FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

1. Sunday marks the 10th time in team history that UMass will play the same opponent in consecutive games during the regular season, and first time since 1982-83.
2. Tre Mitchell's 31 points on Friday were tied for the fourth most in a season opener in team history, behind only Lou Roe (1994), Marcus Camby (1995) and Julius Erving (1970).
3. Javohn Garcia's 23 points on Friday matched T.J. Weeks Jr's total from last season as the most points for a UMass freshman in a collegiate debut in the last 20 years.
4. Captain Carl Pierre is fourth all-time in made three-point field goals in UMass history (251).
5. UMass is tied for 12th in the NCAA with just four upperclassmen on its roster this season.

A UMASS WIN WOULD ...

- Move the Minutemen to 2-0 for the third straight season
- Give UMass seven straight wins vs. Northeastern
- Give the Minutemen three wins in their last four road games, dating back to last season.

2019-20 (T)REVIEW

- On Mar. 9, 2020, Tre Mitchell became the first Minuteman since Rashaun Freeman in 2003-04 to earn A-10 Rookie of the Week honors six times in a season, and first player in team history to win the award in five consecutive weeks. He was also the first A-10 player to win five straight since Rhode Island's Lamar Odom in 1998-99.
- Mitchell was 47th in the NCAA, and third among rookies, with 206 field goals. On Mar. 4, he broke the UMass freshman record for made field goals in a season, previously held by Jim McCoy (193, 1988-89).
- Mitchell's 548 points were fourth in the nation among NCAA freshmen, and eight away from breaking the UMass rookie record for points in a season, held by Jim McCoy (555, 1988-98).
- He averaged 19.3 points per game, 7.5 rebounds per game and shot 48% from the floor against NCAA NET top-100 opponents last season (16 games).
- Mitchell was tied for 16th in the country among rookies with 7.2 rebounds per game. His season total of 222 was 17 shy of tying Horace Neysmith's UMass freshman record of 239, set in 1981-82.
- Mitchell had a career-high 34 points on Mar. 7 vs. Rhode Island, and was sixth in the Atlantic 10 and first among rookies averaging 17.1 points per game last season.
- Mitchell's 34-point night against the Rams were the most for a UMass freshman since Jim McCoy scored 35 on Mar. 4, 1989, and third highest for a UMass freshman all-time.
- Mitchell's averaged 22.9 points and 9.4 rebounds in his last nine games.
- He was one of 17 players in the Atlantic 10 to have a 30-point game last season, and the only freshman to do so.
- Mitchell was one of nine players in the A-10 with a 30-point game in conference play.
- He had five 25+ point nights last season. UMass had six as a team in 2018-19.
- Mitchell had 11 20+ point nights last season.
- Mitchell's second half double-double (15 points, 11 rebounds) at Fordham on Feb. 22 marked the first double-double for a Minuteman in a half since Terrell Vinson had 11 points and 11 rebounds in the second half against Fordham on Jan. 5, 2012.
- He pulled down a season-high 19 rebounds at Fordham on Feb. 22, tied for the fourth-most in the Atlantic 10 last season and the most in a game for a Minuteman since Antwan Space had 17 on Feb. 14, 2016 at Duquesne (OT).

SETTING THE STAGE

The new normal

On November 17, the Massachusetts men's basketball team paused all team activities following a positive COVID-19 test result among the program's Tier 1 personnel, which consists of coaches, student-athletes, team managers and support staff. Results were detected during COVID-19 surveillance testing, which is conducted three times a week in accordance with NCAA guidelines.

Due to a pause in team activities, UMass did not participate in the Multiple Team Event at Mohegan Sun previously scheduled for Thanksgiving weekend. UMass returned to practice on December 5.

Friday's game vs. Northeastern marked the latest the team started a season since 1947-48, when the team's first game was held on December 12, 1947.

The series with Northeastern

Massachusetts and Northeastern will be meeting for the 57th time in program history on Sunday, with UMass leading the series, 39-17, with the Minutemen winning each of the last six matchups.

Sunday marks the 10th time in team history that UMass will play the same opponent in consecutive games during the regular season, and first time since 1982-83.

Polling data

In what is projected to be one of the strongest years for the Atlantic 10 in recent years, the Minutemen were picked to finish eighth in the conference at the Atlantic 10's Virtual Media Day.

No.	Team (FPV)	Points
1.	Richmond (19)	380
2.	Saint Louis (7)	364
3.	Dayton (2)	318
4.	St. Bonaventure	307
5.	Duquesne	278
6.	Rhode Island	246
7.	Davidson	229
8.	Massachusetts	192
9.	VCU	175
10.	George Mason	133
11.	George Washington	113
12.	Saint Joseph's	85
13.	La Salle	80
14.	Fordham	40

In addition, Tre Mitchell was named to the A-10 Preseason All-Conference First Team.

Picking up where he left off

Tre Mitchell wasted no time in confirming that the hype is real on Friday with 31 points and 11 rebounds in his season debut, including 19 points and six boards in the first half alone.

Mitchell's performance put him on a list with some of the UMass greats, tying him for the fourth most points in a season opener in program history:

Name	Points	Opponent (Year)
Lou Roe	34	No.1 Arkansas (1994)
Marcus Camby	32	No. 1 Kentucky (1995)
Julius Erving	32	St. Anselm (1970)
Tre Mitchell	31	Northeastern (2010)
Anthony Gurley	31	Rider (2010)

Mitchell is one of only 46 players in the country with a 30-point game this season.

Garcia dazzles in UMass debut

Javohn Garcia's 23-point performance against Northeastern on Friday tied T.J. Weeks Jr.'s night last season as the most points for a Minuteman in his collegiate debut in more than 20 seasons.

Since 1999, only 10 players have scored at least 23 points in the season opener:

Player	Season	Points
Tre Mitchell	2020-21	31
Javohn Garcia	2020-21	23
T.J. Weeks Jr.	2019-20	23
Trey Davis	2014-15	28
Cady Lalanne	2013-14	27
Anthony Gurley	2010-11	31
Freddie Riley	2010-11	28
Ricky Harris	2007-08	23
Rashaun Freeman	2005-06	25
Micah Brand	2001-02	23

He gets buckets

Redshirt-freshman T.J. Weeks Jr. is back in the lineup for the Minutemen after missing the final 21 games of last season due to injury. At the time of his injury last season, Weeks Jr. was 15th in the NCAA with 32 made three-point field goals, and finished the year shooting 48.5% from beyond the arc.

Weeks Jr. is the son of former UMass great Tyrone Weeks Sr., who scored over 1,000 points for UMass from 1994-98 and played in four consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

GAME NOTES

Mitchell named to Malone Award Watch List

Tre Mitchell, who took the Atlantic 10 by storm en route to conference Rookie of the Year honors last season, is back for more in 2020-21. On Nov. 5, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame announced that the sophomore is one of 20 players named to the watch list for the 2021 Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year Award.

Mitchell, who burst onto the scene in Amherst with one of the top freshman seasons in program history in 2019-20. Mitchell, who was also named to the A-10 Second Team and to the league's rookie team, finished the year averaging 22.9 points per game and 9.4 rebounds per game over his final nine games. The Pittsburgh, Pa. native became the first rookie since Marcus Camby in 1994 to be named to the Atlantic 10's First, Second or Third team.

O Captain, My Captain

Last season, senior captain Carl Pierre became the 52nd player in team history to reach 1000 career points, and enters 2020-21 in a tie for 31st on UMass' all-time scoring list:

Rank	Player (Years)	Career Points
t-27.	Anthony Anderson (2001-05)	1211
	Jim Town (1974-77)	1211
29.	Carmelo Travieso (1993-97)	1186
30.	John Murphy (1972-75)	1184
31.	Carl Pierre (2017-pr.)	1177

Pierre is also fourth all-time at UMass in career three-point field goals made, and hit his 250th on Friday vs. Northeastern:

Rank	Player (Years)	Career 3-pt FGs
1.	Monty Mack (1997-01)	331
2.	Ricky Harris (2006-10)	276
3.	Anthony Anderson (2001-05)	275
4.	Carl Pierre (2017-pr.)	251

Fernandes receives NCAA waiver

The NCAA announced Wednesday that the legislative relief waiver for UMass men's basketball transfer Noah Fernandes has been approved. Fernandes, a Mattapoisett, Mass. native, is immediately eligible for competition for the 2020-21 season.

Fernandes transferred to the Minutemen from Wichita State following his freshman season in 2019-20. There he appeared in 21 games, including three starts, averaging 1.4 points in 9.9 minutes of action per game. He posted season highs of seven points on 3-of-8 shooting from the floor in 25 minutes at UCF on Feb. 13 and had a season-high six assists against UT Martin on Nov. 16.

Ball security

UMass finished the 2019-20 season with 407 turnovers, the third fewest in a season in team history.

The Minutemen continued to take care of the ball on Friday vs. Northeastern with just nine turnovers. Dating back to last season, UMass has recorded 10 or fewer turnovers in four of its last six games.

Youth movement

The Minutemen welcome eight newcomers, including five freshmen, to the program in 2020-21.

"It's a very talented group," McCall said. "We needed this class to elevate and help get us to the top of the league, and we feel like we've done that with this group. This group coming in will have a year or two of prep school that will be ready to play from Day One, and I don't look at those guys like freshmen."

Common threads

Eight members of the Minutemen (Ronnie DeGray III, Dyondre Dominguez, Noah Fernandes, Cairo McCrory, Tre Mitchell, Preston Santos, Dibaji Walker, T.J. Weeks Jr.) played at least one year of prep school at Woodstock Academy:

2019-20: DeGray III, Dominguez, McCrory

2018-19: DeGray III, Fernandes, T. Mitchell, Santos, Weeks Jr.

2017-18: T. Mitchell, Walker

Veteran leadership

UMass' four upperclassmen (Brady Antonopoulos, Mark Gasperini, Carl Pierre, Dibaji Walker) make the Minutemen tied for 12th in the nation for the fewest upperclassmen on an NCAA roster this season.

It's the second straight year that UMass has had four or fewer upperclassmen.

Washington named sports performance coach

Head coach Matt McCall announced in August that Josh Washington has been named the program's sports performance coach. Washington arrives in Amherst following a stint at Auburn University.

Washington spent the last two years at Auburn working as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant with the men's basketball program while working towards his Master of Science in exercise physiology. While with the Tigers, Washington assisted with all aspects of training implementation with the men's basketball program including strength training, conditioning, rehabilitation, nutrition supplementation, pre-practice warm-up and more.

In his two seasons at Auburn, the Tigers reached the 2019 Final Four and were the No. 2 seed in the SEC Tournament with a 25-6 record in 2020 before the season was halted due to COVID-19.

Brian Mathews signs NLI

UMass added more size to its roster for 2021-22 as Brian Mathews (Chicago, Illinois) signed a National Letter of Intent on Nov. 11 during the start of the early signing period.

Mathews, a 6-9, 215-pound center will arrive in Amherst from DePaul College Prep, where Mathews helped the team to a 26-6 mark during the 2019-20 season and an appearance in the Sectional Playoffs.

"Brian is a high character kid," said head coach Matt McCall. "He's a big, physical frontcourt player who has a high skillset. He's very young, we believe his best days of basketball are in front of him. His ceiling as a player is tremendously high."

Matt McCall was named the 22nd head coach for University of Massachusetts men's basketball on March 29, 2017, and enters his fourth season at the helm in 2020-21.

McCall's 2020-21 squad saw a three-win improvement from the prior campaign, posting a 14-17 overall record, including an 8-10 mark in league play to finish the year with their most conference wins since the 2014-15 season to earn the No. 8 seed in the A-10 Tournament, its highest seed since 2015. UMass was playing some of its best basketball of the season, with wins in four of its final six games of the regular season, until the Atlantic 10 Tournament was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Led by freshman Tre Mitchell, who became the sixth player in team history and first since 2004 to be named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year, UMass earned a first-round bye to the Atlantic 10 Tournament for the first time since 2016 and won 11 games at the Mullins Center. Mitchell set the UMass rookie record for field goals in a season with 206, was nine points away from breaking the program record for freshman points in a season, and was a six-time A-10 Rookie of the Week selection, the most for a Minuteman since 2004.

In his second season at UMass, McCall's squad scored 70.7 points per game on the year to rank fifth among Atlantic 10 teams while ranking second in the league in field goal percentage from beyond the arc at 35-percent. Jonathan Laurent led the way in the A-10 with a 46.7-percent clip from deep with Carl Pierre posting the third-best percentage in the league. The Minutemen picked up a home win over rival Rhode Island behind Pierre's 22 points and added a win over league-leader Davidson.

UMass had early signature wins over Georgia and Providence during McCall's first year at the helm, adding a pair of wins over A-10 foe Dayton to mark the first time in series history that UMass has earned two wins over the Flyers in the same season with the first set of consecutive wins for the Minutemen in over 10 seasons. Sophomore Luwane Pipkins was tabbed all-region and the A-10's Most Improved Player after averaging more than 20 points per contest to join the likes of Julius Erving and Marcus Camby as players to average 20-plus in a single season.

Spending the previous two seasons at Chattanooga, McCall holds a head coaching record of 48-18 with marks of 25-11 in league action and 24-4 at home. Under his tutelage, Justin Tuoyo was a two-time Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Pacing the Mocs to a 19-12 record in 2016-17, Tuoyo led the conference in blocks while ranking sixth nationally at 2.9 per game.

In his first campaign at Chattanooga, McCall's squad set a school record with 29 wins, captured the SoCon Regular Season and Tournament Championships and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The 29 wins were the most in the nation by a first-year head coach in 2015-16. The total is tied for seventh-best since 1962.

The tourney crown and NCAA appearance were the first for UTC since 2009. The regular-season league title was the Mocs' first since 1994. The previous wins record of 27 dated back to the 1982 season (27-4), matching the total the 1977 NCAA Division II National Champions posted (27-5).

In 2015-16, the Mocs generated momentum with victories at Georgia, Illinois and Dayton. The win over the Flyers snapped their 26-game home winning streak. McCall earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors as the squad featured All-SoCon performers in Tuoyo and Tre' McLean.

McCall spent 11 seasons, over two stops, with Billy Donovan at Florida. After five seasons as a manager and graduate assistant, he was named Director of Basketball Operations (2006-08) before returning to Gainesville as assistant coach prior to the 2011-12 season.

In total, McCall was part of four SEC titles, four SEC Tournament titles, two NCAA Elite Eights, a Final Four and two NCAA titles. The 2013-14 Gators won 30-straight games, with an 18-0 SEC ledger, before a loss to eventual National Champion UConn in the Final Four.

In four seasons with the Gators' coaching staff, he helped land a top-five recruiting class in 2013, which included two McDonald's All-Americans in Chris Walker and Kasey Hill. The Gators also had a top-10 group in 2014. McCall was instrumental in adding All-SEC guard Michael Frazier and DeVon Walker in the 2012 class.

Between stints in Gainesville, McCall was an assistant under Mike Jarvis at Florida Atlantic for three seasons. The Owls went just 6-26 in that first season (2008-09), accumulated 14 wins in 2009-10 and put together the school's best Division I campaign with a 21-11 mark in 2010-11.

FAU's 2010-11 squad won the Sun Belt Regular Season title and earned just the second postseason berth in FAU history (2011 NIT). McCall's recruiting efforts netted such notables as Greg Gantt, Dennis Mavin and Raymond Taylor. Gantt ranked among the league and national leaders in scoring and three-point shooting during his Owl career.

McCall and his wife, Allison (Rios), are the parents of daughters Brooklyn and Kylie. He earned his undergraduate degree in exercise and sports science from Florida in 2004 and went on to earn a master's degree in the same concentration in May 2006, also from Florida.

Tony Bergeron

Assistant Coach

Second Season | Kings College '94

Tony Bergeron enters his second season as an assistant coach on Matt McCall's staff in 2020-21. Bergeron joined the Minuteman program after winning over 400 games coaching prep and high school basketball, most recently at Woodstock Academy (Conn.).

During his first year with the program in 2019-20, Bergeron helped guide the Minutemen to a three-win improvement from the prior campaign with a 14-17 overall record, including an 8-10 mark in league play to finish the year with their most conference wins since the 2014-15 season to earn the No. 8 seed in the A-10 Tournament, its highest seed since 2015. UMass was playing some of its best basketball of the season, with wins in four of its final six games of the regular season, until the Atlantic 10 Tournament was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Led by freshman Tre Mitchell, who became the sixth player in team history and first since 2004 to be named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year, UMass earned a first-round bye to the Atlantic 10 Tournament for the first time since 2016 and won 11 games at the Mullins Center. Mitchell set the UMass rookie record for field goals in a season with 206, was nine points away from breaking the program record for freshman points in a season, and was a six-time A-10 Rookie of the Week selection, the most for a Minuteman since 2004.

At Woodstock, Bergeron coached the Centaurs to a 38-2 record during his final season in 2018-19 as the team jumped to a No. 2 national ranking after posting a 35-5 record during 2017-18. He was also the program director of the Prep Gold and Blue teams at Woodstock.

Bergeron made stops at Commonwealth Academy from 2012-17 after guiding East Longmeadow to its only Western Massachusetts Championship in 2010. Prior to that, he led American Christian Academy (Pa.) and Wings Academy (N.Y.) to USA Today Top-25 rankings and helped The MacDuffie School to a NEPSAC Class E title. For nearly 15 years, Bergeron worked as a program director for the Five-Star Basketball Camp, a camp that has helped produce over 500 NBA and over 10,000 Division I players.

Bergeron graduated from The King's College in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education.

Lucious Jordan

Assistant Coach

Fourth Season | Albany '06

Lucious Jordan enters his second season as an assistant coach on Matt McCall's staff in 2020-21, and fourth overall with the UMass basketball program. Jordan spent his first two seasons in Amherst as the director of operations before being promoted to assistant coach prior to the 2019-20 season.

During his first year as an assistant coach in 2019-20, Jordan helped guide the Minutemen to a three-win improvement from the prior campaign with a 14-17 overall record, including an 8-10 mark in league play to finish the year with their most conference wins since the 2014-15 season to earn the No. 8 seed in the A-10 Tournament, its highest seed since 2015. UMass was playing some of its best basketball of the season, with wins in four of its final six games of the regular season, until the Atlantic 10 Tournament was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Led by freshman Tre Mitchell, who became the sixth player in team history and first since 2004 to be named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year, UMass earned a first-round bye to the Atlantic 10 Tournament for the first time since 2016 and won 11 games at the Mullins Center. Mitchell set the UMass rookie record for field goals in a season with 206, was nine points away from breaking the program record for freshman points in a season, and was a six-time A-10 Rookie of the Week selection, the most for a Minuteman since 2004.

Jordan arrived at UMass after one year as the director of operations at his alma mater, Albany, in 2016-17. Prior to his time with the Great Danes, Jordan spent three seasons as an assistant coach nearby at Siena College, where he helped the Saints to a pair of CBI berths.

Before helping guide the Saints for three years, Jordan was the director of operations at James Madison University during the 2012-13 campaign. While working with the Dukes, Jordan oversaw team operations as James Madison won the CAA Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round.

Jordan was formerly the coach of the Albany City Rocks AAU Team in 2010 and 2012 while he also guided the Green Tech Charter High School freshman team.

Jordan was a two-time co-captain of the Great Danes and key cog in the 2005-06 team's success as Albany won the program's first-ever America East Tournament. The America East All-Conference selection finished his career that also spanned two seasons at Loyola (Md.) with 1,418 points. After graduating with a degree in communication and sociology, Jordan traveled overseas and competed in the Netherlands for the Emmen Eagles while he also laced up for the Albany Patroons of the Continental Basketball Association from 2006-09.

The Capital Region standout played scholastically at Colonie Central and was inducted into the Capital Region Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010.

Tyson Wheeler*Assistant CoachSecond Season | Rhode Island '98*

Tyson Wheeler enters his second season as an assistant coach on Matt McCall's staff in 2020-21. Wheeler arrived in Amherst following 10 seasons at Fairfield, including eight years as an assistant coach.

During his first year as an assistant coach in 2019-20, Wheeler helped guide the Minutemen to a three-win improvement from the prior campaign with a 14-17 overall record, including an 8-10 mark in league play to finish the year with their most conference wins since the 2014-15 season to earn the No. 8 seed in the A-10 Tournament, its highest seed since 2015. UMass was playing some of its best basketball of the season, with wins in four of its final six games of the regular season, until the Atlantic 10 Tournament was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Led by freshman Tre Mitchell, who became the sixth player in team history and first since 2004 to be named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year, UMass earned a first-round bye to the Atlantic 10 Tournament for the first time since 2016 and won 11 games at the Mullins Center. Mitchell set the UMass rookie record for field goals in a season with 206, was nine points away from breaking the program record for freshman points in a season, and was a six-time A-10 Rookie of the Week selection, the most for a Minuteman since 2004.

Wheeler spent two of his 10 years at Fairfield as the Director of Basketball Operations after a standout career at the University of Rhode Island, where he was a two-time Atlantic 10 First-Team selection as a junior and senior. He helped lead the Rams to an Elite Eight appearance during the 1998 NCAA Tournament and was named to the Rams' All-Century team in 2005. As a collegiate player, Wheeler was a candidate for the John Wooden Award and was named the New England Coaches Association Bob Cousy Award winner.

After wrapping up his career at Rhode Island, Wheeler was drafted by the Toronto Raptors in the 1998 NBA Draft and played for the Denver Nuggets during the 1998-99 season. Wheeler also played professional in the CBA, the ABA and overseas from 1998-2008.

Brian Grossman*Director of OperationsFourth Season | Bridgewater State '14*

Brian Grossman enters his second season as the Director of Basketball Operations on Matt McCall's staff, and fourth season with the program. Grossman spent his first two seasons as the Director of Video Operations before being promoted at the start of the 2019-20 season.

Grossman arrived at UMass prior to the 2017-18 season following two seasons as the graduate assistant at Arizona State from 2015-16, assisting the Sun Devils in numerous capacities while working closely with head coach Bobby Hurley and associate head coach Rashon Burno. He graduated with a Master's Degree from Arizona State in May 2017.

Prior to heading to Tempe, Grossman earned his bachelor's degree in English from Bridgewater State University in Bridgewater, Massachusetts. During his senior season, the 6-foot-2 guard helped the Bears win the 2014 MASCAC Championship and reach the NCAA Tournament.

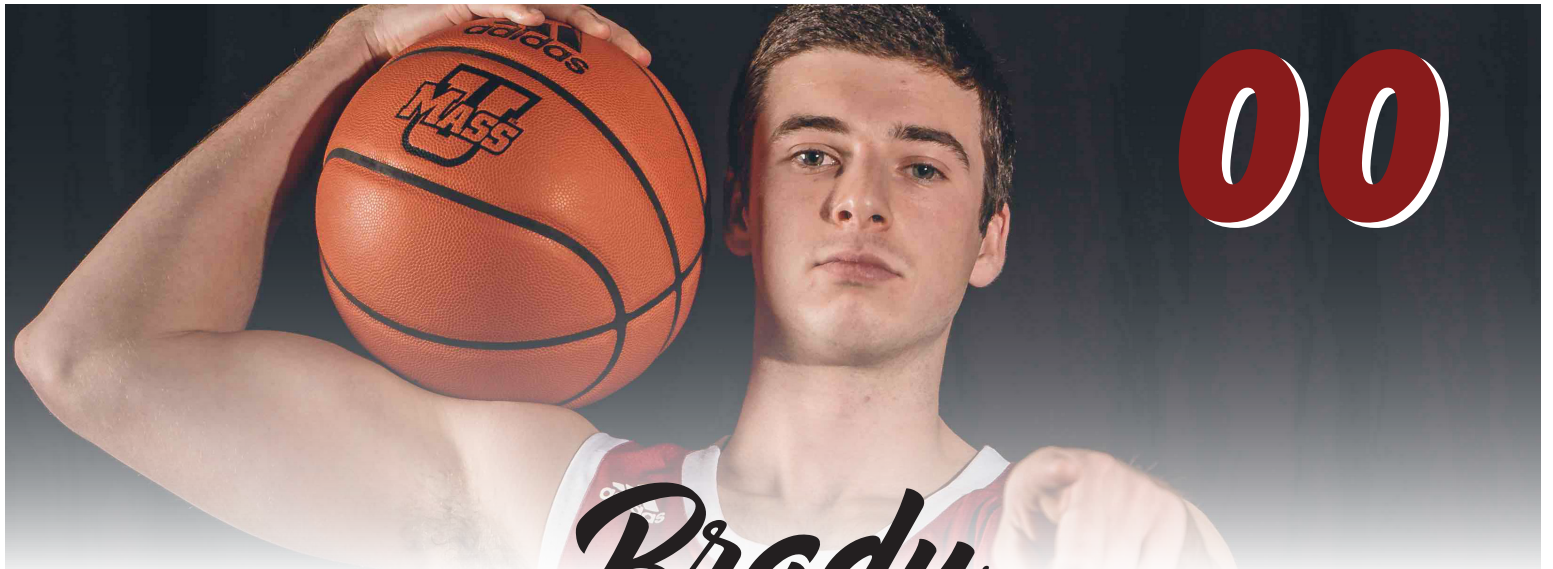

Grossman is a native of Duxbury, Massachusetts, where he played scholastically at Duxbury High School. He holds additional administrative experience as the director of operations for Zero Gravity Basketball in 2014-15, when he worked alongside Chief Executive Officer Greg Kristof.

Jacob Kurtz*Director of Scouting/VideoFourth Season | Florida '15*

Jacob Kurtz enters his second season as the Director of Scouting/Video on Matt McCall's staff, and fourth season with the program. Kurtz spent his first two seasons as the Assistant Director of Operations/Assistant to the Head Coach before being promoted at the start of the 2019-20 season.

Prior to arriving at UMass, Kurtz spent two seasons on McCall's staff at Chattanooga as the Mocs' video coordinator. While at Chattanooga, Kurtz was responsible for the breakdown of team video throughout the season. He filled the role of assistant to the head coach during both of McCall's seasons leading the Mocs.

Kurtz's tenure in Chattanooga marked his second stop with McCall as Kurtz was a student-athlete at Florida during McCall's time with the team. After Kurtz started as a team manager in 2010-11, he was elevated to walk-on and eventually moved into a part-time starting role as a senior. He was named to the 2015 SEC Community Service Team.

Played the 2019-20 season at Brewster Academy, helping them to a National Prep Championship in 2020 ... Named Honorable Mention All-NEPSEC ... Three-star recruit according to 247Sports and the No. 8 player from Ohio.

COACH MCCALL ON GARCIA

"Javohn is a tremendous competitor and a winner. He makes the right play and has the ability to get in the lane and finish on contact because of how strong he is, but he also has great feel. The one thing JG does such a great job of is changing speeds and pace. He can come down on a full sprint, stop on a dime, change pace, make a move and get in the lane."

COACH MCCALL ON DOMINGUEZ

"Dyondre will come in and be ready to play. When you look at how we want to play at the offensive end of the floor and can get a guy in the small forward/power forward spot who can shoot the ball like Dyondre can, it takes your offense to a completely different level. He has a tremendous skillset, size and length which will add to how we want to play defensively."

MORE ON NOAH FERNANDES

AS A FRESHMAN IN 2019-20 (WICHITA STATE)

Played in 21 games, including three starts during his freshman season ... Averaged 1.4 points per game in 9.9 minutes per game ... Had a season-high seven points on 3-of-8 shooting from the floor in 25 minutes at UCF (Feb. 13) ... Had a season-high six assists against UT Martin (Nov. 16).

BEFORE UMASS

Took a prep year in 2018-19 at Woodstock Academy (Conn.) as a member of the Post-Grad Gold Squad with teammates Tre Mitchell, T.J. Weeks, Preston Santos and Ronnie DeGray ... Team earned the top seed at the National Prep Championship and finished the year 36-2... Three-star prospect, per ESPN and 247Sports... Rated No. 215 in the Class of 2019 on 247Sports' composite list, No. 23 among point guards... Played 2018 summer ball for Expressions Elite in EYBL and averaged 12.9 points, 4.8 assists in 21 games... All-Peach Jam Honorable Mention, where he put up 13.8 points, 6.8 assists, 4.6 rebounds and 1.8 steals in five games... 2018 graduate of Tabor Academy in Marion, Mass... Played three seasons... First Team All-NEPSAC (Class A) as a senior and earned ISL all-league honors... Averaged more than 20 points per game in 2017-18 and helped his team the NEPSAC Class A semifinals... Played his freshman season as Old Rochester Regional in Mattapoisett where he averaged 15.8 points and helped the Bulldogs to the first MIAA state basketball championship in school history.

COACH MCCALL ON FERNANDES

"Noah was one of my favorite players that I watched two summers ago in AAU. I think Noah is a winner, he has tremendous feel at the point guard spot and plays the game with a tremendous amount of passion. His competitiveness, basketball feel and moxie are things you want. I think he's a better scorer than people give him credit for. He shoots it from the perimeter, but you can also put him in a pick-n-roll and he can make the right play. How we want to play offensively, when you can get multiple handlers out there with shooting on the floor, it's going to make you that much harder to guard."

BEFORE UMASS

Played two seasons at Woodstock Academy, including the 2018-19 as a member of the Post-Grad Gold Squad with teammates Tre Mitchell, T.J. Weeks, Preston Santos and Noah Fernandes ... Team earned the top seed at the National Prep Championship and finished the year 36-2 ... Was the only returning player to Woodstock's Gold team in 2019-20 with teammates Cairo McCrory and Dyondre Dominguez, helping the Centaurs to a 29-8 record and a National Prep Championship tournament berth ... Three-star recruit according to 247Sports and the No. 8 player from Colorado ... Also a three-star recruit according to Rivals ... His father, Ronnie DeGray II, played college basketball at Colorado before a six-year professional career overseas.

COACH MCCALL ON DEGRAY III

"Ronnie has an unbelievable skillset and great feel. I'm a guy who loves frontcourt players who can really pass. With how we want to play on offense, when you can get those kinds of guys with the ability to pass, it makes us really difficult to guard. Ronnie's also a guy who's played in the system defensively, and he has extremely high character."
