Head Coach Joe Mihalich: Entering his seventh season at the helm of the Hofstra Men's Basketball program in 2019-20, Joe Mihalich has engineered a strong resurgence of the Pride during his tenure. Mihalich has already captured 132 wins while at Hofstra and has averaged 21 victories per season over the past five years. Mihalich led Hofstra to a school-record 27 wins this past season and the Pride advanced to the National Invitation Tournament. Mihalich has won a total of 380 games during his highly-successful coaching career that includes 15 seasons at Niagara. During the magical 2018-19 season, Mihalich led the Pride to the first-ever outright regular season Colonial Athletic Association crown in program history and Hofstra had a spectacular 16-game win streak along the way. He was named the CAA Coach of the Year for his efforts, becoming the first Hofstra coach to earn that honor since the Pride joined the CAA in 2001-02. He also earned a slew of other coaching accolades as he was named the United States Basketball Writers Association District II Coach of the Year, the National Association of Basketball Coaches District 10 Coach of the Year and a finalist for the College Insider's Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award and the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award. Prior to the year he added to his awards as he was inducted into the Niagara Falls Sports Hall of Fame. In six seasons at Hofstra, Mihalich has engineered a masterful revitalization of the Pride Basketball program as he took over a program coming off a seven-win campaign and in only three years took the team to back-to-back 20-win campaigns and consecutive postseason appearances. The 2015-16 team went 24-10, winning the regular season CAA title and advancing to the NIT for the first time since 2007. In total, Mihalich has taken the Pride to postseason play three times during his tenure, including a pair of NIT appearances.

Notes About UCLA Win

- Hofstra's 13th-ever victory over a Power-5 program
 - Hofstra's first-ever win in seven tries against a current member of the Pac-12 Conference
 - The 88 points scored by Hofstra were the most scored against a Mick Cronin-coached team since Xavier scored 89 against his Cincinnati squad on December 2, 2017
 - Hofstra rallied from a 13-point first half. It was Hofstra's first double-digit comeback since a 15-point rally against Mount St. Mary's on November 9, 2018
 - Both Desure Buie (29) and Jalen Ray (27) had career-highs in points in the win. It marked the first time two players scored at least 20 points apiece for the Pride, and neither one was named Justin Wright-Foreman, since February 15, 2018, when Eli Pemberton (26 points) and Rokas Gustys (22 points) led the way in a 90-84 win over William & Mary.
 - Buie went 13-13 from the free throw line in the contest. That's the second-most free throws without a miss by a Hofstra player in the CAA era (2001-present) and the most since Justin Wright Foreman was 15-for-15 against UNCW on February 18, 2017.

Green And Bethea To Join The Pride: Hofstra Head Men's Basketball Coach Joe Mihalich announced on November 16 the signing of a pair of student-athletes to National Letters of Intent. Joining the Pride in the fall of 2020 to further their academic and athletic careers are David Green (Ocoee, FL) and Zion Bethea (South Orange, NJ). "We are so excited about David and Zion joining our program and the Hofstra community," commented Mihalich. "Both have the ability to be special players for us and we look forward to them showcasing their skills as members of the Pride in the near future. What a great day for the Hofstra family as we add two outstanding student-athletes!" Green, a 6-7 215-pound guard/forward, attends Ocoee High School in Ocoee, Florida. Green averaged 13 points and six rebounds per game last year in helping lead his team to the district championship game. Green scored over 30 points in three games last season and in addition, was named an all-star at the Hoop Group Elite Camp and he participated in the NCAA College Basketball Academy in July. A strong student, he is also a member of the National Honor Society. "David is a super-skilled wing who can be a mismatch at his size," mentioned Mihalich. "He is a terrific three-point shooter but also a good playmaker and excellent passer. David is a terrific kid who is quite versatile and comes from an excellent high school team." Bethea, a 6-3 205-pound guard, attends Immaculate Conception High School in Montclair, New Jersey. A four-year member of the basketball program, he averaged 16 points, six rebounds, and five assists as a junior, 12 points, four rebounds, and four assists as a sophomore, and 18 points, seven rebounds, and four assists as a freshman. He has earned a multitude of honor as he was Essex County First Team and All-Super Essex Conference First Team as a junior. He also already reached 1,000 career points and helped his team to a conference championship as a junior. "Zion is a strong, physical guard who can really score but plays with great basketball IQ," commented Mihalich. "He makes his teammates better and his team win. Zion comes from a great high school program with a winning culture and is a high character kid."
