TOWSON UNIVERSITY

We ask that members of the media familiarize themselves with our University.

TOWSON is pronounced TOW like towel + Son.

IT IS NOT: TOE-son, Townson, Townsod, Townsend, Townsen, Towzen. One N, no Z.

We are Towson University, no longer Towson State University (and haven't been since July 1, 1997).

Our mascot is Doc The Tiger, named after Donald "Doc" Minnegan, long-time soccer coach and athletics department administrator.

Towson became the "Tigers" in 1962 after John Schuerholz (yes, the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame General Manager) pushed for the name change from the "Towson College Knights".

PAT SKERRY

Head Coach 8th Season • Tufts, '92

When Pat Skerry was announced as the 13th men's basketball head coach at Towson University on April 5, 2011, he took over a program that had endured 15-straight losing seasons.

The gritty Medford, Massachusetts native has revitalized the Towson men's basketball program, leading the Tigers to consistent success in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA).

Towson enters the 2019-20 season having won at least 18 games in five of the last seven years.

Overall, Towson has won at least 20 games in three of the last six years under Skerry. The Tigers have participated in two postseason tournaments in the last five years. In 2015-16 and 2016-17, Towson finished with at least 20 wins, the first time as a Division I program and the second in school history that Towson has won 20 games in consecutive seasons.

During the 2017-18 season, Towson won the Florida Gulf Coast Showcase and the Basketball Hall of Fame Belfast Classic. In addition, Towson had a 10-game winning streak, which was tied for the third best in program history. The Tigers started the season 10-1, which was the best in Towson's Division I era, and received votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll for the second time in program history. The Tigers also spent six weeks in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 poll peaking at No. 4 on Dec. 19, 2017.

Skerry, who won his 100th career game as Towson's head coach on Nov. 21, 2017 following a win over Penn, was the recipient of the 2017 Gene Bartow award, which recognizes outstanding achievement and contributions to the game.

After winning just one game during his first season, Skerry led the Tigers to an 18-13 record in 2012-13. Not only was it the first winning season since 1995-96, it was also the largest single-season turnaround in NCAA Division I history.

Following that historic campaign, Skerry led the Tigers to a school record 25 wins in the 2013-14 season. The Tigers ended the year ranked 84th in the RPI, marking the first time Towson finished the season in the Top 100. The Tigers also received their first votes in the national polls when they were receiving votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Towson won their first two postseason games as a Division I program in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The successful season was made even more special with the opening of SECU Arena. The Tigers opened the building with a 72-45 victory over Navy on Nov. 8 in front of an arena-record crowd of 4,262. Less than one week later, Towson defeated Temple, 75-69, on their new home floor.

The Tigers finished their first season in SECU Arena with a 15-1 record.

The staple of success during the Skerry era has been defense and rebounding. In three of the past four seasons, the Tigers have led the CAA in field goal percentage defense and rebounding.

Skerry has done an outstanding job of mixing in transfers to his recruiting classes. In his first season, Skerry landed Georgetown transfer Jerrelle Benimon. In his two seasons at Towson, Benimon led the conference in scoring and rebounding. He was named the CAA Player of the Year twice, while also earning All-America honors following his junior season.

Skerry's first recruiting class at Towson was ranked as the best in the CAA and sixth among all non-BCS schools, according to CBS Sports.

Hardwork is not just limited to the court under Skerry. Since taking over as head coach, the team GPA raised to 2.881. Since the Fall of 1999, six of the top eight semester GPA's have occurred under Skerry's watch. During the 2014-15 academic year, the men's basketball team had five players with at least a 3.0 GPA during the fall semester, and six players with a 3.0 during the spring semester.

Skerry has a perfect graduation rate since he became Towson's head coach with 21 players earning degrees. Following the 2016-17 season, the Tigers had a perfect APR multi-year score of 1,000.

Skerry has used his platform as a head coach and teamed up with University of South Florida assistant coach Tom Herrion to start Autism Awareness in college basketball.

What started as two guys with an idea in 2013, has turned into a national event where hundreds of coaches wear the prominent blue puzzle piece pin. The effort put forth by both Skerry and Herrion was recognized

Thompson helped Saint Stephens & Saint Agnes win the Interstate Athletic Conference tournament for the first time since 2007, making the Saints the outright champions in one of the area's toughest leagues. He was named to the Virginia Interscholastic School Athletic Association (VISAA) First Team and Player of the Year and IAC Player of the Year.

Signed, Sealed & Delivered

Towson signed three recruits during the November signing period: Chris Bieku (Montreal, Canada/Vanier College), Cory Barnes Jr. (Washington, D.C./Archbishop Carroll) & Darrick Jones Jr. (Richmond, Va./Oak Hill Academy).

Perfection When It Comes to Graduation

Towson has the highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) according to the NCAA's report released in October 2019. In addition, Towson has a perfect men's basketball graduation rate under head coach Pat Skerry. The Tigers are 23-for-23. Coupled with its recent perfect four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score and public recognition from the NCAA for posting scores in the top 10 percent of their sport, Skerry and the Tigers are accomplishing plenty on and off the court. In addition to the athletic and academic success, the Tigers also made an impact in the community last season as they ranked first nationally in Division I men's team sports for their community service activities in the 2017 NCAA Team Works Helper Helper Community Service Competition.

Tigers in the Community

The Towson University athletics department deems community service as one of its highest priorities to give back to the Greater Baltimore area. For the seventh consecutive year, the department exceeded 10,000 hours of community service to the Greater Baltimore region, finishing with 11,162 hours of community service in the 2018-19 academic season. Towson ranked No. 1 nationally for community service and won the 2018 National Championship for Community Service through the Helper Helper NCAA Team Works Competition. Towson had a 97% participation rate, attended 118 community service opportunities and volunteered with 19 organizations. Towson won the 2018 Volunteer of the Year Award from Susan G. Komen of Maryland.

Coaches Powering Forward

During the weekend of January 31, February 1 & 2 coaches from around the country raised money for autism through Coaches Powering Forward for Autism benefiting Autism Speaks. Coaches wore the blue puzzle piece pin on their suit jackets during the games. This was part of college basketball's autism awareness weekend, an effort started by Towson head men's basketball coach Pat Skerry and USF assistant men's basketball coach Tom Herrion. It has since gone national with support from the NABC and Autism Speaks.
