practices and games.

If a hit reaches a certain threshold, a pager worn by a graduate research student and the head athletics trainer will receive a notification and will follow with appropriate action and attention. If they display any unusual behavior, a clinical evaluation will be conducted to see if it is safe for him to continue playing or not.

Each impact is time stamped and can be synchronized with game video so coaches, athletics trainers and researchers can better evaluate the hits.

Less than two dozen schools are using the system around the country. Other schools to use the HITS system in their football programs include Virginia Tech, North Carolina and Oklahoma, putting GS at the forefront of concussion prevention in college football.

I LOVE L.A.

- While a lot of the attention is thrust on Matt Breida and his numbers, L.A. Ramsby helps form one of the top rushing groups in the country.
- Originally recruited as an option quarterback, the redshirt junior was moved to running back and ran for 691 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2014 as the Eagles led the FBS with an average of 381.1 rushing yards per game.
- His legal name is Alfred Ramsby Jr., but is nicknamed L.A. - for Little Al (his father is Alfred Ramsby Sr.).
- The Cincinnati, Ohio, native scored at least one touchdown in the final 10 games of the 2014 season, and scored a touchdown in the final nine games of 2015.
- Ramsby has rushed for 1,728 career yards and scored 30 touchdowns thus far.

EAGLE ANALYTICS

• Georgia Southern finished 2014 - its first year in the FBS and final year of transition from the FCS - with a bowl eligible 9-3 record, but had its bowl waiver request denied by the NCAA. One of those wins (ULM) has since been vacated by the NCAA due to sanctions.

• GS joined only Nevada (1992) and Marshall (1997) to win a conference title in their first year of FBS play, and became the first to go undefeated in conference play in winning the title.

• Georgia Southern's 21-10 mark is the best 30-game FBS start since Marshall posted a 26-4 mark from 1997 through 1999. One of those wins was vacated by the NCAA, however, due to sanctions (ULM, 2014).

• In two-plus seasons at the FBS level, the Eagles have recorded 124 rushing touchdowns and 10,892 rushing yards, the most in the FBS over the past two seasons ahead of Navy's 9,954 yards and 114 touchdowns.

• Last season, an FBS-high four Eagle players rushed for 600 yards or more.

• The past two years, Georgia Southern has led the country in rushing at 381.1 (2014) and 363.0 (2015) yards per contest, which were the second and fourth-best totals, respectively, since 1997.

1. Nebraska (1997) - 392.6
2. Georgia Southern (2014) - 381.1
3. Army (2012) - 369.8
4. Georgia Southern (2015) - 363.0

• The Eagles have also led the nation in touchdowns on the ground the past two seasons (55 in 2014, 54 in 2015). Those totals were tied for the second-best and the fourth-best totals, respectively, since 1997 and the best amongst "Group of 5" teams:

1. Nebraska (1997) - 65
2. Georgia Southern (2014) - 55
- Texas (2005) - 55
4. Georgia Southern (2015) - 54

• Georgia Southern's 7.1 YPC in 2014 and its 6.5 YPC last year ranked as the second- and ninth-highest averages, respectively, over the past 20 seasons in FBS. The 7.1 average was the second-best amongst teams in "Group of 5" leagues (Nevada, 7.4 YPC, 2009) while the 6.5 YPC average was the fourth-best during that span. The two averages are top two ever for any Sun Belt member.

• GS led the country last season with six of the top 20 rushing single games in FBS. No other team in the FBS had three (Oregon and Air Force each had two).

• Dating back to the Sun Belt's formation in 2001, GS has had three of the top five single-game rushing totals in the history of the SBC and the Eagles are just two full seasons in the league.

• GS hasn't just set Sun Belt records in rushing yards, touchdowns and yards per carry, but have done so by a significant margin in each category:

Rushing Yards (1,190 yard difference)

1. GS (2015) - 4,719
2. App State (2015) - 3,529

Rushing TDs (20 TD difference)

1. GS (2014) - 55
2. Arkansas State (2014) - 35

YPC (1.2 YPC difference)

1. GS (2014) - 7.1
2. UL Lafayette (2008) - 5.9

• Running back Matt Breida has led the FBS in yards per carry the past two seasons at 8.7 (2014) and 7.9 (2015) (min: 200 attempts). Those totals are tied for the most and the fifth-best YPC averages, respectively, over the past 20 seasons.

1. Reggie Bush - USC* (2005) - 8.7
- 1. Matt Breida - Georgia Southern (2014) - 8.7
3. Devon Johnson - Marshall (2014) - 8.6
4. Kareem Hunt - Toledo (2014) - 8.0
- 5. Matt Breida - Georgia Southern (2015) - 7.9
6. Melvin Gordon - Wisconsin* (2014) - 7.8

BREAKING DOWN BARRIERS

• Football operations is a critical position within a staff, a catch-all post that serves as the head coach's right-hand man, or in this case, woman. Cymone George, who handles the role as the Director of Football Operations for the Eagles, is responsible for taking care of all the travel arrangements, meals for the players and staff, and all the day-to-day operations of the football team.

RETIRED NUMBERS

• GS has retired two numbers in its football history, No. 3 for Adrian Peterson and No. 8 for Tracy Ham.

ADRIAN PETERSON

• NCAA Division I all-time leading rusher with 6,559 yards in regular-season contests ... Four-time All-American ... Led Eagles to two national titles and three championship games ... Rushed for 100 or more yards in 48 consecutive games ... At time of graduation, held 30 school and playoff records ... No. 3 jersey retired in 2001 ... Sixth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears (2002).

TRACY HAM

• A 2007 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee ... Inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame (2010) ... First-team All-American (1986) ... Led Eagles to back-to-back I-AA National Championships (1985, 1986) ... All-time leader in total offense (8,969 yards), passing yards (5,757) and passing TDs (34) ... No. 8 jersey retired in 1987 ... Drafted by the Los Angeles Rams (1987) ... Associate AD for Internal Operations at GS.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

• Georgia Southern has a rich tradition in the college football world, winning six Division I-AA national titles, but also has traditions that make the program unique.

Yellow School Buses

• When the football program was resurrected in 1981, the team needed a way to travel to practices and games. Operating on a shoestring budget didn't allow for transportation back then, let alone any luxurious travel. The Bulloch County Board of Education stepped in with a deal the University couldn't refuse: GS would only pay $1 each for two yellow school buses. The football team still uses the buses to this day, taking them to practices and using them on game day, as well.

Beautiful Eagle Creek

• When Georgia Southern resurrected the football program in 1981, traditions and spirit needed resurrection as well. So legendary head football coach Erk Russell created his own. Inspired by the gnat-infested drainage ditch that cut across the field between what was then the team's locker room and practice fields, Russell convinced his players that its stagnant water was actually "Beautiful Eagle Creek," a source of "magical" waters.

Freedom's Flight

• In what has become one of the most popular traditions at GS, "Freedom," a male American Bald Eagle, takes flight before each home football game. Freedom is a Southern Bald Eagle that was found knocked out of the nest in Maitland, Florida. Only weeks old and appearing like a "brown ball of fuzz", it was discovered that the young eagle had an injury to its beak and suffered from an infection. Rushed to the Florida Audubon Center for Birds of Prey, Freedom made a complete recovery from the infection but the injury to the beak was permanent, preventing his release into the wild.

• With the permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, GS acquired Freedom in 2004. Through the Georgia Southern University Center for Wildlife Education and Lamar Q. Ball Jr. Raptor Center, thousands of visitors young and old are embraced by the Power of Freedom.

• Under the supervision of Steve Hein, Director of the Center for Wildlife Education, Freedom is on the sidelines of all GS home games, and select road games.

ROAD WARRIORS

• Georgia Southern is the only FBS squad to play four consecutive road games this year when the Eagles traveled to Western Michigan (9/24), Arkansas State (10/5), Georgia Tech (10/15) and New Mexico State (10/22).

• Eight other FBS schools - Arkansas State, Army, Georgia State, Idaho (twice), UL Monroe, UMass, South

Game #1: Defense Pitches Shut Out in Summers' Debut

Savannah State	0
Georgia Southern	54

Allen E. Paulson Stadium • Statesboro, Ga.
Sept. 3, 2016 • Attendance: 21,250

STATESBORO — Quarterback Favian Upshaw accounted for 168 yards and four touchdowns, and Georgia Southern opened the 2016 football season and the era of new head coach Tyson Summers with a 54-0 victory over Savannah State at Paulson Stadium.

The Georgia Southern defense was stout in its season debut and pitched its first shutout since blanking Jacksonville 58-0 in the 2012 season opener in Paulson Stadium. The Eagles held Savannah State to 114 total yards, including 34 on the ground, and recorded three takeaways, four sacks and 11 tackles for loss. Ironhead Gallon posted six tackles, and Ukeme Eligwe finished with five tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss.

The Eagles rolled up 420 yards and six touchdowns on the ground and unveiled a successful aerial attack to the tune of 185 yards and two scores. Upshaw completed 7-of-10 passes for 115 yards and two touchdowns, and Kevin Ellison was perfect on five throws for 70 yards. It was the most passing yards in a game since 2014, when the Eagles threw for 201 in a 47-24 win over Idaho in Paulson Stadium.

Montay Crockett was the primary beneficiary with three receptions for 73 yards, while Matt Breida and Wesley Fields each caught TD passes. Fields also ran for 87 yards and a score, and Breida carried 10 times for 68 yards and a TD. Demarcus Godfrey rushed 14 times for 124 yards, all in the second half.

The Eagles scored on their first three possessions of the contest to take control of the game early. Ellison threw to Crockett for a 25-yard pickup down to the Savannah State 2-yard line to set up the first score. Upshaw went around the right side on a keeper for a touchdown two plays later.

Eight players made their first collegiate starts night with 24 Georgia Southern players seeing their first collegiate action. Six true freshmen played in the game, including Monquavion Brinson who started at cornerback.

Game #2: Eagles Open Sun Belt Play With Tough Win at South Alabama

Georgia Southern	24
South Alabama	9

Ladd-Peebles Stadium • Mobile, Ala.
Sept. 10, 2016 • Attendance: 17,691

MOBILE, Ala. — The Georgia Southern defense held its opponent out of the end zone for the second consecutive week, and Favian Upshaw accounted for 235 total yards of offense as the Eagles opened Sun Belt play with a 24-9 win over South Alabama at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

An interception in the end zone by redshirt freshman Jessie Liptrot with less than a minute to go sealed the win and preserved an impressive streak that began in the same stadium in the GoDaddy Bowl last December. The Eagles (2-0, 1-0 Sun Belt) have kept their opponents out of the end zone for 10 consecutive quarters and over 150 minutes, dating back to the first half of the bowl win over Bowling Green.

Ukeme Eligwe and Ironhead Gallon led the way with seven tackles apiece, and Eligwe also had a tackle for loss. Georgia Southern held the Jaguars (1-1, 0-1 Sun Belt) to 73 yards on the ground and combined for seven tackles for loss and a sack. The Eagle pressure forced South Alabama to convert on just five of its 19 third- and fourth-down chances.

On the other side of the ball, Upshaw and the Georgia Southern offense also picked up right where they left off in the GoDaddy Bowl, as the Eagles accounted for 441 total yards of offense — 304 on the ground and 137 through the air — and three rushing touchdowns. Upshaw rushed for 108 and threw for 127 off a 6-for-9 performance, and Kevin Ellison ran for 86 yards and a score. BJ Johnson III caught three passes for 63 yards, while Wesley Fields and L.A. Ramsby ran for TDs.

Trailing 24-9, South Alabama moved the ball down the Eagle 6-yard line, but Liptrot thwarted any hopes of a last-gasp comeback by leaping high in the air to pull down a Dallas Davis pass. He seemed to think about running it out but decided discretion would be the better part of valor in this scenario and went down for the touchdown.

After holding a 10-6 lead at halftime, Georgia Southern opened the second half with a nine-play, 73-yard drive, capped by a Fields 5-yard touchdown dive to put the Eagles up 17-6. The Eagles held the Jags scoreless in the third quarter, and Ellison added to the lead with a 27 yard TD run 49 seconds into the fourth.

The Georgia Southern defense forced South Alabama to turn the ball over on downs three times inside the Eagle 40-yard line in the second half and held the Jags to field goals three times after moving the ball inside the GS 25-yard line in the game.

Game #3: Murray's Blocked FG Lifts Eagles to Tight Win Over ULM

UL Monroe	21
Georgia Southern	23

Allen E. Paulson Stadium • Statesboro, Ga.
Sept. 17, 2016 • Attendance: 25,735

STATESBORO — Georgia Southern's RJ Murray blocked a 42-yard field goal attempt by ULM's Craig Ford with 1:18 to play, and the Eagles hung on for a 23-21 Sun Belt Conference football victory over the Warhawks before a school-record crowd of 25,735 at Paulson Stadium.

The Eagles were flagged with pass interference on 3rd-and-13 to give ULM a fresh set of downs at the GS 21-yard line with under two minutes to go. The Eagle defense dug in, and Chris DeLaRosa sacked Garrett Smith on third down to push ULM back and set up the long field goal try.

L.A. Ramsby rushed for 86 yards, and Wesley Fields churned up 84 and a touchdown to lead the Eagles (3-0, 2-0). Ironhead Gallon led the defense with 10 tackles, and Ukeme Eligwe had nine stops and an interception. Younghoe Koo made a career-high three field goals.

Smith threw for 283 yards and two touchdowns and ran for a score, and Marcus Green caught two passes for 75 yards and a TD for the Warhawks (1-2, 0-1).

With Georgia Southern leading 16-14, Fields dove into the end zone from the 2-yard line, and Koo added the PAT to extend the margin to 23-14 and open up some breathing room early in the fourth quarter. Montay Crockett gave the Eagles good field position with a 14-yard punt return, while Fields ripped off a 20-yard run and Ramsby had a 17-yard rush.

ULM came right back with a 57-yard pass from Smith to R.J. Turner, which set up a 10-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Green in the corner of the end zone. Ford added the extra point to cut the lead to 23-21 with 10:12 left in the game.

The Warhawks scored just 4:34 into the contest, when Smith hit Xavier Brown with a 32-yard touchdown pass, and it was the first touchdown against the Eagles in 155 minutes and 10 seconds, or over 10 quarters, dating back to last season. Smith then threw to Green for a 65-yard pickup over the middle, and Smith ran it in two plays later as ULM opened a 14-0 lead.

The Eagles used an up-tempo offense to drive 74 yards in 2:24 to trim the deficit in half on their next possession. Sixty-seven yards came on the ground, and Kevin Ellison ran it in from 6 yards out with seven seconds left in the first quarter.

Koo knocked in a 32-yarder with 3:58 left in the second quarter and kept moving back just like in the back yard. The senior made a 37-yarder and one from 43 yards out in the third quarter, and GS led 16-14 with 15 minutes to go. Meanwhile, the GS defense reverted to its previous form and allowed just 22 yards and a first down in the frame.

Game #4: Broncos Power Past Eagles in Kalamazoo

Georgia Southern	31
Western Michigan	49

Waldo Stadium • Kalamazoo, Mich.
Sept. 24, 2016 • Attendance: 17,208

KALAMAZOO, Mich. — Darius Phillips took a kickoff back 100 yards for a touchdown and returned an interception 70 yards for score to lead Western Michigan to a 49-31 non-conference football victory over Georgia Southern at Waldo Stadium.

Favian Upshaw threw for 103 yards and two touchdowns for the Eagles (3-1), while Kevin Ellison ran for 46 yards and threw for 65 yards and a touchdown.

Phillips added two tackles and a pass breakup and finished with 221 return yards for Western Michigan (4-0), and Zach Terrell completed 18 of 27 passes for 270 yards and four touchdowns. Jamauri Bogan rushed for 104 yards and a score, and Michael Henry hauled in eight receptions for 125 yards and two touchdowns.

The game turned in favor of the Broncos in a three-minute span in the second quarter after Younghoe Koo hit a 34-yard field goal to trim an early Eagle deficit to 14-10. Phillips took the ensuing kickoff at the goal line, started down the right sideline and cut back left where he found nothing but green turf on his way to a 100-yard touchdown.

On the second play of the Eagles' next possession, Western Michigan's Justin Ferguson faked at Ellison, who tried to pitch the ball on the option play at the last second. Ferguson batted the ball down, and Bronco Eric Assuoa recovered it at the GS 20-yard line.

After picking up a first down on fourth-and-1, Terrell hit Carrington Thompson with an 8-yard touchdown pass to make the score 28-10 midway through the period.

Ellison and Upshaw engineered a nine-play, 83-yard drive on the next GS possession, and Upshaw found Myles Campbell over the middle for a 33-yard touchdown pass to make the score 28-17 with 3:11 left in the half.

But Western Michigan was not done, and the Broncos zipped down the field for a score in 1:36. Terrell found Thompson for a 29-yard pass down the right sideline and then hit Corey Davis for a 35-yard touchdown to push the lead to 35-17 at halftime.

Phillips picked off an Upshaw pass and took it 70 yards down the left sideline for a Western Michigan touchdown and a 42-17 lead on the first drive of the second half. GS closed to within 11 points in the fourth quarter on TDs by Montay Crockett and L.A. Ramsby, but Western Michigan put the game away with a 15-play, 87-yard touchdown drive that ate 7:45 off the clock.

Game #5: Arkansas State Roars Back Late For Last-Second Win

Georgia Southern	26
Arkansas State	27

Centennial Bank Stadium • Jonesboro, Ark.

Oct. 5, 2016 • Attendance: 19,381

JONESBORO, Ark. — Justice Hansen hit Omar Bayless with an 8-yard touchdown pass with nine seconds left, and J.D. Houston made the extra point to lift Arkansas State to a 27-26 Sun Belt Conference football victory over Georgia Southern on a Wednesday night at Centennial Bank Stadium.

The Red Wolves got the ball at their own 30-yard line with 2:41 to play, but Tre Griffin crashed through the line to make a 6-yard tackle for loss, and Logan Hunt forced a hurried throw to set up 4th-and-16. Hansen went back to pass, pulled it down and used his legs for a nifty 18-yard run and a first down. Seven plays later, he threw a back-shoulder fade to Kendall Sanders for a 29-yard gain to set the Red Wolves up at the 8-yard line and the eventual game winner.

Kevin Ellison completed 14 of 22 passes for 203 yards and a touchdown, and L.A. Ramsby ran six times for 68 yards and a score for Georgia Southern. Myles Campbell caught six passes for 98 yards and a touchdown, and BJ Johnson III had four receptions for 68 yards. Younghoe Koo kicked a career-high four field goals, including a 53-yarder, tied for the 10th-longest in school history.

Warren Wand ran 19 times for 140 yards and a touchdown and caught five passes for 27 yards for Arkansas State. Johnston White rushed for 126 yards, and Hansen threw for 182 yards and two scores and ran for 61 yards.

Georgia Southern forced five turnovers but managed to turn them into just three points as the Eagles settled for three field goals in their three trips inside the Red Zone.

Leading 26-20, Georgia Southern turned A-State over on downs on 4th-and-6 when Darius Jones Jr. and Ukeme Eligwe tackled Sanders a yard short of the first down marker with 3:06 to go. The Eagles went three-and-out, forcing ASU to use all three of its timeouts, but were forced to punt. GS managed just eight total yards and one first down in the fourth quarter.

Georgia Southern ate up 9:04 off the clock on its first possession of the second half, and a 24-yard Koo field goal put the Eagles on top 16-10. The defense got the ball back for the Eagles a few minutes later, and Ellison hit Myles Campbell for a 63-yard highlight reel touchdown pass that made the score 23-10 late in the third.

Game #6: Jackets' Quick Start Too Much To Overcome For Eagles

Georgia Southern	24
Georgia Tech	35

Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Oct. 15, 2016 • Attendance: 47,609

ATLANTA — Georgia Tech quarterback Justin Thomas accounted for 250 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Yellow Jackets to a 35-24 victory over Georgia Southern at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

L.A. Ramsby rushed for two touchdowns, and Kevin Ellison threw for 102 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 18 yards to lead Georgia Southern. Favian Upshaw collected 107 total yards, and BJ Johnson III caught three passes for 42 yards and a touchdown.

Thomas ran for 78 yards and a pair of touchdowns and threw for 172 yards and a score for Georgia Tech. Dedrick Mills ran 13 times for 89 yards and two touchdowns, and Clinton Lynch caught two passes for 81 yards and a score.

Georgia Tech blitzed Georgia Southern early in the contest and scored two touchdowns on its first five plays from scrimmage. After the Eagles cut the margin to 11 points in the fourth quarter, Mills effectively put the game away with a 20-yard run with 3:58 remaining.

Thomas struck first with a 58-yard run on the option keeper when the senior went around the right side and faked the pitch before bursting down the right sideline.

Thomas then found Lynch with a 65-yard pass up the seam for a touchdown to open a 14-0 lead just 4:07 into the contest.

Georgia Southern got back in the game with a 75-yard drive, and a 1-yard run by L.A. Ramsby on fourth-and-goal helped trim the margin to 14-7 midway through the quarter. A 50-yard run by Marcus Marshall set up a 6-yard touchdown run for Mills, and Georgia Tech opened a 21-7 cushion last in the first.

The Eagle defense tightened up in the second quarter, and Younghoe Koo hit a 44-yard field goal to trim the lead to 21-10 at the break. The Eagles moved the ball to midfield twice in the third but had drives stall out, and the Yellow Jackets used an 11-play, 90-yard drive, capped by 4-yard run by Thomas, to extend the margin to 28-10 early in the fourth.

A 19-yard pass from Ellison to Johnson and a 25-yard completion to Keigan Williams helped set up a 1-yard run for Ramsby, and GS cut the margin to 28-17 with 9:38 to go. Johnson III caught a 3-yard pass from Ellison on the slant route, and Koo added the point after with 1:03 left for the final margin.

In a turnover free contest, the Yellow Jackets scored on their first three drives and last two possessions of the contest and outgained the Eagles 437-335.
