President Harold R. Wilde

An enthusiastic supporter of the role North Central College athletic programs play in the lives of students, Harold (Hal) R. Wilde is deeply committed to the mission of the College - to become "a community of learners dedicated to preparing informed, involved, principled and productive citizens and leaders over a lifetime."

In his 18th year as president, Wilde's tenure has been marked by a greater than six-fold increase in North Central's endowment; continuous balanced budgets; the largest individual, corporate and foundation gifts and bequests in the College's 147-year history (making possible 10 endowed professorships, a more than 400 percent rise in scholarship support, major construction projects and significant campus expansion); over 50 percent growth in full-time undergraduate enrollments (from 1,290 to 2,187); adoption of the College's first comprehensive new curriculum in 30 years; and a broadened commitment to international programming, service learning and interdisciplinary studies.

Under Wilde's leadership, significant changes in North Central's physical campus have included total renovations of the College's oldest building, Old Main, the structure that houses Koten Chapel, Kiekhofer Hall, and the former Grace Evangelical Church, now named Meiley-Swallow Hall, for art and theatre, as well as the conversion of the old boiler house to a cyber cafe for students, construction of two new residence halls, Benedetti-Wehrli Stadium for football and track and Zimmerman Stadium for baseball, and the wiring of the entire campus for voice, video and data. The new $29.5 million Wentz Concert Hall and Fine Arts Center opened in the fall of 2008, and a $30 million combination Residence Hall/Recreation Center, located adjacent to Merner Field House, is currently under construction.

After graduating from Amherst College with high honors in 1967 and earning a Ph.D. in government from Harvard University, Wilde, a native of Wisconsin, served several years in Wisconsin state government, including four as state insurance commissioner. In 1979 he became special assistant to the president of the University of Wisconsin System. Two years later, he was vice president for external relations at Beloit College, where he served for 10 years before being named the ninth president of North Central College in 1991.

Dr. Wilde is married to Benna Brecher Wilde, managing director of Prince Charitable Trusts in Chicago. They are the parents of three adult children, Anna Wilde Mathews, Elizabeth Ty, and Henry.

James Miller

A longtime North Central College faculty member and coach, James Miller was named athletic director in May 2005, following a national search. He enters his fourth year at the helm of the Cardinals' athletic department.

A native of Rantoul, Ill., Miller graduated from North Central in 1986 with degrees in business management and speech communication/theatre. He earned an M.S. in education from Northern Illinois University in 1995.

After working a year as a sales representative for Union Carbide in New York City, Miller returned to the College as an admission counselor and assistant wrestling and football coach. He served as the assistant wrestling coach from 1987-89. Named the associate director of admission and athletic recruiting in 1992, Miller became a full-time instructor and coach in the health and physical education department in 1993. Head wrestling coach from 1989-2005, he also served as an assistant football coach for 13 years. He advanced to associate professor of health and physical education in 2002 while also serving as the chair for the health and physical education department.

Miller, who was a captain in both football and wrestling as a student, is credited with reviving wrestling at North Central and gaining national recognition for the program. During his tenure, Miller coached 108 individual wrestling tournament champions, 28 Academic All-Americans, five Scholar All-American teams, and finished with a dual meet record of 139-84 while winning the 1997 CCIW team title. Twice named North Central's "Coach of the Year," he was selected by fellow coaches as the NCAA Division III historian and ranking committee member for the National Wrestling Coaches Association.

Miller and his wife, Kristin, also a North Central graduate, live in Naperville with their three children, Kirby, Kaylee and Jenae.

Assistant Athletic Director Stefanie Baker-Watson

Stefanie Baker-Watson

Stefanie "Stevie" Baker-Watson was named assistant athletic director in December 2007. Prior to her arrival at North Central, Baker-Watson spent eight years at Aurora University as head athletic trainer, senior woman administrator and instructor of physical education. As part of the athletics management team, she oversaw all aspects of game operations, directed student-athlete education as CHAMPS/Life Skills Coordinator, helped develop marketing and promotions initiatives and served as advisor for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Baker-Watson is active within regional and national organizations, serving on the organizing committee for the Women's Leadership Symposium. She is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrator's Education and Professional Development Committee, and facilitates programs on staff development at both the Women's Leadership Symposium and the National Association of Division III Athletic Administrators summer forum.

She received her undergraduate degree in athletic training from Ohio University and her graduate degree in exercise science and cardiac rehabilitation from Northeastern Illinois University. Baker-Watson is married to Brian Baker-Watson. They have a daughter, Shay, and a son, Brooks.

Prior to working at North Central, she was the athletic trainer at Provena St. Joseph's Sports Medicine and head athletic trainer at Joliet Junior College (Ill.).

Coaching Staff

John Fitzgerald enters his second year as the head baseball coach at North Central College in 2009. His first season at the helm of the Cardinals' program resulted in a 14-23 overall record and a 7-14 finish in College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin competition.

Fitzgerald arrived at North Central after one year on the coaching staff at the University of Notre Dame, where he was responsible for coaching the pitchers, catchers and outfielders while serving as the first base coach. He handled all opponent scouting and game-plan reports in addition to overseeing the fall, winter and summer baseball camps. He also handled all on-campus recruiting.

Prior to Notre Dame, Fitzgerald was the head baseball coach at Illinois Institute of Technology from 2003 to 2006. His three seasons at Illinois Tech included several noteworthy accomplishments. The 2004 Scarlet Hawks posted the most wins (22) by an Illinois Tech team in four years, with Fitzgerald winning more games than any previous first-year coach in the history of the program.

After securing the largest letter-of-intent signee group (13) in the history of Illinois Tech baseball, Fitzgerald guided the 2005 team to the second-highest win total (26-21) ever by a Scarlet Hawks team. The team cracked the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics top-25 poll for the first time in the program's history while finishing as the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference (CCAC) leader in both team ERA (3.10) and stolen bases (88, a school record). Fitzgerald's 2006 pitching staff again led the conference in ERA (3.66), and his three seasons at Illinois Tech produced seven all-conference performers.

At Illinois Tech, Fitzgerald also served as assistant athletic director for external affairs. His duties included coordinating all sports information duties for the department's 10 athletic programs and overseeing all layout, content and updates for the athletic department's website.

Fitzgerald, who served as the CCAC's baseball chairman, also compiled significant experience coaching in the nation's NCAA-sanctioned, summer wood-bat leagues for college-age players. He was head coach of the Central Illinois Collegiate League's (CICL) DuBois County Bombers (Ind.) in the summer of 2006 and was manager of the south squad for the CICL All-Star game. In summer 2005, he was head coach of the New York Collegiate Baseball League's Saratoga Phillies, after serving as pitching coach for the New England Collegiate League's Danbury Westerners (Conn.) in summer 2004 and for the CICL's Twin City Stars (Ill.) in summer 2003.

John Fitzgerald

His assistant coaching experience includes stints at his alma mater, the University of Chicago, in 1999, at St. Ignatius High School in Chicago as head freshman/sophomore coach in 2000, and at University High School in Bloomington, Ill., as a varsity assistant and program pitching coordinator in 2003. He served as a baseball camp clinician at The University of Notre Dame (2003-04), Illinois State University (2003, 2005), the Chicago White Sox Training Centers (1997-99) and Bill Holowaty's Eastern Connecticut baseball school (2004), in addition to being a private pitching instructor in Chicago.

A four-year letterwinner at the University of Chicago, Fitzgerald was among the top pitchers for a Maroons program that posted three consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in program's history. His 12-8 career record included a 6-2 mark during his sophomore season in 1996.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Chicago (with a degree in sociology), Fitzgerald received his MBA with a concentration in management and marketing from Loyola Chicago in 2001. During his first two years at Loyola (1998-2000), he served as a sports information graduate assistant and was the primary media contact for men's and women's soccer, men's volleyball and softball.

Fitzgerald is currently the television play-by-play voice for the Loyola University (Ill.) men's basketball team. He has also done play-by-play for Illinois State University men's basketball and has worked for Comcast SportsNet and ESPN. He has served as a sports anchor and sports talk show host on the nationally-syndicated Sporting News Radio Network.

Coaching Staff

Jared Bogan enters his second year as North Central College's graduate assistant coach in 2009. He received his degree in history with a concentration in education from Wabash College (Ind.) in 2006.

During the 2006-07 academic year, Bogan taught social studies at North Montgomery High School in Crawfordsville, Ind., while serving as an assistant baseball coach at Wabash.

As a player at Wabash, Bogan was named to the ESPN The Magazine/College Sports Information Directors Association Academic All-America First Team as a senior. In the classroom, he posted a 3.82 grade-point average and graduated summa cum laude. On the field, Bogan led the Little Giants with a .413 batting average, starting in all but one of 38 games in 2006. An All-North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) Second Team selection, Bogan led the Little Giants with five home runs and finished tied for first in runs batted in with 23. He also collected 52 hits, including 14 doubles to tie his own single-season school record set in 2003. For his career, Bogan is third in Wabash history in home runs (12) and runs batted in (78) and is second in career doubles (36). Bogan was also NCAC All-Conference as a junior.

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Bogan shared Wabash's 2006 Pete Vaughan Outstanding Athlete Award with quarterback Russ Harbaugh and was the Indianapolis Association of Wabash Men Student-Athlete Award recipient. Bogan also received the Caleb Mills Excellence in Teaching Award and John F. Charles World History Prize. He also earned distinction in his comprehensive examinations.

Bogan is currently pursuing his master's degree in leadership at North Central and serves as an area hall director for Seager Hall.

RJ Spehn is a 2007 graduate of Millikin University where he was a four-year letterman. He is in his second year as an assistant coach at North Central.

The catcher served as team captain as a junior and senior and closed out his career with a .989 fielding percentage and .349 batting average with runners in scoring position.

Spehn earned his degree in kinesiology and was a regular member of the Dean's List while being nominated to join the Alpha Lambda Delta Honors Society.

Jared Bogan

Jared Folley '01 enters his second year as an assistant coach at North Central in 2009.

The former Cardinal infielder was a two-time All-College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin selection, earning first team honors in 2000 and second team accolades in 2001. He also earned American Baseball Coaches Association All-Central Region Honorable Mention in 2001 at first base.

Folley ranks second on the College's all-time list for batting average (.417) and fourth for on-base percentage (.479). He ranks second and 10th for hits (68 in 2000, 59 in 2001) and fourth for batting average (.459 in 2000).

Folley spent the previous two years as an assistant coach at Harper College (Ill.), which followed a stint as an assistant coach at Waubonsie Valley High School. Folley currently works at Owen Elementary School in Naperville.

Jared Folley

Eric Bunnell enters his first season as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Cardinals in 2009.

Bunnell spent the past four seasons as the recruiting coordinator and first base coach at his alma mater, Mount Union College, in Alliance, Ohio. During that time, the Raiders went 76-75, qualifying for the Ohio Athletic Conference Tournament twice. In 2007, Mount Union posted a fielding percentage of .953, the team's best since 1999.

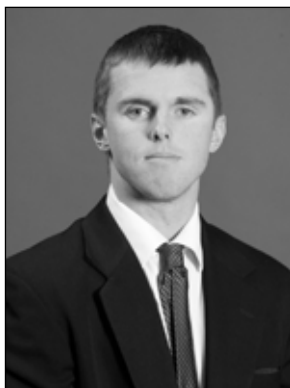

He served as the head coach of the Stark County Terriers of the Great Lakes Collegiate League in the summer of 2008, leading the club to a franchise-record 26 victories and earning Manager of the Year honors. Bunnell had been an assistant coach for the Terriers during the 2006 and 2007 seasons.

As a player at Mount Union, Bunnell earned three varsity letters as an outfielder. He earned All-OAC Tournament honors in 2002 when the Raiders finished second, and earned All-OAC honors the following year after hitting .344 with 23 runs scored. In four years, he hit .293 with four home runs and 50 runs batted in, scoring 71 runs and committing only three errors.

A native of Conneaut, Ohio, Bunnell graduated from Mount Union in 2003 with a degree in business administration. He is currently pursuing a master's degree at North Central.

Program Philosophy/Faculty Mentor

Cardinal Baseball Philosophy

The baseball program at North Central College is steeped in success and tradition. Success is defined not only on the diamond, but within the classroom, campus community and post-graduate endeavors. A nationally-ranked baseball program and a nationally-renowned academic experience are not mutually exclusive entities. Success in both realms is not only expected, but demanded at North Central College.

Our baseball philosophy centers around individual player development within the team concept. We will work on player development from the moment that player walks onto campus. Once the techniques and mental aspects have been taught and demonstrated by the coaching staff, student-athletes are afforded the opportunity to perform with relaxed concentration in a positive playing environment.

The baseball schedule at North Central College is demanding. Aside from a 21-game conference slate in the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin, the Cardinals annually compete against some of the nation's top NCAA Division III baseball programs, as well as a Division I opponent in Northwestern University. The Cardinals play the NCAA Division III-maximum 40-game regular-season schedule.

The schedule will include two weekend trips beginning in late February, followed by an annual spring break trip to a southern or western location in mid-March. In 2009, North Central will travel to Atlanta. Past trips have included Orlando and Port Charlotte, Fla., as well as Los Angeles.

A Cardinal baseball player will never be asked to miss class for a practice. The week-long spring trip always corresponds with the College's spring break. When the spring schedule involves an early travel departure on a school day, professors will be notified to make sure that missed class time will not adversely affect the student-athletes.

The yearly calendar begins in the fall with four to five weeks of workouts and intrasquad games. The players then spend the next eight to nine weeks in the weight room working on position-specific strength training. Official team practices begin in mid- to late January and run until the season opener in late February.

In an effort to maximize player development, the North Central College baseball program boasts a reserve squad. Members of the reserve team will play as many as 20 games in the spring against many of the area's top junior college programs in an effort to promote development in younger players.

Thomas D. Cavenagh, J.D., is the Schneller Sisters Professor of Leadership, Ethics and Values at North Central College. He also founded and directs the North Central College Dispute Resolution Center.

Cavenagh graduated from Trinity College (Conn.) with a bachelor's degree in religion and philosophy, graduating magna cum laude, and subsequently graduated from the DePaul University College of Law in Chicago.

He is the author of Business Dispute Resolution: Best Practices, System Design and Case Management, and the co-author of Alternative Dispute Resolution for Business by West Publishing Company and CyberJustice: A Guide to Online Dispute Resolution for E-Commerce by Prentice-Hall.

Cavenagh has chaired the Illinois State Bar Association Section Council on Alternative Dispute Resolution and has been widely published in a variety of professional journals, including Mediation Quarterly. He is the recipient of North Central College Dissinger Awards for faculty scholarship and distinguished teaching and service.

Faculty Mentor Program

Faculty Mentors are committed to strengthening the concept of a true 'student-athlete' at North Central College.

Faculty members from a variety of disciplines volunteer to mentor particular athletic teams as a whole and develop mentoring relationships with individuals on that team.

The goal of the program is to strengthen ties between individual faculty members and student-athletes. Each faculty mentor develops an affiliation with a team in his or her own way to advance the idea that athletic and academic excellence are not only compatible, but mutually supportive and beneficial.

Faculty mentors have an opportunity to make significant contributions to developing individual students as well as their teams.

The City of Naperville

Naperville, the oldest city in DuPage County, is also one of the most dynamic communities in the country. Historic charm abounds through the downtown area with a blend of quaint shops, well-known retail stores, and neighborhood parks. The city keeps its rich history alive by preserving its chronicled past, yet remains on the cutting edge of technology with a high-tech corporate corridor.

Naperville is a master-planned community that enjoys economic prosperity, outstanding educational opportunities, and high-caliber cultural events. Expanding and diverse high technology, research, and commercial bases all foster Naperville's continuing growth.

Discover "city styles and small-town smiles" in the shops and restaurants along tree-lined streets in the charming downtown. Naperville boasts wonderful educational opportunities with its two nationally recognized school districts and North Central College. Naperville was recently voted the No. 1 city in the United States to raise children, and the library has been selected as the best in the country two years running.

Naperville's popular downtown offers a number of job and internship opportunities for North Central's student-athletes, as well as a significant amount of social activities and excursions. In addition, the North Central College campus is adjacent to the Naperville Metra rail station, which provides convenient access to downtown Chicago.

North Central College Hall of Fame

Throughout its 147 year history, North Central College has a rich tradition of excellence both in the classroom and on the playing field. In 2004, North Central's Office of Alumni Relations and the athletic department took a historic step by announcing the inception of an Athletic Hall of Fame. Receiving the College's highest athletic honor is an experience that alumni remember forever.

Hall of Fame honorees are presented with a commemorative award in ceremonies on campus, and a plaque with their photo and biography is added to the Athletic Hall of Fame display in the Cardinal Room in Merner Field House. The following criteria are used to help select athletes for consideration into the North Central College Hall of Fame:

- * Five years out of school
- * Olympic competitor
- * National Champion
- * All-American
- * All-Region or All-District
- * First Team All-Conference
- * Conference Champion

The players on the following pages are baseball athletes who have been inducted into the College's Hall of Fame.

Ken Ritter stands out above the rest when it comes to baseball and North Central College. He achieved the highest honor in college baseball, winning the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III Player of the Year Award in 1988 from the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA). Ritter was the NCAA III statistical champ for batting in 1988, hitting at a .577 clip, a record that still stands. Also in 1988, he was NCAA III All-American First Team outfielder, the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin (CCIW) Most Outstanding Player, CCIW First Team and North Central's team captain. He finished his collegiate career with 178 runs, 243 hits, 38 doubles, 16 triples, 53 home runs, 468 total bases, 232 RBI, 119 walks, a .462 batting average, a .890 slugging percentage and a .561 on-base percentage.

Ritter still holds three CCIW records and ranks in eight career NCAA categories. Ritter holds North Central career records for batting average (.463), slugging percentage (.890), on-base percentage (.568), runs (179), hits (245), triples (14), home runs (53), total bases (471) and runs batted in (234). He holds eight single-season records, including batting average (.577), slugging percentage (1.202), on-base percentage (.692), runs (63), hits (73), home runs (19), total bases (149) and runs batted in (74).

In 1987 as a junior, Ritter was NCAA III All-American Second Team outfielder, NCAA III All-Mideast Region First Team, CCIW First Team and North Central's Most Outstanding Junior Athlete. As a sophomore, he was NCAA III All-American First Team outfielder, NCAA III All-Mideast Region First Team, CCIW Most Outstanding Player, CCIW First Team and North Central's team captain. In 1985, Ritter was CCIW First Team. Not only did the outfielder rake in the awards and honors, but his teams were successful as well. The Cardinals were CCIW Champs three years and 1987 Division III World Series participants.

After graduating with a degree in finance in 1987, Ritter was signed by the Oakland Athletics and spent two years in Class A ball before settling in the construction rental industry as a sales manager.

North Central College Hall of Fame

Although Smith is a very common name, there was nothing common about the athletic accomplishments of North Central College's Dick Smith. The three-sport athlete was a standout in football, basketball and baseball at the College in the 1940s.

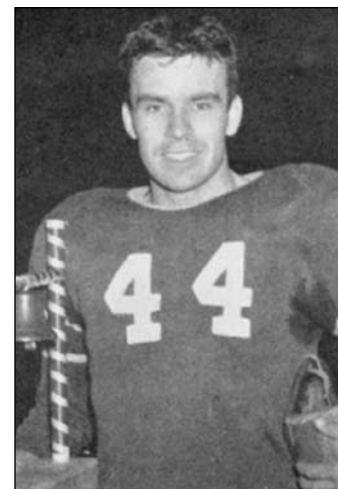

As a sophomore in 1942, Smith earned all-conference football honors and was on his way to a conference championship in basketball when he left to join the U. S. Army Air Corps in February 1943. After flying C-46 transports over New Guinea and the Philippines, he was honorably discharged in December 1945 and returned to the court nine games into the 1945-46 basketball season. On the baseball diamond that spring, "Smitty" hit .421 at the plate and topped the team in RBIs and home runs. The following year, Smith earned all-conference honors in football (1946-47) and helped the Cardinals to their first College Conference of Illinois (CCI) title in 1946 with a 7-1 record. Smith captained the 1947 team (7-2 overall) that played in the only bowl game in school history, a 21-0 loss to Southern Illinois University in the Corn Bowl. His accomplishments on the gridiron earned him a spot on North Central's All-Century Football Team (1898-1998).

In basketball, Smith was all-conference for the 1946-47 season and also served as captain. In baseball, he again led the team in batting average in 1947 (.394) while collecting 12 RBIs and three home runs. In 1948, he hit .318 with 14 RBIs and three long balls.

After graduating in 1948, Smith transferred his athletic prowess on the field to the sidelines, serving as a coach at Naperville Central High School from 1950-84. In football, he compiled a 42-18 record as head coach (1970-75) and a 192-94-3 mark while serving as an assistant.

He started the Naperville Little Redskins football program and became a member of the Illinois High School Football Coaches Hall of Fame in 1989. Smith served as the head basketball coach at Naperville Central from 1951-55. He also officiated high school and college basketball from 1956-85 and was selected for the Illinois High School Basketball Association Hall of Fame in the officials category in 1987.

In baseball, Smith not only started the program at Naperville Central, but carved out an impressive 289-96 record as head coach (1952-70, 77-81). He was instrumental in founding the Naperville Little League and Pony League in the mid-50s and was selected for the Illinois High School Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 1983. Smith retired from teaching and coaching in 1985.

Tom Purcell '74 coached North Central College baseball for 13 seasons from 1981 to 1993.

During his tenure as Cardinals skipper, he posted a 313-166-4 record, won four conference championships and reached the NCAA Division III regional tournament four times (1985, 1986, 1987 and 1991). Purcell also was assistant coach and defensive coordinator for the football team from 1976 to 1985.

The 1987 Cardinals stand as the only baseball team in school history to reach the Division III College World Series. Purcell's squad rebounded from a 3-4 start to capture a then school-record 31 victories and advance to collegiate baseball's pinnacle event.

Purcell coached nine NCAA Division III All-Americans, two College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-Americans, five College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin (CCIW) Most Outstanding Players and 64 CCIW All-Conference players. Purcell also coached the greatest hitter in North Central history, 1988 NCAA Division III Player of the Year Ken Ritter. Under Purcell's tutelage, Ritter, a 2004 North Central College Hall of Fame inductee, went on to sign a professional contract with Major League Baseball's Oakland Athletics.

Purcell holds the record for most career victories (313) and the highest winning percentage of any Cardinal baseball coach in school history (.653).

Purcell came to North Central as an undergraduate from Chicago's Mendel Catholic High School, where he was captain of the football team. In his gridiron playing days, Purcell was a four-year starter for the Cardinals and in 1974 was named the team's Most Valuable Player as a captain and defensive back. He was also CCIW All-Conference as a defensive back in 1973.

Purcell graduated in 1974 with a bachelor of arts in physical education, economics and business administration. He earned a master's degree in physical science at George Williams College in 1979 and was named an assistant professor of physical education in 1980 at North Central.

Purcell passed away in 2001 at age 49, survived by his wife Sharon, daughter Terri and son Tommy. Since 2004, the College has honored Purcell every fall when Cardinal baseball hosts the Tom Purcell Classic Alumni Game.
