Leading Off...

■ New Mexico State travels for a four-game road stretch beginning with a midweek clash against Battle of I-25 rival New Mexico on Tuesday, April 16, in Albuquerque, N.M. and followed by a three-game WAC series versus Utah Valley, April 18-20, in Drem, Utah.

■ Following a dominant four games at the plate, NM State shortstop Joey Ortiz earned the team's fifth WAC Hitter of the Week honor of the season.

■ Heading into the fifth week of Western Athletic Conference play, NM State currently leads the WAC in 13 offensive and three defensive categories.

■ 34 games into the season the Aggies currently rank in the top-25 nationally in 14 categories, including nine NCAA-leading statistics:

Brian Green completed his fourth season as the head coach of his alma mater in June of 2018 after being named the 10th head coach in New Mexico State baseball history on Friday, July 25, 2014.

At the conclusion of the 2018 season, Green has guided NM State to 109 wins in a three year stretch. That stretch also includes three straight nationally ranked recruiting classes. Since 2016, Green has helped send ten players to the professional ranks, including a trio of top six round picks the last three years. Under his watch, the Aggies have had five players earn postseason All-American honors the last three years.

Green guided the Aggies to a historic season in 2018, leading the team to a 40-22 overall record, a 17-7 mark in Western Athletic Conference play, the first WAC Tournament title in program history and just the fourth Regional appearance in the history of the program. 2018 marked just the second time in program history in which the team recorded 40 wins and reached an NCAA Regional.

Along the way in 2018, NM State shattered three team records and five individual records. NM State established new single-season team records in strikeouts (537), hit by pitch (119) and team fielding percentage (.977). Individually, Kyle Bradish broke the school record for strikeouts in a season (140), Jonathan Groff broke the record for wins (11), Brock Whittlesey broke the saves record (12), Tristen Carranza was hit by a program record 21 pitches and Caleb Henderson set a new school record for games played (62).

NM State placed seven players on the All-Conference list at the end of the Regular Season with three players claiming All-American honors. Groff became the first conference pitcher of the year in program history while Nick Gonzales earned WAC Freshman of the Year honors, the first Aggie to receive the honor in the school's history in the WAC.

Groff, Bradish and Gonzales all captured All-American honors. Groff earned Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Second Team All-American honors while Bradish was named a Third Team All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings. Meanwhile, Gonzales captured Freshman All-American honors from three different publications (Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, NCBWA and Perfect Game/Rawlings).

In June of 2018, Bradish became the highest drafted player in program history when the Los Angeles Angels selected him in the fourth round (121 overall). Bradish became the third Aggie since 2016 to be drafted in the top six rounds.

Green led NM State to a 35-20 overall record and 19-5 mark in Western Athletic Conference in 2017. At season's end, the Aggies were ranked in the top-25 nationally in multiple categories. These impressive totals include finishing second in triples (31), fourth in batting average (.322), seventh in slugging percentage (.501), eighth in scoring (7.9 runs per game), 12th in on-base percentage (.403), 17th in runs (453) and 18th in hits (650).

Under Green's leadership the Aggies saw multiple players earn postseason honors. Seven New Mexico State players earned recognition on the All-WAC baseball teams, tied for the most in 2017 with CSU Bakersfield and the most in school history since 2012.

The All-WAC honorees included first-team honorees Dan Hetzel, Mason Fishback, LJ Hatch and Kyle Bradish. Then on the second-team the Aggies saw Brent Sakurai, Tristen Carranza and Jonathan Groff earn the distinction.

Behind the plate, Fishback earned a Second-Team All-American nod from the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. Fishback was just the second Aggie to be named to the Collegiate Baseball post-season All-American team, joining 2002 selection Gabe Velaz.

Sakurai was also named to the Midwest All-Region Second-Team as voted on by members of the ABCA and the process is led by the ABCA NCAA Division I All-America Committee.

Following the season, the Aggies made history in the 2017 MLB Draft. NM State pitcher Marcel Renteria was selected in the sixth round, pick 187, by the New York Mets. This was the first time in program history that two Aggies had been drafted in the first six rounds. Renteria was also just the fifth NM State player all-time to be drafted in the first 10 rounds.

In just his second season, Green helped guide the Aggies to the best win improvement in all of college baseball. The turnaround was a few wins shy of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history. After compiling a record of 11-38-1 in 2015, Green and the Aggies finished 2016 with a record of 34-23. Among the 34 wins was an early March road upset of nationally ranked and eventual College World Series participant, Texas Tech.

In the offseason leading up to the 2016 campaign, Green and his staff were recognized for having the 37th-best recruiting class in the country as rated by Collegiate Baseball. The recruiting class included a pair of 2016 MLB draft picks in Joe Galindo (13th round) and Tyler Erwin (23rd round). Both of the draft picks were only juniors and had just concluded their first year with the Aggies. Green didn't stop there as Collegiate Baseball ranked their 2017 recruiting class 33rd best in the country, marking the 12th-consecutive year he has racked up a ranked class from a national publication.

Green mentored five players from the 2016 roster that earned all-conference honors at the conclusion of the 2016 regular season - including Johnson, the Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year.

Johnson was the easy choice for WAC Player of the Year after batting .382 with 12 home runs and 50 runs batted in. He also recorded seven triples and stole 29 bases on the season. He also led the conference in batting average, hits, home runs, stolen bases and runs scored. Johnson was also named an ABCA/Rawlings Third Team All-American and finished the 2016 campaign fourth in the country in hits.

Green helped engineer a near 3-run improvement in team ERA from 2015 to 2016. NM State compiled a 4.61 team ERA in 2016, which was the second-best in program history. Individually, closer Joe Galindo's ERA of 2.48 was the best by an Aggie since 1972.

At the conclusion of the 2016 campaign, pitcher Kyle Bradish became the first-ever Aggie hurler to earn Freshman All-American honors. Bradish also finished the 2016 season with the most strikeouts by a freshman in program history. Of the three players that were drafted in the 2016 MLB Draft, Johnson was the first drafted, going off the board in the fifth-round to the Washington Nationals and became the second-highest draft pick in school history. Galindo was the first NM State pitcher taken in the draft when he was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 13th round. Meanwhile, Erwin was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 23rd round. With Quinton Mack going in the 35th round to the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2015, the current Aggie Staff has had 4 players move on professionally in just 2 seasons. The three players drafted also marked the first time since 2009 that NM State had Aggies drafted in the same year.

"We have been really proud of the professional and athletic development that has gone on in our first three seasons, it's a testament to the efforts our assistant coaches," Green said. "We believe in 3 pillars as a staff, which guides us in our vision. To Recruit and Develop, to Teach within our system and to Inspire our Community. These are the founding principles which bring us to work energized every day to serve our players and administration."

Off the field, the Aggies have certainly made an impact in community. The baseball team has clocked over 4,000 hours of community service in Green's three seasons in Las Cruces, including winning the Male Team Community Service Award in 2015. The Aggies have partnered with Special Olympics New Mexico, the Meca Miracles and the Las Cruces Special Needs in establishing each groups specific day at the ballpark to interact with the Aggie Players. In the fall of 2015, NM State Baseball was recognized for Community outreach with their video production of "Special Needs Day".

In the classroom, the Aggies have excelled. Since the fall of 2014, the NM State baseball team has earned a cumulative team GPA of 3.01 and have placed 13 players on the WAC All-Academic team and have had 34 Aggie ball players named Crimson Scholars.

The Aggies have also set school records for season ticket sales in back-to-back years and almost tripled the previous record, as well as setting records for gate attendance and revenue earned since the fall of 2014. In addition, Aggie baseball now has RV's routinely in attendance for home baseball weekends. "We teach our kids that if you want something in life, your number one determinant of potentially achieving success is the understanding that we are entitled to very little, and that the concept of earning is the key to sustainability and potential success," said Green. "We believe that by getting out into the community, we can engage all of the baseball people to come out and impact our team. They certainly have done that after 2 seasons."

Green came back to his alma mater after coaching for six seasons as an assistant at Kentucky. In 2014, he directed the best offense in college baseball and in Kentucky history. Green was UK's offensive coordinator and infield defensive coach.

During his time in Lexington, Green guided one of the top offensive units in the nation, with the Wildcats consistently boasting a well-rounded approach among the Southeastern Conference leaders. Green implemented an offensive style that puts emphasis on speed and athleticism, with an aggressive approach at the plate and on the base paths – a system that proved to brilliantly foreshadow the NCAA change in bats.

A native of Temecula, Calif., Green was a four-year assistant coach at UCLA before going to Kentucky as one of the top hitting instructors in college baseball. A tenacious recruiter, he had tremendous success while on the west coast as the recruiting coordinator with traditional powerhouse UCLA, where he recruited the bulk of the Bruins that recently won the national championship.

Other stops for Green include Hawai'i, Oregon State, San Diego, Chapman University, Cal Poly-Pomona, Riverside Community College and New Mexico State.

Green's dynamic offense at Kentucky in 2014 led the SEC in eight categories, ranking in the top three in 10-of-13 major categories. UK led the league in average (.299), slugging (.446), on-base percentage (.398), runs (472), RBI (423), homers (60) and hit batters (109). The Wildcats were also ranked second in the SEC in hits (655) and doubles (121), while ranking third in walks (268).

Kentucky saw A.J. Reed go to the Astros to open the second round followed with centerfielder Austin Cousino going in the third round to the Seattle Mariners. Reed and Cousino marked the highest drafted position player duo in program history. Third baseman Max Kuhn, who had three at-bats as a freshman, and hit under .250 as a sophomore, was a 13th-round pick in the draft by the Athletics. Kuhn finished 2014 leading the SEC and all BCS conferences in runs scored, becoming the first UK player to lead in the SEC in runs since Billy White in 1988.

Fifth-year senior Michael Thomas was also picked in the 2014 MLB Draft, going to the Detroit Tigers, while senior shortstop Matt Reid signed with the Tampa Bay Rays as an undrafted free agent.

Green's dynamic offense was paced by one of the best players in the history of college baseball in 2014, two-way star and Golden Spikes Award Winner, AJ Reed. The Golden Spikes Award is given to the top collegiate baseball player in America. The first pick of the second round in the 2014 MLB Draft by the Houston Astros, Reed was named the Dick Howser Trophy Award winner, the Baseball America College Player of the Year, Collegiate Baseball's Player of the Year and the American Baseball Coaches Association National Player of the Year. The first national player of the year in Kentucky history, Reed also won the 2014 John Olerud Award, given to the nation's top two-way player. In addition, Reed was named SEC Player of the Year by the conference coaches and SEC Male Athlete of the Year by the league athletics directors.

After establishing a reputation as a tenacious recruiter, Green's shortstop at UCLA, Brandon Crawford, solidified himself as one of the best young shortstops in the big leagues while playing with the 2012 World Series Champion San Francisco Giants and earned another championship ring in 2014.

Since 2004, Green's guidance as an infield and hitting coach improved the draft stock of 26 players – 24 between Kentucky and UCLA and two at New Mexico State within the last two years.

In addition to his recruiting duties and ability as UK's offensive coordinator, Green also served as Kentucky's infield defensive coach. He has coached some of the most talented infielders in Kentucky history since 2009, while also coaching UCLA's infield for four seasons, with Crawford, Jermaine Curtis and Alden Carrithers earning All-Pac-10 honors under his guidance. At Kentucky, Green's 2009 middle infield, shortstop Chris Wade and second baseman Chris Bisson, became the first double play combo in nearly 120-year history of the program to each earn All-SEC honors. Taylor Black led SEC shortstops in defensive assists, with Reid serving as a three-year starter at shortstop. Second baseman J.T. Riddle also shined defensively at second base, leading all SEC second basemen in assists over his three years at the keystone.

In 2014, Green's defense led the SEC and ranked third in the NCAA in double plays turned, with Reid, freshmen second baseman JaVon Shelby and Connor Heady forming a new double play tandem.

Green was honored as a featured speaker at the 2011 American Baseball Coaches Association Convention in Nashville, Tenn. His presentation was on infield defense and double play specifics in front of an estimated 5,000 coaches and did so once again in 2015 in Orlando on offensive approach.

During his time at Kentucky, Green helped Henderson and fellow UK assistant Brad Bohannon welcome the best classes in program history, while also shining as UCLA's recruiting coordinator that beefed up the roster for the Bruins' Omaha run in 2010.

In his first season, Green helped UK secure the fourth-best recruiting class in the nation according to Baseball America – a new Kentucky record. UK then ranked No. 6 in 2010, No. 16 in 2011, No. 25 in 2012 – a class that featured Reed, Cousino and righty Chandler Shepherd – No. 11 in 2013 and No. 25 in 2014.

In his two seasons as the UCLA recruiting coordinator, Green helped secure the No. 13 and No. 7 best recruiting classes in the nation in the fall of 2006 and fall of 2007, respectively, as ranked by Baseball America. Green also played a large role in assisting UCLA land the No. 5 ranked recruiting class in 2005, as rated by Baseball America.

Using an offensive philosophy geared towards utilizing the athletic ability of his hitters, Green turned UK's offensive attack into a high-energy threat. In 2010, UK ran all over the base paths, leading the SEC with an eye-popping 120 stolen bases, with Bisson leading the league with 32 stolen bases and Neiko Johnson ranking fourth with 24 stolen bags in just 21 starts.

Under the direction of Green in 2011, outfielder Chad Wright and third baseman Thomas McCarthy developed into one of the best hitters in both the SEC and nation. Wright became one of the top hitters in the nation and signed with the Tigers after being selected in the ninth-round of the MLB draft after his junior season. With Green, McCarthy batted .371 with seven homers and 39 RBI at the Division I level after transferring from a junior college. He wound up earning First-Team All-SEC honors and became the first Wildcat third baseman to earn first-team conference accolades since 1972.

Green's 2012 UK team had a historic campaign, winning a school-record 45 games. The Wildcats also spent to No. 1 in the country for three-straight weeks for the first time in UK history, and equaled its best finish in the NCAA and SEC Tournaments ever. With Green's supervision, the UK offense ranked No. 3 in the SEC in average (.294), No. 2 in slugging (.433), No. 2 in on-base percentage (.380), No. 2 in runs scored (383), No. 1 in hits (641), No. 2 in RBI (351), No. 1 in doubles (123), No. 2 in home runs (56) and No. 2 in total bases (942).

Prior to becoming the offensive coordinator for Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference, Green was the infield and hitting coach at UCLA, helping to lead the Bruins to 115 wins in four years while posting 33 wins in each of his last three seasons. Green had a huge impact in recruiting the bulk of the Bruins roster, in addition to coordinating the UCLA infield defense and overseeing the Bruins offensive attack.

Green helped lead the Bruins to three consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, a first in school history, and advanced to the Super Regionals in 2007. In 2006, Green's infielders contributed to UCLA's .977 fielding percentage, which topped in the Pac-10 and sixth in the nation. Crawford earned freshman All-America honors that season before playing for the USA National Team in the summer of 2006. Curtis gained All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention accolades after leading all Bruin starters with a .325 batting average.

Prior to his time at Hawaii, Green was an assistant at the University of San Diego for the 2002 season where he helped the Toreros capture their first West Coast Conference title in school history. USD led the conference in batting average, runs scored, walks and fewest strikeouts that season with Green while head coach Rich Hill gained WCC Coach of the Year honors.

In the summers of 2001 and 2002, Green served as head coach of the Kenai Peninsula Oilers of the Alaskan Summer Baseball League. In 2001, Green's Oilers became the only Alaskan League team to defeat the U.S. National Team, winning 4-1.

Green also spent time as a volunteer assistant in 2001 at Oregon State and also served stints at Chapman University, Cal Poly Pomona and Riverside Community College. At Chapman in 2000, Green helped lead the Panthers to a third-place finish at the Division III World Series. Prior to that, he helped lead Chapman to a 39-5 overall finish during the 1999 campaign. The Panthers' infield corps also led the nation in double plays turned that year thanks to Green.

Green began his coaching career in 1994 where he served as a student assistant at his alma mater, New Mexico State. Green spent his first two collegiate seasons playing at Riverside Community College (1991-92) before transferring to Chapman (1993) and then eventually New Mexico State (1994).

Green, 45, graduated from New Mexico State with a degree in business management in 1995 and earned his Master's degree in education from National University in 1997. Green has spoken at the American Baseball Coaches Association twice and began his first year (2017) as the West Region Representative for the ABCA.

He is married to the former Becki Francis (also an NMSU Graduate). The Greens have two daughters, Emily Rae (13) and Zoe Addison (7) and are proud residents of Las Cruces again.

LOOKING AT THE LOBOS

In-state rival New Mexico enters the Battle of I-25 with a 16-19 overall record and a 10-10 mark at home on Santa Ana Star Field. The Aggies defeated the Lobos in the first meeting of 2019, 13-5, on March 26 at Presley Askew Field. NM State has won five straight over UNM and is looking for its first six-game win streak over the Lobos in program history.

As a team, New Mexico's hitters have combined for a .287 batting average with 98 extra-base hits and 219 runs scored. The Lobo offense features four regular starters hitting above .300 and has Jared Mang leading the team with a .408 average at the plate. Mang also posts a team-high 40 runs batted and a .662 slugging percentage.

On the mound, the Lobos pitching staff holds a 6.13 team earned run average with 271 strikeouts to 144 walks over 304.0 innings pitched. Lobo pitchers have allowed opposing batters to post a .302 batting average with 103 extra-base hits and 239 runs scored.

SCOUTING THE WOLVERINES

Heading into the week, Western Athletic Conference foe Utah Valley sits at 8-27 with a 5-7 record in conference play. The Wolverines are coming off of a 2-1 series loss at home to fellow WAC opponent Chicago State.

The Wolverines batters have a .264 batting average and a .360 average for on-base and slugging percentage. UVU is led by Alexander Marco who posts a team-high .351 batting average with a team-leading six home runs and 28 runs batted in. Nine Wolverines have homered this season but only two have done so multiple times.

For the UVU pitching staff, the team has an 8.07 earned run average and has allowed 160 extra-base hits, including 56 homers. Utah Valley pitchers have one complete game, thrown by this week's Friday starter Paxton Schultz who has the lowest ERA among the starters at 4.80 over 60.0 innings pitched.

WHAT HAPPENED? LASER SHOW

The Western Athletic Conference announced its baseball players of the week on Monday. After a dominating week at the plate, New Mexico State's Joey Ortiz was named the WAC Hitter of the Week.

Ortiz was a menace at the plate, going 8-for-19 (.421 avg.) with six extra-base hits and 10 RBI. The junior opened the week with a double and a run scored in a loss to No. 11 Texas Tech. In the Aggies' weekend series against Northern Colorado, he was 7-for-14 from the plate with a home run in each contest.

The Garden Grove, Calif. native's best performance came in the final game. Ortiz hit for the cycle with eight RBI in a 19-9 run-rule win on Sunday afternoon. On the season, Ortiz ranks second in the WAC in batting average, hitting .431 with a conference-leading 66 hits and 63 runs batted in.

LEADER OF THE WAC

Entering the fifth week of conference play, the NM State baseball team currently leads the WAC in 13 offensive and three defensive categories.

The offensive stats the Aggies lead in are batting average (.366), slugging percentage (.623), on-base percentage (.481), runs scored (393), hits (437), runs batted in (365), doubles (78) triples (21), home runs (62), total bases (743), walks (204), hit by pitch (81) and stolen bases (45).

Defensively, NM State leads the conference in ground outs forced per game (10.44), fielding percentage (.977), and assists (366).

UP NEXT

Following the four-game road trip, the New Mexico State baseball team returns to the City of Crosses to take on Sul Ross State in a midweek contest on Tuesday, April 23, at 3:05 p.m. MT, at Presley Askeew Field.

WATCH OUT!

The Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission announced a new name for the 20th Anniversary of the national collegiate catcher of the year award and released the official watch list on Tuesday. Previously known as the Johnny Bench Award, the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award will continue to honor the nation's top division one collegiate catcher as voted on by head coaches and sports information directors. Following a great 2018 season and strong start behind the plate in 2019, New Mexico State's Braden Williams was named to the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Watch List.

Williams arrived to NM State in 2018 where he appeared in 29 games with 21 starts behind the plate. The Irving, Texas native played a big role in the team's first-ever Western Athletic Conference Tournament Championship. Williams started all five games and played every inning of the WAC Tournament at catcher for the Aggies.

In 2019 the senior has played in 19 games, with 18 starts behind the plate. The catcher has a .986 fielding percentage with 122 putouts and 19 assists. So far this season, Williams has also thrown out 11 of the 13 attempted steals (84.6 percent).

Seventy-nine catchers were nominated for the 2019 Buster Posey Award. Since the award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher, the list is set to be updated to include other candidates until May 6, 2019.

The watch list is to be narrowed down to the semifinalists that are announced on May 17, 2019. Ballots are to be sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists, which are announced on June 3, 2019. A final vote among the national committee is set to occur during the College World Series. All finalists are brought to Wichita and the winner is announced at the 22nd Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 27, 2019.

Georgia Tech catcher, Joey Bart, was named the catcher of the year last June, 2018. Alex Holderbach of Eastern Kentucky University and Reynaldo Pastrana of Marshall University were the other finalists for the award.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Western Athletic Conference announced its players of the week on Monday, March 25. Following a dominant performance at the plate over four games, New Mexico State first baseman Tristan Peterson was named the WAC Hitter of the Week as well as the Collegiate Baseball and NCBWA National Player of the Week.

Peterson was the top hitter in the WAC during the opening weekend of conference play in a series win over CSU Bakersfield and added a solid night at the plate in the midweek contest against Power 5 opponent Arizona on Tuesday. On the week, the junior posted a .632 batting average (12-for-19) from the plate with 13 RBI, five home runs and seven runs scored.

The slugger's five home runs all came in the final two games of the series against the Roadrunners with three in game two and a pair of homers in the finale to help the Aggies to two wins and the series victory. Through the first three games of WAC play, Peterson is hitting .643 with a 1.786 slugging percentage.

NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK? NO, MONTH

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association announced its first National Player of the Month for the 2019 season on Thursday. After a stellar opening month, New Mexico State's Nick Gonzales earned the NCBWA Player of the Month honor.

Gonzales has been red-hot since opening day, leading all three national Triple Crown categories with a .590 batting average, 10 home runs and 37 runs batted in through 13 games. The sophomore also leads the NCAA in runs (28), hits (36), slugging percentage (1.213) and total bases (74).

This impressive start has earned Gonzales the first two Western Athletic Conference Player of the Week honors to begin the season and he was also named the Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week on Feb. 18. The Vail, Ariz. native has had at least one hit in every game this season and multiple base knocks in 10 of the 13 games. The second baseman has also homered in eight different games, including each of the last four, and he has produced two or more RBI in nine contests this season.

ANOTHER ONE!

Another stellar performance at the plate in the past weekend series earned New Mexico State's Nick Gonzales his second-straight WAC Hitter of the Week and Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger of the Week honors.

This past weekend series versus Yale saw Gonzales pick up a hit in each of the Aggies' four games. The sophomore finished the week hitting .611 (11-of-18) from the plate, posting a 1.222 slugging percentage with six extra-base hits.

Gonzales drove in 11 runs and scored another seven as NM State took 3-of-4 from the Bulldogs. His strong play was highlighted in the first game of Saturday's doubleheader where the second baseman went 3-for-4 with a pair of home runs and six runs batted in. Then in the series finale Gonzales continued to roll going 3-for-5 with 5 RBI. On the season, Gonzales is hitting .675 with 19 runs scored, 27 RBI and six home runs.
