NOTEWORTHY

AGGIES SET TO HOST DELAWARE

NM State returns to the NM State Softball Field this weekend as the Aggies host Delaware for a three-game Conference USA series in the final home set of the 2026 season. The series opens on Friday, April 24, with first pitch scheduled for 6 p.m. MT, as NM State looks to close out its home slate with momentum in conference play. The matchup marks the first-ever meeting between NM State and Delaware, adding a new chapter to the Aggies' Conference USA schedule.

Fans can watch the action live on ESPN+ alongside live stats available at NMStateSports.com/Stats with additional information provided at NMStateSports.com

ARAGON EARNS PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Faith Aragon has been named Conference USA Pitcher of the Week following a dominant stretch in the circle that anchored NM State throughout the weekend. She went 2-0 across two appearances, working 14.0 innings without allowing an earned run to post a 0.00 ERA while setting the tempo in each outing.

Aragon limited opposing hitters to a .089 batting average and piled up 21 strikeouts, consistently pitching deep into games while also recording two shutout performances. The weekly honor further solidifies her place among the nation's elite, as she continues to rank sixth nationally in strikeouts with 197, marking NM State's first CUSA Pitcher of the Week honor of the 2026 season.

Beyond the weekly accolade, Aragon's work has placed her among the most dominant pitchers in Conference USA overall. She currently ranks second in ERA (2.34) and second in wins (18) while leading the conference in both complete games (15) and strikeouts (197). She also sits third in opponent batting average (.198), highlighting her durability and ability to consistently overpower hitters all season.

Her dominance has been even more pronounced in conference play only, where she ranks first in ERA (1.49), first in wins (11), first in complete games (8), and first in strikeouts (112), while holding opponents to a .189 batting average, the second-best mark in CUSA. These rankings highlight just how impactful Aragon has been in Conference USA play this season.

BACHMAN DELIVERS CONSISTENCY

Madi Bachman put together a solid weekend, hitting .400 (4-for-10) while driving in four RBIs. She consistently delivered quality at-bats in run-scoring situations and helped sustain offensive momentum for the Aggies. Bachman also turned in a clean defensive showing, finishing the weekend with a 1.000 fielding percentage.

ELAM IGNITES THE OFFENSE

Devin Elam paced the Aggie offense over the weekend, batting .500 (5-for-10) with a home run, two RBIs, and eight total bases. She posted a strong .800 slugging percentage and consistently set the tone at the top of the lineup. Elam's steady production provided NM State with a reliable offensive spark throughout the series.

LUNAR BRINGS HOME RUN POWER

Kendal Lunar ranks second in Conference USA home runs (8) during league play, continuing to establish herself as one of the conference's top power threats. Her run included a stretch of four consecutive games with a home run, consistently providing impact swings for the Aggies.

Prior to the Middle Tennessee series, Lunar had homered in every CUSA series in which she appeared in all three games. The MTSU weekend marked the first time this season she played a full three-game conference series without a home run, highlighting just how steady her power production has been throughout league play.

AGGIES LEAD CUSA IN HOME RUN POWER

NM State has established itself as the premier power threat in Conference USA, ranking first in the league with 67 home runs this season. The Aggies have homered in 35 of their 45 games, consistently applying pressure with extra-base power throughout the lineup.

That production has carried into conference play, where NM State has recorded 39 home runs in 21 CUSA games, going deep in 19 of those contests. Power has often come in bunches, as the Aggies have produced multi-home-run performances in 17 games overall, including 10 conference games. Notably, 30 of NM State's 39 conference home runs have come during multi-homer contests, underscoring the team's ability to erupt offensively and control games with sustained power.

PITCHERS POST MILESTONE WEEKEND AT MTSU

The weekend at Middle Tennessee marked a milestone stretch for several NM State pitchers, each delivering standout individual performances in the circle. Faith Aragon headlined the weekend with another dominant showing, striking out 21 batters while recording two shutout performances, continuing her run as one of the conference's most effective arms.

The series also featured personal bests from Taryn Bennett, who set a new season high with five strikeouts, highlighting her continued growth and efficiency. Zantelle Rodriguez matched that total with five strikeouts of her own, establishing both a new season high and a career high in punchouts. The trio's performances showcased the depth of high-level pitching talent driving NM State through conference play.

WEEKLY HARDWARE IN AGGIE HANDS

NM State has collected five Conference USA weekly awards this season, showcasing impact across the roster. Devin Elam earned Player of the Week honors on February 9, setting the tone early as one of the league's premier power threats. Faith Aragon added multiple accolades to the run, claiming Player of the Week on March 9 for her dominant two-way play before most recently being named Conference USA Pitcher of the Week on April 20 after a standout stretch in the circle.

NOTEWORTHY

Tamara Carranza followed on March 23 with a historic week highlighted by hitting for the cycle, while freshman Destan Burks most recently added to the haul by earning CUSA Freshman of the Week, continuing the Aggies' strong presence in the conference spotlight.

A LOOK AT 2025

NM State enters the 2026 season coming of a campaign in which it finished 27-27 and ultimately saw its season end after falling twice on day one of the CUSA Championship. Last year, the Aggies posted an impressive 18-7 record at the NM State Softball Complex.

NM State saw three Aggies pick up all-conference honors as Desirae Spearman was named First Team All-CUSA, Kristiana Watson earned second team recognition and Tamara Carranza earned a spot on the All-CUSA Freshman Team.

Additionally, Spearman and Aragon each earned a selection NFCA All-Region Team selection as Spearman garnered first team honors and Aragon received second team distinction.

On the year, the Aggies finished first in the conference and 32nd in the nation in total home runs with 69. This was led by 20 home runs from Spearman, who finished second in the conference and 23rd in the country.

FAREWELL, COACH RO

This last fall, NM State Head Coach Kathy Rodolph made the decision to retire following an incredible 22 seasons at the helm. The winningest coach in program history finished her tenure leading the Crimson and White to 635 victories and 14 winning seasons. Long-time associate head coach, Cat Heifner, made the same decision, also retiring after 21 campaigns in Las Cruces.

"I'm honored to celebrate my career and retirement with New Mexico State University," Rodolph said. "I'm proud of all that we were able to accomplish over the past 22 years. Cat Heifner and I poured our heart and soul into this university, the athletic department and most importantly into the student-athletes we were able to coach. I see the talented and successful women these student-athletes have become and I'm grateful for any part I was able to play in their journey. Once an Aggie, always an Aggie!"

Since her arrival in 2004, NM State claimed six regular-season WAC Championships, doing so in 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2020. On four occasions, Rodolph and Heifner guided the program to a conference tournament title and an NCAA Regional appearance.

YEAR ONE

Following the retirement of Kathy Rodolph, it was announced that Benet Higgs would serve as the Aggies' interim head coach for the entirety of the 2026 campaign.

Higgs joined the program during the summer of 2023 and is in her third season in Las Cruces. The former Stony Brook assistant has been focused primarily on defense, also serving as a recruiting coordinator for more than a decade. Since Higgs' arrival, the Aggies have earned 57 wins and eight all-CUSA awards across two seasons.

Prior to her time in Las Cruces, Higgs spent 12 years as an assistant coach, including seven seasons at Stony Brook. There, she helped the Seawolves amass 60 wins over her final two seasons, marking the most by any team in the Coastal Athletic Association during that stretch.

She has also previously spent time on staff at Bradley (2014-17), Army (2012-13) and South Dakota State (2011). As a player, Higgs competed at Stephen F. Austin, where she played center-field and shortstop, while switch-hitting at the plate.

HIGGS EARNS FIRST CAREER WIN AT NMSU

Interim Head Coach Benet Higgs opened her tenure with distinction, earning her first career victory as the Aggies blanked UMass Lowell 8-0 (5 inn.) on February 6 at the NM State Softball Complex. A five-run third inning, sparked by Devin Elam's three-run homer, and a combined three-hit shutout from Taryn Bennett and Zantelle Rodriguez underscored the poised, competitive identity Higgs has championed from day one.

BACK FOR MORE

NM State will enter the season with 16 returners on this year's squad. This is highlighted by five Aggies that made at least 39 starts during the 2025 season. This group consists of Tamara Carranza (52), Faith Aragon (48), Kendal Lunar (46), Devin Elam (44) and Lauren Garcia (39). Additionally, Aggie fans will also see the return of Zantelle Rodriguez, Skye Johnson, Johnna Aragon, Bella Clapp, Payton Nicholson, Jade Valladares, Jolee-anna Hair, Taryn Bennett, Jaileen Mancha and Karyme Amaya.

A WARM WELCOME

NM State will also roster just nine newcomers, including eight true freshman. The lone newcomer who is not joining the Aggies from the high school ranks is Madi Bachman, who comes over after spending a pair of seasons with CUSA foe Liberty.

BENET HIGGS - FIRST SEASON

Benet Higgs will serve as the Aggies' interim head coach for the 2026 season. Higgs joined the program during the summer of 2023 and is entering her third season in Las Cruces. The former Stony Brook associate spent 2024-25 focused on the Aggies' defense, offense, and base runners, also serving as a recruiting coordinator for more than a decade across various stops. Since Higgs' arrival, the Aggies have earned 57 wins and eight all-CUSA awards across two seasons.

Higgs' teams have made 10 top-three finishes in their conference regular season and tournament, earning three trips to NCAA Regionals. Fourteen student-athletes have been named to NFCA All-Region, with 45 all-conference players and two league players of the year competing under her guidance. Higgs has overseen 34 conference weekly awards, nine team records, 10 career records and 10 season records in her 16 years of coaching. In 11 campaigns as a hitting coach, Higgs' teams have produced a top-three offense in the conference each time.

Prior to her time in Las Cruces, Higgs spent 12 years as an associate head coach, including seven seasons at Stony Brook. There, she helped the Seawolves amass 60 wins over her final two seasons, marking the most by any team in the Coastal Athletic Association during that stretch.

She has also previously spent time on staff at Bradley (2014-17), Army (2012-13) and South Dakota State (2011). As a player, Higgs competed at Stephen F. Austin, where she played centerfield and shortstop, while switch-hitting at the plate.
