ABOUT THE HUSKIES

Northeastern became the fifth program in CAA history to make three straight CAA Championship Game appearances, and have won a league-best 146 conference games since joining the CAA. The Huskies enter this season without a senior on the roster, the first time in the Bill Coen era, and 10 of the 12 players hail from different states, countries or provinces.

The Huskies will have one of the youngest teams in the country and will look to returning starters Tyson Walker and Shaquille Walters, as well as key returner Jason Strong to help the very talented five incoming recruits. Greg Eboigbodin battled through injuries last season, but will be a strong presence in the middle and shooting guards Quirin Emanga and Vito Cubrilo should add to Northeastern's three-point shooting prowess.

HAMILTON '83 | 15TH SEASON | 2018 CAA COACH OF THE YEAR

- 2013 & 2018 NABC District 10 Coach of the Year

- 2013 Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Finalist

• 33 All-CAA selections in 14 seasons

• 24 former players signed professional contracts

THE COEN FILE

Bill Coen is one of the most successful coaches in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) and Northeastern history. After 14 seasons of leading the Huskies, Coen ranks No. 2 all-time in school and CAA history with 241 and 163 wins, respectively. He needs just nine more wins at Northeastern to catch Jim Calhoun's 250 from 1972-86.

Coen is widely regarded for his ability to evaluate and develop talented players. In his 14 seasons at Northeastern, players have earned 33 All-CAA honors, including 11 first-team selections and eight All-Rookie honors. Twenty-two of Coen's former players have earned professional contracts and eight Huskies remain active in professional basketball.

Under Coen's guidance, the Huskies became just the fifth program in CAA history to make three consecutive tournament championship games (2018, '19, '20) and were just the third No. 6 seed to advance all the way to the title game this past season. Northeastern leads the way with 145 league wins in the Coen era, and have won a league-best three regular-season titles and two tournament championships since 2013.

The Huskies have finished .500 or better in 11 of Coen's 14 seasons at the helm in CAA play, including back-to-back 14-win seasons in 2017-18 and '18-19. Northeastern also has appeared in the CAA tournament quarterfinals in all 14 seasons under Coen, advanced to the semifinals eight times, and to the title game five times and two NCAA berths in 2015 and '19. Since Coen took the reins of the Northeastern men's basketball program 14 seasons ago, Northeastern has accomplished the best winning percentage among current CAA teams in conference and CAA postseason play.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Northeastern, Coen spent time as an assistant/associate head coach at Boston College (1997-06), Rhode Island (1989-97) and Hamilton (1987-89). Each program witnessed success, making several NCAA and NIT tournaments.

NORTHEASTERN GREATS AND PLAYERS IN THE PROS

JOSE JUAN BAREA (2002-06)

Barea is regarded by many as the most exciting player ever to wear a Husky uniform. He proved himself as a national leader in both scoring and assists, finishing the 2004-05 season as the first player since 1997-98 to rank in the top 10 in both categories and finishing among the top 20 in his senior season. He was named an AP All-America honorable mention, as well as the CAA Player of the Year and CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Player of the Year. Barea is second all-time in both scoring and assists at Northeastern. He was signed by the Dallas Mavericks in 2006 and made his NBA debut on Nov. 4, 2006. Barea helped lead Dallas to the NBA title in 2011.

DAVE CALIGARIS (1973-77)

Dave Caligaris owns the unofficial title as the greatest pure shooter in the history of NU basketball. He was a renowned scholar-athlete as a two-time Academic All-America selection, graduating summa cum laude with a 3.84 GPA in accounting. Caligaris departed NU as the leader in career points, 1673, and games played, 101, all of which were consecutive. In addition to the academic accolades, he was a District I All-American on the court as a junior and senior. Caligaris went on to earn his MBA from Harvard. He is currently the President for the Green Company, a prestigious real estate developer.

PETE HARRIS (1977-81)

Pete Harris was the leader of the 1981 Husky team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time. Harris is the third all-time leading scorer in NU history and one of only three Huskies to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau. A Street and 's All-American entering his senior season, Harris served as the team's captain and collected All-ECAC, All-New England and All-East honors in his final year. In June of 1981, Harris was drafted by the Phoenix Suns. After a brief professional career, Harris joined the Federal Police in Washington, D.C. and became a member of the Pentagon's S.W.A.T. Team.

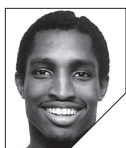

Reggie Lewis

ANDRE LaFLEUR (1983-87)

While Reggie Lewis was scoring the points, Andre LaFleur was getting him the ball. LaFleur is the best passer in NU history with 894 assists, and graduated as the all-time assists leader in the NCAA. A starter on four consecutive America East championship teams, LaFleur also collected 252 steals and scored 1,143 points. This was all accomplished while setting the university record for most consecutive games played, 128, and minutes played, 4,405. LaFleur captained the Huskies in both the 1985-86 and '86-'87 seasons.

REGGIE LEWIS (1983-87)

The greatest athlete ever to wear a Husky uniform, Reggie Lewis' name dominates the Husky record book. He is Northeastern's all-time leading scorer and when he left NU, was ninth on the Division I career scoring list with 2,709 points. Lewis led NU to four consecutive America East championships and four straight appearances in the NCAA tournament. The Huskies went 102-26 (72-6 in conference play) during his career. A first round draft pick of the Celtics in 1987, Lewis became team captain and earned an invitation to the NBA All-Star Game in 1992. He received a posthumous induction into the NU Hall of Fame in 1995.

PERRY MOSS (1978-82)

As a junior, Perry Moss teamed with Pete Harris in the backcourt to lead the Huskies to their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. Moss and NU repeated the feat in his senior season of 1982. Moss is fourth on NU's all-time scoring list with 1,722 points, and is also third in steals with 197. After college, Moss went on to the Continental Basketball Association, where he helped lead the Tampa Bay Thrillers to the CBA title in 1984-85. He would reach the pinnacle of his professional career playing for Washington, Philadelphia and Golden State of the NBA. Moss went into NU's Hall of Fame in 1992.

FRANCIS X. "INGA" WALSH (1944-49)

Walsh was the first dominant player in the history of Husky basketball. He averaged 16.7 points per game over the course of his career, an amazing figure considering the style of play that characterized his era, a slowed down version unlike today's run-and-gun games. His 1,060 total points is still good for 21st on NU's scoring list. After leaving NU, Walsh went to camp with the New York Knicks of the newly formed NBA. Evidence of his stature as one of the greatest NU athletes of all time came with his induction into the first Hall of Fame class in 1974.

Northeastern vs. Michigan State • Dec. 19, 2015 Matthews Arena

In a nationally televised game during the Northeastern Winter Showdown, the Huskies took on No. 1 Michigan State in front of a sellout crowd of 5,288 at Matthews Arena.

HISTORIC MATTHEWS ARENA

A WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN SPORTS

The Matthews Arena chronology reads like a Who's Who in American sports, and starts with its groundbreaking on Oct. 11, 1909.

- Legendary boxers Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney & Joe Louis graced the ring
- Paavo Nurmi ran at the Arena in a BAA track meet
- Olympian Sonja Henie wove her magic on blades to phonograph music
- The Boston Bruins played their first home game in the building and defeated the Montreal Maroons, 2-1 on Dec. 1, 1924
- Less fortunate in their Arena debut were the Northeastern hockey Huskies, who lost, 2-1, to MIT on Jan. 17, 1930
- The Arena also has played host to such professional hockey teams as the Boston Olympics, Whalers, Tigers, and Cubs
- Even the great Babe Ruth, then a young left-handed pitcher for the Red Sox, was a frequent visitor to the Arena. The Sultan of Swat passed idle time in the winter by playing in hockey scrimmages with the Arena A.C. team
- Chuck Connors, alias The Rifleman, jumped center and smashed the glass backboard in the first-ever Boston Celtics game on Nov. 5, 1946
- The world-famous Texas Rangers also brought their rodeo in 1932, complete with outlaw horses and steers
- Eddie Shore and Bob Cousy mystified crowds in the 20s and 50s with the Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics, respectively
- In the first intercollegiate basketball and hockey games played at the Arena, Harvard edged MIT 4-3, on December 14, 1910, and Notre Dame tapped off with Holy Cross on the last day of 1934.

Historic Matthews Arena is home to Northeastern basketball. The arena, which opened on April 16, 1910, is the oldest active men's basketball arena in the nation. Located on the east end of the Northeastern campus, the hallowed hall was the original home of Boston's beloved Celtics and Bruins and was the birthplace of the Celtics' famed parquet floor.

List compiled by Tulane University athletic communications office

The world's oldest ice hockey arena and one of the nation's exemplary athletic facilities is Matthews Arena, named for George J. Matthews, Class of '56, and his wife, the late Hope M. Matthews.

The original home of the Boston Bruins, the Celtics and the Beanpot, the Arena has served as the center of Northeastern hockey since the program's inception for the 1929-30 season.

The Matthews Arena chronology reads like a Who's Who in American sports, and starts with its groundbreaking on Oct. 11, 1909.

Today, the stately Victorian lobbies that welcomed the modest and the mighty for nearly a century cater to the academic and athletic needs of the University.

Convocations and a large portion of the intramural docket are conducted at the Arena, whose walls once echoed with the podium entreaties of Presidents Teddy Roosevelt, Franklin Delano Roosevelt and John F. Kennedy.

Past Arena dignitaries include Charles Lindbergh, Amelia Earhardt, James Michael Curley, Reverend Billy Graham, Admiral Chester Nimitz and General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In the summer of 1993, the city of Boston and Northeastern paid tribute to one of its heroes when it held funeral services at the Arena for Reggie Lewis, Class of 1988.

The Arena has survived two crippling fires, one in 1918 and another in 1948, to prosper as a stationary jewel of the community.

Northeastern's association with the Arena covers more than 50 years, since hockey became a varsity sport at the University in 1929.

Husky basketball adopted the Arena as its home in 1981, although the Huskies played a game there in 1936, losing to Rhode Island.

Home to Northeastern men's basketball program from 1981-82 until 1996-97, Matthews once again became the prime home of the Huskies beginning in the 2005-06 season.

HOME, SWEET HOME

Northeastern's home court is Matthews Arena, college basketball's most historic arena and the world's oldest multi-purpose athletic facility. The arena, which was the original home of Boston's beloved Celtics and Bruins, opened on April 16, 1910, and is in its 106th year of operation. The Huskies have enjoyed great success on their home floor, including a school record 38-game winning streak from 1985 to 1987. NU is 73-45 at the arena since the 2005-06 season.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1981 - El Paso, Texas (NCAA West Region, 11 Seed)

Northeastern earned its first trip to the NCAA tournament as Perry Moss put up a one-handed shot from half-court with two seconds remaining and hit nothing but net to send the ECAC North title game against Holy Cross into overtime, where the Huskies prevailed, 81-79.

March 13, 1981- El Paso, Texas

Tied at 53, the Huskies put the ball in Perry Moss' hands once more as they went for the win against Fresno State. Moss drove, the defense collapsed, and he dished to a streaking Chip Rucker, who collected the pass and laid it in with four seconds remaining to lift Northeastern past the heavily-favored Bulldogs.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1982 - Uniondale, N.Y. (NCAA East Region, 11 seed)

Northeastern crushed Niagara, 82-59, for the ECAC North crown behind two-time tournament MVP Perry Moss, earning its second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament.

March 14, 1982 - Uniondale, N.Y.

In one of the longest and most amazing games in NCAA tournament history, the Huskies were defeated by Villanova, 76-72, in a triple overtime thriller. Dave Leitao put a hand in the face of 'Nova's Stewart Granger to alter his last second shot in regulation, then put up a shot with 10 seconds left in the first OT, grabbed his own rebound and nearly put it back in for the win as time expired. Eric Jefferson kept the Huskies alive in the second overtime, as he tipped in a Perry Moss miss. However, the Wildcats pulled away in the third overtime, as the two teams tied the record for longest NCAA tournament game.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2013 - Tuscaloosa, Ala. (NIT)

March 11 - Northeastern earned its third postseason berth in five years after capturing the CAA regular-season title for the first time in program history. The Huskies advanced to their first CAA tournament championship game after completing an improbable 24-point comeback over George Mason in the semifinals on March 10. The rally was the largest in the history of the program. The Huskies lost in the championship game to James Madison on March 11.

March 19 - Playing in its second National Invitation Tournament in four seasons, Northeastern entered the Tuesday night game at No. 1 seed Alabama as a decided underdog. The Huskies, who endured a 20-hour trip to Tuscaloosa and were without the services of leading-scorer Joel Smith, who was sidelined with an injury, were slow out of the gate. But after a spirited first-half rally and four straight points from senior Jonathan Lee to open the second half, NU trailed by just one. Alabama then held the Huskies scoreless for nearly nine minutes to end the upset bid, defeating Northeastern 62-43.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Colonial Athletic Association has established itself as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences both athletically and academically for more than three decades.

The CAA encompasses many of the nation's largest metropolitan areas with a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Charleston, S.C. The conference has produced 18 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 14 national players of the year, 14 national coaches of the year and 13 Honda Award winners. Just as impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 25 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2019-20, more than 2,600 of the league's student-athletes received the Commissioner's Academic Award after posting at least a 3.0 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport. The conference had 42 teams in 17 different sports receive NCAA Public Recognition Awards based on the latest Academic Progress Report released in 2020.

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes several of the nation's top media markets – New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Washington, D.C. (7), Boston (9) and Baltimore (26). The number of television homes in the CAA market exceeds 19 million.

The CAA conducts championships in 22 sports. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis and track & field. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball.

CAA schools have captured three national championships in the past four years. James Madison won the 2018 NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship with a thrilling 16-15 victory over Boston College. In 2016, Delaware claimed its first NCAA Field Hockey Championship with a 3-2 win over North Carolina and James Madison defeated Youngstown State to take home the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

The conference has made its presence known nationally in men's basketball. CAA teams have combined to win 43 games in postseason play since 2006, including a pair of NCAA Final Four appearances. Hofstra captured its first CAA title last season and was set to make its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2001 before the cancellation of the event.

In women's basketball, Drexel and James Madison shared the CAA regular-season title in 2019-20, continuing a tradition of success. JMU has made 14 consecutive postseason appearances while Drexel has earned 10 postseason berths in the last 11 years. CAA teams have recorded 33 victories in postseason play over the past seven seasons.

The CAA also excels in many other sports. The conference has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship in eight of the past 10 years with JMU advancing to the quarterfinals in 2018. Hofstra reached the second round of the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship for the second year in a row in 2019 after claiming its third straight league title. Towson became the first CAA team since 2011 to advance to the second round of the NCAA Volleyball Championship after going undefeated in league play. In softball, JMU knocked off host Michigan to win the Ann Arbor Regional in 2019 and advanced to the Super Regionals for the second time in four years. UNCW won its sixth CAA baseball title in 2019 and played in the NCAA Regionals for the 10th time. William & Mary's men's cross country team extended its record streak of CAA championships to 20 in 2019. Towson reached the men's lacrosse Final Four in 2017. Northeastern long jumper Kyle Darrow earned first-team All-America accolades in track and field in 2018. Two CAA men's golfers – CofC's Will Rainey and JMU's Ryan Cole – advanced to the NCAA Men's Golf Championship in 2016 and CofC's Laura Fuenfstueck reached the NCAA Women's Golf Championship in 2017. Towson's Jack Saunderson placed 7th in the 200 butterfly and 15th in the 100 butterfly at the 2019 NCAA Swimming Championship to earn All-America accolades.

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university education and life outside of intercollegiate athletics. The Alliance has facilitated leadership exchanges to promote professional development, developed an academic resource sharing program to support student athletes, and created opportunities for institutions to partner on a wide range of initiatives that enhance student success.

On July 1, 2016, Joseph D'Antonio began his tenure as only the second Commissioner in the history of the CAA. He replaced Thomas E. Yeager, who guided the CAA from its inception in 1985.

The conference traces its roots back to 1983 when two of its current members - James Madison University and William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, George Mason University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league (ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new conference. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985.

Old Dominion University joined the CAA in 1991 and was followed by Virginia Commonwealth University in 1995. The conference added the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University became members of the conference in 2005. College of Charleston began its first year as a CAA member in 2013 and Elon University joined the conference on July 1, 2014.
