JAKE ANGIER

HEAD COACH | 2ND SEASON | SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '10

New Mexico State Director of Athletics Mario Moccia announced Jake Angier as the 12th head baseball coach in Aggie history on Monday, June 19, 2023.

In his first year at the helm of the Aggie program, Angier helped lead the Aggies to a 25-win season while helping instrument the single highest RPI gain in the NCAA Baseball RPI standings of any Division I program in the nation as the Aggies climbed 159 spots from 2023 to 2024. Under Angier, the Aggies also finished the season ranked second in the conference in batting average (.300) to help generate an 11-win increase.

This charge was led by three standouts that garnered all-conference honors as Keith Jones II was named First Team All-CUSA while outfielder Titus Dumitru picked up Second Team All-CUSA honors and Steve Solorzano claimed distinction as a member of the all-freshman team. Angier's first year also helped produce two MLB draft picks as Jones II was selected in the ninth round by the Texas Rangers while Titus Dumitru was picked by the Atlanta Braves in the 16th round.

Angier's debut season with the Aggies was headlined by a pair of wins over Power Five programs as NM State took down Pac-12 power Arizona on March 26 before knocking off Big 12 foe TCU on May 11.

A native of Bellevue, Wash., Angier capped off a four-year stint at the University of Oregon with three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the 2023 Super Regionals. Finishing with 41 wins in 2023, the Ducks posted the fourth-winningest season in program history. In addition, the Ducks also knocked off 26 ranked opponents in four seasons under Angier's watch, including seven wins over top-ten teams.

One of Baseball America's Top 50 Names to Watch in 2023's coaching cycle, Angier has a proven track record of developing pitchers and a winning culture. Through 15 seasons as a pitching coach, Angier has coached 32 MLB Draft picks, eight MLB players, five All-Americans, and three Freshman All-Americans. Angier's teams have also appeared in five of the past six NCAA Tournaments (2023, '22, '21, '19, and '17).

Throughout his career as a pitching coach, Angier has coached at four different Division I schools (Oregon, Sacramento State, North Dakota State, and South Dakota State) and in three different conferences (Pac-12, Western Athletic, and Summit). In addition to several all-conference pitchers, he has tutored five All-Americans, three freshman All-Americans and four all-region pitchers.

Just one win away from a trip to Omaha and the Men's College World Series, Angier and the 2023 Ducks earned a trip to the Super Regionals for just the second time in program history. Oregon finished the '23 season with 41 wins – The highest total since the 2014 season.

Before Angier arrived in Eugene, the Ducks finished the 2019 campaign with a 5.93 ERA, which was the highest mark since Oregon reestablished its baseball program in 2009. In both 2020 and 2021, Angier's pitchers posted sub-four ERA's at 3.85 and 3.71, respectively.

In 2021, the pitching staff ranked 18th in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in ERA (3.71), while also ranking in the top 35 nationally in shutouts (15th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (29th) and WHIP (35th). The Ducks led the Pac-12 in shutouts (6) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.82), while ranking third in WHIP (1.31).

In each of Angier's three full seasons, Oregon pitchers have been dominant on the bump, posting three of the top seven strikeout seasons in program history (513, T-1st, 2021; 505, 4th, 2023; 467, 7th, 2022).

No stranger to Las Cruces, Angier spent six seasons (2014-19) with Western Athletic Conference foe Sacramento State. He started his tenure with the Hornets as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before being promoted to pitching coach in 2017 and associate head coach in 2019.

During Angier's three seasons as Sacramento State's pitching coach, the Hornets boasted the WAC's top pitching staff. Sacramento State led the WAC in ERA all three seasons, while also leading the conference in WHIP, strikeout-to-walk ratio and hits allowed per nine innings each season.

Sacramento State advanced to the NCAA Regionals three times in Angier's six seasons and twice (2017, 2019) with him serving as the team's pitching coach. In 2018, Sacramento State's pitching staff finished among the nation's top 12 in four separate statistical categories: walks allowed per nine innings (2nd), strikeout-to-walk ratio (5th), shutouts (T8th) and WHIP (12th). In all, the Hornets had five top 50 national statistical rankings in 2018 while cracking the top 50 in three categories in 2017 and four in 2019.

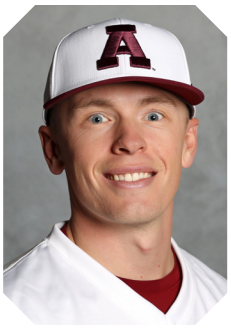

Before heading to the Golden State, Angier spent three seasons as the pitching coach at North Dakota State where his pitching staffs set several school records. The Bison won 88 games over the course of three seasons, including a then program record 40 wins in 2012. The 2013 North Dakota State team allowed just 3.03 walks per nine innings – a mark that remains the lowest in the history of Bison baseball. While in Fargo, Angier worked under Tod Brown, who is now the head coach at the University of New Mexico.

A graduate of South Dakota State, Angier started his coaching career at his alma mater where he was the pitching coach while working as a graduate assistant from 2009-10. While in Brookings, S.D., the Jackrabbits won 65 games, including a 39-win season in 2010 that still stands as tied for the best in program history.

Angier graduated from SDSU with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2007 and a master's degree in sports pedagogy in 2010. While playing baseball at South Dakota State, Angier's head coach was Reggie Christensen, his future boss at Sacramento State. Angier also spent two years as a player at Big Bend Community College in Moses Lake, Wash.

Angier and his wife Sheena have a nine-year-old daughter, Avery, and a six-year-old son, Tripp.

DAVID BELLAMY

ASSISTANT COACH | 2ND SEASON | NMSU '18

After spending the past four seasons at Washington State, David Bellamy returned to Las Cruces to join Jake Angier's staff on Friday, June 30, 2023. Bellamy now enters his second year as the Aggies' hitting coach while also overseeing the catchers as a member of the staff at his alma mater.

Bellamy is no stranger to The 'Skew, previously spending time in Las Cruces as both a player and a coach. The former NM State outfielder began his career on Brian Green's staff, working throughout the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

COACHING EXPERIENCE
In his first year back on the Aggies' staff, Bellamy helped the Aggies win 25 games while putting forth a .300 batting average to finish the season ranked second among CUSA teams and 48th in the country. He also helped develop a pair of MLB draft picks and two all-conference selections in Keith Jones II and Titus Dumitru. Jones II garnered First Team All-CUSA honors after a breakout year in which he recorded a team-high .367 batting average while managing a team-high 81 hits, 17 HR, 67 runs, 67 RBIs, 35 walks and a .710 slugging percentage to become the first Aggie since 2007 to earn the triple crown. Meanwhile, Dumitru collected second team honors after recording a .337 batting average while tallying 61 hits, 16 doubles, 12 home runs and a slugging percentage of .624.

He helped the 2023 Cougars post a 29-23 record, their fourth-straight winning season and the most wins since 2015, including series wins at No. 15 Oregon State, over No. 12 UCLA, Arizona, at California, WCC champion Santa Clara and claimed the season series over Gonzaga, 2-1. Following the series win at No. 15 OSU to open conference play, WSU appeared at No. 20 in the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Top-25, the Cougars first national ranking since 2010. WSU put up impressive numbers offensively in all three phases, hitting the tenth-most home runs in program history (54), recording the most stolen bases since 2015 (70), was hit by the pitch the third-most in program history (92), fielded at a .974 clip for the fourth-best fielding percentage in program history and the pitching staff set the strikeout record for the second straight season (518).

In 2022, WSU posted their third straight winning season and closed the year with series wins in four of the final five weekends, clinching series at No. 10 Oregon, USC, Utah Valley and wrapped up the season with the first sweep over Arizona State in program history. The Cougars posted a pair of road series wins over Top-10 teams for the first time in program history after taking two of three at ninth-ranked Arizona and No. 10 Oregon, notching road series wins in Tucson and Eugene for the first time since 2012. Following the season, three players earned All-Pac-12 Conference honors highlighted by designated hitter Jacob McKeon who earned first-team honors and was later named to the ABCA All-West Region Second Team.

In his second season working with the Cougar offense, Bellamy helped WSU to its first winning season since 2015 and the most Pac-12 Conference wins since 2014 after posting conference series wins at Utah, at California, against No. 8 Oregon and Washington. The Cougars finished the 2021 season leading the Pac-12 and fifth in the country in doubles-per-game (2.4), second in the conference in hitting (.302), third in extra-base hits (101) and third in scoring (7.2 runs/g) while pacing the league with 74 doubles in conference games. First baseman Kyle Manzardo was named to the All-America First Team by Collegiate baseball, earning All-America honors for the second straight season after hitting .365 with 19 doubles, 11 home runs and 60 RBI, the first Cougar with 60 RBI since 2008.

After spending two summers as the hitting coach for the St. Cloud Rox, Bellamy was named the third field manager in program history for the summer of 2021. As manager of the Rox during the summer of 2021, Bellamy guided his St. Cloud club to a franchise-record 53 wins, the third-best winning percentage in Northwoods League history, first and second half Great Plains West Division crowns, managed and won the Northwoods League All-Star Game, led St. Cloud to the Northwoods League Championship series and was named the Northwoods League Field Manager of the Year.

Bellamy began his coaching career in Las Cruces as a Graduate Assistant under Green. With Bellamy on staff, NM State set a school-record in batting average (.365) while leading the country in batting average, runs, runs per game, hits, triples, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, and hit by pitch. Bellamy worked closely with Joey Ortiz (4th Round, 2019 MLB Draft) and Nick Gonzales (1st Round, 2020 MLB Draft), both of whom made their MLB debuts in 2023.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE
Formerly an outfielder for the Aggies, Bellamy was a two-year letterwinner at NM State (2017-18), sharing the diamond with a trio of future big leaguers. Bellamy hit .306 as a senior and helped lead NM State to the NCAA Lubbock Regional. A native of Eugene, Ore., Bellamy was named to the Google Cloud Academic All-District First-Team and the Academic All-WAC First-Team.

KYLE BRADISH

NM STATE • 2016-18
MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT: 4/29/2022

Kyle Bradish became the sixth former Aggie to make their Major League Baseball debut on Friday, April 29, 2022. He joined Mark Acre, Daniel Johnson, Jason Rakers, Fernando Ramsey, and Tyler Sturdevant as former Aggies to make at lease one appearance in MLB.

As a rookie, Bradish made 23 starts for Baltimore, posting a 4-7 record. The right hander struck out 111 opposing hitters in 117.2 innings of work. Following his rookie season, Bradish trails just Acre (127.0) in career innings pitched by a former Aggie. Bradish's 111 strikeouts are the most in MLB history by a former NM State player, surpassing Acre's 98.

Bradish picked up his first career win on May 10, 2022 as the Orioles beat the Cardinals 5-3 in St. Louis. Over 7.0 innings of work, Bradish struck out a season-high 11. Bradish also hit double-digit strikeouts when he fanned 10 Astros on September 22 in Baltimore.

Prior to reaching the big leagues, Bradish was tearing up Triple-A with the Norfolk Tides. On April 17, 2022, Bradish was named the International League Pitcher of the Week - Just 11 days before getting the call to the show.

Bradish was selected by the Los Angeles Angels in the fourth round of the 2018 MLB Draft. The Orioles aquired the former Aggie on December 4, 2019 in a trade surrounding RHP Dylan Bundy.

Bradish became the first Aggie to be featured in the MLB Postseason when he pitched in Game one of the 2023 American League Divisional Series against the Texas Rangers.
