“We have had an incredible month of training with our seniors putting everything into the pool for the last stretch of their swimming careers. The team has been incredible, and I am excited to celebrate all that hard work, and to honor those 9 seniors. Competing against UNM always brings out the best of our team, and we are expecting some great performances. While we are sad to see such an impactful class have their last home meet, we are also incredibly proud of all the sacrifices they have made to get to this moment. They are all incredible student-athletes who will all leave a lasting legacy on NMSU and our program.”
