

2019 Cardinal Football Game Day

Game Notes – Nov. 9 (Senior Day): Illinois Wesleyan University Titans (5-3, 5-2) at North Central College Cardinals (7-1, 6-1)

Setting the Scene: What has traditionally been one of its toughest matchups each season awaits the Cardinals this week as they look to send their seniors off with a final regular-season victory at home.

Series History: This is the 70th football meeting between the institutions. The Titans own a 38-28-3 lead in the all-time series, but North Central has won the last nine straight games and 16 of the last 17.

The teams met in Bloomington on Nov. 3 of last season and the then-No. 10-ranked Cardinals secured a 38-20 victory over the then-No. 13-ranked Titans. A 94-yard kickoff return touchdown by Cameron Moore broke a 14-14 tie and ignited a run of 24 straight North Central points.

Broc Rutter completed 21 of 33 passes for 285 yards, including an 86-yard completion to Michael Sfikas, while Ethan Greenfield gained a team-high 81 rushing yards on 18 carries. Jake Beesley piled up 10 tackles while also intercepting a pass and forcing a fumble.

National Rankings: North Central is ranked No. 6 in the most recent NCAA Division III National Top 25 Polls released by D3football.com and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

Scouting the Titans: Illinois Wesleyan broke open a close game with 33 unanswered points and secured a 40-12 win over Millikin Saturday.

Facing a 12-7 deficit to open the second half, the Titans took the lead on Johnny Dicanio's 31-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Dooley and put the game away by scoring on each of their next four possessions as well.

IWU's starting quarterback for the last three weeks, Dicanio threw for a season-high 300 yards with three TDs against the Big Blue. He leads an offense which has averaged 374 yards per game.
