AGGIE FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

THE HOMESTAND BEGINS

After spending three of the first four weeks of the year on the road, the Aggies are home for their next two contests. NM State begins the homestand against Fresno State, squaring off with the Bulldogs at 6 p.m. (MT) Saturday, Sept. 28, inside the friendly confines of Aggie Memorial Stadium.

The contest will be broadcast on FloFootball with Adam Young (play-by-play) and Danny Knee (analyst) on the call. Fans can also watch the game via FOX Sports Arizona Plus and FOX Sports Go.

REKINDLING AN OLD FLAME

NM State and Fresno State meet again Saturday for the first time since 2011. The series between them dates back to 1972, when Fresno State made the trip to Las Cruces for the first time and left victorious.

The Aggies defeated the Bulldogs in the most recent matchup, however. NM State, led by Taveon Rogers' school-record 412 all-purpose yards, won 48-45 in the 2011 contest inside Aggie Memorial Stadium.

HONORING AGGIE FOOTBALL LEGENDS

NM State Athletics is set to induct six new members into the Football Ring of Honor during Saturday's contest.

The 2019 class includes Danny Villanueva (1958-59), Bob Gaiters (1959-60), Preacher Pilot (1961-63), Roy Gerela (1966-68), Joe Pisarcik (1971-73) and Duriel Harris (1972-75).

All six Aggie legends will be honored during halftime of the game. In addition, there will be a luncheon for the inductees and football alumni Friday, Sept. 27, in the Danny Villanueva Victory Club on the third floor of the Stan Fulton Athletic Center, as well as a football alumni social at the Bosque Brewery Tap House beginning at 5 p.m.

The Ring of Honor is designed to immortalize former Aggie football players, coaches or administrators who have played a significant role in the development of the heritage, traditions and legacies of NM State football.

COACH TO CURE MD

When the NM State coaches roam the sidelines Saturday, they will don patches with the Coach To Cure MD insignia to show their support for Coach To Cure MD and the fight against Duchenne muscular dystrophy.

The goal of Coach to Cure MD is to raise awareness of Duchenne muscular dystrophy, generate new financial support for Duchenne research and demonstrate coaches' commitment to the betterment of young men and the core academic research missions of their universities.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

Fresno State enters Saturday's game with a 1-2 overall record, coming off of a 34-20 win over FCS program Sacramento State.

Saturday's game marks the first time this season that the Bulldogs will travel by air and leave the state of California. Fresno State opened the year at USC before hosting Minnesota and Sacramento State.

The Bulldogs are 8-5 against teams outside the Mountain West and have suffered just eight losses in their last 31 games under Jeff Tedford. The third-year head coach, who inherited a program on the heels of a 1-11 campaign, has led Fresno State to back-to-back double-digit win seasons in 2017 and 2018.

Fresno State's offense is helmed by quarterback Jorge Reyna, who ranks 14th in the FBS in total offense, averaging 325.0 yards per game. The senior captain has thrown seven touchdowns and rushed for another through three games this season.

Halfback Ronnie Rivers is the team's leading rusher with 166 yards on 40 attempts (4.2 avg) this season. He is also second on the team in receptions, leading the Bulldogs in all-purpose yards with 270.

Senior captain and linebacker Mykal Walker headlines the defense. An All-Mountain West first-team selection as a defensive end one season ago, Walker has picked up right where he left off, ranking 29th in the FBS and fifth in the MW in tackles per game (9.7).

ALL ABOUT THE AGGIES

NM State enters Saturday's contest seeking its first win of the season. The Aggies scored a season-high 52 points in the setback at New Mexico last weekend.

QB1

NM State redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Adkins delivered the best performance of his young career at New Mexico.

The signal caller accounted for six total touchdowns, becoming only one of three FBS quarterbacks to record three passing touchdowns and three rushing touchdowns in a single game this season (Oklahoma's Jalen Hurts, Iowa State's Brock Purdy).

Adkins is also the first Aggie to rush for three touchdowns in a game since RB Christian Gibson did so at Louisiana (10/13/18). Adkins is the first NM State quarterback to rush for at least two scores since Tyler Rogers did so at Kentucky (9/17/16).

The success is nothing new for the Spring Branch, Texas, native, who was named to the Wuerffel Trophy watch list entering 2019.

The Wuerffel Trophy, recognized as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented each February. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Danny Wuerffel from the University of Florida, the Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player that best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

Adkins made his debut last season, finishing the year with 13 passing touchdowns for 2,563 yards in 10 games. His 222 pass completions were good for ninth best in program history in a single season, while his 2,563 passing yards were good for 10th most in a single season.

In addition, his 256.3 yards per game was good for seventh on the single-season program record list. His three games of 300-plus passing yards tied him for fifth most in the careers category while his seven games of 200-plus passing yards is tied for 14th on the all-time list.

THE ALL-AMERICAN

Senior halfback Jason Huntley, a Phil Steele fourth-team All-American last season, racked up a bevy of preseason accolades entering the 2019 campaign.

Huntley was named to the watch list for the 2019 Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, which recognizes the top offensive player in Division I football from the state of Texas.

It is the second watch list that Huntley has appeared in this preseason. He was first named to the 2019 Paul Hornung Award Watch List, which is given annually to the most versatile player in college football.

The native of Arlington, Texas, rushed for 505 yards and seven touchdowns while recording 529 receiving yards for three scores one season ago. As a return specialist, he led the nation with three kickoff return touchdowns, finishing the year with 1,632 all-purpose yards en route to becoming the third running back in program history to earn All-America honors.

Huntley is just two return touchdowns shy of tying the FBS record of seven. That figure is held by Rashaad Penny (San Diego State, 2014-17) and Tony Pallard (Memphis, 2016-18).

Huntley broke out at New Mexico, totaling two total touchdowns (one rushing, one receiving) and running for a career-best 114 yards. He also returned his first two kickoffs of the season in the contest, accumulating 98 total yards on two returns.

TONY TWO TIMES

Graduate transfer wideout Tony Nicholson caught the first two touchdowns of his collegiate career at New Mexico.

The Baylor transfer matched his career high with seven receptions in the contest, gaining 61 yards through the air.

TACKLE MACHINE

Redshirt senior linebacker Javahn Fergurson, the nation's leader in tackles per game last season, has the attention of some of the country's top talent evaluators heading into the 2019 campaign.

Fergurson was named to the Senior Bowl watch list. The Senior Bowl, the premier annual college all-star game for the nation's top upperclassmen, will be played Jan. 29, 2020, at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Alabama.

Fergurson started all ten games he played in last year, leading the entire country in tackles per game (13.2). He finished the year with 132 total tackles (42 solo, 90 assisted), recording double-figure tackles in eight of the ten games he played in.

Four games into the 2019 season, Fergurson has picked up where he left off. He leads in the Aggies in total tackles (35) and pass breakups (4).

DOWNTOWN DYLAN BROWN

Senior kicker Dylan Brown was nominated as NM State's representative for the prestigious National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy.

The award is given to a collegiate football student-athlete with the best combination of academic success, community service and on-field performance.

Brown, who transferred to NM State after spending his freshman year at Phoenix College, has handled the Aggies' field-goal and kickoff responsibilities since stepping foot on campus. He finished his sophomore campaign 13-of-17 on field-goal attempts, connecting on both of his kicks in NM State's win against Utah State in the 2017 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Last season, the native of Chandler, Ariz., was 10-of-15 on field-goal attempts, drilling a career-long 49-yarder at Utah

State. He was a perfect 35-of-35 on point-after attempts, giving him 64 consecutive makes dating back to his sophomore year.

Brown, who is majoring in kinesiology, currently ranks first in the Aggie record book in career field-goal percentage and third in career extra-point percentage. He drilled a 33-yard field goal in the first quarter at New Mexico, giving him field-goal makes in three consecutive games.

LAST TIME OUT

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Adkins threw for three touchdowns and rushed for a career-high three scores, but NM State could not topple in-state rival New Mexico, suffering a 55-52 loss inside Dreamstyle Stadium last Saturday.

The Battle of I-25 turned into a back-and-forth slugfest between two high-octane offenses. The shootout between the Aggies and Lobos resulted in 107 total points, the second-largest scoring output in a meeting between the two teams since combining for 113 points in 1917.

Adkins, senior halfback Jason Huntley and graduate transfer wideout Tony Nicholson each turned in career days to ignite the NM State offense all game long.

After an interception, which was returned for a touchdown, on their opening possession, the Aggies stormed back with a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Adkins punched it in from three yards out for the score – his first of three rushing touchdowns on the day.

Their very next offensive possession, the Aggies moved down the field with ease once again, gashing the Lobos through the air and on the ground. Huntley capped the 12-play drive with a two-yard touchdown run to put NM State up, 14-7.

No lead was safe in this game, however. New Mexico tied the game at 14 before senior placekicker Dylan Brown's 33-yard field goal gave the Aggies a three-point cushion at the end of the first quarter.

The Aggies and Lobos continued to exchange blows before halftime. New Mexico again tied the game before Adkins scrambled one yard for his second rushing touchdown of the contest.

Ahead 24-17 with nine minutes to go in the second quarter, NM State briefly hit a wall. The Lobos wasted no time capitalizing, scoring 14 unanswered points after forcing the Aggies to punt on back-to-back possessions.

New Mexico opened a seven-point lead with a minute remaining in the half, but that advantage disappeared before the teams went to the locker rooms.

Adkins orchestrated a five-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, linking up with Nicholson in the end zone to tie the game at 31 apiece entering halftime. Nicholson's 11-yard scoring grab was the first of his career.

The back-and-forth shootout continued in the second half.

New Mexico reopened a three-point lead via a field goal before Adkins and Nicholson connected for the second time. Adkins hit Nicholson on a screen pass, and the Baylor transfer plunged three yards into the end zone to give the Aggies a 38-34 lead midway through the third quarter.

The Lobos would not back down, though. New Mexico went on to score 21 unanswered points, opening a 55-38 with 10:36 left to play in the contest.

NM State ended the drought midway through the fourth quarter when Adkins tossed his third touchdown, hitting Huntley with a four-yard pass. Adkins led the Aggies down the field two minutes later after senior defensive back Austin Perkins came up with an interception for the second game in a row.

Adkins preceded to pick up his third rushing score of the game and shrink the Aggie deficit to three points with 5:22 remaining.

It was too little too late, however. New Mexico's last drive put the game on ice, as the Lobos worked down the clock until the final horn.

NOTABLES: LAST GAME

The Aggies held a three-point lead after the first quarter of play. Before that, the last time NM State held a lead after the first quarter was against Alcorn State (11/3/18). The last time the Aggies had the lead after the first quarter on the road was at UTEP (9/22/18).

107 total points is the second-largest scoring output in a meeting between the two teams since combining for 113 points in 1917. It is the third-largest scoring total in Aggie history, sitting behind only 116 total points vs. 2nd Calvary-Ft. Bliss (1912) and the 113 total points vs. New Mexico.

The Aggies had four rushing touchdowns as a team. It's the first time NM State has done so since against Idaho (10/31/15).

QB Josh Adkins passed for 355 yards and three touchdowns, completing 30-of-47 attempts. The redshirt sophomore signal caller also ran for a career-high three scores, accounting for six total touchdowns in the contest.

RB Jason Huntley rushed for a career-high 114 yards on 12 carries, including a touchdown. He also caught three passes for 14 yards and a touchdown.

WR Tony Nicholson matched his career high with seven receptions, accumulating 61 yards through the air. His two touchdowns are a career best, with his second-quarter scoring grab marking the first of his career.

DB Austin Perkins recorded his second interception in as many games. He now has three career interceptions.

CRACK OPEN A COLD ONE

New Mexico State is one of only 16 collegiate institutions in the United States to have an officially licensed beer.

Pistol Pete's 1888, a collaboration between NM State and Bosque Brewing Co., was released throughout the state of New Mexico in the fall of 2017 before the canned version was released in August 2018. The beer is available for purchase inside Aggie Memorial Stadium.

A brilliant pale straw-colored ale with a light malt sweetness and just enough late addition hops to add flavor and aromatic nuance, Pistol Pete's 1888 received a bronze medal at the 2018 Great American Beer Festival (GABF). It was recognized in the Golden or Blonde Ale beer-style category.

Bosque is headquartered in Albuquerque, N.M., with two locations in addition to its newest addition in the Bernalillo area. The brewery also has locations in Las Cruces.

Carroll College, Colorado, Colorado State, LSU, Louisiana, Montana, Montana State, NC State, New Mexico, New Orleans, Purdue, SEMO, Tulane, UC Davis and Wichita State also have officially licensed beers.

CHASING HUNTLEY

All eyes are on New Mexico State football senior Jason Huntley as he chases the NCAA football record for most kickoff returns for touchdowns in his final campaign in the Crimson & White.

The All-American running back currently has five career returns for touchdowns, which is tied with Mike Carroll (1965-67) for the most in program history.

Huntley now needs just two more kickoff returns to tie the FBS record of seven, which is held by Rashaad Penny (San Diego State, 2014-17) and Tony Pallard (Memphis, 2016-18).

DOUG MARTIN

SEVENTH SEASON

Doug Martin is entering his seventh season at the helm of the NM State football program in 2019.

Martin was officially announced as the Aggies' 34th head football coach on Feb. 1, 2013, after the departure of former head coach DeWayne Walker to the NFL. Martin was no stranger to the NM State program as he was the Aggie offensive coordinator under Walker in 2011.

In 2017, Martin etched his name into Aggie lore when he guided the Aggies to their first bowl game in 57 years and then captured the 2017 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship in front of 25,000-plus Aggie fans at Arizona Stadium on Friday, 12/29/17.

The season was capped off with a storybook ending as Larry Rose III rushed in the winning touchdown in overtime for the 26-20 victory over Utah State – the last opponent NM State defeated in 1960 when it last appeared in a bowl game. Rose III was named the offensive MVP while Leon McQuaker took home defensive MVP honors.

Rose III's game-winning touchdown also saw him tie James "Preacher" Pilot for the most rushing touchdowns in program history with 37.

At season's end, the team finished the regular-season 7-6 and 4-4 against Sun Belt opponents. These victories included a sweep over NM State's rivals UTEP and New Mexico for the first time since 2002. The win in 2017 over UNM was the second win in as many years.

The Aggies' head coach helped guide the offense to average 453.8 total yards of offense per game, including a Sun Belt-best 352.6 passing yardage. Martin led quarterback Tyler Rodgers to a conference-leading 3,825 yards with 26 touchdown passes. Wide receiver Jaleel Scott also posted a standout season as the senior led the team with eight touchdowns and 1,042 total yards. For his efforts Scott received an invitation to the Senior Bowl, a first for an Aggie since 1978.

The strong season led Scott to being selected in the fourth round (132 overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2018 NFL Draft. Scott, a First Team All-Conference selection in the Sun Belt, became the first Aggie chosen in the draft since the Jacksonville Jaguars took Jeremy Harris in the seventh round in 2013. The wideout was the highest Aggie taken in the draft since Davon House was selected in the fourth round, pick 131, by the Green Bay Packers in 2011.

NM State finished 2016 with a record of 3-9 for the second straight year, including a 32-31 rivalry win in the second game of the season against New Mexico. In conference play, the Aggies collected a 37-31 home win against Louisiana and cruised by Texas State, 50-10, at home.

Martin coached seven players that earned All-Sun Belt postseason honors, which was the most by NM State since joining the SBC in 2013. Linebacker Rodney Butler was named first-team all-conference after leading the country in tackles with 165. Butler, who concluded his career fourth in school history in tackles with 378, was named a Phil Steele All-American at the end of the season. Butler became the third Aggie to lead the country in tackles for a single season.

Martin helped lead the Aggies to an average of 414.7 yards of total offense per game, including 244.92 through the air. Martin guided quarterback Tyler Rogers to a strong campaign with 16 touchdown passes and 2,603 passing yards. Meanwhile, the Aggie backfield, led by Larry Rose III, averaged 169.8 yards per game on the ground. Rose III paced the ground attack with 935 yards on the season.

The Aggies concluded the 2015 season with a 3-9 record, which is the best record for the program since 2011. In conference play, NM State defeated Idaho 55-48, Texas State 31-21 and UL-Lafayette 37-34 to collect three victories in a row. This was also the first time the team won three in a row since 2004.

As the offensive coordinator, Martin guided sophomore Larry Rose III as he broke the NM State single-season rushing record in just 10 games. Overall, Rose III had 1,651 rushing yards to finish the year ranked No. 6 all-time in the conference. For his accomplishments, Rose III earned Associated Press All-American Third Team honors and was named the Sun Belt Conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

Overall, the Aggies won five conference Player of the Week awards. Rose III won back-to-back honors, while Andrew Allen and Parker Davidson both won after leading the team to victory against UL-Lafayette. Jaden Wright was named Defensive Player of the Week at the beginning of the season.

NM State went 2-10 for the second year in a row in 2014. During Martin's second year, the Aggies began the season 2-0 for the first time since 1999. After topping Cal Poly in a 28-10 victory, NM State defeated Georgia State, 34-31, in its first Sun Belt Conference game.

The Aggies also faced I-10 rival UTEP, Rio Grande rival New Mexico and No. 17 LSU in 2014. Under Martin's tutelage, Allen became the first freshman to rush for over 100 yards against LSU since 2011. Later in the season, Rose III rushed for 229 yards against UL-Monroe to become the first NM State player to rush for over 200 yards since 2003 when Eric Higgins ran for 218 yards. This feat ranked Rose III as No. 7 all-time for single game performances.

With Martin guiding him, Rose III amassed 1,102 yards over the season to become the first 1,000 yard rusher since Kenny Turner in 2011. This was also the first time a freshman rushed for over 1,000 yards since Denvin Manns in 1995.

As a team, the Aggies averaged 420.9 yards of total offense per game after amassing 2,252 rushing yards and 2,899 receiving yards through 12 games. Defensively, NM State had two players amass triple-digit tackling on the season as Rodney Butler racked up 119 tackles and Derek Ibekwe accumulated 102 tackles. In addition, 21 student-athletes garnered double-digit tackles on the season. In all, the defense had 1,028 tackles, fivesacks, 11 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries.

NM State went 2-10 in 2013 during Martin's first season as head coach after playing one of the toughest schedules in the school's history. The Aggies faced five teams that had participated in a bowl game the previous season while also playing two teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation.

NM State kicked off the 2013 season with a trip to Austin, Texas, to face the 15th-ranked Texas Longhorns and also made a trip to Los Angeles during the season to play No. 13 UCLA. The Aggies' home schedule included games versus Minnesota, which was the first school out of the Big Ten to play at Aggie Memorial Stadium, and Boston College, which was the first school out of the Atlantic Coast Conference to make a trip to Las Cruces.

The Aggies averaged 20.9 points per game and 382.2 yards per game in 2013, including 141.8 yards per game on the ground and 240.5 yards per game through the air. The team had a season-high 224 yards rushing against Abilene Christian on Oct. 26 and a season-high 380 yards passing and receiving versus Boston College on Nov. 9.

Martin's influence and system began to take shape during the final five games of the season as NM State went 2-3 in those games and had fourth-quarter chances for a win in two of the three losses.

Martin would start making an impact on the squad as soon as he accepted the head coaching position. Before the season began, the Aggies had four players placed on six different preseason watch lists, the most for any NM State football team in the school's history. NM State also had 12 players honored on the College Sports Madness Independent Preseason All-Conference team and 11 players on the Phil Steele College Football Preview All-Independent team.

During the season, senior safety Davis Cazares was nominated as a Bulsworth Trophy finalist, honoring the most outstanding collegiate football player who began his career as a walk-on. Linebacker Clint Barnard would be named to the Capital One Academic All-District VII first team. The Aggies would also pick up three FBS Independent Player of the Week nods in 2013 under Martin, Cazares and Barnard on the defensive side and punter Cayle Chapman-Brown on special teams.

At the conclusion of the 2013 season, NM State would place five players on the All-Independent Football team including Cazares, Trashaun Nixon, Austin Franklin, Andy Cunningham and Davonte Wallace.

In 2012, Martin left his offensive coordinator position at NM State to take the same position for Boston College out of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles ranked 47th in the nation in passing offense, as Martin guided wide receiver Alex Amidon and offensive tackle Emmett Cleary to All-ACC honors.

As the offensive coordinator for the Aggies in 2011, Martin helped NM State rank 47th in the country in total offense and 26th in passing offense. He helped guide the Aggies to a win over Minnesota, the program's first win against a team from the Big Ten.

With seven seasons under his belt as the head coach at Kent State University and eight as the offensive coordinator, Martin was instrumental in building a true football program at the university. A total of 20 Golden Flashes earned All-Mid-American Conference accolades from 2007-10, including Eugene Jarvis, who was atop the active Football Bowl Subdivision running backs list with 3,722 career yards on the ground, and Brian Lainhart, whose 17 career interceptions was also tops among active FBS players.

In 2010, Roosevelt Nix was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year under Martin's watch. Also with Martin's help, four players were selected in the NFL draft including Jameson Konz (2010 - 7th round, Seattle Seahawks), Usama Young (2007 - 3rd round, New Orleans Saints), Jack Williams (2008 - 4th round, Denver Broncos) and Julian Edelman (2009 - 7th round, New England Patriots).

Martin is widely regarded as one of the nation's premier quarterback mentors. His list of protégés includes three-time All-Conference USA selection and current NFL passer David Garrard, record-setting CFL quarterback Marcus Crandell and other pros Richard Alston and Joshua Cribbs, who both played quarterback in college under Martin before switching positions in the NFL.

In Martin's first season, the Golden Flashes posted a 5-6 overall record, winning their final four games for the program's longest winning streak since 1976. The team also finished in fourth place in the MAC East Division with a 4-4 mark while producing three All-MAC players and two honorable mention All-Americans.

Martin was named the school's 19th head coach on March 1, 2004, replacing Dean Pees. Martin joined the Kent State staff in January 2003 as offensive coordinator. After just one year on the staff, Martin made an instant impact on the Golden Flashes' offense. In its first season under Martin's system, Kent State averaged 26.8 points per game, the second-highest in the previous 30 years for the program.

Martin arrived at Kent State following 11 seasons at East Carolina University, the last seven of which he was in charge of the team's offense. He was at ECU for all of Steve Logan's tenure there, serving as the tight ends coach and special team's coordinator for two seasons (1992-93), then another two years as wide receivers coach (1994-95) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1996.

Prior to joining the staff at East Carolina, Martin was a graduate assistant at the University of Kentucky, his alma mater, from 1986-87 and then spent the 1988-91 seasons at East Tennessee State University.

Martin was a four-year letterwinner at Kentucky from 1981-84. A native of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Martin earned a bachelor's degree in history from Kentucky in 1985.

Martin and his wife Vicki have a daughter, Molly, and two sons, Cory and Bobby. Cory is on staff as a wide receivers coach.
