Northeastern's 1982 NCAA Tournament Team

In arguably the finest year in Husky hockey history, Northeastern earned a third-place trophy in the 1982 NCAA Tournament. Entry into the Big Dance came via ECAC regular season and tournament domination and the intrepid play of junior goaltender Mark Davidner, senior defenseman Jeff Hiltz, and senior forwards Paul McDougall and Gerry Cowie. The first round began against Bowling Green in a two game, total goal series. The two teams tied the in first game 2-2. The next evening, the Huskies would advance to the final four thanks to Bob Averill's overtime game winner and a 3-2 victory. The Huskies traveled to Providence to face the North Dakota Fighting Sioux on March 25 in the final four. North Dakota pounced on the Huskies early, opening up a four goal lead after two periods and eventually advancing with a 6-2 victory en route to the national championship. NU claimed the third-place trophy via a 10-4 win over New Hampshire in the prelude to the national championship game two days later. In the consolation game, Scot McKenney scored a hat trick and added an assist for a four-point game.

Northeastern's 1988 NCAA Tournament Team

The 1988 season ended prematurely for the Huntington Hounds, as the team was upstaged in the first round of NCAA action by underdogs-turned-spoilers, Merrimack College. After a season in which the Huskies won 20 games in Hockey East, won the Hockey East Tournament title and garnered their fourth Beanpot championship, coach Fern Flaman's team was eliminated by the Warriors in a two-game, total goals series. The Huskies won the first game 5-3 after erupting for four goals in the third period. The Huskies had five different goal scorers and Kevin Heffernan had three assists. The next night, the Huskies were in control with a 3-2 lead headed into the third period. However, in the final frame, Merrimack scored five unanswered goals, including two in the final three minutes for the series victory. The loss concluded the college careers of two-time All-American goalie Bruce Racine and Heffernan, NU's ninth all-time leading scorer.

Northeastern's 1994 NCAA Tournament Team

The 1994 championship bracket held a plethora of familiar foes for Northeastern. Hockey East opponents UMass Lowell and New Hampshire as well as Beanpot rivals BU and Harvard joined the Huskies in the field of 12. Northeastern received an at-large bid to the tournament after advancing to the Hockey East semifinals following a quarterfinal sweep of Providence and a strong overall record of 19-12-7. NU's hopes were short-lived, however, as the Huskies were ousted in the first round by eventual-champion Lake Superior State. Led by goalie Blaine Lacher, the Lakers dispatched the Huskies, 6-5, in an exciting, high-scoring game which ended 15 seconds into sudden-death overtime. Replays showed that a Dan Lupo shot crossed the goal line in the third period, but the apparent go-ahead tally for NU was ruled a Lacher save. It was the second time in NU history that the Huskies had lost to the eventual national champion (North Dakota - 1982).

Northeastern's 2009 NCAA Tournament Team

In 2009, Northeastern returned to the NCAA Tournament after a 14-year hiatus in what had become one of the most successful seasons in Huskies history. Head coach Greg Cronin guided the Huskies to a 25-11-4 record and a second-place finish in Hockey East with an 18-6-3 mark. After dispatching Massachusetts in the Hockey East quarterfinals, the Huskies lost to UMass Lowell in overtime in the semis. Despite the loss, the Huskies earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and were awarded the No. 2 seed in the Midwest Regional in Grand Rapids, Mich. The Huskies faced Cornell in the opening round and started strong with a 2-0 lead on goals by Louis Liotti and Steve Silva. But Cornell responded with three unanswered goals, including the game-winner with just 18 seconds remaining in regulation, to end Northeastern's Frozen Four hopes. It was the final game for Huskies All-American goalie Brad Thiessen, who went on to sign with the Pittsburgh Penguins of the NHL.

NU Hockey Veterans' Unsung Hero Award

The NU Hockey Veterans' Unsung Hero Award is dedicated in honor of all the Northeastern hockey players who dedicated long hours on and off the ice to Northeastern's long, storied hockey tradition. In recognition of their pursuit to improve NU hockey this award is presented to the player, whose individual exploits may have been overshadowed, but were crucial to the team's success.

Manager's Award Most Improved Player

The Manager's Award was donated by former Husky hockey managers Joey Gross and Paul Pagliarulo. NU has a long tradition of student hockey managers who have dedicated long hours behind the scenes in order to help the team give full attention to improving its play on the ice. In honor of the team manager's commitment to improvement, this award is given annually to NU's most improved player.

Ed Arrington Memorial Rookie of the Year Award

The Rookie of the Year Award is donated by the Friends of Northeastern Hockey in memory of Ed Arrington. A 1979 NU alum, Arrington earned the 1978 ECAC Rookie of the Year Award. He returned to NU and served as the goaltending coach from 1980-82 and 1996-2001, until his untimely passing. He proved that through hard work and determination one can make a difference, even as a rookie.

Friends of NU Hockey
Fernie C. Flaman Award

The Fernie Flaman Award is in honor of the former head coach, who served at the NU helm from 1970-1989. He is the winningest coach in NU hockey history with 255 career wins, and led the Huskies to four Beanpot titles, two NCAA tourney appearances, a 1988 Hockey East title and a 1982 ECAC championship. This award is presented to a benefactor of NU hockey, who has demonstrated the commitment and dedication of coach Flaman to making NU hockey a success.

Latest Addition to the Northeastern Hall of Fame

• JIM FAHEY •

Jim Fahey, of Milton, Mass., has been elected to the Northeastern University Varsity Club Hall of Fame for excellence in the sport of men's ice hockey.

A two-year captain on Huntington Ave., Fahey left Northeastern as its single-season school record-holder for points by a defenseman with 46. As a senior in 2002, he earned JOF/AHCA All-American honors and was a Hobey Baker Award finalist. In 2010, Fahey was one of two Northeastern players named to Hockey East's All-Decade team.

Born in Milton, Mass., Fahey starred at West Roxbury's Catholic Memorial High School, guiding the squad to four state titles and captaining the team for two years. Fahey was named Catholic Conference MVP after his senior season in 1998, and earned All-Scholastic honors from the Boston Globe, Boston Herald and Patriot Ledger. Fahey arrived at Northeastern already an eighth-round selection of the San Jose Sharks in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft.

Fahey wasted little time cracking the lineup his freshman campaign, skating in 32 of 34 contests. With five goals on the season, Fahey made the Hockey East All-Rookie Team, prompting head coach Bruce Crowder to say that the freshman had "become a go-to guy for us."

Such a go-to guy, in fact, that as a sophomore Fahey was named assistant captain. Fahey responded by leading all Northeastern defenders with 20 points, twice earning Hockey East Defensive Player of the Week honors. Fahey also scored his first career goal in a Beanpot game on Feb. 14, 2000, against Harvard.

Promoted to captain for the 2000-01 season, Fahey again led all NU blue-liners in scoring, finishing fourth on the squad with 27 points and second with 24 assists. For the second straight year Fahey played in every game for the Huskies, recording seven multi-assist games en route to Hockey East All-Star honors.

If Fahey's first three seasons were impressive, they pale in comparison to his senior campaign. After becoming Northeastern's eighth two-term captain, Fahey rewrote the Husky record books: his 46-point season still stands as the school's single-season record amongst defensemen. Fahey became only the second defenseman to lead Northeastern in scoring over a season, notching a point in 22 games and two or more points in 16 contests. With 111 career points, he is one of just five NU blue-liners to score 100 career points.

That year Fahey was unanimously named a Hockey East All-Star and was voted to the All-New England squad. He was also named as one of the 10 finalists for the Hobey Baker Award, presented each year to the nation's top player. Fahey would go on to win the Walter Brown Award for New England's top American-born player, as well as the New England Writers Award as the region's outstanding defenseman.

After his career on Huntington Ave., Fahey spent time in the NHL with the San Jose Sharks and the New Jersey Devils. During his rookie season with the Sharks, Fahey led all rookie defensemen in scoring despite spending time in the minors. Fahey also scored a goal playing for Team USA in the 2003 World Championships. He then took his talents overseas, spending time with the Krefeld Penguins in Germany. Fahey also co-founded the non-profit Hope Strengthens Foundation.

Fahey and his wife, Brenell, live in Walpole, Mass., with their two children: Shay Alan and Cullen James.

Hockey Coaches and the Hall of Fame

Of the 10 head coaches to have guided the Northeastern hockey program, four have been inducted into the Hall of Fame. With the exception of one season (1942-43), the four coaches guided Northeastern hockey from 1936 through 1991. Herb Gallagher (NU '35) coached the Huskies for 15 seasons, beginning in 1936. After a hiatus from 1942-46, Gallagher returned to lead the hockey program until 1955 when he became the school's Athletics Director. Jim Bell (NU '54) took the reigns from Gallagher and coached the Huskies for the next 15 seasons, receiving the Shaeffer Pen Award for outstanding contribution to college hockey in 1970. Following Bell was Fernie Flaman, who is Northeastern hockey's all-time winningest coach with 255 victories over his 19 seasons. He coached NU to four Beanpots, two NCAA Tournament appearances and one Hockey East title. In 1970, Don McKenney joined the hockey program as an assistant to the newly hired Flaman and served as his right-hand man for 19 years. With Flaman's retirement in 1989, the Huskies quickly turned to McKenney as the team's new leader. After serving as head coach for the next two seasons (1989-91), McKenney retired with 21 years of devotion to the University.
